D. 1073-2009, a. 5.

 RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

1° celui de l'excédent du montant de la lettre de crédit sur le montant pris en compte en application du troisième alinéa de l'article 123 de la Loi;

2° le montant par lequel le total de l'actif du régime et de cet excédent dépasse le total du passif du régime et de la provision pour écarts défavorables.

D. 1073-2009, a. 5.

15.0.0.6. Dans le cas où l'actif du régime de retraite excède à lui seul le total de son passif et de la provision pour écarts défavorables, la réduction prévue au paragraphe 2 de l'article 15.0.0.4 ne peut être supérieure à cet excédent.

Toutefois, si l'employeur affecte tout ou partie de l'excédent d'actif du régime à l'acquittement de cotisations patronales, le montant maximum de cette réduction est égal au reste de l'actif du régime après déduction de son passif, de la provision pour écarts défavorables et du total des montants indiqués dans un avis écrit que l'employeur doit transmettre au comité de retraite avec la demande de réduction et dans lequel il précise:

1° le montant qui sera affecté à l'acquittement de cotisations patronales pour la période comprise entre la date de la plus récente évaluation actuarielle du régime et celle de la première fin d'exercice financier du régime qui suit la date de cette évaluation, compte tenu de l'article 41 de la Loi;

2° le montant qui sera affecté à l'acquittement de cotisations patronales pour les 9 premiers mois de l'exercice financier qui suit celui visé au paragraphe 1.

Si le montant de la lettre de crédit peut être réduit à la fois selon les dispositions de l'article 15.0.0.5 et selon celles du présent article, la réduction demandée doit être effectuée conformément à l'article 15.0.0.5 en premier lieu.

D. 1073-2009, a. 5.

15.0.0.7. Si la réduction du montant de la lettre de crédit à laquelle le comité de retraite a consenti en application du paragraphe 2 de l'article 15.0.0.4 a un effet sur le montant pris en compte selon le troisième alinéa de l'article 123 de la Loi et que le rapport relatif à l'évaluation actuarielle visée par le paragraphe 2 de l'article 15.0.0.4 est par la suite modifié ou remplacé, la valeur de l'actif du régime déterminée selon l'approche de solvabilité doit être établie, aux fins de la modification ou du remplacement, en tenant compte de la réduction du montant de la lettre de crédit.

D. 1073-2009, a. 5.

15.0.0.8. En cas de non-renouvellement de la lettre de crédit, l'établissement financier qui l'a émise doit en payer le montant à la caisse de retraite. Le paiement n'est toutefois pas requis si le comité de retraite transmet à l'établissement financier, au moins 30 jours avant la date d'expiration de la lettre, un avis écrit à cet effet. Copie de cet avis doit sans délai être transmise à Retraite Québec.

D. 1073-2009, a. 5.

15.0.0.9. Lorsque le comité de retraite constate qu'une lettre de crédit qui lui a été fournie cesse d'être conforme aux normes du présent règlement, il doit en aviser sans délai l'employeur. Celui-ci peut, dans les 30 jours de cet avis, fournir au comité de retraite une nouvelle lettre de crédit ou une somme équivalente au montant de la lettre. Dans ces cas, le comité de retraite doit consentir à l'annulation de la lettre de crédit non conforme. Dans tout autre cas, il doit en demander le paiement dès l'expiration du délai de 30 jours.

D. 1073-2009, a. 5.

15.0.0.10. Sans préjudice des dispositions de l'article 15.0.0.4, en cas de terminaison du régime de retraite, le comité de retraite doit, dans le délai prévu au premier alinéa de l'article 207.2 de la Loi et après un avis de 10 jours à l'employeur, demander le paiement de la lettre de crédit à hauteur du montant représentant l'excédent de la valeur du passif du régime sur celle de son actif à la date de la terminaison, augmenté d'intérêts calculés au taux déterminé en application de l'article 61 de la Loi qui s'appliquait à cette date.

Le comité de retraite doit consentir à l'annulation de la lettre de crédit pour le solde.

D. 1073-2009, a. 5.

SECTION II.0.1PRESTATION ADDITIONNELLE

D. 173-2002, a. 14.

15.0.1. Pour l'application du premier alinéa de l'article 60.1 de la Loi:

1° la valeur des cotisations salariales visées à l'élément «A» est déterminée en tenant compte de la valeur de la rente résultant des services reconnus au participant relativement à toute période de travail durant laquelle les règles énoncées à l'article 60 de la Loi s'appliquent à son égard et en supposant qu'il ait droit, au titre du régime, à une rente dont la valeur est établie conformément au deuxième alinéa de l'article 60.1 de la Loi pour les services qui lui sont reconnus relativement à toute période de travail durant laquelle l'indexation prévue à cet article s'applique à son égard;

2° la valeur des cotisations salariales visées à l'élément «B» est déterminée en tenant compte de la valeur de la rente à laquelle le participant a droit pour les services qui lui sont reconnus relativement à toute période de travail durant laquelle, aux termes du régime, les règles énoncées à l'article 60 de la Loi s'appliquent à son égard.

D. 173-2002, a. 14.

15.0.2. La prestation additionnelle est, à la date où le participant cesse d'être actif, établie sous l'une ou l'autre des formes suivantes ou sous une combinaison de celles-ci, selon ce que prévoit le régime de retraite:

1° une rente viagère;

2° une prestation payable en un seul versement à la date où le participant cesse d'être actif.

D. 173-2002, a. 14; D. 204-2005, a. 1.

15.0.3. La rente viagère constituée avec la prestation additionnelle est déterminée, à la date où le participant cesse d'être actif, suivant les hypothèses visées à l'article 61 de la Loi qui sont utilisées à cette date pour établir la valeur de prestations auxquelles s'applique l'article 60 de la Loi et dont le droit s'acquiert à cette même date.

D. 173-2002, a. 14.

SECTION II.1DROITS DU PARTICIPANT ET VERSEMENT D'UNE PRESTATION ANTICIPÉE

D. 1681-97, a. 3.

15.1. Sous réserve de dispositions contraires prévues par le régime de retraite, sont d'abord affectés au paiement de la prestation anticipée visée à l'article 69.1 de la Loi, les droits du participant qui, accumulés au titre de remboursements ou de prestations, sont fonction des sommes qui ont été portées au compte du participant au titre de cotisations versées, d'actifs transférés et d'intérêts sur ces cotisations et actifs mais n'ont pas encore servi à la constitution d'une prestation.

D. 1681-97, a. 3.

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

15.2. Lorsque la prestation anticipée visée à l'article 69.1 de la Loi est acquittée sur les droits visés à l'article 15.1, la valeur de ces droits, établie à la date du paiement, est réduite du montant de la prestation.

D. 1681-97, a. 3.

15.3. Lorsque la prestation anticipée visée à l'article 69.1 de la Loi est acquittée sur les droits du participant au titre du régime qui ne sont pas visés à l'article 15.1, le comité de retraite détermine le montant de la partie de la rente normale qui aurait été payable au participant à l'âge normal de la retraite et qui équivaut au montant de la prestation versée.

Ce montant, ainsi que la valeur des droits visés au paragraphe 3 du premier alinéa de l'article 69.1 de la Loi, doivent être déterminés à la date du paiement suivant les conditions et caractéristiques de la rente normale et suivant les hypothèses visées à l'article 61 de la Loi, autres que celles relatives à l'anticipation et à l'ajournement de la rente, qui sont utilisées à cette date pour établir la valeur d'autres prestations auxquelles s'applique l'article 60 de la Loi et dont le droit s'acquiert à cette date.

Les droits visés au premier alinéa sont ensuite réduits de la manière suivante:

1° la rente servie est réduite du montant déterminé conformément au deuxième alinéa ou, si ses conditions et caractéristiques, à l'exception de celles relatives à l'anticipation et à l'ajournement, diffèrent de celles utilisées pour établir ce montant ou que son service commence à une date autre que celle de l'âge normal de la retraite, d'une somme équivalente à ce montant;

2° toute autre prestation, à l'exclusion de celle visée à l'article 69.1 de la Loi, et tout remboursement payables au participant sont réduits de la valeur de la partie de la rente dont le montant est déterminé conformément au deuxième alinéa.

D. 1681-97, a. 3; D. 173-2002, a. 15.

SECTION II.2RENTE TEMPORAIRE

D. 1681-97, a. 3.

15.4. Un participant ou conjoint n'a droit au remplacement de la rente à laquelle il a acquis droit au titre d'un régime de retraite par la rente temporaire visée à l'article 91.1 de la Loi que s'il fournit au comité de retraite une déclaration conforme à celle prévue à l'annexe 0.1.

D. 1681-97, a. 3.

SECTION IIIOPTION DE REMPLACEMENT DE LA RENTE

16. Pour l'application de la présente section, le conjoint du constituant qui est un ancien participant ou un participant est celui qui satisfait aux conditions prévues au premier et au troisième alinéas de l'article 85 de la Loi, compte tenu des adaptations nécessaires lorsqu'il s'agit d'un ancien participant.

La qualité de ce conjoint s'établit au jour de la conversion de tout ou partie du solde du fonds en rente viagère ou, dans le cas de la prestation visée au paragraphe 4 du premier alinéa de l'article 19, au jour qui précède celui du décès du constituant. Le quatrième alinéa de l'article 85 de la Loi s'applique, compte tenu des adaptations nécessaires, à l'égard de ce conjoint.

D. 1158-90, a. 16; D. 173-2002, a. 16.

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

16.1. Le participant ou conjoint qui a acquis droit à une rente au titre d'un régime de retraite à cotisation déterminée ou au titre de dispositions qui, dans un régime à prestations déterminées ou à cotisation et prestations déterminées, sont identiques à celles d'un régime à cotisation déterminée, a le droit de la remplacer avant qu'elle soit servie par un paiement en un seul versement sur demande au comité de retraite accompagnée d'une déclaration conforme à celle prévue à l'annexe 0.2, dans les conditions suivantes:

1° il est âgé d'au moins 65 ans;

2° le total des sommes accumulées pour son compte dans les instruments d'épargne-retraite mentionnés à l'annexe 0.2 n'excède pas 40% du maximum des gains admissibles établi conformément à la Loi sur le régime de rentes du Québec (chapitre R-9) pour l'année au cours de laquelle il demande le paiement.

D. 1681-97, a. 4.

16.2. Sur demande au comité de retraite accompagnée d'une déclaration conforme à celle prévue à l'annexe 0.3, le participant ou conjoint âgé d'au moins 55 ans mais de moins de 65 ans qui a acquis droit à une rente au titre d'un régime de retraite a le droit de la remplacer partiellement, avant qu'elle soit servie, par le paiement en un seul versement d'un montant égal au montant «Y» de la formule suivante:

$$G - W = Y$$

Le participant ou conjoint ne peut présenter une demande prévue au premier alinéa plus d'une fois par année.

D. 1681-97, a. 4; D. 500-2014, a. 4.

16.3. Les articles 15.1 à 15.3 s'appliquent, compte tenu des adaptations nécessaires, en ce qui concerne l'affectation des droits et la détermination des droits résiduels du participant ou conjoint à qui un paiement visé à l'article 16.2 a été versé.

D. 1681-97, a. 4.

17. Le participant ou conjoint qui a acquis droit à une rente au titre d'un régime de retraite peut la remplacer par une rente viagère ou temporaire constituée avec un fonds de revenu viager visé à l'article 18. L'exercice de cette option comporte le transfert de la valeur de la rente à remplacer dans un fonds de revenu viager.

À moins que le régime de retraite ne comporte une disposition plus avantageuse, il n'est procédé au remplacement de la rente prévue par le régime par une rente constituée avec un fonds de revenu viager que si la rente à remplacer peut, aux termes de la Loi, du régime ou du présent règlement, faire l'objet d'un transfert partiel ou total dans un autre régime de retraite.

D. 1158-90, a. 17; D. 1681-97, a. 5.

18. Le fonds de revenu viager est celui qui est établi en vertu d'un contrat intervenu entre un établissement financier dûment habilité à cette fin et un constituant qui est un ancien participant, un participant ou son conjoint, et aux termes duquel, en contrepartie du capital qu'il reçoit, l'établissement doit verser au constituant un revenu dont le montant peut varier annuellement. Ce contrat doit satisfaire aux exigences que requiert la Loi sur les impôts (chapitre I-3) pour être un fonds enregistré de revenu de retraite.

D. 1158-90, a. 18; D. 1681-97, a. 6.

19. Le remplacement de la rente visée à l'article 92 de la Loi par une rente viagère n'est autorisé que si les dispositions du contrat établissant le fonds de revenu viager sont conformes à celles du contrat type préalablement enregistré auprès de Retraite Québec qui prévoient:

0.1° que les seules sommes qui peuvent être transférées dans le fonds de revenu viager sont celles provenant, directement ou initialement, de la caisse d'un régime de retraite régi par la Loi ou visé au paragraphe 1, 2, 2.1, 2.2, 4 ou 5 de l'article 28, ou d'un fonds de revenu viager;

1° que l'exercice financier du fonds doit se terminer le 31 décembre de chaque année et ne peut excéder 12 mois;

2° que le montant du revenu versé au cours d'un exercice financier est, sous réserve du plafond visé à l'article 20.1 et du plancher visé à l'article 20.2, fixé par le constituant à chaque année, ou à un autre intervalle convenu de plus d'une année si l'établissement financier garantit le solde du fonds à la fin de cet intervalle et si le constituant n'a pas droit au versement du revenu sous une forme autre que viagère; un tel intervalle doit, dans tous les cas, se terminer à la fin d'un exercice financier du fonds;

3° (paragraphe abrogé);

4° que dans le cas où le constituant qui est un ancien participant ou un participant décède avant la conversion de la totalité du solde du fonds en rente viagère, son conjoint ou, à défaut, ses ayants cause ont droit à une prestation dont le montant est égal à ce solde;

5° que le conjoint du constituant qui est un ancien participant ou un participant peut, par avis écrit notifié à l'établissement financier, renoncer à son droit de recevoir la prestation prévue au paragraphe 4 ci-dessus ou la rente prévue au paragraphe 2 du deuxième alinéa de l'article 23, et qu'il peut révoquer une telle renonciation en notifiant à l'établissement financier un avis écrit à cet effet avant le décès du constituant, dans le cas de la prestation, et avant la date de conversion de tout ou partie du solde du fonds en rente viagère, dans celui de la rente;

6° que le conjoint du constituant qui est un ancien participant ou un participant cesse d'avoir droit à la prestation prévue au paragraphe 2 du deuxième alinéa de l'article 23 lors d'une séparation de corps, d'un divorce, d'une annulation de mariage, d'une dissolution ou d'une annulation d'union civile ou, s'il est non lié par un mariage ou une union civile, lors de la cessation de vie maritale, à moins que le constituant ait transmis à l'établissement financier l'avis prévu à l'article 89 de la Loi;

6.0.1° que la partie saisissable du solde du fonds peut être payée en un seul versement en exécution d'un jugement qui, rendu en faveur du conjoint du constituant, fait droit à une saisie pour dette alimentaire;

6.1° que la totalité du solde du fonds peut être payée en un seul versement au constituant sur demande à l'établissement financier accompagnée d'une déclaration conforme à celle prévue à l'annexe 0.2, dans les conditions suivantes:

a) le constituant était âgé d'au moins 65 ans à la fin de l'année précédant la demande;

b) le total des sommes accumulées pour son compte dans les instruments d'épargne-retraite mentionnés à l'annexe 0.2 n'excède pas 40% du maximum des gains admissibles établi conformément à la Loi sur le régime de rentes du Québec (chapitre R-9) pour l'année au cours de laquelle le constituant demande le paiement;

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

7° que le constituant peut transférer tout ou partie du solde du fonds dans un régime de retraite régi par la Loi ou visé au paragraphe 1, 2, 2.1, 2.2, 3.1, 4 ou 5 de l'article 28, à moins que le terme convenu des placements ne soit pas échu;

7.1° que le constituant peut, à moins que le terme convenu des placements ne soit pas échu, exiger que la totalité du solde du fonds lui soit payée en un seul versement s'il ne réside plus au Canada depuis au moins 2 ans;

8° les nom et adresse de l'établissement financier;

9° les pouvoirs qui, le cas échéant, sont accordés au constituant relativement au placement du capital;

10° la méthode et les facteurs utilisés pour établir la valeur du fonds ou, selon le cas, du solde du fonds aux fins d'un transfert d'actifs ou d'une conversion en rente, ou lors d'un décès;

10.1° que si le revenu versé au constituant au cours d'un exercice financier du fonds excède le montant maximum qui peut lui être versé conformément aux dispositions du contrat ou du présent règlement, le constituant peut, à moins que ce versement ne soit attribuable à une fausse déclaration de sa part, exiger que l'établissement financier lui paie, à titre de pénalité, une somme égale à l'excédent de revenu versé;

11° que l'établissement financier ne peut apporter aucune modification qui aurait pour effet de réduire des droits résultant du contrat à moins que le constituant ait, avant la date de la modification, droit au transfert du solde du fonds et ait reçu, au moins 90 jours avant la date où il peut exercer ce droit, un avis lui indiquant l'objet de la modification ainsi que la date à compter de laquelle il peut exercer ce droit;

12° que le transfert visé aux paragraphes 7 et 11 peut, au choix de l'établissement financier et à moins de stipulations contraires, être effectué par la remise des titres de placements du fonds;

13° que l'établissement financier ne peut, sauf pour satisfaire aux exigences d'une loi, apporter aucune modification autre que celle prévue au paragraphe 11 sans en avoir avisé préalablement le constituant;

14° que l'établissement financier peut modifier le contrat dans la seule mesure où il demeure conforme au contrat type modifié et enregistré auprès de Retraite Québec.

Les articles 27 à 31 de la Loi ainsi que les deuxième et troisième alinéas de l'article 32 de cette Loi s'appliquent, compte tenu des adaptations nécessaires, à l'enregistrement d'un contrat type visant à proposer l'établissement d'un fonds de revenu viager ainsi qu'à ses modifications. L'enregistrement d'un tel contrat type peut en outre être radié lorsqu'aucun contrat conforme à celui-ci et établissant un fonds de revenu viager n'est en cours et que l'établissement financier intéressé atteste qu'il n'entend plus conclure de contrat conforme à ce contrat type.

D. 1158-90, a. 19; D. 1681-97, a. 7; D. 173-2002, a. 17; D. 1073-2009, a. 6; D. 500-2014, a. 5.

19.1. Le contrat type visé à l'article 19 peut également prévoir que le constituant a droit au versement d'un revenu temporaire qu'il détermine s'il satisfait aux conditions suivantes:

1° présenter à l'établissement financier une demande en ce sens, accompagnée d'une déclaration conforme à celle prévue à l'annexe 0.4;

2° avoir été âgé d'au moins 54 ans mais de moins de 65 ans à la fin de l'année précédant celle visée par la demande.

Dans ce cas, le contrat doit stipuler:

1° que, si le versement d'une partie du revenu s'effectue sous la forme d'un transfert dans un instrument d'épargne-retraite dont le solde n'a pas à être converti en rente viagère, cette partie ne peut excéder le plafond visé à l'article 20, établi en supposant que le constituant n'a pas droit au versement d'un revenu temporaire;

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

2° que le revenu temporaire ne peut être versé après la fin de l'année au cours de laquelle le constituant atteint l'âge de 65 ans.

D. 1681-97, a. 8.

19.2. Le contrat type qui comporte les dispositions visées à l'article 19.1 doit prévoir que le constituant peut, au cours d'un exercice financier du fonds de revenu viager, recevoir sur demande tout ou partie du solde du fonds sous la forme d'un revenu temporaire payable en versements mensuels dont aucun ne peut excéder $\frac{1}{12}$ de la différence entre les montants suivants:

1° 40% du maximum des gains admissibles établi, pour l'année du paiement, conformément à la Loi sur le régime de rentes du Québec (chapitre R-9);

2° 75% des revenus du constituant pour les 12 mois qui suivent, à l'exclusion du revenu prévu au présent article, pourvu qu'il soit satisfait aux conditions suivantes:

— les revenus du constituant pour les 12 mois qui suivent, à l'exclusion du revenu prévu au présent article, n'excèdent pas le montant visé au paragraphe 1 ci-dessus;

— le constituant présente à l'établissement financier une demande en ce sens accompagnée d'une déclaration conforme à celle prévue à l'annexe 0.5 et de son engagement écrit de demander l'interruption des versements dès que ses revenus, à l'exclusion du revenu prévu au présent article, atteignent le montant visé au paragraphe 1 ci-dessus;

— le constituant était âgé de moins de 54 ans à la fin de l'année précédant la demande.

Dans ce cas, le contrat doit stipuler:

1° que le revenu prévu au présent article ne peut être versé au constituant lorsque celui-ci a demandé l'interruption des versements ni après la fin de l'année au cours de laquelle il atteint 54 ans;

2° que le constituant qui a droit de recevoir le revenu prévu au présent article et qui est un participant ou conjoint qui a acquis droit à une rente au titre d'un régime de retraite peut, pour les fins du remplacement de cette rente par ce revenu temporaire, demander une fois par année le transfert, du régime de retraite dans le fonds de revenu viager, d'une somme égale au moindre des montants suivants:

a) le montant additionnel requis pour que le solde du fonds de revenu viager permette, jusqu'à la fin de l'année, le service des versements mensuels prévus au premier alinéa;

b) la valeur de ses droits au titre du régime.

D. 1681-97, a. 8; D. 577-98, a. 1.

19.3. Le remplacement de la rente visée à l'article 92 de la Loi par une rente temporaire n'est autorisé que si le contrat établissant le fonds de revenu viager comporte les dispositions exigées par les articles 19, 19.1 et 19.2.

D. 1681-97, a. 8.

20. Le plafond du revenu viager pour un exercice financier du fonds de revenu viager est égal au montant «E» de la formule suivante:

A

D

«F» représente le facteur prévu à l'annexe 0.6 en rapport avec le taux de référence de l'année couverte par l'exercice et l'âge du constituant à la fin de l'année précédente;

20.2. Le montant du revenu versé au cours d'un exercice financier du fonds de revenu viager ne peut être inférieur au montant minimum prescrit par la Loi sur les impôts (chapitre I-3), déterminé en fonction de l'âge du constituant. Ce montant peut être déterminé en fonction de l'âge du conjoint du constituant, s'il est plus jeune que le constituant.

D. 1681-97, a. 9.

20.3. Lorsque le constituant d'un fonds de revenu viager établi par un contrat qui prévoit le versement d'un revenu temporaire était âgé d'au moins 54 ans mais de moins de 65 ans à la fin de l'année précédant celle couverte par un exercice financier du fonds, l'établissement financier qui gère le fonds doit établir un revenu temporaire de référence dont le montant est égal au moindre des suivants:

1° 40% du maximum des gains admissibles établi, pour l'année couverte par l'exercice, conformément à la Loi sur le régime de rentes du Québec (chapitre R-9);

2° le montant «R» de la formule suivante:

$$F \times C \times D = R$$

«F» représente le facteur prévu à l'annexe 0.6 en rapport avec le taux de référence de l'année couverte par l'exercice et l'âge du constituant à la fin de l'année précédente;

«C» représente le solde du fonds au début de l'exercice, augmenté des sommes transférées au fonds après cette date et réduit des sommes provenant directement ou non au cours de la même année d'un fonds de revenu viager du constituant ou du compte immobilisé de son régime volontaire d'épargne-retraite régi par la Loi sur les régimes volontaires d'épargne-retraite (chapitre R-17.0.1) et offrant des paiements variables;

- 1° le revenu temporaire de référence établi selon l'article 20.3;
- 2° le montant «X» de la formule suivante:

$$G - T = X$$

«G» est égal à 40% du maximum des gains admissibles établi, pour l'année couverte par l'exercice, conformément à la Loi sur le régime de rentes du Québec (chapitre R-9);

«T» représente la somme des montants suivants:

- a) le total des revenus temporaires que le constituant doit recevoir au cours de l'année couverte par l'exercice financier en vertu d'un régime de retraite régi ou établi par une loi ou en vertu d'un contrat constitutif d'une rente dont le capital provient directement ou non d'un tel régime;
- b) le total des montants que le constituant a fixés ou qu'il doit fixer pour ses autres fonds de revenu viager à titre de revenu temporaire maximum de l'exercice financier en cours;
- c) le total des montants que le participant a fixé ou qu'il doit fixer pour les comptes immobilisés de ses régimes volontaires d'épargne-retraite régis par la Loi sur les régimes volontaires d'épargne-retraite (chapitre R-17.0.1) à titre de paiements variables temporaires maximums de l'année en cours.

Toutefois, dans le cas où le revenu temporaire de référence établi selon l'article 20.3 est inférieur au montant «X» du premier alinéa, si le constituant fournit à l'établissement financier une déclaration conforme à celle prévue à l'annexe 0.8, le constituant peut fixer, à titre de revenu temporaire maximum, un montant qui n'excède pas le moindre des suivants:

- 1° le montant «X» du premier alinéa;
- 2° le solde du fonds au début de l'exercice, augmenté des sommes transférées au fonds et des revenus réalisés sur le fonds après cette date et réduit des sommes provenant directement ou non au cours de la même année d'un fonds de revenu viager du constituant ou du compte immobilisé d'un régime volontaire d'épargne-retraite régi par la Loi sur les régimes volontaires d'épargne-retraite et offrant des paiements variables.

Le constituant peut, en tout temps avant la fin de l'exercice, fixer de nouveau, en l'augmentant, le revenu temporaire maximum de l'exercice. Il doit alors transmettre à l'établissement financier des déclarations conformes à celles prévues aux annexes 0.4 et 0.8.

D. 1681-97, a. 9; D. 500-2014, a. 8.

20.5. L'établissement financier détermine le revenu temporaire maximum pour l'exercice financier du fonds de revenu viager à la suite de la présentation d'une demande conformément à l'article 19.2. Ce revenu est égal au produit du versement mensuel maximum établi selon le premier alinéa de l'article 19.2 par le nombre de mois qui restent à écouler dans l'année à compter du premier jour du mois de la demande ou, si le constituant a droit pour ce mois à un revenu temporaire en raison d'une demande antérieure, du premier du mois suivant; ce produit est, le cas échéant, augmenté de tout revenu prévu à l'article 19.2 payé au constituant durant l'année mais avant le versement du revenu payable par suite de la demande et réduit de tout revenu payé au constituant, pendant cette même période, sur un autre fonds de revenu viager.

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

Le revenu temporaire maximum de l'exercice ne peut être inférieur à zéro.

D. 577-98, a. 3.

21. Le taux de référence pour une année est établi sur la base du taux d'intérêt nominal de fin de mois obtenu sur les obligations à long terme émises par le gouvernement du Canada pour le mois de novembre précédant le début de l'exercice, tel que compilé mensuellement par Statistique Canada et publié dans la revue Statistiques bancaires et financières de la Banque du Canada dans la série V122487 du fichier CANSIM, en appliquant successivement à ce taux les ajustements suivants:

1° une majoration de 0,5%;

2° la conversion du taux majoré, lequel repose sur un intérêt composé semestriellement, en taux d'intérêt effectif annuel;

3° l'arrondissement du taux d'intérêt effectif au plus proche multiple de 0,5%.

Le taux de référence ainsi établi ne peut toutefois être inférieur à 6%.

D. 1158-90, a. 21; D. 1681-97, a. 10; D. 1073-2009, a. 7.

22. Lorsqu'en application du paragraphe 2 du premier alinéa de l'article 19, le montant du revenu viager versé au constituant est fixé à un intervalle de plus d'une année, le montant maximum du revenu qui peut être versé au cours de chacun des exercices financiers compris dans l'intervalle est déterminé, à la date du début du premier de ces exercices, de manière à être égal:

1° pour l'exercice initial, au plafond déterminé en application de l'article 20;

2° pour chacun des exercices subséquents, au montant «L» de la formule suivante:

$$M \times \frac{J}{K} = L$$

«M» représente le plafond déterminé pour l'exercice initial;

«J», représente le solde du fonds au début de l'exercice;

Pour l'application du paragraphe 2, le solde de référence du fonds au début de l'exercice initial est égal au solde du fonds à cette date.

23. Pour être enregistré par Retraite Québec, le contrat type visé à l'article 19 doit, outre les dispositions exigées par les articles 19, 19.1 et 19.2, prévoir que l'établissement financier qui gère le fonds de revenu viager s'engage à fournir les relevés prévus aux articles 24 à 26 aux moments qui y sont déterminés.

Ce contrat doit aussi prévoir que la conversion de tout ou partie du solde du fonds en rente viagère ne peut être faite qu'aux conditions suivantes:

2° dans le cas du décès du constituant qui est un ancien participant ou un participant, l'assureur garantit à son conjoint qui n'y a pas renoncé une rente viagère au moins égale à 60% du montant de la rente du constituant incluant, le cas échéant, pendant la durée du remplacement, le montant de la rente temporaire.

Les dispositions exigées par le présent article doivent faire partie de tout contrat établissant un fonds de revenu viager.

1° le solde du fonds à cette date et, le cas échéant, la conciliation de ce solde avec celui indiqué dans le relevé pertinent précédent avec, notamment, l'indication des sommes déposées, des gains accumulés, des retraits effectués et des frais débités;

c) l'effet du versement d'un revenu supérieur au montant visé au paragraphe 3, à chaque année jusqu'à la fin de celle où le constituant atteindra l'âge de 65 ans, sur le revenu qui pourrait lui être versé après cette date;

d) dans quelles conditions le constituant peut obtenir le versement d'un revenu temporaire supérieur au revenu temporaire de référence;

6° lorsque le contrat qui établit le fonds prévoit le versement d'un revenu temporaire et que le constituant était âgé de moins de 54 ans à la fin de l'année précédente, les conditions que le constituant doit remplir pour avoir droit au versement du revenu temporaire visé à l'article 19.2;

7° que le transfert dans le fonds de sommes provenant directement ou non d'un fonds de revenu viager ou du compte immobilisé d'un régime volontaire d'épargne-retraite régi par la Loi sur les régimes volontaires d'épargne-retraite et offrant des paiements variables du constituant au cours de la même année ne peut entraîner la révision du montant maximum qui peut être servi au constituant par le fonds au cours de l'exercice;

8° que si le constituant désire transférer tout ou partie du solde du fonds tout en recevant de ce fonds le revenu qu'il a fixé pour l'exercice, il doit s'assurer que le solde du fonds à la suite du transfert soit au moins égal à la différence entre le revenu fixé pour l'exercice et celui qu'il a déjà reçu depuis le début de l'exercice.

Lorsque le contrat qui établit le fonds prévoit le versement d'un revenu temporaire et que le constituant était âgé d'au moins 54 ans mais de moins de 65 ans à la fin de l'année précédente, l'établissement financier doit joindre à ce relevé un exemplaire des déclarations conformes à celles prévues aux annexes 0.4 et 0.8.

Cette convention doit satisfaire aux exigences que requiert la Loi sur les impôts (chapitre I-3) pour être un régime enregistré d'épargne-retraite.

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

La convention établissant le compte de retraite immobilisé doit être conforme au contrat type préalablement enregistré auprès de Retraite Québec qui doit prévoir:

1° que les seules sommes qui peuvent être transférées dans le compte de retraite immobilisé sont celles provenant, directement ou initialement, de la caisse d'un régime de retraite régi par la Loi ou visé au paragraphe 1, 2, 2.1, 2.2, 3.1 ou 5 de l'article 28, ou d'un autre compte de retraite immobilisé;

4° que le constituant peut exiger la conversion du solde du compte en rente viagère en tout temps, à moins que le terme convenu des placements ne soit pas échu;

5° que le solde du compte ne peut être converti en rente garantie par un assureur que si, au décès du constituant qui est un ancien participant ou un participant, il est accordé à son conjoint qui n'y a pas renoncé une rente viagère au moins égale à 60% du montant de la rente du constituant incluant, le cas échéant, pendant la durée du remplacement, le montant de la rente temporaire;

6° que le conjoint du constituant peut, par avis écrit notifié à l'établissement financier, renoncer à son droit de recevoir le versement prévu au paragraphe 3 ou la rente prévue au paragraphe 5, et qu'il peut révoquer une telle renonciation en transmettant à l'établissement financier un avis écrit à cet effet avant le décès du constituant, dans le cas visé au paragraphe 3, et avant la date de conversion de tout ou partie du solde du compte en rente viagère, dans le cas visé au paragraphe 5;

7° que le conjoint du constituant cesse d'avoir droit à la prestation prévue au paragraphe 3 ou, selon le cas, au paragraphe 5 lors d'une séparation de corps, d'un divorce, d'une annulation de mariage, d'une dissolution ou d'une annulation d'union civile ou, s'il est non lié par un mariage ou une union civile, lors de la cessation de vie maritale, à moins que le constituant ait transmis à l'établissement financier l'avis prévu à l'article 89 de la Loi;

8° que le constituant peut transférer tout ou partie du solde du compte dans un régime de retraite régi par la Loi ou visé au paragraphe 1, 2, 2.1, 2.2, 3.1, 4 ou 5 de l'article 28, à moins que le terme convenu des placements ne soit pas échu;

8.1° que le constituant peut, à moins que le terme convenu des placements ne soit pas échu, exiger que la totalité du solde du compte lui soit payée en un seul versement s'il ne réside plus au Canada depuis au moins 2 ans;

9° que le constituant peut retirer tout ou partie du solde du compte et recevoir un paiement ou une série de paiements lorsqu'un médecin certifie que son invalidité physique ou mentale réduit son espérance de vie;

9.1° que la totalité du solde du compte peut être payée en un seul versement au constituant sur demande à l'établissement financier accompagnée d'une déclaration conforme à celle prévue à l'annexe 0.2, dans les conditions suivantes:

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

- a) le constituant était âgé d'au moins 65 ans à la fin de l'année précédant la demande;
- b) le total des sommes accumulées pour son compte dans les instruments d'épargne-retraite mentionnés à l'annexe 0.2 n'excède pas 40% du maximum des gains admissibles établi conformément à la Loi sur le régime de rentes du Québec (chapitre R-9) pour l'année au cours de laquelle le constituant demande le paiement;
- 10° que le constituant a droit de recevoir, au moins une fois l'an, un relevé indiquant les sommes déposées, leur provenance, les gains accumulés, les frais débités depuis le dernier relevé ainsi que le solde du compte;
- 10.1° que si une somme est payée sur le compte en contravention des dispositions de la convention ou du présent règlement, le constituant peut, à moins que ce paiement ne soit attribuable à une fausse déclaration de sa part, exiger que l'établissement financier lui verse, à titre de pénalité, une somme égale au paiement irrégulier;
- 11° que l'établissement financier ne peut apporter aucune modification qui aurait pour effet de réduire des droits résultant de la convention à moins que le constituant ait, avant la date de la modification, droit au transfert du solde du compte et ait reçu, au moins 90 jours avant la date où il peut exercer ce droit, un avis lui indiquant l'objet de la modification ainsi que la date à compter de laquelle il peut exercer ce droit;
- 12° que le transfert visé aux paragraphes 8 et 11 peut, au choix de l'établissement financier et à moins de stipulations contraires, être effectué par la remise des titres de placement relatifs au compte;
- 13° que l'établissement financier ne peut, sauf pour satisfaire aux exigences d'une loi, apporter aucune modification autre que celle prévue au paragraphe 11 sans en avoir avisé préalablement le constituant;
- 14° que l'établissement financier peut modifier la convention dans la seule mesure où elle demeure conforme au contrat type modifié et enregistré auprès de Retraite Québec.

Les articles 27 à 31 de la Loi ainsi que les deuxième et troisième alinéas de l'article 32 de cette Loi s'appliquent, compte tenu des adaptations nécessaires, à l'enregistrement d'un contrat type visant à proposer l'établissement d'un compte de retraite immobilisé ainsi qu'à ses modifications. L'enregistrement d'un tel contrat type peut en outre être radié lorsqu'aucune convention conforme à celui-ci et établissant un compte de retraite immobilisé n'est en cours et que l'établissement financier intéressé atteste qu'il n'entend plus conclure de convention conforme à ce contrat type.

Le texte de ce contrat doit prévoir:

- 1° que l'assureur ne peut, aux fins de la constitution de la rente, accepter que des sommes provenant, directement ou initialement, de la caisse de retraite d'un régime régi par la Loi ou visé au paragraphe 1, 2, 2.1, 2.2, 3.1 ou 4 de l'article 28, ou d'un autre assureur partie à un contrat de rente semblable;
- 2° qu'à l'exception des cas visés au paragraphe 3 ou à l'article 31, la prestation résultant du contrat ne peut être versée au constituant ou à son conjoint que sous forme de rente viagère établie pour la durée de la vie du constituant seul ou pour la durée de la vie du constituant et celle de son conjoint; les montants périodiques versés au titre de cette rente doivent être égaux à moins que chaque montant à verser soit uniformément augmenté en fonction d'un indice ou taux prévu au contrat ou qu'il soit uniformément modifié en raison d'une saisie pratiquée sur les droits du constituant, du nouvel établissement de la rente du constituant, du partage des droits du constituant avec son conjoint, du versement d'une rente temporaire selon les conditions prévues à l'article 91.1 de la Loi ou de l'option prévue au paragraphe 3 du premier alinéa de l'article 93 de la Loi;

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

3° que, dans le cas où le constituant qui est un ancien participant ou un participant décède avant le début du service de la rente, son conjoint ou, à défaut, ses ayants cause ont droit à une prestation au moins égale au capital transféré à l'assureur, avec les intérêts accumulés au taux obtenu mensuellement sur les dépôts personnels à terme de 5 ans dans les banques à charte et tel que compilé par la Banque du Canada;

4° que, dans le cas où le constituant qui est un ancien participant ou un participant décède après le début du service de sa rente, l'assureur accorde à son conjoint qui n'y a pas renoncé une rente viagère au moins égale à 60% du montant de la rente du constituant incluant, le cas échéant, pendant la durée du remplacement, le montant de la rente temporaire;

5° que le conjoint du constituant peut, par avis écrit notifié à l'assureur, renoncer à son droit de recevoir la prestation prévue au paragraphe 3 ou la rente prévue au paragraphe 4, et qu'il peut révoquer une telle renonciation en notifiant à l'assureur un avis écrit à cet effet avant le décès du constituant, dans le cas de la prestation, et avant la date du début du service de la rente au constituant, dans le cas de la rente;

6° que le conjoint du constituant cesse d'avoir droit à la prestation prévue au paragraphe 3 ou, selon le cas, au paragraphe 4 lors d'une séparation de corps, d'un divorce, d'une annulation de mariage, d'une dissolution ou d'une annulation d'union civile ou, s'il est non lié par un mariage ou une union civile, lors de la cessation de vie maritale, à moins que le constituant ait transmis à l'assureur l'avis prévu à l'article 89 de la Loi;

7° que, dans le cas où la rente servie au constituant a été établie en tenant compte du droit de son conjoint à la rente prévue au paragraphe 4, le constituant peut, si le conjoint n'a plus droit à cette rente en vertu du paragraphe 6, exiger que sa rente soit remplacée par une autre qui comporte les mêmes caractéristiques que la rente remplacée, à l'exception du droit attribué au conjoint par le paragraphe 4, et dont la valeur est égale à celle de cette rente, actualisée à la date de cette demande;

8° que la partie saisissable du capital accumulé pour le service de la rente peut être payée en un seul versement en exécution d'un jugement qui, rendu en faveur du conjoint du constituant, fait droit à une saisie pour dette alimentaire.

1° que le constituant peut transférer tout ou partie de la valeur actualisée de la rente qu'il reçoit ou de sa rente différée dans un régime de retraite régi par la Loi ou visé au paragraphe 1, 2, 2.1, 2.2, 3.1, 4 ou 5 de l'article 28;

2° que le constituant peut, si un médecin certifie que son invalidité physique ou mentale réduit son espérance de vie, remplacer tout ou partie de sa rente différée par un paiement ou une série de paiements; ce paiement ou, selon le cas, la somme de ces paiements doit au moins égaler la valeur actualisée de la rente ou de la partie de la rente remplacée;

3° que, s'il remplit les conditions suivantes:

— présenter une demande en ce sens à l'assureur, accompagnée d'une déclaration conforme à celle prévue à l'annexe 0.10, avant le début du service de la rente à remplacer;

— être âgé d'au moins 55 ans mais de moins de 65 ans, le constituant peut remplacer en tout ou en partie la rente visée au paragraphe 2 de l'article 30 par une rente temporaire dont le montant annuel ne peut excéder 40% du maximum des gains admissibles établi conformément à la Loi sur le régime de rentes du Québec (chapitre R-9) pour l'année au cours de laquelle commence son service.

SECTION V

CESSION DE DROITS ENTRE CONJOINTS

§ 1. — Domaine d'application et interprétation

32. La présente section ne s'applique qu'aux régimes de retraite régis par le chapitre I de la Loi.

D. 1158-90, a. 32.

33. Pour l'application de la présente section:

«droits en capital» s'entend des droits qui ont été accumulés par le participant au titre de remboursements, de rentes ou autres prestations lorsque ces droits sont fonction de sommes qui, portées à son compte au titre de cotisations versées, d'actifs transférés et d'intérêts sur ces cotisations et actifs, n'ont pas encore servi à la constitution d'une rente ou d'une autre prestation;

1° aux fins de la préparation du relevé prévu à l'article 108 de la Loi:

a) la date de l'introduction de l'instance, si le relevé est demandé après introduction d'une demande en justice prévue au premier alinéa de cet article;

b) la date de la cessation de la vie commune du participant et de son conjoint, si le relevé est demandé à l'occasion d'une médiation effectuée préalablement à des procédures en matière familiale;

c) la date fixée pour l'établissement de la valeur nette du patrimoine familial, si le relevé est demandé au cours d'une démarche commune de dissolution de l'union civile devant notaire;

d) la date de la cessation de la vie maritale des conjoints, si le relevé est demandé à la suite de la cessation de la vie maritale de conjoints non liés par un mariage ou une union civile;

«période de participation» s'entend, à moins de dispositions contraires du présent règlement, du nombre de mois compris en tout ou en partie entre la date de l'adhésion du participant au régime de retraite et la date où il a cessé d'être actif, sans tenir compte des mois au cours desquels il n'était pas au service d'un employeur partie au régime; dans le cas où le participant est actif à la date de l'évaluation, la date où il a cessé d'être actif correspond à celle de l'évaluation; dans le cas de transfert de droits ou d'actifs, la période de participation comprend aussi celle qui est relative à l'adhésion aux régimes d'où proviennent les droits ou actifs transférés.

La période de participation définie au premier alinéa peut, si le régime de retraite le stipule, être établie en jours plutôt qu'en mois. Dans ce cas, le présent article ainsi que les articles 35, 39 à 42 et 44 s'appliquent en y remplaçant le mot «mois» par le mot «jours».

D. 1158-90, a. 33; D. 173-2002, a. 27; D. 1073-2009, a. 11.

33.1. Pour l'application des articles 34 à 45 en ce qui concerne des conjoints mariés dont le mariage a emporté dissolution de leur union civile:

1° la date du mariage est remplacée par la date de l'union civile;

2° la période du mariage commence à la date de l'union civile.

D. 1073-2009, a. 12.

§ 2. — Relevé des droits du participant

34. La demande du relevé prévu à l'article 108 de la Loi doit contenir les documents et renseignements suivants:

1° les nom et adresse du participant et de son conjoint;

2° dans le cas de conjoints mariés, une preuve de la date de leur mariage et soit une preuve de la date de l'introduction de l'instance ou, s'agissant d'une demande faite à l'occasion d'une médiation, une attestation conjointe de la date de la cessation de leur vie commune;

2.1° dans le cas de conjoints unis civilement:

a) une preuve de la date de leur union civile;

b) l'un des documents suivants, selon le cas:

i. une preuve de la date de l'introduction de l'instance;

ii. s'agissant d'une demande faite à l'occasion d'une médiation, une attestation conjointe de la date de la cessation de leur vie commune;

 RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

iii. s'agissant d'une demande faite au cours d'une démarche commune de dissolution de l'union civile devant notaire, une attestation conjointe de la date fixée pour l'établissement de la valeur nette du patrimoine familial;

3° dans le cas de conjoints non liés par un mariage ou une union civile, une attestation du participant quant à son état matrimonial ainsi qu'une attestation du participant et de son conjoint quant aux dates de début et de fin de leur vie maritale et, s'ils ont vécu maritalement au moins 1 an mais moins de 3 ans, une preuve de l'un ou l'autre des cas visés au paragraphe 2 du premier alinéa de l'article 85 de la Loi.

La demande faite à l'occasion d'une médiation doit également contenir la confirmation écrite d'un médiateur accrédité à l'effet qu'il a obtenu un mandat dans le cadre d'une médiation familiale. Celle faite au cours d'une démarche commune de dissolution de l'union civile devant notaire doit aussi contenir la confirmation écrite d'un notaire qu'il a obtenu un mandat dans le cadre de cette démarche.

35. Le comité de retraite doit, dans les 60 jours de la réception de la demande, fournir au demandeur et à son conjoint le relevé visé à l'article 108 de la Loi.

Ce relevé est divisé en 2 parties dont la première doit contenir les renseignements suivants:

1° les droits globaux accumulés par le participant depuis la date de son adhésion au régime jusqu'à la date de l'évaluation, ainsi que la valeur de ces droits;

2° les droits et valeur visés au paragraphe 1, ventilés suivant qu'il s'agit de droits en capital ou en rente;

3° (paragraphe abrogé);

4° dans le cas de conjoints mariés ou unis civilement:

a) la valeur des droits accumulés pendant le mariage ou l'union civile, ventilés suivant qu'il s'agit de droits en capital ou en rente;

b) sauf dans le cas où la valeur visée au sous-paragraphe a est calculée conformément au paragraphe 1 du premier alinéa de l'article 39, le nombre de mois compris dans la période de participation qui a débuté à la date de l'adhésion du participant au régime concerné ainsi que le nombre de ces mois compris dans la période du mariage ou de l'union civile et, quand ces données sont disponibles, le nombre de mois compris dans la période de participation à tout autre régime d'où proviennent des droits ou actifs transférés ainsi que le nombre de ces mois compris dans la période du mariage ou de l'union civile;

c) (sous-paragraphe remplacé);

5° dans le cas où le comité de retraite la détient, la valeur résiduelle des droits du participant après le dernier partage de droits ou la dernière cession accordée à un ancien conjoint du participant et qui a eu pour effet de réduire les droits de ce dernier.

La première partie du relevé doit être signée par celui qui l'a établie. Elle fait preuve de son contenu à moins qu'il soit démontré au tribunal que les droits et périodes dont elle fait état doivent être rectifiés ou que les valeurs qu'elle indique n'ont pas été déterminées suivant les règles prévues par la présente section.

D. 1158-90, a. 35; D. 173-2002, a. 29; D. 1073-2009, a. 14.

35.1. La deuxième partie du relevé doit contenir les renseignements suivants:

1° le nom du régime de retraite et le numéro que Retraite Québec lui a attribué;

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

2° dans le cas de conjoints mariés ou unis civilement, la date du mariage ou de l'union civile et celle de l'évaluation;

3° dans le cas de conjoints non liés par un mariage ou une union civile, les dates de début et de fin de la vie maritale du participant et de son conjoint;

4° la date de l'adhésion du participant au régime;

5° les renseignements personnels dont il a été tenu compte dans l'établissement de la première partie du relevé et qui concernent le participant ou son conjoint, avec la mention qu'il peut être dans l'intérêt de ceux-ci de faire rectifier ces renseignements s'ils sont erronés;

6° les nom et adresse de la personne ressource à joindre pour tout renseignement concernant le régime;

7° les modalités et délais applicables à l'acquittement de la part qui revient au conjoint compte tenu notamment du degré de solvabilité du régime;

8° les règles gouvernant le calcul des intérêts qui s'ajoutent au montant attribué au conjoint;

10° dans le cas où, avant la production du relevé, la rente du participant a été établie de manière à tenir compte du droit de son conjoint à la rente visée à l'article 87 de la Loi, une brève description des droits et obligations qui découlent de l'article 89.1 de la Loi.

D. 173-2002, a. 30; D. 1073-2009, a. 15.

35.2. (Abrogé).

D. 173-2002, a. 30; D. 1073-2009, a. 16.

§ 3. — Droits globaux accumulés par le participant

36. Les droits globaux du participant doivent être ventilés suivant qu'il s'agit de droits en capital ou de droits en rente.

D. 1158-90, a. 36; D. 173-2002, a. 31; D. 1073-2009, a. 17.

36.1. Les droits globaux du participant correspondent soit à la prestation de rattachement, à la rente de retraite, à la rente d'invalidité ou à la rente de remplacement à laquelle il a droit à la date de l'évaluation soit, s'il n'a pas alors acquis droit à l'une de ces rentes, à la rente différée à laquelle il aurait droit s'il mettait fin à sa participation active à cette date.

Le cas échéant, sont également incluses dans les droits globaux du participant les sommes suivantes établies à la date de l'évaluation et augmentées des intérêts accumulés, ou la prestation que ces sommes et intérêts permettent de constituer et à laquelle le participant a droit à cette date ou à laquelle il aurait droit s'il mettait fin à sa participation active à cette date:

1° les cotisations volontaires portées à son compte;

2° l'excédent de ses cotisations salariales sur le plafond fixé par l'article 60 de la Loi;

3° la prestation additionnelle visée à l'article 60.1 de la Loi;

Règlement sur les régimes complémentaires de retraite, R.L.R.Q. c. R-15.1, r. 6

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

4° les sommes qui ont déjà fait l'objet d'un transfert même non visé à l'article 98 de la Loi.

D. 1073-2009, a. 17.

37. La valeur des droits globaux du participant correspond à la somme de la valeur de ses droits en capital et de la valeur de ses droits en rente à la date de l'évaluation.

La valeur des droits en rente doit être déterminée suivant les hypothèses visées à l'article 61 de la Loi qui, à cette date, sont utilisées pour établir la valeur d'autres prestations auxquelles s'applique l'article 60 de la Loi et dont le droit s'acquiert à cette date, étant entendu qu'il n'est pas tenu compte, aux fins de cette détermination, de l'évolution de la rémunération du participant après cette date.

La valeur d'une rente différée dont le service n'est pas commencé est établie selon la formule suivante:

$$\frac{O + P}{2}$$

«O» représente la valeur de la rente différée à laquelle le participant a droit et des droits qui en sont dérivés, déterminée en supposant que le service de la rente débute à la date où le participant atteint l'âge normal de la retraite;

«P» représente la valeur de la rente différée à laquelle le participant a droit et des droits qui en sont dérivés, déterminée en supposant que le participant agit de manière à la maximiser.

Toutefois, dans le cas du participant dont les droits correspondent à la rente différée à laquelle il aurait droit s'il mettait fin à sa participation active à la date de l'évaluation, la valeur des droits relatifs à la prestation additionnelle prévue à l'article 60.1 de la Loi et, sauf si le participant a reçu le versement d'une prestation prévue à la sous-section 0.1 de la section III du chapitre VI de la Loi, celle des droits relatifs à l'excédent des cotisations salariales, avec les intérêts accumulés, sur le plafond établi à l'article 60 de la Loi sont établies en supposant que la valeur de la rente différée aux termes du paragraphe 1 du premier alinéa de l'article 60 de la Loi et pour les fins du calcul des éléments «A» et «B» de l'article 60.1 de la Loi est, quant aux services reconnus se rapportant à la période de travail durant laquelle l'article 60 de la Loi s'applique à son égard, celle établie selon la formule prévue au troisième alinéa du présent article.

D. 1158-90, a. 37; D. 173-2002, a. 32; D. 1073-2009, a. 18.

37.1. Si la date de l'évaluation correspond à une date autre que celle de l'introduction de l'instance et que la valeur des droits du participant à la date de l'évaluation n'est pas connue, la valeur des droits globaux du participant correspond au montant «E» de la formule suivante:

$$V \times p/X = E$$

«V» représente la valeur établie conformément à l'article 37 à la date de l'introduction de l'instance ou à celle où le contrat de transaction a été reçu devant notaire ou, à défaut, à la date de la demande de relevé;

«p» représente le nombre de mois de la période de participation relative à ces droits compris entre la date de l'adhésion du participant au régime de retraite et celle de l'évaluation;

§ 4. — Valeur des droits accumulés pendant le mariage ou l'union civile

D. 1158-90, ss. 4; D. 1073-2009, a. 20.

38. Dans le cas où le participant a droit à une rente de retraite, une rente d'invalidité ou une rente de remplacement à la date de l'évaluation, la valeur des droits qu'il a accumulés à la date de son mariage ou de son union civile est déterminée en supposant qu'il a aussi droit à une telle rente pour les services qui lui ont été reconnus jusqu'à cette dernière date.

D. 1158-90, a. 38; D. 1073-2009, a. 21.

39. La valeur des droits en capital accumulés pendant le mariage ou l'union civile est, selon les circonstances, déterminée comme suit:

1° lorsque le comité de retraite détient les données relatives à la somme accumulée à la date du mariage ou de l'union civile:

a) si aucune prestation visée à l'article 69.1 de la Loi n'a été acquittée et si aucun transfert visé au paragraphe 2 du deuxième alinéa de l'article 19.2 du présent règlement n'a été effectué entre la date du mariage ou de l'union civile et celle de l'évaluation, cette valeur correspond à la différence entre la valeur des droits en capital accumulés à la date de l'évaluation et la somme accumulée à la date du mariage ou de l'union civile augmentée d'intérêts pour la période comprise entre la date du mariage ou de l'union civile et celle de l'évaluation;

b) si une prestation visée à l'article 69.1 de la Loi a été acquittée ou si un transfert visé au paragraphe 2 du deuxième alinéa de l'article 19.2 du présent règlement a été effectué entre la date du mariage ou de l'union civile et celle de l'évaluation et que le comité de retraite détient les données relatives, selon le cas, au montant et à la date de paiement de cette prestation ou au montant et à la date de ce transfert, cette valeur est égale au montant «W» de la formule suivante:

$$W = Y - Z \times \frac{Y}{Y + S}$$

«Y» représente la somme accumulée à la date de l'évaluation;

«Z» représente la somme accumulée à la date du mariage ou de l'union civile, augmentée d'intérêts pour la période comprise entre cette date et celle de l'évaluation;

«S» représente le montant de la prestation acquittée augmenté d'intérêts pour la période comprise entre la date de l'acquittement et celle de l'évaluation;

2° lorsque le comité de retraite ne détient pas les données relatives à la somme accumulée à la date du mariage ou de l'union civile ou, le cas échéant, celles relatives au montant ou à la date de paiement d'une prestation visée à l'article 69.1 de la Loi ou au montant ou à la date d'un transfert visé au paragraphe 2 du deuxième alinéa de l'article 19.2 du présent règlement, cette valeur est égale au montant obtenu en multipliant la valeur des droits en capital accumulés à la date de l'évaluation par la fraction que représente le nombre de mois de la période de participation relative à ces droits compris entre la date du mariage ou de l'union civile et celle de l'évaluation sur le nombre de mois de la période de participation relative à ces droits.

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

Les intérêts visés au paragraphe 1 du premier alinéa sont calculés aux taux de rendement utilisés durant la période concernée pour le calcul des intérêts sur les cotisations salariales versées par le participant ou, dans le cas d'un régime non contributif, sur les cotisations patronales. Lorsque ce taux n'est pas disponible, les intérêts sont calculés aux taux annuels prévus à l'annexe I pour les années indiquées et, pour les intérêts à calculer pour la période subséquente, aux taux annuels moyens obtenus sur les dépôts personnels à terme de 5 ans dans les banques à charte.

Les taux annuels moyens visés au deuxième alinéa sont déterminés en faisant la moyenne des taux obtenus sur ces dépôts, tels que compilés mensuellement par Statistique Canada et publiés dans la revue Statistiques bancaires et financières de la Banque du Canada dans la série V122515 du fichier CANSIM. Toutefois, lorsque les taux annuels publiés mensuellement qui peuvent être disponibles sont pour l'année courante d'un nombre inférieur à 6, cette moyenne est faite sur la base des 6 derniers taux disponibles.

Dans le cas où le résultat du calcul fait en application du troisième alinéa n'est pas un multiple du quart d'un pour cent, la moyenne est arrondie au quart inférieur.

D. 1158-90, a. 39; D. 1681-97, a. 19; D. 173-2002, a. 33; D. 1073-2009, a. 22.

40. La valeur des droits en rente accumulés pendant le mariage ou l'union civile est égale au montant obtenu par la multiplication de la valeur globale des droits en rente par la fraction que représente le nombre de mois de la période de participation relative à ces droits compris entre la date du mariage ou de l'union civile et celle de l'évaluation sur le nombre de mois de la période de participation relative à ces droits.

D. 1158-90, a. 40; D. 173-2002, a. 34; D. 1073-2009, a. 23.

41. Lorsque tout ou partie des droits en capital ou en rente, selon le cas, est constitué des droits ou d'actifs transférés d'un autre régime de retraite et que les sommes ou droits transférés, ainsi que la période de participation qui s'y rapporte, sont connus, la valeur des droits en capital ou en rente accumulés pendant le mariage ou l'union civile est, malgré l'article 39 ou l'article 40, égale au montant «V» de la formule suivante:

$$[G - T] \times a/p + T \times \frac{P - A}{P} = V$$

«G» représente la valeur globale des droits en capital ou en rente, selon le cas, accumulés à la date de l'évaluation;

«p» représente le nombre de mois de la période de participation, à l'exclusion des mois relatifs à tous droits ou actifs transférés;

«a» représente le nombre de mois de la période de participation représentée par «p» qui sont compris entre la date du mariage ou de l'union civile et celle de l'évaluation;

«A» représente le nombre de mois antérieurs au mariage ou à l'union civile et compris dans la période de participation au régime d'où proviennent les sommes ou droits transférés;

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

«P» représente le nombre de mois compris dans toute la période de participation au régime d'où proviennent les sommes ou droits transférés.

D. 1158-90, a. 41; D. 173-2002, a. 35; D. 1073-2009, a. 24.

42. Dans le cas où les droits du participant ont fait l'objet d'un partage ou d'une cession au profit d'un conjoint à une date antérieure à celle de l'évaluation, la valeur des droits que le participant a accumulés pendant le dernier mariage ou la dernière union civile est égale:

1° dans le cas où la valeur résiduelle des droits en capital ou le montant de la rente résiduelle résultant de la cession ou du partage antérieur est connu, au montant «N» de la formule suivante:

$$[G - R] \times M/Q = N$$

«G» représente la valeur résiduelle globale des droits en capital ou, dans le cas de droits en rente, la valeur de la rente résiduelle globale, à la date de l'évaluation;

«R» représente:

1° quant aux droits en capital, leur valeur résiduelle à la date de l'évaluation relative à la cession ou au partage antérieur, augmentée d'intérêts calculés aux taux prévus au deuxième alinéa de l'article 39 pour la période comprise entre cette date et la date de l'évaluation;

2° quant aux droits en rente, la valeur, à la date de l'évaluation, de la rente résiduelle calculée à la date de l'évaluation relative à la cession ou au partage antérieur;

«M» représente le nombre de mois de participation compris dans la période du dernier mariage ou de la dernière union civile;

«Q» représente le nombre de mois de participation compris entre la date de l'évaluation relative à la cession ou au partage antérieur et la date de l'évaluation;

2° dans le cas contraire, à la valeur résiduelle globale des droits du participant ajustée dans la proportion que représente le nombre de mois du dernier mariage ou de la dernière union civile compris dans la période de participation sur le nombre total de mois écoulés avant et pendant ce mariage ou cette union civile et compris dans la période de participation.

D. 1158-90, a. 42; D. 173-2002, a. 36; D. 1073-2009, a. 25.

43. Lorsque la valeur résiduelle des droits en capital accumulés à la date du dernier mariage ou de la dernière union civile du participant est connue, la valeur des droits accumulés pendant ce mariage ou cette union civile est, malgré les règles prévues à l'article 42, calculée conformément au paragraphe 1 du premier alinéa de l'article 39 en y substituant la valeur résiduelle des droits à la valeur des droits.

D. 1158-90, a. 43; D. 173-2002, a. 37; D. 1073-2009, a. 26.

44. Si la date de l'évaluation correspond à une date autre que celle de l'introduction de l'instance et que la valeur des droits du participant à la date de l'évaluation n'est pas connue, la valeur des droits que le participant a accumulés durant le mariage ou l'union civile est établie en tenant compte des règles suivantes:

1° la valeur des droits en capital accumulés pendant le mariage ou l'union civile est déterminée de la manière prévue au paragraphe 2 du premier alinéa de l'article 39 ou, le cas échéant, à l'article 42;

2° à toutes fins autres que le calcul du nombre de mois de la période de participation compris entre la date du mariage ou de l'union civile et celle de l'évaluation, la date de l'introduction de l'instance, celle où le contrat de transaction a été reçu devant notaire ou, à défaut, celle de la demande de relevé est considérée comme date de l'évaluation pour l'application des articles 36.1 à 43.

D. 1158-90, a. 44; D. 173-2002, a. 38; D. 1073-2009, a. 27.

45. La valeur totale des droits accumulés par le participant pendant son mariage ou son union civile est égale à la somme de la valeur des droits en capital et de la valeur des droits en rente qu'il a accumulés pendant le mariage ou l'union civile.

D. 1158-90, a. 45; D. 1073-2009, a. 28.

§ 5. — Exécution du partage ou de la cession de droits

46. La demande de partage ou de cession des droits du participant doit être accompagnée d'une copie des documents suivants:

1° si elle fait suite à un jugement prononçant la séparation de corps, le divorce, la nullité du mariage ou la dissolution ou la nullité de l'union civile ou ordonnant le paiement d'une prestation compensatoire:

- a) ce jugement et tout autre jugement relatif au partage ou à la cession des droits du participant;
- b) le certificat de non appel;
- c) le cas échéant, l'entente intervenue entre les conjoints relativement au partage ou à la cession des droits du participant;

2° si elle fait suite à la dissolution d'une union civile par déclaration commune notariée, cette déclaration et le contrat de transaction;

3° si elle fait suite à la cessation de la vie maritale de conjoints non liés par un mariage ou une union civile, l'entente intervenue entre les conjoints relativement au partage des droits du participant.

D. 1158-90, a. 46; D. 173-2002, a. 39; D. 1073-2009, a. 29.

47. Sauf si la demande de partage ou d'exécution de la cession est conjointe, le comité de retraite doit, sur réception, donner au conjoint du demandeur un avis écrit l'informant de cette demande et de la somme demandée par son conjoint.

Le comité de retraite ne peut procéder à l'exécution du partage ou de la cession avant l'expiration des 60 jours qui suivent l'expédition de cet avis au conjoint du demandeur. De plus, il ne peut le faire s'il est avisé que le conjoint du participant a dûment renoncé à ses droits ou que le participant a introduit une demande judiciaire afin de s'opposer au partage ou à la cession.

D. 1158-90, a. 47; D. 1073-2009, a. 30.

48. Doivent être ajoutés à la somme qui revient au conjoint des intérêts calculés aux taux prévus au deuxième alinéa de l'article 39 si les droits partagés ou cédés faisaient partie de droits en capital ou au taux utilisé pour établir leur valeur si ces droits faisaient partie de droits en rente.

Les intérêts courent à compter de la date de l'évaluation.

D. 1158-90, a. 48; D. 173-2002, a. 40; D. 1073-2009, a. 31.

49. À moins d'indications contraires du tribunal, le comité de retraite ne peut partager les droits du participant ni exécuter la cession d'une partie de ces droits que dans la mesure où ce partage ou cette cession n'a pas pour effet de priver le participant de plus de la moitié de la valeur totale des droits qu'il a accumulés avant et pendant son mariage ou son union civile.

 RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

Dans le cas où le jugement, l'entente intervenue entre des conjoints mariés ou unis civilement ou le contrat de transaction notarié ne prévoit pas la portion de la valeur des droits du participant ou la somme qui revient au conjoint, la valeur des droits que le participant a accumulés pendant le mariage ou l'union civile est répartie également entre les conjoints.

D. 1158-90, a. 49; D. 1073-2009, a. 32.

50. 1° transférer cette somme dans un autre régime de retraite auquel le conjoint adhère ou dans un régime visé au paragraphe 2.1, 2.2, 3.1, 4 ou 5 de l'article 28;

2° pourvu que le régime le permette:

- a) dans le cas où le conjoint a déjà des droits au titre du régime, transférer cette somme à son compte;
- b) dans le cas contraire, accorder au conjoint, qui prend alors la qualité de participant, des droits au titre du régime;

3° verser cette somme au conjoint ou la transférer dans un régime visé au paragraphe 3 de l'article 28 dans les cas suivants:

a) les droits partagés ou cédés correspondent à un remboursement auquel le participant aurait eu droit à la date de l'évaluation, étant entendu que, sous réserve du sous-paragraphe b, la somme qui revient au conjoint ne peut lui être versée dans une proportion supérieure à celle dans laquelle les droits du participant pouvaient être remboursés à celui-ci;

b) à la date de la demande, cette somme est inférieure à 20% du maximum des gains admissibles établi conformément à la Loi sur le régime de rentes du Québec (chapitre R-9) pour l'année au cours de laquelle est présentée la demande relative au partage ou à la cession;

c) le conjoint a cessé de résider au Canada depuis au moins 2 ans.

Dans le cas où le conjoint omet d'indiquer au comité de retraite le mode d'acquittement qu'il choisit parmi ceux mentionnés au premier alinéa:

1° les intérêts visés à l'article 48 cessent de courir à l'expiration du délai dans lequel le comité doit agir selon cet alinéa et ne recommencent à courir, le cas échéant, qu'à compter de la date où le conjoint fait connaître son choix;

2° le comité de retraite peut, à son initiative et dès l'expiration de ce délai, transférer pour le compte du conjoint la somme à acquitter dans un des régimes visés au paragraphe 1, 2 ou 3 du premier alinéa, selon le cas.

52. Les articles 143 et 145 à 146 de la Loi s'appliquent, compte tenu des adaptations nécessaires, à la somme qui peut faire l'objet d'une mesure prévue au paragraphe 1 ou 3 du premier alinéa de l'article 50.

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

La somme versée ou transférée conformément au paragraphe 1 ou 3 du premier alinéa de l'article 50 doit représenter, par rapport à la somme qui revient au conjoint augmentée des intérêts, une proportion au moins équivalente à celle des cotisations, montants et intérêts visés à l'article 145.1 de la Loi par rapport à la valeur totale des droits du participant.

D. 1158-90, a. 53; D. 173-2002, a. 44; D. 1073-2009, a. 35.

54. Le comité de retraite doit, dans le cas où aucune rente de retraite, d'invalidité ou de remplacement n'est servie au participant à la date de l'exécution du partage ou de la cession de droits en rente, établir à cette date le montant de la partie de la rente normale qui, déterminée selon la somme versée au conjoint ou transférée pour son compte, aurait été payable au participant à l'âge normal de la retraite suivant les conditions et caractéristiques prévues par le régime pour cette rente. Le comité de retraite doit conserver ce montant dans ses registres.

Dans le cas où les droits en rente correspondent à une rente ajournée, le montant prévu au premier alinéa est établi en fonction de la valeur de la rente de retraite revalorisée à la date de l'exécution du partage ou de la cession conformément à l'article 79 de la Loi.

Le montant prévu au premier alinéa est établi, si le régime le prévoit, en tenant compte de l'augmentation périodique du montant de la rente, avant le début de son service, en fonction d'un indice ou taux prévu au régime. Il est établi dans tous les cas en utilisant les hypothèses prévues au deuxième alinéa de l'article 37.

55. L'exécution du partage ou de la cession des droits du participant réduit ses droits de la manière suivante:

1° lorsque les droits partagés ou cédés font partie de droits en capital, la valeur de ces droits est réduite de la somme versée au conjoint ou transférée pour son compte;

2° lorsque les droits partagés ou cédés font partie de droits en rente,

— toute rente de retraite, d'invalidité ou de remplacement dont le service a débuté est, après avoir été, le cas échéant, établie de nouveau selon l'article 89.1 de la Loi, réduite dans la proportion que représente la somme versée au conjoint ou transférée pour son compte sur la valeur qu'aurait eue, à la date de l'exécution du partage ou de la cession, la rente qui était servie au participant le jour qui a précédé la prise d'effet du jugement, la dissolution de l'union civile ou la cessation de la vie maritale, étant entendu que cette dernière valeur est établie en utilisant les mêmes hypothèses que celles utilisées pour la détermination de la valeur des droits attribués au conjoint;

— toute rente de retraite, d'invalidité ou de remplacement dont le service débute après l'exécution du partage ou de la cession doit être réduite du montant visé à l'article 54 ou, si le service de cette rente débute à une date autre que celle de l'âge normal de la retraite, d'une somme équivalant à ce montant.

— toute autre prestation, à l'exclusion d'une prestation de retraite progressive et d'une prestation visée à l'article 69.1 de la Loi, ainsi que tout droit et tout remboursement qui doit être versé ou transféré doit être réduit, jusqu'à concurrence de son montant ou de sa valeur, de la valeur de la rente dont le montant est visé à l'article 54.

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

Le régime de retraite peut prévoir une manière différente de réduire les droits du participant pourvu qu'elle conduise à une réduction moindre de ces droits.

D. 1158-90, a. 55; D. 1681-97, a. 20; D. 173-2002, a. 46; D. 1073-2009, a. 37.

56. Lorsque les droits du participant qui peuvent faire l'objet d'un partage ou d'une cession au conjoint comprennent à la fois le droit à un remboursement et celui de recevoir une prestation, chacun de ces droits doit être réduit dans la proportion que représente la somme versée au conjoint ou transférée pour son compte sur la valeur totale de tels remboursement et prestation.

D. 1158-90, a. 56; D. 1073-2009, a. 38.

SECTION V.1
SAISIE DES DROITS DU PARTICIPANT

D. 173-2002, a. 47.

56.0.1. La présente section s'applique relativement à la saisie qui, visée au deuxième alinéa de l'article 109 de la Loi, est pratiquée par le conjoint du participant ou pour son compte.

D. 173-2002, a. 47.

56.0.2. La valeur des droits accumulés par le participant à la date où s'opère la saisie est déterminée selon les articles 36 à 37.1 qui s'appliquent en remplaçant la date de l'évaluation par celle de la saisie.

D. 173-2002, a. 47; D. 1073-2009, a. 39.

56.0.3. Dans le cas où les droits attribués au conjoint sont acquittés sur les droits du participant qui sont des droits en rente au sens de l'article 33, aucune rente n'étant par ailleurs servie au participant à la date où est pratiquée la saisie, le comité de retraite établit à cette date le montant de la partie de la rente normale qui, déterminée selon la valeur des droits attribués au conjoint, aurait été payable au participant à l'âge normal de la retraite suivant les conditions et caractéristiques prévues par le régime pour cette rente. Le comité de retraite doit conserver ce montant dans ses registres.

Dans le cas où les droits en rente correspondent à une rente ajournée, le montant prévu au premier alinéa est établi en fonction de la valeur de la rente de retraite revalorisée à la date de la saisie conformément à l'article 79 de la Loi.

Dans tous les cas, le montant prévu au premier alinéa est établi en utilisant les mêmes hypothèses que celles utilisées pour la détermination de la valeur des droits du participant à la date de la saisie.

D. 173-2002, a. 47.

56.0.4. Lorsque les droits du participant comprennent à la fois le droit à un remboursement et celui de recevoir une prestation, chacun de ces droits doit être réduit dans la proportion que représente la valeur des droits attribués au conjoint à la suite de la saisie sur la valeur totale de ces droits.

D. 173-2002, a. 47.

56.0.5. Sous réserve de l'article 56.0.4 et de toute disposition contraire du régime de retraite, sont d'abord affectés à l'acquittement des droits attribués au conjoint les droits en capital au sens de l'article 33.

D. 173-2002, a. 47.

56.0.6. Les droits attribués au conjoint peuvent être acquittés sans qu'il soit tenu compte des conditions ou délais qui affectent les droits du participant. L'acquittement réduit les droits de celui-ci de la manière suivante:

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

1° lorsque les droits attribués au conjoint sont acquittés sur les droits en capital, la valeur de ceux-ci est réduite du montant payé;

2° lorsque les droits attribués au conjoint sont acquittés sur les droits en rente,

— toute rente de retraite, d'invalidité ou de remplacement dont le service a débuté est réduite dans la proportion que représente le montant payé au conjoint sur la valeur de la rente servie à la date de la saisie;

— toute rente de retraite, d'invalidité ou de remplacement dont le service débute après l'acquittement doit être réduite du montant visé à l'article 56.0.3 ou, si le service de cette rente débute à une date autre que celle de l'âge normal de la retraite, d'une somme équivalente à ce montant;

— toute autre prestation, à l'exclusion d'une prestation de retraite progressive et d'une prestation visée à l'article 69.1 de la Loi, ainsi que tout droit et tout remboursement qui doit être versé ou transféré doit être réduit, jusqu'à concurrence de son montant ou de sa valeur, de la valeur de la rente dont le montant est visé à l'article 56.0.3.

Le régime de retraite peut prévoir une manière différente de réduire les droits du participant pourvu qu'elle conduise à une réduction moindre de ces droits.

- 1° le degré de solvabilité du régime de retraite établi à la date de la dernière évaluation actuarielle de tout le régime et, si ce degré est inférieur à 100%, les mesures prises pour lui faire atteindre ce niveau;
- 2° le moindre de l'excédent d'actif du régime de retraite déterminé selon l'approche de capitalisation et de celui déterminé selon l'approche de solvabilité lors de la dernière évaluation actuarielle de tout le régime;
- 3° la cotisation patronale que l'employeur a versée au cours de l'exercice financier concerné;
- 4° les cotisations salariales que les participants ont versées au cours de l'exercice financier concerné;
- 5° la part de l'excédent d'actif du régime affectée à l'acquittement de la cotisation patronale au cours de l'exercice financier et celle affectée au cours de cet exercice au financement d'engagements supplémentaires résultant d'une modification du régime.

Si le relevé est transmis à un participant ou bénéficiaire qui n'est pas visé au premier alinéa, cette partie doit indiquer l'excédent d'actif du régime et la part de cet excédent qui a été affectée à l'acquittement de la cotisation patronale au cours de l'exercice financier.

D. 173-2002, a. 52.

59.1. SECTION VI.1

RÉSERVE ET PROVISION POUR ÉCARTS DÉFAVORABLES

D. 1073-2009, a. 42.

§ 1. — Éléments constitutifs de la réserve

D. 1073-2009, a. 42.

60.1. Les éléments suivants sont susceptibles de contribuer à la constitution de la réserve prévue à l'article 128 de la Loi:

1° les cotisations versées à la caisse de retraite qui excèdent celles requises pour que le régime de retraite soit solvable, incluant les cotisations dont l'employeur est libéré du paiement en application de l'article 42.1 de la Loi;

2° les écarts favorables résultant des changements apportés aux hypothèses et méthodes actuarielles ou des différences entre les hypothèses utilisées et les résultats obtenus, en tenant compte du rendement obtenu sur ces écarts;

3° les modifications au régime qui ont réduit la valeur des droits des participants.

D. 1073-2009, a. 42.

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

§ 2. — Provision pour écarts défavorables

D. 1073-2009, a. 42.

60.2. Outre les cas où elle doit être déterminée en application de la Loi, la provision pour écarts défavorables prévue à l'article 128 de la Loi est calculée lors de la dernière évaluation actuarielle d'un régime de retraite sur la base de laquelle:

1° des cotisations d'équilibre doivent être versées relativement à un déficit actuariel de modification déterminé lors d'une évaluation actuarielle antérieure alors que l'évaluation actuarielle complète montre que le régime est solvable et capitalisé, sauf si un actuaire certifie que l'actif du régime est inférieur au passif augmenté de la provision pour écarts défavorables;

2° les cotisations d'équilibre qui restent à verser relativement à tout déficit actuariel de modification déterminé lors d'une évaluation actuarielle antérieure sont éliminées en application de l'article 131 de la Loi;

3° l'excédent d'actif est affecté à l'acquittement de cotisations patronales en vertu de l'article 146.3.4 de la Loi;

4° l'employeur demande la réduction du montant de la lettre de crédit en vertu de l'article 15.0.0.4.

La valeur du passif pris en considération pour le calcul de la provision pour écarts défavorables est établie en faisant abstraction, le cas échéant, de toute modification du régime considérée pour la première fois lors de l'évaluation.

D. 1073-2009, a. 42.

60.3. La provision pour écarts défavorables est égale au montant «P» de la formule suivante:

$$(T \times R) + (7\% \times S) + X = P$$

«T» représente le taux, exprimé en pourcentage, obtenu en multipliant l'élément «D» déterminé conformément à l'article 60.4 par 0,0175;

1° celle des cotisations volontaires et des cotisations accessoires optionnelles versées à la caisse de retraite, avec les intérêts accumulés;

2° celle des cotisations versées au titre d'un régime à cotisation déterminée auquel s'applique le chapitre X de la Loi ou en vertu de dispositions qui, dans un régime à prestations déterminées, sont identiques à celles d'un régime à cotisation déterminée, avec les intérêts accumulés;

3° celle du passif associé aux rentes en service augmentée, si les politiques établies par le comité de retraite en disposent ainsi, de la valeur des droits des participants au régime dont l'âge est inférieur de moins de 10 ans à l'âge normal de la retraite et à qui aucune rente n'est servie, cette dernière valeur excluant ici celle des cotisations visées aux paragraphes 1 et 2 versées par ces participants;

4° celle du passif associé aux rentes différées garanties non visées par le paragraphe 3;

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

«X» représente:

1° dans le cas où le taux que représente l'élément «T» est inférieur à 7%, le résultat de la formule

dans laquelle «V» est égal à l'élément «V» de l'article 60.4;

2° dans les autres cas, zéro.

D. 1073-2009, a. 42.

60.4. Dans le cas où la valeur que représente l'élément «R» de l'article 60.3 est nulle, l'élément «D» de cet article est égal à zéro.

Dans les autres cas, cet élément «D» correspond au résultat, en valeur absolue, de la formule suivante:

$$R \times d^R - V \times d^M$$

R

«V» représente le moindre des montants suivants:

1° celui qui équivaut au produit de l'actif du régime de retraite à la date de l'évaluation actuarielle par la moyenne des pourcentages que représente le montant des placements à revenu fixe pris en compte aux fins de ce calcul sur l'actif du régime à la date de l'évaluation ainsi que le dernier jour de chacun des 11 mois qui précèdent le jour de cette évaluation ou, dans le cas d'un régime en vigueur depuis moins d'un an, le dernier jour de chaque mois compris entre la date d'entrée en vigueur du régime et celle de l'évaluation;

2° celui qui équivaut à la valeur que représente l'élément «R»;

Aux fins du paragraphe 1 de l'élément «V»:

1° l'actif du régime est réduit de la valeur des rentes garanties ainsi que de celle des cotisations visées aux paragraphes 1 et 2 de l'élément «S» de l'article 60.3 qui font l'objet d'un placement distinct;

2° le montant des placements à revenu fixe d'un régime de retraite est déterminé en incluant celui de tout placement à revenu variable associé à un instrument financier qui le transforme en placement à revenu fixe mais en excluant celui de tout placement à revenu fixe associé à un instrument financier qui le transforme en placement à revenu variable.

D. 1073-2009, a. 42.

60.5. L'élément «d^M» de l'article 60.4 est établi par l'actuaire responsable de l'évaluation actuarielle à l'aide des durées calculées par celui qui effectue le placement de toute partie de l'actif du régime.

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

Aux fins d'une évaluation actuarielle partielle, l'actuaire peut estimer les éléments «R» et «S» de l'article 60.3 de même que la durée du passif constituant cet élément «R».

D. 1073-2009, a. 42.

SECTION VI.2

PROVISION DE STABILISATION

D. 608-2016, a. 2

60.6. Le niveau visé de la provision de stabilisation prévue à l'article 125 de la Loi est déterminé, conformément à la grille suivante, en fonction du pourcentage de l'actif alloué dans des placements à revenu variable selon la cible de la politique de placement du régime en vigueur à la date de l'évaluation actuarielle du régime et du rapport entre la durée de l'actif et celle du passif du régime à cette date:

		Durée actif/durée passif (%)
		0	25	50	75	100
Actif alloué dans des placements à revenu variable (%)	0	12	10	8	6	5
	20	14	12	10	8	6
	40	16	14	12	10	8
	50	17	15	13	11	9
	60	19	17	15	13	11
	70	22	20	18	16	14
	80	24	22	20	18	16
	100	27	25	23	21	20

L'actif alloué dans des placements à revenu variable est celui alloué dans des placements autres qu'à revenu fixe.

Lorsque le pourcentage de l'actif du régime alloué dans des placements à revenu variable ou le rapport entre la durée de l'actif et celle du passif du régime se situe entre deux pourcentages indiqués dans la grille, le niveau visé de la provision de stabilisation est calculé par interpolation linéaire et le résultat est arrondi à la première décimale.

D. 608-2016, a. 2

60.7. Les instruments dérivés ne peuvent être considérés dans l'actif pour établir le niveau visé de la provision de stabilisation.

Toutefois, les instruments dérivés qui ont pour effet d'augmenter l'exposition de la caisse du régime aux risques du marché boursier doivent être ajoutés à l'actif alloué dans des placements à revenu variable.

De plus, les instruments dérivés peuvent être considérés aux fins d'établir la durée de l'actif.

D. 608-2016, a. 2

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

60.8. Pour l'application de la présente section, les placements à revenu fixe sont les suivants:

1° l'encaisse;

2° les titres sur le marché monétaire dont la cote, établie par une agence de notation mentionnée au troisième alinéa, est celle indiquée relativement à cette agence ou une cote supérieure;

3° les titres sur le marché obligataire dont la cote, attribuée par une agence de notation mentionnée au troisième alinéa, est celle indiquée relativement à cette agence ou une cote supérieure;

4° les créances hypothécaires de premier ou de deuxième rang dont le montant n'est pas supérieur à 75% de la valeur des biens-fonds qui en garantissent le paiement.

L'actif placé dans des biens en infrastructure ou dans des biens immobiliers peut, à concurrence de 50%, être considéré comme un placement à revenu fixe. Sont exclus les placements dans des titres sur le marché boursier.

Les cotes minimales, selon l'agence de notation et le type de placement, sont les suivantes:

Agence de notation	Cote
	Titres sur le marché obligataire	Titres sur le marché monétaire
DBRS	BBB	R-2 (moyen)
Fitch Ratings	BBB-	F-3
Moody's Investors Service	Baa3	P-3
Standard & Poor's	BBB-	A-3

Peuvent en outre être considérés comme des placements à revenu fixe, les titres sur le marché monétaire ou obligataire dont la cote attribuée par une autre agence de notation, reconnue par une autorité compétente, est d'un niveau au moins équivalent à celui indiqué relativement aux agences mentionnées au troisième alinéa.

D. 608-2016, a. 2

60.9. La durée de l'actif est établie par l'actuaire responsable de l'évaluation actuarielle. Elle est égale au total de la durée de chaque placement à revenu fixe prévu par la politique de placement pondérée en fonction de la cible de la politique de placement établie pour ce placement.

La durée de chaque placement est établie selon l'indice de référence prévu par la politique de placement relativement à ce placement. La durée d'un placement pour lequel aucun indice n'est prévu par la politique de placement est calculée par celui qui effectue le placement de toute partie de l'actif du régime.

La durée attribuée à un placement dans des biens en infrastructure ou dans des biens immobiliers ne peut excéder 6.

D. 608-2016, a. 2

60.10. La durée du passif est établie par l'actuaire responsable de l'évaluation actuarielle selon la formule suivante:

$$(P - P_+) / (2 * P * 0,01)$$

dans laquelle,

Règlement sur les régimes complémentaires de retraite, R.L.R.Q. c. R-15.1, r. 6

RÉGIMES COMPLÉMENTAIRES DE RETRAITE

Pour l'application du présent article, le passif du régime doit être augmenté de la valeur des engagements supplémentaires résultant de toute modification considérée pour la première fois à la date de l'évaluation actuarielle du régime.

D. 608-2016, a. 2

60.11. À défaut de cible fixée par la politique de placement du régime en vigueur le 31 décembre 2015, la cible prévue par la politique de placement en vigueur à la date de production du rapport relatif à l'évaluation actuarielle visée à l'article 318.2 de la Loi doit être utilisée.

D. 608-2016, a. 2

Dans le cas où le projet d'entente propose que la part de l'excédent d'actif attribuée à un participant ou bénéficiaire soit déterminée suivant une méthode qui comporte une formule de répartition spécifique à un groupe de participants ou bénéficiaires qu'il détermine, l'avis doit indiquer, au regard de chaque groupe, le nombre de participants ou de bénéficiaires qui le constituent et la valeur de leurs droits.

they are secured by a legal hypothec on the immovables or on the movables, as the case may be. In addition to being a prior claim within the meaning of that paragraph, a property tax is secured by a legal hypothec on the immovable subject to the tax.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, any personal tax imposed by reason of an activity carried on in a place is deemed to be a tax payable by reason of the movable property of the debtor located in the place at any time throughout the period during which the tax remains payable.

1994, c. 30, s. 90; 1999, c. 40, s. 51.

482.2. Registration by the municipality of a legal movable or immovable hypothec does not prevent it from exercising its prior claim.

1994, c. 30, s. 90.

482.3. A creditor who takes procedures in execution or who, as holder of a movable or immovable hypothec, has registered a prior notice of his intention to exercise his hypothecary rights, may apply to the municipality to declare the amount of its prior claim. The application shall be registered and proof of notification shall be filed in the registry office.

Within 30 days following the notification, the municipality shall declare the amount of its claim and enter it in the appropriate register; such a declaration does not have the effect of limiting the priority of the municipality's claim to the amount entered.

An application for registration, in the land register, of the application for declaration and of the declaration shall be made in the form of a notice. In addition to the provisions of this section and the requirements of the regulation made under Book IX of the Civil Code, the notice shall indicate the legislative provision under which it is given, the name of the debtor and the name of the municipality; the notice need not be attested and a single copy only need be presented.

484. Arrears of municipal taxes shall be prescribed by three years.

An application to the court for the recovery of a property tax filed before the tax is prescribed and served, not later than 60 days after the expiry of the prescription period, on any of the persons from whom the payment may be claimed under section 498, shall interrupt prescription with respect to all such persons.

II. — Imposition of Taxes

485. Subject to the Act respecting municipal taxation (chapter F-2.1), the council may impose and levy annually on all taxable immovables in the territory of the municipality a tax based on their value as shown on the assessment roll.

484. Les arrérages de taxes municipales se prescrivent par trois ans.

Une demande en justice visant le recouvrement d'une taxe foncière, déposée avant que la taxe ne soit prescrite et signifiée, au plus tard le soixantième jour qui suit l'expiration du délai de prescription, à une des personnes de qui le paiement peut être réclamé en vertu de l'article 498, interrompt la prescription à l'égard de toutes ces personnes.

II. — Imposition des taxes

485. Sous réserve de la Loi sur la fiscalité municipale (chapitre F-2.1), le conseil peut imposer et prélever annuellement sur les biens-fonds imposables sur le territoire de la municipalité une taxe basée sur leur valeur portée au rôle d'évaluation.

S. R. 1964, c. 193, a. 521; 1975 c. 66, a. 21; 1979, c. 72, a. 308; 1996, c. 2, a. 210.

487. Malgré toute disposition législative inconciliable avec la présente contenue dans la présente loi ou dans une charte de municipalité régie en partie par la présente loi, le conseil peut imposer la taxe spéciale pour le paiement des travaux municipaux de toute nature, y compris les travaux d'entretien, soit sur la base de l'évaluation municipale, soit sur la superficie, soit sur l'étendue en front des biens-fonds imposables assujettis à cette taxe. Lorsqu'il s'agit de lots qui sont situés à un carrefour ou qui ne sont pas rectangulaires, le conseil peut fixer l'étendue en front à des fins d'imposition, selon la formule qu'il juge appropriée.

1° de la municipalité;

2° des contribuables d'une partie du territoire de la municipalité;

3° des contribuables bénéficiant de ces travaux, lorsque ceux-ci sont effectués dans une partie du territoire de la municipalité désignée comme son «centre-ville» en vertu d'un programme particulier d'urbanisme.

Le conseil peut combiner les possibilités prévues par le deuxième alinéa dans les proportions qu'il détermine.

Dans le cas visé au paragraphe 3° du deuxième alinéa, le conseil doit identifier les immeubles des bénéficiaires des travaux ou mentionner un ou plusieurs critères permettant de les identifier.

Le présent article s'applique aux fins du paiement des honoraires professionnels liés aux travaux visés, qu'ils aient été exécutés ou non.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS..... 496

SCHEDULE A

LEGISLATIVE PROVISIONS REPEALED UNDER SECTION 487

REPEAL SCHEDULES

MUNICIPAL TAXATION

In its decision declaring the recognition to have lapsed, the Commission shall fix the date on which the lapsing is to have effect, which shall not be prior to 1 January of the year in which the decision is rendered.

2000, c. 54, s. 76.

§ 7. — Procedure

2000, c. 54, s. 76.

243.23. Before granting recognition, the Commission shall consult the local municipality in whose territory the immovable concerned by the request is situated, and give the local municipality a notice in writing describing the elements of the proposed recognition, requesting its opinion in that respect and informing it of the rule set out in section 243.24.

The first paragraph applies, with the necessary modifications, in the case of a revocation not requested by the municipality and in the case of a confirmation in respect of which the Commission has received every document requested from the recognized person.

2000, c. 54, s. 76.

243.24. The municipality shall transmit its opinion to the Commission within 90 days following transmission of the notice.

If the municipality fails to transmit its opinion, the proceeding before the Commission may continue notwithstanding that failure, and the municipality is nevertheless not foreclosed from transmitting its opinion.

2000, c. 54, s. 76.

243.25. The person applying for recognition shall file its financial statements with the Commission at the request of the Commission or of the municipality. The same applies for any other person to be mentioned in the recognition as a user of the immovable.

The first paragraph applies, with the necessary modifications, where the revocation of recognition or the periodic review of recognition forms the subject of a proceeding before the Commission.

2000, c. 54, s. 76.

244. (Repealed).

1979, c. 72, s. 244; 1991, c. 32, s. 125.

DIVISION III.1

1988, c. 76, s. 68.

244.1. Every municipality may, by by-law and to the extent that a regulation of the Government under paragraph 8.2 of section 262 is in force, provide that all or part of its property, services or activities shall be financed by means of a tariff.

A municipality may, in the same manner, provide that all or part of the aliquot share or of other contribution owed by it in respect of property, services or activities of another municipality, a community, an intermunicipal body or another intermunicipal public body shall be financed as in the first paragraph.

MUNICIPAL TAXATION

A municipality may, in the same manner, provide that all or part of the amount it must pay in return for services provided by the Sûreté du Québec shall be financed as in the first paragraph.

1988, c. 76, s. 68; 1991, c. 32, s. 160; 1996, c. 77, s. 54; 2003, c. 19, s. 192.

244.2. Any local and independent source of revenue other than a tax based on the property value or the rental value of immovables or business establishments and the imposition of which is not in itself incompatible with the application of section 244.3 constitutes a mode of tariffing.

A mode of tariffing includes, in particular,

(1) a property tax based on a characteristic of the immovable other than its value, such as the area, the frontage or another dimension of the immovable;

(2) a compensation exigible from the owner or occupant of an immovable;

(3) a fixed amount exigible in a punctual manner or in the form of a subscription for the use of a property or a service or in respect of a benefit derived from an activity.

The only mode of tariffing that may be provided for by a regional county municipality not acting as a local municipality under section 8 of the Act respecting municipal territorial organization (chapter O-9) is a fixed amount referred to in subparagraph 3 of the second paragraph or an amount exigible in the same manner as a subscription.

244.3. The mode of tariffing must be related to the benefits derived by the debtor.

Benefits are derived not only when the debtor or his dependent actually uses the property or service, or benefits from the activity but also when the property or service is at his disposal or the activity is an activity from which he may benefit in the future. The rule, adapted as required, also applies in the case of a property, service or activity from which benefit may be derived not directly by the person but which may be derived in respect of the immovable of which he is the owner or occupant.

The extended meaning given to the expression “benefits derived” in the second paragraph does not apply if the mode of tariffing is a fixed amount exigible in a punctual manner for the use of a property or a service or in respect of the benefit derived from an activity. The activity of a municipality that consists in examining an application and responding to it is deemed to benefit the applicant, regardless of the response given, including cases where the subject of the application is a regulatory act or the response consists in such an act.

244.4. The mode of tariffing shall remain related to the benefit derived even if the revenue generated thereby exceeds the expenses attributable to the property, service or activity, provided that the excess amount is justified by sound management principles such as the obligation to standardize the demand, to take competition into consideration and to enable the inhabitants and ratepayers of the territory of the municipality to take precedence over other beneficiaries or, where the mode of tariffing is a fixed amount exigible in a punctual manner for the use of a property or a service, if the excess amount is justified by a more frequent use than what had been anticipated.

244.5. The by-law may provide for classes of property, services, activities, aliquot shares, contributions or beneficiaries, combine classes and prescribe different rules for each class or combination.

The by-law may, in particular, prescribe that

MUNICIPAL TAXATION

- (1) tariffing shall be used in respect of one class or combination but not in respect of another;
- (2) tariffing shall be combined, in the manner it determines, with any other mode of financing prescribed by another applicable legislative provision, and may be used in respect of one class or one combination and not in respect of another or may differ according to classes or combinations;
- (3) the applicable mode of tariffing shall differ according to classes or combinations of classes;
- (4) the rule prescribed for computing the amount exigible under a mode of tariffing may differ for each of the classes of beneficiaries, whether it is the tax rate, the amount of compensation, the fixed amount exigible for the use of a property or service, or any other base of tariffing.

1988, c. 76, s. 68.

244.6. The by-law may prescribe for the use of measuring instruments to permit the computation of the amount payable, as well as rules relating to the installation, maintenance and reading of such instruments and the consequences of a breach of such rules, more particularly, as regards the determination of an amount payable by the debtor in whose respect the instruments cannot be used.

1988, c. 76, s. 68.

244.7. Any compensation required from a person under this division by reason of his being the owner of an immovable shall be regarded as a property tax imposed on the unit of assessment that includes the immovable.

That presumption, however, does not apply if the owner of the immovable is not the person in whose name the unit of assessment that includes the immovable is entered on the roll.

244.7.1. If the mode of tariffing is a property tax or a compensation, the by-law must clearly indicate whether or not the property tax or compensation is required from a person because that person is the owner or occupant of an immovable included in an agricultural operation registered in accordance with a regulation made under section 36.15 of the Act respecting the Ministère de l'Agriculture, des Pêcheries et de l'Alimentation (chapter M-14).

If the tax or compensation is required from a person because that person is the owner or occupant of a unit of assessment that includes, among other immovables, one or more of the type of immovable referred to in the first paragraph, the by-law must clearly indicate the part of the amount of the tax or compensation payable in respect of the unit that is attributable to the type of immovable referred to in the first paragraph. That part must be indicated separately on the request for payment of the tax or compensation.

244.8. Subject to section 244.7, the by-law may prescribe terms and conditions for the collection of the amount exigible under this division.

Failing such terms and conditions, the rules provided for by the Act in respect of the collection of taxes or compensations, where the mode of tariffing imposed is a tax or a compensation, apply to the amount payable under this division.

1988, c. 76, s. 68; 1994, c. 30, s. 70; 1995, c. 34, s. 79; 1999, c. 90, s. 29; 2008, c. 18, s. 80.

244.9. A mode of tariffing may be used to repay all or part of a loan or to contribute to the sinking fund constituted for such repayment.

*Act respecting Municipal Taxation, C.Q.L.R., c. F-2.1, Sections 244.1 to 244.10MUNICIPAL TAXATION

In that case, the loan by-law or resolution must specify the mode of tariffing, the tax base and the class of debtors.

Where the by-law or resolution provides that the repayment must be made by way of both a property tax, or a compensation regarded as a property tax, and another mode of tariffing but does not specify the proportions thereof, only the tax or compensation shall be considered for the purpose of determining if all the persons qualified to vote in the municipality or only part of them may take part in the referendum on the by-law or resolution.

244.10. Sections 244.1 to 244.9 apply notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of any general law or special Act.

1988, c. 76, s. 68; 1991, c. 32, s. 160; 1993, c. 78, s. 10.

 FISCALITÉ MUNICIPALE

Le premier alinéa s'applique, compte tenu des adaptations nécessaires, dans le cas d'une révocation qui n'a pas été demandée par la municipalité et dans celui d'une confirmation en vue de laquelle la Commission a reçu de la personne reconnue tout document demandé.

2000, c. 54, a. 76.

243.24. La municipalité doit transmettre son opinion à la Commission dans les 90 jours qui suivent la transmission de l'avis.

En cas de défaut, le déroulement de l'instance devant la Commission peut se poursuivre malgré l'absence de l'opinion de la municipalité, laquelle n'en est pas pour autant forclosée.

2000, c. 54, a. 76.

243.25. La personne qui demande d'être reconnue doit produire à la Commission, à la demande de celle-ci ou de la municipalité, ses états financiers. Il en est de même pour l'autre personne dont on demande la mention dans la reconnaissance comme utilisateur de l'immeuble.

Le premier alinéa s'applique, compte tenu des adaptations nécessaires, dans le cas où la révocation de la reconnaissance ou sa révision périodique fait l'objet d'une instance devant la Commission.

2000, c. 54, a. 76.

244. (Abrogé).

1979, c. 72, a. 244; 1991, c. 32, a. 125.

SECTION III.1

TARIFICATION

1988, c. 76, a. 68.

244.1. Dans la mesure où est en vigueur un règlement du gouvernement prévu au paragraphe 8.2° de l'article 262, toute municipalité peut, par règlement, prévoir que tout ou partie de ses biens, services ou activités sont financés au moyen d'un mode de tarification.

Elle peut, de la même façon, prévoir qu'est ainsi financée tout ou partie de la quote-part ou d'une autre contribution dont elle est débitrice pour un bien, un service ou une activité d'une autre municipalité, d'une communauté, d'une régie intermunicipale ou d'un autre organisme public intermunicipal.

Elle peut également, de la même façon, prévoir qu'est ainsi financée tout ou partie de la somme qu'elle doit verser en contrepartie de tout service que lui fournit la Sûreté du Québec.

1988, c. 76, a. 68; 1991, c. 32, a. 160; 1996, c. 77, a. 54; 2003, c. 19, a. 192.

244.2. Constitue un mode de tarification toute source locale et autonome de recettes, autre qu'une taxe basée sur la valeur foncière ou locative des immeubles ou des établissements d'entreprise, dont l'imposition n'est pas en soi incompatible avec l'application de l'article 244.3.

Sont notamment des modes de tarification:

1° une taxe foncière basée sur une autre caractéristique de l'immeuble que sa valeur, comme sa superficie, son étendue en front ou une autre de ses dimensions;

2° une compensation exigée du propriétaire ou de l'occupant d'un immeuble;

FISCALITÉ MUNICIPALE

3° un prix exigé de façon ponctuelle ou sous forme d'abonnement pour l'utilisation d'un bien ou d'un service ou pour le bénéfice retiré d'une activité.

Le seul mode de tarification que peut prévoir une municipalité régionale de comté n'agissant pas à titre de municipalité locale en vertu de l'article 8 de la Loi sur l'organisation territoriale municipale (chapitre O-9) est un prix visé au paragraphe 3° du deuxième alinéa ou exigé selon des modalités analogues à celles d'un abonnement.

1988, c. 76, a. 68; 1991, c. 32, a. 126; 1996, c. 77, a. 55; 1999, c. 40, a. 133.

244.3. Le mode de tarification doit être lié au bénéfice reçu par le débiteur.

Le bénéfice est reçu non seulement lorsque le débiteur ou une personne à sa charge utilise réellement le bien ou le service ou profite de l'activité mais aussi lorsque le bien ou le service est à sa disposition ou que l'activité est susceptible de lui profiter éventuellement. Cette règle s'applique également, compte tenu des adaptations nécessaires, dans le cas d'un bien, d'un service ou d'une activité qui profite ou est susceptible de profiter non pas à la personne en tant que telle mais à l'immeuble dont elle est propriétaire ou occupant.

L'extension donnée par le deuxième alinéa au sens de l'expression «bénéfice reçu» ne s'applique pas si le mode de tarification est un prix exigé de façon ponctuelle pour l'utilisation du bien ou du service ou pour le bénéfice retiré d'une activité. L'activité d'une municipalité qui consiste à étudier une demande et à y répondre est réputée procurer un bénéfice au demandeur, quelle que soit la réponse, y compris lorsque la demande a pour objet un acte réglementaire ou que la réponse consiste dans un tel acte.

244.4. Le mode de tarification demeure lié au bénéfice reçu même si les recettes qu'il produit excèdent les dépenses attribuables au bien, au service ou à l'activité, pourvu que l'excédent s'explique par des motifs de saine administration comme la nécessité de normaliser la demande, de tenir compte de la concurrence et de donner préséance aux habitants et aux contribuables du territoire de la municipalité parmi les bénéficiaires ou qu'il s'explique, dans le cas où le mode est un prix exigé de façon ponctuelle lors de l'utilisation d'un bien ou d'un service, par une utilisation plus fréquente que prévu.

244.5. Le règlement peut prévoir des catégories de biens, de services, d'activités, de quotes-parts, de contributions ou de bénéficiaires, combiner des catégories et édicter des règles différentes selon les catégories ou combinaisons.

Il peut notamment prévoir que:

1° la tarification est utilisée à l'égard d'une catégorie ou d'une combinaison et non à l'égard d'une autre;

2° la tarification est combinée, de la façon qu'il détermine, à tout autre mode de financement prévu par une autre disposition législative applicable, cette mixité pouvant être utilisée à l'égard d'une catégorie ou d'une combinaison et non à l'égard d'une autre ou pouvant être différente selon les catégories ou combinaisons;

3° le mode de tarification applicable est différent selon les catégories ou combinaisons;

FISCALITÉ MUNICIPALE

244.6. Le règlement peut prévoir l'utilisation d'instruments de mesure pour permettre le calcul du montant à payer et prévoir les règles relatives à l'installation, à l'entretien et à la consultation de ces instruments et les conséquences d'un manquement à ces règles, notamment quant à l'établissement d'un montant payable par le débiteur pour lequel les instruments ne peuvent remplir leur fonction.

1988, c. 76, a. 68.

244.7. Toute compensation exigée d'une personne en vertu de la présente section, en raison du fait qu'elle est propriétaire d'un immeuble, est assimilée à une taxe foncière imposée sur l'unité d'évaluation comprenant celui-ci.

Toutefois, cette assimilation ne s'applique pas si le propriétaire de l'immeuble n'est pas la personne au nom de laquelle est inscrite l'unité d'évaluation comprenant celui-ci.

244.7.1. Lorsque le mode de tarification est une taxe foncière ou une compensation, le libellé du règlement doit être tel qu'il permette de déterminer si la taxe ou la compensation est exigée ou non d'une personne en raison du fait que celle-ci est le propriétaire ou l'occupant d'un immeuble compris dans une exploitation agricole enregistrée conformément à un règlement pris en vertu de l'article 36.15 de la Loi sur le ministère de l'Agriculture, des Pêcheries et de l'Alimentation (chapitre M-14).

Si la taxe ou la compensation est exigée d'une personne en raison du fait que celle-ci est le propriétaire ou l'occupant d'une unité d'évaluation comportant non exclusivement un ou plus d'un immeuble visé au premier alinéa, le libellé du règlement doit être tel qu'il permette de déterminer, sur le montant de taxe ou de compensation payable à l'égard de l'unité, la partie qui est attribuable à l'immeuble visé au premier alinéa ou à l'ensemble de tels immeubles. Cette partie doit apparaître distinctement sur la demande de paiement de la taxe ou de la compensation.

244.8. Sous réserve de l'article 244.7, le règlement peut prévoir les modalités de perception du montant payable en vertu de la présente section.

À défaut, les règles prévues par la loi quant à la perception des taxes ou des compensations, si le mode de tarification imposé en est une, s'appliquent au montant payable en vertu de la présente section.

1988, c. 76, a. 68; 1994, c. 30, a. 70; 1995, c. 34, a. 79; 1999, c. 90, a. 29; 2008, c. 18, a. 80.

244.9. Un mode de tarification peut être utilisé pour contribuer au remboursement de tout ou partie d'un emprunt et à la dotation du fonds d'amortissement constitué pour ce remboursement.

Dans un tel cas, le règlement ou la résolution d'emprunt doit mentionner le mode de tarification, la base d'imposition et la catégorie de débiteurs.

Si le règlement ou la résolution prévoit que le remboursement doit être fait au moyen à la fois d'une taxe foncière ou d'une compensation qui y est assimilée et d'un autre mode de tarification, sans préciser dans quelles proportions, seule la taxe ou la compensation est considérée aux fins de déterminer si toutes les personnes habiles à voter de la municipalité ou une partie seulement d'entre elles peuvent participer au référendum sur le règlement ou la résolution.

244.10. Les articles 244.1 à 244.9 s'appliquent malgré toute disposition inconciliable d'une loi générale ou spéciale.

1988, c. 76, a. 68; 1991, c. 32, a. 160; 1993, c. 78, a. 10.

5.8 Service Credit and Pre-existing Conditions.

(1) Employee Plans. The Purchaser shall (i) assume all obligations of the Vendors with respect to the Employee Plans (other than the Pension Plans) related to Transferred Employees, participation in which is required under the Collective Bargaining Agreements effective as at the Closing Date, or (ii) provide replacement Employee Plans in compliance with the Collective Bargaining Agreements (the "Assumed Employee Plans"). The Vendors shall retain Liability for all premiums accrued, due or payable prior to the Closing Date in respect of such Assumed Employee Plans other than in respect of the Suspended Benefits Payments; it being further agreed that the Purchaser does not assume any obligation whatsoever with respect to the Suspended Benefits Payments.

(2) Service Recognition. For greater certainty, the Purchaser shall also recognize all service of the Transferred Employees with the Vendors for the purposes of those employee plans in which the Transferred Employees are enrolled by the Purchaser immediately after the Closing Date.

(3) Pre-Existing Conditions. The Purchaser shall use commercially reasonable efforts to arrange for the waiver of any and all pre-existing limitation restrictions under its employee plans, but only to the extent that such limitation restrictions are waived or otherwise do not apply under the applicable corresponding Employee Plans of the Vendors. With respect to Transferred Employees who are subject, on the Closing Date, to pre-existing limitation provisions under the Employee Plans of the Vendors, pre-existing limitation provisions under the applicable corresponding employee plans of the Purchaser shall lapse on the date such limitations would have lapsed under the Employee Plans of the Vendors as if the Transferred Employee had remained in the employ of the Vendors.

ARTICLE 6 COVENANTS

6.1 Target Closing Date. The Parties shall cooperate with each other and shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to effect the Closing on the Target Closing Date.

6.2 Motion for Approval and Vesting Order. Pursuant to and subject to the terms of the SISF, the Vendors shall file with the Court, as soon as practicable after its execution and delivery of this Agreement, a motion seeking the Court's issuance of the Approval and Vesting Order and of the Assignment Order. The Vendors shall diligently use their commercially reasonable efforts to seek the issuance and entry of the Approval and Vesting Order and of the Assignment Order. The Purchaser shall cooperate with the Vendors in their efforts to obtain the issuance and entry of the Approval and Vesting Order and of the Assignment Order. The Purchaser, at its own expense, will promptly provide to the Vendors and the Monitor all such information within its possession or under its control as the Vendors or the Monitor may reasonably require to obtain the Approval and Vesting Order and the Assignment Order.

6.3 Access During Interim Period. During the Interim Period, the Vendors shall, subject to any confidentiality or safety restrictions, give, or cause to be given, to the Purchaser and its Representatives reasonable access during normal business hours to the Purchased Assets, including the Books and Records, to conduct such investigations, inspections, surveys or tests thereof and of the financial and legal condition of the Businesses and the Purchased Assets as the Purchaser deems reasonably necessary or desirable to further familiarize itself with the Businesses and the Purchased Assets. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Purchaser shall be permitted reasonable access during normal business hours to all documents relating to information scheduled or required to be disclosed under this Agreement and to the Employees. Such investigations, inspections, surveys and tests shall be carried out at the Purchaser's sole and exclusive risk, during normal business hours, and without undue interference with the operations of the care and maintenance activities being conducted and the Vendors shall co-operate reasonably in facilitating such investigations, inspections, surveys and tests and shall furnish copies of all such documents and materials relating to such matters as may be reasonably requested by or on behalf of the Purchaser.

6.4 Transaction Personal Information. Each Party shall comply with Privacy Law in the course of collecting, using and disclosing Transaction Personal Information. The Purchaser shall collect Transaction Personal Information prior to Closing only for purposes related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Following the Closing, the Purchaser shall not, without the consent of the individuals to whom such Personal Information relates or as permitted or required by Applicable Law, use or disclose Transaction Personal Information:

- (1) for purposes other than those for which such Transaction Personal Information was collected by the Vendors prior to the Closing; and
- (2) which does not relate directly to the carrying on of the Businesses or to the carrying out of the purposes for which the transactions contemplated by this Agreement were implemented.

The Purchaser shall protect and safeguard the Transaction Personal Information against unauthorized collection, use or disclosure, as provided by Privacy Law. The Purchaser shall cause its Representatives to observe the terms of this Section 6.4 and to protect and safeguard Transaction Personal Information in their possession in accordance with Privacy Law.

6.5 Risk of Loss. The Purchased Assets shall be at the risk of the Vendors until Closing. If before the Closing all or substantially all of the Purchased Assets are lost, damaged or destroyed or are expropriated or seized by any Governmental Authority or any other Person in accordance with Applicable Law or if notice of any such expropriation or seizure shall have been given in accordance with Applicable Law, the Purchaser, in its discretion, acting reasonably, shall have the option, exercisable by notice to the Vendors given prior to the Closing Time to terminate this Agreement, as provided in Section 9.1.

6.6 Care and Maintenance During Interim Period. During the Interim Period, the Vendors shall continue to maintain the Pointe-Noire Port Facility and the Pellet Plant, in substantially the same manner as conducted on the date of this Agreement.

6.7 Indemnity. The Purchaser hereby indemnifies the Vendors, the Vendors' Affiliates, the Monitor and their respective Representatives, and saves them fully harmless against, and will reimburse or compensate them for, any Damages arising from, in connection with or related in any manner whatsoever to:

- (1) any Transfer Taxes (including penalties and interest) which may be assessed against any Vendor, including any Taxes which may be assessed against any Vendor in the event that any election made pursuant to Section 3.8 is challenged by the relevant Tax authority as being inapplicable to the transactions under this Agreement, or as a result of the Purchaser's failure to file such elections within the prescribed time;

- 29 -

- (2) the Purchaser's access in accordance with Section 6.3;
- (3) any Environmental Obligation; and
- (4) the Purchaser's failure to pay when due and perform and discharge the Assumed Liabilities in accordance with their terms.

For greater certainty, if any Transfer Taxes (including interest and penalties) are assessed against one or more of the Vendors by a tax authority, such Vendor(s) shall forthwith send the Purchaser a copy of any written notice or documentation from such tax authority indicating the amount of Transfer Taxes that were assessed. The Purchaser shall indemnify the Vendor(s) for the assessed amounts pursuant to Section 6.7(1), and the Purchaser shall have the sole and exclusive right, at its own expenses, to assume or direct a challenge of such assessment, including the pursuit of the compromise or settlement of the challenge and the conduct of any related legal, administrative or other similar proceedings. The Vendors shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Purchaser in relation to the challenge. Any refunds obtained from the tax authorities in connection with such challenge shall belong solely to the Purchaser.

6.8 Books and Records. The Purchaser shall preserve and keep the Books and Records acquired by it pursuant to this Agreement for a period of six (6) years after Closing, or for any longer periods as may be required by any Laws applicable to such Books and Records. The Purchaser shall make such Books and Records, as well as electronic copies of such books and records (to the extent reasonably feasible), available to the Monitor and the Vendors, its successors, and any trustee in bankruptcy or receiver of the Vendors, and shall, at such party's expense, permit any of the foregoing persons to take copies of such Books and Records as they may require.

6.9 Environmental Liabilities. The Purchaser acknowledges that upon Closing, the Purchaser shall become responsible for the payment, performance and discharge of all Environmental Liabilities related to the Purchased Assets in accordance with all applicable industry standards and Applicable Law, including, as applicable, all obligations of any kind whatsoever under Environmental Laws relating to the Purchased Assets and/or the Businesses (collectively the "Environmental Obligations").

6.10 Transfer of Assumed Employee Plans. The Purchaser and the Vendors shall cooperate in order to complete all necessary steps to ensure the transfer, in accordance with the provisions of Article 5, of all Liabilities with respect to any Assumed Employee Plan to the Purchaser effective as at the Closing Date and it is agreed that the Purchaser shall assume all costs of any nature whatsoever arising out of or with respect to the transfer of the Assumed Employee Plans to the Purchaser effective as at the Closing Date.

6.11 Pension Plan for Unionized Employees. The Purchaser shall take all necessary steps to make a replacement pension plan available for Unionized Transferred Employees, including, if necessary, obtaining the consent of the Union, in which the Transferred Unionized Employees will participate, and which will comply with the requirements set forth in the relevant Collective Bargaining Agreement except that the Purchaser will not assume any Liability for any existing Pension Plan deficit solely as a result of entering into this Agreement.

- 30 -

6.12 Certain Information Technology Assets. With respect to any information technology assets Relating to the Businesses to be acquired by the Purchaser hereunder (such as desktops, laptops, mobile phones, servers and related hardware) (collectively, "Hardware"), the Purchaser will co-operate with the Vendors, at the Vendors' cost and expense, in causing data contained or stored in such Hardware not relating primarily to the Businesses, the Purchased Assets, the Assumed Liabilities or the Environmental Obligations to be removed from such Hardware in a manner reasonably satisfactory to the Vendors prior to the Closing Date or within a reasonable period of time thereafter, provided that such removal shall be carried out in a manner that does not damage or otherwise interfere with any data contained or stored in such Hardware Relating to the Businesses or primarily relating to the Purchased Assets. Any third party provider selected by the Purchaser and the Vendors to provide such services shall be agreed upon by the Purchaser and the Vendors, acting reasonably.

6.13 Trademarked and Branded Assets. With respect to any Purchased Assets to be acquired by the Purchaser hereunder bearing any trademarks, business names, logos or other branding of Cliffs Natural Resources Inc., Bloom Lake or Wabush (collectively, "Proprietary Marks"), such Proprietary Marks do not form part of the Purchased Assets. The Purchaser will co-operate with the Vendors, at the Vendors' cost and expense, in removing, dismantling and/or destroying such Proprietary Marks on or contained in any of the Purchased Assets, to the satisfaction of the Vendors, and nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as a license by the Vendors to the Purchaser of any Intellectual Property that does not form a part of the Purchased Assets.

6.14 Cooperation and Consultation with Governmental Authorities. All analyses, appearances, meetings, discussions, presentations, memoranda, briefs, filings, arguments, and proposals made by or on behalf of any Party before any Governmental Authority or the staff or regulators of any Governmental Authority, in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereunder (but, for the avoidance of doubt, not including any interactions between the Vendors or the Purchaser with Governmental Authorities in the ordinary course of business, any disclosure which is not permitted by Law or any disclosure containing confidential information) shall be disclosed to the other Parties hereunder in advance of any filing, submission or attendance, it being the intent that the Parties will consult and cooperate with one another, and consider in good faith the views of one another, in connection with any such analyses, appearances, meetings, discussions, presentations, memoranda, briefs, filings, arguments, and proposals. Each Party shall give notice to the other Parties with respect to any meeting, discussion, appearance or contact with any Governmental Authority or the staff or regulators of any Governmental Authority, with such notice being sufficient to provide the other Parties with the opportunity to attend and participate in such meeting, discussion, appearance or contact.

The Vendors and the Purchaser shall, at the sole expense of the requesting Party, from time to time promptly execute and deliver or cause to be executed and delivered all such further documents and instruments and shall do or cause to be done all such further acts and things in connection with this Agreement that the other Parties may reasonably require as being necessary or desirable in order to effectively carry out or better evidence or perfect the full intent and meaning of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

10.7 Entire Agreement. Other than any confidentiality agreement, non-disclosure agreement or similar undertaking or agreement signed by the Purchaser in favour of the CCAA Parties, or any of them, which remain in full force and effect, unamended by this Agreement, this Agreement and the agreements contemplated hereby constitute the entire agreement between the Parties or any of them pertaining to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, (including the letter of intent submitted by the Purchaser pursuant to the SISP dated May 19, 2015). There are no conditions, representations, warranties, obligations or other agreements between the Parties in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether oral or written, express or implied, statutory or otherwise) except as explicitly set out in this Agreement.

A waiver of any default, breach or non-compliance under this Agreement shall not be effective unless in writing and signed by the Party to be bound by the waiver and then only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it has been given. No waiver shall be inferred from or implied by any failure to act or delay in acting by a Party in respect of any default, breach or non-observance or by anything done or omitted to be done by the other Party. The waiver by a Party of any default, breach or non-compliance under this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that Party's rights under this Agreement in respect of any continuing or subsequent default, breach or non-observance (whether of the same or any other nature).

10.10 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability and will be severed from the balance of this Agreement, all without affecting the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

10.11 Remedies Cumulative. The rights, remedies, powers and privileges herein provided to a Party are cumulative and in addition to and not exclusive of or in substitution for any rights, remedies, powers and privileges otherwise available to that Party.

10.12 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Québec and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

10.13 Dispute Resolution. If any dispute arises with respect to the interpretation or enforcement of this Agreement, including as to what constitutes a breach or material breach of this Agreement for the purposes of Article 9, such dispute shall be determined by the Court within the CCAA Proceedings, or by such other Person or in such other manner as the Court may direct. Without prejudice to the ability of the Vendors to enforce this Agreement in any other proper jurisdiction, the Purchaser and the Vendors irrevocably submit and attorn to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Québec.

10.14 Attornment. Each Party agrees (a) that any Legal Proceeding relating to this Agreement may (but need not) be brought in the Court, and for that purpose now irrevocably and unconditionally attorns and submits to the jurisdiction of the Court; (b) that it irrevocably waives any right to, and shall not, oppose any such Legal Proceeding in the Court on any jurisdictional basis, including forum non conveniens; and (c) not to oppose the enforcement against it in any other jurisdiction of any Order duly obtained from the Court as contemplated by this Section 10.14. Each Party agrees that service of process on such Party as provided in Section 10.4 shall be deemed effective service of process on such Party.

10.15 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of, and be binding on, the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

10.16 Assignment. Prior to the issuance of the Approval and Vesting Order, the Purchaser may assign all of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to an Affiliate, provided that (a) the Purchaser shall remain liable to perform all of its obligations hereunder, and (b) the Purchaser and its assignee execute and deliver to the Vendors an assignment and assumption agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Vendors, acting reasonably, evidencing such assignment. Other than in accordance with the preceding sentence, neither the Purchaser nor the Vendors may assign or transfer, whether absolutely, by way of security or otherwise, all or any part of its rights or obligations under this Agreement.

10.17 Monitor's Capacity. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Monitor, acting in its capacity as the Monitor of the Vendors and the other CCAA Parties in the CCAA Proceedings, will have no Liability in connection with this Agreement whatsoever in its capacity as Monitor, in its personal capacity or otherwise.

10.18 Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the Parties, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

10.19 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and both of which taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument. To evidence its execution of an original counterpart of this Agreement, a Party may send a copy of its original signature on the execution page hereof to the other Parties by e-mail in pdf format or by other electronic transmission and such transmission shall constitute delivery of an executed copy of this Agreement to the receiving Party.

10.20 Language. The Parties have required that this Agreement and all deeds, documents and notices relating to this Agreement be drawn up in the English language. For greater certainty and the avoidance of doubt, no Access Party will be required to indemnify any other Access Party Indemnified Party against and in respect of any Losses which were the result of actions of such other Access Parties or their respective Agents.

3.2 Indemnification in favour of the Access Parties

The Purchaser indemnifies and holds each Access Party and its officers, directors, and Representatives (collectively, the “Purchaser Indemnified Parties”) harmless against and in respect of any and all Losses (i) which the Purchaser Indemnified Parties may suffer, sustain, pay or incur as a result of the gross negligence or intentional fault of the Purchaser or any of its Representatives, and (ii) caused by the Purchaser or its Representatives to the Excluded Assets during the transportation of Excluded Assets in accordance with Section 2.3.

4. Term and Termination

4.1 Term

Subject to Section 4.2, this Access Agreement shall continue for a term (as may be extended below, the “Term”) beginning on the Effective Date and ending on the earlier of (i) November 30, 2016 or such later date as may be agreed to in writing by the Purchaser and any Access Party, and (ii) the date upon which counsel to the CCAA Parties and the Monitor confirm in writing that the Activities have been completed. 4.3 Removal of Assets at the End of the Term or Deemed Transfer

In the event that (a) at the end of the Term any Excluded Asset remains on the Premises or (b) an Access Party is provided with an Early Removal Notice, the applicable Access Party hereby agrees and undertakes, at its discretion, to either (i) transport, remove or dispose of such Excluded Asset or Early Removal Asset, as applicable, of such Access Party out of the Premises within 30 days from the end of the Term or the Early Removal Date, as applicable, or (ii) transfer to the Purchaser all of its rights, title and interests in such Excluded Asset or Early Removal Asset, as applicable, of such Access Party on an “as is, where is” basis and in consideration for the payment by the Purchaser of an amount of $1.00.

In the event an Access Party elects to remove any Excluded Asset or Early Removal Asset out of the Premises in accordance with the foregoing paragraph, the Term shall be deemed, in respect of such Excluded Asset or Early Removal Asset, only, to be extended until the earlier of (a) the complete removal of such Excluded Asset or Early Removal Asset from the Premises, and (b) the date that is 30 days from the end of the Term or the Early Removal Date, as applicable. If such Access Party fails to remove such Excluded Asset or Early Removal Asset by such time, the applicable Access Party shall be deemed to have transferred all of its right, title and interests in such Excluded Asset or Early Removal Asset to the Purchaser on an “as is, where is” basis for $1.00 and such Access Party shall execute any such transfer documents as may be required to evidence such transfer.

the vesting of the Purchased Assets contemplated in this Order, as well as the execution of the Purchase Agreement pursuant to this Order, are to be binding on any trustee in bankruptcy or receiver that may be appointed, and shall not be void or voidable nor deemed to be a settlement, fraudulent preference, assignment, fraudulent conveyance, transfer at undervalue or other reviewable transaction under the BIA or any other applicable federal or provincial legislation, as against the Vendors, the Purchaser or the Monitor, and shall not constitute oppressive or unfairly prejudicial conduct pursuant to any applicable federal or provincial legislation.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- [31] DECLARES that, subject to other orders of this Court, nothing herein contained shall require the Monitor to take control, or to otherwise manage all or any part of the Purchased Assets. The Monitor shall not, as a result of this Order, be deemed to be in possession of any of the Purchased Assets within the meaning of environmental legislation, the whole pursuant to the terms of the CCAA.
- [32] DECLARES that no action lies against the Monitor by reason of this Order or the performance of any act authorized by this Order, except by leave of the Court. The entities related to the Monitor or belonging to the same group as the Monitor shall benefit from the protection arising under the present paragraph.

CONFIDENTIALITY

- [33] ORDERS that, subject to further Order of the Court, until the Closing of the Transaction, the un-redacted Purchase Agreement filed with the Court shall be sealed, kept confidential and not form part of the public record, but rather shall be placed, separate and apart from all other contents of the Court file, in a sealed envelope attached to a notice that sets out the title of these proceedings and a statement that the contents are subject to a sealing order and shall only be opened prior to the Closing of the Transaction on further Order of the Court.

GENERAL

- [34] DECLARES that the Vendors and the Purchaser shall be authorized to take all steps as may be necessary to effect the discharge of the Encumbrances.
- [35] DECLARES that this Order shall have full force and effect in all provinces and territories in Canada.
- [36] DECLARES that the Monitor shall be authorized to apply as it may consider necessary or desirable, with or without notice, to any other court or administrative body, whether in Canada, the United States of America or elsewhere, for orders which aid and complement this Order. All courts and administrative bodies of all such jurisdictions are hereby respectfully requested to make such orders and to provide such assistance to the Monitor as may be deemed necessary or appropriate for that purpose.
- [37] REQUESTS the aid and recognition of any court or administrative body in any Province of Canada and any Canadian federal court or administrative body and any federal or state court or administrative body in the United States of America and any court or administrative body elsewhere, to act in aid of and to be complementary to this Court in carrying out the terms of this Order.

(4) Where the Purchaser has withheld any amount under Section 3.5(2) and no Québec Certificate of Compliance has been delivered to the Purchaser in respect of the 1097 Property on or prior to the Remittance Date, such amount shall be remitted by the Purchaser to the Ministère du Revenu (Québec) for the account of Wabush Iron in accordance with section 1101 or 1102.2 as the case may be of the TAQ.

(5) For the avoidance of doubt, the Purchaser shall not remit any amount referred to in Section 3.5(4) to the Ministère du Revenu (Québec) before the Remittance Date, as such date may be extended pursuant to Section 3.5(6).

(6) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 3.5, if prior to the Remittance Date, the Purchaser has received a comfort letter issued by the Ministère du Revenu (Québec) in form and substance satisfactory to the Purchaser, acting reasonably, extending the time period under which the Purchaser is required to remit an amount in respect of the Purchase Price for the account of Wabush Iron without being subject to interest or penalties, the Purchaser shall not make any remittance to the Ministère du Revenu (Québec) on the date that would otherwise be the Remittance Date and the Remittance Date shall be extended indefinitely, or until the Purchaser receives notification from the Ministère du Revenu (Québec) that such comfort letter is no longer in effect.

- (6) by written notice from the Vendors to the Purchaser if there has been a material breach by the Purchaser of any representation, warranty or covenant contained in this Agreement, which breach has not been waived by the Vendors, and (i) such breach is not curable and has rendered the satisfaction of any condition in Section 7.2 impossible by the Outside Date, or (ii) if such breach is curable, the Vendors have provided prior written notice of such breach to the Purchaser, and such breach has not been cured within ten (10) days following the date upon which the Purchaser received such notice; or 8.3 Treatment of Deposit.

(1) Retention of Deposit. In the event that this Agreement is terminated by the Vendors pursuant to Section 8.1(6) or 8.1(7), the Deposit shall be forfeited by the Purchaser and retained by the Monitor on behalf of the Vendors as a genuine estimate of liquidated damages, and not as a penalty. The retention of the Deposit by the Vendors shall be the Vendors' sole and exclusive remedy for any termination of this Agreement.

(2) Return of Deposit. In the event that this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 8.1(1), 8.1(2), 8.1(3), 8.1(4) or 8.1(5) the Deposit shall be returned to the Purchaser. The return of the Deposit shall be the Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy for any termination of this Agreement.

(3) GST/HST Gross Up. In the event that any payment or forfeiture under this Agreement is deemed by the Excise Tax Act (Canada) to include GST/HST, or is deemed by the Act respecting the Québec Sales Tax to include QST, the amount of such payment or forfeiture shall be increased accordingly.

9.6 Further Assurances. The Vendors and the Purchaser shall, at the sole expense of the requesting Party, from time to time promptly execute and deliver or cause to be executed and delivered all such further documents and instruments and shall do or cause to be done all such further acts and things in connection with this Agreement that the other Party may reasonably require as being necessary or desirable in order to effectively carry out or better evidence or perfect the full intent and meaning of this Agreement or any provision hereof.

9.7 Entire Agreement. Other than any confidentiality agreement, non-disclosure agreement or similar undertaking or agreement signed by the Purchaser in favour of the CCAA Parties, or any of them, which remain in full force and effect, unamended by this Agreement, this Agreement and the agreements contemplated hereby constitute the entire agreement between the Parties or any of them pertaining to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersede all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written, (including the letter of intent submitted by the Purchaser pursuant to the SISF dated May 19, 2015. 9.9 Waiver. A waiver of any default, breach or non-compliance under this Agreement shall not be effective unless in writing and signed by the Party to be bound by the waiver and then only in the specific instance and for the specific purpose for which it has been given. No waiver shall be inferred from or implied by any failure to act or delay in acting by a Party in respect of any default, breach or non-observance or by anything done or omitted to be done by the other Party. The waiver by a Party of any default, breach or non-compliance under this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that Party's rights under this Agreement in respect of any continuing or subsequent default, breach or non-observance (whether of the same or any other nature).

9.10 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability and will be severed from the balance of this Agreement, all without affecting the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Without prejudice to the ability of the Vendors to enforce this Agreement in any other proper jurisdiction, the Purchaser and the Vendors irrevocably submit and attorn to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Québec.

9.14 Attornment. Each Party agrees (a) that any Legal Proceeding relating to this Agreement may (but need not) be brought in the Court, and for that purpose now irrevocably and unconditionally attorns and submits to the jurisdiction of the Court; (b) that it irrevocably waives any right to, and shall not, oppose any such Legal Proceeding in the Court on any jurisdictional basis, including forum non conveniens; and (c) not to oppose the enforcement against it in any other jurisdiction of any Order duly obtained from the Court as contemplated by this Section 9.14. Each Party agrees that service of process on such Party as provided in Section 9.4 shall be deemed effective service of process on such Party.

9.15 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of, and be binding on, the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

9.16 Assignment. Prior to the issuance of the Approval and Vesting Order, the Purchaser may assign all of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to an Affiliate, provided that (a) the Purchaser shall remain liable to perform all of its obligations hereunder, and (b) the Purchaser and its assignee execute and deliver to the Vendors an assignment and assumption agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Vendors, acting reasonably, evidencing such assignment. Other than in accordance with the preceding sentence, neither the Purchaser nor the Vendors may assign or transfer, whether absolutely, by way of security or otherwise, all or any part of its rights or obligations under this Agreement.

9.17 Monitor's Capacity. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Monitor, acting in its capacity as the Monitor of the Vendors and the other CCAA Parties in the CCAA Proceedings, will have no Liability in connection with this Agreement whatsoever in its capacity as Monitor, in its personal capacity or otherwise.

9.19 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and both of which taken together shall be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument. To evidence its execution of an original counterpart of this Agreement, a Party may send a copy of its original signature on the execution page hereof to the other Party by e-mail in pdf format or by other electronic transmission and such transmission shall constitute delivery of an executed copy of this Agreement to the receiving Party.

Dear Mr. Holland:

Re: Contributory Pension Plan for Salaried Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company, Limited; (the "Plan")
NL Registration Number 0021314

I am writing to you in your capacity as the Plan administrator. Pursuant to subsections 59(1)(b) and (d) of the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 (the Act), I am terminating the Plan effective immediately.

On May 20, 2015, Wabush Iron Co. Limited, Wabush Resources Inc. and certain of their affiliates, including Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company Limited (collectively the "Wabush Group") were made subject to proceeding under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (CCAA). As part of the CCAA proceeding, payments of special payments have been suspended as of May 2015. In addition, the Wabush Mine has been shut down and substantially all of its employees have been terminated. As a result, I am of the opinion that the Plan has failed to meet the requirements prescribed by the Pension Benefits Act Regulations (the Regulations) for solvency in respect of funding as required by section 12 of the Regulations, and that the employer has discontinued all of its business operations

Furthermore, it is my understanding based on recent communication with you and your legal counsel that, although there may be some prospects with respect to the sale of at least some of the Wabush Group's assets, it is highly unlikely that any potential buyer would agree to assume the assets and liabilities of the Plan. Given the Plan's future prospects and its current financial position, I consider that it would be in the best interests of members to terminate the Plan effective immediately.

Based on the above, I declare the Plan terminated effective the date of issuance of this letter, December 16, 2015.

Subsection 61(1) of the Act provides that upon termination of a plan the employer must pay into the pension fund all amounts that would otherwise have been required to be paid to meet the requirements prescribed by the Regulations for solvency. Under section 25 of the Regulations, this amount is required within 30 days of the date of termination of the Plan.

Additionally, subsection 61(2) of the Act requires that on plan termination the employer shall, as prescribed by the Regulations, pay into the pension fund the amount that is necessary to fund the benefits provided under the Plan. Section 25.1 of the Regulations outlines the rules with respect to the required funding.

Section 32 of the Act sets out rules with respect to the application of the deemed trust upon plan termination.

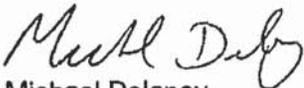

I wish to inform you that following the termination of a plan, an annual information return and actuarial termination report must be filed with my office pursuant to subsection 60(2) of the Act. Please be advised that funds cannot be transferred until the Superintendent has approved the termination report and transfer in writing. Please refer to the Act and associated regulations and Directives (in particular Nos. 8, 9 and 11) for additional details. The Directives can be found on the Service NL website.

Once the wind-up report has been approved, option statements must be provided to members in accordance with the Act and Directives. However, please note that copies/templates are required by this office prior to approving the termination report. Please refer to the requirements under Directive No. 8 (and any additional requirements under Directive No. 11).

Please inform all Plan members of my decision to declare the Plan terminated effective the date of issuance of this letter, December 16, 2015.

Subject: Termination of the Pension Plan for Bargaining Unit Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent, Arnaud Railway Company, and Wabush Lake Railway Company, Limited (the Plan)
OSFI Registration Number: 57777
Pension Benefits Standards Act, 1985 (PBSA)
Pension Benefits Standards Regulations, 1985 (the Regulations)

I am writing to you in your capacity as the Plan administrator. Pursuant to subsections 29(2), (2.1) and (3) of the PBSA I am terminating the Plan effective immediately. The Newfoundland Superintendent of Pensions, in a letter dated December 16, 2015, has also declared the Plan terminated effective as of today.

On May 20, 2015, Wabush Iron Co. Limited, Wabush Resources Inc. and certain of their affiliates, including Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway Company¹ and Wabush Lake Railway Company Limited (collectively the "Wabush Group") were made subject to proceeding under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (CCAA). As part of the CCAA proceeding, payments of special payments have been suspended as of May 2015. In addition, the Wabush Mine has been shut down and substantially all of its employees have been terminated. As a result, I am of the opinion that the Plan has failed to meet the prescribed tests and standards for solvency as required by subsection 9(1) of the PBSA and sections 8 and 9 of the Regulations, and that the employer has discontinued all of its business operations.

Furthermore, it is OSFI's understanding based on recent communication with you and your legal counsel that, although there may be some prospects with respect to the sale of at least some of the Wabush Group's assets, it is highly unlikely that any potential buyer would agree to assume the assets and liabilities of the Plan. Given the Plan's future prospects and its current financial position, I consider that it would be in the best interests of members to terminate the Plan effective immediately.

Based on the above, I declare the Plan terminated effective the date of issuance of this letter, December 16, 2015.

Subsection 29(6) of the PBSA provides that upon termination of a plan the employer must pay into the pension fund all amounts that would otherwise have been required to be paid to meet the prescribed tests and standards for solvency referred to in subsection 9(1) of the PBSA.

Note that subsection 29(6.1) of the PBSA requires that on plan termination the employer pay into the pension fund the amount that is required to ensure that any obligation of the plan with respect to pension benefits, as they are determined on the date of the termination, is satisfied. Under subsection 29(6.4), this amount is payable immediately on the winding-up of the pension plan, or the liquidation, assignment or bankruptcy of the employer. Subsections 29(6.2) and 29(6.5), as well as subparagraph 8(1)(c)(ii), set out rules with respect to the application of the deemed trust upon plan termination.

I wish to inform you that following the termination of a plan, an actuarial termination report must be filed with my office pursuant to subsection 29(9) of the PBSA. Furthermore, upon termination of a plan, OSFI's approval would be required before the Plan's funds could be distributed. Section VI of OSFI's Instruction Guide titled "Filing and Reporting Requirements for Defined Benefit Pension Plan Terminations" outlines the documents that are expected to be filed with OSFI within 90 days of the termination date.

Please inform all Plan members and stakeholders of my decision to declare the Plan terminated as soon as possible.

If you have any questions you may contact Stephen Reid at 613-990-2537 or Chuck Saab at 613-990-8027.

Dear Mr. Chang:

Re: Contributory Pension Plan for Salaried Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company, Limited; (the "Plan")
NL Registration Number 0021314

On May 20, 2015, Wabush Iron Co. Limited, Wabush Resources Inc. and certain of their affiliates, including Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company Limited (collectively the "Wabush Group") were made subject to proceedings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act ("CCAA").

On December 16, 2015, the Superintendent of Pensions declared a termination of the Plan.

On March 1, 2016, the Wabush Group (through their legal counsel) requested, in writing, the appointment of a replacement administrator for the Plan on or about March 14, 2016. In this letter, and subsequent correspondence dated March 23, 2016, it was stated that the Wabush Group no longer has the resources available to act as administrator for the Plan.

Pursuant to section 63 of the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 (the "Act"), where the whole of a pension plan has been terminated and the superintendent is of the opinion that no action or insufficient action has been taken to wind-up the plan, the superintendent may appoint an administrator for the plan.

Based on the request, there is sufficient concern regarding the wind-up of the Plan and I am of the opinion that another administrator should be appointed for the Plan.

Mr. P. Chang
March 30, 2016

I understand from your correspondence, dated March 4, 2016, that Morneau Shepell is willing to act as administrator for the Plan. Therefore, pursuant to section 63 of the Act, effective the date of issuance of this letter, March 30, 2016, I hereby appoint Morneau Shepell as the administrator for the Plan.

Please refer to the Act and associated legislation for the duties and responsibilities of an administrator.

Please inform all Plan members of your appointment as soon as possible. No official communication will be issued by this office but any future calls requesting to speak with the administrator will be directed to your firm. I understand that the initial point of contact is Paula Boyd and, when appropriate, I will provide her contact information to enquiring members of the Plan.

As administrator, you are entitled to all pertinent information relating to the Plan, including; plan documentation, agreements with any third-party providers, pension database(s), all previous communication to plan members and stakeholders, documentation filed with regulatory authorities, all previous filings with the monitor and Superior Court relating to the Plan (including the Pension Claim), etc. I trust that all parties will co-operate efficiently and completely with the new administrator to minimize any potential disruption to the members. Please notify me immediately if there are any issues.

Once you have an opportunity to familiarize yourself with the Plan I would suggest that we have a meeting to discuss the completion of the wind-up. Please contact me in the next two to three weeks to arrange such a meeting.

As you are aware, in your role as administrator for the Plan, you are responsible for ensuring that only permitted fees and expenses can be paid from the pension fund. I trust you will ensure that any expenses that are the responsibility of any party to the Plan will continue to be paid appropriately. I request that all expenses paid from the pension fund are filed with this office, within 30 days after the end of the month the expense is paid. However, please be advised that this office will not be approving the expenses – as this is the role of the administrator.

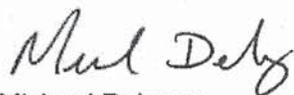

Finally, although the Wabush Group is relinquishing its role as administrator from March 30, 2016, it does not limit in any way the financial obligations of any employer involved in the Plan or any potential liability in respect of the fiduciary responsibilities prior to this date.

Pension Benefits Standards Act, 1985 (PBSA)
Pension Benefits Standards Regulations, 1985 (the Regulations)

The purpose of this letter is to inform you that I have appointed a replacement administrator for the Plan effective immediately. My authority for doing this is based on subsection 7.6(1) of the PBSA and section 10 of the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions Act (OSFI Act). For your information, attached is an Appendix containing the relevant legislative references.

On March 1, 2016, and subsequent clarification on March 23, 2016, Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP issued letters on behalf of Wabush Mines to the Newfoundland Superintendent of Pensions and our office requesting the appointment of a replacement administrator for the Plan on the basis that the administrator no longer has the resources necessary to perform the tasks related to the administration of the Plan.

Given this and the ongoing liquidation process under CCAA, I am of the opinion that it is in the best interests of the members and former members, and any other persons entitled to pension benefits under the Plan, that the current administrator be removed and a replacement administrator be appointed pursuant to subsection 7.6(1) of the PBSA.

Consequently, I wish to inform you that effective immediately, I have removed Wabush Mines as the Plan's administrator and have appointed Morneau Shepell as replacement administrator. Pursuant to subsection 7.6(3) of the PBSA, Morneau Shepell is seized of the pension funds as of the date of this notification.

- I. Each signatory to this Agreement represents the government of a legislative jurisdiction in Canada and is authorized by the laws of the signatory's jurisdiction to sign this Agreement.
- II. A pension plan may be subject to the pension legislation of more than one jurisdiction and may be subject to the supervision of more than one jurisdiction's pension supervisory authority, by reason of the nature or place of the plan members' residence or employment or the nature of the business, work or undertaking of the members' employer.
- III. Pension plans that are subject to the pension legislation of more than one jurisdiction play a significant role in providing retirement income to many Canadians. To establish an efficient and transparent regulatory environment for such plans, the governments that are party to this Agreement deem it desirable to specify the rules that apply to such plans and allow, to the extent provided for in this Agreement, a single pension supervisory authority to exercise with respect to any such pension plan all of the supervisory and regulatory powers to which such plan is subject.
- IV. The laws of the jurisdictions whose governments are party to this Agreement allow for the incorporation of rules for pension plans enacted by Canadian legislative jurisdictions or as otherwise set out in this Agreement, as well as the reciprocal application of legislative provisions and administrative powers by the pension supervisory authorities concerned.
- V. The governments that are party to this Agreement agree as follows:

SECTION 2.

APPLICATION

General application

2. (1) Subject to subsection (2) and section 26, this Agreement applies to any pension plan that would, if this Agreement and any other agreement respecting the supervision of pension plans did not exist, be subject to registration with a pension supervisory authority under the pension legislation of more than one jurisdiction whose government is a party to this Agreement.

Restriction

(2) This Agreement does not apply to a pension plan if the pension supervisory authority that would be designated as the major authority for the plan under this Agreement is not subject to this Agreement.

Plan provision not effective

(3) This Agreement applies in respect of a pension plan despite any conflicting provision in any document that creates or supports the pension plan.

PART II MAJOR AUTHORITY

SECTION 3.

DETERMINATION OF THE MAJOR AUTHORITY

One major authority

3. (1) One pension supervisory authority having jurisdiction over a pension plan shall be the major authority for the plan.

Plurality of active members

(2) Except as provided in sections 5 and 26, the major authority for a pension plan shall be the pension supervisory authority of the jurisdiction with the plurality of active members of the plan, as determined in accordance with subsection (3) and considering only those jurisdictions whose pension legislation would, if this Agreement and any other agreement respecting the supervision of pension plans did not exist, require the plan to be registered with the pension supervisory authority of that jurisdiction.

Determination of plurality

(3) The jurisdiction that, among those referred to in subsection (2), has the plurality of active members of a pension plan shall be determined using the most recent periodic information return that has been filed with a pension supervisory authority in relation to the plan's fiscal year end and on the following basis:

- (a) in respect of a provincial jurisdiction, the number of active members of the plan who are employed in that provincial jurisdiction and who would be subject to that jurisdiction's pension legislation if this Agreement and any other agreement respecting the supervision of pension plans did not exist; and
- (b) in respect of the federal jurisdiction, the number of active members of the plan who are employed in "included employment" within the meaning of that jurisdiction's pension legislation, where the plan is subject to that jurisdiction's pension legislation.

Equal number of active members

(4) Where the major authority for a pension plan cannot be determined by applying subsections (2) and (3) because two or more jurisdictions have authority over an equal number, greater than zero, of active members of the plan, the major authority for the plan shall be, of those jurisdictions, the authority whose main office is in closest proximity to the main office of the administrator of the plan. For the purposes of this subsection:

- (a) the main office of a pension supervisory authority is the office from which the authority conducts most of its supervisory activities; and
- (b) the main office of the pension plan administrator is the office from which the plan administrator described in the text of the pension plan conducts most of the plan's administration.

Status as major authority

(5) A pension supervisory authority that becomes the major authority for a pension plan in accordance with this Agreement shall remain the major authority for the plan until the authority loses its status as major authority in accordance with this Agreement.

Minor authorities

(6) Once a pension supervisory authority becomes the major authority for a pension plan, any other pension supervisory authority to which this Agreement extends and that has supervisory or regulatory powers with respect to the plan becomes a minor authority for the plan.

New pension plan registration

(7) Where a pension supervisory authority receives an application to register a pension plan, that authority shall determine whether it is the major authority for the plan within the meaning of this Agreement, and if necessary and as soon as possible thereafter, that authority shall notify the plan administrator as to the relevant authority with which the plan should or may be registered and shall notify the relevant authority about the plan to be registered.

SECTION 4.ROLE OF THE MAJOR AUTHORITY*Interpretation

4. (1) For the purposes of this section:

- (a) a decision includes an order, direction, approval or, if specific recourse is provided, a proposal to make such a decision; and
- (b) recourse includes the right to request a hearing, review, reconsideration or appeal.

Role of major authority

(2) The major authority for a pension plan shall:

- (a) supervise and regulate the plan in accordance with this Agreement, and on behalf of each of the minor authorities for the plan as required by this Agreement;
- (b) subject to subsection (3) and section 9, exercise, with respect to the plan and as required by this Agreement, the functions and powers necessary to carry out this Agreement conferred on the minor authority by the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction;
- (c) apply and enforce any rules specified in this Agreement that are not part of the pension legislation of a jurisdiction; and
- (d) determine any matter or question related to the application of this Agreement to the plan in accordance with this Agreement and the procedural provisions of the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction.

Exceptions

(3) Despite clause (b) of subsection (2):

- (a) where the major authority for a pension plan and a minor authority for the plan agree that a particular function or power conferred by the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction shall be exercised in respect of the plan by the minor authority, only such minor authority may exercise such function or power in respect of the plan;
- (b) where the major authority for a pension plan and a minor authority for the plan agree that a particular decision concerning the application of provisions of the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction shall be made in respect of the plan by the minor authority, only such minor authority may make such decision in respect of the plan; and
- (c) where pension legislation confers on a pension supervisory authority the power to order or otherwise require the splitting of the assets and liabilities of a pension plan, only such authority may make a decision concerning the exercise of that power with respect to the liabilities of a plan that are subject to such pension legislation and the assets of the plan related to the funding of those liabilities.

Decisions and recourse

(4) Any decision that may be made by the major authority for a pension plan that applies the provisions of the pension legislation of a minor authority's jurisdiction as described in clause (b) of subsection (1) of section 6 is subject to the following rules:

- (a) the decision shall be made under the procedural provisions of the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction that would have applied if the matter had arisen under that legislation;
- (b) the decision shall be deemed to have been made by the minor authority under the procedural provisions of the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction that would have applied if the minor authority had made the decision;
- (c) when the decision is issued by the major authority, it shall include notice to any person receiving the decision as to:
 - (i) the substantive provisions of the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction that were applied in formulating the decision that is made;
 - (ii) the recourse provided, if any, from the decision under the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction, including the body before whom such recourse may be exercised;

- (iii) the time limit under the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction for exercising such recourse; and
 - (iv) where the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction does not provide for recourse from the decision, any recourse from the decision provided under any other legislation of that jurisdiction, including the body before whom such recourse may be exercised and the time limit for exercising such recourse; and
- (d) the right to recourse from the decision shall be determined under the pension legislation or other legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction as though the decision had been made under the procedural provisions of that legislation.

Continued role of major authority

(5) Exercise of a recourse from a decision referred to in this section does not have the effect of preventing or releasing the major authority from continuing to fulfill its responsibilities with respect to the pension plan as set out in subsection (2).

Enforcement of decisions

(6) The major authority shall enforce any decision referred to in this section once that decision is no longer open to any further recourse, as well as any decision resulting from such recourse that is no longer open to any further recourse.

Communication with major authority

(7) A person shall be entitled to communicate with the major authority for a pension plan in the same manner that the person would be entitled to communicate with a pension supervisory authority under the legislation that would apply to the person if this Agreement did not exist.

Representative

(8) Where a person having any rights or benefits under a pension plan has designated another person or an association that represents people with rights or benefits under the plan to act on his or her behalf with respect to the major authority for the plan, such authority shall, to the extent permitted by law, communicate with that other person or association and, upon request, provide that other person or association with the information and documents to which the person is entitled.

SECTION 5.LOSS OF MAJOR AUTHORITY STATUS*Loss of major authority status

5. (1) The major authority for a pension plan shall lose its status in that regard on the date described in subsection (2) where, according to the most recent periodic information return that has been filed with the major authority in relation to the plan's fiscal year end, the number of active members of the plan employed in relation to the major authority's jurisdiction, as determined under subsection (3) of section 3 as of the plan's fiscal year end, is:

- (a) for the third consecutive fiscal year, less than the number of active members who were employed in relation to any other jurisdiction or jurisdictions;
- (b) less than 75% of the number of active members who were employed in relation to any other jurisdiction; or
- (c) equal to zero and there are active members of the plan employed in relation to any other jurisdiction.

Date of loss of major authority status

(2) The major authority for a pension plan loses its status in that regard:

- (a) in the case provided for in clause (a) or (b) of subsection (1), five days prior to the end of the first plan fiscal year that begins after the date on which the major authority received the information referred to in the relevant clause; and
- (b) in the case provided for in clause (c) of subsection (1), upon the later of the fifth day before the end of the current plan fiscal year during which the major authority received the information referred to in that clause or of the expiry of the period of six months beginning on the date the major authority received the information.

New major authority

(3) When the major authority for a pension plan loses its status in that regard in accordance with subsection (2), the pension supervisory authority for the jurisdiction having, as determined in accordance with subsection (1), the plurality of active members of the plan becomes the plan's new major authority if that new major authority is subject to this Agreement.

Equal number of active members

(4) Where the new major authority for a pension plan cannot be determined in accordance with subsection (3) because two or more jurisdictions have authority over an equal number, greater than zero, of active members of the plan, the major authority for the plan shall be, of those jurisdictions, the authority whose main office is in closest proximity to the main office of the administrator of the plan. For the purposes of this subsection:

- (a) the main office of a pension supervisory authority is the office from which the authority conducts most of its supervisory activities; and
- (b) the main office of the pension plan administrator is the office from which the plan administrator described in the text of the pension plan conducts most of the plan's administration.

Transitional rules

(5) Where the major authority for a pension plan loses its status in that regard in accordance with this section:

- (a) all matters related to the plan that are pending before the major authority on the day preceding its loss of status as major authority shall be continued before that authority;
- (b) all matters related to the plan that concern a decision, order, direction or approval proposed or made by the major authority and pending before any administrative body or court on the day preceding the loss of the major authority's status as major authority shall be continued before such body or court;
- (c) for every matter in respect of which the major authority referred to in clause (a) or the administrative body or court referred to in clause (b) has proposed or made a decision, order, direction or approval to which the pension legislation or other legislation applying on the day preceding the replacement of the major authority provides a right of recourse:
 - (i) such right shall be maintained so long as the period provided for exercising that right has not expired; and
 - (ii) such recourse may be brought before the administrative body or court provided for by the legislation giving entitlement thereto;

- (d) for any matter related to the plan not described in clauses (a) to (c) that occurred while the major authority was the major authority for the plan and that related to the provisions of the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction in respect of a matter referred to in Schedule B:
 - (i) the major authority may, even after it loses its status in that regard for the plan, conduct an examination, investigation or inquiry into the matter in accordance with the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction to determine whether compliance with that legislation was met, and in such case, the matter shall remain subject to that major authority; and
 - (ii) where the matter constitutes an offence under the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction, the offence may be prosecuted by the competent authority in that jurisdiction, and in such case, the matter shall remain subject to that major authority; and
- (e) all matters referred to in clauses (a) to (d) shall remain subject to the pension legislation or other legislation that, under this Agreement, applied to such matters on the day preceding the loss of the major authority's status as major authority.

Notice by major authority

(6) Where the major authority for a pension plan receives from the administrator of the plan the information described in clauses (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1), it shall:

- (a) as soon as possible after receipt of the information, notify the pension plan administrator and each minor authority for the plan of the date on which, pursuant to subsection (2), it will lose its status as major authority for the plan and, if applicable, the pension supervisory authority that shall become the new major authority for the plan; and
- (b) as soon as possible after the plan's new major authority assumes its functions, provide to such new major authority all relevant records, documents or other information that it has concerning the plan.

Notice by new major authority

(7) The pension supervisory authority that replaces another authority as major authority for a pension plan shall, as soon as possible after assuming its functions, inform the pension plan administrator and each of the plan's minor authorities of the date on which it assumed the functions of major authority.

Notice by plan administrator

(8) The administrator of a pension plan that receives from the plan's major authority notice of the information provided for in clause (a) of subsection (6) or in subsection (7) shall:

- (a) in respect of the information provided for in clause (a) of subsection (6), transmit such information to each employer that is party to the plan and any collective bargaining agent that represents any person who has rights or benefits under the plan within 90 days after such notice; and
- (b) in respect of the information provided for in subsection (7), transmit such information to each employer that is party to the plan and any person who has rights or benefits under the plan who is entitled to receive an annual statement of the person's benefits, no later than the expiry of the period for providing such persons with their next annual statements of benefits.

PART III
APPLICABLE LAW

SECTION 6.APPLICABLE LEGISLATION*Applicable pension legislation

6. (1) While a pension supervisory authority is the major authority for a pension plan in accordance with this Agreement:

- (a) the provisions of the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction in respect of matters referred to in Schedule B apply to the plan instead of those of the corresponding provisions of the pension legislation of any minor authority's jurisdiction that would apply to the plan if this Agreement did not exist; and
- (b) subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the pension legislation of each jurisdiction that are applicable to the plan under the terms of such legislation apply to the plan in respect of matters not referred to in Schedule B.

Funding rule exceptions

(2) Despite clause (a) of subsection (1):

- (a) where the pension legislation of a minor authority's jurisdiction would, if this Agreement did not exist, require the funding of a benefit provided in relation to a pension plan with respect to persons having rights under the plan who are subject to that legislation:
 - (i) subject to subclause (ii), funding shall be required in respect of that benefit with respect to those persons, even if funding for that benefit would not be required under the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction; and
 - (ii) funding of the benefit described in subclause (i) shall be required in a manner consistent with, and to the extent determined by, the requirements under the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction applicable to the funding of other benefits that are provided in relation to the plan and that are required to be funded in relation to the plan under that legislation;
- (b) where the pension legislation of a minor authority's jurisdiction would require, for the purposes of this clause, that an additional liability be established and funded in relation to a pension plan with respect to persons having rights under the plan who are subject to that legislation:
 - (i) subject to subclause (ii), such liability shall be required to be established and funded, even if such liability would not be required to be established, and such funding would not be required, under the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction; and
 - (ii) funding of the liability described in subclause (i) shall be required in a manner consistent with, and to the extent determined by, the requirements under the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction applicable to the funding of benefits that are provided in relation to the plan and that are required to be funded in relation to the plan under that legislation; and
- (c) subject to subsection (4), when a pension supervisory authority becomes the major authority for a pension plan in accordance with this Agreement, if the funding of any benefit provided under the plan has been based on actuarial valuation reports filed in respect of the plan with a pension supervisory authority, the funding of those benefits shall continue to be subject to the pension legislation that applied immediately before the major authority assumed its functions in respect of the plan until such time as a new actuarial valuation report is due to be filed in respect of the plan with the major authority in accordance with the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction.

Definitions

(3) For the purposes of subsection (4):

“alternative funding arrangement” means a fund or financial instrument that is described in the pension legislation of a jurisdiction and is permitted under that legislation to supplement, support or otherwise satisfy the funding requirements for a pension plan under that legislation, where in the absence of such fund or financial instrument additional contributions would be required to be made to the pension fund of the plan in order to satisfy the funding requirements for the plan under that legislation; (« instrument financier »)

“new major authority” means a pension supervisory authority that becomes the major authority for a pension plan in accordance with this Agreement; and

“prior authority” means a pension supervisory authority with which a pension plan is registered immediately before a pension supervisory authority becomes the major authority for the plan in accordance with this Agreement.

Alternative funding arrangement exceptions

(4) Despite clause (a) of subsection (1), when a pension supervisory authority becomes the new major authority for a pension plan, if the pension legislation of the prior authority’s jurisdiction permitted the use of an alternate funding arrangement, but the pension legislation of the new major authority’s jurisdiction does not permit the use of that alternate funding arrangement, then:

- (a) if, no later than thirty-five days before the new major authority becomes the major authority for the plan, the administrator of the plan provides notice to both the new major authority and the prior authority that it intends to file an actuarial valuation report with the new major authority with a valuation date that coincides with the fiscal year end of the plan that immediately follows the new major authority becoming the major authority for the plan, then the following rules shall apply with respect to the funding of the plan:
 - (i) the alternative funding arrangement may continue to be used until thirty days after the valuation report is due to be filed with the new major authority;
 - (ii) no later than thirty days after the valuation report is due to be filed with the new major authority, an amount equal to the lesser of the value of the alternative funding arrangement or the amount required to make the plan fully funded on a solvency basis shall be deposited into the pension fund of the plan by an employer that is party to the plan; and

- (iii) if the amount described in subclause (ii) has not been deposited by an employer into the pension fund of the plan within the thirty day timeframe described in that subclause, an amount equal to the full value of the alternative funding arrangement shall be immediately deposited into the pension fund of the plan by an employer that is party to the plan; and
- (b) if the administrator of the plan does not provide the notice described in clause (a), then the following rules shall apply with respect to the funding of the plan:
 - (i) no later than thirty days before the new major authority becomes the major authority for the plan, an amount equal to the lesser of the value of the alternative funding arrangement or the amount required to make the plan fully funded on a solvency basis shall be deposited into the pension fund of the plan by an employer that is party to the plan; and
 - (ii) until the time a new actuarial valuation report described in clause (c) of subsection (2) is filed with the new major authority respecting the plan, an amount equal to the lesser of the value of any subsequent alternative funding arrangement that would have been required to have been obtained in relation to the plan under the pension legislation of the prior authority's jurisdiction, or the amount that would be required to make the plan fully funded on a solvency basis, shall be deposited into the pension fund of the plan by an employer that is party to the plan instead of obtaining the subsequent alternative funding arrangement, at or before the time the alternative funding arrangement would have been required to have been obtained in relation to the plan under the pension legislation of the prior authority's jurisdiction and in accordance with the last actuarial valuation report that had been filed with the prior authority in respect of the plan.

SECTION 7.

DETERMINATION OF BENEFITS BY FINAL LOCATION

Deemed applicability of pension legislation

7. For the purposes of determining the benefits accrued by a person under a pension plan, the person's entire benefit accrual shall be deemed to have been subject to the pension legislation that applied to the person:

- (a) at the time the person's benefits were determined, if the person was still accruing benefits under the plan at that time; or
- (b) at the time the person ceased accruing benefits under the plan, if the person was no longer accruing benefits under the plan at the time the person's benefits were determined.

SECTION 8.PENSION PLAN INVESTMENTS*Deadline for compliance

8. Despite any other provision of this Agreement, any investment by a pension plan that is held on the date a pension supervisory authority becomes the major authority for the plan and that, although it complies with the pension legislation that applied to the plan on the day preceding that date, does not comply with the pension legislation that applies to the plan's investments from that date, shall be brought into compliance with the latter legislation within five years from that date.

SECTION 9.PENSION BENEFITS GUARANTEE FUND*Pension benefits guarantee fund

9. Subject to sections 10 to 17, this Agreement shall not affect the application or administration of the Pension Benefits Guarantee Fund set out under the pension legislation of Ontario or any similar fund established under any other pension legislation.

PART IVPENSION PLAN ASSET ALLOCATION INTO JURISDICTIONAL PORTIONS*SECTION 10.*APPLICABLE SITUATIONS*Applicable situations

10. The assets of a pension plan shall be allocated into portions in accordance with this Part when:

- (a) the plan is amended so that part of the liability of the plan to pay benefits or other amounts to persons so entitled under the plan is transferred to a different pension plan, and where, as part and in consideration of that transfer of liability, part of the assets of the plan are transferred to the different plan;
- (b) a pension supervisory authority orders or otherwise requires the splitting of the assets and liabilities of the plan, as described in clause (c) of subsection (3) of section 4;
- (c) the plan has more than one participating employer and an employer withdraws from the plan, and pension legislation requires that the rights and benefits accrued under the plan be divided into groups, one of which consists of the rights and benefits of persons affected by the withdrawal, and that those persons may elect to have their rights and benefits under the plan be paid forthwith;
- (d) the plan is being wound up in part;
- (e) the plan is being fully wound up; or

- (f) a situation not described in clauses (a) to (e) occurs and assets of the plan related to a jurisdiction are to be paid to an employer that participates in the plan in accordance with the pension legislation of that jurisdiction.

SECTION 11.ALLOCATION OF ASSETS*Allocation into portions

11. (1) For the purposes of this Part, the assets of a pension plan shall be allocated into portions as of the date of allocation, each portion being related to the liability for benefits and other amounts accrued under the plan, and any additional liability referred to in clause (b) of subsection (2) of section 6 respecting the plan, that is subject to a jurisdiction's pension legislation, as determined in accordance with this section.

Standard allocation methodology

(2) Subject to section 12, the portion of a pension plan's assets that is subject to a jurisdiction's pension legislation as of the date of allocation shall be equal to the sum of the amounts referred to in section 13 as of the date of allocation, determined with respect to the benefits and other amounts described in section 13 that are subject to that jurisdiction's pension legislation and applying the requirements of sections 14 to 16.

Other allocation methodology

(3) The major authority for a pension plan may permit the assets of the plan to be allocated into the portions described in subsection (1) in a manner other than that required by subsection (2) or section 12 if:

- (a) the allocation of the plan's assets is made in relation to any situation described in section 10 other than the full wind up of the plan and a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries certifies that:
- (i) the liabilities of the plan that are related to the plan assets to be allocated into the portions described in subsection (2) do not exceed those assets on either a solvency basis or a going concern basis; and
 - (ii) the allocation of the assets of the plan described in subclause (i) will not differ materially from an allocation of those assets conducted in accordance with subsection (2); or

- (b) the allocation of the plan's assets is made in relation to a situation described in clause (d) of section 10, no pension legislation that applies to the plan assets to be allocated into the portions described in subsection (2) requires the distribution of any plan assets related to the wound up part of the plan that remain after all liabilities related to the wound up part of the plan have been settled and a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries certifies that the liabilities of the plan related to the wound up part of the plan do not exceed the plan assets related to the wound up part of the plan on either a solvency basis or a going concern basis immediately before the partial wind up of the plan.

SECTION 12.PLAN WITH MORE THAN ONE PARTICIPATING EMPLOYERPlan with more than one participating employer

12. (1) This section applies to a pension plan that has more than one participating employer and, in accordance with the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction:

- (a) the following are determined and accounted for separately in respect of an employer that participates in the plan, as if a separate pension plan was established within the plan in respect of that employer:
 - (i) the assets and liabilities of the plan;
 - (ii) the contributions payable in relation to the plan;
 - (iii) the benefits and other amounts owing under the plan; and
 - (iv) the expenses payable in relation to the plan;
- (b) the liabilities of the plan related to the employer described in clause (a) are determined with reference to only the benefits and other amounts owing to a person in relation to that person's employment with that employer; and

Allocation of assets into employer shares

(2) For the purposes of an asset allocation under this Part involving a pension plan described in subsection (1), the assets of the plan that have been determined and accounted for separately in relation to an employer as of the date of allocation shall be allocated to that employer as an employer share if the plan characteristics described in clause (a) of subsection (1) respecting the employer:

- (a) have been determined and accounted for separately since the start of the employer's participation in the plan; or
- (b) began to be determined and accounted for separately at a date subsequent to the start of the employer's participation in the plan, and the initial determination and accounting of the assets of the plan respecting that employer was consistent with, and conducted on the basis of, an allocation of the assets of the plan in accordance with the requirements of this Part and in relation to a situation other than that described in clause (c), (d) or (e) of section 10.

Allocation of employer shares into portions

(3) Any employer share allocated in accordance with subsection (2) shall be further allocated into portions in the manner provided for in section 11, and used in the manner provided for in section 17, as if the employer share consisted of the assets of a separate pension plan for that employer.

Allocation of remaining assets into portions

(4) For the purposes of an asset allocation under this Part involving a pension plan described in subsection (1), any assets of the plan not allocated to an employer share in accordance with subsection (2) shall be allocated into portions in the manner provided for in section 11, and used in the manner provided for in section 17, without considering the liabilities described in clause (b) of subsection (1) related to an employer for which an employer share has been allocated under this section.

SECTION 13.DETERMINATION OF PORTIONS FOR ASSET ALLOCATIONDetermination of portions

13. (1) The assets of a pension plan that are to be allocated into portions in accordance with subsection (2) of section 11 shall be allocated into portions as of the date of allocation in accordance with the levels of priority of allocation set out in this section.

- (b) any interest attributable to contributions or amounts described in clause (a).

Core liabilities

(3) Second, allocate assets of the pension plan equal to the sum of the following liability amounts, provided that the pension legislation that would govern those liabilities if this Agreement did not exist would require them to be funded on a solvency basis:

- (a) the value of benefits under the plan that are being paid on a regular and periodic basis to any person on the date of allocation, whether or not the benefit is payable for the lifetime of the person, and determined taking into account:

 - (i) the contributions, interest and value of the benefits shall be calculated as of the date of allocation and consistent with either the pension legislation that governs the benefits or the terms of the plan, whichever produces a larger excess amount; and
 - (ii) any such excess amount already determined in relation to a person before the date of allocation shall not be included, whether or not such previously determined excess amount has been refunded to the person; and
- (d) any unpaid part of the value of the benefits payable under the plan to a person who had elected before the date of allocation to be paid the value of the person's benefit entitlements under the plan, as well as any interest attributable to that unpaid part.

Other liabilities whose funding is required

(4) Third, allocate assets of the pension plan equal to the sum of the following liability amounts:

- (a) the value of benefits accrued under the plan, other than those referred to in subsection (3), by any person who, on the date of allocation, is entitled to receive payment of the benefit on that date or a later date, but who is not in receipt of payment of the benefit as of the date of allocation, provided that the pension legislation that would govern the benefits if this Agreement did not exist would require that such benefits be funded on a solvency basis; and
- (b) subject to subsection (5), the value of the additional liability referred to in clause (b) of subsection (2) of section 6.

Assets related to additional liability

(5) Where the assets of the pension plan that are allocated to a portion under subsections (2), (3) and (4) in the absence of the requirements of this subsection exceed the value of benefits and other amounts accrued under the plan that are related to that portion:

- (a) the value calculated for clause (b) of subsection (4) shall be reduced by the excess amount referred to in this subsection; and
- (b) the assets of the plan not allocated to a portion due to the application of clause (a) may be allocated to other portions in accordance with subsection (4).

- (a) any assets of the pension plan remaining after the allocations made in accordance with subsections (2) to (4) shall be sequentially allocated to the portion or portions with the lowest going concern ratio, until the going concern ratio of that portion equals the going concern ratio of the portion with the next highest going concern ratio;
- (b) the sequential allocation of the plan's assets described in clause (a) shall be made until all portions have the same going concern ratio or no assets remain to be allocated, whichever occurs first;
- (c) if, after applying the sequential allocation of assets described in clauses (a) and (b), the going concern ratio of each portion is lower than 1.0, any assets of the pension plan yet to be allocated shall be allocated to the portions so that the going concern ratios of all portions remain the same, until the going concern ratio of each portion reaches 1.0 or no assets remain to be allocated, whichever occurs first;
- (d) for the purposes of clauses (a), (b) and (c), the going concern ratio of a portion shall be calculated by using the assets of the pension plan allocated to the portion in accordance with this section and the going concern liabilities of the plan that are subject to the jurisdiction's pension legislation applicable to that portion, other than assets and liabilities related to contributions and amounts described in subsection (2); and
- (e) any assets of the pension plan remaining after the allocations made in accordance with clauses (a), (b) and (c) shall be allocated pro rata to the total of the going concern liabilities determined for each portion.

Deemed solvency funding requirement

(3) If, at the time the assets of a pension plan are allocated into portions in accordance with this Part, a liability amount related to the plan or a benefit under the plan that is subject to a jurisdiction's pension legislation would not, if this Agreement did not exist, be required to be funded on a solvency basis due to a temporary suspension under that legislation of a requirement under that legislation that would otherwise require the funding of such liability amount or benefit on a solvency basis, the liability amount or benefit shall be deemed to be one that is required by that legislation to be funded on a solvency basis for the purposes of subsection (3) of section 13 and clause (a) of subsection (4) of section 13.

SECTION 15.REDUCTION METHOD*Reduction method

15. SECTION 16.INSUFFICIENCY OF ASSETSInsufficiency of assets

16. If, at one of the levels of priority of allocation established by section 13, the assets of a pension plan that have yet to be allocated to a portion described in subsection (2) of section 11 are less than the total value of the benefits and other amounts that rank equally in that level of priority of allocation, the available plan assets shall be allocated to the portions pro rata to the total value of the benefits and other amounts that rank equally in that level of priority of allocation.

SECTION 17.USE OF ASSETS FOLLOWING ALLOCATIONUse of allocated assets

In addition, any remaining assets related to that portion shall be distributed in accordance with that pension legislation, if so required under that legislation. No assets of the plan allocated to one portion shall be utilized to satisfy payment of the benefits and other amounts related to another portion on the wind up of the plan or the withdrawal of the employer, as the case may be.

Use of remaining allocated assets

(3) Where a situation described in clause (c) or (d) of section 10 occurs and the assets of a pension plan that have been allocated to a portion in accordance with sections 11 to 16 have been utilized to fully satisfy payment of the benefits and other amounts related to that portion that arise from the partial wind up of the plan or the withdrawal of the employer, as the case may be, and any other assets related to that portion have been distributed as required by the pension legislation applicable to the benefits and other amounts related to that portion, any remaining assets related to that portion shall remain in the pension fund of the plan and be commingled with the other assets therein.

SECTION 26.

TRANSITION

Preliminary measure

26. (1) Where this Agreement comes into force on a date set out under section 19 and on that date a pension plan to which this Agreement would apply is registered with a pension supervisory authority that was not already the major authority for the plan immediately before that date:

- (a) if the plan is registered with only one pension supervisory authority and that authority is subject to this Agreement on that date, that authority shall become the major authority for the plan as of that date;

- (c) if the plan is registered with more than one pension supervisory authority and not all of those authorities are subject to this Agreement on that date, this Agreement shall not apply to the plan until such time as all of the authorities with which the plan is registered are subject to this Agreement, at which time the requirements of clause (b) shall apply to the plan.

Equal number of active members

(2) Where the major authority for a pension plan cannot be determined by applying clause (b) of subsection (1) because two or more jurisdictions have authority over an equal number, greater than zero, of active members of the plan, the major authority for the plan shall be, of those jurisdictions, the authority whose main office is in closest proximity to the main office of the administrator of the plan. For the purposes of this subsection:

- (a) the main office of a pension supervisory authority is the office from which the authority conducts most of its supervisory activities; and
- (b) the main office of the pension plan administrator is the office from which the plan administrator described in the text of the pension plan conducts most of the plan's administration.

Notice by major authority

(3) The pension supervisory authority that becomes a pension plan's major authority in accordance with this section shall, as soon as possible after assuming its functions, inform the plan administrator and each of the plan's minor authorities of the date on which it assumed the functions of major authority.

Notice by plan administrator

(4) The administrator of a pension plan that receives from the plan's major authority notice of the information provided for in subsection (3) shall transmit such information:

- (a) to each employer that is party to the plan and any collective bargaining agent that represents any person who has rights or benefits under the plan within 90 days after such notice; and

- (b) to any person who has rights or benefits under the plan who is entitled to receive an annual statement of the person's benefits under the plan, no later than the expiry of the period for providing such persons with their next annual statements of benefits.

Decisions and recourse

(5) Despite sections 4 and 6, where a pension supervisory authority becomes a pension plan's major authority in accordance with this section:

- (a) all matters related to the plan that are pending before a pension supervisory authority on the day preceding the major authority's assumption of its functions under this Agreement shall be continued before that pension supervisory authority;
- (b) all matters related to the plan that concern a decision, order, direction or approval proposed or made by a pension supervisory authority and pending before any administrative body or court on the day preceding the major authority's assumption of its functions under this Agreement shall be continued before such body or court;
- (c) for every matter in respect of which the pension supervisory authority referred to in clause (a) or the administrative body or court referred to in clause (b) has proposed or made a decision, order, direction or approval to which the pension legislation or other legislation applying on the day preceding the major authority's assumption of its functions under this Agreement provides a right of recourse:
 - (i) such right shall be maintained so long as the period provided for exercising that right has not expired; and
 - (ii) such recourse may be brought before the administrative body or court provided for by the legislation giving entitlement thereto;
- (d) for any matter related to the plan not described in clauses (a) to (c) that occurred before the major authority's assumption of its functions under this Agreement and that related to the provisions of the pension legislation of a pension supervisory authority's jurisdiction in respect of a matter referred to in Schedule B:
 - (i) the pension supervisory authority may, even after the major authority assumes its functions under this Agreement for the plan, conduct an examination, investigation or inquiry into the matter in accordance with the pension legislation of that authority's jurisdiction to determine whether compliance with that legislation was met, and in such case, the matter shall remain subject to that pension supervisory authority; and

- (ii) where the matter constitutes an offence under the pension legislation of the pension supervisory authority's jurisdiction, the offence may be prosecuted by the competent authority in that jurisdiction, and in such case, the matter shall remain subject to that pension supervisory authority; and
- (e) all matters referred to in clauses (a) to (d) shall remain subject to the pension legislation or other legislation that applied to such matters on the day preceding the major authority's assumption of its functions under this Agreement.

2016 AGREEMENT RESPECTING MULTI-JURISDICTIONAL PENSION PLANS

The signatories of this Agreement are as follows:

The governments of

NOVA SCOTIA, herein acting and represented by the Minister of Finance and Treasury Board;

RECITALS

- I. Each signatory to this Agreement represents a legislative jurisdiction in Canada and is authorized by the laws of the signatory's jurisdiction to sign this Agreement.
- II. A pension plan may be subject to the pension legislation of more than one jurisdiction and may be subject to the supervision of more than one jurisdiction's pension supervisory authority, by reason of the nature or place of the plan members' residence or employment or the nature of the business, work or undertaking of the members' employer.
- III. Pension plans that are subject to the pension legislation of more than one jurisdiction play a significant role in providing retirement income to many Canadians. To establish an efficient and transparent regulatory environment for such plans, the parties to this Agreement deem it desirable to specify the rules that apply to such plans and allow, to the extent provided for in this Agreement, a single pension supervisory authority to exercise with respect to any such pension plan all of the supervisory and regulatory powers to which such plan is subject.
- IV. The laws of the jurisdictions whose governments are party to this Agreement allow for the incorporation of rules for pension plans enacted by Canadian legislative jurisdictions or as otherwise set out in this Agreement, as well as the reciprocal application of legislative provisions and administrative powers by the pension supervisory authorities concerned.
- V. Therefore, the parties to this Agreement agree as follows:

PART I GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 2.

APPLICATION

General application

2. (1) Subject to subsection (2) and section 26, this Agreement applies to any pension plan that would, if this Agreement and any other agreement respecting the supervision of pension plans did not exist, be subject to registration with a pension supervisory authority under the pension legislation of more than one jurisdiction that is subject to this Agreement.

Restriction

(2) This Agreement does not apply to a pension plan if the pension supervisory authority that would be designated as the major authority for the plan under this Agreement is not subject to this Agreement.

Plan provision not effective

(3) This Agreement applies in respect of a pension plan despite any conflicting provision in any document that creates or supports the pension plan.

PART II MAJOR AUTHORITY

SECTION 3.

DETERMINATION OF THE MAJOR AUTHORITY

One major authority

3. (1) One pension supervisory authority having jurisdiction over a pension plan shall be the major authority for the plan.

Plurality of active members

(2) Except as provided in sections 5 and 26, the major authority for a pension plan shall be the pension supervisory authority of the jurisdiction with the plurality of active members of the plan, as determined in accordance with subsection (3) and considering only those jurisdictions whose pension legislation would, if this Agreement and any other agreement respecting the supervision of pension plans did not exist, require the plan to be registered with the pension supervisory authority of that jurisdiction.

Determination of plurality

(3) The jurisdiction that, among those referred to in subsection (2), has the plurality of active members of a pension plan shall be determined using the most recent periodic information return that has been filed with a pension supervisory authority in relation to the plan's fiscal year end, or if an application to register a new pension plan is received by a pension supervisory authority, determined using the information set out in the application, and on the following basis:

- (a) in respect of a provincial jurisdiction, the number of active members of the plan who are employed in that provincial jurisdiction and who would be subject to that jurisdiction's pension legislation if this Agreement and any other agreement respecting the supervision of pension plans did not exist; and
- (b) in respect of the federal jurisdiction, the number of active members of the plan who are employed in "included employment" within the meaning of that jurisdiction's pension legislation, where the plan is subject to that jurisdiction's pension legislation.

Equal number of active members

(4) Where the major authority for a pension plan cannot be determined by applying subsections (2) and (3) because two or more jurisdictions have authority over an equal number, greater than zero, of active members of the plan, the major authority for the plan shall be, of those jurisdictions, the authority whose main office is in closest proximity to the main office of the administrator of the plan. For the purposes of this subsection:

- (a) the main office of a pension supervisory authority is the office from which the authority conducts most of its supervisory activities; and

- (b) the main office of the pension plan administrator is the office from which the plan administrator described in the text of the pension plan conducts most of the plan's administration.

Status as major authority

(5) A pension supervisory authority that becomes the major authority for a pension plan in accordance with this Agreement shall remain the major authority for the plan until the authority loses its status as major authority in accordance with this Agreement.

Minor authorities

(6) Once a pension supervisory authority becomes the major authority for a pension plan, any other pension supervisory authority to which this Agreement extends and that has supervisory or regulatory powers with respect to the plan becomes a minor authority for the plan.

New pension plan registration

(7) Where a pension supervisory authority receives an application to register a pension plan, that authority shall determine whether it is the major authority for the plan within the meaning of this Agreement, and if necessary and as soon as possible thereafter, that authority shall notify the plan administrator as to the relevant authority with which the plan should or may be registered and shall notify the relevant authority about the plan to be registered.

SECTION 4.ROLE OF THE MAJOR AUTHORITY*Interpretation

4. (1) For the purposes of this section:

- (a) a decision includes an order, direction, approval or, if specific recourse is provided, a proposal to make such a decision; and
- (b) recourse includes the right to request a hearing, review, reconsideration or appeal.

Role of major authority

(2) The major authority for a pension plan shall:

- (a) supervise and regulate the plan in accordance with this Agreement, and on behalf of each of the minor authorities for the plan as required by this Agreement;
- (b) subject to subsection (3) and section 9, exercise, with respect to the plan and as required by this Agreement, the functions and powers necessary to carry out this Agreement conferred on the minor authority by the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction;

- (c) apply and enforce any rules specified in this Agreement that are not part of the pension legislation of a jurisdiction; and
- (d) determine any matter or question related to the application of this Agreement to the plan in accordance with this Agreement and the procedural provisions of the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction.

Exceptions

(3) Despite clause (b) of subsection (2):

- (a) where the major authority for a pension plan and a minor authority for the plan agree that a particular function or power conferred by the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction shall be exercised in respect of the plan by the minor authority, only such minor authority may exercise such function or power in respect of the plan;
- (b) where the major authority for a pension plan and a minor authority for the plan agree that a particular decision concerning the application of provisions of the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction shall be made in respect of the plan by the minor authority, only such minor authority may make such decision in respect of the plan; and
- (c) where pension legislation confers on a pension supervisory authority the power to order or otherwise require the splitting of the assets and liabilities of a pension plan, only such authority may make a decision concerning the exercise of that power with respect to the liabilities of a plan that are subject to such pension legislation and the assets of the plan related to the funding of those liabilities.

Decisions and recourse

(4) Any decision that may be made by the major authority for a pension plan that applies the provisions of the pension legislation of a minor authority's jurisdiction as described in clause (b) of subsection (1) of section 6 is subject to the following rules:

- (a) the decision shall be made under the procedural provisions of the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction that would have applied if the matter had arisen under that legislation;
- (b) the decision shall be deemed to have been made by the minor authority under the procedural provisions of the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction that would have applied if the minor authority had made the decision;

- (c) when the decision is issued by the major authority, it shall include notice to any person receiving the decision as to:
- (i) the provisions of the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction that were applied in formulating the decision that is made;
 - (ii) the recourse provided, if any, from the decision under the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction, including the body before whom such recourse may be exercised;
 - (iii) the time limit under the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction for exercising such recourse; and
 - (iv) where the pension legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction does not provide for recourse from the decision, any recourse from the decision provided under any other legislation of that jurisdiction, including the body before whom such recourse may be exercised and the time limit for exercising such recourse; and
- (d) the right to recourse from the decision shall be determined under the pension legislation or other legislation of the minor authority's jurisdiction as though the decision had been made under the procedural provisions of that legislation.

Continued role of major authority

(5) Exercise of a recourse from a decision referred to in this section does not have the effect of preventing or releasing the major authority from continuing to fulfill its responsibilities with respect to the pension plan as set out in subsection (2).

Enforcement of decisions

(6) The major authority shall enforce any decision referred to in this section once that decision is no longer open to any further recourse, as well as any decision resulting from such recourse that is no longer open to any further recourse.

Communication with major authority

(7) A person shall be entitled to communicate with the major authority for a pension plan in the same manner that the person would be entitled to communicate with a pension supervisory authority under the legislation that would apply to the person if this Agreement did not exist.

Representative

(8) Where a person having any rights or benefits under a pension plan has designated another person or an association that represents people with rights or benefits under the plan to act on his or her behalf with respect to the major authority for the plan, such authority shall, to the extent permitted by law, communicate with that other person or association and, upon request, provide that other person or association with the information and documents to which the person is entitled.

SECTION 5.LOSS OF MAJOR AUTHORITY STATUS*Loss of major authority status

5. (1) The major authority for a pension plan shall lose its status in that regard on the date described in subsection (2) where, according to the most recent periodic information return that has been filed with the major authority in relation to the plan's fiscal year end, the number of active members of the plan employed in relation to the major authority's jurisdiction, as determined under subsection (3) of section 3 as of the plan's fiscal year end, is:

- (a) for the third consecutive fiscal year, less than the number of active members who were employed in relation to any other jurisdiction or jurisdictions;
- (b) less than 75% of the number of active members who were employed in relation to any other jurisdiction; or
- (c) equal to zero and there are active members of the plan employed in relation to any other jurisdiction.

Date of loss of major authority status

(2) The major authority for a pension plan loses its status in that regard:

- (a) in the case provided for in clause (a) or (b) of subsection (1), five days prior to the end of the first plan fiscal year that begins after the date on which the major authority received the information referred to in the relevant clause; and
- (b) in the case provided for in clause (c) of subsection (1), upon the later of the fifth day before the end of the current plan fiscal year during which the major authority received the information referred to in that clause or of the expiry of the period of six months beginning on the date the major authority received the information.

New major authority

(3) When the major authority for a pension plan loses its status in that regard in accordance with subsection (2), the pension supervisory authority for the jurisdiction having, as determined in accordance with subsection (1), the plurality of active members of the plan becomes the plan's new major authority if that new major authority is subject to this Agreement.

Equal number of active members

(4) Where the new major authority for a pension plan cannot be determined in accordance with subsection (3) because two or more jurisdictions have authority over an equal number, greater than zero, of active members of the plan, the major authority for the plan shall be, of those jurisdictions, the authority whose main office is in closest proximity to the main office of the administrator of the plan. For the purposes of this subsection:

- (a) the main office of a pension supervisory authority is the office from which the authority conducts most of its supervisory activities; and
- (b) the main office of the pension plan administrator is the office from which the plan administrator described in the text of the pension plan conducts most of the plan's administration.

Transitional rules

(5) Where the major authority for a pension plan loses its status in that regard in accordance with this section:

- (a) all matters related to the plan that are pending before the major authority on the day preceding its loss of status as major authority shall be continued before that authority;
- (b) all matters related to the plan that concern a decision, order, direction or approval proposed or made by the major authority and pending before any administrative body or court on the day preceding the loss of the major authority's status as major authority shall be continued before such body or court;
- (c) for every matter in respect of which the major authority referred to in clause (a) or the administrative body or court referred to in clause (b) has proposed or made a decision, order, direction or approval to which the pension legislation or other legislation applying on the day preceding the replacement of the major authority provides a right of recourse:
 - (i) such right shall be maintained so long as the period provided for exercising that right has not expired; and
 - (ii) such recourse may be brought before the administrative body or court provided for by the legislation giving entitlement thereto;

- (d) for any matter related to the plan not described in clauses (a) to (c) that occurred while the major authority was the major authority for the plan and that related to the provisions of the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction in respect of a matter referred to in Schedule B:
- (i) the major authority may, even after it loses its status in that regard for the plan, conduct an examination, investigation or inquiry into the matter in accordance with the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction to determine whether compliance with that legislation was met, and in such case, the matter shall remain subject to that major authority; and
 - (ii) where the matter constitutes an offence under the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction, the offence may be prosecuted by the competent authority in that jurisdiction, and in such case, the matter shall remain subject to that major authority; and
- (e) all matters referred to in clauses (a) to (d) shall remain subject to the pension legislation or other legislation that, under this Agreement, applied to such matters on the day preceding the loss of the major authority's status as major authority.

Notice by major authority

(6) Where the major authority for a pension plan receives from the administrator of the plan the information described in clauses (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1), it shall:

- (a) as soon as possible after receipt of the information, notify the pension plan administrator and each minor authority for the plan of the date on which, pursuant to subsection (2), it will lose its status as major authority for the plan and, if applicable, the pension supervisory authority that shall become the new major authority for the plan; and
- (b) as soon as possible after the plan's new major authority assumes its functions, provide to such new major authority all relevant records, documents or other information that it has concerning the plan.

Notice by new major authority

(7) The pension supervisory authority that replaces another authority as major authority for a pension plan shall, as soon as possible after assuming its functions, inform the pension plan administrator and each of the plan's minor authorities of the date on which it assumed the functions of major authority.

Notice by plan administrator

(8) The administrator of a pension plan that receives from the plan's major authority notice of the information provided for in clause (a) of subsection (6) or in subsection (7) shall:

- (a) in respect of the information provided for in clause (a) of subsection (6), transmit such information to each employer that is party to the plan and any collective bargaining agent that represents any person who has rights or benefits under the plan within 90 days after such notice; and
- (b) in respect of the information provided for in subsection (7), transmit such information to each employer that is party to the plan and any person who has rights or benefits under the plan who is entitled to receive an annual statement of the person's benefits, no later than the expiry of the period for providing such persons with their next annual statements of benefits.

PART III
APPLICABLE LAW

SECTION 6.APPLICABLE LEGISLATION*Applicable pension legislation

6. (1) While a pension supervisory authority is the major authority for a pension plan in accordance with this Agreement:

- (a) the provisions of the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction in respect of matters referred to in Schedule B apply to the plan instead of those of the corresponding provisions of the pension legislation of any minor authority's jurisdiction that would apply to the plan if this Agreement did not exist; and
- (b) subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the pension legislation of each jurisdiction that are applicable to the plan under the terms of such legislation apply to the plan in respect of matters not referred to in Schedule B.

Funding rule exceptions

(2) Despite clause (a) of subsection (1):

- (a) where the pension legislation of a minor authority's jurisdiction would, if this Agreement did not exist, require the funding of a benefit provided in relation to a pension plan with respect to persons having rights under the plan who are subject to that legislation:
 - (i) subject to subclause (ii), funding shall be required in respect of that benefit with respect to those persons, even if funding for that benefit would not be required under the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction; and
 - (ii) funding of the benefit described in subclause (i) shall be required in a manner consistent with, and to the extent determined by, the requirements under the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction applicable to the funding of other benefits that are provided in relation to the plan and that are required to be funded in relation to the plan under that legislation;
- (b) where the pension legislation of a minor authority's jurisdiction would require, for the purposes of this clause, that an additional liability be established and funded in relation to a pension plan with respect to persons having rights under the plan who are subject to that legislation:
 - (i) subject to subclause (ii), such liability shall be required to be established and funded, even if such liability would not be required to be established, and such funding would not be required, under the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction; and
 - (ii) funding of the liability described in subclause (i) shall be required in a manner consistent with, and to the extent determined by, the requirements under the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction applicable to the funding of benefits that are provided in relation to the plan and that are required to be funded in relation to the plan under that legislation; and
- (c) subject to subsection (4), when a pension supervisory authority becomes the major authority for a pension plan in accordance with this Agreement, if the funding of any benefit provided under the plan has been based on actuarial valuation reports filed in respect of the plan with a pension supervisory authority, the funding of those benefits shall continue to be subject to the pension legislation that applied immediately before the major authority assumed its functions in respect of the plan until such time as a new actuarial valuation report is due to be filed in respect of the plan with the major authority in accordance with the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction.

Definitions

(3) For the purposes of subsection (4):

“alternative funding arrangement” means a fund or financial instrument that is described in the pension legislation of a jurisdiction and is permitted under that legislation to supplement, support or otherwise satisfy the funding requirements for a pension plan under that legislation, where in the absence of such fund or financial instrument additional contributions would be required to be made to the pension fund of the plan in order to satisfy the funding requirements for the plan under that legislation; (“instrument financier”)

“new major authority” means a pension supervisory authority that becomes the major authority for a pension plan in accordance with this Agreement; and

“prior authority” means a pension supervisory authority with which a pension plan is registered immediately before a pension supervisory authority becomes the major authority for the plan in accordance with this Agreement.

Alternative funding arrangement exceptions

(4) Despite clause (a) of subsection (1), when a pension supervisory authority becomes the new major authority for a pension plan, if the pension legislation of the prior authority’s jurisdiction permitted the use of an alternate funding arrangement, but the pension legislation of the new major authority’s jurisdiction does not permit the use of that alternate funding arrangement, then:

- (a) if, no later than thirty-five days before the new major authority becomes the major authority for the plan, the administrator of the plan provides notice to both the new major authority and the prior authority that it intends to file an actuarial valuation report with the new major authority with a valuation date that coincides with the fiscal year end of the plan that immediately follows the new major authority becoming the major authority for the plan, then the following rules shall apply with respect to the funding of the plan:
 - (i) the alternative funding arrangement may continue to be used until thirty days after the valuation report is due to be filed with the new major authority;
 - (ii) no later than thirty days after the valuation report is due to be filed with the new major authority, an amount equal to the lesser of the value of the alternative funding arrangement or the amount required to make the plan fully funded on a solvency basis shall be deposited into the pension fund of the plan by an employer that is party to the plan; and

- (iii) if the amount described in subclause (ii) has not been deposited by an employer into the pension fund of the plan within the thirty day timeframe described in that subclause, an amount equal to the full value of the alternative funding arrangement shall be immediately deposited into the pension fund of the plan by an employer that is party to the plan; and
- (b) if the administrator of the plan does not provide the notice described in clause (a), then the following rules shall apply with respect to the funding of the plan:
 - (i) no later than thirty days before the new major authority becomes the major authority for the plan, an amount equal to the lesser of the value of the alternative funding arrangement or the amount required to make the plan fully funded on a solvency basis shall be deposited into the pension fund of the plan by an employer that is party to the plan; and
 - (ii) until the time a new actuarial valuation report described in clause (c) of subsection (2) is filed with the new major authority respecting the plan, an amount equal to the lesser of the value of any subsequent alternative funding arrangement that would have been required to have been obtained in relation to the plan under the pension legislation of the prior authority's jurisdiction, or the amount that would be required to make the plan fully funded on a solvency basis, shall be deposited into the pension fund of the plan by an employer that is party to the plan instead of obtaining the subsequent alternative funding arrangement, at or before the time the alternative funding arrangement would have been required to have been obtained in relation to the plan under the pension legislation of the prior authority's jurisdiction and in accordance with the last actuarial valuation report that had been filed with the prior authority in respect of the plan.

SECTION 7.DETERMINATION OF BENEFITS BY FINAL LOCATION*Deemed applicability of pension legislation

7. For the purposes of determining the benefits accrued by a person under a pension plan, the person's entire benefit accrual shall be deemed to have been subject to the pension legislation that applied to the person:

- (a) at the time the person's benefits were determined, if the person was still accruing benefits under the plan at that time; or
- (b) at the time the person ceased accruing benefits under the plan, if the person was no longer accruing benefits under the plan at the time the person's benefits were determined.

SECTION 8.PENSION PLAN INVESTMENTS*Deadline for compliance

8. Despite any other provision of this Agreement, any investment by a pension plan that is held on the date a pension supervisory authority becomes the major authority for the plan and that, although it complies with the pension legislation that applied to the plan on the day preceding that date, does not comply with the pension legislation that applies to the plan's investments from that date, shall be brought into compliance with the latter legislation within five years from that date.

SECTION 9.PENSION BENEFITS GUARANTEE FUND*Pension benefits guarantee fund

9. Subject to sections 10 to 17, this Agreement shall not affect the application or administration of the Pension Benefits Guarantee Fund set out under the pension legislation of Ontario or any similar fund established under any other pension legislation.

PART IVPENSION PLAN ASSET ALLOCATION INTO JURISDICTIONAL PORTIONS*SECTION 10.*APPLICABLE SITUATIONS*Applicable situations

10. The assets of a pension plan shall be allocated into portions in accordance with this Part when:

- (a) the plan is amended so that part of the liability of the plan to pay benefits or other amounts to persons so entitled under the plan is transferred to a different pension plan, and where, as part and in consideration of that transfer of liability, part of the assets of the plan are transferred to the different plan;
- (b) a pension supervisory authority orders or otherwise requires the splitting of the assets and liabilities of the plan, as described in clause (c) of subsection (3) of section 4;
- (c) the plan has more than one participating employer and an employer withdraws from the plan, and pension legislation requires that the rights and benefits accrued under the plan be divided into groups, one of which consists of the rights and benefits of persons affected by the withdrawal, and that those persons may elect to have their rights and benefits under the plan be paid forthwith;
- (d) the plan is being wound up in part;
- (e) the plan is being fully wound up; or

- (f) a situation not described in clauses (a) to (e) occurs and assets of the plan related to a jurisdiction are to be paid to an employer that participates in the plan in accordance with the pension legislation of that jurisdiction.

SECTION 11.ALLOCATION OF ASSETS*Allocation into portions

11. (1) For the purposes of this Part, the assets of a pension plan shall be allocated into portions as of the date of allocation, each portion being related to the liability for benefits and other amounts accrued under the plan, and any additional liability referred to in clause (b) of subsection (2) of section 6 respecting the plan, that is subject to a jurisdiction's pension legislation, as determined in accordance with this section.

Standard allocation methodology

(2) Subject to section 12, the portion of a pension plan's assets that is subject to a jurisdiction's pension legislation as of the date of allocation shall be equal to the sum of the amounts referred to in section 13 as of the date of allocation, determined with respect to the benefits and other amounts described in section 13 that are subject to that jurisdiction's pension legislation and applying the requirements of sections 14 to 16.

Other allocation methodology

(3) The major authority for a pension plan may permit the assets of the plan to be allocated into the portions described in subsection (1) in a manner other than that required by subsection (2) or section 12 if:

- (a) the allocation of the plan's assets is made in relation to any situation described in section 10 other than the full wind up of the plan and a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries certifies that:
 - (i) the liabilities of the plan that are related to the plan assets to be allocated into the portions described in subsection (2) do not exceed those assets on either a solvency basis or a going concern basis; and
 - (ii) the allocation of the assets of the plan described in subclause (i) will not differ materially from an allocation of those assets conducted in accordance with subsection (2); or

- (b) the allocation of the plan's assets is made in relation to a situation described in clause (d) of section 10, no pension legislation that applies to the plan assets to be allocated into the portions described in subsection (2) requires the distribution of any plan assets related to the wound up part of the plan that remain after all liabilities related to the wound up part of the plan have been settled and a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries certifies that the liabilities of the plan related to the wound up part of the plan do not exceed the plan assets related to the wound up part of the plan on either a solvency basis or a going concern basis immediately before the partial wind up of the plan.

SECTION 12.

PLAN WITH MORE THAN ONE PARTICIPATING EMPLOYER

Plan with more than one participating employer

12. (1) This section applies to a pension plan that has more than one participating employer and, in accordance with the pension legislation of the major authority's jurisdiction:

- (a) the following are determined and accounted for separately in respect of an employer that participates in the plan, as if a separate pension plan was established within the plan in respect of that employer:
 - (i) the assets and liabilities of the plan;
 - (ii) the contributions payable in relation to the plan;
 - (iii) the benefits and other amounts owing under the plan; and
 - (iv) the expenses payable in relation to the plan;
- (b) the liabilities of the plan related to the employer described in clause (a) are determined with reference to only the benefits and other amounts owing to a person in relation to that person's employment with that employer; and
- (c) among the contributions payable in relation to the plan by the employer described in clause (a), those that are required to be paid under the applicable pension legislation in relation to benefits and other amounts currently accruing by active members of the plan are determined only with reference to active members employed by that employer.

Allocation of assets into employer shares

(2) For the purposes of an asset allocation under this Part involving a pension plan described in subsection (1), the assets of the plan that have been determined and accounted for separately in relation to an employer as of the date of allocation shall be allocated to that employer as an employer share if the plan characteristics described in clause (a) of subsection (1) respecting the employer:

- (a) have been determined and accounted for separately since the start of the employer's participation in the plan; or
- (b) began to be determined and accounted for separately at a date subsequent to the start of the employer's participation in the plan, and the initial determination and accounting of the assets of the plan respecting that employer was consistent with, and conducted on the basis of, an allocation of the assets of the plan in accordance with the requirements of this Part and in relation to a situation other than that described in clause (c), (d) or (e) of section 10.

Allocation of employer shares into portions

(3) Any employer share allocated in accordance with subsection (2) shall be further allocated into portions in the manner provided for in section 11, and used in the manner provided for in section 17, as if the employer share consisted of the assets of a separate pension plan for that employer.

Allocation of remaining assets into portions

(4) For the purposes of an asset allocation under this Part involving a pension plan described in subsection (1), any assets of the plan not allocated to an employer share in accordance with subsection (2) shall be allocated into portions in the manner provided for in section 11, and used in the manner provided for in section 17, without considering the liabilities described in clause (b) of subsection (1) related to an employer for which an employer share has been allocated under this section.

SECTION 13.DETERMINATION OF PORTIONS FOR ASSET ALLOCATION*Determination of portions

13. (1) The assets of a pension plan that are to be allocated into portions in accordance with subsection (2) of section 11 shall be allocated into portions as of the date of allocation in accordance with the levels of priority of allocation set out in this section.

Contributions and similar amounts

(2) First, allocate assets of the pension plan equal to the sum of the following contributions and amounts, to the extent that such contributions and amounts are still credited to the account of a person having benefits under the plan on the date of allocation:

- (a) any contributions paid into the pension fund of the plan and any amounts that the person had elected to transfer into the pension fund of the plan, other than contributions and amounts used to fund benefits that are not determined solely as a function of amounts credited to the account of the person; and
- (b) any interest attributable to contributions or amounts described in clause (a).

Core liabilities

(3) Second, allocate assets of the pension plan equal to the sum of the following liability amounts, provided that the pension legislation that would govern those liabilities if this Agreement did not exist would require them to be funded on a solvency basis:

- (a) the value of benefits under the plan that are being paid on a regular and periodic basis to any person on the date of allocation, whether or not the benefit is payable for the lifetime of the person, and determined taking into account:
 - (i) any periodic increase in the benefits, based on any index, rate or formula provided for in the plan; and
 - (ii) any related benefits that are payable due to the death of the person;
- (b) the value of lifetime benefits accrued under the plan by any person who, on the date of allocation, is entitled to receive payment of the benefits on that date or a later date, but who is not in receipt of payment of the benefits as of the date of allocation, determined:
 - (i) using the earliest age at which all such persons are entitled to payment of unreduced lifetime benefits, without reference to any other requirements or conditions under the terms of the plan or any applicable pension legislation;
 - (ii) taking into account any post-retirement periodic increase in the lifetime benefits, based on any index, rate or formula provided for in the plan; and

- (iii) taking into account any related benefits that are payable due to the death of the person, whether such death occurs before or after the person starts receiving payment of lifetime benefits under the plan and determined at the age described in subclause (i);
- (c) in respect of any person who has been required to make contributions under the plan, the amount by which the contributions made by the person plus any interest attributable to those contributions exceeds the amount representing 50% of the value of the benefits payable to the person under the plan, subject to the following requirements:
 - (i) the contributions, interest and value of the benefits shall be calculated as of the date of allocation and consistent with either the pension legislation that governs the benefits or the terms of the plan, whichever produces a larger excess amount; and
 - (ii) any such excess amount already determined in relation to a person before the date of allocation shall not be included, whether or not such previously determined excess amount has been refunded to the person; and
- (d) any unpaid part of the value of the benefits payable under the plan to a person who had elected before the date of allocation to be paid the value of the person's benefit entitlements under the plan, as well as any interest attributable to that unpaid part.

Other liabilities whose funding is required

- (4) Third, allocate assets of the pension plan equal to the sum of the following liability amounts:
 - (a) the value of benefits accrued under the plan, other than those referred to in subsection (3), by any person who, on the date of allocation, is entitled to receive payment of the benefit on that date or a later date, but who is not in receipt of payment of the benefit as of the date of allocation, provided that the pension legislation that would govern the benefits if this Agreement did not exist would require that such benefits be funded on a solvency basis; and
 - (b) subject to subsection (5), the value of the additional liability referred to in clause (b) of subsection (2) of section 6.

Assets related to additional liability

(5) Where the assets of the pension plan that are allocated to a portion under subsections (2), (3) and (4) in the absence of the requirements of this subsection exceed the value of benefits and other amounts accrued under the plan that are related to that portion:

- (a) the value calculated for clause (b) of subsection (4) shall be reduced by the excess amount referred to in this subsection; and
- (b) the assets of the plan not allocated to a portion due to the application of clause (a) may be allocated to other portions in accordance with subsection (4).

Balance of assets

(6) Fourth, for the purposes of an asset allocation in any situation other than that described in clause (c), (d) or (e) of section 10:

- (a) any assets of the pension plan remaining after the allocations made in accordance with subsections (2) to (4) shall be sequentially allocated to the portion or portions with the lowest going concern ratio, until the going concern ratio of that portion equals the going concern ratio of the portion with the next highest going concern ratio;
- (b) the sequential allocation of the plan's assets described in clause (a) shall be made until all portions have the same going concern ratio or no assets remain to be allocated, whichever occurs first;
- (c) if, after applying the sequential allocation of assets described in clauses (a) and (b), the going concern ratio of each portion is lower than 1.0, any assets of the pension plan yet to be allocated shall be allocated to the portions so that the going concern ratios of all portions remain the same, until the going concern ratio of each portion reaches 1.0 or no assets remain to be allocated, whichever occurs first;
- (d) for the purposes of clauses (a), (b) and (c), the going concern ratio of a portion shall be calculated by using the assets of the pension plan allocated to the portion in accordance with this section and the going concern liabilities of the plan that are subject to the jurisdiction's pension legislation applicable to that portion, other than assets and liabilities related to contributions and amounts described in subsection (2); and
- (e) any assets of the pension plan remaining after the allocations made in accordance with clauses (a), (b) and (c) shall be allocated pro rata to the total of the going concern liabilities determined for each portion.

Balance of assets for certain asset allocations

(7) Fourth, for the purposes of an asset allocation in a situation described in clause (c), (d) or (e) of section 10:

- (a) allocate assets of the pension plan equal to the value of benefits accrued under the plan, other than those referred to in subsections (2), (3) or (4), to which persons are entitled under the plan as of the date of allocation; and
- (b) any assets of the pension plan remaining after the allocations made in accordance with subsections (2) to (5) and clause (a) shall be allocated pro rata to the total of the values determined for each portion in applying subsections (2) and (3) and clause (a) of subsection (4).

SECTION 14.RULES OF APPLICATION*Alternative funding arrangements

14. (1) For the purposes of this Part, the assets of a pension plan include any alternative funding arrangement described in section 6 that exists in relation to the plan at the time the assets of the plan are allocated into portions in accordance with this Part.

Determining value of benefits and assets

(2) For the purposes of sections 11 to 13, except subsection (6) of section 13, the value of the benefits and other amounts payable under a pension plan and the assets of the plan shall be determined as if the pension plan were wound up on the date of allocation.

Deemed solvency funding requirement

(3) If, at the time the assets of a pension plan are allocated into portions in accordance with this Part, a liability amount related to the plan or a benefit under the plan that is subject to a jurisdiction's pension legislation would not, if this Agreement did not exist, be required to be funded on a solvency basis due to a temporary suspension under that legislation of a requirement under that legislation that would otherwise require the funding of such liability amount or benefit on a solvency basis, the liability amount or benefit shall be deemed to be one that is required by that legislation to be funded on a solvency basis for the purposes of subsection (3) of section 13 and clause (a) of subsection (4) of section 13.

Additional deemed solvency funding requirement

(4) If, on the date as of which the assets of a pension plan are allocated into portions in accordance with this Part, the pension legislation of a government that is party to this Agreement has been amended after January 1, 2014, to permanently remove a requirement that some or all of the benefits and liability amounts under a pension plan be funded on a solvency basis, then that pension legislation shall be deemed, for the purposes of subsection (3) of section 13 and clause (a) of subsection (4) of section 13, to require that those benefits and liability amounts that are the subject of the amendment to the pension legislation and that have been accrued under the plan before the date that the amendment to the pension legislation has come into effect must be funded on a solvency basis.

SECTION 15.REDUCTION METHOD*Reduction method

15. (1) Subject to subsection (2), to the extent that a value or amount referred to in subsection (3) or (4) of section 13 relates to benefits arising from the application of a provision of a pension plan or of pension legislation that came into effect less than five years before the date of allocation, such value or amount shall, for the purposes of subsection (3) or (4) of section 13, be reduced:

- (a) by 100%, if the period from the date that the provision of the pension plan or pension legislation came into effect to the date of allocation is less than one year;
- (b) by 80%, if the period is one year or more, but less than two years;
- (c) by 60%, if the period is two years or more, but less than three years;
- (d) by 40%, if the period is three years or more, but less than four years; and
- (e) by 20%, if the period is four years or more, but less than five years.

Exception to reduction method

(2) The major authority for a pension plan may permit the assets of the plan to be allocated into the portions described in subsection (2) of section 11 without applying the requirements of subsection (1) if a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries certifies that the liabilities of the plan that are related to the plan assets to be allocated into the portions described in subsection (2) of section 11 do not exceed those assets on a solvency basis.

SECTION 16.
INSUFFICIENCY OF ASSETS

Insufficiency of assets

16. If, at one of the levels of priority of allocation established by section 13, the assets of a pension plan that have yet to be allocated to a portion described in subsection (2) of section 11 are less than the total value of the benefits and other amounts that rank equally in that level of priority of allocation, the available plan assets shall be allocated to the portions pro rata to the total value of the benefits and other amounts that rank equally in that level of priority of allocation.

SECTION 17.
USE OF ASSETS FOLLOWING ALLOCATION

Use of allocated assets

17. (1) Where an asset allocation for a pension plan is made under this Part in any situation other than that described in clause (c), (d) or (e) of section 10, each portion of the assets of the plan allocated in accordance with sections 11 to 16 shall be utilized in conformity with the pension legislation applicable to the benefits and other amounts related to that portion.

Use of allocated assets for certain asset allocations

(2) Where an asset allocation for a pension plan is made under this Part in a situation described in clause (c), (d) or (e) of section 10, each portion of the assets of the plan allocated in accordance with sections 11 to 16 shall be utilized, in conformity with the pension legislation applicable to the benefits and other amounts related to that portion, to satisfy payment of those benefits and other amounts arising from the wind up of the plan or the withdrawal of the employer, as the case may be. In addition, any remaining assets related to that portion shall be distributed in accordance with that pension legislation, if so required under that legislation. No assets of the plan allocated to one portion shall be utilized to satisfy payment of the benefits and other amounts related to another portion on the wind up of the plan or the withdrawal of the employer, as the case may be.

Use of remaining allocated assets

(3) Where a situation described in clause (c) or (d) of section 10 occurs and the assets of a pension plan that have been allocated to a portion in accordance with sections 11 to 16 have been utilized to fully satisfy payment of the benefits and other amounts related to that portion that arise from the partial wind up of the plan or the withdrawal of the employer, as the case may be, and any other assets related to that portion have been distributed as required by the pension legislation applicable to the benefits and other amounts related to that portion, any remaining assets related to that portion shall remain in the pension fund of the plan and be commingled with the other assets therein.

SECTION 25.

REPLACEMENT

Prior agreements

25. Subject to sections 27 and 28, as of the date referred to in section 19, this Agreement replaces the agreement entitled “Memorandum of Reciprocal Agreement” and any similar agreement respecting the application of pension legislation to pension plans that has been made between the governments that are party to this Agreement or between the departments or agencies of such governments.

SECTION 26.

TRANSITION

Preliminary measure

26. (1) Where this Agreement comes into force on a date referred to in section 19, and on that date a pension plan first becomes subject to this Agreement:

- (a) if the plan is registered with only one pension supervisory authority and that authority is subject to this Agreement on that date, that authority shall become the major authority for the plan as of that date;
- (b) if the plan is registered with more than one pension supervisory authority and each of those authorities is subject to this Agreement on that date, the major authority for the plan shall be, of those authorities, the authority of the jurisdiction with the plurality of active members of the plan, as determined in accordance with subsection (3) of section 3 and considering only those jurisdictions whose pension legislation would, if this Agreement and any other agreement respecting the supervision of pension plans did not exist, require the plan to be registered with the pension supervisory authority of that jurisdiction; and
- (c) if the plan is registered with more than one pension supervisory authority and not all of those authorities are subject to this Agreement on that date, this Agreement shall not apply to the plan until such time as all of the authorities with which the plan is registered are subject to this Agreement, at which time the requirements of clause (b) shall apply to the plan.

Equal number of active members

(2) Where the major authority for a pension plan cannot be determined by applying clause (b) of subsection (1) because two or more jurisdictions have authority over an equal number, greater than zero, of active members of the plan, the major authority for the plan shall be, of those jurisdictions, the authority whose main office is in closest proximity to the main office of the administrator of the plan. For the purposes of this subsection:

- (a) the main office of a pension supervisory authority is the office from which the authority conducts most of its supervisory activities; and
- (b) the main office of the pension plan administrator is the office from which the plan administrator described in the text of the pension plan conducts most of the plan's administration.

Notice by major authority

(3) The pension supervisory authority that becomes a pension plan's major authority in accordance with this section shall, as soon as possible after assuming its functions, inform the plan administrator and each of the plan's pension supervisory authorities of the date on which it assumed the functions of major authority.

Decisions and recourse

(4) Despite sections 4 and 6, where a pension supervisory authority becomes a pension plan's major authority in accordance with this section:

- (a) all matters related to the plan that are pending before a pension supervisory authority on the day preceding the major authority's assumption of its functions under this Agreement shall be continued before that pension supervisory authority;
- (b) all matters related to the plan that concern a decision, order, direction or approval proposed or made by a pension supervisory authority and pending before any administrative body or court on the day preceding the major authority's assumption of its functions under this Agreement shall be continued before such body or court;
- (c) for every matter in respect of which the pension supervisory authority referred to in clause (a) or the administrative body or court referred to in clause (b) has proposed or made a decision, order, direction or approval to which the pension legislation or other legislation applying on the day preceding the major authority's assumption of its functions under this Agreement provides a right of recourse:
 - (i) such right shall be maintained so long as the period provided for exercising that right has not expired; and
 - (ii) such recourse may be brought before the administrative body or court provided for by the legislation giving entitlement thereto;

- (d) for any matter related to the plan not described in clauses (a) to (c) that occurred before the major authority's assumption of its functions under this Agreement and that related to the provisions of the pension legislation of a pension supervisory authority's jurisdiction in respect of a matter referred to in Schedule B:
 - (i) the pension supervisory authority may, even after the major authority assumes its functions under this Agreement for the plan, conduct an examination, investigation or inquiry into the matter in accordance with the pension legislation of that authority's jurisdiction to determine whether compliance with that legislation was met, and in such case, the matter shall remain subject to that pension supervisory authority; and
 - (ii) where the matter constitutes an offence under the pension legislation of the pension supervisory authority's jurisdiction, the offence may be prosecuted by the competent authority in that jurisdiction, and in such case, the matter shall remain subject to that pension supervisory authority; and
- (e) subject to sections 27 and 28, all matters referred to in clauses (a) to (d) shall remain subject to the pension legislation, other legislation and agreements referred to in section 25 that applied to such matters on the day preceding the major authority's assumption of its functions under this Agreement.

New party to this Agreement after July 1, 2016

(5) Despite sections 4 and 6, if this Agreement comes into force after July 1, 2016, in respect of a government that was not party to this Agreement before that date, and a pension plan is, on the date this Agreement comes into force in respect of that party, already subject to this Agreement:

- (a) the major authority for that plan shall inform the plan administrator and each of the plan's pension supervisory authorities of the date on which this Agreement came into force in respect of that party, as soon as possible after that date;
- (b) all matters related to the plan that are pending before a pension supervisory authority on the day preceding the date this Agreement comes into force in respect of that party shall be continued before that pension supervisory authority;
- (c) all matters related to the plan that concern a decision, order, direction or approval proposed or made by a pension supervisory authority and pending before any administrative body or court on the day preceding the date this Agreement comes into force in respect of that party shall be continued before such body or court;

- (d) for every matter in respect of which the pension supervisory authority referred to in clause (b) or the administrative body or court referred to in clause (c) has proposed or made a decision, order, direction or approval to which the pension legislation or other legislation applying on the day preceding the date this Agreement comes into force in respect of that party provides a right of recourse:
 - (i) such right shall be maintained so long as the period provided for exercising that right has not expired; and
 - (ii) such recourse may be brought before the administrative body or court provided for by the legislation giving entitlement thereto;
- (e) for any matter related to the plan not described in clauses (b) to (d) that occurred before the date this Agreement came into force in respect of that party and that related to the provisions of the pension legislation of a pension supervisory authority's jurisdiction in respect of a matter referred to in Schedule B:
 - (i) the pension supervisory authority may, even after the date this Agreement comes into force in respect of that party, conduct an examination, investigation or inquiry into the matter in accordance with the pension legislation of that authority's jurisdiction to determine whether compliance with that legislation was met, and in such case, the matter shall remain subject to that pension supervisory authority; and
 - (ii) where the matter constitutes an offence under the pension legislation of the pension supervisory authority's jurisdiction, the offence may be prosecuted by the competent authority in that jurisdiction, and in such case, the matter shall remain subject to that pension supervisory authority; and
- (f) all matters referred to in clauses (b) to (e) shall remain subject to the pension legislation, other legislation and agreements referred to in section 25 that applied to such matters on the day preceding the date this Agreement came into force in respect of that party.

2.08 Continuous Service

- (a) "Continuous Service" means the period of regular employment with the Employer from the later of the date of commencement of employment with the Employer or the date of re-employment following the last break in service, if any.
- (b) Continuous Service shall be broken by an Employee's resignation or other voluntary termination of employment or termination of employment by the Employer, retirement or absence due to a non-compensable Disability for a period in excess of 36 consecutive months.
- (c) Notwithstanding (a) and (b) above, Employees with eight or more years of Continuous Service as of the date they become eligible for long term disability benefits pursuant to the Employer's program of insurance benefits shall continue to accrue Continuous Service until the payment of or eligibility for such benefits ceases. In the event that the long term disability insurance benefits are reduced to zero by virtue of an offset for workers' compensation benefits, Continuous Service shall continue to accrue notwithstanding that the actual payment of long term disability insurance benefits has ceased, until such time as the payment of or eligibility for such payments would otherwise have ceased under the terms of the Employer's program of insurance benefits. Section 14 — Special Provisions for Quebec Employees

This section applies to Employees who report for work in the Province of Quebec and is included in the Plan in order for the Plan to comply with the Supplemental Pension Plans Act (Quebec) (the "SPPA") and shall supplement all other provisions of the Plan which are not inconsistent and shall replace any other provisions which are inconsistent.

14.02 Early Retirement

A Quebec Member may elect to retire on the first day of the month following his or her 55th birthday, or on the first day of any succeeding month prior to his Normal Retirement Date, provided the Member has completed at least two years of Continuous Service, the date of such retirement being hereunder described as his or her "Early Retirement Date". Such Member shall be entitled, upon such early retirement, to receive a pension determined pursuant to Section 14.03.

14.03 Early Retirement Pension

A Quebec Member who retires pursuant to Section 14.02 may elect to receive a monthly pension commencing on his or her Early Retirement Date or at the election of the Quebec Member on the first day of any subsequent month (but not later than his or her Normal Retirement Date), in an amount equal to the Actuarial Equivalent of the pension calculated as in Section 6.01 based on his or her Credited Service to his or her Early Retirement Date.

14.04 Postponed Retirement

A Quebec Member may postpone his or her retirement beyond his or her Normal Retirement Date.

14.05 Actuarial Adjustment

Upon a Quebec Member's postponed retirement date, which shall be the first day of the month coincident with or next following the date on which the Member retires, the Quebec Member shall be eligible to receive a retirement pension equal to the Actuarial Equivalent of the pension determined pursuant to Section 6.01 based on Credited Service in effect on the Normal Retirement Date. Such Actuarial Equivalent shall be determined as of the date the pension commences and shall be determined on the basis of the method described in Appendix "A" to the Plan entitled "Revalorization of Postponed Retirement Pension".

R-23 Unionized Employees Pension Plan (cont'd)14.06 Maximum Deferral of Pension

If a Quebec Member who has elected to postpone retirement after Normal Retirement Date has not effectively retired before his or her 69th birthday, the Member's postponed retirement pension shall commence on December 1st of the calendar year the Quebec Member attains age 69.

14.07 Effect of Maximum Benefit Rule

If a Quebec Member who has elected to postpone retirement after Normal Retirement Date shall become entitled to a postponed retirement pension which, after the revalorization described in Section 14.05 above, becomes equal to the maximum pension described in Section 9.08, the Member's postponed retirement pension shall then commence on the first day of the next calendar month.

14.08 Partial Payment of Pension

If the wages, as defined in the SPPA, of a Quebec Member who has elected to postpone retirement after Normal Retirement Date are reduced, the Member may elect to receive a partial payment of his or her retirement pension. Such election may be made at the time the Member's wages are reduced and each January 1st thereafter. The amount of the partial payment shall be equal to, if the amount of the retirement pension so permits, the amount of reduction in such wages. The remaining balance, if any, of his retirement pension shall be payable on the Member's effective retirement and shall be calculated according to Section 14.05 above.

14.09 Early Commencement of Deferred Vested Pension

A Quebec Member who is entitled to a deferred vested pension pursuant to Section 6.04 may, upon proper application therefore, elect to have the deferred vested pension commence prior to his or her Normal Retirement Date, on the first day of any month subsequent to the Member's 55th birthday, in which event the amount of such pension shall be the Actuarial Equivalent of the deferred pension otherwise payable from such Member's Normal Retirement Date.

14.10 Portability of Benefits

A Quebec Member whose employment with the Employer terminates before attaining age 55 and who is entitled to a deferred vested pension pursuant to the provisions of Section 6.04 may, within 180 days following the date of termination, and subsequently every five years, within 180 days from the date of expiry of each fifth year, elect to transfer an amount equal to the value of the deferred pension to a pension plan governed by the SPPA or to a locked in retirement account or annuity contract as prescribed by the SPPA. Any such transfer shall, however, be subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed by the SPPA, depending upon the solvency status of the Plan from time to time.

In the event that a portability election is completed pursuant to this Section 14.10, the Member shall have no further rights under the Plan.

14.11 Death in Service After Normal Retirement Date

If a Quebec Member dies subsequent to the Normal Retirement Date while in active employment leaving a surviving Spouse, the Member's Spouse shall be entitled to receive a pension the value of which shall be equal to the greater of:

- (a) the value of the death benefit under Section 8, or
- (b) the value of the pension the Spouse would have been entitled to receive under Section 7 if payment of the postponed pension had begun on the day preceding the death of the Quebec Member.

14.12 Commutation of Pension

If the value of a retirement pension or deferred vested pension payable under the Plan is less than 4% of the YMPE in the year that the Quebec Member retires, terminates employment or dies, or such other amount as may be permitted by the SPPA, from time to time, a lump sum amount equal to the value of the benefit shall be paid to the person entitled to such benefit in lieu of any other benefits under this Plan.

R-23 Unionized Employees Pension Plan (cont'd)Appendix A*Revalorization of Postponed Retirement Pension

The retirement pension of a Quebec Member who has elected to postpone retirement after his or her Normal Retirement Date is revalorized as follows:

1. A notional account is set up for the Quebec Member.
2. There shall be credited to that account the monthly retirement pension that the Quebec Member would have received (up to but not including the date the Member actually begins to receive the retirement pension) if the Member had retired on his or her Normal Retirement Date.
3. There shall be credited to such account the interest earned on such monthly retirement pension from each due date thereof assuming a rate of interest for each calendar month corresponding to the average yield on "5-year personal fixed term deposits" (CANSIM series B14045) as published by the Bank of Canada Review.
4. When the postponement of the retirement pension ceases, a monthly postponed retirement pension shall be calculated based on the accumulated balance then existing in such account.
5. The accumulated balance in the account shall be divided by the present value of an annuity of $1 per month payable for the Quebec Member's lifetime calculated by the Actuary and based on the following assumptions:
 - (i) 1983 Group Annuity Mortality Table, as published by the Society of Actuaries; and
 - (ii) Interest for the first 15 years at an annual rate equal to the yield on "long-term Government of Canada Bonds" (CANSIM series B14013) for the month preceding as published in the Bank of Canada Review, and interest at 6% per annum thereafter.
6. The Quebec Member's postponed retirement pension shall be calculated by adding:
 - (i) The monthly normal retirement pension that the Quebec Member would have been entitled to receive had the Member retired on his or her Normal Retirement Date; and
 - (ii) the pension calculated pursuant to paragraph 5 above.
7. In the event of a partial payment of the retirement pension after the Normal Retirement Date but before actual retirement (i.e. with different parts of the retirement pension being postponed for different periods), the foregoing procedure shall be applied separately to each part.

Section 1 — Amendment and Restatement

1.01 Amendment and Restatement

Effective as of March 1, 1996, the Pension Plan for Bargaining Unit Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent, Arnaud Railway Company, and Wabush Lake Railway Company, Limited, Canada Customs and Revenue Agency registration number 0555201, is amended and restated to allow active Members to choose, on a one-time-only basis, one of two forms of pension benefits:

- a Defined Benefit Provision based on a flat dollar benefit rate, pursuant to the terms of the Collective Agreement; or
- a Defined Benefit Provision based on a lower flat dollar benefit rate plus a Defined Contribution Provision with Member and Employer contributions, pursuant to the terms of the Collective Agreement.

1.02 Opportunity to Transfer from Defined Contribution Provision to Defined Benefit Provision

For Members who participate in the Defined Contribution Provision and who commit between January 1, 2000 and June 30, 2002 to retire by February 29, 2004, there will be a one-time-only opportunity to elect to have their benefit in respect of the Defined Benefit Provision and their temporary supplementary benefit at retirement calculated pursuant to Section 6.01(a) and 6.06(a), respectively. A life annuity will be calculated based upon the Member's Account, in respect of Employer contributions, as of the date of retirement and such annuity will reduce the pension benefit determined pursuant to Section 6.01(a).

1.03 Opportunity to Transfer from Defined Benefit Provision to Defined Contribution Provision

For Members who participate in the Defined Benefit Provision, who find that the circumstances which led them to elect that coverage in 1996 have now changed, there will be a one-time-only opportunity to elect to transfer from the Defined Benefit Provision to the Defined Contribution Provision. Members must make this election before December 31, 1999. The change will be effective prospectively from the date of the revised election; therefore benefits in respect of Credited Service earned prior to the date of the revised election shall be determined according to the terms of the Plan for Members who do not participate in the Defined Contribution Provision.

1.04 Benefits Prior to March 1, 1999

Benefits in respect of a Member whose employment with the Employer ceased prior to March 1, 1999 shall be determined in accordance with the terms of the Plan applicable when the Member ceased employment except as required by the Income Tax Act or the Pension Benefits Act or as may be specifically provided herein.

(ii) Members who originally elect not to participate in the Defined Contribution Provision and who, in accordance with Section 1.03, subsequently decide to change their election shall not contribute for the period prior to the date of the revised election.

(c) Additional Voluntary Contributions

(i) A Member who participates in the Defined Contribution Provision may, in addition to the contributions pursuant to (b) above, make additional voluntary contributions to the Member's Account, by payroll deduction, up to such amounts as are permissible pursuant to the Income Tax Act as deductible contributions to a registered pension plan.

4.02 Employer Contributions

The Employer shall have no liability to make any payments to the Pension Fund except as expressly provided in the Plan.

(a) Defined Benefit Provision

(i) The Employer shall bear the costs related to the Defined Benefit Provision. The Employer shall contribute to the Pension Fund in respect of the Defined Benefit Provision in such amount, based on the latest actuarial valuation report prepared by the Actuary and filed with the Newfoundland pension regulatory authority and Revenue Canada, as is required to provide for the normal cost of benefits accruing in the current Plan Year, after taking into account the assets of the Pension Fund and all other relevant factors, and to provide for the proper amortization of all unfunded liabilities and solvency deficiencies, if any, in accordance with the Pension Benefits Act and subject to subsection 147.2(2) of the Income Tax Act.

Alternatively, the Member may contribute a lesser amount or may cease contributing to the Member's Account. Prior to commencing the Approved Leave of Absence, the Member shall inform the Employer in writing of the amount of the Member's contributions. The contributions shall be made in equal instalments, by a payroll deduction or, if such method of payment is not possible, by delivering to the Employer post-dated cheques in respect of each month of the Approved Leave of Absence.

- a Defined Benefit Provision based on a lower flat dollar benefit rate plus a Defined Contribution Provision with Member and Employer contributions, pursuant to the terms of the Collective Agreement.

1.02 Opportunity to Transfer from Defined Contribution Provision to Defined Benefit Provision

For Members who participate in the Defined Contribution Provision and who commit between January 1, 2000 and June 30, 2002 to retire by February 29, 2004, there will be a one-time-only opportunity to elect to have their benefit in respect of the Defined Benefit Provision and their temporary supplementary benefit at retirement calculated pursuant to Section 6.01(a) and 6.06(a), respectively. The Pension Committee shall make reasonable efforts to inform eligible Members and their respective Spouses of the availability of the Pre-Pension Spouse Coverage.

8.04 Statutory Minimum Benefits

In no event shall the Commuted Value of the pension benefit payable upon the death of a Member who has completed at least two years of Continuous Service be less than the Commuted Value of the pension benefit accrued by the Member pursuant to Section 6.01, in respect of Credited Service on and after January 1, 1990.

Section 9 — Payment of Benefits

9.01 Application for Benefits

Payment of a pension or other benefit under the Plan shall be granted by the Employer and payment shall be made only upon application therefor in the manner prescribed by the Employer, and upon submission of such relevant information and supporting documentation as the Employer in its discretion may reasonably request.

9.02 Proof of Age and Marital Status

A Member shall be required to inform the Employer of his or her age and marital status and the age of the Member's Spouse (if any) and to file such proof thereof as required by the Employer. Pension benefits shall not commence to be paid until such proof of age and marital status has been received and admitted by the Employer. In the event that payment of pension benefits is delayed pending receipt and admittance of satisfactory proof of age and marital status, retroactive payments shall be made once satisfactory proof has been received.

9.03 Misstatement in Application for Pension Benefit

If a Member either knowingly or unknowingly has submitted any information to the Employer relevant to the amount of benefits he or she is to receive from the Plan which is incorrect, the amount of benefits payable from the Plan may be adjusted either, in the case of underpayment, by making additional payments from the Plan or, in the case of overpayment, by requiring repayment from the Member, whichever is appropriate in the circumstances.

9.04 Method of Payment

All retirement income and other benefits payable under the Plan shall be paid by cheque mailed by ordinary prepaid mail to the last known address of the Member, Spouse or Beneficiary as the case may be, or may be deposited directly into an account as directed by the Member, Spouse or Beneficiary. Posting or deposit of the cheque shall be an effective discharge of the Plan for the amount thereof.

9.05 Evidence of Survival

The Employer shall have the right to require satisfactory evidence that a retired Member or other Beneficiary under the Plan is living on each and every date a pension benefit is due the retired Member or other Beneficiary. In the absence of such evidence when required by the Employer, the benefits otherwise due shall not be paid until the evidence has been received.

R-24 Salaried Employees Pension Plan (cont'd)9.06 Payments to Minors or Incompetents

If the Employer receives evidence satisfactory to it that a person entitled to receive any payment under the Plan is physically or mentally incompetent to receive such payment and to give valid receipt therefor, or is a minor, and another person or an institution is then maintaining or has custody of the person and no guardian, committee or other representative of the person has been duly and legally appointed, the Employer may authorize payment of the benefit to be made to such other person or institution and the release of the other person or institution shall be a valid and complete discharge of the liabilities of the Plan therefor.

9.07 Beneficiary Designation

A Member may, by written notice communicated to the Employer during the Member's lifetime, designate a Beneficiary to receive any benefits payable pursuant to the Plan in the event of the Member's death. The Member may revise or revoke any such designation from time to time, subject to the provisions of any annuity, insurance or other contract or law governing designation of beneficiaries which may apply to the Member. A Quebec Member may revoke the designation of a beneficiary only if the designation is stated to be revocable. The written notice shall be in such form and executed in such manner as the Employer in its discretion may specify from time to time. In the event a Member has not validly and effectively designated a Beneficiary or, if having done so, the Beneficiary is not living on the date of the Member's death or if the Member revoked the last designation so made, any amount payable pursuant to the Plan shall be paid in a lump sum amount to the Member's estate.

9.08 Maximum Limits Under the Income Tax Act

The Income Tax Act imposes conditions in order for a pension plan to maintain registered status under the Income Tax Act. Certain restrictions must be specifically stated in the Plan, even though the regular provisions of the Plan may be more restrictive. In administering the Plan, contributions and benefits are first determined pursuant to the regular provisions of the Plan, then tested against the provisions of this Section 9.08 and modified if necessary.

(a) Maximum Pension

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, and subject to section (b) below, the annual pension payable to a Member under the Defined Benefit Provision on the date of the Member's retirement, termination of employment, or upon termination of the Plan, including any benefits paid to a Spouse pursuant to Section 12.05, shall not exceed the lesser of:

- (i) 2% of the Member's "highest average compensation" multiplied by the Member's years of "pensionable service" with the Employer; and
 - (ii) the "defined benefit limit" for such year (currently $1,722.22) multiplied by the Member's years of "pensionable service" with the Employer.
- Pensionable service for a Member shall not exceed 35 years during a Member's period of service prior to 1992.

For the purposes of this subsection, the terms "highest average compensation", "defined

- (i) the Member's attainment of age 60;
- (ii) the date the Member would have attained 30 years of service had he or she continued in employment with the Employer; or
- (iii) the date the Member would have attained a combined total of 80 years (and fractions of a year) of age and service had he or she continued in employment with the Employer.

(c) Combined Maximum Pension and Temporary Supplemental Benefit

In addition to the maximum pension limit described in paragraph (a) above, and notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan to the contrary, the total annual benefit payable to a Member under the Defined Benefit Provision prior to the Member's attainment of age 65, at the time of the Member's termination of employment, retirement, or termination of the Plan, as the case may be, shall not exceed the sum of:

- (i) the defined benefit limit for such year of termination multiplied by the Member's years of "pensionable service", as defined in the Income Tax Act; and
- (ii) 25% of the average of the YMPE for such year of termination and the two preceding calendar years, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Member's years of pensionable service as defined in the Income Tax Act to a maximum of 35 and the denominator of which is 35.

9.09 Retirement Benefits From Excess Contributions

(a) A Member who is eligible to receive benefits under the Defined Benefit Provision shall receive additional monthly retirement income that is the Actuarial Equivalent of the amount, if any, by which his contributions made prior to January 1, 1990, together with Credited Interest but excluding any amounts transferred to his Member Account under Section 4.05, exceed the Commuted Value of any retirement income earned in respect of Credited Service prior to January 1, 1990 under the Defined Benefit Provision.

(b) A Member who is eligible to receive benefits under the Defined Benefit Provision shall receive additional retirement income that is the Actuarial Equivalent of the amount, if any, by which his contributions made on or after January 1, 1990, together with Credited Interest but excluding any amounts transferred to his Member Account under Section 4.05, exceed 50% of the Commuted Value of any retirement income earned in respect of Credited Service on or after January 1, 1990 under the Defined Benefit Provision.

Section 12 — General Provisions

12.01 Employment Rights

The establishment and implementation of the Plan shall not constitute an enlargement of any rights which a Member may have as an Employee apart from the Plan. Membership in the Plan does not confer a right on a Member to require the Employer to continue the Member in its employment, and if the service of the Member is terminated before the Member's Normal Retirement Date, such Member has only such rights as are provided for under the Plan. The benefits pursuant to the Plan shall not be used to increase damages in respect of the termination of employment of a Member.

12.02 Non-Assignability and Non-Commutability of Benefits

Any benefit payable pursuant to the Plan shall be for the personal use of the person entitled to receive such benefit, and shall not be given as security or be subject to anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, surrender or charge, or to attachment or legal process for debts of the person receiving such benefits, except as specifically provided by paragraph 8502(f) of the regulations to the Income Tax Act, by statute and as provided in Section 12.05 below. In no event shall such benefits confer upon any Member, or any other person, any rights or interest therein which is capable of being surrendered or commuted except as specifically provided by the Plan.

12.03 No Duplication of Benefits

There shall be no duplication of the benefits under any one section of the Plan and the benefits under any other section of the Plan, nor of the benefits under the Plan and the benefits under any other Employer-sponsored retirement plan or any other retirement plan sponsored by an affiliate or subsidiary of the Employer with respect to the same period of service.

12.04 Notices and Elections

Any notice or election to be given, made or communicated pursuant to or for any purpose of the Plan shall be given, made or communicated, as the case may be, in such manner as the Employer shall determine from time to time. 12.06 Applicable Law

The Plan shall be interpreted pursuant to the laws applicable in the province of Newfoundland.

Section 13 — Future of the Plan

13.01 Continuation of the Plan

The Employer intends to maintain the Plan in force indefinitely; however, the Employer reserves the right to terminate the Plan, either in whole or in part, at any time or times in the event that future conditions warrant such action, subject to the Pension Benefits Act and the Income Tax Act.

13.02 Amendment of the Plan

The Employer reserves the right to amend the Plan from time to time. No amendment to the Plan or other instrument established or entered into for purposes of holding and administering funds contributed hereunder, shall operate to reduce the benefits accrued by members or by their Spouses, Beneficiaries or estates up to the date of the amendment nor shall any amendment be made which would cause or permit any portion of the Pension Fund to be used for purposes other than as prescribed by the provisions of the Plan and the requirements of the Pension Benefits Act and the Income Tax Act.

13.03 Termination of the Plan

In the event the Plan is terminated, the assets of the Pension Fund, after provision for administrative expenses (including any expenses incurred in the termination of the Plan), shall first be used to provide pension benefits for Members, their respective Spouses, Beneficiaries and estates in an equitable manner to be determined by the Employer, with the recommendation of the Actuary, subject to the Pension Benefits Act and the Income Tax Act. The rights of all Members and their Spouses, Beneficiaries and estates to benefits accrued to the date of such termination, to extent then funded, are non-forfeitable.

13.04 Wind-Up or Bankruptcy of the Employer

In the event the Employer is wound up or becomes bankrupt, the Plan, unless continued by another employer, shall be deemed terminated and the provisions of Section 13.03 shall apply, except to the extent that any termination or action required to be made thereunder by the Employer, shall in such event, be made by the liquidator or trustee in bankruptcy, as the case may be.

R-24 Salaried Employees Pension Plan (cont'd)13.05 Asset Transfer or Merger

- (a) The Employer may transfer or merge the assets of the Plan or the Pension Fund or any part thereof, and the liabilities related to such assets, to or with one or more trusts, pension fund societies or corporations, pension or superannuation plans or funds and which may result in one merged or amalgamated entity with or without termination of the entities merged. Subject to the Pension Benefits Act and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the terms of the transfer or merger may provide for the termination or continuation of all or any part of the entities to be merged, the consolidation of the assets and liabilities of the merged entities, with or without any requirement to maintain a separate accounting in respect thereof, and the application of the assets of the fund or any part thereof to the liabilities related to any new participants or the merged entity, provided that any account maintained in respect of a Member shall continue to be maintained in respect of the Member until such time as the Member terminates employment with no vested benefit remaining to be paid.
- (b) In the event of a merger or consolidation of the Plan with, or transfer in whole or in part of the assets and liabilities of the Pension Fund to, another fund relating to any other plan of deferred compensation maintained or to be established for the benefit of all or some of the Members, the assets of the Pension Fund relating to any transferred Members shall be transferred to the other fund provided that:
- (i) each Member would be entitled to (if either the Plan or the other plan is then terminated) receive a pension benefit immediately after the merger, consolidation or transfer equal to or greater than the pension benefit he or she would have been entitled to receive pursuant to the Plan immediately prior to the merger, consolidation or transfer;
 - (ii) the Employer, or any new or successor employer of the affected Members authorizes such transfer of assets; and
 - (iii) such other plan and trust agreement are registered with the applicable regulatory authorities.

13.06 Surplus Assets

If, after all accrued benefits pursuant to the Plan to Members and their respective Spouses, Beneficiaries or estates, as the case may be, have been paid and all expenses pursuant to the Plan have been paid, Surplus Assets remain in the Pension Fund, the Employer shall have legal title to such Surplus Assets, subject to the Pension Benefits Act, the Income Tax Act and other applicable laws.

Section 14 — Special Provisions for Quebec Employees

14.01 Application

This section applies to Employees who report for work in the Province of Quebec and is included in the Plan in order for the Plan to comply with the Supplemental Pension Plans Act (Quebec) (the “SPPA”) and shall supplement all other provisions of the Plan which are not inconsistent and shall replace any other provisions which are inconsistent.

14.02 Quebec Early Retirement

A Quebec Member may elect to retire on the first day of the month following his or her 55th birthday, or on the first day of any succeeding month prior to his Normal Retirement Date, provided the Member has completed at least two years of Continuous Service, the date of such retirement being hereunder described as his or her “Quebec Early Retirement Date”. Such Member shall be entitled, upon such early retirement, to receive a pension determined pursuant to Section 14.03.

14.03 Quebec Early Retirement Pension

A Quebec Member who retires pursuant to Section 14.02 may elect to receive a monthly pension commencing on his or her Quebec Early Retirement Date or at the election of the Quebec Member on the first day of any subsequent month (but not later than his or her Normal Retirement Date), in an amount equal to the Actuarial Equivalent of the pension calculated as in Section 6.01 based on his or her Credited Service to his or her Quebec Early Retirement Date.

14.04 Postponed Retirement

A Quebec Member may postpone his or her retirement beyond his or her Normal Retirement Date.

14.05 Actuarial Adjustment

Upon a Quebec Member's postponed retirement date, which shall be the first day of the month coincident with or next following the date on which the Member retires, the Quebec Member shall be eligible to receive a retirement pension equal to the Actuarial Equivalent of the pension determined pursuant to Section 6.01 based on Credited Service in effect on the Normal Retirement Date. Such Actuarial Equivalent shall be determined as of the date the pension commences and shall be determined on the basis of the method described in Appendix “A” to the Plan entitled “Revalorization of Postponed Retirement Pension”.

14.06 Maximum Deferral of Pension

If a Quebec Member who has elected to postpone retirement after Normal Retirement Date has not effectively retired before his or her 69th birthday, the Member's postponed retirement pension shall commence on December 1st of the calendar year the Quebec Member attains age 69.

14.07 Effect of Maximum Benefit Rule

If a Quebec Member who has elected to postpone retirement after Normal Retirement Date shall become entitled to a postponed retirement pension which, after the revalorization described in Section 14.05 above, becomes equal to the maximum pension described in Section 9.08, the Member's postponed retirement pension shall then commence on the first day of the next calendar month.

14.08 Partial Payment of Pension

If the wages, as defined in the SPPA, of a Quebec Member who has elected to postpone retirement after Normal Retirement Date are reduced, the Member may elect to receive a partial payment of his or her retirement pension. Such election may be made at the time the Member's wages are reduced and each January 1st thereafter. The amount of the partial payment shall be equal to, if the amount of the retirement pension so permits, the amount of reduction in such wages. The remaining balance, if any, of his retirement pension shall be payable on the Member's effective retirement and shall be calculated according to Section 14.05 above.

14.09 Early Commencement of Deferred Vested Pension

A Quebec Member who is entitled to a deferred vested pension pursuant to Section 6.04 may, upon proper application therefor, elect to have the deferred vested pension commence prior to his or her Normal Retirement Date, on the first day of any month subsequent to the Member's 55th birthday, in which event the amount of such pension shall be the Actuarial Equivalent of the deferred pension otherwise payable from such Member's Normal Retirement Date.

14.10 Portability of Benefits

A Quebec Member whose employment with the Employer terminates before attaining age 55 and who is entitled to a deferred vested pension pursuant to the provisions of Section 6.04 may, within 180 days following the date of termination, and subsequently every five years, within 180 days from the date of expiry of each fifth year, elect to transfer an amount equal to the value of the deferred pension to a pension plan governed by the SPPA or to a locked in retirement account or annuity contract as prescribed by the SPPA. Any such transfer shall, however, be subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed by the SPPA, depending upon the solvency status of the Plan from time to time.

In the event that a portability election is completed pursuant to this Section 14.10, the Member shall have no further rights under the Plan.

14.11 Death in Service After Normal Retirement Date

If a Quebec Member dies subsequent to the Normal Retirement Date while in active employment leaving a surviving Spouse, the Member's Spouse shall be entitled to receive a pension the value of which shall be equal to the greater of:

- (a) the value of the death benefit under Section 8, or
- (b) the value of the pension the Spouse would have been entitled to receive under Section 7 if payment of the postponed pension had begun on the day preceding the death of the Quebec Member.

- (a) the value of the death benefit under Section 8, or
- (b) the value of the pension the Spouse would have been entitled to receive under Section 7 if payment of the postponed pension had begun on the day preceding the death of the Quebec Member.

14.12 Commutation of Pension

If the value of a retirement pension or deferred vested pension payable under the Plan is less than 4% of the YMPE in the year that the Quebec Member retires, terminates employment or dies, or such other amount as may be permitted from time to time by the SPPA, a lump sum amount equal to the value of the benefit shall be paid to the person entitled to such benefit in lieu of any other benefits under this Plan.

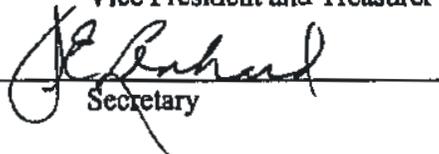

14.13 Temporary Supplementary Benefit

For the purposes of Section 7.03, if the Member was receiving a temporary supplementary benefit pursuant to Section 6.06, such temporary supplementary benefit shall be subject to an actuarial reduction, and such benefit shall continue to be paid to the Member's Spouse ending with the month in which the Member would have attained age 65.

Appendix A

Revalorization of Postponed Retirement Pension

The retirement pension of a Quebec Member who has elected to postpone retirement after his or her Normal Retirement Date is revalorized as follows:

1. A notional account is set up for the Quebec Member.
2. There shall be credited to that account the monthly retirement pension that the Quebec Member would have received (up to but not including the date the Member actually begins to receive the retirement pension) if the Member had retired on his or her Normal Retirement Date.
3. There shall be credited to such account the interest earned on such monthly retirement pension from each due date thereof assuming a rate of interest for each calendar month corresponding to the average yield on "5-year personal fixed term deposits" (CANSIM series B14045) as published by the Bank of Canada Review.
4. When the postponement of the retirement pension ceases, a monthly postponed retirement pension shall be calculated based on the accumulated balance then existing in such account.
5. The accumulated balance in the account shall be divided by the present value of an annuity of $1 per month payable for the Quebec Member's lifetime calculated by the Actuary and based on the following assumptions:
 - (i) 1983 Group Annuity Mortality Table, as published by the Society of Actuaries; and

Effective January 1, 2001, Section 14 is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Section 14 – Special Provisions for Québec Employees14.01 Application

This section applies to Employees who report for work in the Province of Québec and is included in the Plan in order for the Plan to comply with the Supplemental Pension Plans Act (Québec) (the "SPPA") and shall supplement all other provisions of the Plan which are not inconsistent and shall replace any other provisions which are inconsistent.

14.02 Definition of Spouse

Notwithstanding Section 2.35, "Spouse" means, in relation to a Québec Member:

- (a) Subject to paragraphs (b), (c) and (d), in relation to a Member, the person who, at the earlier of the commencement of the Member's pension and the date of the Member's death, meets one of the following eligibility requirements:
 - (i) the person who is married to or in a civil union with the Member; or
 - (ii) where the Member is neither married nor in a civil union, the person who has been living together with the Member in a conjugal relationship:

- c. one of them has adopted at least one child who is the child of the other, while living together in a conjugal relationship.

For the purposes of subparagraph (ii), the birth or adoption of a child during a marriage, a civil union or a period of conjugal relationship prior to the period of conjugal relationship existing on the day as of which spousal status is established may qualify a person as a Spouse.

- (b) For the purposes of paragraphs (c) and (d) below, "Separation" means in relation to a Member and his Spouse:

- (i) legal separation from bed and board if the Spouse is married to the Member;
- (ii) dissolution or annulment of their civil union; or
- (iii) cessation of conjugal relationship if the Spouse satisfies the eligibility requirement set out in subparagraph (a)(ii).

- (c) If Separation pursuant to subparagraph (b)(i) occurs before the day as of which spousal status is established, the person who would be considered the Member's Spouse in accordance with paragraph (a)(i) shall not be considered as the Member's Spouse when applying any provision of this plan conferring a benefit upon a surviving Spouse.

However, when the Member has notified the Employer in writing that the person should still be considered as the Member's Spouse despite this Separation, such person shall be so considered when applying a provision of this plan purporting to confer a benefit upon a surviving Spouse after the commencement of the Member's pension.

- (d) If, after the commencement of the Member's pension, Separation occurs or the Spouse ceases to be married to or in a civil union with the Member, the person who was the Spouse of the Member on the commencement of the Member's pension shall cease to be the Member's Spouse for the purposes of any contingent pension payable under the form of payment elected by the Member at the time of pension commencement, except where the Member notified the Employer in writing to have such person entitled to the contingent pension despite such Separation or termination of marriage or civil union.

14.03 Transfer of Employment

Notwithstanding Section 3.05, if an Employee who is a Québec Member ceases to be an Employee under this Plan, but remains employed with the Employer, such Member may, as a result of such cessation of active membership,

- (a) elect to transfer the Member's accrued benefits out of the Plan in accordance with the provisions applicable to a Member who terminates employment before Normal Retirement Date or an early retirement date, as if the date on which the cessation of active membership occurred was a Deferred Vested Termination Date; or
- (b) remain eligible to receive the benefits accrued pursuant to the Plan upon the employee's subsequent termination of employment, retirement or death and
 - (i) employment with the Employer in a capacity other than as an Employee shall continue to count as Continuous Service for the purpose of eligibility for retirement and similar matters, but not as Credited Service for benefit calculation purposes pursuant to the Plan;
 - (ii) the employee shall not be authorized to contribute to the Pension Fund in any capacity or in any ways.

14.04 Statutory Early Commencement Date

Notwithstanding Sections 5.02, 5.03 and 5.06, a Québec Member may begin to receive his pension entitlements, on request, from the date the Member's Continuous Service is broken if, on this date, he has attained or exceeded age 55. Such date shall be known as the Member's Statutory Early Commencement Date.

The Member's monthly pension under the Defined Benefits Provision shall be an amount equal to the Actuarial Equivalent of the pension calculated under Section 6.01(a) or 6.01(b)(i), as applicable, based on the Member's Credited Service as at the Statutory Early Commencement Date, plus the benefits arising from excess contributions, if any, as provided under Section 9.09. Under the Defined Contribution Provision, there shall be payable a benefit equal to the amount in the the Member's Account which may be transferred out of the Plan pursuant to Section 6.04(c).

 - (i) postpone commencement of his retirement benefits and continue to contribute to the pension fund under the Defined Benefit provision up until his Special Postponed Retirement Date; or
 - (ii) elect to receive payment of all or a portion of the Member's pension determined as at the Normal Retirement Date, but only to the extent necessary to compensate for a reduction in salaries or wages incurred on or after the Normal Retirement Date; the Member may make such an election not more frequently than once every 12 months;
- (b) the Member participates in the Defined Contribution Provision, he may :
 - (i) continue to contribute to his Account and receive Employer contributions in his Account under the Defined Contribution Provision, continue to contribute to the pension fund under the Defined Benefit provision and postpone commencement of his retirement benefits up until his Special Postponed Retirement Date; or,
 - (ii) elect to receive payment of all or a portion of the Member's pension but only to the extent necessary to compensate for a reduction in salaries or wages incurred on or after the Normal Retirement Date; the Member may make such an election not more frequently than once every 12 months;

if the Member makes such an election, a pension shall be purchased for the Member with the amount in the Member's Account; if such pension is not sufficient to compensate for the reduction in the salaries or wages incurred by the Member, an additional pension shall be paid from the Defined Benefit Provision of the Plan up to lesser of the entitlements accumulated by the Member under this provision and the amount of pension required to compensate fully the Member for the reduction in salaries or wages.

14.06 Postponed Retirement Benefits

(a) Members Who Do Not Participate in the Defined Contribution Provision

Notwithstanding Section 6.01, a Québec Member who does not participate in the Defined Contribution Provision and who retires on a Special Postponed Retirement Date shall be entitled to receive a pension benefit payable in equal monthly instalments commencing on the Special Postponed Retirement Date and continuing on the first day of each month thereafter, calculated as the Actuarial Equivalent of the monthly pension that would have commenced at the Normal Retirement Date, determined in accordance with Section 6.01(a) using Credited Service to the Member's Normal Retirement Date.

Such Actuarial Equivalent shall be determined as of the date the pension commences and shall be determined on the basis of the method described in Appendix "A" to the Plan entitled "Revalorization of Postponed Retirement Pension".

In addition to such monthly pension, the Member is entitled to receive:

- 1) any benefits arising from excess contributions, if any, as provided under Section 9.09;
- 2) an additional amount of pension that is the Actuarial Equivalent of the benefits that could be purchased with the member contributions paid during the period between the Normal Retirement Date and the Special Postponed Retirement Date, including accrued interest.

In the event that the Member has elected to receive the payment of all or a portion of the Member's pension prior to the Member's Special Postponed Retirement Date, the retirement income commencing on the Special Postponed Retirement Date shall be decreased to take into account the Actuarial Equivalent of the retirement income received prior to the Member's Special Postponed

Retirement Date, with interest thereon at a rate determined by the plan administrator.

(b) Members Who Participate in the Defined Contribution Provision

Notwithstanding Section 6.01, a Québec Member who participates in the Defined Contribution Provision and who retires on a Special Postponed Retirement Date shall be entitled to receive a pension benefit payable in equal monthly instalments commencing on the Special Postponed Retirement Date and continuing on the first day of each month thereafter. The Member's pension shall be determined as follows:

(i) Benefit in Respect of Defined Benefit Provision

The benefit in respect of the Defined Benefit Provision of the Plan shall be calculated as the Actuarial Equivalent of the monthly pension that would have commenced at the Normal Retirement Date, determined in accordance with Section 6.01(b)(i) using Credited Service to the Member's Normal Retirement Date.

Such Actuarial Equivalent shall be determined as of the date the pension commences and shall be determined on the basis of the method described in Appendix "A" to the Plan entitled "Revalorization of Postponed Retirement Pension".

In addition to such monthly pension, the Member is entitled to receive:

- 1) any benefits arising from excess contributions, if any, as provided under Section 9.09;
- 2) an additional amount of pension that is the Actuarial Equivalent of the benefits that could be purchased with the member contributions paid during the period between the Normal Retirement Date and the Special Postponed Retirement Date, including accrued interest.

In the event that the Member has elected to receive the payment of all or a portion of the Member's pension prior to the Member's Special Postponed Retirement Date, the retirement income commencing on the Special Postponed Retirement Date shall be decreased to take into account the Actuarial Equivalent of the retirement income received prior to the Member's Special Postponed Retirement Date, with interest thereon at a rate determined by the plan administrator.

(ii) Benefit in Respect of Defined Contribution Provision

If a Quebec Member who has elected to postpone retirement after Normal Retirement Date shall become entitled to a postponed retirement pension which, after the revalorization described in Section 14.06 above, becomes equal to the maximum pension described in Section 9.08, the Member's postponed retirement pension shall then commence on the first day of the next calendar month.

14.08 120-Month Guarantee Option

The amount of pension payable to the Member shall be the Actuarial Equivalent of the Member's pension pursuant to Section 7.01 and shall take into account the surviving Spouse benefit payable pursuant to Section 7.02.

14.09 Temporary Pension Option

- (a) A Québec Member who elects to receive his retirement income payable under Section 6 prior to his Normal Retirement Date and who files a duly signed form prescribed by the SPPA with the plan administrator prior to the payment of the first instalment of the benefit, may elect to receive his retirement income (except the temporary supplementary benefit payable

The annual amount of the temporary annuity shall be fixed by the Member before payment begins, but shall not exceed (i) minus (ii), where:

 - (B) the maximum annual amount of temporary retirement income permitted by the Income Tax Act; and
 - (ii) is the annual amount of the temporary supplementary benefit payable in accordance with Section 6.06 plus the amount of any temporary minimum benefit payable under the Plan, as applicable.
- (b) If the Member elects the temporary pension option described in paragraph (a), any benefits payable to the Member's Beneficiary or Spouse after the Member's death shall be determined in accordance with such form of payment elected by the Member in accordance with Article 7 or Section 14.08, any guarantee or continuance being applied to the annuity payment pattern resulting from the temporary pension option.
 - (c) The value of the benefits payable under the temporary pension option described in paragraph (a) shall be the Actuarial Equivalent of the benefit which would have been otherwise payable had the Member not elected this temporary pension option.
 - (d) A Spouse who becomes entitled to the payment of a retirement income under the Plan may elect the temporary pension option described in the foregoing provisions of this Section, adapted as required.

14.10 Replacement of Pension by an Annual Lump Sum

14.16 Death in Service After Normal Retirement Date

If a Québec Member dies after the Normal Retirement Date while in active employment leaving a surviving Spouse, the Member's Spouse is entitled to receive a pension the value of which shall be equal to the greater of:

- (a) the Actuarial Equivalent of the monthly pension that would have commenced at the Normal Retirement Date, determined in accordance with Section 6.01(a) using Credited Service on and after January 1, 1990 up to the Member's Normal Retirement Date; such Actuarial Equivalent shall be determined as of the date the pension commences to be paid to the Member's Spouse, on the basis of the method described in Appendix "A" to the Plan entitled "Revalorization of Postponed Retirement Pension"; such Actuarial Equivalent shall be increased with the amount of excess contributions, if any, as provided under Section 9.09;

- (b) the Actuarial Equivalent of the pension that would have been payable to the Member's Spouse, under the Defined Benefits Provision of the Plan pursuant to Section 7.03, if payment of the postponed defined benefit pension, as determined pursuant to Section 14.06, had begun on the day preceding the death of the Québec Member.

In addition to such benefit, if a Québec Member participated in the Defined Contribution Provision, the Member's Spouse is entitled to a benefit payable in a lump sum equal to the amount in the Member's Account which may be transferred out of the Plan pursuant to Section 6.04(c).

If the Member is not survived by a Spouse, a lump sum amount being the Actuarial Equivalent of the benefit described in paragraph (a) or (b) above and a lump sum amount equal to the amount in the Member's Account, as applicable, shall be paid to the Member's Beneficiary or, if none, to the Member's estate.

14.17 Commutation and Unlocking of Small Benefits

Notwithstanding Section 12.02, if the value of a retirement pension or deferred pension payable under the Plan is less than 20% of the YMPE in the year that the Québec Member retires, terminates employment or dies, or such other amount as may be permitted by the SPPA, from time to time, a lump sum amount equal to the Actuarial Equivalent of the benefit may be paid, on request, to the person entitled to such benefit in lieu of any other benefits under this Plan.

If the requirements set out in the above paragraph are met, the plan administrator may, at his discretion and without the consent of the Member, refund the Québec Member the Actuarial Equivalent of the Member's entitlements, in satisfaction of the Member's rights under the Plan. To this end, the plan administrator must first send a notice to the Member requesting instructions as to the refund formula; where no reply is received within 30 days of the sending of the notice, the plan administrator may make the refund, which possibility shall be mentioned in the notice.

14.18 Refund of Benefits for Non-Residents

A Québec Member who has terminated employment with the Employer and who has not been residing in Canada for at least two years is entitled, whether he has commenced or not to receive a pension under the Plan, to a refund of an amount being the Actuarial Equivalent of the benefits he has accrued under the Plan.

Executive Summary

Purposes of Report

This report presents the results of the actuarial valuation of the wind-up of the Contributory Pension Plan for Salaried Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company, Limited (the "Plan") as at December 16, 2015.

This report was prepared for the following purposes:

- to summarize the members' wind up entitlements under the Plan and to value the Plan's wind-up liabilities as at December 16, 2015 (the "Wind Up Date");
- to establish the value of assets available to provide the entitlements to the Plan members as at the Wind-Up Date;
- to determine the funded position (the wind up deficiency and the wind up funded ratio of the Plan) as at the Wind-Up Date;
- to document the methodology for dealing with any shortfall or surplus in respect of the Plan members; and
- to provide the information and the actuarial opinion required by the Newfoundland and Labrador Pension Benefits Act, 1997 ("NL PBA"), the Federal Pensions Benefits Standards Act, 1985 ("Federal PBSA") and the Income Tax Act (Canada).

The information contained in this report was prepared for filing with Canada Revenue Agency, the Newfoundland and Labrador Superintendent of Pensions' Office and the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions.

The report also provides an update of the financial position to September 30, 2016 (the "Cut-Off Date"). The Cut-Off Date is the date up to which subsequent events have been recognized in this report. September 30, 2016 was selected as the Cut-Off Date as it is reasonably close to the filing date of this report while still allowing time for the calculation of the Plan's liabilities as at that date. Results are presented at the Cut-Off Date as well as the Wind-Up Date as required under the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Standards of Practice.

Summary of Recent Events

Wabush Iron Co. Limited, Wabush Resources Inc. and certain of their affiliates, including Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company Limited (the "Wabush Group"), filed for restructuring proceedings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (CCAA) in May 2015. As part of the CCAA proceeding, special payments towards the deficit of the Plan have been suspended since May 2015. In addition, Wabush Mines has ceased its operation, with essentially all of its employees laid-off or terminated and the Plan will not continue as a going concern under a new sponsor.

R-25 Salaried Employees Pension Plan Wind-Up Report, December 2016 (cont'd)

As a result, the Newfoundland and Labrador Superintendent of Pensions (the "Regulator") ordered the termination of the Plan effective as of December 16, 2015.

Wabush Mines ("the Prior Plan Administrator") provided formal notice of the termination of the Plan to all persons affected by the plan termination. These notices were mailed to the last known addresses of all affected members in January 2016.

On March 1, 2016, the Wabush Group (through their legal counsel) requested, in writing, the appointment of a replacement administrator of the Plan. In their communication, and subsequent correspondence dated March 23, 2016, it was stated that Wabush Mines no longer has the resources to act as administrator of the Plan. Based on this request, the Regulator, in their letter dated March 30, 2016 appointment Morneau Shepell ("the Plan Administrator") as the administrator of the Plan.

The settlement date will be determined once the regulatory approval for the termination report has been received. The valuation results are sensitive to the plan's investment policy and to market conditions between the Wind-Up Date and the settlement date. Therefore, the funded status at settlement may differ from that reported in this report.

As instructed by the provincial regulators (Newfoundland and Labrador and Quebec), for retired members and beneficiaries governed by the Newfoundland and Labrador Pension Benefits Act, 1997 ("the NL PBA") and the Quebec Supplemental Pension Plans Act ("the Quebec SPPA"), a preliminary reduction of 25% was applied starting March 1, 2016 to their total monthly pension benefit. The reduction will further be adjusted based on the financial position of the Plan and the Regulator's decisions. At the time of instruction, no members were understood to be governed by the Federal Pension Benefits Standards Act, 1985 ("the Federal PBSA") and, as such, all retired members' and beneficiaries pension benefits were reduced.

The calculations presented herein are based on 100% of the monthly pension benefits payable to retired members and beneficiaries as at the Wind-Up Date.

After the wind-up of the Plan was ordered, Morneau Shepell became aware that some members of the Plan worked in a material capacity on the railway operations of Wabush Mines and should be governed by federal jurisdiction. After discussion with the Company and Regulators, a review was undertaken to look at all employees whom were actively employed on or after June 1, 2013 (the approximate time when the issue of federal jurisdiction first arose as well as when the Pointe Noir Pellet Plan shut down) to determine the nature of their job during their last 12 months of employment. If the nature of their job during this period was materially based on railway operations, they were deemed to be governed by federal jurisdiction. If the nature of their job was not materially based on railway operations then they were deemed to be governed by provincial jurisdiction based on their province of employment. This review identified fourteen federal jurisdiction Plan members.

Although the Plan was never formally registered with OSFI, we are providing OSFI with a copy of the wind-up report for information purposes given that a number of Plan members are now deemed to be governed by federal jurisdiction.

Morneau Shepell requested illustrative annuity quotations from five companies licensed to sell annuities in Canada, three of which responded. The plan members included in the quote were those assumed to be fully or partially settled via annuity purchase. Based on the results collected from the quote, an adjustment factor of 102% has been applied to the annuity purchase windup liabilities (calculated in accordance with the relevant guidance on assumptions for solvency and hypothetical windup valuations issued by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Committee on Pension Plan Financial Reporting ("CIA Annuity Purchase Guidance").

Subsection 6.01(c)(i) of the Salaried Plan text, which provides for a minimum benefit when a member has transferred from the Bargaining Unit Plan to the Plan, was interpreted by the Prior Plan Administrator to provide 100% of any bridging benefits payable in respect of combined credited service to impacted members from the Plan. Our interpretation differs and we have made a correction to the bridge benefits being paid from both the Bargaining Unit Plan and the Plan. All figures shown in this report are based on our interpretation. Further information on this issue is available in Appendix G.

A summary of the Plan provisions is provided in Appendix D.

Wind-Up Funded Position

The following table shows the wind-up funded position of the assets and liabilities, as at December 16, 2015:

Wind-Up Financial Position as at December 16, 2015 – Defined Benefit component

Total Wind-Up Assets (after expense allowance)		82,428,000
Wind-Up Liabilities		109,878,000
Wind-Up Surplus (Shortfall)		(27,450,000)
Wind-Up Funded Percentage		75.0 %

Assets and liabilities in respect of the Defined Contribution component of the Plan were $3,847,000 as at December 16, 2015.

Taking into consideration investment returns, benefit payments, expenses, survivorship, and changes in interest rates since December 16, 2015, the financial position as at September 30, 2016, is estimated to be as follows:

Wind-Up Financial Position as at September 30, 2016 – Defined Benefit component

Total Wind-Up Assets (after expense allowance)		86,004,000
Wind-Up Liabilities		110,987,000
Wind-Up Surplus (Shortfall)		(24,983,000)
Wind-Up Funded Percentage		77.5%

Based on the above, the Plan's assets will not be sufficient to cover the Plan's wind-up liabilities at the time of the final distribution.

R-25 Salaried Employees Pension Plan Wind-Up Report, December 2016 (cont'd)

Subsequent Events

On March 1, 2016, pensions in pay to retirees and survivors were reduced to the estimated funded ratio of 75%.

Between the Wind-Up Date and the Cut-Off Date, the Defined Benefit component of the Plan's assets has returned 8.7% (net of expenses). The annuity proxy rate based on the guidance provided by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries has decreased 0.37% (which increases the obligations to be settled by an annuity purchase). The net impact is a 2.5% increase in the funded percentage of the Defined Benefit component of the Plan as can be seen in the Wind-Up Financial Position as at September 30, 2016, shown above.

The invested assets for the Defined Benefit component of the Plan are held by CIBC Mellon and were managed by SEI as at the Wind-Up Date. Leading up to the wind-up the majority of the funds were invested in fixed income with a small portion left invested in hedge funds. As at the date of this report, the assets were in the process of being moved to TD Asset Management to establish a liability duration matched investment portfolio to protect the Plan's funded position from future changes in interest rates.

To the best of our knowledge there have been no other events subsequent to the Cut-Off Date which, in our opinion, would have a material impact on the results of this valuation.

Section 2 –Treatment of Shortfall and Methods of Allocating and Distributing Assets

Defined Benefit component of the Plan

Treatment of Shortfall

Based on the financial position of the Plan as at the Wind-up Date, the Plan's assets will not be sufficient to cover the Plan's wind-up liabilities at the time of the final distribution. While the Plan Administrator will be submitting a claim for the full amount of the wind-up shortfall in the CCAA proceedings, for purposes of the valuation, we have assumed that no further amounts will be deposited into the Plan.

Plan member benefits will be settled at the wind-up funded percentage applicable to them at the time of settlement based on their jurisdiction. The actual funded status at settlement may differ from that contained in this report.

Factors That Will Impact Shortfall

The ultimate surplus or shortfall will not be known with certainty until all Plan member benefits are settled. Many factors may affect the ultimate surplus or shortfall including:

- > Cost to purchase annuities from an insurance company to settle benefits;
- > Investment return on assets;
- > Member's pension entitlement elections (lump sum transfer versus annuity purchase);
- > Data corrections;
- > Member experience; and
- > Actual costs to administer wind-up.

Methods of Allocating and Distributing Assets

The Plan assets are distributed between the jurisdictions as at the wind-up date in proportion to the wind-up liability applicable to each jurisdiction. When determining the wind-up liability for this purpose, the pension and bridging benefits included in the calculation are those provided for by the Plan terms, the NL PBA, the Quebec SPPA and the Federal PBSA. We note that no Plan member is entitled to additional pension or bridging benefits as a result of applying section 17 of the Federal PBSA.

Defined Contribution component of the Plan

The liability for the Defined Contribution component of the Plan is equal to the total of all Defined Contribution account balances. As such, no shortfall or surplus will exist at the wind-up date or at the time of settlement. Members are entitled to their Defined Contribution account balance.

Section 3 – Member Options

The following summarizes the options Plan members have with regard to the method of settlement of benefits under the Wind-Up.

In accordance with pension legislation, no payments (other than ongoing pensions and other payments approved through request under Section 62(2) of the NL PBA) will be made to members until approval is received from the Newfoundland and Labrador Superintendent of Pensions.

Defined Benefit component of the Plan

Non-Retired Members (Newfoundland and Labrador and Federal)

Members not in receipt of a monthly pension on December 16, 2015 and who were employed in Newfoundland and Labrador will have the option of:

- > An immediate (if eligible) or a deferred annuity (under the same terms as the Plan) purchased from an insurance company; or
- > A commuted value transfer (on a locked-in basis, subject to ITA 8517 limits) to one of the following retirement arrangements:
 - A RPP;
 - A LIRA;
 - A LIF; or
 - The purchase an annuity from an insurance company.

If the “small benefit rule” applies to a member, the member will have the value of their benefit paid in cash, less withholding taxes.

Non-Retired Members (Quebec)

Members not in receipt of a monthly pension on December 16, 2015 and who were employed in Quebec will receive a commuted value transfer (on a locked-in basis, subject to ITA 8517 limits) to one of the following retirement arrangements:

- A RPP;
- A LIRA;
- A LIF;
- Locked-in portion of a VRSP; or
- The purchase an annuity from an insurance company.

R-25 Salaried Employees Pension Plan Wind-Up Report, December 2016 (cont'd)

If the "small benefit rule" applies to a member, the member will have the option of transferring their benefit to a non-locked-in RRSP or the non-locked-in portion of a VRSP, or to be paid in cash, less withholding taxes.

Retired Members (Newfoundland and Labrador and Federal)

Members in receipt of a monthly pension on December 16, 2015, will have an annuity (under the same terms as the Plan) purchased from an insurance company on the date of settlement. The annuity purchased will be in proportion to the funded percentage of the Plan at the time of settlement, adjusted for any over or under payments received since the Wind-Up Date.

Retired Members (Quebec)

Members in receipt of a monthly pension on December 16, 2015, will have the option of, an annuity (under the same terms as the Plan) purchased from an insurance company on the date of settlement, or transferring their entitlement to the Retraite Quebec. The annuity purchased will be in proportion to the funded percentage of the Plan at the time of settlement, adjusted for any over or under payments received since the Wind-Up Date.

Interest on Commuted Value Settlements

Members whose benefits are settled through a commuted value will have their commuted value adjusted with interest from the Wind-Up Date to the first day of the month in which payment is made. The rate of interest applied will be consistent with the interest rate used in the determination of their commuted value. For Quebec and Federal Plan members, this interest rate will be 2.10%. For Newfoundland and Labrador Plan members, this rate will be either 2.10% or 2.86%, depending on whether the commuted value or annuity purchase basis with interest produces the highest value at the settlement date.

Defined Contribution component of the Plan

Members are required to transfer their Defined Contribution account balance out of the Plan.

Future Steps

Within 60 days of the approval of this report by the Newfoundland and Labrador Superintendent of Pensions election statements will be issued to all non-retired members and Quebec retired members providing the settlement options listed above. Members must return their election forms within 90 days. Transfers and annuity purchases will be processed as soon as possible thereafter.

We will provide an update after the transfers and annuity purchases are complete.

Section 4 – Actuarial Opinion

With respect to the Contributory Pension Plan for Salaried Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company, Limited (the “Plan”), the valuation thereof was performed as at December 16, 2015, in accordance with the Newfoundland and Labrador Pension Benefits Act, 1997 and based on the Plan provisions and data as at that date. There are no modifications nor any extraordinary changes to the membership other than those listed in this report which would materially affect the results of this actuarial valuation.

We hereby certify that, in our opinion, as at December 16, 2015:

- > In respect of the Defined Benefit component of the Plan, on the Wind-Up Date, the total wind-up liabilities ($109,878,000) exceed the market value of Plan assets ($82,428,000 after wind-up expenses).
- > In respect of the Defined Benefit component of the Plan, after allowing for estimated wind-up expenses, the wind-up funded percentage as of the Wind-Up Date is 75.0%. At the Cut-Off Date (September 30, 2016), the funded percentage is estimated to be 77.5%.
- > In respect of the Defined Contribution component of the Plan, on the Wind-Up Date, the total wind-up liability ($3,847,000) equals the market value of Plan assets ($3,847,000).

In our opinion:

- The membership data on which the valuation is based are sufficient and reliable for the purposes of the valuation.
- The assumptions are appropriate for the purposes of the valuation.
- The methods employed in the valuation are appropriate for the purposes of the valuation.

This report has been prepared, and our opinions given, in accordance with accepted actuarial practice in Canada.

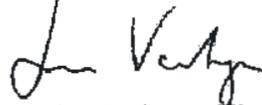

The recommendations and opinions are given exclusively from a financial viewpoint. This valuation report does not constitute a legal opinion on the rights or duties of the Plan Administrator, the employer or the members over the pension funds.

Appendix A – Wind-Up Actuarial Basis

Asset Valuation Method

Total assets are equal to the market value adjusted for estimated wind-up expenses.

Please refer to Appendix B for further details related to the market value of assets.

Actuarial Cost Method

In respect of the Defined Benefit component of the Plan, the wind-up liability is determined using the Accrued Benefit (or Unit Credit) Actuarial Cost Method and is equal to the actuarial present value of all benefits earned by members for service prior to the valuation date understanding that the Plan is wound up on the valuation date.

In respect of the Defined Contribution component of the Plan, the wind-up liability is equal to the Defined Contribution account balances.

All members are treated as fully vested.

Actuarial Assumptions – Defined Benefit Component

The wind-up liability represents the value of the Members' benefits assuming they were fully settled on the valuation date. We have made assumptions regarding which members would elect to have the value of their benefits transferred from the Plan based on commuted value standards and which members would elect to have annuities purchased directly from an insurance company.

On wind-up, all members are considered fully vested in their accrued pension benefits.

The primary actuarial assumptions employed for the wind-up actuarial valuation are summarized in the following table. All rates and percentages are annualized unless otherwise noted.

The assumptions used are best estimates as at the date of valuation.

We have calculated the transfer values effective December 16, 2015 using discount rates determined in accordance with Section 3500 of the Standards of Practice of the Canadian Institute of Actuaries.

For the purchase of annuities, the discount rate as of December 16, 2015 was based on the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' ("CIA") Educational Note Supplement: Guidance for Assumptions for Hypothetical Wind-Up and Solvency Valuations Update – Effective September 30, 2015 and Applicable to Valuations with Effective Dates between September 30, 2015, and December 30, 2015 and equals the long term Government of Canada bonds' yield (series V39062) plus 83 basis points. This results in a discount rate of 2.86% per annum (2.03% + 0.83%).

The annuity proxy discount rate as of September 30, 2016 was based on Educational Note Supplement: Guidance for Assumptions for Hypothetical Wind-Up and Solvency Valuations with Effective Dates between September 30, 2016 and December 30, 2016 and results in a discount rate of 2.49% per annum for September 30, 2016 (1.55% plus 94 basis points).

Based on an annuity quote requested in July 2016 for this Plan, actual annuity purchase costs will be 2% higher than the basis described in the CIA Educational Note Supplement. As such, we have adjusted all liabilities (as determined based on the CIA Educational Note Supplement) for members assumed to be settled by an annuity purchase by a factor of 1.02.

Appendix B – Assets

Description of Plan Assets

The invested assets for the Defined Benefit component of the Plan are held by CIBC Mellon and were managed by SEI as at the Wind-Up Date. Leading up to the wind-up the majority of the funds were invested in fixed income with a small portion left invested in hedge funds. As at the date of this report, the assets were in the process of being moved to TD Asset Management to establish a liability duration matched investment portfolio to protect the Plan's funded position from future changes in interest rates.

The invested assets for the Defined Contribution component of the Plan are held by Sunlife. The assets are invested based on individual Member instruction for their account.

We have relied upon the information provided to us by CIBC Mellon, SEI and Sunlife, following tests of reasonableness with respect to contributions, benefit payments and investment income.

In respect of the Defined Benefit component of the plan, the assets held in the pension fund, on a market value basis, as at December 16, 2015 were $83,078,318. Assets as at that date were invested as follows:

Appendix C – Membership Data

Description of Membership Data

Our valuation of the Plan is based on data provided to us by the Company, updated to take into account known data changes.

We have taken the following steps to review the data to ensure its completeness, accuracy and consistency with the data used in the previous valuation:

- > the pensions being paid as shown in the financial statements were compared with the values provided in the data;
- > a reconciliation was prepared in order to account for the active members, retirees and vested members who were included in the last valuation;
- > basic data checks were performed to ensure that age, salary and service data were reasonable for the purposes of the valuation.

Further, we have distributed individual data confirmation statements to members who were requested to report back any errors. We are in the process of compiling the member responses and will make any necessary corrections prior to settling member benefits.

Appendix D – Summary of Plan Provisions

The following is an outline of the principal features of the Plan which are of financial significance to valuing the plan benefits. This summary is based on the amended and restated Plan document as of January 1, 1997 and Plan amendments no. 1, 2, 3, and 4. The Plan amendments were received by the Newfoundland and Labrador Superintendent of Pensions on July 30, 2015. Given the fact that the amendments were submitted shortly before the wind-up of the Plan, these amendments have not yet been individually registered by the Newfoundland and Labrador Superintendent of Pensions. This valuation report assumes that the contents of the amendments, to the extent that they impact the benefits provided by the Plan, are acceptable to the regulators and the results herein reflect the benefits provided by the amendments. For a detailed description of the benefits, please refer to the plan document.

Plan Effective Date

The Plan was restated effective January 1, 1997. Predecessor arrangements date back to July 1, 1963.

Definitions

Credited Service

Service while a member of the Plan.

Pensionable Earnings

Basic remuneration, including overtime (for periods prior to June 23, 2008), shift premiums and cash bonuses. Excludes stock options, severance payments and all other non-cash benefits.

Plan Participation

All employees who are not within the Bargaining Unit are required to join the Plan on their date of employment.

Normal Retirement

Eligibility

Age 65.

Effective January 1, 1997 existing plan members were offered a one-time choice between two pension options, Option A or B. All future new hires from January 1, 1997 onward must enrol under Option B. As at January 1, 2011, there are no remaining members in active status, with coverage under Option A.

Option B offers a combination of Defined Benefit coverage (for past service and future service) and Defined Contribution coverage (for future service, from January 1, 1997 onward), as follows:

R-25 Salaried Employees Pension Plan Wind-Up Report, December 2016 (cont'd)Basic Annual Pension, Defined Benefit

The annual pension benefit payable on normal retirement is the sum of (i) and (ii):

- (i) the sum of 1.5% of highest 5-year average earnings up to the YMPE plus 1.6% of highest 5-year average earnings over the YMPE, for each year of credited service prior to January 1, 1997;
- (ii) 1.0% of highest 5-year average earnings for each year of credited service after December 31, 1996.

However, the pension payable on normal retirement will not be less than the amount that would be payable, if the member had been a member of Option B of the Bargaining Unit plan sponsored by the company instead of the Plan, plus the amount of pension which could be purchased with the employee's required contributions with interest.

In addition, a "make-up benefit" is payable to salaried employees who have a frozen monthly lifetime benefit under the Bargaining Unit plan (in respect of a period of Bargaining Unit credited service prior to becoming a salaried employee). The make-up benefit is based on the difference between the Bargaining Unit plan's current lifetime benefit rates under Option B and the benefit rates that were in effect at the time of the employee's transfer to salaried status.

Member Contributions

Prior to January 1, 1997, 1.2% of earnings up to the YMPE and 3.0% of earnings above the YMPE.

Effective January 1, 1997, employees covered under Option B ceased contributing toward the Defined Benefit component of the plan; from 1997 onward, employees covered under Option B contribute 2% of earnings per annum to a Defined Contribution component of the Plan, and are entitled to a contribution made by the Company of 3% of earnings per annum. Effective May 1, 2007, contributions to the Defined Contribution component of the Plan were increased to 3% of earnings from the employees and 6% of earnings from the Company.

The Defined Contribution account balance, including investment earnings thereon, will be used at retirement to provide additional pension income.

R-25 Salaried Employees Pension Plan Wind-Up Report, December 2016 (cont'd)Early Retirement

Members are eligible to retire at the earliest of the following dates:

- > "30 and out" early retirement
 - 30+ years of continuous service
 - Unreduced benefit
- > "55 and 15" early retirement
 - Age 55 with 15+ years of continuous service
 - 6% reduction per annum pre-65 applied (but no more than actuarial equivalent reduction)
- > "70/80" special early retirement
 - Age 55 with 15+ years of continuous service, or
 - 80+ age/service points with 15+ years of continuous service
 - Upon permanent shutdown of operations, permanent disability or with company consent: unreduced benefit (Note: Any employee who left employment on or after November 1, 2014 potentially qualifies under the permanent shutdown provision).
- > Statutory early retirement
 - Age 55 with 2+ years of continuous service (no service requirement for Quebec employees)
 - Actuarial reduction applied

In addition to lifetime retirement benefits, employees who retire early from active status will receive a monthly supplement, payable to age 65, of $18.00 per year of service (to a maximum of 40 years of service). The $18.00 multiplier is increased to $27.00, for employees who retire from active status at age 60 or later with 30 or more years of credited service, or at any age with 35 or more years of credited service.

Postponed RetirementEligibility

Up to age 71 if continued employment with the Company.

Benefit

Continued accrual of benefits for non-Quebec members. Revalorized pension determined for Quebec members.

Termination of Employment

Eligibility

All active plan members in Newfoundland are vested (in respect of their Defined Benefit entitlements) after two years of plan membership. All active plan members in Quebec are vested immediately (in accordance with Bill 102). In addition, on wind-up, all members are considered fully vested in their accrued pension benefits.

Defined Contribution entitlements are immediately vested, regardless of the number of years of service.

Benefit

Defined Benefit pension at normal retirement date, based on service at termination. Upon earlier retirement, the pension is actuarially reduced (or, if it produces a higher pension, is subject to a 6% reduction per annum pre-65, with 15 or more years of continuous service). Effective January 1, 2001, for terminating active Quebec members, the pension for post-2000 credited service is subject to adjustment, in accordance with Quebec Bill 102. In lieu of the monthly benefit, the participant may transfer the commuted value of the benefit to a locked-in RRSP or other registered vehicle.

Defined Contribution account balances may be transferred to a locked-in RRSP or other registered vehicle.

Death While Active - Surviving Spouse Coverage

Eligibility

15 years of service, with spouse.

Benefit

Benefit payable is 50% (before any reduction) of the accrued monthly Defined Benefit or $140 if greater, and is payable during the spouse's remaining lifetime.

Minimum Death Benefit

Eligibility

Two or more years of plan membership.

Benefit

The commuted value of the Defined Benefit earned after January 1, 1990 to the date of death is payable to the spouse or, if applicable, designated beneficiary. If the spouse is the recipient, the spouse will have the option of taking the commuted value in the form of a monthly pension.

If less than two years of plan membership, refund of Defined Benefit member contributions with interest. Effective January 1, 2001, immediate vesting is provided upon the death of active Quebec members, in accordance with Bill 102.

R-25 Salaried Employees Pension Plan Wind-Up Report, December 2016 (cont'd)

In addition, the full Defined Contribution account balance, with investment earnings, will be vested, regardless of the number of years of service.

Forms of Payment*Normal Form*

Annuity for life, with 50% of the lifetime benefit continuing to the spouse if the retired employee dies before age 65; refund of any contributions with interest in excess of benefits paid out.

Optional Forms

For married participants, the automatic option is a reduced 60% joint and survivor pension, actuarially equivalent to the normal form. Other options are also available on an actuarially equivalent basis.

Disability Benefit

While benefits are payable from the LTD plan, pension benefits continue to accrue under the Defined Benefit provisions based on the earnings rate at the time of disability. Company contributions continue under the Defined Contribution provisions, if the member elects to contribute.

Plan Interpretation

Subsection 6.01(c)(i) of the Salaried Plan text, which provides for a minimum benefit when a member has transferred from the Bargaining Unit Plan to the Plan, was interpreted by the Prior Plan Administrator to provide 100% of any bridging benefits payable in respect of combined credited service to impacted members from the Plan. Our interpretation differs and we have made a correction to the bridge benefits being paid from both the Bargaining Unit Plan and the Plan. Further information on this issue is available in Appendix G.

Purpose

This report with respect to the Pension Plan for Bargaining Unit Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company, Limited (the "Plan") has been prepared for Wabush Mines (the "Company"), in its capacity as the prior plan administrator up to March 29, 2016 and for Momeau Shepell which has been appointed as the plan administrator effective March 30, 2016, and presents the results of the termination valuation as at December 16, 2015 (the "Termination Date").

The principal purposes of the report are:

- to present information on the financial position of the Plan as at the Termination Date;
- to provide the basis for Company contributions; and
- to provide the information and actuarial opinion required by the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions Canada, the Newfoundland and Labrador Superintendent of Pensions and the Canada Revenue Agency.

Wabush Iron Co. Limited, Wabush Resources Inc. and certain of their affiliates, including Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company Limited (the "Wabush Group"), filed for restructuring proceedings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (CCAA) in May 2015. As part of the CCAA proceeding, special payments towards the deficit of the Plan have been suspended since May 2015. In addition, Wabush Mines has ceased its operation, with essentially all of its employees laid-off or terminated and the Plan will not continue as a going concern under a new sponsor.

As a result, the Newfoundland and Labrador Superintendent of Pensions and the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions Canada (the "Regulators") have separately ordered the termination of the Plan effective as of December 16, 2015.

The prior plan administrator provided formal notice of the termination of the Plan to all persons affected by the plan termination. These notices were mailed to the last known addresses of all affected members in January 2016. The plan administrator has confirmed that the detailed member statements will be sent to all members of the Plan upon approval of the termination report by the Regulators or by any other date as prescribed by the applicable pension legislation.

On March 1, 2016, the Wabush Group (through their legal counsel) requested, in writing, the appointment of a replacement administrator of the Plan. In their communication, and subsequent correspondence dated March 23, 2016, it was stated that Wabush Mines no longer has the resources to act as administrator of the Plan. Based on this request, the Regulators, in their letter dated March 30, 2016, have separately appointed Momeau Shepall as the administrator of the Plan effective March 30, 2016.

The settlement date will be determined once the regulatory approval for the termination report has been received. The valuation results are sensitive to the plan's investment policy and to market conditions between the Termination Date and the settlement date. Therefore, the funded status at settlement may differ from that reported in this report. Additional detail regarding the sensitivity of the valuation results is contained in this report.

This report summarizes the results of the actuarial valuation and contains an actuarial opinion as an integral part of the report. The supporting detailed information on assets, actuarial basis, membership data and plan provisions is contained in the Appendices.

The calculation date is December 16, 2015. The cut-off date for recognizing membership updates and events for the purposes of determining the financial condition of the plan is November 22, 2016. Any subsequent events after the cut-off date will be recognized in the next valuation.

The information contained in this report was prepared for the plan administrator, for its internal use and for filing with the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions Canada, the Newfoundland and Labrador Superintendent of Pensions and the Canada Revenue Agency, in connection with Willis Towers Watson's actuarial valuation of the Plan. This report is not intended nor necessarily suitable for other purposes. Further distribution of all or part of this report to other parties (except where such distribution is required by applicable legislation) or other use of this report is expressly prohibited without Willis Towers Watson's prior written consent.

Significant Events Since Previous Actuarial Valuation

Actuarial Basis

The previous actuarial valuation of the plan was prepared as at January 1, 2015. Since the previous actuarial valuation, the windup actuarial basis have been updated to reflect market conditions at the valuation date as outlined in this report.

Plan Provisions

This valuation reflects the plan provisions as at December 16, 2015 and does not make any provisions for the possibility that a change or action (retroactive or otherwise) could be imposed by order of a regulatory body or a court as we were not aware of any definitive events that would require such change or action at the time this valuation was completed.

Unless otherwise specified in this report and with the exception of the definition of pensionable age, there have been no changes to the plan provisions since the previous actuarial valuation.

Legislative and Actuarial Standards Updates

Since the previous actuarial valuation, the Standards of Practice for Pension Commuted Values published by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries effective February 1, 2011 were revised to provide for, effective February 1, 2014, updates to the mortality assumption as promulgated from time to time by the Actuarial Standards Board (ASB). On June 9, 2015, the ASB decided to promulgate the use of the mortality rates underlying the 2014 Canadian Pensioners Mortality Table (CPM2014) combined with the mortality improvement scale CPM Improvement Scale B (CPM-B) for calculations, effective October 1, 2015. The revised mortality rates have been reflected in the actuarial valuation.

Subsequent Events

We completed this valuation on December 14, 2016.

As instructed by the provincial regulators (Newfoundland and Labrador and Quebec), for retired members and beneficiaries governed by the Newfoundland and Labrador Pension Benefits Act, 1997 (NFL PBA) and the Quebec Supplemental Pension Plans Act (Quebec SPPA), a preliminary reduction of 21% was applied starting March 1, 2016 to their total monthly pension benefit. The reduction will further be adjusted based on the financial position of the Plan and the Regulators' decisions.

As instructed by the Federal regulator, for retired members and beneficiaries subject to the Pension Benefits Standards Act, 1985 (Canada) (Federal PBSA), no preliminary reduction was applied to their monthly pension benefit. Consequently, all members' benefit will be adjusted with a slightly larger reduction based on the financial position of the Plan and the Regulators' decision to compensate for the fact that their monthly pension payments were unreduced from the Termination Date to the date of the approval of this report.

The calculations presented herein are based on 100% of the monthly pension benefits payable to retired members and beneficiaries as at the Termination Date.

The plan administrator has requested illustrative annuity quotations from five companies licensed to sell annuities in Canada, four of which responded. The plan members included in the quote were those assumed to be fully or partially settled via annuity purchase. Based on the results collected from the quote, the plan administrator instructed that an adjustment factor of 98 % should be applied to the annuity purchase windup liabilities (calculated in accordance with the relevant guidance on assumptions for solvency and hypothetical windup valuations issued by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Committee on Pension Plan Financial Reporting (CIA Annuity Purchase Guidance)).

The plan administrator has confirmed that some retirees and beneficiaries as at the Termination Date were receiving bridge benefits that should have been subject to the maximum bridge benefit payable under the Income Tax Act (ITA). This issue has been raised to the Canada Revenue Agency in a letter dated May 13, 2016. The plan administrator has received communication from the Canada Revenue Agency on this matter (copy of the correspondence can be found in Appendix I) and has developed an approach in response which is reflected in this report. The bridge benefits will be reduced prospectively from March 1, 2017 in order to comply with ITA limits. The windup liabilities presented herein does not reflect such potential adjustment to the bridge amounts. However, we have calculated separately (as a contingent asset) the impact of the potential reduction to bridge amounts.

The plan administrator has confirmed that some retirees and beneficiaries as at the Termination Date who transferred from the Plan to the Contributory Pension Plan for Salaried Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent, Arnaud Railway Company, Wabush Lake Railway Company, Limited (the "Salaried Plan") were incorrectly receiving temporary supplemental benefits (as per Sections 6.01(a) and 6.01(b) and Section 6.06 of the Plan document) from the Salaried Plan. In fact, a portion of the temporary supplemental benefits based on the credited service in the Plan should have been paid from the Plan instead. Correspondence from the plan administrator to the Regulators on this related matter can be found in Appendix I. The windup liabilities presented herein reflect the adjustment to the bridge amounts for the affected members.

As the plan sponsor is insolvent, no contributions are anticipated to be made to the Plan to fund the deficit identified in this report and members' benefits must be reduced (as per NFL PBA Section 66, Federal PBSA Section 29(9) and Quebec SPPA Section 218). In discussions with the plan sponsor and the Union, and in accordance with subsection 13.03 of the plan text, the benefit priority has been determined as follows:

- Priority no. 1 benefits: to provide, for commuted value transfer or annuity purchase, the pension and bridging benefits provided for by the plan terms, the NFL PBA, Quebec SPPA and Federal PBSA, excluding those benefits provided under Section 17 of the Federal PBSA; and
- Priority no. 2 benefits: to provide, for commuted value transfer or annuity purchase, the pension and bridging benefits provided by Section 17 of the Federal PBSA.

Assets will first be used to pay Priority no. 1 benefits and any remaining assets will then be used to pay Priority no. 2 benefits. For purposes of the valuation, the windup liabilities presented in this report exclude the Priority no. 2 benefits. However, we have indicated in Section 2 of the report, the windup liability of such benefits.

To the best of our knowledge and on the basis of our discussions with the plan administrator, no other events which would have a material impact on the results of the valuation occurred between the Termination Date and the date this valuation was completed.

Section 1: Summary of Termination Benefit Entitlements and Settlement Options and General Termination Administration

Benefit entitlements will be determined and the settlement of benefits will be made in accordance with the terms of the Plan in effect at the Termination Date and the windup provisions of the NFL PBA and the Federal PBSA. A summary of the plan provisions is provided in Appendix E.

The benefit entitlements and settlement options for members are provided below.

1.1 General Benefit Entitlements

Defined Benefit Provisions

Immediately prior to the plan termination, the Plan had 167 actives/laid-off/disabled members, 665 terminated vested members and 900 retired members and beneficiaries. All members of the Plan were affected by the plan termination and all are fully vested in their pension benefit entitlements.

The Plan has Newfoundland and Labrador, Quebec and Federal members. Newfoundland and Labrador members are subject to the NFL PBA, Quebec members are subject to the Quebec SPPA, and Federal members are subject to the Federal PBSA. All members' benefits payable by the Plan comply with applicable legislation. Since the last actuarial valuation, the legislation applicable for each member has changed for certain members following due diligence work performed by the plan administrator and discussions with the Company and the Regulators. This data has been provided by the plan administrator. Section 2.2 of this report provides details on how the assets are to be distributed among the applicable legislations.

Active, laid-off, disabled, transferred and terminated vested members not governed by the Quebec SPPA, who were eligible to elect an early retirement as per the plan provisions as of the Termination Date, are being offered to either commence their pension immediately with appropriate pension reduction, elect a deferred pension or to transfer the commuted value of their benefit entitlement out of the Plan.

Active, laid-off, disabled, transferred and terminated vested members not governed by the Quebec SPPA, who were not eligible to commence their pension immediately as of the Termination date, are being given the option to either transfer the commuted value of their benefit entitlement out of the Plan or elect a deferred pension.

Active, laid-off, disabled, transferred and terminated vested members governed by the Quebec SPPA are required to transfer the commuted value of their benefit entitlement out of the Plan.

Retired members and beneficiaries as of December 16, 2015 will continue to be entitled to and receive their monthly pension payments, but their payments will be reduced to reflect the financial position of the Plan as at December 16, 2015.

The benefits for all retired members and beneficiaries currently receiving payments, along with those who elect an immediate or deferred pension will be settled by annuity purchase.

Defined Contribution Provisions

Members are required to transfer their account balance in respect of their defined contribution benefits out of the Plan.

1.2 General Comments

- All affected members are 100% vested in their pension benefits.
- This report indicates that the Plan has a deficit as at the Termination Date. Given the financial situation of the Company, it is uncertain if further contributions will be remitted to the Plan to cover the deficit. Benefits payable by the Plan may have to be reduced in order for their total value not to exceed the Plan's available assets.
- Lump sum commuted values may not be paid, and annuities may not be purchased, until applicable regulatory approval has been received.
- The lump sum commuted values have been calculated at the Termination Date. These values must be adjusted with interest from the Termination Date to the first day of the month in which payment is made at the rate of :
 - For members subject to the NFL PBA whose commuted value is maximized by using the annuity purchase discount rates, 3.10%;
 - 2.10% for all other members.

Section 2: Financial Position

The financial position of the Plan as at the Termination Date is set out on the following page.

As stipulated in the Subsequent Events section of this report, the windup liability relative to the pension and bridging benefits covered by Section 17 of the Federal PBSA (Priority no. 2 benefits) are excluded from the windup liabilities presented in Section 2.1, Section 2.2 and Section 2.3 of this report.

The information contained in the table on the following page indicates that the Plan has a deficit of $27,486,548 as at the Termination Date after an allowance of $950,000 for windup expenses. The Company is required to amortize the windup deficit by making monthly payments in arrears over a period not to exceed five years from the Termination Date. However, considering the financial position of the Company, it is uncertain if further contributions will be remitted to the Plan to cover the deficit.

The funded status upon settlement of all benefits may differ from the funded status as at the Termination Date presented in this report. Factors which may have a significant effect on the funded status described in this report include:

- the uncertain remittance of additional Company contributions;
- the annuity purchase rates at the dates annuities are actually purchased;
- the difference between actual settlement elections and the assumed settlement elections as described in Appendix C;
- the difference between the actual investment return on the plan's assets subsequent to the Termination Date and the return assumed in the termination report;
- the difference between actual expenses incurred in respect of the plan windup and the estimated expenses disclosed in the termination report; and
- the difference between actual and expected mortality among plan members between the Termination Date and the dates annuities are purchased.

Comments:

- The financial position of the Plan on a windup basis is determined by comparing the value of assets to the windup liability (the actuarial present value of accrued benefits, calculated on the Termination Date).
- The NFL PBA permits certain benefits to be excluded from the windup liability, without requiring the employer to make an election. Also, the Federal PBA permits benefits that are genuinely subject to employer consent to be excluded from the liability. While such consent benefits exist under the plan, the plan administrator has directed that consent for the "62 and 10" early retirement provision (described in Appendix C) will not be granted. The "70/75" special early retirement provision (described in Appendix C) has been included in the windup liability.

- The plan administrator has confirmed that some retirees and beneficiaries as at the Termination Date were receiving bridge benefits that should have been subject to the maximum bridge benefit payable under the Income Tax Act (ITA). The Plan administrator has raised this issue to the Canada Revenue Agency in their letter dated May 13, 2016. The plan administrator has received communication from the Canada Revenue Agency on this matter and has developed an approach in response which is reflected in this report. The bridge benefits will be reduced prospectively from March 1, 2017 in order to comply with ITA limits. The impact of this potential reduction in bridge benefits is reflected as a contingent asset of $998,628 as shown in the above table.
- An amount of $2,349,912 relative to deferred vested members subject to the Federal PBSA to provide for the pension and bridging benefits covered by Section 17 of the Federal PBSA (Priority no. 2 benefits as explained in the Subsequent Events section of this report) are excluded from the windup liabilities shown above.
- The increase in the windup liability as at December 18, 2015 that would result from a 1% decrease in the assumed liability discount rate assumption is $23,261,883. For purposes of this calculation, no other changes were made to any of the other actuarial assumptions and actuarial methods.

Section 3: Contribution Requirements

3.1 Contributions

The unfunded windup liability is $27,486,548 and must be liquidated by employer amortization payments at least equal to the amounts, payable in arrears, and for the periods set forth below in order to comply with the Regulations to the NFL PBA and the Regulations to the Federal PBSA. Given the financial situation of the Company, it is uncertain if further contributions will be remitted to the Plan to cover the deficit.

January 1, 2016	December 2020	$ 5,920,836	$ 27,486,548

Section 4: Actuarial Certification and Opinion

4.1 Actuarial Certification

Based on the results of this valuation, we hereby certify that, in our opinion, as at December 16, 2015:

- The unfunded windup liability, determined by comparing the windup liability (excluding the Priority no. 2 benefits as explained in the Subsequent Events Section of this report) to the windup value of assets is $27,486,548.
- In order to comply with the Regulations to the NFL PBA and the Regulations to the Federal PBSA, the employer is required to contribute $5,920,836 in annual windup special payments until the next actuarial opinion is filed. Given the financial situation of the Company, it is unlikely that further contributions will be remitted to the Plan to cover the deficit.
- The solvency ratio, as defined in the Regulations to the NFL PBA and the Federal PBSA, is 82.7%.
- In accordance with the Regulations to the NFL PBA and the Regulations to the Federal PBSA, the next valuation of the Plan for the purposes stated in this report must be performed with a valuation date no later than December 16, 2016.

In our opinion:

- the membership data on which the valuation is based are sufficient and reliable for purposes of this valuation.
- the assumptions are appropriate for the purposes of this valuation, and
- the methods employed in the valuation are appropriate for the purposes of this valuation.

This report has been prepared, and our opinion has been given, in accordance with accepted actuarial practice in Canada. The valuation has been conducted in accordance with our understanding of the solvency standards prescribed by the NFL PBA and Regulation thereto, the Federal PBSA and Regulations thereto, and in accordance with our understanding of the requirements of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and Regulations thereto. This actuarial opinion forms an integral part of the report.

The results presented in this report have been developed using a particular set of prescribed actuarial assumptions. Other results could have been developed by selecting different actuarial assumptions. The results presented in this report may not be appropriate for purposes other than for which the report was prepared.

Appendix A: Significant Terms of Engagement

For purposes of preparing this valuation report, the plan administrator has directed that:

- The "70/75" special early retirement provision (described in Appendix C), which provides enhanced early retirement benefits upon the shutdown of the mines, is included in the valuation.
- The consent for the "62 and 10" early retirement provision (described in Appendix C), will not be granted.
- The assets to be distributed among the legislations in proportion of the windup liability applicable for each legislation, but excluding the windup liabilities with respect to Section 17 of the Federal PBSA.
- The bridge benefits for some retirees and beneficiaries be reduced prospectively from March 1, 2017 in order to comply with the Income Tax Act limits.
- An adjustment factor of 98% of the annuity purchase windup liabilities calculated in accordance with the relevant guidance on assumptions for solvency and hypothetical windup valuations issued by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Committee on Pension Plan Financial Reporting be reflected in the valuation.
- This report is to be prepared on the basis that, following the termination of the plan all expenses related to the plan windup are assumed to be paid from the pension fund.

Should these directions from the plan administrator be amended or withdrawn, Willis Towers Watson reserves the right to amend or withdraw this report.

Appendix C: Actuarial Basis

Asset Valuation Method

The market value of assets has been used for the windup valuation. The resulting value has been reduced by a provision for plan windup expenses.

Liability Calculation Method

The windup liabilities for active, laid-off and disabled members were calculated as the actuarial present value of all benefits accrued up to the Termination Date.

The windup liabilities for retired members and beneficiaries and transferred and terminated vested members were calculated as the actuarial present value of their respective benefits.

Other Considerations

Consistent with the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Practice-Specific Standards for Pension Plans, the windup assumptions do not include a margin for adverse deviations.

Rationale for Actuarial Assumptions

The rationale for the material actuarial assumptions used in the windup valuation is summarized below.

The actuarial assumptions used in the windup valuation do not include margins for adverse deviations.

Liability discount rates

It is expected that a portion of the liability will be settled by a group annuity purchase and the balance of the liability will be settled by commuted value transfers.

For the calculation of the portion of the windup liability relating to the benefits that are expected to be settled by a group annuity purchase, the liability discount rate corresponds to an approximation of the annuity purchase rates as at the Termination Date following application of the relevant guidance on assumptions for solvency and hypothetical windup valuations issued by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Committee on Pension Plan Financial Reporting (CIA Annuity Purchase Guidance). The guidance provides that the approximation of the annuity purchase rate varies in accordance with the duration of the liabilities for non-indexed benefits assumed to be settled by group annuity purchase. The duration of the liabilities assumed to be settled through the purchase of non-indexed annuities is 12.2.

For the calculation of the portion of the windup liability relating to the benefits that are expected to be settled by commuted value transfers, the liability discount rates have been determined in accordance with the Standards of Practice for Pension Commuted Values published by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries effective April 1, 2009 and revised effective October 1, 2015. For this actuarial valuation, the December 2015 rates have been used.

For the calculation of the portion of the windup liability relating to benefits subject to pre-retirement indexation that are expected to be settled by commuted value transfers, the liability discount rates have been determined as the interest rate for pensions indexed at 50% of the increases in the Consumer Price Index (maximum of 2% per annum) in accordance with the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Standards of Practice for Pension Commuted Values.

Escalation of Income Tax Act (Canada) maximum pension limitation

The Income Tax Act (Canada) maximum pension limitation specified in the Act as at the actuarial valuation date is applied without consideration for future scheduled increases, as pension entitlements are determined as at the Termination Date.

Mortality

For the benefits that are expected to be settled by a group annuity purchase, the assumption has been set following application of the relevant guidance on assumptions for solvency and hypothetical windup valuations issued by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Committee on Pension Plan Financial Reporting.

For benefits that are expected to be settled by commuted value transfers, the assumption has been determined in accordance with the Standards of Practice for Pension Commuted Values published by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries effective April 1, 2009 and revised effective October 1, 2015.

No pre-retirement mortality has been assumed in order to approximate the value of the pre-retirement death benefits for defined benefit earned after January 1, 1990 (and prior to January 1, 1990 for federally regulated members).

Retirement/pension commencement

- The normal pensionable age under the plan is age 65 (on the basis that the provisions relative to Section 17 of the Federal PPSA are not taken into account for purposes of the valuation).
- An unreduced benefit is provided upon completing 30 years of continuous service ("30 and out") or upon reaching the "70/75" special early retirement provision (described below). Members who attained these conditions are assumed to retire immediately. All other members are assumed to retire on their normal pensionable age since actuarial reduction applies under early retirement.

The Federal PPSA permits benefits that are genuinely subject to employer consent to be excluded from the windup liability. While such consent benefits exist under the Plan, the plan administrator has directed that consent for the "62 and 10" early retirement provision (described below) will not be granted.

Following is a summary of the plan's early retirement provisions, and how they are reflected in the windup valuation.

Annuity Purchase Proxy

The plan administrator has requested illustrative annuity quotations from five companies licensed to sell annuities in Canada, four of which responded. The plan members included in the quote were those assumed to be fully or partially settled via annuity purchase. Based on the results collected from the quote, the plan administrator instructed that an adjustment factor of 98 % should be applied to the annuity purchase windup liabilities (calculated in accordance with the relevant guidance on assumptions for solvency and hypothetical windup valuations issued by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Committee on Pension Plan Financial Reporting (CIA Annuity Purchase Guidance)).

Percentage of members with eligible spouses at pension commencement and electing joint and survivor pension form

The actual data on the spouse and form of payment were used for retired members. For other members, the assumed percentage of members with a spouse is based on the percentages for the general population.

Years male spouse older than female spouse

The actual data on the spouse were used for retired members. For other members, the assumption is based on surveys of the age difference in the general population.

Percentage of liability settlement by commuted value

This assumption has been determined by considering the benefit provisions of the Plan, legislative requirements to offer specific settlement options to various classes of members, and, in particular, the options to be provided to members upon plan termination.

Provision for windup expenses

Allowance was made for normal administrative, actuarial, legal and other costs which are expected to be incurred (excluding costs relating to investment and custodial expenses and the resolution of surplus or deficit issues). In establishing the allowance for the plan termination costs, we have assumed that all reasonable costs incurred as a result of the plan termination are payable from the pension fund.

Review of Membership Data – Defined Benefit Provisions

The membership data as at December 16, 2015 with respect to the defined benefit provision were supplied by Wabush Mines and Morneau Shepell (acting as the plan administrator starting March 30, 2016).

The membership data have been relied upon by Willis Towers Watson following tests of reasonableness and found to be sufficient and reliable for the purposes of the valuation. However, Willis Towers Watson has not independently audited or verified these data. Elements of the data review included the following:

- ensuring that the data were intelligible (i.e., that an appropriate number of records was obtained, that the appropriate data fields were provided and that the data fields contained valid information);
- preparation and review of membership reconciliations to ascertain whether the complete membership of the plan appeared to be accounted for;
- review of consistency of individual data items and statistical summaries between the current actuarial valuation and the previous actuarial valuation;
- review of reasonableness of individual data items, statistical summaries and changes in such information since the previous actuarial valuation date; and
- comparison of the membership data and the plan's financial statements for consistency.

However, the tests conducted as part of the membership data review may not have captured certain deficiencies in the data. If the data provided by the plan administrator were not complete and accurate, Willis Towers Watson reserves the right to modify the results disclosed in this report.

Appendix E: Summary of Plan Provisions

The following is an outline of the principal features of the Plan which are of financial significance to valuing the plan benefits. This summary is based on the amended and restated Plan document as of March 1, 1996 and Plan amendments no. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. The Plan amendments were received by the Newfoundland and Labrador Superintendent of Pensions on July 30, 2015. Given the complexity of the amendments and the fact that they were submitted shortly before the wind-up of the Plan, these amendments have not yet been individually registered by the Newfoundland and Labrador Superintendent of Pensions. This valuation report assumes that the contents of the amendments, to the extent that they impact the benefits provided by the Plan, are acceptable to the regulators and the results herein reflect the benefits provided by the amendments. For a detailed description of the benefits, please refer to the plan document.

Plan Registration

Effective December 13, 2013, in addition to being registered with the Newfoundland and Labrador Superintendent of Pensions, the Plan is also registered with the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions Canada.

Pension Benefits

Effective March 1, 1996 existing plan members were offered a choice between two pension options, Option A or B. All future new hires must enrol under Option B. For retirements on or after March 1, 2010, the basic monthly pension is determined as follows.

Option A provides Defined Benefit coverage only. The multipliers are:

Monthly lifetime pension, per year of service:

■ For the first 15 years of service	$ 33.00
■ For the next 15 years of service	$ 34.00
■ For service after 30 years	$ 35.00

Monthly supplement, payable to age 65, per year of service (to a maximum of 40 years of service):*	$ 27.00
---	----------

Note:

* Only for members who retire on special early or early retirement; not applicable upon early pension commencement from deferred vested status.

Option B offers a combination of Defined Benefit coverage and Defined Contribution coverage (for future service, from March 1, 1996 onward). The pension benefits are determined as follows:

Monthly lifetime pension, per year of service:

■ For the first 15 years of service	$ 33.00
■ For the next 15 years of service	$ 34.00
■ For service after 30 years	$ 35.00

Monthly supplement, payable to age 65, per year of service (to a maximum of 40 years of service):*	$ 27.00
---	----------

Note:

* Only for members who retire on special early or early retirement; not applicable upon early pension commencement from deferred vested status.

36

Effective March 1, 2010, employees covered under Option B contribute $3,000 per annum to a Defined Contribution component of the plan while actively at work, and are entitled to the following Company Defined Contributions while actively at work:

Annual company contribution:	2015
■ For employees with less than 10 years of service	$ 2,200
■ For employees with 10 to 19 years of service	$ 3,500
■ For employees with 20 to 29 years of service	$ 4,800
■ For employees with 30 to 31 years of service	$ 4,800
■ For employees with 32 or more years of service	$ 5,700

The Defined Contribution account balance, including investment earnings thereon, will be used at retirement to provide additional pension income.

An additional monthly lifetime pension of $50.00 is offered to employees who retire from active status under either Option A or B.

Option A and B members with 30 or more years of credited service, who retire from active status on or after March 1, 2014 and on or before December 16, 2015 (February 28, 2015 for Newfoundland members), are guaranteed to receive a monthly Company-paid pension amount from retirement until age 65 (under the normal form of pension, and taking into account all applicable Company-paid pension plan provisions), and providing the employee meets the requirements to be entitled to the regular supplement, as follows:

- For retirements in 2014 to 2015: $3,200/month
- For Option B members, the portion of an employee's pension which is derived from his own contributions under the Defined Contribution plan does not count towards meeting the guaranteed benefit levels described above; the employee-paid Defined Contribution pension is in addition to the guaranteed amounts.

For Option B members, the guaranteed monthly pension amounts only apply to employees who have been covered under Option B since it was first established in 1996. The employee must have invested at least 50% of his or her Defined Contribution account balance in the bond fund, treasury bill fund and/or G.I.C. fund for a two-year period prior to retirement.

Disability

Benefit

For employees with eight or more years of continuous service when they become eligible for LTD benefits, the Defined Benefit continues to accrue (up to a maximum of 30 years of credited service), while the employee is under age 65 and is disabled.

Under Option B, the plan member can choose to continue to contribute $3,000 per year to the Defined Contribution plan, or can contribute a lower amount. The Company's Defined Contribution will be proportional to the employee's Defined Contribution.

Termination

Eligibility

All active plan members in Newfoundland are vested (in respect of their Defined Benefit entitlements) after two years of plan membership (immediate vesting upon plan termination). All active plan members in Quebec or federally regulated are vested immediately.

Defined Contribution entitlements are immediately vested, regardless of the number of years of service.

Benefit

Defined Benefit pension payable at normal retirement date, based on service at termination. Upon early retirement, the pension is actuarially reduced. Effective January 1, 2001, for Quebec members, the pension for post-2000 credited service is subject to indexation up to age 55 at 50% of CPI, maximum 2%. In lieu of the monthly benefit, the participant may transfer the commuted value of the benefit to a locked-in RRSP or other registered vehicle.

Defined Contribution account balances may be transferred to a locked-in RRSP or other registered vehicle.

Minimum Death Benefit

Eligibility

Two or more years of plan membership.

Immediate for active Quebec members and for active federally regulated members.

Benefit

The commuted value of the Defined Benefit earned after January 1, 1990 (and prior to January 1, 1990 for federally regulated members) to date of death is payable to the spouse or, if applicable, designated beneficiary. If the spouse is the recipient, the spouse will have the option of taking the commuted value in form of a monthly pension.

If the member dies while in active status and while eligible for an unreduced pension, the surviving spouse will receive the commuted value of the Defined Benefit, which can be converted to a monthly pension. Alternatively, if greater in value, a lifetime pension is payable to the spouse, equal to 60% of the pension the member would have received if he had retired on the previous day and elected a J&S 60% form of pension.

In addition, the full Defined Contribution account balance, with investment earnings, will be vested – regardless of the number of years of service.

Normal Form of Pension

If eligible for an early retirement or special early retirement, annuity for life, with 50% of the lifetime benefit continuing to the spouse if the retired employee dies before age 65. Otherwise, annuity for life.

Optional Forms of Pensions

For married participants, the automatic option is a reduced 60% joint and survivor pension, actuarially equivalent to the normal form. Other options are also available on an actuarially equivalent basis.

Special Provisions on Mine Shut-Down

The special benefits payable on shut-down of the mine are described in Appendix C.

Attention: Jessica Vanderpe

Dear Ms. Vanderpe:

Re: Pension Plan for Bargaining Unit Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent, Arnaud Railway Company, Wabush Lake Railway Company, Limited (the "Plan")

We are in receipt of a letter from Paula Boyd, sent May 13, 2016, in regards to the bridging benefits being paid in excess of the Income Tax Regulations limits.

The interpretation and application of bridging benefits under paragraph 8503(2)(b) of the Regulations that was outlined in the letter is correct. Bridging benefits that have been paid and are currently being paid to members, have exceed the formula under subparagraph 8503(2)(b)(ii), and the Plan is in a revocable position. We will not exercise our discretion to give notice of intent to revoke the registration of the Plan, if the following are completed by the administrator:

1. The Plan administrator is not required to action repayments from affected members currently receiving the excess bridge amount or members past age 65; unless the administrator decides to do so.
2. Members currently receiving bridging benefits in excess of the maximum allowable under the Regulations will have their payments reduced, going forward, to reflect the bridging limits.
3. Members who are currently not in receipt of bridging benefits are subject to the limits under paragraph 8503(2)(b).

We stress that this decision should not be taken as a precedent as any similar situation would have to be judged on its own set of facts.

Sincerely,

for Director General

Re: Pension Plan for Bargaining Unit Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent, Arnaud Railway Company, Wabush Lake Railway Company, Limited ("the Bargaining Plan")
Contributory Pension Plan for Salaried Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent, Arnaud Railway Company, Wabush Lake Railway Company, Limited ("the Salaried Plan")
– Benefits for members who transferred from the Bargaining Plan to the Salaried Plan

In our review of the Salaried Plan valuation data, we found a number of retirees receiving benefits under subsection 6.01(c)(i) of the Salaried Plan text, which provides for a minimum benefit when a member has transferred from the Bargaining Plan to the Salaried Plan.

There are two Bargaining Plan benefits being triggered under subsection 6.01(c)(i) of the Salaried Plan text:

1. The temporary supplemental benefit under section 6.06 of the Bargaining Plan text
 - This benefit is payable when a member qualifies for a pension benefit commencing on an Early Retirement Date or Special Early Retirement Date.
2. The minimum monthly retirement income benefit under subsections 6.01(a) and 6.01(b) of the Bargaining Plan text
 - This benefit is payable when a member has 30 years of Credited Service at their retirement date.

In the situation where a member has transferred from the Bargaining Plan to the Salaried Plan, 100% of the above-noted benefits are currently being paid out of the Salaried Plan assets. We have a different interpretation of the Salaried Plan provision:

Temporary Supplemental

Regarding the temporary supplemental benefit, subsection 2.08 of the Bargaining Plan text states that a transfer of employment shall not constitute a break in continuous service for determining eligibility for benefits. As such, on retirement any period of continuous service under the Salaried Plan would be considered under the Bargaining Plan and, should this additional service cause a member to be eligible for the temporary supplemental benefit, the supplemental benefit in respect of Bargaining Plan Credited Service should be payable from the Bargaining Plan.

Minimum Monthly Income

Regarding the minimum monthly retirement income, it appears that the intent was to provide this benefit based on the combined Credited Service under the Bargaining Plan and Salaried Plan. We believe that the Salaried Plan text is not clear as subsection 6.01(c)(i) only refers to the term Credited Service (i.e., Credited Service under the Salaried Plan, rather than combined credited service between the 2 plans). Based on the language of the Salaried Plan text, a transferred employee would need 30 years Credited Service under the Salaried Plan after the transfer to receive the minimum benefit. We acknowledge that the company would most likely want to provide the benefit based on the combined credited service to facilitate employee transfers and ideally, we would not take away this benefit from any affected members who are currently receiving it.

To our knowledge, there was no corresponding asset transfer from the Bargaining Plan to the Salaried Plan upon the affected members' retirement. Combined with the fact that none of the members would have qualified for the benefit based on the language in the Salaried Plan, it is not appropriate that the Salaried Plan pay for the full amount of the minimum benefit. We believe that the appropriate solution is to allow members to retain the benefit, but split the cost of the benefit between the two plans rather than being paid 100% from the Salaried Plan.

Intended Approach

If the plans were ongoing, the underfunding would be resolved through company special contributions over time. As the plan is being wound-up, it is important to correctly attribute obligations to each plan at the wind-up date. Our intended approach to resolve the above issues is to:

- a) pay the Bargaining Plan temporary supplemental benefit (in respect of Bargaining Plan Credited Service) from the Bargaining Plan assets, and
- b) to split the minimum monthly retirement income benefit between the Bargaining Plan and Salaried Plan in proportion to the first 30 years of credited service accrued under the plans.

These changes would be made retroactive to the wind-up date. Due to fact that employer special contributions up to the wind-up date would have been made based on the plan's funded positions, we do not intend to correct the situation with respect to payments prior to the wind-up date. The intended approach will result in approximately a $700,000 reduction in the Salaried Plan wind-up liability and a corresponding increase in the Bargaining Plan wind-up liability.

Dear Counsel:

Re: Wabush Mines (CCAA), Québec Court File No. 500-11-048114-157
Contributory Pension Plan for Salaried Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company, Limited Newfoundland Registration Number 021314-000 (the “Salaried Plan”)
Our File No. 15/1359

We are the court-appointed Representative Counsel to all non-union employees and retirees of Wabush Mines in its CCAA proceedings. These individuals are also members of the Salaried Plan.

As you are aware, the company reported that as at January 1, 2015, the Salaried Plan is underfunded on a wind up basis by approximately $18.2 million.

Further, the company has reported that it owes amounts to the Salaried Plan referred to as “Monthly Amortization Payments” in the amount of $273,218.58 per month, and a “Yearly Catch-Up Amortization Payment” of approximately $5.5 million (for both the Salaried and Union Plans) which was due for payment in July, 2015.

In the decision of Mr. Justice Hamilton dated June 26, 2015, the court approved the company’s request to not make the Monthly Amortization Payments nor the Yearly Catch-Up Amortization Payment going forward.

Accordingly, the amount of the Monthly Amortization Payments and the proportionate share of the Yearly Catch-Up Amortization Payment attributable to the Salaried Plan are therefore owing to the Salaried Plan and have not been paid by the company.

Statutory deemed trust priorities for members of the Salaried Plan

The Salaried Plan is registered in Newfoundland and thus subject to the Newfoundland Pension Benefits Act, 1997, SNL 1996 c.P-4.01 s.1 (“PBA”). It is also our understanding that certain members of the Salaried Plan may be subject to federal jurisdiction making the federal Pension Benefits Standards Act, 1985 (R.S.C., 1985, c.32 (2nd Supp.)) (“PBSA”) also applicable.

Both the PBA and the PBSA contain statutory protections for members of underfunded pension plans.

The PBA states:

Amounts to be held in trust

32. (1) An employer ... shall ensure, with respect to a pension plan, that

...

(b) an amount equal to the aggregate of

(i) the normal actuarial cost, and

(ii) any special payments prescribed by the regulations, that have accrued to date; and

(c) all

(ii) other amounts due under the plan from the employer that have not been remitted to the pension fund are kept separate and apart from the employer's own money, and shall be considered to hold the amounts referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c) in trust for members, former members, and other persons with an entitlement under the plan.

(2) In the event of a liquidation, assignment or bankruptcy of an employer, an amount equal to the amount that under subsection (1) is considered to be held in trust shall be considered to be separate from and form no part of the estate in liquidation, assignment or bankruptcy, whether or not that amount has in fact been kept separate and apart from the employer's own money or from the assets of the estate.

(3) Where a pension plan is terminated in whole or in part, an employer who is required to pay contributions to the pension fund shall hold in trust for the member or former member or other person with an entitlement under the plan an amount of money equal to employer contributions due under the plan to the date of termination.

(4) An administrator of a pension plan has a lien and charge on the assets of the employer in an amount equal to the amount required to be held in trust under subsections (1) and (3). [emphasis added]

The PBSA states:

8. (1) An employer shall ensure, with respect to its pension plan, that the following amounts are kept separate and apart from the employer's own moneys, and the employer is deemed to hold the amounts referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c) in trust for members of the pension plan, former members, and any other persons entitled to pension benefits under the plan:

...

(b) an amount equal to the aggregate of the following payments that have accrued to date:

- (i) the prescribed payments, and
- (ii) the payments that are required to be made under a workout agreement; and

(c) all of the following amounts that have not been remitted to the pension fund:

- (ii) other amounts due to the pension fund from the employer, including any amounts that are required to be paid under subsection 9.14(2) or 29(6).

...

29(6) If the whole of a pension plan is terminated, the employer shall, without delay, pay into the pension fund all amounts that would otherwise have been required to be paid to meet the prescribed tests and standards for solvency referred to in subsection 9(1) and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the employer shall pay into the pension fund

(a) an amount equal to the normal cost that has accrued to the date of the termination;

(b) the amounts of any prescribed special payments that are due on termination or would otherwise have become due between the date of the termination and the end of the plan year in which the pension plan is terminated;

(c) the amounts of payments that are required to be made under a workout agreement that are due on termination or would otherwise have become due between the date of the termination and the end of the plan year in which the pension plan is terminated;

(d) all of the following amounts that have not been remitted to the pension fund at the date of the termination:

(i) the amounts deducted by the employer from members' remuneration, and

(ii) other amounts due to the pension fund from the employer; [emphasis added]

As the Monthly Amortization Payments and the proportionate share of the Yearly Catch-Up Amortization Payments have not been paid by Wabush, those amounts are now subject to the deemed trust priorities pursuant to both section 32 of the PBA and section 8 of the PBSA in favour of the Salaried Plan members.

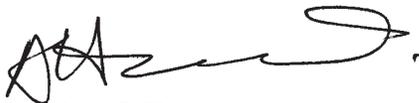

Furthermore, in the event the Salaried Plan is wound up, which we expect to be highly likely in the company's current circumstances, the amount the company owes to the Salaried Plan in respect of the wind up liability is also subject to the PBA deemed trust priority in favour of the plan members.

We are writing to confirm that the above-noted priorities will be asserted on behalf of the Salaried Plan members in respect of the amounts owing by the company to the Salaried Plan and are to be paid from the company's assets ahead of the claims of other creditors (after payment of the court-ordered CCAA charges). As a trust claim, the amounts owing to the Salaried Plan that are subject to the PBA and PBSA deemed trusts have priority over any secured claim that may be claimed by another creditor. Please bear that in mind should any bidder in the current sales process applicable to Wabush seek to assert a "credit bid" predicated on its assertion that it is a first priority secured creditor of Wabush.

Should you have any questions with respect to the above, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Yours truly,

KOSKIE MINSKY LLP

Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. Announces Significant Reduction in 2014 Capital Expenditures

- Bloom Lake Mine Expansion Capital Curtailed; Cliffs to Run Phase I Operation Only
- Company Will Idle Wabush Mine by End of First-Quarter 2014
- Cash Flow Priorities to Drive Near-term Capital Allocation Decisions

CLEVELAND - Feb. 11, 2014 - Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. (NYSE: CLF) (Paris: CLF) announced today it expects its full-year 2014 capital expenditures to be in a range of $375 - $425 million, a greater than 50% year-over-year reduction from its full-year 2013 capital spending of $862 million. This decrease is driven by a significant reduction in the Company's expansion and tailings and water management capital spending at its Bloom Lake Mine in Québec. Cliffs also announced that it will idle production at its Wabush Mine in the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador by the end of the first quarter of 2014.

Gary Halverson, president and chief operating officer, said, "Sharper capital allocation must drive our decisions. Today's announcement to reduce overall capital spending is an important first step." Mr. Halverson further noted that, "Bloom Lake's ore body is well suited for a global market that increasingly values quality and diversification of supply, but it also requires time and capital to be properly developed, built out, and operated to realize its full potential. Ultimately we must extract the highest value from Bloom Lake for our shareholders and operating Phase I preserves all possible options for this asset. Given the wide range of outlooks for iron ore prices, we reduced our 2014 capital expenditures at Bloom Lake Mine as we evaluate the best alternatives for this asset as part of our overall focus on enhancing value for shareholders."

Bloom Lake Mine

In the current pricing environment, Cliffs expects to produce and sell 5.5 - 6.5 million tons from Bloom Lake Mine's first phase in 2014, which is in line with full-year 2013 results. Cliffs expects Bloom Lake Mine's full-year 2014 cash costs to be $85 - $90 per ton versus fourth-quarter 2013's results of $89 per ton. Cliffs indicated that it would idle Phase I if pricing significantly decreased for an extended period of time. With the Phase II expansion indefinitely suspended, the Company has made adjustments to various components of the mine plan, largely in the project's tailings and water management strategy. This has enabled Cliffs to defer and lower its year-over-year capital spending while continuing to operate Phase I.

Cliffs expects Bloom Lake Mine's full-year 2014 capital expenditures to be approximately $200 million. This is comprised of $65 million in carryover capital spending from 2013, with required license-to-operate and sustaining capital expenditures making up the remainder.

Wabush Mine

Cliffs' Wabush Scully Mine in Newfoundland and Labrador will be idled by the end of the first quarter of 2014. With costs unsustainably high, including fourth-quarter 2013 cash costs of $143 per ton, it is not economically viable to continue running this operation. As previously disclosed, Cliffs idled Wabush Mine's Pointe Noire pellet plant in June of 2013. Approximately 500 employees at both the Wabush Scully Mine and the Pointe Noire rail and port operation in Québec will be impacted by these actions.

Gary Halverson continued, "Over the past three years we have seen pricing drop and Wabush Mine's costs escalate all while we have made significant capital investments into the operation. This is a regrettable but necessary decision. We simply cannot continue operating a high-cost mine while pricing and freight markets are so volatile. We do value the hard work of all our employees and are committed to easing the transition for the people and communities, including providing severance and other support services as a result of this decision."

Cliffs anticipates incurring idle costs related to Wabush Mine of approximately $100 million in 2014. Also, due to the idling of Wabush Mine, Cliffs' will record impairment and write-off charges of approximately $183 million, which will be reflected in its fourth-quarter 2013 results. Cliffs will continue operating the port at Pointe Noire in Sept-Îles, Québec.

2014 Capital Allocation

Cliffs expects its full-year 2014 consolidated capital expenditures to be $375 - $425 million. This includes approximately $100 million in cash-carryover capital, with the remainder primarily comprised of sustaining and license-to-operate capital. The first priority for any additional cash generated in excess of consolidated capital expenditures and dividend payments during the year will be to lower the Company's net debt position. Cliffs is in the process of evaluating a range of options for the next best use of the capital, all of which must have attractive return rates and drive long-term shareholder value.

Mr. Halverson added, "We will adhere to a return-driven approach to allocating capital. This will establish a prudent balance among key priorities relating to liquidity management, business investment, and capital allocation initiatives that provide for a more direct return to enhance long-term shareholder value."

Conference Call Information

As previously disclosed, Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. intends on announcing its fourth-quarter and full-year 2013 results after-market close on Thursday, Feb. 13, 2014. Cliffs will host a conference call to discuss the results at 10:00 a.m. ET on Friday, Feb. 14, 2014. The call will be broadcast live and archived on Cliffs' website: www.cliffsnaturalresources.com.

NEWS RELEASECliffs Natural Resources Inc. to Pursue Exit Options for its Eastern Canadian Operations

CLEVELAND – Nov. 19, 2014 – Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. (NYSE: CLF) announced today that it is pursuing exit options for its Eastern Canadian iron ore operations which may result in the closure of the Bloom Lake mine.

Lourenco Goncalves, Cliffs' Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer said, "Despite the continued interest of the prospective equity partners in Bloom Lake and in its high quality ore, the potential investment is not achievable within a time frame acceptable to Cliffs. With expansion no longer viable, we have shifted our focus to executing an exit option for Eastern Canadian operations that minimizes the cash outflows and associated liabilities."

The Company previously disclosed that to make Bloom Lake viable, the development of the mine's Phase 2 was necessary. The investment was estimated to cost $1.2 billion. In the event of a closure, the estimated closure costs are expected to be in the range of $650 million to $700 million in the next five years.

Cliffs stated also that the Company's subsidiary, Cliffs Quebec Iron Mining Limited, along with Bloom Lake General Partner Limited and The Bloom Lake Iron Ore Limited Partnership, recently lost an arbitration claim they filed against a former Bloom Lake customer relating to the August 2011 termination of an iron ore sales agreement. In November 2014, the arbitrators decided in favor of the former customer and awarded it damages in an amount of approximately $71 million as well as attorneys' fees and accrued interest from the date of termination of the offtake agreement in August 2011. Cliffs Quebec Iron Mining Limited is currently reviewing the award to determine appropriate next steps.

For Immediate Release

Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. Announces Decision on Bloom Lake Mine

Commences Formal Canadian Restructuring Proceedings

CLEVELAND – Jan. 27, 2015 – Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. (NYSE: CLF) announced today that Bloom Lake General Partner Limited and certain of its affiliates, including Cliffs Quebec Iron Mining ULC (collectively, “Bloom Lake Group”) commenced restructuring proceedings in Montreal, Quebec, under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada) (“CCAA”). The Bloom Lake Group had recently suspended operations and for several months has been exploring options to sell certain of its Canadian assets, among other initiatives.

The decision to seek protection under the CCAA was based on a thorough legal and financial analysis of the options available to the Bloom Lake Group. The Bloom Lake Group is no longer generating any revenues and is not able to meet its obligations as they come due. The Initial CCAA Order will address the Bloom Lake Group’s immediate liquidity issues and permit the Bloom Lake Group to preserve and protect its assets for the benefit of all stakeholders while restructuring and sale options are explored.

As part of the CCAA process, the Court has appointed FTI Consulting Canada Inc. as the Monitor. The Monitor’s role in the CCAA process is to monitor the activities of the Bloom Lake Group and provide assistance to the Bloom Lake Group and its stakeholders in respect of the CCAA process.

Lourenco Goncalves, Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. said, “For several months, we have been seeking equity investors and exploring sale options for Bloom Lake including working collaboratively with Investissement Québec. We support the decision by the directors of the Bloom Lake Group to conduct a restructuring process under the supervision of the Court.”

Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. will file a Current Report on Form 8-K that provides pro forma financial information reflecting the deconsolidation of the Bloom Lake Group. Actuarial valuation as at January 1, 2014

Significant Events Since Previous Actuarial Valuation

Actuarial Basis

Since the previous actuarial valuation, the solvency and hypothetical windup actuarial assumptions have been updated to reflect market conditions at the valuation date. In addition, there have been changes to the going concern actuarial basis, as follows:

- Increase in the liability discount rate from 6.00% to 6.25%;
- Decrease in the rate of escalation of YMPE under Canada/Québec Pension Plan from 4.50% to 3.50%;
- Decrease in the rate of escalation of Income Tax Act (Canada) maximum pension limitation from 4.50% to 3.50%; and
- Change in the mortality assumption.

Plan Provisions

This actuarial valuation reflects the plan provisions as at January 1, 2014 and does not make any provision for the possibility that a change or action (retroactive or otherwise) may be imposed by order of a regulatory body or a court as we were not aware of any definitive events that would require such change or action at the time this actuarial valuation was completed.

There have been no changes to the plan provisions since the previous actuarial valuation that affect the actuarial valuation's results.

Legislative and Actuarial Standards Updates

Since the previous actuarial valuation, the Standards of Practice for Pension Commuted Values published by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries effective April 1, 2009 provide for, effective February 1, 2011, an update to the mortality assumption. Such update has been reflected for purposes of the solvency and hypothetical windup valuations.

Subsequent Events

We completed this actuarial valuation on August 27, 2014.

Effective February 11, 2014, Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. made the decision to idle the Scully Mine. The idling of the Scully Mine will result in a reduction in active membership.

The financial impact of the event has not been reflected in this report but will, together with other subsequent experience, be reflected in the next actuarial valuation. However, the normal cost contribution rule reflects the expected reduction in membership resulting from the idling. To the best of our knowledge and on the basis of our discussions with Cliffs Natural Resources Inc., no other events

Comments:

- The financial position of the plan on a going concern basis is determined by comparing the going concern value of assets to the actuarial liability and is a reflection of the assets available for the benefits accrued in respect of credited service prior to the actuarial valuation date assuming the plan continues indefinitely.
- The increase in the defined benefit actuarial liability as at January 1, 2014, which would result from a 1% decrease in the assumed liability discount rate, is $10,367,078. For purposes of this calculation, no changes were made to any of the other actuarial assumptions or actuarial methods.

Comments:

- The solvency actuarial valuation results presented in this report are determined under a scenario where, following a plan windup, the employer continues its operations and there is no closure of the mine.
- The Regulation to the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 (Newfoundland and Labrador) permits certain benefits to be excluded from the solvency liability, without requiring the employer to make an election. The plan administrator has directed that consent for the "70/80 special early retirement" provision (described in Appendix D) will not be granted. Consistent with the scenario used for the solvency valuation, the "70/80 special early retirement" provision has been excluded from the solvency liability.
- The increase in the defined benefit solvency liability as at January 1, 2014, which would result from a 1% decrease in the assumed liability discount rate, is $11,949,638. For purposes of this calculation, no changes were made to any of the other actuarial assumptions or actuarial methods.

2.2 Hypothetical Windup Financial Position

The hypothetical windup valuation results presented in this report are determined under a scenario in which the plan is wound up and the mine is shut down.

If the plan were to be wound up on the actuarial valuation date, the hypothetical windup value of assets would be equal to the solvency value of assets. Consistent with the scenario used for the hypothetical windup valuation, no benefits have been excluded from the hypothetical windup liability. Therefore, the hypothetical windup liability is $94,251,745 as at January 1, 2014. Consequently, the hypothetical windup surplus (unfunded hypothetical windup liability) as at the actuarial valuation date is ($10,718,471).

2.3 Solvency Incremental Cost

Defined Benefit Provision

The solvency incremental cost for a given year represents the present value, at the valuation date, of the expected aggregate change in the solvency liability during the year, increased for expected benefit payments during the year. The solvency incremental cost in respect of each year between January 1, 2014 and January 1, 2017, the next valuation date, are derived from the projection of the solvency liability, as follows:

	Year
	2014	2015	2016
Solvency liability as at beginning of year	$ 94,004,606	$ 93,282,267	$ 92,647,605
Solvency incremental cost for the year ^{1,2}	2,170,560	2,257,372	2,679,545
Interest on projected solvency liability, solvency incremental cost and expected benefit payments	3,433,804	3,388,560	3,342,974
Expected benefit payments during year ²	(6,326,703)	(6,280,594)	(6,145,238)
Projected solvency liability as at end of year ²	$ 93,282,267	$ 92,647,605	$ 92,524,886

Notes:

¹ These amounts are as at the beginning of the year. The solvency incremental cost, adjusted with interest as at January 1, 2014 is $2,177,032 for 2015 and $2,492,833 for 2016.

² These amounts do not reflect the estimated membership reduction resulting from the idling of the Scully Mine as at February 11, 2014.

2.4 Determination of the Statutory Solvency Excess (Statutory Solvency Deficiency)

The minimum funding requirements under the Regulation to the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 (Newfoundland and Labrador) are based on the statutory solvency excess (statutory solvency deficiency) as at the actuarial valuation date. In calculating the statutory solvency excess (statutory solvency deficiency), various adjustments can be made to the solvency financial position including:

- recognition of the present value of existing amortization payments, including any going concern amortization payments established at the actuarial valuation date, due to be paid within the periods prescribed by the Regulation.

To the extent that there exists a statutory solvency deficiency, after taking account of these adjustments, additional amortization payments must be made. If there is no statutory solvency deficiency, the statutory solvency excess may be used to reduce the period of any existing solvency amortization payments.

Statutory Solvency Excess (Statutory Solvency Deficiency)

	January 1, 2014	January 1, 2011
Solvency surplus (unfunded solvency liability)	$ (10,471,332)	$ (7,619,225)
Adjustments to solvency position:
• Present value of existing amortization payments	6,221,792	0
Statutory solvency excess (statutory solvency deficiency)	$ (4,249,540)	$ (7,619,225)

Comments:

- The present value of existing amortization payments reflects any changes made in this actuarial valuation to going concern amortization schedules.
- Further details on the present value of existing amortization payments at January 1, 2014 are provided below.

- The increase in the employer defined benefit normal actuarial cost rate between the actuarial valuation date and the next actuarial valuation date, which would result from a 1% decrease in the assumed liability discount rate, is 2.08% of payroll. For purposes of this calculation, no changes were made to any of the other actuarial assumptions or actuarial methods.

- The Income Tax Act (Canada) permits the employer to make contributions up to the above amount less the amortization payments made in respect of periods since January 1, 2014, provided that all assumptions made for the purposes of the hypothetical windup valuation remain reasonable at the time each contribution is made. In addition, the maximum employer contribution is to be adjusted with interest for the period between the actuarial valuation date and the date each contribution is made.

3.5 Timing of Contributions

To satisfy the requirements of Newfoundland and Labrador pension legislation, the employer defined benefit normal actuarial cost and amortization payments must be paid quarterly and within 30 days of the month to which they pertain, the employer defined contribution normal actuarial cost and members' contributions must be remitted to the fund monthly and within 30 days of the month to which they pertain.

In addition, within 60 days after this report is filed with the Newfoundland and Labrador Superintendent of Pensions, the employer must make a special contribution equal to the excess, if any, of:

- the amount of employer contributions (employer normal actuarial cost and amortization payments) that should have been paid after January 1, 2014 according to the minimum contribution requirements revealed by this report, over
- the actual amount of employer contributions in respect of periods after January 1, 2014.

Interest must be added to this excess, with such interest determined by reference to the going concern discount rate for payments in respect of employer normal actuarial cost or going concern amortization payments and the solvency discount rate for payments in respect of solvency amortization payments.

To satisfy the requirements of the Income Tax Act (Canada), employer contributions that are remitted to the plan in the taxation year or within 120 days after the end of such taxation year are deductible in such taxation year provided they were made to fund benefits in respect of periods preceding the end of the taxation year.

3.6 Other Statutory Contributions

Additional contributions may be required in respect of the transfer values for members who terminate employment or active plan membership. Where applicable, such additional contributions must be remitted before the related transfer value may be paid in full to the terminated member. Details are provided in Appendix G.

3.7 Future Contribution Levels

Future contribution levels may change as a result of future changes in the actuarial methods and assumptions, the membership data, the plan provisions and the legislative rules, or as a result of future experience gains or losses, none of which has been anticipated at this time. Emerging experience, differing from the assumptions, will result in gains or losses that will be revealed in future actuarial valuations.

Section 4: Actuarial Certification and Opinion

4.1 Actuarial Certification

Based on the results of these actuarial valuations, we hereby certify that, in our opinion, as at January 1, 2014:

- The actuarial surplus (unfunded actuarial liability), determined by comparing the actuarial liability, the measure of obligations of the plan on a going concern basis, to the going concern value of assets, is $(6,328,400).
- The unfunded actuarial liability is $6,328,400 and must be liquidated by employer amortization payments at least equal to the amounts and for the periods set forth in Section 3 in order to comply with the Regulation to the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 (Newfoundland and Labrador).
- The solvency surplus (unfunded solvency liability), determined by comparing the solvency liability, as defined in the Regulation to the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 (Newfoundland and Labrador), to the solvency value of assets, is $(10,471,332).
- The statutory solvency excess (statutory solvency deficiency) revealed at this actuarial valuation is $(4,249,540). This statutory solvency deficiency together with the remaining statutory solvency deficiency from the previous actuarial valuation must be liquidated by employer amortization payments at least equal to the amounts and for the periods set forth in Section 3 in order to comply with the Regulation to the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 (Newfoundland and Labrador).
- The hypothetical windup surplus (unfunded hypothetical windup liability), determined by comparing the hypothetical windup liability, the measure of the obligations of the plan on a hypothetical windup basis including the value of any potential obligations that may have been excluded for purposes of the solvency valuation, to the hypothetical windup value of assets, is $(10,718,471).
- The excess actuarial surplus, pursuant to section 147.2(2) of the Income Tax Act (Canada), is $0.
- The rule for computing the employer defined benefit normal actuarial cost is 7.88% of payroll. Based on the plan membership used for this actuarial valuation, the normal actuarial cost for the next three years is estimated to be:

The employer is required to make normal actuarial cost contributions to the plan in accordance with the above rules until the effective date of the next actuarial opinion.

- The maximum employer contributions permissible under the Income Tax Act (Canada) are described in Section 3.
- The solvency ratio, as defined in the Regulation to the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 (Newfoundland and Labrador), is 0.89.
- In accordance with the Regulation to the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 (Newfoundland and Labrador), the next actuarial valuation should be performed with an effective date not later than

4.2 Actuarial Opinion

In our opinion:

- the membership data on which the actuarial valuations are based are sufficient and reliable for the purposes of the going concern, solvency and hypothetical windup valuations,
- the assumptions are appropriate for the purposes of the going concern, solvency and hypothetical windup valuations, and
- the methods employed in the actuarial valuation are appropriate for the purposes of the going concern, solvency and hypothetical windup valuations.

This report has been prepared, and our opinion has been given, in accordance with accepted actuarial practice in Canada. The actuarial valuations have been conducted in accordance with our understanding of the funding and solvency standards prescribed by the Pension Benefits Act 1997 (Newfoundland and Labrador) and Regulation thereto, and in accordance with our understanding of the requirements of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and Regulations thereto. This actuarial opinion forms an integral part of the report.

The results presented in this report have been developed using a particular set of actuarial assumptions. Other results could have been developed by selecting different actuarial assumptions. The results presented in this report are reasonable actuarial results based on actuarial assumptions reflecting our expectation of future events.

Appendix A: Significant Terms of Engagement

For purposes of preparing this actuarial valuation report, the plan administrator has directed that:

- The actuarial valuation is to be prepared as at January 1, 2014.
- For purposes of the going concern valuation, the terms of engagement require the use of the margins for adverse deviations mentioned in Appendix C.
- For purposes of determining the going concern liability discount rate, the target asset class distribution is to be established in accordance with the investment policy dated July 1, 2013 which is the most up to date version.
- For purposes of determining the going concern financial position of the plan, the going concern value of assets is to be determined using the averaging technique described in the Asset Valuation Method section in Appendix C.
- This report is to be prepared on the basis that there will be no retroactive changes to previously filed partial windup reports, if any, and neither the applicable pension regulator nor the plan sponsor will order/declare any partial plan windup with an effective date prior to the actuarial valuation date.
- The hypothetical windup valuation results presented in this report are to be determined under a scenario where the employer continues to operate and certain expenses are paid from the pension fund (consistent with past practice) while the employer pays other plan expenses.
- This report is to be prepared on the basis that the employer is entitled to apply the actuarial surplus, if any, revealed in an actuarial valuation report to meet its contribution requirements under the plan while the plan remains a going concern, to the extent permitted by applicable pension legislation. (This report does not address the disposition of any surplus assets remaining in the event of plan windup.) If an applicable pension regulator or other entity with jurisdiction directs otherwise, certain financial measures contained in this report, including contribution requirements, may be affected.

Should these directions from the plan administrator be amended or withdrawn, Towers Watson reserves the right to amend or withdraw this report.

Appendix C: Actuarial Basis – Going Concern Valuation

Methods

Defined Benefit Provision

Asset Valuation Method

The going concern value of assets was calculated using a five-year average of market values. Under this method, realized and unrealized gains and losses were recognized at 20% in the year of occurrence and an additional 20% in each of the subsequent four years. Gains and losses for a given year are determined relative to expected investment income, calculated using the going concern liability discount rate in effect for that year. Finally, the going concern value of assets was further adjusted for net outstanding amounts.

The objective of the asset valuation method is to produce a smoother pattern of going-concern surplus (deficit) and hence a smoother pattern of contributions, consistent with the long-term nature of a going concern valuation.

Such smoothing is achieved by use of an averaging process which systematically recognizes investment returns different from expectations over a four-year period, with 20% recognized at the actuarial valuation date and the remainder at a rate of 20% per year. This method will be expected to average periods of outperformance with periods of underperformance.

Actuarial Cost Method

The actuarial liability and the normal actuarial cost were calculated using the projected unit credit cost method.

Prospective benefits were calculated for each active and disabled member according to the plan provisions and actuarial assumptions. The actuarial liability was calculated as the actuarial present value of the member's prospective benefits accrued for credited service to date (the benefit accrual method).

The actuarial liability for retired members and beneficiaries and transferred and terminated vested members was calculated as the actuarial present value of their respective benefits.

The normal actuarial cost for each active and disabled member was calculated as the actuarial present value of the member's prospective benefits accruing in respect of credited service in the ensuing year. The normal actuarial cost rate determined by the projected unit credit cost method will be stable over time if the demographic characteristics of the active and disabled members remain stable from actuarial valuation to actuarial valuation. All other things being equal, a population of active members whose average age increases (decreases) between actuarial valuations will result in an increasing (decreasing) normal actuarial cost rate.

Defined Contribution Provision

For the purposes of the going concern valuation, the determination of the actuarial liability and normal actuarial cost for the defined contribution provision does not involve the use of an actuarial cost method, nor does it involve actuarial assumptions. By definition, the actuarial liability under the defined contribution provision corresponds with the market value of the members' defined contribution accounts at the actuarial valuation date.

The employer normal actuarial cost for each active and disabled member was calculated as the expected employer contribution to be made to the member's defined contribution accounts in the year following the actuarial valuation date. The expected contribution to be made to each member's defined contribution account was determined by increasing the actual contributions made in 2013 by 5.0%, the salary increase assumption on a going concern basis. The expected contribution was further adjusted to reflect the estimated membership reduction resulting from the idling of the Sully Mine as at February 11, 2014.

Rationale for Actuarial Assumptions

The rationale for the material actuarial assumptions used in the going concern valuation is summarized below.

The going concern assumptions do not include margins for adverse deviations, except as noted below.

Liability discount rate

The assumption is an estimate of the expected long-term return on plan assets, net of a provision for non-investment expenses expected to be paid from the plan of 0.18% of invested assets, less a 0.50% margin for adverse deviations. The expected long-term return is based on returns for each major asset class in which the plan is expected to be invested (net of investment expenses), the plan's investment policy with consideration of the effects of diversification and periodic rebalancing to maintain the target mix of the plan's investment policy. We have assumed that additional returns associated with employing an active investment management strategy would equal the additional expenses associated with employing such strategy. Consequently, we have disregarded any potential additional returns.

In carrying out the plan's investment policy, the plan administrator has opted to invest the plan's assets in a diversified portfolio, which includes certain asset classes subject to risk that provide potential for higher return. The expected long-term return for asset classes subject to risk includes an estimated risk premium. Based on historical experience, assets invested in instruments subject to risk are normally expected to yield higher returns in the long-run than assets invested in low-risk investments, but these returns may fluctuate significantly from year to year and not necessarily in line with changes in the plan's liabilities over long periods of time. As a result, investing in riskier asset classes will generally increase the potential for future asset-liability mismatch, which could lead to greater volatility in the plan's financial position and minimum contribution requirements.

Rate of salary increase

The assumption reflects an assumed rate of inflation of 2.50% per annum, plus an allowance of 1.0% per annum for the effect of real economic growth and productivity gains in the economy. In addition, an allowance of 1.5% per annum has been made to reflect the average expected increase as a result of individual employee merit and promotion. The merit/promotion assumption is based on discussions with Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. management concerning their future expectations.

Escalation of YMPE under Canada/Québec Pension Plan

The YMPE is indexed annually based on increases in the Industrial Aggregate Wage index for Canada. The assumption reflects an assumed rate of inflation of 2.50% per annum, plus an allowance of 1.0% per annum for the effect of real economic growth and productivity gains in the economy.

C-6

Cliffs Natural Resources Inc.
Contributory Pension Plan for Salaried Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent
Actuarial valuation as at January 1, 2014

Escalation of Income Tax Act (Canada) maximum pension limitation

The maximum pension limitation under the Income Tax Act (Canada) is scheduled to be indexed annually based on assumed increases in the Industrial Aggregate Wage index. The assumption reflects an assumed rate of inflation of 2.50% per annum, plus an allowance of 1.0% per annum for the effect of real economic growth and productivity gains in the economy.

Rate of inflation

The assumption reflects an estimate of future rates of inflation considering economic and financial market conditions at the actuarial valuation date.

Pre-retirement indexation

The pre-retirement indexation assumption represents 50% of the inflation assumption, up to a maximum of 2% per annum.

Mortality

The 2014 Canadian Pensioners' Mortality Table (CPM2014) is based on a mortality experience study for calendar years 1999 to 2008 conducted by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries on a sample of Canadian registered pension plans. The CPM2014 table includes potential adjustments to the mortality rates based on pension size and/or industry classification. Improvement Scale B (CPM-B) is a two-dimensional scale developed by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries based primarily on the mortality experience of pensioners under the Canada Pension Plan (CPP) and the Québec Pension Plan (QPP) up to 2007 as well as the assumptions used in the 26th CPP Actuarial Report.

Base mortality rates from the CPM2014 table are considered reasonable for the actuarial valuation of the plan given that the mortality experience of the plan membership is insufficient to assess plan-specific experience, and there is no reason to expect the mortality experience of the plan to differ significantly from that of other pension plans covering membership groups with similar characteristics. Applying improvement scale CPM-B generationally provides allowance for improvements in mortality after 2014 and is considered reasonable for projecting mortality experience into the future.

No allowance has been made for mortality prior to retirement with respect to terminated vested members in order to approximate the value of pre-retirement death benefits.

At the previous actuarial valuation, the 1994 Uninsured Pensioner Mortality Table projected generationally using Scale AA was used.

C-7

Withdrawal

Withdrawal rates are typically developed taking into account the past experience of the plan. However, based on discussions with management, recent withdrawal experience is not considered appropriate for assessing the future incidence of withdrawal. Accordingly, the rates of withdrawal are based on the Society of Actuaries 2003 Pension Plan Termination and Retirement Study (using the table for small plans – 1,000 lives or less – with turnover by service), following discussions with management concerning their future expectations and our experience with other similar plans.

Disability incidence/recovery

There are no disability benefits under the plan other than the accrual of retirement income (earnings remain constant) during disability. Consequently, the assumption of no incidence of disability or recovery therefrom makes an appropriate allowance, in combination with the other assumptions, for such continued accruals.

Retirement from active membership

Retirement rates are typically developed taking into account the past experience of the plan. However, based on discussions with Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. management, recent retirement experience is not considered appropriate for predicting the future incidence of retirement. Accordingly, rates of retirement were developed based on discussions with Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. management concerning their future expectations, the plan provisions and our experience with other similar plans. All members are assumed to commence their pension at retirement date.

Pension commencement after termination of employment

All transferred and terminated members are assumed to commence their pension at the normal retirement age of 65, as the plan's termination benefit provides for either an actuarially reduced benefit or a 6% per year reduction upon pension commencement prior to normal retirement age.

Percentage of members with eligible spouses at pension commencement and electing joint and survivor pension form

When provided, the actual data on the spouse and form of payment were used for retired members. For other members, the assumed percentage of members with a spouse is based on the percentages for the general population. All members with eligible spouses were assumed to elect a joint and survivor pension form.

Years male spouse older than female spouse

When provided, the actual data on the spouse were used for retired members. For other members, the assumption is based on surveys of the age difference in the general population and an assessment of future expectations for members of the plan.

Provision for non-investment expenses

The liability discount rate is net of all expenses (with the exception of any fees associated with employing an active investment management strategy). The assumed level of expenses reflected in the liability discount rate is based on recent experience of the plan and an assessment of future expectations.

Appendix D: Actuarial Basis – Solvency and Hypothetical Windup Valuations

Methods

Defined Benefit Provision

Asset Valuation Method

The market value of assets, adjusted for net outstanding amounts, has been used for the solvency and hypothetical windup valuations. The resulting value has been reduced by a provision for plan windup expenses.

Liability Calculation Method

The solvency and hypothetical windup liabilities for active and disabled members were calculated as the actuarial present value of all benefits accrued up to the actuarial valuation date (treating all members as if vested).

The solvency and hypothetical windup liabilities for retired members and beneficiaries and transferred and terminated vested members were calculated as the actuarial present value of their respective benefits.

Other Considerations

The solvency and hypothetical windup valuations have been prepared on a hypothetical basis. In the event of an actual plan windup, the plan assets may have to be allocated between various classes of plan members or beneficiaries as required by applicable pension legislation. Such potential allocation has not been performed as part of these solvency and hypothetical windup valuations.

Defined Contribution Provision

For the purposes of the solvency and hypothetical windup valuations, the determination of the liability for the defined contribution provision does not involve the use of a liability calculation method, nor does it involve actuarial assumptions. By definition, the solvency and hypothetical windup liability under the defined contribution provision corresponds with the market value of the members' defined contribution accounts at the actuarial valuation date.

Solvency Incremental Cost Actuarial Method

Defined Benefit Provision

The solvency incremental cost for a given year represents the present value, at the actuarial valuation date, of the expected aggregate change in the defined benefit solvency liability during the year, increased for expected benefit payments during the year.

The solvency incremental cost reflects expected decrements and related changes in membership status, accrual of service, any expected changes in benefits, entitlements, pension formula or increases in the maximum pension limits, and projected pensionable earnings during the year.

The solvency incremental cost has been calculated for each year until the next actuarial valuation date as the projected solvency liability at the end of the year, minus the solvency liability at the beginning of the year, increased for expected benefit payments during the year. Each of these amounts is discounted to the actuarial valuation date using the projected solvency liability discount rate.

The method used to calculate the projected solvency liability at the end of the year is the same as used in the solvency valuation.

Rationale for Actuarial Assumptions

The rationale for the material actuarial assumptions used in the solvency and hypothetical windup valuations is summarized below.

The actuarial assumptions used in the solvency and hypothetical windup valuations do not include margins for adverse deviations.

Liability discount rate

In the event of a plan windup, it is expected that a portion of the liabilities will be settled by a group annuity purchase and the balance of the liabilities will be settled by commuted value transfers.

For the calculation of the portion of the solvency and hypothetical windup liabilities relating to the benefits that are expected to be settled by a group annuity purchase, the liability discount rate corresponds to an approximation of the annuity purchase rates as at the actuarial valuation date following application of the relevant guidance on assumptions for solvency and hypothetical windup valuations issued by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Committee on Pension Plan Financial Reporting. Effective June 30, 2013, the guidance was revised to reflect the duration of the liabilities for non-indexed benefits assumed to be settled by group annuity purchase in the approximation of the annuity purchase rate. The duration of the liabilities assumed to be settled through the purchase of non-indexed annuities is 9.4.

For the calculation of the portion of the solvency and hypothetical windup liabilities relating to the benefits that are expected to be settled by commuted value transfers, the liability discount rates have been determined in accordance with the Standards of Practice for Pension Commuted Values published by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries effective April 1, 2009 and revised effective February 1, 2011. For this actuarial valuation, the January 2014 rates have been used.

For the calculation of the portion of the solvency and hypothetical windup liability relating to benefits subject to pre-retirement indexation that are expected to be settled by commuted value transfers, the liability discount rates have been determined as the interest rate for pensions indexed at 50% of the increases in the Consumer Price Index (maximum of 2% per annum) in accordance with the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Standards of Practice for Pension Commuted Values.

Escalation of Income Tax Act (Canada) maximum pension limitation

The Income Tax Act (Canada) maximum pension limitation specified in the Act as at the actuarial valuation date is applied without consideration for future scheduled increases, as pension entitlements are determined as at the actuarial valuation date.

Rate of inflation

For benefits that are expected to be settled by commuted value transfers, the assumption has been determined in accordance with the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Standards of Practice for Pension Commuted Values.

Mortality

For benefits that are expected to be settled by commuted value transfers, the assumption has been determined in accordance with the Standards of Practice for Pension Commuted Values published by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries effective April 1, 2009 and revised effective February 1, 2011. For the benefits that are expected to be settled by a group annuity purchase, the assumption has been set following application of the relevant guidance on assumptions for solvency and hypothetical windup valuations issued by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Committee on Pension Plan Financial Reporting. No pre-retirement mortality has been assumed in order to approximate the value of pre-retirement death benefits.

Retirement/pension commencement

- Members eligible to retire: pension commences at the age that produces the highest value (among the retirement age options for which the member qualifies upon termination of employment).
- Other members: pension commences at age 65.

For benefits that are expected to be settled by commuted value transfers, this assumption is in accordance with the Canadian Institute of Actuaries' Standards of Practice for Pension Commuted Values. For the benefits that are expected to be settled by a group annuity purchase, this is consistent with the expected assumption that will be used by insurers to price the group annuity.

Percentage of members with eligible spouses at pension commencement and electing joint and survivor pension form

See rationale for going concern assumptions in Appendix C.

Years male spouse older than female spouse

See rationale for going concern assumptions in Appendix C.

Percentage of members receiving settlement by commuted value transfer

This assumption has been determined by considering the benefit provisions of the plan, legislative requirements to offer specific settlement options to various classes of members, and, in particular, the options to be provided to members upon plan windup.

The assumption also reflects the expectation that members further from retirement are more likely to elect to settle their pension benefit by a commuted value transfer, while members closer to retirement are more likely to elect to settle their pension benefit through a group annuity purchase where this option is available.

Provision for expenses

Allowance was made for normal administrative, actuarial, legal and other costs which would be incurred if the plan were to be wound up (excluding costs relating to the resolution of surplus or deficit issues). The actuarial valuation is premised on a scenario in which the employer continues to operate after the windup date. In establishing the allowance for plan windup costs, certain administrative costs were assumed to be paid from the pension fund (consistent with past practice) while other costs were assumed to be borne directly by the employer.

Solvency Incremental Cost Actuarial Assumptions

Demographic and Benefit Projection Actuarial Assumptions

Except as noted below, the projected population and benefits valued in the solvency liability projection are based on the demographic and benefit projection assumptions used for the going concern valuation described in Appendix C.

New entrants

No allowance has been made for new entrants between the current actuarial valuation date and next actuarial valuation date in the demographic projections on the basis that the plan is closed to new entrants.

Solvency Liability Projection Actuarial Assumptions

The solvency liability projections for purposes of calculating the solvency incremental cost are based on the assumptions used for the solvency valuation described previously.

Review of Membership Data

The membership data with respect to the defined benefit provision were supplied by Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. as at January 1, 2014. The membership data with respect to the defined contribution provision were supplied by Sun Life Financial as at January 1, 2014.

The membership data have been relied upon by Towers Watson following tests for reasonableness and found to be sufficient and reliable for the purposes of the actuarial valuation. Elements of the data review included the following:

- ensuring that the data were intelligible (i.e., that an appropriate number of records was obtained, that the appropriate data fields were provided and that the data fields contained valid information);
- preparation and review of membership reconciliations to ascertain whether the complete membership of the plan appeared to be accounted for;
- review of consistency of individual data items and statistical summaries between the current actuarial valuation and the previous actuarial valuation;
- review of reasonableness of individual data items, statistical summaries and changes in such information since the previous actuarial valuation date; and
- comparison of the membership data and the plan's financial statements for consistency.

However, the tests conducted as part of the membership data review may not have captured certain deficiencies in the data. We have also relied on the certification of the plan administrator as to the quality of the data.

Actuarial valuation as at January 1, 2014

Effective January 1, 1997 existing plan members were offered a one-time choice between two pension options, Option A or B. All future new hires from January 1, 1997 onward must enrol under Option B. As at January 1, 2011, there are no remaining members in active status, with coverage under Option A.

Option B offers a combination of Defined Benefit coverage (for past service and future service) and Defined Contribution coverage (for future service, from January 1, 1997 onward), as follows:

Basic Annual Pension, Defined Benefit

The annual pension benefit payable on normal retirement is the sum of (i) and (ii):

- (i) the sum of 1.5% of highest 5-year average earnings up to the YMPE plus 1.6% of highest 5-year average earnings over the YMPE, for each year of credited service prior to January 1, 1997;
- (ii) 1.0% of highest 5-year average earnings for each year of credited service after December 31, 1996.

However, the pension payable on normal retirement will not be less than the amount that would be payable, if the member had been a member of Option B of the Bargaining Unit plan sponsored by the company instead of this salaried employees plan, plus the amount of pension which could be purchased with the employee's required contributions with interest.

In addition, a "make-up benefit" is payable to salaried employees who have a frozen monthly lifetime benefit under the Bargaining Unit plan (in respect of a period of Bargaining Unit credited service prior to becoming a salaried employee). The make-up benefit is based on the difference between the Bargaining Unit plan's current lifetime benefit rates under Option B and the benefit rates that were in effect at the time of the employee's transfer to salaried status.

Member Contributions

Prior to January 1, 1997, 1.2% of earnings up to the YMPE and 3.0% of earnings above the YMPE.

Effective January 1, 1997, employees covered under Option B ceased contributing toward the Defined Benefit component of the plan; from 1997 onward, employees covered under Option B contribute 2% of earnings per annum to a Defined Contribution component of the Plan, and are entitled to a contribution made by the Company of 3% of earnings per annum. Effective May 1, 2007, contributions to the Defined Contribution component of the Plan were increased to 3% of earnings from the employees and 6% of earnings from the Company.

In addition to lifetime retirement benefits, employees who retire early from active status will receive a monthly supplement, payable to age 65, of $18.00 per year of service (to a maximum of 40 years of service). The $18.00 multiplier is increased to $27.00, for employees who retire from active status at age 60 or later with 30 or more years of credited service, or at any age with 35 or more years of credited service.

REPS-7 Letter from Wabush Mines to Michael Keeper, January 26, 2016

Mines Wabush
C.P. 25
Bureau Chef
Saint-Bruno de Montarville, Qc J8V 4P8

January 26, 2016

Mr. Michael Keeper

Subject: Contributory Pension Plan for Salaried Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company, Limited (Newfoundland Registration No. 021314 and CRA Registration NO. 0343558) (The "Plan")

Notice of Plan termination as of December 16, 2015

Dear Mr. Keeper:

Wabush Iron Co. Limited, Wabush Resources Inc. and certain of their affiliates, including Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company Limited, filed for restructuring proceedings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (CCAA) in May 2015. As part of the CCAA proceeding, special payments towards the deficits of the Plan have been suspended since May 2015, affecting the financial position of the Plan. In addition, Wabush Mines has ceased its operation, with essentially all of its employees laid-off or terminated and it appears unlikely that the Plan can continue as a going concern under a new sponsor.

As a result, the Newfoundland Superintendent of Pensions (the "Regulator") has ordered the termination of the Plan effective as of December 16, 2015.

About the termination

As required by the pension legislation, Wabush Mines will arrange for a Termination Report that reviews the financial position of the Plan as of December 16, 2015. That report will be filed with the Regulator for approval.

All participants will eventually receive a personalized statement setting out their entitlements under the Plan and their options as a result of the termination. Please note that until the Termination Report is approved by the Regulator, no benefits (except for regular monthly pension payments for participants currently receiving payments) may be paid from the Plan. If you are eligible to retire immediately and would like to start your pension, you may contact Marthe Brodeur using the contact information below.

You will find enclosed a Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) document that should answer most of your questions until further information is available. If you have any additional questions, please contact the undersigned.

Please read question 4 of the enclosed FAQ as your monthly pension benefit will be adjusted as early as March 1, 2016 as requested by Provincial regulators.

Wabush Mines

CONTRIBUTORY PENSION PLAN FOR SALARIED EMPLOYEES OF WABUSH MINES, CLIFFS MINING COMPANY, MANAGING AGENT, ARNAUD RAILWAY COMPANY AND WABUSH LAKE RAILWAY COMPANY, LIMITED (Newfoundland Registration No. 021314 and CRA Registration NO. 0343558) (The "Plan")

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) – Current recipients

1. What is a pension plan termination?

A pension plan termination causes the plan to cease to exist for all members, former members and retirees. All benefits will be settled either through a lump-sum payment or through the purchase of an annuity from a life insurance company. The Newfoundland Superintendent of Pensions (the "Regulator"), has oversight of the termination and must approve the Termination Report before benefits are paid out.

2. When will the Plan be terminated?

The Plan termination date is December 16, 2015.

3. Will I receive more information?

All participants or person entitled to a benefit will eventually receive a personalized statement setting out their entitlements under the Plan and their options as a result of the termination.

4. Will I be affected?

You will continue to receive a monthly payment but such payment will be adjusted ("Adjusted Pension Benefit") to reflect the financial position of the Plan as will be stipulated in the Termination Report. As requested by Provincial regulators, a preliminary reduction of 25% will be applied to your total gross monthly pension benefit you currently receive starting on March 1, 2016. The reduction could potentially change and your monthly pension be readjusted once the Termination Report is filed with the Regulators. We will make sure to keep you informed if this is the case.

Once the termination process is completed, the payments will be paid from a life insurance company instead of from the Plan. The pension option you chose at retirement (for example, a survivor pension option), remains in effect. For example, if you elected a Joint & Surviving Spouse option upon retirement and you die before your spouse, your spouse will receive a percentage of your adjusted amount upon your death, in accordance with the provisions of the plan.

As a current recipient, you do not have anything to do. Once the Regulators have approved the Termination Report, Wabush Mines will proceed with the annuity purchase

5. When will my pension statement be ready?

Wabush Mines will send individual pension statements approximately 30 days following the approval of the Termination Report by the Regulator.

6. What is an annuity?

An annuity is a financial contract with a life insurance company that provides a continuing payment with a monthly amount payable for your lifetime, just like a pension.

7. Is my pension guaranteed after the annuity is purchased?

The purchase of the annuity will not affect your Adjusted Pension Benefit. Once the annuity is purchased, your Adjusted Pension Benefit is protected by Assuris against the unlikely event that the life insurance company selected to pay your monthly pension is ever declared insolvent. Assuris is a not-for-profit organization of Canadian insurers whose role is to provide additional protection to policyholders against loss of benefits and it covers pension annuities up to a maximum of $2,000 per month, or 85% of your monthly pension if greater.

8. When will the annuity purchases happen?

The annuity purchase can only happen after the plan Termination Report has been approved by the Regulator. This may take up to 12 months or more from the termination date.

9. When will I be notified about the purchase of my annuity?

Once an annuity has been purchased for you, you will receive a notice from Wabush Mines, which will include the name of the life insurance company who will provide the annuity and the date you will receive your first annuity payment from the insurance company. You will also receive a welcome letter from the insurance company.

10. How will the insurance company know where to send my payments?

Wabush Mines will arrange to provide certain personal information including banking information for direct deposits, as well as the name and age of your spouse (for survivor benefits, if applicable) and beneficiary information. The welcome letter from the insurance company will ask you to review and confirm the accuracy of your personal information.

11. Will my payments continue to be received on exactly the same schedule?

We know you count on receiving your payments on schedule and may have automatic banking transactions in place based on these dates. Wabush Mines and the insurance company who will provide your annuity will work together to ensure that there is no disruption to your pension.

12. Will I miss any of my monthly payments as a result of the annuity purchase

There will be no disruption in your monthly pension payments as a result of the annuity purchase. You will continue to receive your Adjusted Pension Benefit payments from the Plan up to the first payment from the life insurance company, at which time the payments will then be paid by the insurance company.

13. Where can I get more information?

Should you have any questions, please contact Marthe Brodeur using the contact information included in the notice.

While every effort has been made to be accurate, the official Plan document and the full Termination Report will govern in the event of any conflict between this Frequently Asked Questions document and one or both of those documents.

Affidavit of Terence Watt, December 14, 2016 (cont'd)

I, TERENCE W. WATT, of 6 Willow Street Suite 1001, City of Waterloo, in the Province of Ontario, SOLEMNLY DECLARE AND MAKE OATH AND SAY:

Introduction

1. I am the former Mine Superintendent and Technical Assistant to the Resident Manager of the Scully Mine located in Newfoundland and Labrador. I worked with Wabush Mines for more than 30 years before retiring on April 30, 1999.
2. At the time of my retirement, I earned various post-retirement benefits from Wabush Mines, including a monthly pension benefit to be paid from the Contributory Defined Benefit Pension Plan for Salaried Employees of Wabush Mines, Cliffs Mining Company, Managing Agent (Nfld & Lab. Reg. No. 0021314, CRA Reg. No. 0343558) (the "Salaried Plan") (and together with the Union plan, the "Wabush Pension Plans").
3. On May 20, 2015, Wabush Iron Co. Limited, Wabush Resources Inc., Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway Company, and Wabush Lake Railway Company Limited (collectively, the "Wabush CCAA Parties") obtained protection from their creditors under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C 1985, c. C-36 ("CCAA") (the "Wabush CCAA Proceedings") by order of Mr. Justice Hamilton of the Superior Court of Québec ("CCAA Judge"). FTI Canada Consulting Inc. was appointed as Monitor.
4. The shutdown of Wabush Mines via a CCAA proceeding is part of the corporate decision by its parent company, Cliffs National Resources Inc. ("CNR") to disengage from its operations in Eastern Canada. Attached hereto as Exhibit "REPS-1" are copies of

CNR's Press Releases dated February 11, 2014, November 19, 2014, and January 27, 2015, respectively.

5. On June 22, 2015, I was appointed along with Neil Johnson, Damien Lebel, and Michael Keeper (the "Representatives") as representatives of all Non-Union Active Employees and Retirees (the "Salaried Members") in the Wabush CCAA Proceedings by the CCAA Judge. Koskie Minsky LLP and Scheib Legal were appointed as Representative Counsel with respect to all matters pertaining to any recovery, compromise of rights or entitlements of Non-Union Active Employees and Retirees in the Wabush CCAA Proceedings.
6. As a Representative, I am very familiar and actively involved with the Wabush CCAA Proceedings. I have knowledge of the matters to which I hereinafter depose except where stated to be based on information or belief and regarding such matters I believe same to be true. All capitalized terms used herein are the same as used and defined by the Petitioners in their prior materials except where noted. When reference is made herein to the "company" it applies to my former employer Wabush Mines.
7. I swear this affidavit:
 - (a) in opposition to the Motion by the Monitor for Directions with respect to Pension Claims dated September 20, 2016 ("Motion for Directions"); and
 - (b) in support of the transfer of certain issue(s) regarding the interpretation of the deemed trust priority provisions in the Newfoundland Pension Benefits Act, 1997,

Affidavit of Terence Watt, December 14, 2016 (cont'd)

SNL c. P-4.01 (the "NPBA") (the "Newfoundland PBA Deemed Trust") to the Supreme Court of Newfoundland and Labrador for adjudication.

Personal and Work Background

8. I started working with Wabush Mines at the Scully Mine location in Labrador in April, 1969. At first I was working in Plant Engineering, where I was responsible for housing construction for the Wabush townsite. After a series of promotions from Plant Engineer to Mine Engineer to Mine Foreman, in 1980, I became a Mine Superintendent, and worked in that position for 15 years until 1995. As indicated above, I remained employed at Wabush Mines for 30 years, working as a Technical Assistant to the Resident Manager of Scully Mine in my last four years of employment.
9. I have spent the majority of my working life in Newfoundland and Labrador.
10. I retired from Wabush Mines on April 30, 1999. I am now 72 years old and, like all other retirees of Wabush Mines, am highly dependent on my post-employment benefits and pension benefits for my everyday living expenses.

The Employment Contract, Salary, Pensions and Benefits

11. In consideration for my 30 years of service with the company, I had a contract of employment in which Wabush Mines paid and I earned wages and a salary, other employment benefits such as health benefits (payable during employment and after my retirement), and a pension.

12. For my employment service with the company, I earned the following compensation:
- (a) Pension Benefits. I am a pensioner member of the Salaried Plan. Attached as Exhibit "REPS-2" is a copy of the Salaried Plan text. Section 4.02 of the Salaried Plan text directs the Employer (the Wabush CCAA Parties) to file the latest actuarial valuation report with the Newfoundland pension regulatory authority and Revenue Canada. Attached as Exhibit "REPS-3" are copies of the Annual Information Return for the 2013 and 2014 plan year, respectively, which are also filed with the Newfoundland pension regulatory authority.
 - (b) Health Benefits. I earned an entitlement to post-retirement health benefits including Major Medical Benefits, Life Insurance, Hospital Expense Insurance, and Travel Insurance. The company is obliged to contribute the cost of the premiums necessary to maintain these benefits, "for as long as you live".
13. I have reviewed documentation relating to the Salaried Pension Plan, which indicate that:
- (a) the Plan is registered in the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador;
 - (b) the Plan has been funded and administered in accordance with the NPBA and its Regulations since their inception;
 - (c) the actuarial reports have been and continue to be prepared in accordance with the NPBA;
 - (d) the Plan has been, and continues to be, regulated by the Newfoundland Superintendent of Pensions, pursuant to the provisions of the NPBA; and

- (e) the Plan is to be interpreted pursuant to the laws applicable in the province of Newfoundland (pursuant to section 12.06 of the Salaried Plan text, which is attached hereto as Exhibit "REPS-2").
14. The Salaried Members are both a significant and vulnerable stakeholder group. There are over 600 Salaried Members impacted by these CCAA Proceedings, in addition to the union retirees.
15. I have received a copy of the most recent Actuarial Valuation Report on the Salaried Pension Plan as at January 1, 2014 (attached hereto as Exhibit "REPS-4"), which discloses the membership breakdown of the Salaried Pension Plan totaling 695 Salaried Members as of that date, as follows:
- (a) 188 active and disabled employees in the Salaried Plan located predominantly in Newfoundland and Labrador, and Québec;
 - (b) 324 retired members and beneficiaries in payment of a monthly pension, located across Canada and elsewhere; and
 - (c) 183 transferred and terminated vested members, located across Canada and elsewhere.
16. On December 6, 2016, I received updated data from Morneau Shepell, the actuarial consulting firm who was appointed by the Newfoundland Superintendent of Pensions on March 30, 2016 as the replacement pension plan administrator, in respect of the membership breakdown of the Wabush Mines employees and retirees in each jurisdiction, as follows:

Salaried Plan	Union Plan
• Federal – 14	• Federal – 66

The NPBA Deemed Trust in favour of pension plan beneficiaries

17. The Wabush pension plans are significantly underfunded. On August 14, 2015, Representative Counsel wrote to the Company and other parties asserting that the deemed trust provisions in the NPBA apply in favour of the Salaried Pension Plan pension plan beneficiaries and as such, that the amounts that are subject to the trust (i.e., unpaid employer contribution) are not available for distribution to other creditors. Attached as Exhibit "REPS-5" is a copy of the said correspondence.

18. On December 16, 2015, the Newfoundland Superintendent of Pensions declared that the Salaried Plan be terminated effective on that date. Attached as Exhibit "REPS-6" is a copy of the letter dated December 16, 2015 from the Superintendent to Cliffs Natural Resources, in its capacity as the Plan administrator.

19. On January 26, 2016, the retirees received a letter from Wabush Mines notifying them that, due to the underfunding in the pension plans, the Newfoundland Superintendent of Pensions has directed Wabush Mines to reduce the amount of monthly benefits being paid to all retirees. Attached hereto as Exhibit "REPS-7" is a copy of said letter received by another Representative, Michael Keeper. The monthly benefits of the Salaried Plan retirees (including my own) have been reduced by 25% and those of the Union Plan retirees by 21%, to my knowledge and belief.

20. The reduction of retirees' monthly pension benefits, coupled with the loss of their health and life insurance benefits, has caused very significant financial hardship for myself and, as I have been told countless times by different people, for other Salaried and former unionized Wabush Mines retirees as well.
21. I am advised and believe that on November 16, 2015, at the hearing of the motion by the Monitor for approval of the Claims Procedure Order, our Representative Counsel Mr. Andrew J. Hatnay of Koskie Minsky LLP and Mr. Nicholas Scheib of Étude Légale Scheib, indicated in court that it is the Representatives' position that any issue(s) regarding the interpretation of the Newfoundland PBA Deemed Trust should be referred to the Supreme Court of Newfoundland and Labrador for adjudication. There was no decision made on that issue at the time, nor was a decision sought.

The Monitor's Motion for Directions

22. The Monitor filed a motion returnable on September 20, 2016 seeking:

*...directions with respect to the priority of Pension claims filed by the Plan Administrator...and the applicability and scope of deemed trusts under the Pension Benefits Standards Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. 32 (2nd Supp.) (PBSA) and the Newfoundland & Labrador Pension Benefits Act, S.N.L. 1996, c. P-401 (PBA)...*¹(emphasis added) (the "Monitor's Motion for Directions").

23. The Monitor's Motion for Directions seeks to have certain questions prepared by the Monitor concerning the priority of the various components of the Salaried DB Plan Claim and the Union DB Plan Claim, including questions involving the interpretation of the Newfoundland PBA Deemed Trust, put before the Superior Court of Québec and not the Newfoundland Court.
24. I disagree both with the approach adopted by the Monitor and its formulation of its questions. On October 7, 2016, Representative Counsel filed our Notice of Objection to the Monitor's Motion for Directions on our behalf. The Notice of Objection repeats that it is the Representatives' positions that any issue(s) regarding the interpretation of the NPBA Deemed Trust should be referred to the Supreme Court of Newfoundland and Labrador for adjudication. Attached hereto as Exhibit "REPS-8" is a copy of said Objection.
25. Morneau Shepell also filed a Notice of Objection objecting to the Monitor's Motion for Direction, including objections that there should be resolution between the affected parties with respect to the appropriate forum for the adjudication of any NPBA Deemed Trust issues.
26. The NPBA deemed trust is a critical remedy for the members of the Wabush Pension Plans to help relieve us from financial hardship caused by the underfunding of the Plans by Wabush Mines.
27. I and the other Representatives have been contacted by many Salaried Members and USW retirees, who have told us that they want to have the issue(s) regarding the interpretation of the NPBA Deemed Trust be referred to the Supreme Court of Newfoundland and Labrador for adjudication.

28. I understand that the Newfoundland Superintendent of Pensions and Graham Letto, the Member of the House of Assembly to Labrador West, are also in support of a transfer to Supreme Court of Newfoundland and Labrador in respect of any issue(s) regarding the interpretation of the NPBA Deemed Trust.

AND I HAVE SIGNED:

TERENCE WATT

SOLEMNLY AFFIRMED before me in Toronto, the Province of Ontario, this 14th day of December 2016.

The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties and the Wabush CCAA Parties will be referred to collectively herein as the “CCAA Parties”.
3. The Bloom Lake Stay Period and the Wabush Stay Period (together, the “Stay Period”) have been extended from time to time and currently expire on June 30, 2017.

14. The only items in the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties forecast are interest earned and legal and professional fees. Accordingly, and consistent with the April 24 Forecast, the forecast has not been presented on a weekly basis as such presentation would provide no relevant information.
15. The forecast for the Wabush CCAA Parties has been prepared assuming that Scully Mine Transaction does not close and the Wabush Mine is abandoned effective July 28, 2017. The forecast includes the payment of accrued vacation pay and severance and termination payments for the remaining employees and has been presented on a weekly basis until July 28, 2017. Consistent with the presentation of the Bloom Lake forecast, the Wabush forecast has not been presented on a weekly basis thereafter as such presentation would provide no relevant information.
16. Of the approximately $6.1 million of restructuring professional fees included in the June 20 Forecast, an estimated amount of approximately $3.4 million relates to amounts already incurred.

CURRENT STATUS OF ASSETS REALIZATIONSSEPT-ILES HOUSES

17. As previously reported, certain amounts from the proceeds of sale of the eight employee houses located in Sept-Iles were held in escrow in respect of potential withholding tax liabilities. Since the date of the Monitor's Thirty-First Report, final assessments of federal and provincial withholding tax liabilities have been received by the Wabush CCAA Parties and the amounts owing have been paid. Compliance certificates have been issued by the relevant taxation authorities.
18. All remaining amounts held in escrow in connection with withholding taxes have now been released.

CONDITIONAL SALE EMPLOYEE HOMES

19. Since the date of the Thirty-Fourth Report, two sales of Conditional Sale Employee Homes have closed. Two further sales are pending closing. Eight Conditional Sale Employee Homes remain occupied pursuant to the terms of the respective conditional sale agreements and the Wabush CCAA Parties continue to collect the amounts payable under those agreements.

THE MONT-WRIGHT CAMP TRANSACTION

20. Outstanding post-filing amounts owing to ArcelorMittal in respect of the Mont-Wright Camp were paid pursuant to a mutual release agreement between, inter alios, CQIM and ArcelorMittal dated as of May 5, 2017, that released all remaining claims and the Mont-Wright Camp Transaction closed on May 16, 2017.

THE WABUSH MINE

21. The Sale Approval Motion in respect of the Scully Mine Transaction is scheduled to be heard on June 26, 2017. Details of the Scully Mine Transaction and the Monitor's recommendation in respect of the Sale Approval Motion are set out in the Monitor's Thirty-Seventh Report.
22. The Replacement Financial Assurance Condition Date of the Scully Mine APA is now June 25, 2017. While at the date of this Report the Purchaser's RFA Condition has not been satisfied or waived, the Purchaser has informed the Monitor that it currently anticipates that it will shortly be in position to satisfy or waive the Purchaser's RFA Condition.

POTENTIAL TAX REFUNDS

23. As previously reported, the CCAA Parties have been seeking refunds in respect of Québec taxes and mining duties. A refund of approximately $7.2 million was received on behalf of Bloom Lake LP on May 1, 2017. Based on the assessments received and the claims filed by Revenu Québec in the Claims Procedure, the Monitor estimates that further refunds totalling approximately $7.9 million are due relating to pre-filing periods. Revenu Québec has a number of claims in the Claims Procedure which could give rise to potential set-off against the refunds.

INSURANCE CLAIM PROCEEDS

24. As set out in the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report, certain of the CCAA Parties executed an Insurance Settlement relating to a spill that occurred at the Pointe-Noire Facility prior to September 1, 2013. The proceeds of the Insurance Settlement were received on April 28, 2017.

THE CRA ITA AUDIT

25. In the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report, the Monitor reported that on April 18, 2017, counsel to the CCAA Parties informed the Monitor that the CCAA Parties, with the assistance of their counsel, had been dealing with the CRA ITA Audit and various requests for information by CRA in connection therewith. The Monitor further reported that it had requested copies of the correspondence from CRA and of the responses provided to CRA.
26. Counsel to the CCAA Parties has now provided electronic copies of correspondence from CRA and the CCAA Parties' responses thereto. The Monitor has requested further details regarding any requests by the CRA for which responses have not yet been provided by the CCAA Parties and any follow up requests by CRA.
27. The Monitor has requested that it be consulted on future activities regarding the CRA ITA Audit.

29. The claims in progress are summarized as follows:

- (a) Eight claims by three creditors are municipal tax claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $64.4 million. As previously reported, the CCAA Parties have identified and are pursuing a number of potential opportunities for municipal tax contestation that, based on current estimates, could result in reductions of approximately $17 million in pre-filing claims if successful;

- 12 -

- (b) 1,932 claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $293.4 million² are claims of former employees in respect of OPEBs and other employment related amounts, of which 843 claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $126 million are filed on a joint and several basis against two of the CCAA Parties;
- (c) Six claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $164.8³ million are claims related to the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan and the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan, with claims of approximately $54.9 million in the aggregate being filed on a joint and several basis against three of the Wabush CCAA Parties;
- (d) 75 claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $4.7 billion are Related Party Claims⁴; and
- (e) Five claims by two creditors in the aggregate amount of approximately $161.2 million are pending further review by the Monitor, which review has been deferred pending the outcome of efforts to sell the Wabush Mine. Of this amount, $149.2 million relates to three claims of one creditor, each in the amount of approximately $49.7 million, related to environmental claims in respect of the Wabush Mine, which claims were filed on a joint and several basis against three of the Wabush CCAA Parties.

² Since the previous report, it has been clarified that 843 claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $126 million are being advanced not just against Wabush Mines but also on a joint and several basis against Arnaud Railway or Wabush Lake Railway, thereby increasing the overall number and value of claims reported.

³ Updated to reflect the amounts shown in the wind-up reports.

⁴ Excluding the Related Party Claim relating to subordinated Note Y discussed in the Monitor's Twenty-Fourth Report.

Related Party Claims

30. As previously reported, the Monitor is in the process of preparing a separate report on the current status of the review of the Related Party Claims and its findings to date. While the Monitor had hoped to be able to file that report prior to the expiry of the Stay Period on June 30, 2017, the completion of the report has been delayed because of the efforts to negotiate the Scully Mine APA and file the Sale Approval Motion. The Monitor will endeavour to file that report in July.

Secured Claims

31. As previously reported, Secured Claims include:
- (a) A Related Party Claim for advances made by Cliffs Mining Company (“CMC”) to the Wabush CCAA Parties prior to the CCAA Proceedings (the “CMC Secured Claim” and the related security being the “CMC Security”);
 - (b) Claims relating to the Key Bank Facility (the “Key Bank Claims” and the related security being the “Key Bank Security”);
 - (c) Claims of CNR as guarantor under the Key Bank Facility and assignee and/or subrogor of the Key Bank Claims (the “CNR Key Bank Claims” and the related security being the “CNR Key Bank Security”);
 - (d) Claims of creditors holding a registered legal hypothec for construction (the “Construction Hypothec Claims”);
 - (e) Claims filed by the pension administrators in respect of the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan and the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan;
 - (f) Claims filed in respect of environmental obligations; and
 - (g) Claims filed in respect of unpaid property taxes.

32. Previous reports of the Monitor have included details of the independent opinions on the validity and enforceability of the CMC Security, the Key Bank Security and the CNR Key Bank Security. The determination of the value of the security for these Claims is pending the approval of the Allocation Motion.
33. The quantum of all except one Construction Hypothec Claim, as noted below, has been finally determined in accordance with the provisions of the Claims Procedure Order. The status of the adjudication of the validity of the security of the Construction Hypothec Claims, in each case subject to the allocation of proceeds and costs of realization as discussed elsewhere in this Report, is as follows:
- (a) Sixteen Construction Hypothec Claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $32.6 million have been allowed as secured claims;
 - (b) Three Construction Hypothec Claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $0.9 million have been allowed as unsecured claims as the Monitor issued Notices of Revision or Disallowance in respect of the validity of the security, which notices were not disputed;
 - (c) Three Construction Hypothec Claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $4 million are in dispute as to the validity of security as the claimants filed Notices of Dispute in response to the Notices of Revision or Disallowance in respect of the validity of the security issued by the Monitor;
 - (d) One Construction Hypothec Claim in the amount of approximately $0.2 million is in dispute as to quantum and the validity of security as the claimant filed a Notice of Dispute in response to the Notices of Revision or Disallowance in respect of both aspects of the Construction Hypothec Claim; and

- (e) The determination of three Construction Hypothec Claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $1.1 million remain under review in respect of the validity of the security.

Pension Claims

34. As reported in the Monitor's Thirty-First Report, Morneau Shepell, the replacement administrator of the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan and the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan (the "Pension Administrator") filed wind-up reports quantifying the wind-up deficits of the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan and the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan as at December 16, 2016 as $27,450,000 and $27,486,548 respectively. As at the date of this Report, the wind-up reports have not yet been approved by the relevant regulators. No timeline for such approval has been provided to the Monitor.
35. Also as reported in the Monitor's Thirty-First Report, on September 21, 2016, the Monitor filed a motion for advice and directions with respect to the potential priority of the various aspects of the pension plan claims (the "Pension Priority Motion"). The Court heard representations in respect of jurisdictional matters, including the request by certain parties that aspects of the Pension Priority Motion be transferred to the Newfoundland court and determined that no aspect of the Pension Priority Motion was to be transferred to the Newfoundland court. The Pension Priority Motion is now scheduled to be heard on June 28 and 29, 2017.

OPEB Claims

36. The Monitor continues to work with Representative Counsel, the USW and their actuary to determine the appropriate basis of the calculation of the OPEB claims. The calculation methodology will be applied consistently across the group of claimants.

37. Following its review of the methodology and underlying assumptions used by Representative Counsel, the USW and their actuary in their calculation of the OPEB claims, the Monitor requested that the calculations be run with amendments to some assumptions. The Monitor is awaiting the output of those calculations from the actuary of the Representative Counsel and the USW in order to formulate its preliminary adjudication of the OPEB claims. It is expected that the actuary will be able to provide the revised calculations by June 30, 2017.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND REFERENCE

38. The Newfoundland Reference refers the following questions (the “Reference Questions”) to the Newfoundland and Labrador Court of Appeal (the “Newfoundland COA”), as set out in Order in Council 2017-013 issued on March 27, 2017:
- (a) The Supreme Court of Canada has confirmed in Sun Indalex Finance, LLC v. United Steelworkers, 2013 SCC 6, that, subject only to the doctrine of paramountcy, provincial laws apply in proceedings under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, RSC 1985 c. C-36. What is the scope of section 32 of the Pension Benefits Act, 1997, SNL 1996, cP-4.01 deemed trusts in respect of:
 - (i) Unpaid current service costs;
 - (ii) Unpaid special payments; and,
 - (iii) Unpaid wind-up liability?
 - (b) The Salaried Plan is registered in Newfoundland and Labrador and regulated by the Pension Benefits Act, 1997.

- (i) Does the federal Pension Benefits Standards Act, R.S.C. 1985, c-32 deemed trust also apply to those members of the Salaried Plan who worked on the railway (i.e., a federal undertaking)?
 - (ii) If yes, is there a conflict with the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 and Pension Benefits Standards Act? If so, how is the conflict resolved?
 - (iii) Does the Quebec Supplemental Pension Plans Act, CQLR, c. R-15.1 also apply to those members of the Salaried Plan who reported for work in Quebec?
 - (iv) If yes, is there a conflict with the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 and the Quebec Supplemental Pensions Plan Act? If so, how is the conflict resolved?
 - (v) Do the Quebec Supplemental Pension Plans Act deemed trusts also apply to Quebec Salaried Plan members?
- (c) Is the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 lien and charge in favour of the pension plan administrator in section 32(4) of the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 a valid secured claim in favour of the plan administrator? If yes, what amounts does this secured claim encompass?
39. As previously reported, on May 15, 2017, the Monitor filed a Notice of Intention to Intervene in the Newfoundland Reference, together with an application with the Newfoundland COA (the “Monitor’s Reference Application”) for an order granting the following relief:
- (a) That, pursuant to Rule 31 (2) of the Civil Appeal Rules, the May 5 Reference Order be reheard by a panel of the Newfoundland COA; and

- (b) That paragraph 5 of the May 5 Reference Order⁵ be stayed until full argument can be heard with respect to the timing and scope of the Newfoundland Reference.
40. During the latest Court hearing held on May 31, 2017, Mr. Justice Hamilton stated:

“I also have problem with the Newfoundland Reference. The Newfoundland reference is as it currently stands is very broad and clearly infringes upon my jurisdiction. It's not up to me to tell the Newfoundland Court that but the Newfoundland Court current reference in my view is far too broad and the result of that is going to be that after I hear the parties in June, I have a choice. I can either render my judgment without waiting for Newfoundland to render its judgment or I can wait for the Newfoundland judgment. And if the Newfoundland judgment is going to deal with issues that are within my jurisdiction, I have absolutely no interest in waiting for their judgment because then I'm going to be told that Newfoundland has already decided these issues and if there's going to be a contradiction between the two judgments, I just assume that their judgment be the contradictory one, not mine.

So the result of all of that is that unless the Newfoundland Court narrows its focus to what in my view would be appropriate focus, I have absolutely no interest in waiting for their judgment and therefore I'm not sure what, I'm not sure on what basis I would be authorizing a broader mandate for the employees to participate in the process which isn't going to have much use to anybody because they'll render a judgment that will come after mine and that will be of no assistance to me and that will have no effect with respect to these proceedings.”

41. The Monitor's Reference Application was heard as part of the status hearing in respect of the Newfoundland Reference that took place on June 9, 2017 (the “Reference Status Hearing”).
42. The Newfoundland COA issued a ruling, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix B, following the Reference Status Hearing holding that, inter alia:
 - (a) The Newfoundland COA did not yet consider itself in a position to determine the extent to which, if at all, it should decline to answer one or more of the Reference Questions:
 - (b) Generally speaking, the questions posed on a reference should not be directed at determining parties' rights and that the CCAA Court will determine those rights;
 - (c) In determining the parties' rights, the CCAA Court may or may not advert to or apply the opinion of the Newfoundland COA provided in the Newfoundland Reference; and
 - (d) The parties may make submissions as to whether the Newfoundland COA should decline to answer a question, or any part thereof, or narrow the scope of a question as part of submissions made at the hearing of the Newfoundland Reference.
43. The Newfoundland COA also issued an amended timetable for perfection of the Newfoundland Reference at the Reference Status Hearing as follows:

- 20 -

- (a) June 30, 2017 - Filing of record and Notice of Constitutional Questions by any participant to be filed and delivered;
 - (b) July 26, 2017 – Factum of Superintendent of Pensions Newfoundland and Labrador to be filed;
 - (c) August 2, 2017 – Factum of Representative Counsel to be filed;
 - (d) August 23, 2017 – Facta of Attornies General of Canada and Québec and of other intervenors to be filed;
 - (e) September 8, 2017 – Factum of Attorney General of Newfoundland and Labrador to be filed; and
 - (f) September 21 and 22, 2017 – Hearing of Newfoundland Reference.
44. Given the comments of Mr. Justice Hamilton and the acknowledgment of the Newfoundland COA that the CCAA Court has jurisdiction to determine the Pension Priority Motion, there is arguably no benefit from the estate funds being expended on the continued participation of the Monitor or the Wabush CCAA Parties in the Newfoundland Reference.
45. Representative Counsel has informed the Monitor that it will be seeking funding from the Government for participation in the Newfoundland Reference and that it will not be seeking funding from the Wabush CCAA Parties for the purposes of continuing to participate in the Newfoundland Reference.
46. Pursuant to paragraph 5 of the Rep Counsel Order, the appointment of the Representatives is “for the purpose of representing the Salaried Members in these CCAA proceedings and in particular with respect to proving, settling or compromising the rights and claims of the Salaried Members in these CCAA proceedings” (emphasis added).

47. Pursuant to paragraph 6 of the Rep Counsel Order, the appointment of Representative Counsel is with the mandate “to provide assistance to the Salaried Members so that the Salaried Members are able to participate in the CCAA proceedings and the restructuring process in a more efficient manner” (emphasis added).
48. The Newfoundland Reference is not part of the CCAA Proceeding nor part of the restructuring process. Accordingly, it is not clear to the Monitor under what mandate or on what authority the Representatives and Representative Counsel purport to represent the Salaried Members for the purposes of the Newfoundland Reference.
49. The Monitor does have some concern that the Newfoundland COA may not be given a balanced view of the facts and circumstances if Representative Counsel participates in the Newfoundland Reference and the Monitor, or the Wabush CCAA Parties, do not. Accordingly, the Monitor continues to assess the whether it and/or the Wabush CCAA Parties should continue to participate in the Newfoundland Reference.

THE 2014 REORGANIZATION

50. As noted in the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report, the Monitor has commenced “without prejudice” discussions with legal counsel to CNR and its non-filed affiliates (“CNR Counsel”) with respect to the 2014 Reorganization and its effect on the CQIM estate and its creditors with a view to agreeing the factual matrix of the 2014 Reorganization and any potential claim arising therefrom, identifying any areas of dispute and determining the process for bringing any claim or proposed settlement forward for consideration by the stakeholders and the Court.

51. Since the date of the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report, such discussions have continued. CNR Counsel has provided a summary of calculations, prepared by or for CNR, of the value at various dates of the Australian subsidiaries transferred from CQIM as part of the 2014 Reorganization and the Monitor is now commencing the process of undertaking due diligence on those calculations.
52. Subject to Court approval, CNR and the Monitor have entered into a "tolling agreement" with respect to any statutory limitation periods related to any claims or actions that may arise from the 2014 Reorganization or from any other transactions involving the non-filed related parties and the CCAA Parties in order that there is no concern that any statutory limitation periods may expire while the Monitor's investigations and discussions with CNR Counsel continue. A copy of the tolling agreement dated June 21, 2017 (the "2014 Reorg Tolling Agreement"), is attached hereto as Appendix C.
53. The Monitor intends to file a motion for approval of the 2014 Reorg Tolling Agreement, returnable as soon as possible.

THE ALLOCATION MOTION

54. The Allocation Motion is described in the Monitor's Thirty-Sixth Report and was originally returnable on May 31, 2017.
55. Notices of objection in respect of the Allocation Motion were filed by the following parties (the "Objecting Parties"):
- (a) The USW;
 - (b) The Representatives;
 - (c) The Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions;
 - (d) The Superintendent of Pensions of Newfoundland and Labrador;

- (e) The Pension Administrator; and
 - (f) The City of Vermont.
56. As a result of the filing of the notices of objection, the Allocation Motion was adjourned to June 26, 2017.
57. Each of the Objecting Parties other than the City of Vermont has now confirmed to the Monitor that it has withdrawn its objection.

ESTIMATED RANGES OF POTENTIAL DISTRIBUTIONS

58. At paragraph 69 of its Thirty-Fourth Report, the Monitor provided a summary of its estimate of the ranges of potential distributions to unsecured creditors from the estates of each of the CCAA Parties based on the information available at that time.
59. The Monitor has now updated its estimates based on the information currently available with respect to costs and realizations to date, the current status of claims and assumptions regarding potential future realizations. No amounts have been included in the estimates for any amounts that might be recoverable in respect of the 2014 Reorganization. The estimate utilizes the allocation methodology set out in the Allocation Motion. The current estimate of the ranges of potential distributions to unsecured creditors from the estates of each of the CCAA Parties, assuming that the Related Party Claims other than Note Y (which by its terms is subordinated) are valid as filed, are summarized below:

	Low	High
Bloom Lake LP	1.82%	2.03%
Bloom Lake GP	0.00%	0.00%
CQIM	2.38%	2.76%
Quinto Mining	54.78%	61.08%
Arnaud Railway	0.00%	20.07%
WICL	0.00%	1.07%
Wabush Lake Railway	0.00%	1.00%
Wabush Mines ¹	0.00%	0.00%
WRI	0.00%	2.60%

¹Wabush Mines is an unincorporated joint venture, accordingly it has no assets or liabilities of its own and distributions would be through the joint venturers, WICL and WRI

THE MFC LITIGATION

THE MFC ROYALTY LITIGATION

60. Pursuant to the December 4 Order, the Wabush CCAA Parties have made deposits of $812,250 with the Monitor in December 2015, January 2016, April 2016, July 2016, October 2016, January 2017 and April 2017 for amounts potentially payable in respect of the Minimum Royalty Payment.
61. The MFC Royalty Litigation is scheduled to be heard on July 19, 20 and 21, 2017.

THE MFC LIFT STAY MOTION

62. The MFC Lift Stay Motion seeks the lifting of the stay of proceedings in order for MFC to terminate the MFC Sub-Lease. The MFC Lift Stay Motion is scheduled to be heard on June 26, 2017.

63. As described in the Monitor's Thirty-Seventh Report, the Vendors have filed the Sale Approval Motion, returnable June 26, 2017, seeking approval of the Scully Mine Transaction, including the assignment of the MFC Sub-Lease. As set out in the Monitor's Thirty-Seventh Report, the Monitor is of the view that the approval of the Scully Mine Transaction is in the best interests of the creditors of the Vendors and of the Vendors' stakeholders generally and the Monitor supports the Vendors' request for approval of the Scully Mine Transaction.
64. If the Purchaser's RFA Condition is satisfied and the Scully Mine Transaction is approved by the Court, as requested by the Vendors and recommended by the Monitor, it is the Monitor's view that the MFC Lift Stay Motion must necessarily be denied as the assignment of the MFC Sub-Lease is a condition precedent to the Scully Mine Transaction.
65. The Monitor will provide its position with respect to the MFC Lift Stay Motion in the circumstance where the Purchaser's RFA Condition is not satisfied or the Scully Mine Transaction is not approved by the Court if such circumstance arises.

REQUEST FOR AN EXTENSION OF THE STAY PERIOD

66. The Stay Period currently expires on June 30, 2017. Additional time is required for the CCAA Parties and the Monitor to complete the CCAA Proceedings, including the following activities:
- (a) Closing the Scully Mine Transaction, if the conditions to closing are satisfied and the Scully Mine Transaction is approved by the Court;
 - (b) If the Scully Mine Transaction does not close and is terminated, disclaiming the MFC Sub-Lease and abandoning the balance of the assets associated with the Scully Mine;
 - (c) Continuing to address, to the extent necessary and appropriate, the CRA ITA Audit;

- 26 -

- (d) Resolving the MFC Litigation by way of agreement among the parties or, if not so resolved, to proceed with the hearing currently scheduled for July 19, 20 and 21, 2017;
 - (e) Participating, to the extent necessary and appropriate, in the Newfoundland Reference; and
 - (f) Completing the investigation of the 2014 Reorganization and the effect thereof and determining what, if any, action should be taken with respect thereto;
 - (g) Completing the Claims Procedure;
 - (h) Determining, subject to Court approval, an appropriate mechanism to effect distributions to creditors, whether by way of plan of arrangement, distribution order or otherwise;
 - (i) Completing the other activities described in this Report; and
 - (j) Undertaking the other activities necessary to complete the CCAA Proceedings.
67. The continuation of the stay of proceedings is necessary to provide the stability needed to complete the foregoing activities. Accordingly, the CCAA Parties now seek an extension of the Stay Period to November 30, 2017.
68. The June 20 Forecast demonstrates that, subject to the underlying assumptions thereof, the CCAA Parties have sufficient liquidity to fund the CCAA Parties' operations and the CCAA Proceedings during the requested extension of the Stay Period.

69. The CCAA Proceedings are complex and various aspects of the CCAA Parties are intertwined. The co-ordination of the various estates is, in the Monitor's view, critical to maximize efficiency and effectiveness. It is also the Monitor's view that a continuation of the CCAA Proceedings is, at the current time, the most efficient and effective way that such co-ordination can be achieved and that the proceedings can be completed for the benefit of all stakeholders. The Monitor will continue to work with the CCAA Parties to endeavour to ensure that cost efficiency is maximized during any extension of the Stay Period.
70. Based on the information currently available, the Monitor believes that creditors of the CCAA Parties would not be materially prejudiced by an extension of the Stay Period to November 30, 2017.
71. The Monitor also believes that the CCAA Parties have acted, and are acting, in good faith and with due diligence and that circumstances exist that make an extension of the Stay Period appropriate.
72. The Monitor therefore respectfully recommends that this Honourable Court grant the CCAA Parties' request for an extension of the Stay Period to November 30, 2017. The Monitor intends to provide a status report on the progress of matters mid-way through the extension of the Stay Period, if the request for the extension is granted.

THE ALDERON MOTION

73. As noted earlier in this Report, the Alderon Motion seeks an Order of the Court compelling the Wabush CCAA Parties to use their best efforts to obtain from the Government the Government Reports and to communicate the Government Reports to Alderon, the Monitor and the Court.

74. Alderon attempted to obtain the Government Reports through a request (the “AITPP Request”) pursuant to the Access to Information and Privacy Protection Act. The Government declined to provide the Government Reports. It is the Monitor’s understanding that the denial of the AITPP Request was not appealed.
75. As described in Confidential Appendix D to the Monitor’s Thirty-Third Report, the Monitor informed the Court that on March 17, 2017, counsel to Alderon wrote to counsel for the Monitor asking whether the Monitor was aware of certain economic viability studies in respect of the Wabush Mine that Alderon believed the Government had obtained, including the Government Reports.
76. On March 21, 2017, counsel to the Monitor responded to counsel to Alderon and advised, inter alia, that:
- (a) The Monitor and the Wabush CCAA Parties were not aware of the alleged Government Reports, and
 - (b) The Monitor did not believe that there was any need to obtain the Government Reports for the purposes of the Wabush Mine Sale Procedure.
77. Alderon is neither a creditor of any of the CCAA Parties nor a stakeholder in the CCAA Proceedings. To the best of the Monitor’s knowledge, Alderon’s only connection to the CCAA Proceedings is as an unsuccessful bidder in the Wabush Mine Sale Procedure⁶. Accordingly, it is unclear what standing Alderon has to bring the Alderon Motion.

⁶ The deposit submitted in the Wabush Mine Sale Procedure in respect of the Kami Proposal has been returned.

78. Regardless, the Monitor remains of the view that the Government Reports have no relevance to the Wabush Mine Sale Procedure or to the CCAA Proceedings generally. The Monitor is also of the view that there is no apparent circumstance where the Government Reports be of any assistance to the CCAA Parties, the Monitor or the Court.
79. Accordingly, the Monitor recommends that the Alderon Motion be dismissed.

THE REP COUNSEL FEE MOTION

80. As noted earlier in this Report, the Rep Counsel Fee Motion seeks an Order providing inter alia for the payment by the Wabush CCAA Parties of legal costs of Representative Counsel of up to $40,000 per month for the period July 1 to November 30, 2017, to a maximum of $200,000 in the aggregate upon the rendering of sufficiently detailed accounts (subject to reasonable redaction due to solicitor-client privilege) to the Wabush CCAA Parties and subject to such invoices being approved by the Monitor.
81. The Rep Counsel Order appointed Koskie Minsky LLP (“KM”) and Nicholas Scheib together as Representative Counsel. It is the Monitor’s understanding that the inclusion of Mr. Scheib as part of Representative Counsel was to ensure that Representative Counsel had the necessary Québec law expertise and French language skills, neither of which KM could provide.
82. The Monitor has been informed by Mr. Scheib that he intends to take steps to terminate his appointment under the Rep Counsel Order. The Monitor has concerns about the loss of Québec law expertise and French language skills to Representative Counsel, which concerns it has discussed with KM. KM has informed the Monitor that it is seeking alternative Québec based counsel to replace Mr. Scheib.

83. The Monitor continues to be of the view that the involvement of Representative Counsel is beneficial. The Monitor has no objection to the cap on legal fees proposed in the Rep Counsel Fee and Scope Motion, noting that actual costs must be validly incurred in accordance with the June 22 Rep Order.
84. The Monitor does not consider that the continued participation of Representative Counsel in the Newfoundland Reference is necessary for it to fulfil its mandate under the Rep Counsel Order and does not consider it appropriate for the Wabush CCAA Parties to fund any costs of Representative Counsel in respect of the Newfoundland Reference.
85. As noted earlier in this Report, Representative Counsel has informed the Monitor that it will not seek funding by the Wabush CCAA Parties of any costs in respect of the Newfoundland Reference. The Monitor recommends that if the Court grants the Rep Counsel Fee Motion, the resultant order should specifically exclude any funding of legal fees, disbursements and taxes of Representative Counsel related to the Newfoundland Reference or any other proceedings outside the CCAA Court, unless specifically approved by further Order of the Court.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS on January 27, 2015 an order (as amended from time to time, the "Bloom Lake Initial Order") under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. Limited, Wabush Resources Inc., Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway Company, and Wabush Lake Railway Company Limited (collectively, the "Wabush CCAA Parties") by the Court;

WHEREAS the Monitor has commenced "without prejudice" discussions with legal counsel to the Cliffs Parties with respect to the 2014 Reorganization and its effect on the CQIM estate and its creditors with a view to agreeing the factual matrix of the 2014 Reorganization and discussing any potential claims arising therefrom or from other transactions involving the Cliffs Parties and the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties or the Wabush CCAA Parties (the "Potential Claims");

WHEREAS the Cliffs Parties and the Monitor have mutually agreed to defer initiating legal proceedings or, in the case of the Monitor, taking any steps necessary to authorize or provide the required legal capacity to commence such proceedings with regards to the Potential Claims while settlement discussions are continuing; and

WHEREAS the Cliffs Parties and the Monitor (on its own behalf and on behalf of any trustee in bankruptcy that may be appointed over any of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties and for any other person on whose behalf the Monitor may be authorized by the Court to commence a proceeding or pursue a claim) wish to suspend the running of any unexpired limitation periods existing in respect of the Potential Claims and all defences, counterclaims and cross-claims connected with or that otherwise might be pleaded in any action related to any of the Potential Claims;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Cliffs Parties and the Monitor intending to be legally bound, and in consideration of their mutual covenants herein, agree as follows:

1. Nothing herein shall be construed as an admission of liability by the Cliffs Parties.
2. Cliffs Parties hereby renounce and waive the benefit of any time limitation period or delay defence, whether established by law, statute, regulation, at common law, in equity or otherwise, which is applicable to any of the Potential Claims and which has, may have begun to run or which may begin to run at a future date and which has not elapsed as of the Effective Date but only for the period that commences six months prior to the Effective Date and ends on the Effective Date (the "Renunciation Period"). Cliffs Parties further agree that in defending any suit or suits that may be filed by any holder of a Potential Claim (including, without limitation, the Monitor, on its own behalf or on behalf of any other person as may be authorized by the Court, or any trustee in bankruptcy that may be appointed over any of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, or any creditor of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties) with respect to the Potential Claims, they will not plead, assert or raise in any manner whatsoever any time-related defence based, in whole or in part, upon any time limitation period or part thereof that includes the renunciation of the Renunciation Period.
3. The entering into of this Agreement by the Cliffs Parties is not an acknowledgement or admission that there is or could be any merit to any of the Potential Claims. Cliffs Parties shall not be deemed by this Agreement to have waived, and this Agreement shall be without prejudice to, any defences, counterclaims and cross-claims to any and all claims that may be asserted by any holder of a Potential Claim (including, without limitation, the Monitor, on its own behalf or on behalf of any other person as may be authorized by the Court, or any trustee in bankruptcy that may be appointed over any of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, or any creditor of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties) other than those time-related defences waived pursuant to this Agreement, or to have waived any claim or defence of any nature other than those time-related defences waived pursuant to this Agreement in respect of any person or entity that is not a party to this Agreement with respect to the Potential Claims.
4. Nothing herein shall be construed as preventing any holder of a Potential Claim, (including, without limitation, the Monitor, on its own behalf or on behalf of any other person as may be authorized by the Court, or any trustee in bankruptcy that may be appointed over any of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, or any creditor of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties) from commencing or permitting or causing to commence, at any time whatsoever and in its sole discretion, directly or indirectly, alone or in concert with others, any action, suit or proceeding of any kind against Cliffs Parties.

5. Any party to this Tolling Agreement may terminate its participation in this Tolling Agreement on twenty-one (21) days' notice by providing written notice of its intention to terminate its participation in this Tolling Agreement to the other parties.
6. This Agreement binds the parties, their successors and assigns and any subsidiary or affiliated corporation or body corporate, as those terms are defined in the CBCA, excluding the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties and the Wabush CCAA Parties.
7. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced according to the laws of the Province of Québec and the laws of Canada in force in the Province of Québec.
8. Each of the parties hereto expressly and irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of the Province of Québec sitting in the judicial district of Montréal solely with respect to this Agreement but without prejudice to the right of any party to this agreement or any holder of a Potential Claim to argue jurisdictional issues in respect of a Potential Claim.
9. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original, but all such separate counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument. Any such counterpart may be delivered by facsimile, telecopier, email in PDF format or similar transmission and if so delivered shall be deemed to be an original document.
10. Each Party represents and warrants to the other that it has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement to perform its obligations and that this Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by it and constitutes a valid and binding obligation, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.
11. CNR is signing this Agreement on behalf of all of its subsidiaries.
12. The Monitor intends to seek authority to sign this Agreement and approval of this Agreement from the Court as soon as possible on a nunc pro tunc basis. The CNR Parties agree that they will consent to any such Order of the Court, including any portion of such Order that confirms the benefits of this Agreement extend to any holder of a Potential Claim, (including, without limitation, the Monitor, on its own behalf or on behalf of any other person as may be authorized by the Court, or any trustee in bankruptcy that may be appointed over any of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, or any creditor of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties).
13. The creditors, any trustee in bankruptcy and the stakeholders of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties or any party on whose behalf the Monitor may be authorized by the Court to commence a proceeding in respect of a Potential Claim are the intended third party beneficiaries of this Agreement.
14. The parties hereto acknowledge that they have requested that this Agreement be drawn up in the English language. Les parties aux présentes reconnaissent avoir requis que la présente entente soit rédigée en anglais.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement, effective as of the date first mentioned above.

THIRTY-SIXTH REPORT TO THE COURT
SUBMITTED BY FTI CONSULTING CANADA INC., IN ITS CAPACITY AS MONITOR

INTRODUCTION

1. On January 27, 2015, Bloom Lake General Partner Limited (“Bloom Lake GP”), Quinto Mining Corporation (“Quinto”), 8568391 Canada Limited and Cliffs Québec Iron Mining ULC (“CQIM”) (collectively, the “Bloom Lake Petitioners”) sought and obtained an initial order (as amended, restated or rectified from time to time, the “Bloom Lake Initial Order”) under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”) from the Superior Court of Québec (the “Court”), providing for, inter alia, a stay of proceedings against the Bloom Lake Petitioners until February 26, 2015, (the “Bloom Lake Stay Period”) and appointing FTI Consulting Canada Inc. as monitor (the “Monitor”). The relief granted in the Bloom Lake Initial Order was also extended to The Bloom Lake Iron Ore Mine Limited Partnership (“Bloom Lake LP”) and Bloom Lake Railway Company Limited (together with Bloom Lake LP, the “Bloom Lake Mises-en-Cause” and together with the Bloom Lake Petitioners, the “Bloom Lake CCAA Parties”). The proceedings commenced under the CCAA by the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties will be referred to herein as the “CCAA Proceedings”.

2. On May 20, 2015, the CCAA Proceedings were extended to include Wabush Iron Co. Limited (“WICL”), Wabush Resources Inc. (“WRI” and together with WICL, the “Wabush Petitioners”), Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company Limited (collectively the “Wabush Mises-en-Cause” and together with the Wabush Petitioners, the “Wabush CCAA Parties”) pursuant to an initial order (as amended, restated or rectified from time to time, the “Wabush Initial Order”) providing for, inter alia, a stay of proceedings against the Wabush CCAA Parties until June 19, 2015, (the “Wabush Stay Period”) and approving an interim financing term sheet dated May 19, 2015 (as amended, the “Interim Financing Term Sheet”), providing an interim facility of up to US$10 million (the “Interim Financing”). The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties and the Wabush CCAA Parties will be referred to collectively herein as the “CCAA Parties”.
3. The Bloom Lake Stay Period and the Wabush Stay Period (together, the “Stay Period”) have been extended from time to time and currently expires on June 30, 2017.
4. On April 17, 2015, Mr. Justice Hamilton J.S.C. granted an Order (the “SISP Order”) approving, as it relates to the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, a sale and investor solicitation process (as may be amended from time to time, the “SISP”) involving the business and assets of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties. The SISP was subsequently amended and restated to reflect the inclusion of the Wabush CCAA Parties in the CCAA Proceedings and was approved nunc pro tunc as it relates to the Wabush CCAA Parties pursuant to an Order granted June 9, 2015 (together with the April 17, 2015 Order, the “SISP Order”).
5. On June 22, 2015, Mr. Justice Hamilton J.S.C. granted an Order (the “June 22 Rep Order”) inter alia:

- (a) Appointing Michael Keeper, Terence Watt, Damin Lebel and Neil Johnson as representatives (the “Representatives”) of the Salaried Members (as defined in the June 22 Rep Order); and
 - (b) Appointing Koskie Minsky LLP and Nicholas Scheib (collectively “Representative Counsel”) as legal counsel to the Representatives.
6. On November 5, 2015, Mr. Justice Hamilton J.S.C. granted an Order approving a procedure for the submission, evaluation and adjudication of claims against the CCAA Parties and their current and former directors and officers (as amended, the “Claims Procedure Order”).
7. To date, the Monitor has filed thirty-five reports in respect of various aspects of the CCAA Proceedings. The purpose of this, the Monitor's Thirty-Sixth Report (this “Report”), is to provide information to the Court with respect to:
- (a) The April 24 Forecast, as defined in the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report;
 - (b) The CRA ITA Audit, as defined in the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report;
 - (c) The reference of certain questions to the Supreme Court of Newfoundland and Labrador (Court of Appeal) (the “Newfoundland COA”) by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador pursuant to Orders in Council 2017-103 and 2017-137 (the “Newfoundland Reference”) and the Monitor's activities and position with respect thereto;
 - (d) The current status of the Wabush Mine Sale Procedure, as defined in the Monitor's Thirty-Second Report;

- (e) The CCAA Parties' motion (the "Allocation Motion") for an Order, inter alia:
 - (i) Approving the allocation methodology to be applied with respect to proceeds of realization and the costs of the CCAA Proceedings (the "Allocation Methodology");
 - (ii) Authorizing the repayment of the amount of approximately $4.1 million in inter-company funding advanced by Bloom Lake LP to CQIM since the start of the CCAA Proceedings pursuant to the provisions of the Bloom Lake Initial Order; and
 - (iii) Authorizing the payment of certain amounts owing in respect of property taxes, claims for which are secured on the proceeds of realization of the applicable real property; and
- (f) Representative Counsel's motion (the "Rep Counsel Fee and Scope Motion") for an Order:
 - (i) Authorizing the payment by the Wabush CCAA Parties of the legal costs of the Salaried Members; and
 - (ii) Amending the June 22 Rep Order to include activities related to the Newfoundland Reference.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

8. In preparing this Report, the Monitor has relied upon unaudited financial information of the CCAA Parties, the CCAA Parties' books and records, certain financial information prepared by the CCAA Parties and discussions with various parties (the "Information").

9. Except as described in this Report:
 - (a) The Monitor has not audited, reviewed or otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the Information in a manner that would comply with Generally Accepted Assurance Standards pursuant to the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada Handbook; and
 - (b) The Monitor has not examined or reviewed financial forecasts and projections referred to in this Report in a manner that would comply with the procedures described in the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada Handbook.
10. The Monitor has prepared this Report in connection with the Allocation Motion and the Rep Counsel Fee and Scope Motion, each returnable May 31, 2017. The Report should not be relied on for other purposes.
11. Future oriented financial information reported or relied on in preparing this Report is based on management's assumptions regarding future events; actual results may vary from forecast and such variations may be material.
12. Unless otherwise stated, all monetary amounts contained herein are expressed in Canadian Dollars. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings defined in the Bloom Lake Initial Order, the Wabush Initial Order or previous reports of the Monitor.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

13. Capitalized terms used in the Executive Summary are as defined in the relevant section of the Report.
14. With respect to the Allocation Motion, the Monitor:

- (a) Is of the view that the proposed Allocation Methodology is appropriate, fair and reasonable in the circumstances and supports the CCAA Parties' request for approval of the proposed Allocation Methodology:
 - (b) Supports the CCAA Parties' request for authorization to repay the Bloom Lake Inter-Company Funding; and
 - (c) Supports the CCAA Parties' request for authorization to pay from the net proceeds of sale of real estate, after the application of the Allocation Methodology, outstanding property taxes that are not in dispute or otherwise contested, provided that there exists no competing claim which may rank equal or higher than such property taxes.
15. With respect to the Rep Fee and Scope Motion, the Monitor:
- (a) Has no objection to the cap on legal fees proposed in the Rep Counsel Fee and Scope Motion, noting that actual costs must be validly incurred in accordance with the June 22 Rep Order; and
 - (b) Has no objection to the proposed amendment of the June 22 Rep Order to include the Newfoundland Reference, though reserves the right to raise objections to the appropriateness and reasonableness of any fees incurred in respect of the Newfoundland Reference by Representative Counsel given the Monitor's position with respect to the Newfoundland Reference.

THE APRIL 24 FORECAST

16. Paragraph 18 of the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report stated:

"18. The Monitor has been assisting the CCAA Parties in the preparation of the April 24 Forecast. Completion of the April 24 Forecast has been delayed pending counsel to the CCAA Parties finalizing its forecast of legal costs for the period. The April 24 Forecast will be filed with the Court once it is completed.”

17. Since the date of the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report, the Monitor has followed up several times regarding the forecast of legal costs for the period. Despite these efforts, the Monitor has not yet been provided a forecast of the CCAA Parties legal costs for its review and, accordingly, the April 24 Forecast has not yet been completed. Counsel to the CCAA Parties has informed the Monitor that the forecast of legal costs for the period will be provided by no later than May 31, 2017.

THE CRA ITA AUDIT

18. The CRA ITA Audit was discussed at paragraphs 40 to 42 of the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report. Paragraph 42 of the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report stated:

“42. On the call on April 20, 2017, the Monitor requested copies of the correspondence from CRA and of the responses provided to CRA. To date, those documents have not been provided to the Monitor.”
19. Counsel to the CCAA Parties subsequently confirmed that copies of the correspondence from CRA and of the responses provided to CRA would be provided but that redactions would, in their view, be necessary as the documents include information relating to non-CCAA Parties.
20. On May 25, 2017, counsel to the CCAA Parties provided redacted copies of the correspondence from CRA and the responses provided to CRA.

21. As the documents were only received on the eve of this Report, the Monitor has not yet reviewed the documents and, accordingly, is unable to provide any further update at this time or any comment on the potential implications of the CRA ITA Audit, if any, on the estates of the CCAA Parties.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND REFERENCE

22. The Newfoundland Reference refers the following questions to the Newfoundland COA (the “Reference Questions”), as set out in Order in Council 2017-013 issued on March 27, 2017:

- (a) The Supreme Court of Canada has confirmed in Sun Indalex Finance, LLC v. United Steelworkers, 2013 SCC 6, that, subject only to the doctrine of paramountcy, provincial laws apply in proceedings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, RSC 1985 c. C-36. What is the scope of section 32 of the Pension Benefits Act, 1997, S.N.L. 1996, c. P-4.01 deemed trusts in respect of:
- (i) Unpaid current service costs;
 - (ii) Unpaid special payments; and,
 - (iii) Unpaid wind-up liability?
- (b) The Salaried Plan is registered in Newfoundland and regulated by the Pension Benefits Act, 1997.
- (i) Does the Pension Benefits Standards Act, R.S.C. 1985, c-32 deemed trust also apply to those members of the Salaried Plan who worked on the railway (i.e., a federal undertaking)?

- (ii) If yes, is there a conflict with the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 and Pension Benefits Standards Act? If so, how is the conflict resolved?
 - (iii) Does the Quebec Supplemental Pensions Plan Act, CQLR, c. R-15.1 also apply to those members of the Salaried Plan who reported for work in Quebec?
 - (iv) If yes, is there a conflict with the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 and the Quebec Supplemental Pensions Plan Act? If so, how is the conflict resolved?
 - (v) Do the Quebec Supplemental Pensions Plan Act deemed trusts also apply to Quebec Salaried Plan members?
- (c) Is the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 lien and charge in favour of the pension plan administrator in section 32(4) of the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 a valid secured claim in favour of the plan administrator? If yes, what amounts does this secured claim encompass?
23. The Monitor has endeavoured to discuss with counsel to the Province the limitation of the Reference Questions to matters of statutory interpretation of section 32 of the Pension Benefits Act, 1997, S.N.L. 1996, c. P-4.01 (the “PBA”) in the abstract without seeking to adjudicate matters that the CCAA Court has already determined will be dealt with in the CCAA Proceedings¹. Counsel to the Province declined to engage in any meaningful discussions in that regard.
24. On May 5, 2017, the Honourable Mr. Chief Justice Green of the Newfoundland COA granted an ex parte Order (the “May 5 Reference Order”), a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix A, inter alia:

¹ The Order of the Honourable Mr. Justice Hamilton granted January 30, 2017 (the “January 30 Jurisdiction Order”), which has not been appealed, addressed various jurisdictional issues and other preliminary objections with respect to the Pension Priority Motion.

- (a) Inscribing the Newfoundland Reference for hearing;
 - (b) Providing for notice of the inscription of the Newfoundland Reference to various parties;
 - (c) Requiring Notices of Intention to Intervene to be filed by May 31, 2017;
 - (d) Providing for publication of newspaper notices by no later than May 26, 2017;
 - (e) Setting the timetable for the perfection of the Newfoundland Reference and disposition of other preliminary matters; and
 - (f) Setting a status hearing for June 9, 2017, to address various matters (the “June 9 Hearing”).
25. On May 9, 2017, counsel to the Monitor wrote to counsel to the Province (the “May 9 Letter”) to formally express its views on the Newfoundland Reference, including the view that the Reference Questions should be limited to the matters relating exclusively to the interpretation of section 32 of the PBA and that all other matters relating to the Wabush CCAA Parties or the Wabush CCAA Proceedings should be dealt with exclusively by the CCAA Court. A copy of the May 9 Letter, without schedules, is attached hereto as Appendix B.
26. On May 15, 2017, the Monitor filed a Notice of Intention to Intervene. Also on May 15, 2017, the Monitor filed an application with the Newfoundland COA (the “Monitor’s Reference Application”) for an order granting the following relief:
- (a) That, pursuant to Rule 31 (2) of the Civil Appeal Rules, the May 5 Reference Order be reheard by a panel of the Newfoundland COA; and

(b) That paragraph 5 of the May 5 Reference Order² be stayed until full argument can be heard with respect to the timing and scope of the Newfoundland Reference.

27. The Monitor's Reference Application, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix C, was returnable May 23, 2017. The Newfoundland COA declined to hear the Monitor's Reference Application on May 23, 2017, and it will now be addressed at the hearing scheduled for June 9, 2017.

STATUS OF POTENTIAL TRANSACTION FOR SALE OF WABUSH MINE

28. An update with respect to the potential sale of the Wabush Mine was last provided in the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report. In the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report, it was reported that the Wabush CCAA Parties, in consultation with the Monitor, were in the process of endeavouring to negotiate a mutually acceptable asset purchase agreement.

29. Since the date of the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report, the parties have made considerable progress with efforts to negotiate a mutually acceptable asset purchase agreement. While no agreement has been executed at the date of this Report and there is no certainty that an agreement will be executed, the Monitor is optimistic that an agreement will be executed in the near future. Further details of the current state of affairs with respect to the negotiation of a mutually acceptable asset purchase agreement are set out in Confidential Appendix D.

30. If an agreement of purchase and sale is executed, the Monitor will provide details of the agreement, any conditions precedent and its recommendation on the proposed transaction in connection with any motion for approval of such transaction by the CCAA Parties.

² Paragraph 5 of the May 5 Reference Order provides for the publication of newspaper notices.

THE ALLOCATION MOTIONBACKGROUND

31. As the Court is aware, various approval and vesting orders issued in the CCAA Proceedings specifically provide that the transactions were approved without prejudice to the rights of creditors to object to the allocation of proceeds. Accordingly, prior to any distribution to creditors it is necessary to obtain a final determination of the appropriate allocation of the proceeds of realizations among each of the CCAA Parties and amongst various asset classes.
32. As is common in CCAA proceedings involving groups of related companies, many of the costs incurred by the CCAA Parties during the CCAA Proceedings have been shared costs for the benefit of each of the CCAA Parties which would have been difficult, if not impossible, to specifically allocate.
33. As each of the CCAA Parties are separate legal entities with separate creditor constituencies³, it is necessary to provide for an appropriate, fair and reasonable allocation of costs in order to ensure that creditors of one CCAA Party are not prejudiced as compared to the creditors of other CCAA Parties. Accordingly, it is necessary for an appropriate allocation of the costs of the CCAA Proceedings among each of the CCAA Parties and amongst various asset classes to be determined.
34. As noted in its Thirty-First Report, the Monitor provided its recommendation for a proposed allocation methodology to the CCAA Parties and that recommendation was under consideration by the CCAA Parties.
35. The CCAA Parties have informed the Monitor that they have reviewed and considered the allocation methodology proposed by the Monitor and agree that it represents a fair and reasonable approach. Accordingly, the CCAA Parties have now filed the Allocation Motion seeking approval of the Allocation Methodology.

³ Other than Wabush Mines JV, which as an unincorporated joint venture, is not a legal entity.

THE ALLOCATION METHODOLOGY

36. The proposed allocation methodology was developed by the Monitor on a principled basis with a view to enabling proceeds of realization and the costs of the CCAA Proceedings to be allocated on a fair and reasonable basis consistent with the allocation methodology approved in other CCAA proceedings⁴. The Proposed Allocation Methodology is as follows:

- (a) Realizations from transactions would be allocated amongst specific assets and specific CCAA Parties as set out in each transaction agreement, which, in each case, are the allocations proposed by an arm's length purchaser;
- (b) Non-transaction related realizations specifically attributable to a CCAA Party would be allocated to that CCAA Party. For example cash on hand at the commencement of the CCAA Proceedings and collection of accounts receivable;
- (c) Non-transaction related realizations not specifically attributable to a CCAA Party would be allocated pro-rata based on total realizations. For example, interest on funds held by the Monitor;
- (d) Costs specifically attributable to an asset or asset category would be applied to that asset or category. For example, railcar storage fees would be applied against railcar proceeds;
- (e) Costs specifically attributable to a CCAA Party would be allocated to that CCAA Party. For example, Bloom Lake mine and Wabush Mine direct operating costs would be allocated to BLLP and to Wabush Mine JV respectively;

⁴ Including the CCAA proceedings of Timminco Limited and Bécancour Silicon Inc.

- (f) Costs not specifically attributable to a CCAA Party would be allocated pro-rata based on net realizations after specifically attributable costs. For example, costs of management and legal and professional costs. Within this category, legal and professional fees billed on the Bloom Lake accounts will be allocated amongst the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, legal and professional fees billed on the Wabush accounts will be allocated amongst the Wabush CCAA Parties and legal and professional fees billed on the joint Bloom/Wabush accounts will be allocated amongst all of the CCAA Parties; and
 - (g) As the Wabush Mines joint venture is not a legal entity, it does not have assets and liabilities in its own right. Accordingly any realizations and costs notionally allocated to Wabush Mines in the foregoing steps would be allocated to the joint venturers, WICL and WRI, based on their respective joint venture interests.
37. The Monitor has not included details of the calculation of the effect of the application of the proposed Allocation Methodology in this Report as the Monitor is of the view that the Allocation Methodology should be considered on a principled basis, without reference to the result for any specific creditor. The Monitor does note however, that the estimates of the potential range of distributions to unsecured creditors of each of the CCAA Parties provided at paragraph 69 of the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report were calculated applying the proposed Allocation Methodology.
38. The Monitor is of the view that the proposed Allocation Methodology is appropriate, fair and reasonable in the circumstances and supports the CCAA Parties' request for approval of the proposed Allocation Methodology.

REPAYMENT OF INTER-COMPANY FUNDING

39. As previously reported in several of the Monitor's reports, most recently in the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report, the amount of approximately $4.1 million in inter-company funding has been advanced by Bloom Lake LP to CQIM since the start of the CCAA Proceedings pursuant to the provisions of the Bloom Lake Initial Order (the "Bloom Lake Inter-Company Funding").
40. The provisions of the various approval and vesting orders granted in respect of sales that have generated sale proceeds require that such proceeds be held by the Monitor pending further Order of the Court. Accordingly, an Order of the Court is required to allow the repayment of the Bloom Lake Inter-Company Funding.
41. If the Allocation Methodology is approved, CQIM will have sufficient funds to repay the Bloom Lake Inter-Company Funding. Failure to repay the Bloom Lake Inter-Company Funding would be detrimental to the interests of the creditors of Bloom Lake LP and would provide a wind-fall benefit to the creditors of CQIM.
42. Accordingly, the Monitor supports the CCAA Parties' request for authorization to repay the Bloom Lake Inter-Company Funding.

DISBURSEMENT OF PROCEEDS TO PAY PROPERTY TAXES

43. As the Court is aware, pre- and post-filing amounts are outstanding in respect of property taxes accruing to the closing date of various transactions involving the sale of real estate. Those amounts have statutory priority on the proceeds of the realization of the real estate to which they relate, subject to any valid deemed trust in respect of the Pension Claims.

44. The provisions of the various approval and vesting orders granted in respect of sales that have generated sale proceeds require that such proceeds be held by the Monitor pending further Order of the Court. Accordingly, an Order of the Court is required to allow disbursement of sale proceeds on account of priority property tax claims. The CCAA Parties now seek an Order authorizing the payment from the net proceeds of sale of real estate, after the application of the Allocation Methodology, of outstanding property taxes that are not in dispute or otherwise contested, provided that there exists no competing claim which may rank equal or higher than such property taxes⁵.
45. Various claims for property taxes have been made by the Ville de Fermont and the Ville de Sept Iles. Those claims include both pre- and post-filing amounts, amounts relating periods subsequent to the closing of the sale of the real estate which have been assumed by the relevant purchaser, interest and amounts subject to contestation or appeal as discussed in earlier reports of the Monitor. In addition, if the contestations and appeals are successful, refunds may be owing to the CCAA Parties, creating a potential amount that may be set-off against the amounts owing. The aggregate amounts of the claims as currently understood by the Monitor are summarized as follows:

	Ville de Fermont		Ville de Sept Iles
	Bloom Lake GP	Bloom Lake LP	CQIM	WRI	Wabush Mines	Arnaud
	$000	$000	$000	$000	$000	$000
Principal	24,144.7	24,693.5	4,787.6	4,557.5	26.7	600.8
Interest	2,270.0	2,317.2	252.2	226.1	1.4	31.5
Disputed amounts	(23,325.8)	(23,635.8)	(2,111.1)	(5,594.6)	(15.4)	(269.8)
Undisputed Amount	3,088.9	3,374.9	2,928.7	(811.0)	12.7	362.5

⁵ For greater certainty, including any potential deemed trust claims in respect of the Pension Plans.

46. In addition to the amounts set out above, approximately $124,000 is claimed as owing by the Town of Wabush in respect of property taxes related to properties in the Town of Wabush.
47. The claims of Ville de Sept Iles and the Town of Wabush against WRI, WICL, Wabush Mines and Arnaud Railway Company are subject to potential priority claims in respect of the Pension Plans. Accordingly, no amounts would be paid on account of such claims until the Pension Priority Motion has been finally determined.
48. If the Allocation Methodology is approved and the request for authorization to make payments in respect of undisputed property tax claims is granted, it is anticipated that net proceeds from the sale of real estate, after allocation of costs, would be available to make payments to Ville de Fermont and Ville de Sept Iles in respect of their claims against Bloom Lake LP and CQIM respectively. No amount would be paid on account of the claim of Ville de Fermont against Bloom Lake GP as there are no proceeds of sale of real estate in Bloom Lake GP.
49. The specific amount of such payments can only be calculated once the Allocation Methodology has been approved and up to date billing information has been obtained in respect of the costs of the CCAA Proceedings. Accordingly, it is not possible at this time to calculate the specific amounts that would be available for payment. However, based on current estimates, the Monitor expects that if the Allocation Motion is granted, there would be sufficient net proceeds after application of the Allocation Methodology to pay the undisputed amount of the claim of Ville de Fermont against Bloom Lake LP in part and to pay the undisputed amount of the claim of Ville de Sept Iles against CQIM in full.

50. The Monitor supports the CCAA Parties' request for authorization to pay from the net proceeds of sale of real estate, after the application of the Allocation Methodology, outstanding property taxes that are not in dispute or otherwise contested, provided that there exists no competing claim which may rank equal or higher than such property taxes. Any payment would be made first on account of the principal amount of any pre-closing post-filing amount owing, secondly on account of the principal amount of any pre-filing amount owing and thirdly on account of any interest validly accrued on the secured claims.

REP COUNSEL FEE AND SCOPE MOTION

51. Payment of legal costs of Rep Counsel was last approved by the Court in an Order granted October 28, 2016 (the "October 28 Rep Fee Order"). The October 28 Rep Fee Order provided for payment by the Wabush CCAA Parties of the legal fees, taxes and disbursements of Representative Counsel for the period October 1, 2016, to January 31, 2017, up to an amount of $35,000 per month in legal fees subject to a total cap for such legal fees of $140,000.
52. The Rep Counsel Fee and Scope Motion seeks an Order:
- (a) Authorizing the payment by the Wabush CCAA Parties of the legal fees of the Salaried Members for the period to January 31, 2017, that were in excess of the cap on such fees in the October 28 Rep Fee Order;
 - (b) Authorizing the payment by the Wabush CCAA Parties of the legal costs of the Salaried Members for the period February 1 to June 30, 2017, up to an amount of $40,000 per month in legal fees subject to a total cap for such legal fees of $200,000; and
 - (c) Amending the June 22 Rep Order to include activities related to the Newfoundland Reference.

53. Legal fees of Representative Counsel for the period October 1, 2016, to January 31, 2017, were $154,165.00, $14,165.00 in excess of the total cap provided for in the October 28 Rep Fee Order.
54. Representative Counsel has informed the Monitor that legal fees incurred in the period February 1 to April 30, 2017, total $41,853.50, leaving a balance of $158,146.50 against the proposed overall cap on legal fees for the period.
55. Paragraphs 5 and 6 of the June 22 Rep Order state:

5. GRANTS the motion of the Petitioners-Mises-en-cause (the "Representatives") appointing them as representatives of all salaried/non-Union employees and retirees of the Wabush CCAA Parties (namely, Wabush Iron Co. Limited, Wabush Resources Inc., Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway company and Wabush Lake Railway Company Limited) or any person claiming an interest under or on behalf of such employees or former employees or pensioners and surviving spouses, or group or class of them (excluding Opt-Out Individuals, as defined below, if any), (collectively, the "Salaried Members"), in these CCAA proceedings, for the purpose of representing the Salaried Members in these CCAA proceedings and in particular with respect to proving, settling or compromising the rights and claims of the Salaried Members in these CCAA proceedings, who shall be bound by the actions of the Representatives and Representative Counsel (as defined below) in these CCAA proceedings;

6. GRANTS the appointment of Koskie Minsky LLP and Nicholas Scheib (collectively, "Representative Counsel") as legal counsel to the Representatives in their capacity as representatives for the Salaried Members in these CCAA proceedings with the mandate to provide assistance to the Salaried Members so that the Salaried

- 20 -

Members are able to participate in the CCAA proceedings and the restructuring process in a more efficient manner, including to assist the Salaried Members in the evaluation of their entitlements and claims in a cost-effective and timely manner;”

56. As discussed earlier in this Report, the Monitor takes that position that the Newfoundland Reference should be limited to matters of statutory interpretation in the abstract, that the Reference Questions should not be specific to the Wabush CCAA Proceedings or the Wabush Pension Plans, and that all matters relevant to the Pension Priority Motion can, and should, be dealt with by the Court in the CCAA Proceedings. The Monitor is of the view that this position is consistent with the January 30 Jurisdiction Order.
57. In the Monitor's view, it is not clear that any costs incurred or to be incurred by Representative Counsel in connection with the Newfoundland Reference fall within the parameters of the June 22 Rep Order and arguably do not do so. Accordingly, the Rep Counsel Fee and Scope Motion seeks to amend the June 22 Rep Order to specifically include costs incurred in respect of the Newfoundland Reference.
58. The Monitor requested that Representative Counsel provide a break-down between the major areas of activity in the CCAA Proceedings of the estimated legal fees for the period February 1 to June 30, 2017, on which the proposed cap was based. The break-down provided by Representative Counsel included $25,000 related to the Newfoundland Reference. Invoices have not been received from Representative Counsel for February, March or April 2017 and additional time related to the Newfoundland Reference could be included in those invoices.
59. The Monitor understands that the CCAA Parties take no position with respect to the Rep Counsel Fee and Scope Motion.

60. The Monitor continues to be of the view that the involvement of Representative Counsel is beneficial. The Monitor has no objection to the cap on legal fees proposed in the Rep Counsel Fee and Scope Motion, noting that actual costs must be validly incurred in accordance with the June 22 Rep Order.
61. With respect to payment of fees of Representative Counsel related to the Newfoundland Reference, the Monitor comments as follows:
- (a) Given the participation of Representative Counsel, the Province of Newfoundland and the regulators of the Wabush Pension Plans in the hearing that resulted in the January 30 Jurisdiction Order, and the fact that the January 30 Jurisdiction Order was not appealed, it is not clear that any fees incurred to date by Representative Counsel related to the Newfoundland Reference were necessary or fall within the scope of the June 22 Rep Order;
 - (b) Given the scope of the May 5 Reference Order, the refusal of the Province to limit the scope of the Reference Questions and the refusal of the Newfoundland COA to hear the Monitor's application prior to the June 9 Hearing, the Monitor understands the desire of Representative Counsel to participate in the June 9 Hearing; and
 - (c) The reasonableness and appropriateness of Representative Counsel participating in the Newfoundland Reference will need to be determined following the June 9 Hearing and the hearing of the Pension Priority Motion scheduled to be heard June 28 and 29, 2017.
62. The Monitor has no objection to the proposed amendment of the June 22 Rep Order to include the Newfoundland Reference, though reserves the right to raise objections to the appropriateness and reasonableness of any fees incurred in respect of the Newfoundland Reference by Representative Counsel given the Monitor's position with respect to the Newfoundland Reference.

Dear Confrère,

In the matter of the plan of compromise or arrangement of: Wabush Iron Co. Limited et al.
S.C.M. 500-11-048114-157

We are writing to you to express our concerns and position in connection with the ex parte order issued on May 5th, 2017 (the May 5th Order) by the Newfoundland & Labrador Court of Appeal in relation to the reference initiated under the authority of Section 13 of the Judicature Act, R.S.N.L. 1990, c. J-4 and in furtherance of Orders in Council 2017-103 and 2017-137 (the Reference).

As you know, we act on behalf of FTI Consulting Canada Inc., in its capacity as court-appointed monitor (the Monitor) to various parties subject to orders issued on January 27th and May 20th, 2015 pursuant to the terms of the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C., c. C-36, as amended (the CCAA) by the Superior Court of Québec, commercial division, for the District of Montreal (the CCAA Court).

For ease of reference, capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this letter shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Monitor's Motion for Directions dated September 20, 2016, as amended on April 13, 2017 (the Motion for Directions), a copy of which is attached as Schedule A.

The May 5th Order and the three (3) questions to be submitted to the Newfoundland & Labrador Court of Appeal by way of the Reference (the Reference Questions), as currently drafted, appear to be inextricably related to the pending proceedings before the CCAA Court in the above-captioned matter, presided and supervised by the Honourable Justice Stephen W. Hamilton, J.S.C. more specifically as they concern the Wabush CCAA Parties (the Wabush CCAA Proceedings). As such, there exists in our view a significant risk that the Reference will be in part duplicative in light of the ongoing Wabush CCAA Proceedings, thereby potentially leading certain interested parties to mistakenly believe that issues relating to the Wabush CCAA Parties are open for adjudication before both the CCAA Court and the Newfoundland & Labrador Court of Appeal. We are concerned that the Reference could amount to a collateral attack of orders previously made by the CCAA Court.

We list in Schedule B hereto various orders issued by the CCAA Court (as supplemented by the relevant Motion records, including the Monitor's reports and exhibits) which in our view could have an impact on or be relevant to the Reference Questions to be put before the Newfoundland & Labrador Court of Appeal.

We have reached out on numerous occasions to you and your colleagues (Philip Osborne and Raylene Stokes) to share our views as to the importance of limiting the scope of the proposed Reference Questions to matters of statutory interpretation in abstracto as they relate to Section 32 of the Pension Benefits Act, 1997, S.N.L. 1996, c. P-4.01 (PBA), without overreaching and veering into the adjudication of the rights of parties already engaged in the Wabush CCAA Proceedings. We have specifically asked to be consulted with respect to the wording of the notices to be sent in connection with the Reference so as to avoid confusion amongst stakeholders and ensure that the Reference process does not run afoul of the current stay of proceedings against the Wabush CCAA Parties or disrupt the conduct of the Wabush CCAA Proceedings.

In this respect, we directed you to paragraph 7 of the Wabush Initial Order, which reads as follows:

ORDERS that, until and including June 19, 2015*, or such later date as the Court may order the (the "Stay Period"), no proceeding or enforcement process in any Court or tribunal (each, a "Proceeding") shall be commenced or continued against or in respect of the CCAA Parties, or affecting the Business operations and activities of the CCAA Parties (the "Business") or the Property, including as provided hereinbelow except with the leave of this Court. Any and all proceedings currently under way against any or in respect of the CCAA Parties or affecting the Business or the Property are hereby stayed and suspended pending further order of this Court, the whole subject to subsection 11.1 CCAA.

*The current Stay Period has been extended and is set to expire on June 30, 2017, subject to further order of the CCAA Court.

The ability of the Monitor to seek directions and the CCAA Court's jurisdiction to hear the Motion for Directions are based on paragraph 68 of the Claims Procedure Order, paragraph 65 of the Wabush Initial Order as well as Sections 9(1) and 11 CCAA, which read as follows:

9.(1) Any application under this Act may be made to the court that has jurisdiction in the province within which the head office or chief place of business of the company in Canada is situated, or, if the company has no place of business in Canada, in any province within which any assets of the company are situated.

11. Despite anything in the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act or the Winding-up and Restructuring Act, if an application is made under this Act in respect of a debtor company, the court, on the application of any person interested in the matter, may, subject to the restrictions set out in this Act, on notice to any other person or without notice as it may see fit, make any order that it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

The CCAA Court issued on January 30th, 2017, its decision (the January 30th Order) with respect to various jurisdictional issues and other preliminary objections raised with respect to the Motion for Directions by several parties, including Her Majesty in Right of Newfoundland, as represented by the Superintendent of Pensions. We attach for your convenience copy of the January 30 Order as Schedule C. The position of the parties in relation to said jurisdictional issues is summarized at paragraphs 23 to 28 of the January 30th Order. In declining to refer any of the issues to the courts with jurisdiction in Newfoundland & Labrador, including specifically the questions as formulated by the representatives of the salaried employees and retirees (at paragraph 25) – which have since been adopted verbatim as the Reference Questions – the CCAA Court relied on well-established precedents that favour a single forum to hear all disputes relating to an insolvent debtor (at paragraphs 29 to 33) and properly exercised its discretion not to seek the assistance of another court on the basis of legal, factual and practical considerations (at paragraphs 39 to 89), including the position of the United Steel Workers representing the unionized pensioners of the Wabush CCAA Parties, which supported the jurisdiction of the CCAA Court and objected to the referral of certain issues before the courts with jurisdiction in Newfoundland & Labrador (at paragraph 80), as well as the fact that a plurality of non-unionized pensioners are residents in the Province of Quebec (at paragraph 77).

Monitor's 36th Report, May 26, 2017 (cont'd)

Rolf Pritchard, Q.C.
May 9, 2017

The January 30th Order was not appealed from, and all interested parties, including Her Majesty in Right of Newfoundland, as represented by the Superintendent of Pensions, have since agreed to debate the merits of the Motion for Directions before the CCAA Court on June 26th and 27th, 2017.

As for the Reference Questions, we have already expressed concerns about the formulation of questions 1 and 3 and the extent to which the Newfoundland & Labrador Court of Appeal will be asked to determine the scope and dollar value of the deemed trusts, liens and charges, that may arise pursuant to Section 32 PBA, as this provision applies to the Pension Plans at stake in the Wabush CCAA Proceedings and more specifically the Motion for Directions. Further, the preamble to question 1 appears unduly argumentative and, in our view, obfuscates the interplay between Section 32 PBA and the applicable provisions of the CCAA and the terms of the orders issued to date in the Wabush CCAA Proceedings.

The foregoing was noted by Mr. Justice Hamilton in the January 30th Order (at paragraph 66), wherein he also pointed out that such a question, inasmuch as the Wabush CCAA Parties are concerned, may well be moot:

Finally, as is typical in these cases, there is a close interplay between the NLPBA and the CCAA. The first question proposed by the representatives of the salaried employees and retirees is: "Assuming there is no issue of paramountcy, what is the scope of section 32 in the NLPBA deemed trusts". The scope of the NLPBA is not relevant if the NLPBA does not apply because of a conflict with the CCAA and federal paramountcy. In that sense, there may not even be a need to deal with the interpretation of the NLPBA.

As previously reported, we also seriously question the appropriateness of seeking the opinion of the courts of another forum than Québec with respect to question 2(b).

Before the issuance of the May 5th Order, we had specifically asked that you consider the possibility of coordinating the Reference with the ongoing Wabush CCAA Proceedings, and had asked to discuss the formulation of the Reference Questions and the wording of the notices, the whole in order to avoid any actual or perceived duplication, inconsistency or contradiction in the parallel processes, to no avail to date. We note that a status hearing is set to take place on June 9, 2017 before the Newfoundland & Labrador Court of Appeal, but are of the view that it will be too late at that point to properly address some of the concerns outlined above.

It is our view that the Monitor and its undersigned attorneys should have been consulted in connection with the May 5th Order and that same should not have been granted on an ex parte basis. We formally reiterate the invitation to discuss the foregoing with you at your earliest convenience, while we continue to contemplate the possibility to raise these issues directly before the CCAA Court and/or the Newfoundland & Labrador Court of Appeal.

We are of the view that the Reference Questions should be limited to the matters relating exclusively to the interpretation of Section 32 PBA and that all other matters relating to the Wabush CCAA Parties or the Wabush CCAA Proceedings should be dealt with exclusively by the CCAA Court.

We would greatly appreciate a reply with respect to the foregoing by the end of the week.

INTRODUCTION

1. On January 27, 2015, Bloom Lake General Partner Limited (“Bloom Lake GP”), Quinto Mining Corporation (“Quinto”), 8568391 Canada Limited and Cliffs Québec Iron Mining ULC (“CQIM”) (collectively, the “Bloom Lake Petitioners”) sought and obtained an initial order (as amended, restated or rectified from time to time, the “Bloom Lake Initial Order”) under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”) from the Superior Court of Québec (the “Court”), providing for, inter alia, a stay of proceedings against the Bloom Lake Petitioners until February 26, 2015, (the “Bloom Lake Stay Period”) and appointing FTI Consulting Canada Inc. as monitor (the “Monitor”). The relief granted in the Bloom Lake Initial Order was also extended to The Bloom Lake Iron Ore Mine Limited Partnership (“Bloom Lake LP”) and Bloom Lake Railway Company Limited (together with Bloom Lake LP, the “Bloom Lake Mises-en-Cause” and together with the Bloom Lake Petitioners, the “Bloom Lake CCAA Parties”). The proceedings commenced under the CCAA by the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties will be referred to herein as the “CCAA Proceedings”.

2. On May 20, 2015, the CCAA Proceedings were extended to include Wabush Iron Co. Limited (“WICL”), Wabush Resources Inc. (“WRI” and together with WICL, the “Wabush Petitioners”), Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company Limited (collectively the “Wabush Mises-en-Cause” and together with the Wabush Petitioners, the “Wabush CCAA Parties”) pursuant to an initial order (as amended, restated or rectified from time to time, the “Wabush Initial Order”) providing for, inter alia, a stay of proceedings against the Wabush CCAA Parties until June 19, 2015, (the “Wabush Stay Period”) and approving an interim financing term sheet dated May 19, 2015 (as amended, the “Interim Financing Term Sheet”), providing an interim facility of up to US$10 million (the “Interim Financing”). The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties and the Wabush CCAA Parties will be referred to collectively herein as the “CCAA Parties”.
3. The Bloom Lake Stay Period and the Wabush Stay Period (together, the “Stay Period”) have been extended from time to time and currently expires on June 30, 2017.
4. On April 17, 2015, Mr. Justice Hamilton J.S.C. granted an Order (the “SISP Order”) approving, as it relates to the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, a sale and investor solicitation process (as may be amended from time to time, the “SISP”) involving the business and assets of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties. The SISP was subsequently amended and restated to reflect the inclusion of the Wabush CCAA Parties in the CCAA Proceedings and was approved nunc pro tunc as it relates to the Wabush CCAA Parties pursuant to an Order granted June 9, 2015 (together with the April 17, 2015 Order, the “SISP Order”).
5. On June 22, 2015, Mr. Justice Hamilton J.S.C. granted an Order (the “June 22 Rep Order”) inter alia:

- (a) Appointing Michael Keeper, Terence Watt, Damin Lebel and Neil Johnson as representatives (the “Representatives”) of the Salaried Members (as defined in the June 22 Rep Order); and
 - (b) Appointing Koskie Minsky LLP and Nicholas Scheib (collectively “Representative Counsel”) as legal counsel to the Representatives.
6. On November 5, 2015, Mr. Justice Hamilton J.S.C. granted an Order approving a procedure for the submission, evaluation and adjudication of claims against the CCAA Parties and their current and former directors and officers (as amended, the “Claims Procedure Order”).
7. To date, the Monitor has filed thirty-three reports in respect of various aspects of the CCAA Proceedings. The purpose of this, the Monitor's Thirty-Fourth Report (this “Report”), is to provide information to the Court with respect to:
- (a) The receipts and disbursements of the CCAA Parties for the period January 14, 2017, to April 14, 2017;
 - (b) The CCAA Parties' revised and extended cash flow forecast for the period April 15 to June 30, 2017 (the “April 24 Forecast”);
 - (c) The current status of the realization of the assets of the CCAA Parties;
 - (d) An audit being carried out by the Canada Revenue Agency (“CRA”) in respect of income tax filings by the CCAA Parties for the tax years 2010 to 2015 (the “CRA ITA Audit”);
 - (e) The progress of the Claims Procedure;
 - (f) The current status of litigation matters;
 - (g) The 2014 Reorganization;

- (h) Allocation issues with respect to proceeds of realization and the costs of the CCAA Proceedings; and
- (i) The current estimates of potential distributions to creditors.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

8. In preparing this Report, the Monitor has relied upon unaudited financial information of the CCAA Parties, the CCAA Parties' books and records, certain financial information prepared by the CCAA Parties and discussions with various parties (the "Information").
9. Except as described in this Report:
 - (a) The Monitor has not audited, reviewed or otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the Information in a manner that would comply with Generally Accepted Assurance Standards pursuant to the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada Handbook; and

10. The Monitor has prepared this Report to provide a status update to the Court, including in respect of progress towards a transaction for the sale of the Wabush Mine, as instructed by Mr. Justice Hamilton J.S.C. and should not be relied on for other purposes.
11. Future oriented financial information reported or relied on in preparing this Report is based on management's assumptions regarding future events; actual results may vary from forecast and such variations may be material.

RECEIPTS & DISBURSEMENTS FOR THE PERIOD TO APRIL 14, 2017

THE BLOOM LAKE CCAA PARTIES

13. The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties' actual cash flow on a consolidated basis for the period from January 14, 2017, to April 14, 2017, excluding proceeds of major asset realizations, was approximately $1.4 million better than the January 20 Forecast, as summarized below:

	Forecast	Actual	Variance
Receipts	275	320	45
Disbursements:
Payroll & Employee Benefits	0	0	0
Other Operating Disbursements	(725)	(29)	696
Operating Cash Flows	(450)	291	741
Restructuring Professional Fees	(2,838)	(2,209)	629
Net Cash Flow	(3,288)	(1,918)	1,370
Asset realizations	0	1,458	1,458
Cash Flow after Asset Realizations	(3,288)	(460)	2,828

14. Explanations for the key variances in actual receipts and disbursements as compared to the January 20 Forecast are as follows:
- (a) The favourable variance of approximately $0.7 million in other operating disbursements is primarily a timing variance arising in respect of an anticipated settlement payment in full and final satisfaction of all amounts owing in respect of the Mont-Wright Camp; and

- (b) The favourable variance of approximately $0.6 million in aggregate restructuring professional fees is comprised of favourable timing variances of approximately $1.0 million offset by unfavourable permanent variances of approximately $0.4 million. Those variances arise as follows:
 - (i) Favourable variances of approximately $0.5 million in the aggregate for the costs of the Monitor and its counsel, of which approximately $0.3 million is a favourable permanent variance and approximately $0.2 million is a timing variance; and
 - (ii) A favourable variance of approximately $0.1 million in the aggregate for the costs of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties' counsel, of which approximately $0.8 million is a favourable timing variance resulting from delays in invoicing, offset by a permanent unfavourable variance of approximately $0.7 million as fees in the period were higher than forecast. Based on the information available to the Monitor, it appears that the significant majority of the permanent unfavourable variance relates to legal fees expended in connection with the CRA ITA Audit, discussed later in this Report.
15. The Bloom Lake Initial Order permits inter-company funding between the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties. Inter-company funding in the amount of approximately $4.1 million had been advanced by Bloom Lake LP to CQIM in the period since the start of the CCAA Proceedings to January 13, 2017. There was no additional inter-company funding advanced in the period January 13, 2017, to April 14, 2017.

THE WABUSH CCAA PARTIES

16. The Wabush CCAA Parties' actual cash flow on a consolidated basis for the period from January 14, 2017, to April 14, 2017, excluding proceeds of major asset realizations, was approximately $1.8 million better than the January 20 Forecast, as summarized below:

	Forecast	Actual	Variance
Receipts	263	948	685
Disbursements:
Payroll & Employee Benefits	(309)	(302)	7
Contractors	(277)	(167)	110
Utilities	(90)	(26)	64
Other Operating Disbursements	(861)	(859)	2
Operating Cash Flows	(1,274)	(406)	868
Restructuring Professional Fees	(2,240)	(1,340)	900
Net Cash Flow	(3,514)	(1,746)	1,768
Asset realizations	0	420	420
Cash Flow after Asset Realizations	(3,514)	(1,326)	2,188

17. Explanations for the key variances in actual receipts and disbursements as compared to the January 20 Forecast are as follows:
- (a) The favourable variance of approximately $0.7 million in receipts is a permanent variance arising from the receipt of sales tax refunds that had not been forecast;
 - (b) The favourable variance of approximately $0.1 million in contractors is a timing variance that is expected to reverse in future periods; and

- (c) The favourable variance of approximately $0.9 million in restructuring professional fees is believed to be comprised of favourable timing variances of approximately $1.3 million that are expected to reverse in future periods combined with unfavourable permanent variances of approximately $0.4 million. Those variances arise as follows:
- (i) Favourable timing variances of approximately $0.2 million in the aggregate for the costs of the Monitor and its counsel;
 - (ii) A favourable variance of approximately $0.5 million in the aggregate for the costs of the Wabush CCAA Parties' counsel, of which approximately $0.9 million is a favourable timing variance resulting from delays in invoicing, offset by a permanent unfavourable variance of approximately $0.4 million as fees in the period were higher than forecast; and
 - (iii) A favourable timing variance of approximately $0.2 million in the costs of Representative Counsel.

THE APRIL 24 FORECAST

18. The Monitor has been assisting the CCAA Parties in the preparation of the April 24 Forecast. Completion of the April 24 Forecast has been delayed pending counsel to the CCAA Parties finalizing its forecast of legal costs for the period. The April 24 Forecast will be filed with the Court once it is completed.

CURRENT CASH BALANCES

19. As previously reported, at the request of the CCAA Parties, the Monitor has been assisting with the administration of receipts and disbursements in order to streamline administration and reporting. All of the CCAA Parties' accounts have now been closed and all transactions are being processed through the Monitor's accounts on behalf of the CCAA Parties. Total cash balances as at April 14, 2017, are summarized below:

	Bloom Lake CCAA Parties	Wabush CCAA Parties	Total
	$000	$000	$000
Held by Monitor
Sale Proceeds Accounts	168	1,735	1,903
Operating Accounts	3,544	3,600	7,144
Minimum Royalty Deposits	0	4,896	4,896
GIC Investments	73,000	60,000	133,000
Total Held by Monitor	76,712	70,231	146,943

*In addition, the Monitor holds deposits submitted by interested parties in the Wabush Mine Sale Procedure

CURRENT STATUS OF ASSETS REALIZATIONSSEPT-ILES HOUSES

20. As previously reported, certain amounts from the proceeds of sale of the eight employee houses located in Sept-Iles were held in escrow in respect of potential withholding tax liabilities. Since the date of the Monitor's Thirty-First Report, final assessments of federal and provincial withholding tax liabilities have been received by the Wabush CCAA Parties and the amounts owing have been paid. Compliance certificates have been issued by the relevant taxation authorities.

21. Approximately $550,000 has been released to the Monitor in respect of amounts held in escrow in connection with federal withholding taxes. Approximately $330,000 is expected to be released shortly to the Monitor in respect of amounts held in escrow in connection with provincial withholding taxes.

EMPLOYEE HOMES

22. In its Thirty-First Report, the Monitor reported that all of the single-family homes that were vacant at the commencement of the CCAA Proceedings had been sold other than one property for which the sale had been agreed but had not yet been completed and the property on which there was an oil spill prior to the CCAA Proceedings. The foregoing pending sale and the sale of the property on which there was an oil spill prior to the commencement of the CCAA Proceedings have now been completed.
23. At the date of the Thirty-First Report, the status of the remaining employee homes was as follows:
- (a) Sales of fifteen Conditional Sale Employee Homes had been agreed and were in progress;
 - (b) The sale of one Conditional Sale Employee Home was being negotiated;
 - (c) Offers for the purchase of the three Vacant Conditional Sale Homes had been accepted, subject to completion of definitive documentation;
 - (d) Ten Conditional Sale Employee Homes whose occupants had not accepted an offer for the early completion of the conditional sale agreements remained occupied pursuant to the terms of the respective conditional sale agreements.

24. Since the date of the Thirty-First Report, a further seventeen sales have closed and four further sales are pending closing. Eight Conditional Sale Employee Homes remain occupied pursuant to the terms of the respective conditional sale agreements and the Wabush CCAA Parties continue to collect the amounts payable under those agreements.

THE MONT-WRIGHT CAMP TRANSACTION

25. Paragraph 35 and 36 of the Monitor's Thirty-First Report stated:

“35. In the absence of any other prospect for the sale of the Mont-Wright Camp, the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, in consultation with the Monitor, took steps to close down the camp and to terminate ongoing obligations with respect thereto. In that regard, the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties:

(a) Engaged a third-party contractor to winterize and close the camp, with the work being completed in the first week of December 2016; and

(b) On November 30, 2016, issued a notice of disclaimer in respect of the Mont-Wright Camp services agreement with ArcelorMittal Mining Canada G.P. (“ArcelorMittal”) pursuant to section 32 of the CCAA, which disclaimer became effective on December 30, 2016.

36. The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, in consultation with the Monitor, are in discussions with ArcelorMittal in respect of the final resolution of amounts owing and other matters in respect of the Mont-Wright Camp.”

- 12 -

26. Subsequent to the date of the Monitor's Thirty-First Report, the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties received a renewed expression of interest from a party that had previously expressed interest in the Mont-Wright Camp. A draft agreement of purchase and sale was provided to the interested party on March 8, 2017 (the "Draft Mont-Wright APA").
27. Preliminary comments and clarification questions on the Draft Mont-Wright APA were provided by counsel to the interested party in a letter dated April 11, 2017. Counsel to the interested party also confirmed that it holds funds necessary for the payment of the proposed purchase price in trust. Responses to the preliminary comments and clarification questions were provided by counsel to the CCAA Parties, in consultation with the Monitor, on April 19, 2017. A discussion between counsel to the CCAA Parties, counsel to the interested party, the Monitor and its counsel took place on April 24, 2017, to seek to resolve outstanding issues.
28. The CCAA Parties, in consultation with the Monitor, have been in discussion with ArcelorMittal regarding the amounts owing to ArcelorMittal in respect of the Mont-Wright Camp. While the post-filing amount to December 30, 2016, has been agreed, certain other matters raised by ArcelorMittal in respect of the Mont-Wright Camp remain outstanding at this time. It is anticipated that the sale of the Mont-Wright Camp may resolve the other matters raised by ArcelorMittal.

TOWN OF WABUSH VACANT LAND

29. As previously reported, the Wabush CCAA Parties own some small parcels of vacant land in the Town of Wabush. Two parties have expressed interest in the vacant land and have been provided information related thereto.

THE WABUSH MINE

30. Updates with respect to the potential sale of the Wabush Mine were provided in the Monitor's Thirty-Second Report and the Monitor's Thirty-Third Report.

- 13 -

31. Since the date of the Monitor's Thirty-Third Report, the Wabush CCAA Parties have received responses to their requests for clarification and additional information from various interested parties. The Wabush CCAA Parties, in consultation with the Monitor, are in the process of endeavouring to negotiate a mutually acceptable agreement of purchase and sale.
32. The Monitor's understanding of the current state of affairs with Interested Party One is set out in Confidential Appendix A.
33. The Monitor's understanding of the current state of affairs with Interested Party Two is set out in Confidential Appendix B.
34. The Monitor's understanding of the current state of affairs with MFC is set out in Confidential Appendix C.
35. The Monitor's understanding of the current state of affairs with Interested Party Four is set out in Confidential Appendix D.
36. While the Monitor is hopeful that the ongoing efforts to sell the Wabush Mine will be successful, there is no certainty that such efforts will lead to a binding agreement for the acquisition of the Wabush Mine.

OTHER WABUSH MOVABLE ASSETS

37. Since the date of the Monitor's Thirty-First Report, no further action has been taken with respect to the other movable assets located at the Wabush Mine as discussions have continued with potential purchasers interested in acquiring the Wabush Mine, as described earlier in this Report.

POTENTIAL TAX REFUNDS

38. Also as previously reported, the CCAA Parties are seeking refunds in respect of Québec taxes and mining duties. The Monitor has been informed that the relevant assessments are now complete. Based on the assessments received and the claims filed by Revenu Québec in the Claims Procedure, the Monitor estimates that refunds totalling approximately $20.7 million are due relating to pre-filing periods. Revenu Québec has a number of claims in the Claims Procedure which could give rise to potential set-off against the refunds.

INSURANCE CLAIM PROCEEDS

39. The CCAA Parties, in consultation with the Monitor, have executed a settlement agreement with respect to the remaining amount recoverable from insurance in respect of an environmental spill that occurred at the Pointe-Noire Facility prior to September 1, 2013 (the “Insurance Settlement”). The Insurance Settlement contains confidentiality provisions that restrict the CCAA Parties from disclosing the amount recoverable at this time.

THE CRA ITA AUDIT

40. On April 18, 2017, counsel to the CCAA Parties informed the Monitor that the CCAA Parties, with the assistance of their counsel, had been dealing with the CRA ITA Audit and various requests for information by CRA in connection therewith.
41. The Monitor had not been previously informed of the CRA ITA Audit. The Monitor therefor requested a briefing call to obtain an explanation of the matter. That call took place on April 20, 2017, and the following explanation was provided:

- 15 -

- (a) In early 2016 CRA requested substantial amounts of information in respect of the income tax returns of the CCAA Parties for the tax years 2010 to 2015;
 - (b) On January 23, 2017, CRA issued formal "requirement in respect of the prior information requests" with a deadline of February 27, 2017 for compliance;
 - (c) Notwithstanding the stay of proceedings provided by the Bloom Lake Initial Order and the Wabush Initial Order, the CCAA Parties were concerned about the potential implications of a failure to comply, including for their directors and officers, and began to prepare responses with the assistance of counsel to the CCAA Parties;
 - (d) In February 2017, counsel to the CCAA Parties requested that the deadline to comply with the requirements be extended to March 31, 2017 on the basis that all items would be substantially complete by that date;
 - (e) While CRA did not formally grant an extension, they did not refuse the request, no further requirements have been received and no notification of legal action has been received from CRA; and
 - (f) Approximately 90% of the information requested has now been provided.
42. On the call on April 20, 2017, the Monitor requested copies of the correspondence from CRA and of the responses provided to CRA. To date, those documents have not been provided to the Monitor.

44. The 1,183 claims in progress are summarized as follows:

- 17 -

- (a) Eight claims by three creditors are municipal tax claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $64.4 million. As previously reported, the CCAA Parties have identified and are pursuing a number of potential opportunities for municipal tax contestation that, based on current estimates, could result in reductions of approximately $17 million in pre-filing claims if successful;
- (b) 1,089 claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $168.8 million are claims of former employees in respect of OPEBs and other employment related amounts;
- (c) Six claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $164.8¹ million are claims related to the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan and the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan, with claims of approximately $54.9 million in the aggregate being filed on a joint and several basis against three of the Wabush CCAA Parties;
- (d) 75 claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $4.7 billion are Related Party Claims²; and
- (e) Five claims by two creditors in the aggregate amount of approximately $161.2 million are pending further review by the Monitor. Of this amount, $149.2 million relates to three claims of one creditor related to environmental claims in respect of the Wabush Mine, which claims were filed on a joint and several basis against three of the Wabush CCAA Parties. The review of these claims has been deferred pending the outcome of efforts to sell the Wabush Mine.

² Excluding the Related Party Claim relating to subordinated Note Y discussed in the Monitor's Twenty-Fourth Report.

Related Party Claims

45. The Monitor is in the process of preparing a separate report on the current status of the review of the Related Party Claims and its findings to date and expects to file that report in the near future.

Secured Claims

46. As previously reported, Secured Claims include:
- (a) A Related Party Claim for advances made by Cliffs Mining Company (“CMC”) to the Wabush CCAA Parties prior to the CCAA Proceedings (the “CMC Secured Claim” and the related security being the “CMC Security”);
 - (b) Claims relating to the Key Bank Facility (the “Key Bank Claims” and the related security being the “Key Bank Security”);
 - (c) Claims of CNR as guarantor under the Key Bank Facility and assignee and/or subrogor of the Key Bank Claims (the “CNR Key Bank Claims” and the related security being the “CNR Key Bank Security”);
 - (d) Claims of creditors holding a registered legal hypothec for construction (the “Construction Hypothec Claims” and the related security being the “Construction Hypothecs”);
 - (e) Claims filed by the pension administrators in respect of the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan and the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan;
 - (f) Claims filed in respect of environmental obligations; and
 - (g) Claims filed in respect of unpaid property taxes.

- 19 -

47. Previous reports of the Monitor have included details of the independent opinions on the validity and enforceability of the CMC Security, the Key Bank Security and the CNR Key Bank Security. The determination of the value of the security for these Claims is pending the allocation of proceeds and costs of realization as discussed elsewhere in this Report.
48. The quantum of all except one Construction Hypothec Claim, as noted below, has been finally determined in accordance with the provisions of the Claims Procedure Order. The status of the adjudication of the validity of the security of the Construction Hypothec Claims, in each case subject to the allocation of proceeds and costs of realization as discussed elsewhere in this Report, is as follows:
- (a) Sixteen Construction Hypothec Claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $32.6 million have been allowed as secured claims;
 - (b) Three Construction Hypothec Claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $0.9 million have been allowed as unsecured claims as the Monitor issued Notices of Revision or Disallowance in respect of the validity of the security, which notices were not disputed;
 - (c) Three Construction Hypothec Claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $4 million are in dispute as to the validity of security as the claimants filed Notices of Dispute in response to the Notices of Revision or Disallowance in respect of the validity of the security issued by the Monitor;
 - (d) One Construction Hypothec Claim in the amount of approximately $0.2 million is in dispute as to quantum and the validity of security as the claimant filed a Notice of Dispute in response to the Notices of Revision or Disallowance in respect of both aspects of the Construction Hypothec Claim; and

- (e) The determination of three Construction Hypothec Claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $1.1 million remain under review in respect of the validity of the security.

Pension Claims

49. As reported in the Monitor's Thirty-First Report, Morneau Shepell, the replacement administrator of the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan and the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan (the "Pension Administrator") filed wind-up reports quantifying the wind-up deficits of the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan and the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan as at December 16, 2016 as $27,450,000 and $27,486,548 respectively.
50. Also as reported in the Monitor's Thirty-First Report, on September 21, 2016, the Monitor filed a motion for advice and directions with respect to the potential priority of the various aspects of the pension plan claims (the "Pension Priority Motion"). The Court heard representations in respect of jurisdictional matters, including the request by certain parties that aspects of the Pension Priority Motion be transferred to the Newfoundland court and determined that no aspect of the Pension Priority Motion was to be transferred to the Newfoundland court. The Pension Priority Motion is now scheduled to be heard on June 28 and 29, 2017.
51. As previously reported to the Court, on March 27, 2017, the Committee of the Executive Council of Newfoundland & Labrador issued an Order in Council³ directing that a reference be brought before the Newfoundland & Labrador Court of Appeal stating the following questions (the "Reference"):
- (a) What is the scope of section 32 of the Pension Benefits Act, 1997, SNL1996 cP-4.01 deemed trusts in respect of:
- (i) Unpaid current service costs;

³OC2017-137

- 21 -

- (ii) Unpaid special payments; and
 - (iii) Unpaid wind-up deficits?
- (b)
- (i) Does the federal Pension Benefits Standards Act, R.S.C. 1985, c-32 deemed trust also apply to those members of the Salaried Plan who worked on the railway (i.e., a federal undertaking)?
 - (ii) If yes, is there a conflict between the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 and Pension Benefits Standards Act?
 - (iii) If so, how is the conflict resolved?
- (c)
- (i) Does the Quebec Supplemental Pension Plans Act, CQLR, c. R-15.1 also apply to those members of the Salaried Plan who reported for work in Quebec?
 - (ii) If yes, is there a conflict with the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 and the Quebec Supplemental Pension Plans Act?
 - (iii) If so, how is the conflict resolved?
- (d) Do the Quebec Supplemental Pension Plans Act deemed trusts also apply to Quebec Salaried Plan members?
- (e)
- (i) Is the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 lien and charge in favour of the pension plan administrator in section 32(4) of the Pension Benefits Act, 1997 a valid secured claim in favour of the plan administrator?
 - (ii) If yes, what amounts does this secured claim encompass?
52. An additional Order in Council was issued on April 20, 2017⁴, authorizing the Court of Appeal to take such evidence as it may require to properly determine the Reference.

⁴ OC2017-137

53. The Monitor has been informed that counsel for the Government of Newfoundland & Labrador (the “Government”) first met with the Chief Justice of Newfoundland & Labrador on April 3, 2017, at which time the Chief Justice instructed counsel for the Government to present an application on an ex parte basis to formally initiate the Reference before the Newfoundland & Labrador Court of Appeal and to deal with procedural, evidentiary and timing issues. The Monitor understands that the application may be presented in the week ended April 29, 2017.
54. The Monitor has been informed that it is possible that a hearing on the Reference could take place before the Newfoundland & Labrador Court of Appeal in mid- to late-September 2017.

OPEB Claims

55. The Monitor continues to work with Representative Counsel, the USW and their actuary to determine the appropriate basis of the calculation of the OPEB claims. The calculation methodology will be applied consistently across the group of claimants.
56. A number of meetings and discussions have taken place with regard to the methodology and underlying assumptions used by Representative Counsel, the USW and their actuary in their calculation of the OPEB claims and information has been provided to the Monitor. The Monitor is still awaiting responses to requests for certain information and support before it can complete its review and make an adjudication of the claims.

LITIGATION UPDATETHE MFC ROYALTY LITIGATION

57. Pursuant to the December 4 Order, the Wabush CCAA Parties have made deposits of $812,250 with the Monitor in December 2015, January 2016, April 2016, July 2016, October 2016, January 2017 and April 2017 for amounts potentially payable in respect of the Minimum Royalty Payment.
58. The MFC Royalty Litigation is scheduled to be heard on June 5, 6 and 7, 2017.

THE MFC LIFT STAY MOTION

59. Following discussions with the CCAA Parties and the Monitor on December 7, 2016, MFC agreed to adjourn the MFC Lift Stay Motion and the parties agreed that the MFC Lift Stay Motion would be heard at the same time as the MFC Royalty Litigation. Accordingly, the MFC Lift Stay Motion is also scheduled to be heard on June 5, 6 and 7, 2017.
60. The MFC Lift Stay Motion included a request for an Order requiring the Monitor to provide to MFC with copies of all proofs of claim filed against the Wabush CCAA Parties by CNR and its related parties. As noted in the Monitor's Thirty-First Report, the CCAA Parties agreed that arrangements could be made to provide MFC's representatives access to review such proofs of claim electronically at MFC's expense.
61. On January 20, 2017, counsel to the Monitor requested confirmation from counsel to MFC that MFC would pay the costs of making the related party proofs of claim available electronically. No response has yet been provided by MFC.

THE 2014 REORGANIZATION

62. The Monitor has commenced “without prejudice” discussions with legal counsel to CNR and its non-filed affiliates (“CNR Counsel”) with respect to the 2014 Reorganization and its effect on the CQIM estate and its creditors with a view to agreeing the factual matrix of the 2014 Reorganization and any potential claim arising therefrom, identifying any areas of dispute and determining the process for bringing any claim or proposed settlement forward for consideration by the stakeholders and the Court.
63. CNR Counsel and the Monitor are planning to meet in the week commencing May 1, 2017, to determine the next steps to address the 2014 Reorganization.

ALLOCATION ISSUES

64. As the Court is aware, various approval and vesting orders issued in the CCAA Proceedings specifically provide that the transactions were approved without prejudice to the rights of creditors to object to the allocation of proceeds. Accordingly, prior to any distribution to creditors it will be necessary to obtain a final determination of the appropriate allocation of the proceeds of realizations among each of the CCAA Parties and amongst various asset classes.
65. Furthermore, it will be necessary for an appropriate allocation of the costs of the CCAA Proceedings among each of the CCAA Parties and amongst various asset classes to be determined.
66. As noted in its Thirty-First Report, the Monitor provided its recommendation for a proposed allocation methodology to the CCAA Parties and that recommendation was under consideration by the CCAA Parties.

67. The Monitor has been encouraging the CCAA Parties to bring a motion for approval of an allocation methodology in order to minimize interest accruing on unpaid secured property tax claims owing by CQIM. Counsel to the CCAA Parties have informed the Monitor that they are considering the recommended allocation methodology with a view to agreeing a proposed methodology with the Monitor and bringing a motion for its approval. Counsel to the CCAA Parties has further informed the Monitor that they hope to be able to provide feedback to the Monitor in the week commencing May 1, 2017.

ESTIMATED RANGES OF POTENTIAL DISTRIBUTIONS

68. At paragraph 174 of its Twenty-Fourth Report, the Monitor provided a summary of its estimate of the ranges of potential distributions to unsecured creditors from the estates of each of the CCAA Parties based on the information available at that time.
69. The Monitor has now updated its estimates based on the information currently available with respect to costs and realizations to date, the current status of claims and assumptions regarding potential future realizations. No amounts have been included in the estimates for any amounts that might be recoverable in respect of the 2014 Reorganization. The estimate utilizes the proposed allocation methodology recommended by the Monitor to the CCAA Parties. The current estimate of the ranges of potential distributions to unsecured creditors from the estates of each of the CCAA Parties, assuming that the Related Party Claims other than Note Y (which by its terms is subordinated) are valid as filed, are summarized below:

INTRODUCTION

1. On January 27, 2015, Bloom Lake General Partner Limited (“Bloom Lake GP”), Quinto Mining Corporation (“Quinto”), 8568391 Canada Limited and Cliffs Québec Iron Mining ULC (“CQIM”) (collectively, the “Bloom Lake Petitioners”) sought and obtained an initial order (as amended, restated or rectified from time to time, the “Bloom Lake Initial Order”) under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”) from the Superior Court of Quebec (the “Court”), providing for, inter alia, a stay of proceedings against the Bloom Lake Petitioners until February 26, 2015, (the “Bloom Lake Stay Period”) and appointing FTI Consulting Canada Inc. as monitor (the “Monitor”). The relief granted in the Bloom Lake Initial Order was also extended to The Bloom Lake Iron Ore Mine Limited Partnership (“Bloom Lake LP”) and Bloom Lake Railway Company Limited (together with Bloom Lake LP, the “Bloom Lake Mises-en-Cause” and together with the Bloom Lake Petitioners, the “Bloom Lake CCAA Parties”). The proceedings commenced under the CCAA by the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties will be referred to herein as the “CCAA Proceedings”.

2. On May 20, 2015, the CCAA Proceedings were extended to include Wabush Iron Co. Limited (“WICL”), Wabush Resources Inc. (“WRI” and together with WICL, the “Wabush Petitioners”), Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company Limited (collectively the “Wabush Mises-en-Cause” and together with the Wabush Petitioners, the “Wabush CCAA Parties”) pursuant to an initial order (as amended, restated or rectified from time to time, the “Wabush Initial Order”) providing for, inter alia, a stay of proceedings against the Wabush CCAA Parties until June 19, 2015, (the “Wabush Stay Period”) and approving an interim financing term sheet dated May 19, 2015 (as amended, the “Interim Financing Term Sheet”), providing an interim facility of up to US$10 million (the “Interim Financing”). The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties and the Wabush CCAA Parties will be referred to collectively herein as the “CCAA Parties”.
3. The Bloom Lake Stay Period and the Wabush Stay Period (together, the “Stay Period”) have been extended from time to time and currently expires on October 12, 2016.
4. On April 17, 2015, Mr. Justice Hamilton J.S.C. granted an Order (the “SISP Order”) approving, as it relates to the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, a sale and investor solicitation process (as may be amended from time to time, the “SISP”) involving the business and assets of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties. The SISP was subsequently amended and restated to reflect the inclusion of the Wabush CCAA Parties in the CCAA Proceedings and was approved nunc pro tunc as it relates to the Wabush CCAA Parties pursuant to an Order granted June 9, 2015 (together with the April 17, 2015 Order, the “SISP Order”).
5. On June 22, 2015, Mr. Justice Hamilton J.S.C. granted an Order (the “June 22 Rep Order”) inter alia:

 - (b) Appointing Koskie Minsky LLP and Nicholas Scheib (collectively “Representative Counsel”) as legal counsel to the Representatives.
6. On November 5, 2015, Mr. Justice Hamilton J.S.C. granted an Order approving a procedure for the submission, evaluation and adjudication of claims against the CCAA Parties and their current and former directors and officers (as amended, the “Claims Procedure Order”).
7. To date, the Monitor has filed twenty-three reports in respect of various aspects of the CCAA Proceedings. The purpose of this, the Monitor's Twenty-Fourth Report (this “Report”), is to provide information to the Court with respect to:
- (a) The receipts and disbursements of the CCAA Parties for the period March 26 to September 23, 2016;
 - (b) The CCAA Parties' revised and extended cash flow forecast for the period September 24, 2016 to February 3, 2017 (the “September 20 Forecast”);

TERMS OF REFERENCE

- 8. In preparing this Report, the Monitor has relied upon unaudited financial information of the CCAA Parties, the CCAA Parties' books and records, certain financial information prepared by the CCAA Parties and discussions with various parties (the "Information").
- 9. Except as described in this Report:
 - (a) The Monitor has not audited, reviewed or otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the Information in a manner that would comply with Generally Accepted Assurance Standards pursuant to the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada Handbook; and
 - (b) The Monitor has not examined or reviewed financial forecasts and projections referred to in this Report in a manner that would comply with the procedures described in the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada Handbook.
- 10. The Monitor has prepared this Report in connection with the CCAA Parties' motion for an extension of the Stay Period now scheduled to be heard October 12, 2016 (the "October 12 Extension Motion") and the MFC Lift Stay Motion, as hereinafter defined. The Report should not be relied on for other purposes.
- 11. Future oriented financial information reported or relied on in preparing this Report is based on management's assumptions regarding future events; actual results may vary from forecast and such variations may be material.

12. Unless otherwise stated, all monetary amounts contained herein are expressed in Canadian Dollars. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings defined in the Bloom Lake Initial Order, the Wabush Initial Order or previous reports of the Monitor.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

13. Capitalized terms used in the Executive Summary are as defined in the relevant section of the Report.
14. The Monitor is of the view that:
- (a) The CCAA Parties have acted, and are acting, in good faith and with due diligence;
 - (b) Circumstances exist that make an extension of the Stay Period appropriate; and
 - (c) Creditors would not be materially prejudiced by an extension of the Stay Period to January 31, 2017.
15. Accordingly, the Monitor respectfully recommends that the CCAA Parties' request for an extension of the Stay Period to January 31, 2017, be granted.

RECEIPTS & DISBURSEMENTS FOR THE PERIOD TO SEPTEMBER 23, 2016

THE BLOOM LAKE CCAA PARTIES

16. The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties' actual cash flow on a consolidated basis for the period from March 26 to September 23, 2016, excluding proceeds of major asset realizations, was approximately $0.7 million below the April 8 Forecast, as summarized below:

	Forecast	Actual	Variance
	$000	$000	$000
Receipts	403	453	50
Disbursements:
Payroll & Employee Benefits	(859)	(1,217)	(358)
Termination & Severance	(463)	(463)	0
Utilities	(276)	(100)	176
Other Operating Disbursements	(1,244)	(1,367)	(123)
Operating Cash Flows	(2,439)	(2,694)	(255)
Restructuring Professional Fees	(3,209)	(3,663)	(454)
Net Cash Flow	(5,648)	(6,357)	(709)
Cash Flow after Asset Realizations	(5,648)	(6,357)	(709)

17. Explanations for the key variances in actual receipts and disbursements as compared to the April 8 Forecast are as follows:
- (a) The favourable variance of approximately $0.1 million in receipts is a permanent variance arising from the collection of interest, insurance premium refunds and the refund of supplier deposits offset by cessation of lease payments as a result of the termination of the Mont-Wright Camp lease;
 - (b) The unfavourable variance of approximately $0.4 million in payroll and employee benefits is a permanent variance arising from the final payment of vacation pay for employees at Bloom Lake terminated as a result of the Champion Transaction which had not been included in the April 8 Forecast;
 - (c) The favourable variance of approximately $0.2 million in utility costs arose as the final reconciliation of amounts owing to or recoverable from Hydro Québec in respect of post-filing services has yet to be completed;

- (d) The unfavourable variance of approximately $0.1 million in other operating disbursements is primarily a permanent variance arising from the incurrence of tax and accounting professional fees not included in the April 8 Forecast; and
 - (e) The unfavourable variance of approximately $0.5 million in aggregate professional fees is comprised of favourable timing variances of approximately $1.0 million offset by unfavourable permanent variances of approximately $1.5 million arising due to the extensive additional amounts of work required in respect of asset realizations, payments administration and claims adjudication¹.
18. The Bloom Lake Initial Order permits inter-company funding between the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties. Inter-company funding in the amount of approximately $4.1 million had been advanced by Bloom Lake LP to CQIM in the period since the start of the CCAA Proceedings to March 25, 2016. There was no additional inter-company funding advanced in the period March 26 to September 9, 2016.

THE WABUSH CCAA PARTIES

19. The Wabush CCAA Parties' actual cash flow on a consolidated basis for the period from March 26 to September 23, 2016, excluding proceeds of major asset realizations, was approximately $0.5 million better than the April 8 Forecast, as summarized below:

¹ When combined with the variances in the Wabush CCAA cash flow, the overall professional fee variance for the period is a positive variance of approximately $0.7 million, comprising of favourable timing variances of approximately $1.5 million and unfavourable permanent variances of approximately $0.8 million.

	Forecast	Actual	Variance
Receipts	173	463	290
Disbursements:
Payroll & Employee Benefits	(298)	(316)	(18)
Contractors	(2,276)	(2,878)	(602)
Utilities	(377)	(305)	72
Other Operating Disbursements	(1,948)	(2,444)	(496)
Operating Cash Flows	(4,726)	(5,480)	(754)
Restructuring Professional Fees	(3,254)	(2,025)	1,229
Net Cash Flow	(7,980)	(7,505)	475
Cash Flow after Asset Realizations	(7,980)	(7,505)	475

20. Explanations for the key variances in actual receipts and disbursements as compared to the April 8 Forecast are as follows:
- (a) The favourable variance of approximately $0.3 million in receipts is a permanent favourable variance arising from interest collected, proceeds related to Conditional Sale Employee Homes, tax refunds and the refund of supplier deposits;
 - (b) The unfavourable variance of approximately $0.6 million in contractors is a permanent variance that relates primarily to the revegetation program required for the Wabush Mine and comprises of a permanent variance of approximately $0.3 million from actual costs incurred being higher than forecast and approximately $0.3 million related to sales taxes having been inadvertently omitted from the April 8 Forecast;

- (c) The unfavourable variance of approximately $0.5 million in other operating disbursements is a permanent variance resulting primarily from the payment of lease and related costs that had not been included in the forecast; and
- (d) The favourable variance of approximately $1.2 million in restructuring fees is believed to be comprised of favourable timing variances of approximately $0.3 million that are expected to reverse in future periods combined with permanent favourable variances of approximately $0.9 million.

THE SEPTEMBER 20 FORECAST

21. The September 20 Forecast is attached hereto as Appendix A. The September 20 Forecast shows a net cash outflow, before proceeds of major asset realizations, of approximately $2.7 million for the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties and of approximately $5.3 million for the Wabush CCAA Parties in the period September 24, 2016 to February 3, 2017. The September 20 Forecast is summarized below:

	Bloom Lake CCAA Parties	Wabush CCAA Parties
	$000	$000
Receipts		58
Disbursements:
Payroll & Employee Benefits		(215)
Contractors		(647)
Utilities		(150)
Other Operating Disbursements	(231)	(1,742)
Operating Cash Flows	(231)	(2,696)
Restructuring Professional Fees	(2,428)	(2,599)
Projected Net Cash Flow	(2,659)	(5,295)

22. Of the $2.9 million of combined aggregate net operating cash outflow, an estimated amount of approximately $0.1 million relates to expenses already incurred. Similarly, of the $5.0 million of restructuring professional fees included in the September 20 Forecast, an estimated amount of approximately $1.8 million relates to amounts incurred prior to the date of this Report. Other operating disbursements includes $1.65 million to be paid to and held by the Monitor in respect of potential Minimum Royalty Payments that may become owing to MFC.
23. Based on the current information, additional potential future realizations of up to approximately $89 million are possible, excluding any amount that may be recoverable in respect of the 2014 Reorganization. Additional information regarding the sources of potential future realizations is provided later in this Report.

CURRENT CASH BALANCES

24. At the request of the CCAA Parties, the Monitor has been assisting with the administration of receipts and disbursements in order to streamline administration and reporting. The only remaining accounts being operated by the CCAA Parties are the accounts used for the collection of payments related to Conditional Sale Employee Homes. The CCAA Parties and the Monitor are working with their banking institutions to effect the transition of the administration of these accounts. Total cash balances as at September 23, 2016 are summarized below:

	Bloom Lake CCAA Parties	Wabush CCAA Parties	Total

CURRENT STATUS OF ASSETS REALIZATIONS

THE POINTE-NOIRE TRANSACTION AND THE BLOCK Z TRANSACTION

25. As previously reported, the Pointe-Noire Transaction closed on March 8, 2016.
26. Various amounts totalling approximately $6.4 million are outstanding in respect of property taxes related to the Pointe-Noire Facility and Block Z Lands (the "Pointe-Noire Property Taxes").
27. While the Pointe-Noire Property Taxes have a statutory priority in respect of proceeds of the sale of taxable immovable property in the Pointe-Noire Transaction and the Block Z Transaction there are competing claims to the proceeds in respect of potential deemed trust claims in respect of the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan and the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan (collectively, the "Potential Deemed Trust Claims"). Accordingly, the Monitor is of the view that the validity and priority of the Potential Deemed Trust Claims must be determined prior to any payment of the Pointe-Noire Property Taxes. As discussed later in this Report, the Monitor has filed a motion for advice and directions in respect of the Potential Deemed Trust Claims.

THE BLOOM LAKE TRANSACTION

28. As previously reported, the Bloom Lake Transaction closed on April 11, 2016.

THE RIO TINTO RAILCAR TRANSACTION

29. The Rio Tinto Railcar Transaction closed on July 8, 2016.

THE TOROMONT GENERATOR TRANSACTION

30. The Toromont Generator Transaction closed on July 25, 2016.

THE IOC RAILCAR TRANSACTION

31. The IOC Railcar Transaction closed on September 2, 2016.

SEPT-ILES HOUSES

32. As previously reported, the eight employee houses located in Sept-Iles were listed for sale and sold over the period January to March, 2016.

33. Certain amounts from the proceeds of sale are currently held in escrow in respect of potential withholding tax liabilities. The Wabush CCAA Parties are in the process of preparing the information and documentation requested by the taxation authorities in order to obtain a compliance certificate which is necessary for the release of the escrowed funds.

THE EMPLOYEE HOMES TRANSACTION

34. In its Twenty-Second Report, the Monitor reported that the Wabush CCAA Parties had obtained an offer to purchase 48 of the 49 vacant single-family homes², the two apartment buildings and the staff house (the “Employee Homes Transaction”). The Employee Homes Transaction closed on September 20, 2016. The sale of one additional vacant single-family home had also been agreed subject to definitive documentation by the date of the Twenty-Second Report. That sale is expected to close in the near future.
35. The Wabush CCAA Parties, in consultation with the Monitor, are considering how to deal with the remaining vacant single-home.

OTHER EMPLOYEE HOMES

36. In its Twenty-Second Report, the Monitor reported that the Wabush CCAA Parties were in the process of negotiating the sale of a number of the Conditional Sale Employee Homes to the occupants of such Conditional Sale Employee Homes and intended to make offers to the remaining occupants for the early completion of the conditional sale agreements.
37. Such offers were communicated to the occupants of the 55 Conditional Sale Employee Homes in August 2016, with an expiry date of September 16, 2016. 30 occupants accepted the offers, eight occupants submitted a counter-proposal, each of which is now under consideration, four occupants declined the offer without making a counter-proposal and 13 occupants did not respond.
38. In addition, there is one additional employee home that that is currently occupied under a rental agreement. An offer was received for the purchase of this property, which offer is currently under negotiation.

² The purchaser did not want to acquire the remaining vacant single-family home as a result of an oil spill on the property prior to the CCAA Proceedings.

THE MONT-WRIGHT CAMP TRANSACTION

39. The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties have accepted an offer for the sale of the Mont-Wright Camp (the "Mont-Wright Camp Transaction"), subject to negotiation of a definitive agreement of purchase and sale and Court approval. The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties are in the process of attempting to negotiate a definitive agreement of purchase and sale with the prospective purchaser.

THE NALCOR TRANSACTION

40. The Wabush CCAA Parties have accepted an offer from Newfoundland and Labrador Hydro ("Nalcor") for the sale of real estate, machinery, equipment and other chattels used in connection with the Wabush Terminal Station or the Wabush Substation (the "Nalcor Transaction"), subject to negotiation of a definitive agreement of purchase and sale and Court approval.
41. Nalcor has obtained the necessary approval for the transaction from the Newfoundland and Labrador Board of Commissioners of Public Utilities pursuant to Order No. P.U. 37(2016) issued September 8, 2016. The Wabush CCAA Parties and Nalcor are in the process of finalizing the agreement of purchase and sale.

TOWN OF WABUSH VACANT LAND

42. The Wabush CCAA Parties own some small parcels of vacant land in the Town of Wabush. The Wabush CCAA Parties, with the assistance of the Monitor, are in the process of confirming the inventory of vacant land and determining a plan for its realization.

REMAINING MASON GRAPHITE PROCEEDS

43. Quinto is party to an agreement of purchase and sale dated April 5, 2012 (the "Mason Graphite Agreement"), pursuant to which Quinto agreed to sell certain mining claims to Mason Graphite Corp. ("Mason Graphite"). Pursuant to the Mason Graphite Agreement, US$7.5 million of the purchase price was deferred and was payable at various future dates subsequent to the commencement of the CCAA Proceedings.
44. The first two payments due after the commencement of the CCAA Proceedings, totalling US$2.5 million in the aggregate, were paid by Mason Graphite. Subsequent payments of US$2.5 million each are due October 5, 2016, and April 5, 2017 (the "Remaining Mason Graphite Proceeds").
45. In January 2016, Mason Graphite made a proposal for the early repayment of the Remaining Mason Graphite Proceeds at a significant discount. Quinto, following consultation with the Monitor, rejected that proposal.
46. On July 28, 2016, Mason Graphite made a revised early payment offer stating that Mason Graphite had "found some financial partners and are now in a position to have access to an amount of $3M to be used as a complete and final payment to fully reimburse the last deferred payment". Following consultation with the Monitor, Quinto made a counter-proposal (the "Quinto Settlement Offer") at US$4 million, subject to the following conditions:
 - (a) Acceptance of the offer by no later than 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on Monday August 22, 2016;
 - (b) Execution of a definitive settlement agreement by no later than September 2, 2016; and

- 16 -

- (c) Payment in full by no later than September 30, 2016, or three business days after Court approval is granted if such approval is determined by Quinto to be required.
47. Mason Graphite accepted the Quinto Settlement Offer on August 22, 2016.
48. A draft settlement agreement was provided to counsel to Mason Graphite on August 26, 2016, subject to further review by Quinto and the Monitor. The draft settlement agreement included a provision that the agreement was subject to Court approval.
49. Mason Graphite provided a mark-up of the draft settlement agreement on September 1, 2016, which mark-up was unacceptable to Quinto. Quinto provided a revised draft at 11:46 a.m. on September 6, 2016.
50. At 11:57 a.m. on the same day, Mason Graphite issued a press release announcing a $25.0 million bought deal private placement offering and stating that up to approximately $6 million of the proceeds of the offering would be used “for the payment of amounts owing to Quinto Mining Corporation”³.
51. Given the new material information on the financial capacity of Mason Graphite to pay the full amount of the Remaining Mason Graphite Proceeds, Quinto, in consultation with the Monitor, determined that the proposed settlement was no longer in the best interests of Quinto’s stakeholders. Accordingly, at 1:53 p.m. on September 6, 2016, counsel to Quinto informed counsel to Mason Graphite that Quinto could no longer proceed with the proposed settlement as the proposed settlement was no longer in the best interests of Quinto’s stakeholders and that deferred payments under the Mason Graphite Agreement should continue to be paid in accordance with the terms of the Mason Graphite Agreement.

³ Mason Graphite issued a subsequent press release on September 27, 2016, announcing that the bought deal private placement offering had closed with gross proceeds of $28,778,750.

52. On September 14, 2016, counsel to Quinto received a letter from counsel to Mason Graphite (the “Mason Graphite September 14 Letter”) asserting the position that Quinto and Mason Graphite had entered into a binding contract for the settlement of the Remaining Mason Graphite Proceeds notwithstanding that no definitive agreement had been executed. Mason Graphite requested that Quinto execute of the draft settlement agreement within five days and present a motion for Court approval of the settlement by no later than September 23, 2016.
53. Quinto disputes the assertion by Mason Graphite that the parties had reached a binding contract. Furthermore, the Monitor has informed Quinto that it could not recommend that the Court approve an early payment settlement at a discount given the Mason Graphite press release that confirms that Mason Graphite now has the financial capacity to pay the full US$5 million of the Remaining Mason Graphite Proceeds. Accordingly, Quinto has informed the Monitor that it will not execute the draft settlement agreement or seek Court approval thereof.
54. On October 4, 2016, Mason Graphite filed a motion (the “Mason Graphite Homologation Motion”) seeking an Order:
- (a) Lifting the stay of proceedings for the purposes of the Mason Graphite Homologation Motion;
 - (b) Homologating the transaction set out in the draft settlement agreement described above; and
 - (c) Approving the settlement described above.
55. As noted above, a payment of US$2.5 million was due on October 5, 2016. That payment was made by Mason Graphite on October 4, 2016, following the delivery of a letter from Mason Graphite’s counsel to Quinto and the Monitor in which Mason Graphite’s counsel advised that the payment would be made and that the payment was considered by Mason as a partial payment of the amount of US$4 million stated in the Quinto Settlement Offer.

56. The Monitor will provide a separate report in respect of the Mason Graphite Homologation Motion prior to its return date.

THE BEUMER ESCROW FUNDS

57. As previously reported, on October 23, 2015, the CCAA Parties filed a motion (as amended from time to time, the "Beumer Motion") seeking the release of approximately US$6.3 million (the "Beumer Escrow Funds") from an escrow agreement dated June 28, 2013 and entered into between Beumer Corporation ("Beumer"), Bloom Lake LP and BMO Trust Company (the "Beumer Escrow Agreement") in relation to certain disputed claims.
58. Also as previously reported, in its contestation filed on December 17, 2015 (the "Beumer Contestation" and together with the Beumer Motion, the "Beumer Litigation"), Beumer responded by not only opposing the conclusions sought in the Beumer Motion, but also by seeking the release of the Beumer Escrow Funds to Beumer.
59. The Beumer Litigation was settled on April 22, 2016, with 50% of the Beumer Escrow Funds being remitted to each of Beumer and Bloom Lake LP. The settlement of the Beumer Litigation was approved by the Court on April 22, 2016.

THE WABUSH MINE

60. Paragraphs 37 to 39 of the Monitor's Nineteenth Report stated the following with respect to discussions with an interested party for the Wabush Mine:

“37. Paragraph 28 of the Monitor's Sixteenth Report stated:

“Since the date of the Fifteenth Report, the interested party has been undertaking due diligence, including a visit to the Wabush Mine and discussions with various stakeholders. A letter of intent was submitted by the interested party on January 20, 2016 and is under consideration by the Wabush CCAA Parties in consultation with the Monitor. There is no guarantee that the letter of intent will lead to a binding agreement for the acquisition of the Wabush Mine.”

- 19 -

38. Since the date of the Sixteenth Report, the interested party has continued its due diligence and discussions with various stakeholders. The Wabush CCAA Parties and the interested party have exchanged a number of drafts of an asset purchase agreement but to date no agreement has been reached. There is no guarantee that the efforts of the parties will lead to a binding agreement for the acquisition of the Wabush Mine.

39. In the event that the parties are unable to agree on the terms of an asset purchase agreement or if the interested party decides not to proceed with the potential acquisition, the Monitor expects that the moveable Wabush Mine assets would be liquidated.”

61. As noted in the Monitor's Twenty-Third Report, although the interested party (the “Wabush Interested Party”) had terminated discussions in May 2016, it subsequently re-opened discussions. In July 2016, the Wabush Interested Party informed the Monitor and the Wabush CCAA Parties that it had entered into a “support agreement” with MFC in respect of its interest in the Wabush Mine. The interested party also informed the Monitor that any proposal would exclude major mobile equipment.

62. The Monitor and the Wabush CCAA Parties expended significant time and effort endeavouring to obtain a proposal from the Wabush Interested Party. Notwithstanding these efforts, it became increasingly apparent that it was unlikely that any proposal for the acquisition of the Wabush Mine would be forthcoming. Ultimately, the Wabush Interested Party was informed that it had to submit its proposal by August 26, 2016, failing which the Wabush CCAA Parties would proceed with alternative realization strategies for the equipment and processing plant at the Wabush Mine. Regrettably, no proposal was forthcoming from the Wabush Interested Party by that date nor from any party thereafter.
63. In addition to the efforts with the Wabush Interested Party described above, the Monitor was contacted by a separate party in late June 2016 enquiring about the Wabush Mine. That party signed a confidentiality agreement and was given access to the data room but decided not to pursue the opportunity.
64. The Wabush CCAA Parties, in consultation with the Monitor, are considering various alternatives with respect to the Wabush Mine, which alternatives could involve continuing to hold all or parts of the Wabush Mine to effect the realization of the remaining assets as described below, terminating the mining lease between predecessors of MFC and WICL dated September 2, 1959, (the "MFC Sub-Lease"), abandoning the property or any combination of the foregoing. Information on the realizable value of the remaining assets from the proposals submitted at the September 16 Proposal Deadline and from the proposals submitted at the October 5 Proposal Deadline, each as hereinafter defined, will be an important factor in the consideration of the available alternatives.

MAJOR MOBILE EQUIPMENT

65. As discussed in the Monitor's Twenty-Third Report, after the Wabush Interested Party had informed the CCAA Parties that any proposal would not include the major mobile equipment at the Wabush Mine, the CCAA Parties, in consultation with the Monitor, proceeded to seek new proposals for the liquidation of the remaining assets at the Bloom Lake Mine, the remaining railcars and the major mobile equipment at the Wabush Mine (collectively, the "September 16 Proposal Assets").
66. To that end, on August 18, 2016, the Monitor, on behalf of the CCAA Parties, sent an email to 88 interested parties including equipment brokers, end-users/operators and other interested parties that had participated in the liquidation sales process, or who had expressed an interest in some or all of the assets of the CCAA Parties during the CCAA Proceedings, requesting final and best offers on the September 16 Proposal Assets. Pursuant to this renewed call for proposals, the deadline for submitting proposals was September 16, 2016 (the "September 16 Proposal Deadline").
67. As discussed in the Monitor's Twenty-Third Report, and for the reasons set out therein, following receipt of the RBA 830E Proposal, the CCAA Parties determined, after consultation with the Monitor, that it was, in the circumstances and in their business judgment, fair and reasonable to accept the RBA 830E Proposal and exclude the RBA 830E Purchased Assets from the renewed call for proposals.
68. A number of proposals were received on or before the September 16 Proposal Deadline. The CCAA Parties, in consultation with the Monitor, assessed the proposals received and the CCAA Parties have accepted a proposal, subject to negotiation of a definitive asset purchase agreement and Court approval, for the sale of all of the September 16 Proposal Assets other than the 564 rail cars owned by the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties.

69. Proposals have been received for the rail cars but at prices that were not considered acceptable. The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, with the assistance of the Monitor, have commenced discussions with certain parties that submitted proposals on the rail cars to determine whether an acceptable price can be agreed.

OTHER WABUSH MOVABLE ASSETS

70. An Order issued by the Honourable Mr. Justice Hamilton on December 4, 2015 (the “December 4 Order”), stated, inter alia:

“Orders that until such time as the Court renders judgment with respect to the Motion, the Wabush CCAA Parties shall give 14 day prior notice to MFC before dismantling or destroying the infrastructure or fixtures at the Wabush mine, in order to allow MFC to take whatever proceedings it considers appropriate to protect its rights.”

71. On August 30, 2016, following the failure of the interested party to submit a proposal for the acquisition of the Wabush Mine, and in anticipation of a further process to seek proposals for the remaining movable assets at the Wabush Mine, the Wabush CCAA Parties issued to MFC a Notice of Intent to Dismantle or Destroy Infrastructure or Fixtures located at the Wabush Mine (the “August 30 Notice”). A copy of the August 30 Notice is attached hereto as Appendix B.

- 23 -

72. Counsel to MFC responded to the notice by letter dated September 2, 2016 (the “MFC September 2 Letter”), stating that MFC intends to oppose the actions contemplated under the August 30 Notice and has instructed counsel to prepare a motion in furtherance thereof. The MFC September 2 Letter also requested that no further actions be taken in respect of the August 30 Notice until MFC’s motion in respect thereof had been heard⁴.
73. The Wabush CCAA Parties have informed the Monitor that no infrastructure or fixtures at the Wabush Mine have been dismantled or destroyed since the granting of the December 4 Order.
74. In order that the remaining movable assets at the Wabush Mine could be realized for the benefit of the estate generally, on September 14, 2016, the Monitor, on behalf of the CCAA Parties, sent an email to the 88 interested parties that had received the email requesting proposals for the major mobile equipment. The email requested final and best offers on the remaining movable assets⁵ at the Wabush Mine other than the September 16 Proposal Assets (collectively, the “October 5 Proposal Assets”), with a deadline for submitting proposals of October 5, 2016 (the “October 5 Proposal Deadline”). In addition, the request for proposals was sent to MFC and to the Wabush Mine interested party on September 16, 2016.
75. The email sent on September 14, 2016, specifically provided that the October 5th Proposal Assets exclude any land and buildings and any assets that would constitute “fixtures” thereto, for example, wiring, plumbing or HVAC.

THE RESTRUCTURING LETTER OF INTENT

76. Paragraphs 29 and 30 of the Monitor’s Sixteenth Report stated:

⁴ The MFC Lift Stay Motion, as hereinafter defined, was served on September 21, 2016, and seeks, inter alia, an Order to suspend consideration of any liquidation proposals. The MFC Lift Stay Motion is discussed later in this Report.

⁵ The remaining movable assets include movable equipment in the crusher building and movable equipment in the mill building.

- 24 -

“29. The Monitor has previously stated to the Court that the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties have been in discussions with a party potentially interested in sponsoring a plan of arrangement that would generate significant value for the estate in connection with the corporate attributes of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, which value would be in addition to the proceeds of the various proposed sale transactions.

30. The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties have now received the Restructuring Letter of Intent. The Restructuring Letter of Intent states, inter alia, that the proposed restructuring assumes that Bloom Lake LP continues to exist and carry on business and is not bankrupt and that the Bloom Lake Transaction is completed prior to the closing of the proposed restructuring.”

77. The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, in consultation with the Monitor, have continued working with the party that submitted the Restructuring Letter of Intent to develop a mutually acceptable restructuring transaction that could realize value for the corporate attributes. The transaction, if it proceeds, would involve, inter alia, the filing of plans of arrangement by CQIM, Bloom Lake GP and Bloom Lake LP and would have to be completed on or before December 31, 2016, in order for the corporate attributes to be of value to the interested party.
78. The parties are currently in the process of attempting to agree on the specific timetable for the potential restructuring transaction and negotiating the key documents. The proposed restructuring transaction is complex and would require a significant number of key documents, including the following:
- (a) A restructuring agreement;

- 25 -

- (b) Various partnership, shareholder, investment, share subscription and asset transfer agreements;
 - (c) A CCAA plan of arrangement and a BIA proposal; and
 - (d) Various forms of Court order, including an order convening meetings of creditors, a CCAA plan sanction order and a BIA proposal approval order.
79. If agreement is reached on the timetable and the terms of the key documents, it is anticipated that the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties would seek Court approval of the restructuring agreement and authority to file the plan of arrangement by early-November, with meetings of creditors to consider and vote on the plan of arrangement to be held shortly thereafter and the plan of arrangement, if approved by the creditors and sanctioned by the Court, to be fully implemented by December 31, 2016.

POTENTIAL TAX REFUNDS

80. The CCAA Parties have identified and are pursuing a number of potential opportunities for municipal tax contestation that, if successful, could result in significant refunds to the CCAA Parties or significant reductions in municipal taxes payable by the CCAA Parties.
81. Eleven applications for review have been filed in respect of property taxes for various parcels of real estate. Based on current estimates, those applications, if successful, could result in property tax refunds, or reductions in amounts owing, in the range of approximately $10 million to $20 million.

82. The CCAA Parties are also seeking refunds in respect of sales taxes, income taxes and Québec mining duties totalling approximately $23.5 million. The CCAA Parties have informed the Monitor that all information and documents in support of the refunds requested by the various taxing authorities have been provided and the taxing authorities are in the process of reviewing the refund applications.

84. The 1,258 claims in progress are summarized as follows: update.

- (a) Eight claims by three creditors are municipal tax claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $64.4 million;
- (b) Four claims by two creditors in the aggregate amount of approximately $31.8 million are pending responses by the creditors to requests from the Monitor for further information or documentation;

- 28 -

- (c) Two claims by one creditor in the aggregate amount of approximately $12.1 million are pending responses by the CCAA Parties to requests from the Monitor for further information or documentation;
- (d) 1,148 claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $174.3 million are claims of former employees in respect of OPEBs, which are discussed in further detail below, and other employment related amounts;
- (e) Twelve claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $189.8 million are claims related to the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan and the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan, with claims of approximately $63.3 million⁶ in the aggregate being filed on a joint and several basis against three of the Wabush CCAA Parties;
- (f) 75 claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $4.7 billion are Related Party Claims⁷, which are discussed in further detail below; and
- (g) Nine claims by three creditors in the aggregate amount of approximately $244.3 million are pending further review by the Monitor. Of these, three claims are related to the RBC litigation discussed later in this Report, which claims were filed on a joint and several basis against three of the Wabush CCAA Parties and three claims of one creditor relate to environmental claims in respect of the Wabush Mine, the review of which was deferred pending the outcome of discussions with the Wabush Interested Party, which claims were filed on a joint and several basis against three of the Wabush CCAA Parties.

⁶ Based on the revised estimates provided by the Pension Administrator as discussed later in this Report.

⁷ Excluding the Related Party Claim relating to Note Y discussed later in this Report.

Related Party Claims

85. 76 claims totalling approximately US$8 billion or $9.9 billion were filed by a CCAA Party against another CCAA Party or by a related party that is not subject to the CCAA Proceedings (collectively, “Related Party Claims”). Of the Related Party Claims, claims totalling approximately $199 million were filed as secured claims and claims totalling approximately $9.7 billion were filed as unsecured claims.
86. The Related Party Claims include a claim against CQIM by Cliffs Canada Finance Inc. (“CFC”) in respect of an inter-company debt instrument known as “Note Y”. The claim in respect of Note Y is in the amount of approximately US$4.2 billion. The Monitor has determined that Note Y is, on its terms, contractually subordinated to all other claims against CQIM. CFC has confirmed that it concurs with the Monitor’s assessment regarding the subordination of Note Y. As there is no prospect of the other claims against CQIM being paid in full, the Monitor intends to undertake no further review of the claim in respect of Note Y.
87. As noted in the Monitor’s Nineteenth Report, the Monitor intends to provide a report on its review of the Related Party Claims and its assessment of the quantum, status and validity thereof once its review is completed. The Monitor intends to file that report prior to issuing any Notice of Allowance or any Notice of Revision or Disallowance in respect of the Related Party Claims in order to provide the opportunity for any relevant stakeholder to consider the Monitor’s assessment.
88. There are seven large individual components of the Related Party Claims that are specific to particular financing or guarantee activities other than Note Y (the “Specific Claim Components”). In the aggregate, the Specific Claim Components total approximately US$1 billion.

89. The Related Party Claims are net of a large number of offsetting debit transactions totalling approximately US$8.7 billion in the aggregate which reduce the quantum of the Related Party Claims (the “Related Party Debit Transactions”).
90. Excluding the amounts for the Specific Claim Components and the Related Party Debit Transactions, the balance of the Related Party Claims is approximately US$11.5 billion. The support provided for the balance of the Related Party Claims includes in excess of 31,000 transaction entries, many of them small. Given the level of potential of distributions to creditors as discussed later in this Report, it would be uneconomic for the Monitor to review all transactions. The stratification of those transactions is summarized below:

91. Based on the stratification of Related Party Claims transaction entries and utilizing the current information and assumptions with respect to the potential ranges of claims, the potential recoveries for creditors as discussed later in this Report and the time and cost that would be involved in reviewing the smaller transactions, the Monitor has analysed and considered various scenarios for the level of review of transactions underlying the Related Party Claims as an alternative to incurring the significant costs that would be associated with reviewing all of the transactions.

92. Based on that analysis, the Monitor is of the view that the following approach to the review of the Related Party Claims is reasonable in the circumstances:
- (a) Note Y will not be reviewed as it is subordinate to all other claims and will not share in any distribution;
 - (b) The Specific Claim Components will be reviewed;
 - (c) All debit transactions will be presumed to be valid as they reduce the net Related Party Claims;
 - (d) All transactions less than or equal to $100,000 for Quinto and $1 million for all other CCAA Parties (approximately 28,500 transactions) will be presumed to be valid and will not be reviewed; and
 - (e) All transactions greater than $100,000 for Quinto and $1 million for all other CCAA Parties (approximately 2,500 transactions) will be reviewed to determine whether they constitute valid claims.
93. Based on the analysis performed, even if it were determined that all related party transactions below the proposed review threshold were not valid claims⁸, the potential impact on the estimated potential recoveries for creditors⁹ would be de minimis, as shown in the table below:

⁸ In the Monitor's experience, it is highly unlikely that all such transactions would be invalid.

⁹ Excluding any amount that may be recoverable in respect of the 2014 Reorganization.

¹Wabush Mines is an unincorporated joint venture, accordingly it has no assets or liabilities of its own and distributions would be through the joint venturers, WICL and WRI

94. Accordingly, the Monitor is of the view that reducing the threshold for review of related party transactions is not justified and the Monitor intends to perform its review of the Related Party Claims using the criteria set out above.
95. The Monitor has requested additional supporting documentation from the related party creditors in order to be able to undertake that review and provided that the relevant supporting documentation is provided on a timely basis, expects to be able to provide its report on the Related Party Claims within the proposed extension of the Stay Period.

Secured Claims

96. As previously reported, Secured Claims include:
- (a) A Related Party Claim for advances made by Cliffs Mining Company (“CMC”) to the Wabush CCAA Parties prior to the CCAA Proceedings (the “CMC Secured Claim” and the related security being the “CMC Security”);

- 34 -

- (b) Claims relating to the Key Bank Facility (the “Key Bank Claims” and the related security being the “Key Bank Security”);
 - (c) Claims of CNR as guarantor under the Key Bank Facility and assignee and/or subrogor of the Key Bank Claims (the “CNR Key Bank Claims” and the related security being the “CNR Key Bank Security”);
 - (d) Claims of creditors holding a registered legal hypothec for construction (the “Construction Hypothec Claims” and the related security being the “Construction Hypothecs”);
 - (e) Claims filed by the pension administrators in respect of the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan and the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan;
 - (f) Claims filed in respect of environmental obligations; and
 - (g) Claims filed in respect of unpaid property taxes.
97. Previous reports of the Monitor have included details of the independent opinions on the validity and enforceability of the CMC Security, the Key Bank Security and the CNR Key Bank Security.
98. With the exception of the claims of two creditors, the quantum of all Construction Hypothec Claims have been determined, subject to a subsequent determination of what portion of each Construction Hypothec Claim is validly secured by a construction hypothec, if any. The determination of the secured portion of the Construction Hypothec Claims is pending completion of the legal opinion on the validity and enforceability of the Construction Hypothecs and the allocation of proceeds and costs of realization as discussed elsewhere in this Report. Monitor's Counsel has requested additional information from creditors with Construction Hypothec Claims in order to complete its opinion in respect thereof.

Pension Claims

99. The former pension plan administrator of the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan filed claims against Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company in the amount of $29 million in respect of wind-up deficit and in the amount of approximately $6.1 million in respect of unremitted amortization payments.
100. The former pension plan administrator of the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan filed claims against Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company in the amount of $24 million in respect of wind-up deficit and in the amount of approximately $1.9 million in respect of unremitted amortization payments.
101. As noted in the Monitor's Nineteenth Report, the relevant regulators appointed Morneau Shepell as independent administrator of the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan and the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan (the "Pension Administrator"). The Pension Administrator will be filing wind-up reports quantifying the wind-up deficits of the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan and the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan. The deadline for the Pension Administrator to file the wind-up reports has been extended from time to time and is currently October 16, 2016, although the Pension Administrator has informed the Monitor that a further extension has been requested. The Monitor is awaiting the wind-up reports prior to determining the quantum of the pension Claims.
102. In the meantime, the Pension Administrator has provided details of outstanding current service cost payments and special payments and an updated estimate of the wind-up deficits. In that regard, the Pension Administrator provided summaries for each of the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan and the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan that show the following:
 - (a) With respect to normal cost payments:

- 36 -

- (i) The normal cost payments with respect to the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan were overpaid in the amount of $169,961 as of December 16, 2015, the date of the termination of the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan;
 - (ii) The normal cost payments with respect to the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan were fully paid as of December 16, 2015¹⁰, the date of the termination of the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan;
- (b) With respect to special payments:
- (i) The special payments with respect to the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan required to be paid prior to the date of the Wabush Initial Order were paid in full except for $3;
 - (ii) One special payment with respect to the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan in the amount of $273,218 was paid after the date of the Wabush Initial Order and before the granting of the Pension Priority and Suspension Order, granted by the Honourable Mr. Justice Hamilton on June 26, 2015, which payment constituted an underpayment of $1;
 - (iii) The special payments with respect to the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan required to be paid after the date of the Pension Priority and Suspension Order, totalling $2,185,752, were not paid in accordance with the provisions of the Pension Priority and Suspension Order;

¹⁰ The monthly amount of $44,356 was pro-rated to the date of the termination of the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan payment resulting in a payment of $22,893

- 37 -

- (iv) The special payments with respect to the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan required to be paid prior to the date of the Wabush Initial Order were underpaid in the amount of $146,776;
 - (v) One special payment with respect to the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan in the amount of $393,337 was paid after the date of the Wabush Initial Order and before the granting of the Pension Priority and Suspension Order, which payment constituted an overpayment of $16,308; and
 - (vi) The special payments with respect to the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan required to be paid after the date of the Pension Priority and Suspension Order, totalling $3,016,232, were not paid in accordance with the provisions of the Pension Priority and Suspension Order;
- (c) Additional special payments in the aggregate amount of $3,525,120 with respect to the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan were payable by way of a Catch-Up Payment of $1,762,560 due August 26, 2015, and thereafter in additional special payments payable in six monthly instalments of $293,760 starting August 30, were required and were not paid in accordance with the provisions of the Pension Priority and Suspension Order.
103. Based on the foregoing and the information provided by the Pension Administrator, the amounts outstanding in respect of the Wabush Salaried Pension Plan and the Wabush Hourly Pension Plan based on contribution payment due date and the most recent estimate of the wind-up deficiencies are summarized as follows:

	Salaried Plan	Hourly Plan
Normal Cost Payments
Pre-filing	$0	$0
Special Payments
Pre-filing	$3	$146,776
Post-Filing	$2,185,753	$2,999,924
Total	$2,185,756	$3,146,700
Catch-up Special Payments
Pre-filing	$0	$0
Post-Filing	$0	$3,525,120
Total	$0	$3,525,120
Estimated Wind-up Deficiency	$26.7 million	$27.7 million

104. On September 21, 2016, the Monitor filed a motion for direction with respect to the potential priority of the various aspects of the pension plan claims (the “Pension Priority Motion”). The Pension Priority Motion is returnable on a proforma basis on October 12, 2016. The Monitor will seek to agree a timetable for the filing of materials and the presentation of the Pension Priority Motion with the CCAA Parties, Representative Counsel, the USW, the Pension Administrator and the relevant regulators that would allow relevant parties sufficient opportunity to respond and ensure the efficient hearing of the Pension Priority Motion. If the Monitor is unable to reach agreement on a mutually acceptable timetable, it will seek the assistance of the Court in setting an appropriate timetable.

OPEB Claims

105. The Monitor has been working with Representative Counsel, the USW and their actuary to determine the appropriate basis of the calculation of the OPEB claims. The calculation methodology will be applied consistently across the group of claimants.

106. A number of meetings and discussions have taken place with regards to the methodology and underlying assumptions used by Representative Counsel, the USW and their actuary in their calculation of the OPEB claims and the Monitor, in consultation with the CCAA Parties, is in the process of reviewing the information and support provided by Representative Counsel, the USW and their actuary.

D&O CLAIMS

107. 53 D&O Claims were filed in the aggregate amount of approximately $2.7 million. Of these, 37 D&O Claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $1.6 million were subsequently confirmed as having been incorrectly filed as D&O Claims and have been re-characterized as Claims. The remaining 16 D&O Claims in the aggregate amount of approximately $1.1 million were filed by employees in respect of vacation pay and termination amounts. Those D&O Claims were disallowed as all such amounts owing to the employees in question have been paid; none of the disallowances were disputed. Accordingly, there are no proven D&O Claims.

LITIGATION UPDATE

THE FISHERIES SUMMONSES HEARING

108. As described in the Monitor's Fourteenth Report, the Fisheries Summonses were issued on October 28, 2015 and served on Newfoundland counsel to the Wabush CCAA Parties on November 5, 2015, and allege offences under the Fisheries Act as follows:

- 40 -

- (a) On or between May 14, 2015 and May 25, 2015, at or near the Town of Wabush, in the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador, following a deposit out of the normal course of events, at the final discharge point known as Knoll Lake, failed to conduct an acute lethality test without delay, in violation of paragraph 14(1)(b) of the Metal Mining Effluent Regulations, SOR/2002-222; and
- (b) On or about May 14, 2015 and continuing until May 25, 2015, at or near the Town of Wabush, in the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador, following the receipt of laboratory test results indicating that the limit for Total Suspended Solids in effluent set out in Schedule 4 of the Metal Mining Effluent Regulations, SOR/2002-222, had been exceeded, at the final discharge point known as Knoll Lake, failed to notify an inspector without delay, in violation of subsection 24(1) of the Metal Mining Effluent Regulations, SOR/2002-222.

109. Paragraph 32 of the Monitor's Fifteenth Report stated:

“32. The Fisheries Summonses Hearing took place by teleconference on December 17, 2015, before the Provincial Court in the Town of Wabush. The hearing was adjourned until February 25, 2016, in order to allow for written disclosures to be made by the Crown in respect of the alleged offences. No plea was required to be entered before the hearing resumes on February 25, 2016.”

110. The CCAA Parties subsequently entered a not guilty plea with respect to all of the charged entities and received disclosure from the Crown.

111. The CCAA parties have informed the Monitor that negotiations regarding resolution of the matter before trial have been constructive and that they are hopeful that a trial can be avoided.

THE MFC ROYALTY LITIGATION

112. As the Court is aware, there is a dispute between the Wabush CCAA Parties and MFC with respect to the amount of the quarterly Minimum Royalty Payment under the MFC Sub-Lease.
113. Pursuant to the Order of the Honourable Mr. Stephen Hamilton made December 4, 2015 (the “December 4 Order”), the Wabush CCAA Parties have made deposits of $812,250 with the Monitor in December 2015, January, April and July 2016 for amounts potentially payable in respect of the Minimum Royalty Payment.
114. The MFC Royalty Litigation is proceeding, with the next procedural step being the filing by the Wabush CCAA Parties of an expert report. No date has yet been set for a hearing.

THE SIPA CLAIMS MOTION

115. The SIPA Claims Motion was settled on August 30, 2016.

THE CMC LIFT STAY MOTION

116. On September 26, 2016, CMC filed a motion to lift the stay of proceedings (the “CMC Lift Stay Motion”) for the purposes of perfecting and registering its security interest in certain assets of the Wabush CCAA Parties located in Newfoundland.
117. Pursuant to an Equipment Security Agreement dated February 23, 2015 (the “CMC Security Agreement”), WICL and WRI (collectively, the “Wabush Obligors”) granted CMC a security interest in, among other things, all of their present and future right, title and interest in all Equipment, as such term is defined in the Personal Property Security Act (Newfoundland) of the Wabush Obligors.

118. The CMC Security Agreement was intended to provide security for the payment and performance of the liabilities of the Wabush Obligors under, among other things, a credit agreement between the Wabush Obligors and CMC dated as of February 23, 2015.
119. A schedule to the CMC Security Agreement lists certain equipment that is to be included in the collateral that is the subject of the CMC Security Agreement. That schedule includes certain Komatsu 830E Haul Trucks and provides serial numbers for such haul trucks.
120. Upon comparing the description of the Komatsu 830E Haul Trucks that were included in the RBA 830E Purchased Assets and located at the Wabush mine against the description of the Komatsu 830E Haul Trucks on Schedule A to the CMC Security Agreement, certain discrepancies were identified. The registrations made in the Personal Property Security Registry in Newfoundland and Labrador by CMC against the Wabush Obligors (the “CMC PPSA Registrations”) contained the same discrepancies as Schedule A to the CMC Security Agreement.
121. Section 11(3) of the Personal Property Security Act (Newfoundland) states, in part, that a description of collateral is inadequate for the purposes of enforceability against a third party if it describes “equipment” without further describing the item or kind of collateral.
122. CMC therefore brings the CMC Lift Stay Motion to allow for the modification to Schedule A of the CMC Security Agreement and modification of the CMC PPSA Registrations to correct the identified discrepancies in view of Section 11(3) of the Personal Property Security Act (Newfoundland), which requires a proper description of equipment by item or kind for the purposes of enforceability of a security interest against third parties.

123. The CMC Lift Stay Motion is currently scheduled to be heard on October 21, 2016. To the extent considered necessary, the Monitor will provide a separate report in respect of the CMC Lift Stay Motion.

THE RBC LIFT STAY MOTION

124. On August 15, 2016, Royal Bank of Canada filed a motion to lift the stay of proceedings (the “RBC Lift Stay Motion”) from the purposes of pursuing an application to add WICL as a party in pending litigation in Newfoundland (the “RBC Newfoundland Litigation”).
125. The RBC Newfoundland Litigation was commenced in October 2003 and relates to an alleged breach of a 1996 lease by CMC, Managing Agent of Wabush Mines, and each of the joint venturers. RBC filed a claim in respect of the alleged breach in the Claims Procedure.
126. WICL and the Monitor opposed the RBC Lift Stay Motion on the basis, inter alia, that any claim against the Wabush CCAA Parties should be adjudicated pursuant to the Claims Procedure Order.
127. The RBC Lift Stay Motion is currently scheduled to be heard on October 28, 2016. To the extent considered necessary, the Monitor will provide a separate report in respect of the RBC Lift Stay Motion.

THE MFC LIFT STAY MOTION

128. On September 21, 2016, MFC served a motion seeking to lift the stay of proceedings (the “MFC Lift Stay Motion”) for the purposes of proceeding with a motion for an Order (the “MFC Termination Order”), inter alia:
- (a) Terminating the MFC Sub-Lease;
 - (b) Requiring immediate payment of Minimum Royalty Payments;

- 44 -

- (c) Reserving rights of MFC to acquire certain assets of the Wabush CCAA Parties;
- (d) Requiring the Monitor to provide to MFC copies of all proofs of claim filed against the Wabush CCAA Parties by CNR and its related parties (the “Related Party Proofs of Claim”);
- (e) Suspending the consideration of any liquidation proposals.

Termination of MFC Sub-Lease

129. The MFC Sub-Lease is one of four groups of property agreements that together comprise the site referred to as the “Wabush Mine”. The areas covered by each of those groups of agreements is illustrated on the map of the Wabush Mine and surrounding area attached hereto as Appendix C.

130. Paragraph 47 of the MFC Lift Stay Motion states:

“47. Based on the above, and the current status of the file, there is no reason for the Sub-Lease to remain in force and, based on past and continuing defaults by WIC, the Court should lift the stay of proceedings, if necessary, and declare the Sub-Lease terminated;”

131. Paragraphs 50 to 53 of the MFC Lift Stay Motion state:

“50. The payment obligations of WIC under the Sub-Lease are to pay (a) annual rent and to pay (b) minimum royalty payments and/or rarned¹¹ royalties;

51. Notices of default were sent to WIC et al. on September 3, 2015 and December 3, 2015 as appears from copies of same file in support hereto as EXHIBIT P-22;

¹¹ “rarned” appears to be a typographical error. It is assumed that the word should be “earned”.

- 45 -

52. The Annual Rent stipulated in the Sub-Lease has not been paid by WIC either to MFC or to the Monitor in Trust;
53. As mentioned hereinabove, the payment of all sums under the Sub-Lease are presently subject to the terms of the Order rendered on December 4, 2015 (P-3);”
132. The MFC Sub-Lease contains certain termination rights in favour of MFC (the “Termination Rights”) in the event of payment defaults under the MFC Sub-Lease. In that regard, paragraph C4 of the MFC Sub-Lease provides that the MFC Sub-Lease may be terminated on sixty days’ notice if any rents or royalties are in arrears for thirty days and if the rents or royalties are not paid within the notice period.
133. Pursuant to the MFC Sub-Lease, the annual rent referenced in paragraphs 50 and 52 of the MFC Lift Stay Motion (the “Annual Rent”) is payable yearly on December 20 and is the amount of:
- “...Three Hundred Sixty Dollars ($360), less such sum as shall be expended by the Lessee after the execution of this Indenture on the prospecting, exploration, development of mining of the Demised Premises or any part thereof.”
134. The notices of default referenced in paragraph 51 of the MFC Lift Stay Motion make no mention of any default in respect of the Annual Rent. Accordingly, the Monitor concludes that any Annual Rent amounts payable prior to December 3, 2015, had been paid.

135. The amount payable on December 20, 2015, would have been $360, less any applicable deductions as provided for in the MFC Sub-Lease. It is unclear to the Monitor whether any amount of Annual Rent was payable on December 20, 2015 after the application of applicable deductions, if any. The Monitor is not aware of any notice of default having been issued by MFC in respect of the Annual Rent payable on December 20, 2015, if any. Accordingly, any amount payable in respect of Annual Rent could be paid within the notice period if valid notice of default is issued.
136. As the Court is aware, there is no dispute that the MFC Sub-Lease provides for Minimum Royalty Payments on a quarterly basis. The crux of the MFC Royalty Litigation discussed earlier in this Report is whether the amount of the Minimum Royalty Payments is in fact zero under the provisions of the MFC Sub-Lease.
137. Pursuant to the December 4 Order, the Minimum Royalty Payments have been deposited with the Monitor.
138. It is, therefore, not clear at this time whether there is, in fact, any default of the payment obligations under the lease and whether MFC would have a right of termination even if the stay of proceedings was lifted.
139. As noted above, MFC asserts that there is no reason for the MFC Sub-Lease to remain in force. A significant number of movable assets are currently located on the MFC Sub-Lease property. As described earlier in this Report, the Wabush CCAA Parties have sought offers for the remaining assets.
140. The Wabush CCAA Parties, in consultation with the Monitor, are investigating the potential logistics, timing and costs of moving some or all of the assets currently located on the MFC Sub-Lease property to other areas of the Wabush Mine. The Wabush CCAA Parties, in consultation with the Monitor, are in the process of assessing all of the options available to the Wabush CCAA Parties in respect of dealing with the MFC Sub-Lease. Those options could include:

- 47 -

- (a) Maintaining the MFC Sub-Lease pending the completion of the sale of assets that can be realized in a manner that would provide a net benefit to the estate;
- (b) Moving some or all of the assets off of the MFC-Sub Lease property prior to terminating the MFC Sub-Lease; or
- (c) Terminating the MFC Sub-Lease prior to removing or selling assets in accordance with the rights of the Wabush CCAA Parties under the MFC Sub-Lease as described later in this Report.

141. In the Monitor's view, it would be inappropriate for the MFC Sub-Lease to be terminated before that assessment is complete as such a termination may be prejudicial to the interests of the creditors generally. Furthermore, it is possible that such assessment may conclude that it is not in the best interests of the creditors generally for the MFC Sub-Lease to be maintained and the Wabush CCAA Parties may be prepared to disclaim the MFC Sub-Lease.

Minimum Royalty Payments

142. The issue of what Minimum Royalty Payments, if any, are due to MFC is already before the Court as it is the subject matter of the MFC Royalty Litigation, the status of which is discussed earlier in this Report. The MFC Royalty Litigation is complex, involving expert witnesses and significant production of documents.

143. In the Monitor's view, the issue of the release of the amounts held by the Monitor in respect of the Minimum Royalty Payments cannot be dealt with on a summary basis and should continue to be dealt with in the MFC Royalty Litigation.

Rights to Acquire Certain Assets of the Wabush CCAA Parties

144. The MFC Sub-Lease provides certain rights to acquire assets at reasonable market price, though such rights arise only in the event that the MFC Sub-Lease is terminated pursuant to the Termination Rights (the “Contingent Purchase Rights”). The Contingent Purchase Rights arise under paragraph C3 of the MFC Sub-Lease, which states:

“3. It shall be lawful for the Lessee to remove all building, plant, machinery and all articles and things of the Lessee in and upon or under the Demised Premises at any time within six (6) months after the determination of the tenancy; provided that the Lessor shall have the right by notice in writing to purchase all or any part of the said properties, articles and things at the then reasonable market price, to be determined, failing agreement thereon between the parties, by arbitration as hereinafter provided.”

145. Accordingly, it appears to the Monitor that unless and until the MFC Sub-Lease is terminated pursuant to the Termination Rights, MFC has no rights to acquire assets. The Monitor is not aware of any restriction on the Wabush CCAA Parties removing or selling assets located on the MFC Sub-Lease prior to the termination of the MFC Sub-Lease, subject to certain restrictions contained in Orders granted in the CCAA Proceedings, including the December 4 Order which restricts the right of the Wabush CCAA Parties to dismantle or destroy infrastructure or fixtures at the Wabush Mine but does not restrict the right of the Wabush CCAA Parties to remove, market or sell movable assets.

146. Furthermore, it does not appear to the Monitor that there is any restriction in the MFC Sub-Lease on the Wabush CCAA Parties removing or selling assets for a period of up to six months after the termination of the MFC Sub-Lease unless MFC has delivered a written notice offering to buy the assets at the then reasonable market price. It is unclear to the Monitor from its review of the MFC Sub-Lease what is intended with respect to the specifics of the terms of access to the property to effect such removal or sale.
147. The Monitor notes that the September 16 Proposal Assets and the October 5 Proposal Assets include only movable assets and, in the case of the October 5 Proposal Assets, explicitly exclude any land and buildings and any assets that would constitute “fixtures” thereto.
148. Paragraph 55 of the MFC Lift Stay Motion states:
- “55. The immediate termination of the Sub-Lease would allow MFC to retake possession of the mine property and exercise its rights to acquire the Wabush mine assets at their "reasonable market price" in accordance with the Sub-Lease, which would benefit creditors, as the price payable by MFC under the Sub-Lease would likely be higher than that obtained by the liquidation currently sought by the Wabush CCAA Parties.”
149. Contrary to what is suggested by MFC, there is no need for the stay of proceedings to be lifted in order for MFC to be able to acquire the assets at their reasonable market price. MFC, if it genuinely wishes to acquire the assets at their reasonable market price, has been and remains at liberty to submit a proposal for the acquisition of the assets within the CCAA Proceedings. In that regard:
- (a) MFC was invited and encouraged to participate in the SISF but chose not to do so;

- 50 -

- (b) As discussed at length in the Monitor's Thirteenth Report and Fourteenth¹² Report, copies of which, without appendices, are attached hereto as Appendices D and E respectively, significant good faith efforts were made to engage with MFC regarding a potential acquisition of the Wabush Mine following the SISP;
- (c) As noted earlier in this Report, MFC executed a "support agreement" with the Wabush Interested Party. Despite having an extended opportunity to submit a proposal, the Wabush Interested Party and MFC chose not to put forth an offer for the assets; and
- (d) MFC was invited to participate in the process seeking proposals for the October 5 Proposal Assets by the October 5 Proposal Deadline but chose not to do so.

150. The Monitor notes that while the termination of the MFC Sub-Lease would allow for the exercise of the Contingent Purchase Rights, neither the MFC Lift Stay Motion nor the MFC Stay Objection, as hereinafter defined, appear to contain any definitive statement that MFC will exercise the Contingent Purchase Rights. As the Contingent Purchase Rights can be exercised up to six months after the termination of the MFC Sub-Lease, the realization process could be delayed by a further six months if MFC's motion is granted, even if MFC decide to exercise the Contingent Purchase Rights.

¹² At paragraph 22 of its Fourteenth Report the Monitor stated "Both the Wabush CCAA Parties and the Monitor would welcome a proposal from MFC for the acquisition of the Wabush mine and related assets at an appropriate price. Regrettably, however, the trail of correspondence, the statements made by MFC in the MFC Press Release and the stated intent to bring a motion to lift the stay of proceedings to allow MFC to file a motion for the termination of the Sub-Lease leads, in the Monitor's view, to the conclusion that MFC has no bona fide intent to submit a proposal to acquire the Wabush mine and the related assets, nor do they intend to restart operations in the short term. If a proposal is forthcoming from MFC or any other party before the negotiation of a definitive agreement for the sale of the moveable property at the Wabush mine is concluded, any such proposal would be given full consideration.". The conclusion regarding MFC's intent was never disputed by MFC.

151. In the Monitor's view, it is in the best of interests of the estate and all of its stakeholders that the realization process and the distributions to creditors be completed as expeditiously as is reasonable, regardless of whether the assets are sold to a third party or acquired by MFC and, accordingly, the granting of the MFC Lift Stay Motion would not be in the best interests of the stakeholders generally.

The Related Party Proofs of Claims

152. The request for an Order requiring the Monitor to provide to MFC copies of all proofs of claim filed against the Wabush CCAA Parties by CNR and its related parties is redundant as paragraph 62 of the Claims Procedure Order already provides MFC the ability to review the claims of CNR and its related parties on written request to the Monitor. No such request was made by MFC.
153. The Monitor has written to MFC reminding them of their rights under paragraph 62 of the Claims Procedure and inviting them to make arrangements to attend and review the claims of CNR and its related parties. MFC has now asked for copies of the claims rather than having to attend at the Monitor's office as provided for in the Claims Procedure. MFC's request is under consideration.

Suspension of Liquidation Proposals

154. Suspension of the process to obtain liquidation proposals would inevitably lead to further delay in the completion of the CCAA Proceedings, which is not in the interests of the stakeholders generally, and would prejudice the right of the Wabush CCAA Parties to continue to sell assets if the MFC Sub-Lease is terminated.
155. As discussed earlier in the Report, even if MFC was in a position to exercise the Contingent Purchase Rights, any acquisition by MFC must be at reasonable market price. The liquidation proposals obtained would be helpful in determining what the reasonable market price would be.

156. The liquidation proposals also provide important information necessary for the Wabush CCAA Parties to determine, in consultation with the Monitor, whether there is any benefit in continuing to hold the MFC Sub-Lease or whether it should be disclaimed.
157. In the Monitor's view, there is no prejudice to MFC from the process to obtain liquidation proposals as:
- (a) MFC has had the opportunity to make an offer for the acquisition of the assets since June 2015 but chose not to do so;
 - (b) MFC is still at liberty to make an offer for the purchase of the assets at any time;
 - (c) As discussed earlier in this Report, the MFC Sub-Lease does not restrict the Wabush CCAA Parties from continuing to sell the assets during the term of the MFC Sub-Lease, nor does the MFC Sub-Lease restrict the Wabush CCAA Parties from continuing to remove and sell the assets for a period of six months after the MFC Sub-Lease is terminated unless MFC has delivered a written notice to buy pursuant to the terms of the MFC Sub-Lease; and
 - (d) The Wabush CCAA Parties could not complete any transactions for the sale of the September 16 Proposal Assets or the October 5 Proposal Assets without further Order of the Court.

Comments with Respect to Other Statements Made in the MFC Lift Stay Motion

158. Paragraph 12 of the MFC Lift Stay Motion states:

“12. The purpose of the Motion for Directions was to obtain an interpretation of the terms of the Sub-Lease that favours WIC by allowing it to retain the rights and benefits as a tenant under the Sub-Lease without having to pay MFC

- 53 -

the required minimum royalty and rent payments thereunder by seeking a Safeguard Order entitling WIC to cease making any payments as of the filing of said Motion for Directions;”
(emphasis added)

159. The “Motion for Directions” referred to in paragraph 12 of the MFC Lift Stay Motion is the MFC Royalty Litigation. It appears to the Monitor that paragraph 12 of the MFC Lift Stay Motion misstates the MFC Royalty Litigation.
160. Firstly, the MFC Royalty Litigation deals only with the Minimum Royalty Payments, not with any other rent payments. Secondly, the MFC Royalty Litigation is based on an assertion that the Minimum Royalty Payments are in fact nil, not that the Minimum Royalty Payments should not be paid if they are greater than nil.
161. Paragraphs 31 and 37 of the MFC Lift Stay Motion state:
- “31. However, recent events reveal the Wabush CCAA Parties true intentions regarding the Wabush Mine and MFC's rights under the Sub-Lease;
37. It has therefore become abundantly clear that the Wabush CCAA Parties and the Monitor have no intention of selling the Wabush Mine an[d] that all remaining assets will be sold-off piecemeal or simply destroyed;”

162. In the view of the Monitor, the statements by MFC regarding the intentions of the Wabush CCAA Parties and the Monitor are untrue and are not supported by the facts. While cognizant of the obligation to take reasonable steps to maximize realizations for the benefit of creditors, it has always been the preference of the Monitor and the Wabush CCAA Parties that the Wabush Mine and associated assets be sold to a party that would preserve the option of restarting mining operations at some point in the future. As described elsewhere in this Report and in the previous reports of the Monitor, significant time, effort and expense has been spent attempting to do that. Indeed, liquidation alternatives have been significantly delayed to give interested parties time to have discussions with various stakeholders and submit a proposal long after the conclusion of the SISP and even after such parties had previously informed the Monitor that they were no longer interested.
163. The Wabush CCAA Parties and the Monitor would welcome a proposal for the acquisition of the Wabush mine and related assets at an appropriate price. Regrettably, approximately eighteen months after the SISP Order was granted, there is no proposal from MFC or from any interested party.
164. Paragraphs 39 and 62 of the MFC Lift Stay Motion state:
- “39. The Wabush CCAA Parties continue to hide behind the protection provided by the CCAA and the Initial Order to conduct a liquidation of all Wabush Mine assets to its own benefit or the benefit of its principals with total disregard for the rights and interests of the various stakeholders;
62. The Wabush CCAA Parties' strategy regarding the liquidation of the remaining mining infrastructure and assets and the Wabush Mine property itself appear to be mainly established in a way that is the most favourable to the interests of the principal shareholder Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. ("CNR"), notably as far as its reclamations obligations are concerned;"

- 55 -

165. In the view of the Monitor, the statements by MFC about favouring shareholders are untrue and are not supported by the facts. The CCAA Proceedings, including the marketing efforts for the sale or liquidation of the assets, have been, and continue to be, carried out in a manner intended to maximize recoveries for the estate and for the benefit of stakeholders generally. Furthermore, a sale of the Wabush Mine property to a party that might restart operations in the future could be far more beneficial to CNR than the liquidation of assets and the abandonment of the Wabush Mine as the abandonment would increase the likelihood that the approximately $50 million of bonds backed by CNR and posted to secure the reclamation obligations of the Wabush CCAA Parties would be called.

166. Paragraphs 45 and 46 of the MFC Lift Stay Motion state:

“45. The Conditional Release required various plans to be filed with the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador before any physical work could commence on the site with respect to the reclamation thereof including, among other things, an implementation plan and a public consultation plan, which would set forth the consultation with the Town of Wabush, Aboriginal groups and include a detailed inspection schedule;

46. MFC has serious concerns that the current intention of the Wabush CCAA Parties and the Monitor to proceed with the liquidation and dismantling of the Mine, as set forth in the Notice, disregards the consultation processes required under the Conditional Release and the rights of stakeholders, including the Town of Wabush, Aboriginal groups and the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador;”

167. The Wabush CCAA Parties have informed the Monitor, consistent with previous statements made to the Court, that there have been no reclamation activities undertaken other than the revegetation program nor do they intend to commence reclamation activities. Accordingly, the consultation process is not yet relevant.

THE 2014 REORGANIZATION

168. Paragraphs 44 and 45 of the Monitor's Twelfth Report stated:

“44. The 2014 Reorganization was a complex, multi-stage corporate reorganization that had the effect of reducing inter-company indebtedness owed by CQIM to non-filing affiliates by approximately $805.4 million from approximately $5.6 billion to $4.8 billion through the transfer to non-filing affiliates of cash from the Australian subsidiaries of CQIM (the “Australian Subsidiaries”), the assignment of inter-company notes and the transfer of preferred and common shares in the Australian Subsidiaries held by CQIM.

45. The Monitor has requested that CNR provide various documents and other information with respect to the 2014 Reorganization and the inter-company indebtedness in order that the Monitor can undertake its review. To date, CNR has co-operated with the Monitor in respect of its review of the 2014 Reorganization and has provided documents and information in response to the Monitor's original request. The Monitor has made additional requests for documents and information and

CNR has informed the Monitor that it intends to provide additional information shortly.”

169. Paragraph 68 of the Monitor's Nineteenth Report stated:

“The Monitor has now received various additional documents and information relating to the 2014 Reorganization. The effect of the 2014 Reorganization on potential recoveries to creditors of CQIM can only be determined once the Claims against CQIM, including the Related Party Claims, are known. Accordingly, the Monitor is not yet in position to provide a detailed report on the 2014 Reorganization.”

170. The Monitor is hopeful that the final adjudication of Claims against CQIM will progress sufficiently to allow the Monitor to submit a report on the 2014 Reorganization within the proposed extension of the Stay Period.

ALLOCATION ISSUES

171. As the Court is aware, various approval and vesting orders issued in the CCAA Proceedings specifically provide that the transactions were approved without prejudice to the rights of creditors to object to the allocation of proceeds. Accordingly, prior to any distribution to creditors it will be necessary to obtain a final determination of the appropriate allocation of the proceeds of realizations among both the individual CCAA Parties and amongst various asset classes.

172. Furthermore, it will be necessary for an appropriate allocation of the costs of the CCAA Proceedings among both the individual CCAA Parties and amongst various asset classes to be determined.

173. It is anticipated that a motion for such determinations will be brought in the within the proposed extension of the Stay Period.

ESTIMATED RANGES OF POTENTIAL DISTRIBUTIONS

174. The Monitor has estimated the ranges of potential distributions to unsecured creditors from the estates of each of the CCAA Parties based on the information currently available with respect to costs and realizations to date, the current status of claims and assumptions regarding potential future realizations. No amounts have been included in the estimates for any amounts that might be recoverable in respect of the 2014 Reorganization. The estimated the ranges of potential distributions to unsecured creditors from the estates of each of the CCAA Parties, assuming that the Related Party Claims other than Note Y are valid as filed, are summarized below:

	Low	High
Bloom Lake LP	1.25%	2.95%
Bloom Lake GP	0.00%	2.37%
CQIM	2.64%	3.78%
Quinto Mining	59.56%	68.71%
Arnaud Railway	0.00%	27.31%
WICL	0.00%	0.54%
Wabush Lake Railway	0.00%	0.02%
Wabush Mines ¹	0.00%	0.00%
WRI	0.00%	0.85%

¹Wabush Mines is an unincorporated joint venture, accordingly it has no assets or liabilities of its own and distributions would be through the joint venturers, WICL and WRI

REQUEST FOR AN EXTENSION OF THE STAY PERIOD

175. The Stay Period currently expires on October 12, 2016. Additional time is required for the CCAA Parties and the Monitor to complete the CCAA Proceedings, including the following activities:

- (a) Completing the negotiation of definitive agreements for the sale of remaining assets, obtaining Court approval of such agreements and completing the transactions;

- 59 -

- (b) Pursuing the proposed restructuring under the Restructuring Letter of Intent;
- (c) Completing the Claims Procedure;
- (d) Dealing with distributions to creditors, including the determination of the appropriate allocations of realizations and costs of the CCAA Proceedings amongst the estates and asset categories;
- (e) Completing the investigation of the 2014 Reorganization and the effect thereof and determining what, if any, action should be taken with respect thereto;
- (f) Completing the other activities described in this Report; and
- (g) Undertaking the other activities necessary to complete the CCAA Proceedings.

176. The continuation of the stay of proceedings is necessary to provide the stability needed to complete the foregoing activities. Accordingly, the CCAA Parties now seek an extension of the Stay Period to January 31, 2017.

NOTICES OF OBJECTION TO EXTENSION OF THE STAY PERIOD

177. No notices of objection have been filed in respect of the CCAA Parties' request for an extension of the Stay Period in respect of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties.

178. Three notices of objection to the CCAA Parties' request for an extension of the Stay Period in respect of the Wabush CCAA Parties as follows:

- (a) Notice of objection dated September 22, 2016, filed by MFC (the "MFC Stay Objection");
- (b) Notice of objection dated September 22, 2016, filed by the Town of Wabush (the "Town Stay Objection"); and

- 60 -

- (c) Notice of objection dated September 23, 2016, filed by the Labrador West Chamber of Commerce (the “Chamber Stay Objection”).

179. The Monitor notes that the Town Stay Objection and the Chamber Stay Objection are virtually identically worded. The Town Stay Objection is signed by Mr. Colin Vardy, Mayor of the Town of Wabush. The Chamber Stay Objection is also signed by Mr. Vardy, in his capacity as Vice-Chair of the Labrador West Chamber of Commerce. Testifying in respect of the Town Stay Objection and the Chamber Stay Objection on September 28, 2016, Mr. Vardy admitted that both the Town Stay Objection and the Chamber Stay Objection had been prepared by counsel to MFC.

180. Paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Town Stay Objection states:

“3. Wabush believes that no real effort was made to favour a restructuring or sale of the Wabush Mine and that the final liquidation/destruction of mining infrastructure will have a negative impact on Wabush and the region and most probably seal Wabush's fate as a mining community;

4. Wabush believes that the Motion, as far as the Wabush CCAA Parties are concerned should not be granted and that the Wabush CCAA Parties should no longer benefit from the Stay of proceedings provided by the CCAA;”

181. Paragraph 3 and 4 of the Chamber Stay Objection states:

“3. The Chamber believes that no real effort was made to favour a restructuring or sale of the Wabush Mine and that the final liquidation/destruction of mining infrastructure will have a negative impact on the Chamber, its members, and the region and most probably seal the

- 61 -

Town of Wabush's fate as a mining community;

4. The Chamber believes that the Motion, as far as the Wabush CCAA Parties are concerned should not be granted and that the Wabush CCAA Parties should no longer benefit from the Stay of proceedings provided by the CCAA;"

182. The statements in the Town Stay Objection and the Chamber Stay Objection that "no real effort was made to favour a restructuring or sale of the Wabush Mine" are factually incorrect and are not supported by the record in the CCAA Proceedings. In fact, and as set out earlier in this Report and in previous reports of the Monitor, extensive efforts have been made to achieve a sale of the Wabush Mine.
183. The Town Stay Objection and the Chamber Stay Objection seem to imply that Stay Period should not be extended in order that the assets located at the Wabush Mine would remain on site. The termination of the CCAA Proceedings would not necessarily result in the assets remaining at the Wabush Mine because:
- (a) The Wabush CCAA Parties would still have the right to remove and sell assets as described earlier in this Report;
 - (b) CMC, which holds security over the equipment at the Wabush Mine, could take steps to perfect and enforce its security which would result in the sale of the equipment; and
 - (c) If the Wabush CCAA Parties were placed into bankruptcy, the trustee in bankruptcy would proceed to take steps to realize the assets.

184. While MFC says in the MFC Lift Stay Motion that the termination of the CCAA Proceedings would allow MFC to exercise its contractual rights to acquire the assets at the Wabush Mine, neither the MFC Lift Stay Motion nor the MFC Stay Objection, as hereinafter defined, appear to state that MFC will, in fact, make an offer to acquire the assets at the Wabush Mine at a reasonable market price. Furthermore, the termination of the CCAA Proceedings would likely result the bankruptcy of the Wabush CCAA Parties and the Contingent Purchase Rights are likely not enforceable against a trustee in bankruptcy.
185. MFC has made no offer to buy the assets at any time during the CCAA Proceedings. The stay of proceedings does not prevent, and has not prevented, MFC from making such an offer.
186. Neither the Town Stay Objection nor the Chamber Stay Objection proposes any alternative process for dealing with the other matters that must be attended to in the estate even if the Stay Period is not extended, such as the completion of the adjudication of claims, the allocation of proceeds of sale and costs of realization and distributions to creditors.
187. Paragraph 7 of the MFC Stay Objection states:
- “7. No one has shown any real interest in purchasing the Wabush Mine and any discussion regarding same have been abandoned, the whole as was confirmed by the Monitor;”
188. While parties have shown some interest in the Wabush Mine assets, no party has been prepared to proceed with a proposal to buy those assets. This includes the party with whom MFC signed a support agreement as discussed earlier in this report.

189. As noted in paragraph 7 of the MFC Stay Objection, the marketing efforts have clearly demonstrated that there is no party with any interest in purchasing the mining assets and reopening the mine in the near future.
190. Furthermore, it does not appear that MFC intends to restart operations in the near future even if it acquired the assets. As reported in the Monitor's Fourteenth Report, a press release was issued by MFC on November 16, 2015, which stated, inter alia:

“Iron Ore Interests

We are the lessor under a mining sub-lease of the land upon which the Wabush Iron Ore Mine in Labrador, Canada, is located. The mine had operated since 1966. Upon termination of the lease, we intend to re-take the mine and exercise our contractual rights. Our rights may be delayed due to the operator filing for relief for all of their Canadian mines under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act. Iron ore prices have declined globally and the short-term outlook is not favorable. But, most importantly, we do not have any debt on this property. While we believe that the mine presents an interesting long-term opportunity, now is the time for conservatism and prudence while we focus on our other efforts. As such, we have initiated a rationalization process and, therefore, have reclassified the mine and our interest in another iron ore property as discontinued operations. We will be responsible stewards of our capital.”

(emphasis added)

191. Similar comments were made in a press issued by MFC on May 2, 2016, which stated, inter alia:

- 64 -

“1. Iron Ore

We are the lessor under a mining lease underlying an iron ore mine in Canada. The mine had operated since 1966, but in 2015 it was closed by the operator. When the lease is terminated, we intend to re-take the mine and exercise our contractual rights. However, these rights have been delayed due to the operator filing for relief for all of their Canadian mines under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act of Canada.

While we continue to believe that the mine presents an interesting long-term opportunity, we have emphasized conservatism and prudence while we focus on our other efforts. As such, we initiated a rationalization process and have reclassified the mine and our interest in another iron ore property as discontinued operations and adjusted the carrying values to $30.0 million resulting in non-cash impairment losses of $215.6 million (before an income tax recovery of $46.5 million) in 2015.”

(emphasis added)

192. Paragraph 11 of the MFC Stay Objection states:

“11. Any further delays risk making the possibility for any party interested in purchasing the mining assets and re-opening the mine futile because the competent workforce will have moved away from the region having lost all hope due to the length and secrecy of the process;”

193. The Monitor notes that mining operations at the Wabush Mine were suspended in March 2014 with the large majority of the workforce being laid off shortly thereafter. The Wabush Mine was permanently idled in November 2014. Only four employees have been retained to assist in safeguarding the assets.
194. As discussed earlier in this Report, while the termination of the MFC Sub-Lease would allow for the exercise of the Contingent Purchase Rights, neither the MFC Lift Stay Motion nor the MFC Stay Objection appear to contain any definitive statement that MFC will exercise the Contingent Purchase Rights. In any event, if MFC is genuinely intending to make an offer to purchase the assets, it does not need the CCAA Proceedings to be terminated to do so and the most effective way to avoid any further delay is simply for MFC to make its offer now.

THE MONITOR'S CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATION

195. The September 20 Forecast demonstrates that, subject to the underlying assumptions thereof, the CCAA Parties have sufficient liquidity to fund the CCAA Parties' operations and the CCAA Proceedings to January 31, 2017.
196. The only objections filed in response to the CCAA Parties' request for an extension of the Stay Period are the MFC Stay Objection, the Town Stay Objection and the Chamber Stay Objection.
197. MFC's primary objective in objecting to the extension of the Stay Period in respect of the Wabush CCAA Parties appears to be able to terminate the MFC Sub-Lease and have the right, but not the obligation, to issue a notice to acquire assets at the Wabush Mine at reasonable market price at some future time up to six months following termination of the MFC Sub-Lease. The Town Stay Objection and the Chamber Stay Objection were prepared by counsel to MFC and appear to have been filed to support the MFC Stay Objection.

198. As noted earlier in this Report and previously in the Monitor's Fourteenth Report dated December 2, 2015, both the Monitor and the Wabush CCAA Parties would welcome a proposal for the acquisition of the Wabush Mine assets from MFC. The termination of the CCAA Proceedings is not required for MFC to be able to make such a proposal. While cognizant of the obligation to take reasonable steps to maximize realizations for the benefit of creditors, it has always been the preference of both the Monitor and the CCAA Parties to sell the Wabush Mine and associated assets to a party that would preserve the option of the mine restarting operations at some point in the future. Regrettably, no proposal that would allow for such a transaction has been forthcoming.
199. The CCAA Proceedings are complex and the activities and assets of the CCAA Parties are, to various extents, intertwined. The co-ordination of the various estates is, in the Monitor's view, critical to maximize efficiency and effectiveness. It is also the Monitor's view that a continuation of the CCAA Proceedings is, at the current time, the only realistic way that such co-ordination can be efficiently achieved and that the realization of assets for the benefit of all stakeholders can be completed.
200. Based on the information currently available, the Monitor believes that creditors of the CCAA Parties would not be materially prejudiced by an extension of the Stay Period to January 31, 2017.
201. The Monitor also believes that the CCAA Parties have acted, and are acting, in good faith and with due diligence and that circumstances exist that make an extension of the Stay Period appropriate.
202. The Monitor therefore respectfully recommends that this Honourable Court grant the CCAA Parties' request for an extension of the Stay Period to January 31, 2017.

Attention: Mr. Michael Smith

RE: Notice of Intent to Dismantle or Destroy Infrastructure or Fixtures located at the Wabush Mine

Sir,

We are the legal counsel for the Wabush CCAA Parties as this term is defined in an initial order issued on May 20, 2015 by Mr. Justice Stephen Hamilton in the Court file bearing number 500-11-048114-157 (the "CCAA Proceedings").

As you also know, MFC Industrial Ltd. ("MFC") and certain of the Wabush CCAA Parties are parties to various indentures, agreements, and amendments thereto, being collectively referred to as the Mining Lease Documents and as more fully detailed in the Motion for Directions and the Issuance of a Safeguard Order ("Motion") filed by the Wabush CCAA Parties in the CCAA Proceedings on November 26, 2015.

In connection with said Motion, Mr. Justice Stephen Hamilton issued notably on December 4, 2015, the following order (the "December 4th Order"):

"Orders that until such time as the Court renders judgment with respect to the Motion, the Wabush CCAA Parties shall give 14 day prior notice to MFC before dismantling or destroying the infrastructure or fixtures at the Wabush mine, in order to allow MFC to take whatever proceedings it considers appropriate to protect its rights."

In accordance with the December 4th Order, you are hereby notified that it is the Wabush CCAA Parties' intention to initiate a request for proposal process for liquidation proposals for the infrastructure and fixtures located at the Wabush Mine, which proposals may lead to the sale and dismantlement of all or some of the infrastructure or fixtures located at the Wabush Mine.

The proceedings commenced under the CCAA by the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties will be referred to herein as the “CCAA Proceedings”.

2. On May 20, 2015, the CCAA Proceedings were extended to include Wabush Iron Co. Limited (“WICL”), Wabush Resources Inc. (“WRI” and together with WICL, the “Wabush Petitioners”) Wabush Mines, Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company Limited (collectively the “Wabush Mises-en-Cause” and together with the Wabush Petitioners, the “Wabush CCAA Parties”) pursuant to an initial order (the “Wabush Initial Order”) providing for, inter alia, a stay of proceedings against the Wabush CCAA Parties until June 19, 2015, (the “Wabush Stay Period”). The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties and the Wabush CCAA Parties will be referred to collectively herein as the “CCAA Parties”.
3. The Bloom Lake Stay Period has been extended from time to time. Pursuant to an Order of Mr. Justice Hamilton J.S.C., granted on April 17, 2015 (the “April 17 Stay Order”), the Bloom Lake Stay Period was extended to July 31, 2015.
4. Also on April 17, 2015, Mr. Justice Hamilton J.S.C. granted the following Orders:
 - (a) An Order approving, as it relates to the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, a sale and investor solicitation process (as may be amended from time to time, the “SISP”) involving the business and assets of the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties and the Wabush CCAA Parties (the “SISP Order”); and
 - (b) An Order (the “Bloom Lake Sale Advisor Order”):
 - (i) Approving the engagement of Moelis & Company LLC (“Moelis”) pursuant to the terms of the engagement letter between Moelis, CQIM, Bloom Lake GP and others dated March 23, 2015 and effective January 27, 2015 (the “Moelis Engagement Letter”); and

- (ii) Creating a charge over the property of each Bloom Lake CCAA Party securing the Monthly Retainer Fee, Transaction Fees (as such terms are defined in the Moelis Engagement Letter) and expenses reimbursable pursuant to the Moelis Engagement Letter payable by each Bloom Lake CCAA Party, on a several basis, to a maximum of US$8 million (the “Bloom Lake Sale Advisor Charge”).
- 5. On April 27, 2015, Mr. Justice Hamilton, J.S.C., issued an Order (the “Chromite Approval and Vesting Order”):
 - (a) Approving the proposed transaction (the “Chromite Transaction”) contemplated by the Share Purchase Agreement (the “Chromite SPA”) dated as of March 22, 2015, as amended and restated as of April 17, 2015, by and between CQIM, Cliffs Greene B.V., Cliffs Netherlands B.V., Wabush Resources Inc., Cliffs Canadian Shared Services Inc., Cliffs Natural Resources Exploration Canada Inc. and “CanCo”, as vendors, Noront Resources Ltd., as parent, and 9201955 Canada Inc. as purchaser (the “Purchaser”); and

- 6. The Chromite Transaction closed on April 28, 2015.
- 7. To date, the Monitor has filed five reports in respect of various aspects of the CCAA Proceedings. The purpose of this, the Monitor’s Sixth Report, is to inform the Court on the following:
 - (a) The activities of the Wabush CCAA Parties and the Monitor since the issuance of the Wabush Initial Order;

- (b) The receipts and disbursements of the CCAA Parties for the period ending May 22, 2015;
- (c) The progress of the SISP;
- (d) The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties' request for an Order authorizing and directing the Monitor to pay to Moelis the portion of the Transaction Fee payable by CQIM in respect of the Chromite Transaction (the "CQIM Chromite Transaction Fee") from CQIM's portion of the Chromite Transaction proceeds of sale (the "CQIM Chromite Proceeds") held by the Monitor pursuant to the Chromite Approval and Vesting Order;
- (e) The Wabush CCAA Parties' request for an Order (the "Wabush Comeback Order"), inter alia:
 - (i) Providing priority for the Wabush Administration Charge, the Wabush Directors' Charge and the Interim Lender Charge (collectively, the "Wabush CCAA Charges") over any and all other existing hypothecs, mortgages, liens, security interests, priorities, trusts, deemed trusts (statutory or otherwise) charges, encumbrances or security of whatever nature or kind (collectively, the "Encumbrances") affecting the Property whether or not charged by such Encumbrances;

- (iv) Creating a charge over the property of each Wabush CCAA Party securing the Monthly Retainer Fee, Transaction Fees (as such terms are defined in the Moelis Engagement Letter) and expenses reimbursable pursuant to the Moelis Engagement Letter payable by each Wabush CCAA Party, on a several basis, to a maximum of US$5 million (the “Wabush Sale Advisor Charge”);
 - (v) Suspending the payment by the Wabush CCAA Parties' of Monthly Amortization Payments, Yearly Catch Up Amortization Payments (together the “Amortization Payments”) and OPEB Payments, each as hereinafter defined; and
 - (vi) Extending the Wabush Stay Period to July 31, 2015;
- and the Monitor's recommendations with respect to the foregoing.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

8. In preparing this Report, the Monitor has relied upon unaudited financial information of the CCAA Parties, the CCAA Parties' books and records, certain financial information prepared by the CCAA Parties and discussions with various parties (the “Information”).
9. Except as described in this Report:
 - (a) The Monitor has not audited, reviewed or otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the Information in a manner that would comply with Generally Accepted Assurance Standards pursuant to the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants Handbook;

- (b) The Monitor has not examined or reviewed financial forecasts and projections referred to in this report in a manner that would comply with the procedures described in the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants Handbook.
10. Future oriented financial information reported or relied on in preparing this Report is based on management's assumptions regarding future events; actual results may vary from forecast and such variations may be material.
11. The Monitor has prepared this Report in connection with the CCAA Parties' Motions dated May 29, 2015, returnable June 9, 2015 (the "May 29 Motions"). The Report should not be relied on for other purposes.
12. Unless otherwise stated, all monetary amounts contained herein are expressed in Canadian Dollars. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings defined in the Bloom Lake Initial Order, the Wabush Initial Order or previous reports of the Monitor.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

13. Capitalized terms used in the Executive Summary are as defined in the relevant section of the Report.

PAYMENT OF THE CQIM CHROMITE TRANSACTION FEE

14. The Moelis Engagement Letter, including the CQIM Chromite Transaction Fee, was approved by the Court. The Chromite Transaction was approved by the Court and has closed and the CQIM Chromite Transaction Fee is due and payable from the CQIM Chromite Proceeds but the Chromite Approval and Vesting Order prohibits the Monitor from disbursing the CQIM Chromite Proceeds without further Order of the Court.

15. Accordingly, the Monitor supports the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties' request for an Order authorizing and directing the Monitor to pay the CQIM Chromite Transaction Fee to Moelis from the CQIM Chromite Proceeds on behalf of CQIM.

PRIORITY OF THE WABUSH CCAA CHARGES

16. The Monitor is of the view that the Wabush CCAA Parties' request for an Order providing priority for the Wabush CCAA Charges over the Encumbrances is reasonable, appropriate and justified in the circumstances. The Monitor respectfully recommends that such Order be granted.

AMENDMENT AND APPROVAL OF SISP

17. The Monitor is of the view that:
- (a) As the Wabush CCAA Parties are now subject to the CCAA Proceedings it is appropriate that the SISP be approved as it relates to the Wabush CCAA Parties; and
 - (b) As the Wabush CCAA Parties are now subject to the CCAA Proceedings it is appropriate that the SISP be amended and restated to reflect that.
18. Accordingly, the Monitor respectfully recommends that the CCAA Parties' request for approval of the SISP nunc pro tunc as it relates to the Wabush CCAA Parties and approval of the amendment and restatement of the SISP to reflect the inclusion of the Wabush CCAA Parties in the CCAA Proceedings be granted.

MOELIS ENGAGEMENT LETTER AND WABUSH SALE ADVISOR CHARGE

19. The Monitor is of the view that, in the circumstances:

- 8 -

- (a) The continued engagement of Moelis to assist the Wabush CCAA Parties in the implementation of the SISP is beneficial to the estate and its stakeholders generally and to the efficient completion of the CCAA Proceedings;
 - (b) The amounts payable by the Wabush CCAA Parties under the Moelis Engagement Letter are within market parameters; and
 - (c) The creation of the Wabush Sale Advisor Charge is appropriate and not unduly prejudicial to the creditors of the CCAA Parties.
20. Accordingly, the Monitor supports the Wabush CCAA Parties' request for approval of the Moelis Engagement Letter nunc pro tunc as it applies to the Wabush CCAA Parties and the granting of the Wabush Sale Advisor Charge.

SUSPENSION OF AMORTIZATION PAYMENTS AND OPEB PAYMENTS

21. The Monitor is of the view that the continuation of activities to safeguard the assets of the Wabush CCAA Parties while continuing to seek buyers for the assets will maximize recoveries for stakeholders. Continuation of such activities would not be possible without the Interim Financing, which would not be available in the event that the Wabush CCAA Parties are required to make the Amortization Payments and the OPEB Payments. Furthermore, the Wabush CCAA Parties are unable to make the Amortization Payments and the OPEB Payments without additional funding.
22. Accordingly, the Monitor supports the Wabush CCAA Parties' request for suspension of the Amortization Payments and the OPEB Payments.

EXTENSION OF THE WABUSH STAY PERIOD

23. The Monitor is of the view that:

- 9 -

- (a) The Wabush CCAA Parties have acted, and are acting, in good faith and with due diligence;
 - (b) Circumstances exist that make an extension of the Wabush Stay Period appropriate; and
 - (c) Creditors would not be materially prejudiced by an extension of the Wabush Stay Period to July 31, 2015.
24. Accordingly, the Monitor respectfully recommends that the Wabush CCAA Parties' request for an extension of the Wabush Stay Period to July 31, 2015 be granted.

THE ACTIVITIES OF THE WABUSH CCAA PARTIES AND THE MONITOR

25. To date, the Wabush CCAA Parties and their management and staff have provided the Monitor with their full co-operation and unrestricted access to the Wabush CCAA Parties' premises, books and records. The Monitor has implemented procedures for the monitoring of operations, receipts and disbursements and is assisting the Wabush CCAA Parties in their dealings with employees, suppliers, creditors and other interested parties.

NOTICES AND COMMUNICATIONS

26. The Monitor has amended the website at <http://cfcanada.fticonsulting.com/bloomlake> (the "Monitor's Website") on which updates on the CCAA Proceedings are being posted periodically, together with all Court materials filed in the CCAA Proceedings, to include references to the Wabush CCAA Parties. In addition, the Monitor has established contact numbers (416-649-8074 or toll free 1 844-846-7135) and an email address (wabush@fticonsulting.com) to allow stakeholders of the Wabush CCAA Parties to communicate directly with the Monitor in order to address any questions or concerns in respect of the CCAA Proceedings.

- 10 -

27. Pursuant to paragraph 39(a) of the Wabush Initial Order, the Monitor:
- (a) Published the initial notice containing the information prescribed under the CCAA in La Presse on May 22 and May 29, 2015 and in the Globe and Mail (National Edition) on May 25, 2015. Further publication is scheduled for June 1, 2015 in the Globe and Mail;
 - (b) On May 20, 2015 made the Wabush Initial Order publicly available in English and French by posting it on the Monitor's Website;
 - (c) Sent a notice in the prescribed manner to every known creditor with a claim against the CCAA Parties of more than $1,000 in mailings on May 21, May 26 and May 27, 2015; and
 - (d) Posted a list of known creditors on the Monitor's Website on May 20, 2015.
28. Since the granting of the Wabush Initial Order, the Wabush CCAA Parties and the Monitor have had meetings and discussions with suppliers, creditors and other parties with an interest in the Wabush CCAA Proceedings. To date, there has been little or no disruption to the Wabush CCAA Parties' operations.

DISCLAIMER OR RESILIATION OF AGREEMENTS

29. Pursuant to section 32(1) of the CCAA and paragraph 33(e) of the Wabush Initial Order, the Wabush CCAA Parties are entitled to disclaim or resiliate agreements by issuance of notices of disclaimer or resiliation of agreement (each such notice, a "Disclaimer Notice").

- 11 -

30. On May 21, 2015, the CCAA Parties, with the consent of the Monitor, issued three Disclaimer Notices. Pursuant to section 32(2) of the CCAA, the counterparty to each agreement has until June 5, 2015 to apply to court for an order that the agreement is not to be disclaimed or resiliated, failing which the disclaimer or resiliation will be effective on June 20, 2015. The agreements for which Disclaimer Notices were issued on May 21, 2015 are as follows:
- (a) Master Net Locomotive Lease dated February 26, 2010 between CIT Financial (Alberta) ULC and Arnaud Railway Company together with all riders and schedules thereto (as each may be amended, restated, supplemented or modified), including, without limitation, Schedule No. 02 dated March 4, 2011 (as amended by Amendment No. 01 to Lease Schedule No. 02 dated March 12, 2013, and as may be further amended, restated, supplemented or modified, together with the Memorandum of Locomotive Lease dated March 4, 2011) and Schedule No. 03 dated June 17, 2011 (as amended by Amendment No. 01 to Lease Schedule No. 03 dated August 5, 2013, and as may be further amended, restated, supplemented or modified, together with the Memorandum of Locomotive Lease dated June 17, 2011);
 - (b) Rental Agreement with reference number S75794 dated June 20, 2012 between Wabush Mines and Groupe CLR (as may be amended, restated, supplemented or modified); and
 - (c) a rail transportation agreement which includes a provision to the effect that its terms shall be kept confidential.

31. An additional Disclaimer Notice was issued on May 29, 2014 in respect of a lease agreement dated August 1, 2014 between Cliffs Québec Iron Mining Ltd. (now CQIM), as lessee, and Henri Dolino and Vasiliki Kiritsis, as landlords, as amended. The deadline for the counter-party to apply to court for an order that agreement is not to be disclaimed or resiliated is June 13, 2015, failing which the disclaimer or resiliation will be effective on June 28, 2015.

RECEIPTS & DISBURSEMENTS FOR THE PERIOD TO MAY 22, 2015

THE BLOOM LAKE CCAA PARTIES

32. The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties' actual cash flow on a consolidated basis for the period from March 28 to May 22, 2015, was approximately $2.6 million better than the April 2 Forecast, as summarized below:

	Forecast	Actual	Variance
	$000	$000	$000
Receipts	1,902	2,572	670
Disbursements:
Payroll & Employee Benefits	(3,062)	(2,925)	137
Termination & Severance	(1,042)	(983)	59
Utilities	(1,448)	(1,228)	220
Other Operating Disbursements	(3,150)	(1,881)	1,269
Operating Cash Flows	(6,800)	(4,445)	2,355
Restructuring Professional Fees	(4,107)	(2,425)	1,682
Projected Net Cash Flow	(10,907)	(6,870)	4,037
Beginning Cash Balance	47,602	47,602	0
Projected Net Cash Flow	(10,907)	(6,870)	4,037
Foreign Exchange Gain/(Loss)	0	(1,422)	(1,422)
Ending Cash Balance	36,695	39,310	2,615

33. Explanations for the key variances in actual receipts and disbursements as compared to the April 2 Forecast are as follows:

- 13 -

- (a) The favourable variance of approximately $0.7 million in receipts is a combination of a permanent favourable variance of approximately $1.0 million resulting from accounts receivable collections which had not been included in the April 2 Forecast due to uncertainty on collectability and timing of collection offset by an adverse timing variance of $0.3 million in collection of Camp Lease payments;
 - (b) The favourable variance of approximately $1.3 million in other operating disbursements consists of favourable permanent variances totalling approximately $1.2 million as a result of lower than forecast requirements for maintenance and repairs, contractors and transportation and a favourable timing variance of approximately $0.1 million in respect of charges from non-filing affiliates that is expected to reverse in future periods;
 - (c) The favourable variance of approximately $1.7 million in aggregate professional fees is believed to be primarily a timing variance that is expected to reverse in future periods; and
 - (d) The foreign exchange loss results as the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties hold certain funds and make certain payments in U.S. dollars and actual exchange rates vary from those used in the April 2 Forecast.
34. The Bloom Lake Initial Order permits inter-company funding between the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties. To date inter-company funding in the amount of approximately $1.3 million has been advanced from Bloom Lake LP to CQIM since the start of the CCAA Proceedings.

THE WABUSH CCAA PARTIES

35. The Wabush CCAA Parties' actual cash flow, excluding interim financing, on a consolidated basis for the period from May 18 to May 22, 2015, was approximately $0.3 million better than the Wabush May 18 Forecast, as summarized below:

	Forecast	Actual	Variance
	$000	$000	$000
Receipts	0	17	17
Disbursements:
Payroll & Employee Benefits	(32)	(26)	6
Termination & Severance	0	0	0
Contractors	(17)	(40)
Utilities	(36)	0	36
Other Operating Disbursements	(85)	(34)	51
Operating Cash Flows	(170)	(83)	110
Restructuring Professional Fees	(200)	0	200
Projected Net Cash Flow	(370)	(83)	310
Beginning Cash Balance	251	889	638
Interim Financing Draws	250	0	(250)
Projected Net Cash Flow	(370)	(83)	287
Foreign Exchange Gain/(Loss)	0	11	11
Ending Cash Balance	131	817	686

36. Explanations for the key variances in actual receipts and disbursements as compared to the Wabush May 18 Forecast are as follows:
- (a) The favourable variance of $0.2 million in restructuring fees is a timing variance that is expected to reverse in future periods;

- 15 -

- (b) The favourable variance of approximately $0.6 million in beginning cash balance arises as a result of certain payments issued prior to the granting of the Wabush Initial Order which had not cleared the bank accounts being stopped as a result of the granting of the Wabush Initial Order.

PROGRESS OF THE SISP

37. Pursuant to the SISP, the Phase I Bid Deadline for the expression of non-binding letters of intent was May 19, 2015 and a number of letters of intent were received on or before that date. In order to protect the integrity of the SISP, the Monitor is of the view that specific details in respect of the letters of intent received should be kept confidential at this time.
38. The Phase II Bid Deadline for the submission of binding offers has been set as 5:00 p.m. Montréal Time July 16, 2015. The Phase II Bid Deadline has been communicated to all Qualified Phase I Bidders.
39. In parallel with the SISP, the Monitor is seeking proposals for the liquidation of assets. A number of non-binding liquidation proposals have been received and parties have been invited to conduct further diligence in order to submit binding proposals.

THE CQIM TRANSACTION FEE

40. Pursuant to the Moelis Engagement Letter and the Bloom Lake Sale Advisor Order, the CQIM Chromite Transaction Fee is payable to Moelis by CQIM from the CQIM Chromite Proceeds. Pursuant to the Bloom Lake Sale Advisor Order, the amount of the CQIM Chromite Transaction Fee is confidential.

- 16 -

41. Pursuant to the Chromite Approval and Vesting Order, the CQIM Chromite Proceeds are held by the Monitor pending further Order of the Court. It was an oversight that the Chromite Approval and Vesting Order did not authorize the Monitor to make payment of the CQIM Chromite Transaction Fee to Moelis on behalf of CQIM. The Bloom Lake CCAA Parties now seek an Order authorizing and directing the Monitor to pay the CQIM Chromite Transaction Fee from the CQIM Chromite Proceeds to Moelis on behalf of CQIM.
42. The Court approved the Moelis Engagement Letter, including the CQIM Chromite Transaction Fee, and approved the Chromite Transaction. The Chromite Transaction closed on April 28, 2015 and the CQIM Chromite Transaction Fee is due and payable from the CQIM Chromite Proceeds.
43. The Order now sought by the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties authorizing and directing the Monitor to pay the CQIM Chromite Transaction Fee to Moelis on behalf of CQIM is simply an administrative Order necessary as the Chromite Approval and Vesting Order prohibits the Monitor from disbursing the CQIM Chromite Proceeds without further Order of the Court.
44. Accordingly, the Monitor supports the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties' request for an Order authorizing and directing the Monitor to pay the CQIM Chromite Transaction Fee to Moelis on behalf of CQIM from the CQIM Chromite Proceeds.

REQUEST FOR PRIORITY FOR THE WABUSH CCAA CHARGES

45. The Wabush Initial Order created the Wabush CCAA Charges with priority over all claims against the property of the Wabush CCAA Parties except for the claims of any person that is a “secured creditor” as defined in the CCAA and who has not received notice of the Wabush Initial Motion. The Wabush CCAA Charges consist of the Wabush Administration Charge in the amount of $1.75 million, the Wabush Directors’ Charge in the amount of $2.0 million and the Interim Lender Charge in the amount of $15 million.
46. The Wabush CCAA Parties now seek priority for the Wabush CCAA Charges ahead of all Encumbrances on notice to affected parties. For greater certainty, the Wabush CCAA Charges only extend to assets or rights against assets over which the Wabush CCAA Parties hold or acquire title.
47. The beneficiaries of the Wabush Administration Charge are the Monitor, the Monitor’s counsel, counsel to the Wabush CCAA Parties, independent counsel to the Wabush Directors and the Wabush CCAA Parties’ advisors. The Monitor believes that the beneficiaries of the Wabush Administration Charge are, and will be, undertaking a necessary and integral role in the CCAA Proceedings, which CCAA Proceedings will benefit all stakeholders of the Wabush CCAA Parties.
48. The Wabush Directors’ Charge secures an indemnity in favour of the directors and officers of the Wabush CCAA Parties against obligations and liabilities that they may incur as directors or officers of the Wabush CCAA Parties after the granting of the Wabush Initial Order, except to the extent that, with respect to any individual, the obligation or liability was incurred as a result of the individual’s gross negligence, wilful misconduct or gross or intentional fault.

- 18 -

49. It is the Monitor's view that the continued support and service of the directors and officers of the Wabush CCAA Parties during the CCAA Proceedings would be beneficial to the Wabush CCAA Parties' efforts to explore alternatives to preserve value and maximize recoveries for stakeholders. The Monitor has been informed that current directors and officers will not continue to serve unless the requested priority for the Wabush Directors' Charge is granted.
50. It is the Monitor's view that the Interim Financing is essential to enable the Wabush CCAA Parties to complete the SISF for the benefit of all stakeholders. Pursuant to the Interim Financing Term Sheet, the availability of Tranche B of the Interim Financing is conditional upon the Wabush CCAA Parties obtaining the Interim Financing Priority Order, as defined in the Interim Financing Term Sheet.
51. The known potential secured creditors whose claims, subject to having such claims verified and proven, will be subordinated to the Wabush CCAA Charges if the Wabush CCAA Parties' request for priority for the Wabush CCAA Charges is granted are:
- (a) Parties with registered construction liens (the "Wabush Construction Lien Creditors");
 - (b) Parties with movable hypothecs registered against the Wabush CCAA Parties' Property in Quebec (the "Wabush Movable Hypothec Creditors");
 - (c) Parties with security registered under Personal Property Security Acts (Newfoundland and Labrador or Ontario) or the Uniform Commercial Code (Ohio) (the "PPSA/UCC Creditors"); and
 - (d) Any creditor with a valid and enforceable statutory deemed trust.

52. While the claims of Wabush Construction Lien Creditors have not been verified or proven, construction lien claims totalling approximately $2.3 million have been registered against the real property assets.
53. While the claims of Wabush Movable Hypothec Creditors have not been verified or proven, the Wabush CCAA Parties have informed the Monitor that the registrations by the Wabush Movable Hypothec Creditors total approximately $3 million, excluding the hypothec registered by CMC. The amounts registered do not necessarily equate to amounts owing to Wabush Movable Hypothec Creditors.
54. Certain statutes, including the Pension Benefits Act, 1997, SNL 1996, c. P-4.01, may purport to create deemed trusts for certain payments. Whether such deemed trusts exist or would be valid and enforceable in the context of the CCAA Proceedings or a distribution of the Wabush CCAA Parties' assets remains to be determined.
55. The Monitor believes that all of the aforementioned potential secured creditors will benefit from the CCAA Proceedings as the CCAA Proceedings will facilitate the maximization of realizations from the assets subject to such secured claims.
56. The Monitor also notes that claims would only be made on the Wabush Administration Charge in the event that the Wabush CCAA Parties fail to pay the accounts of the beneficiaries and that payment of such accounts is provided for in the Wabush May 18 Forecast.
57. The Monitor further notes that claims would only be made on the Wabush Directors' Charge in the event that:
- (a) The Wabush CCAA Parties fail to pay liabilities that fall due after the granting of the Wabush Initial Order and that could give rise to potential liability for directors; and
 - (b) Any such amounts are not covered by insurance.

58. Accordingly, the Monitor respectfully recommends that the Wabush CCAA Parties' request for priority for the Wabush CCAA Charges be granted by the Court.

APPROVAL AND AMENDMENT OF SISP

59. The Monitor's comments on the SISP and its recommendations relating to the approval of the SISP as it relates to the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties were set out in paragraphs 68 to 73 of the Monitor's Third Report, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix A for ease of reference.
60. As noted in the Monitor's Third Report, the SISP includes the Businesses and assets of the Wabush CCAA Parties.
61. With respect to the Wabush CCAA Parties, the Monitor reiterates the comments made in the Third Report that the Monitor has considered the SISP in light of the principles of section 36 of the CCAA and leading decisions dealing with the sale of assets in court-supervised proceedings and is of the view that the SISP is consistent with those principles and provides for a broad, open, fair and transparent process with an appropriate level of independent oversight, that should encourage and facilitate bidding by interested parties and is reasonable in the circumstances. Furthermore, the Monitor does not believe that any aspect of the SISP should discourage parties from submitting offers.
62. The Monitor is of the view that as the Wabush CCAA Parties are now subject to the CCAA Proceedings it is appropriate that the SISP be amended to reflect that. In that regard a black-line showing the proposed amendments to the SISP is attached hereto as Appendix B.
63. Furthermore, the Monitor is of the view that as the Wabush CCAA Parties are now subject to the CCAA Proceedings it is appropriate that the SISP be approved as it relates to the Wabush CCAA Parties.

64. Accordingly, the Monitor respectfully recommends that the CCAA Parties' request for approval of the SISP nunc pro tunc as it relates to the Wabush CCAA Parties and approval the amendment and restatement of the SISP to reflect the inclusion of the Wabush CCAA Parties in the CCAA Proceedings be granted.

MOELIS ENGAGEMENT AND THE WABUSH SALE ADVISOR CHARGE

65. The Monitor's comments on the Moelis Engagement Letter, as it relates to the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, and on the Bloom Lake Sale Advisor Charge, together with the Monitor's recommendations thereon, were set out in paragraphs 54 to 67 of the Monitor's Third Report.
66. The commentary set out in the Third Report with respect to the Moelis Engagement Letter, as it relates to the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, and on the Bloom Lake Sale Advisor Charge apply equally to the Moelis Engagement Letter as it relates to the Wabush CCAA Parties and to the Wabush Sale Advisor Charge.
67. In that regard, it is the Monitor's view that:
- (a) The continued engagement of Moelis to assist the Wabush CCAA Parties in the implementation of the SISP is beneficial to the estate and its stakeholders generally and to the efficient completion of the CCAA Proceedings;
 - (b) The amounts payable by the Wabush CCAA Parties under the Moelis Engagement Letter are within market parameters; and
 - (c) The creation of the Wabush Sale Advisor Charge, which would rank subordinate to the Wabush CCAA Charges and all secured claims against the Wabush CCAA Parties but in priority to all unsecured creditors of the Wabush CCAA Parties, is appropriate and not unduly prejudicial to the creditors of the CCAA Parties.

68. Accordingly, the Monitor supports the Wabush CCAA Parties' request for approval of the Moelis Engagement Letter nunc pro tunc as it applies to the Wabush CCAA Parties and the granting of the Wabush Sale Advisor Charge.

SUSPENSION OF AMORTIZATION PAYMENTS AND OPEB PAYMENTS

69. As discussed in the May 29 Motion, the Wabush CCAA Parties are required to pay the following amounts in respect of their defined benefit pension plans:
- (a) Monthly amortization payments of $666,555.58, comprising $393,337.00 in respect of the Hourly DB Plan and $273,218.58 in respect of the Salaried DB Plan (the "Monthly Amortization Payments"); and
 - (b) A lump sum amortization payment in July 2015 (the "Yearly Catch Up Amortization Payment") estimated to be approximately $5.5 million.
70. In addition, and also as discussed in the May 29 Motion, the Wabush CCAA Parties currently provide other post-retirement benefits to former hourly and salaried employees and a supplemental retirement arrangement plan to certain current and former employees (payments in respect of the foregoing being collectively the "OPEB Payments").
71. The Wabush CCAA Parties seek the suspension of Amortization Payments and OPEB Payments.
72. Based on the Wabush May 18 Forecast, it is clear that the Wabush CCAA Parties have insufficient liquidity to make the Amortization Payments and the OPEB Payments at this time. Furthermore, paragraph 25(h) of the Interim Financing Term Sheet prohibits the payment of the Amortization Payments and the OPEB Payments.

- 23 -

73. The Monitor is of the view that the continuation of activities to safeguard the assets of the Wabush CCAA Parties while continuing to seek buyers for the assets will maximize recoveries for stakeholders. Continuation of such activities would not be possible without the Interim Financing, which would not be available in the event that the Wabush CCAA Parties are required to make the Amortization Payments and the OPEB Payments.
74. Accordingly, the Monitor supports the Wabush CCAA Parties' request for suspension of the Amortization Payments and the OPEB Payments.

REQUEST FOR AN EXTENSION OF THE STAY PERIOD

75. The Wabush Stay Period currently expires on June 19, 2015. Additional time is required for the Wabush CCAA Parties to undertake the next phase of the SISP and complete any transactions arising therefrom, to develop and seek approval of a procedure for the submission, evaluation and adjudication of claims against the Wabush CCAA Parties and to undertake the other activities necessary to complete the CCAA Proceedings. The continuation of the stay of proceedings is necessary to provide the stability needed during that time. Accordingly, the Wabush CCAA Parties now seek an extension of the Wabush Stay Period to July 31, 2015.
76. The extension of the Wabush Stay Period to July 31, 2015 will make the Wabush Stay Period concurrent with the Bloom Lake Stay Period thereby providing better efficiency and co-ordination of the CCAA Proceedings.
77. The Wabush May 18 Forecast demonstrates that, subject to the underlying assumptions thereof, including the suspension of Amortization Payments and OPEB Payments, the Wabush CCAA Parties have sufficient liquidity to fund the Wabush CCAA Parties to July 31, 2015.

Monitor's 6th Report, June 1, 2015 (cont'd)

- 24 -

78. Based on the information currently available, the Monitor believes that creditors of the Wabush CCAA Parties would not be materially prejudiced by an extension of the Stay Period to July 31, 2015.
79. The Monitor also believes that the Wabush CCAA Parties have acted, and are acting, in good faith and with due diligence and that circumstances exist that make an extension of the Wabush Stay Period appropriate.
80. The Monitor therefore respectfully recommends that this Honourable Court grant the Wabush CCAA Parties' request for an extension of the Wabush Stay Period to July 31, 2015.

The Monitor respectfully submits to the Court this, its Sixth Report.

Dated this 1st day of June, 2015.

INTRODUCTION

1. On January 27, 2015, Bloom Lake General Partner Limited (“Bloom Lake GP”), Quinto Mining Corporation, 8568391 Canada Limited and Cliffs Québec Iron Mining ULC (“CQIM”) (collectively, the “Petitioners”) sought and obtained an initial order (the “Initial Order”) under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”) from the Superior Court of Quebec (the “Court”), providing for, inter alia, a stay of proceedings against the Petitioners until February 26, 2015 (the “Stay Period”) and appointing FTI Consulting Canada Inc. as monitor (the “Monitor”). The relief granted in the Initial Order was also extended to The Bloom Lake Iron Ore Mine Limited Partnership (“Bloom Lake LP”) and Bloom Lake Railway Company Limited (the “Mises-en-Cause” and together with the Petitioners, the “CCAA Parties”). The proceedings commenced under the CCAA by the CCAA Parties will be referred to herein as the “CCAA Proceedings”.
2. Pursuant to the Order of the Honourable Mr. Justice Hamilton, J.S.C. granted February 20, 2015 (the “Amended Initial Order”), the Stay Period was extended to April 30, 2015.
3. To date, the Monitor has filed two reports in respect of various aspects of the CCAA Proceedings. The purpose of this, the Monitor’s Third Report, is to inform the Court on the following:
 - (a) The receipts and disbursements of the CCAA Parties for the period from January 31 to March 27, 2015;

- (b) The CCAA Parties' revised and extended cash flow forecast for the period March 28 to July 31, 2015 (the "April 2 Forecast");
- (c) The CCAA Parties' request, and the Monitor's recommendation thereon, for an Order (the "Chromite Approval and Vesting Order"), which provides for, inter alia:
 - (i) Approval of the proposed transaction (the "Chromite Transaction") contemplated by the Share Purchase Agreement (the "Chromite SPA") dated as of March 22, 2015 by and between CQIM, Cliffs Greene B.V., Cliffs Netherlands B.V., Wabush Resources Inc., Cliffs Canadian Shared Services Inc., Cliffs Natural Resources Exploration Canada Inc. and "CanCo", as vendors, Noront Resources Ltd., as parent, and 9201955 Canada Inc. as purchaser (the "Purchaser"); and
 - (ii) The vesting of all of CQIM's right, title and interest in and to the Amalco Shares (as defined in the Chromite SPA) in and with the Purchaser, free and clear of all encumbrances.
- (d) The CCAA Parties' request for an Order approving the Mount-Wright Camp Lease Agreement dated March 30, 2015, between 8568391 Canada Inc., as landlord, and 8109796 Canada Inc., as tenant (the "Camp Lease") and the Monitor's recommendation thereon;
- (e) The CCAA Parties' request, and the Monitor's recommendation thereon, for:

- (i) Approval of the engagement of Moelis & Company LLC (“Moelis”) pursuant to the terms of the engagement letter between Moelis, CQIM, Bloom Lake GP and others dated March 23, 2015 and effective January 27, 2015 (the “Moelis Engagement Letter”); and
- (ii) The creation of a charge over the property of each CCAA Party securing the Monthly Retainer Fee, Transaction Fees (as such terms are defined in the Moelis Engagement Letter) and expenses reimbursable pursuant to the Moelis Engagement Letter payable by each CCAA Party, on a several basis, to a maximum of US$8 million (the “Sale Advisor Charge”);
- (f) The CCAA Parties’ request for approval of the proposed Sale and Investor Solicitation Process (the “SISP”) and the Monitor’s recommendation thereon; and
- (g) The CCAA Parties’ request for an extension of the Stay Period to July 31, 2015 and the Monitor’s recommendation thereon.

- (b) Further canvassing of the market is not necessary;

11. Accordingly, the Monitor supports the Chromite Motion and respectfully recommends that the Chromite Approval and Vesting Order be granted by the Court.

THE CAMP LEASE MOTION

12. The Monitor is of the view that, in the circumstances:
- (a) The terms of the Camp Lease are reasonable;
 - (b) Approval of the Camp Lease will not adversely affect the SISP; and
 - (c) Approval of the Camp Lease will be beneficial to the CCAA Parties' stakeholders.
13. Accordingly, the Monitor supports the Camp Lease Motion and respectfully recommends that an Order approving the Camp Lease be granted by the Court.

THE MOELIS MOTION

14. The Monitor is of the view that, in the circumstances:
- (a) The engagement of an investment banker to assist the CCAA Parties in the implementation of the SISP is beneficial to the estate and its stakeholders generally and to the efficient completion of the CCAA Proceedings;
 - (b) Moelis is a logical, appropriate and qualified choice;

- (c) The amounts payable under the Moelis Engagement Letter are within market parameters; and
 - (d) The creation of the Sale Advisor Charge is appropriate and not unduly prejudicial to the creditors of the CCAA Parties.
15. Accordingly, the Monitor supports the Moelis Motion and respectfully recommends that the CCAA Parties' request for the approval of the engagement of Moelis pursuant to the terms of the Moelis Engagement Letter and the creation of the Sale Advisor Charge be granted by the Court.

THE SISP MOTION

16. The Monitor is of the view that, in the circumstances, the SISP:
- (a) Provides for a broad, open, fair and transparent process;
 - (b) Has an appropriate level of independent oversight;
 - (c) Should encourage and facilitate bidding by interested parties; and
 - (d) Should not discourage parties from submitting offers.
17. Accordingly, the Monitor supports the SISP Motion and respectfully recommends that an Order approving the SISP be granted by the Court.

THE STAY EXTENSION

18. The Monitor is of the view that:
- (a) The CCAA Parties have acted, and are acting, in good faith and with due diligence;
 - (b) Circumstances exist that make an extension of the Stay Period appropriate; and

(c) Creditors would not be materially prejudiced by an extension of the Stay Period to July 31, 2015.

19. Accordingly, the Monitor respectfully recommends that the CCAA Parties' request for an extension of the Stay Period to July 31, 2015 be granted.

RECEIPTS & DISBURSEMENTS FOR THE PERIOD TO MARCH 27, 2015

20. The CCAA Parties' actual cash flow on a consolidated basis for the period from January 31 to March 27, 2015, was approximately $6.8 million better than the February 4 Forecast, as summarized below:

	Forecast	Actual	Variance
	$000	$000	$000
Receipts	100	1,286	1,186
Disbursements:
Payroll & Employee Benefits	(3,713)	(2,952)	761
Termination & Severance	(320)	(343)	(23)
Utilities	(480)	(542)	(62)
Other Operating Disbursements	(4,978)	(2,217)	2,761
Operating Cash Flows	(9,391)	(4,768)	4,623
Restructuring Professional Fees	(2,896)	(1,389)	1,507
Projected Net Cash Flow	(12,287)	(6,157)	6,130
Beginning Cash Balance	53,062	53,539	477
Projected Net Cash Flow	(12,287)	(6,157)	6,130
Foreign Exchange Gain/(Loss)	0	220	220
Ending Cash Balance	40,775	47,602	6,827

21. Explanations for the key variances in actual receipts and disbursements as compared to the February 4 Forecast are as follows:

- (a) The favourable variance of approximately $1.2 million in receipts is a permanent variance of which approximately $1.0 million results from accounts receivable collections and $0.2 million in sales tax refunds, neither of which had been included in the February 4 Forecast due to uncertainty on collectability and timing of collection;
- (b) The favourable variance of approximately $0.8 million in payroll and benefits is a combination of a favourable timing variance of approximately $0.9 million related to outplacement services and other benefits assumed paid on a weekly basis but which are actually being paid as services are utilized and is expected to reverse in future periods and an unfavourable permanent variance of approximately $0.1 million arising from the payment of certain contractual bonuses that had been inadvertently omitted from the February 4 Forecast;
- (c) The favourable variance of approximately $2.8 million in other operating disbursements consists of a favourable permanent variance with respect to payments of sales taxes totalling approximately $1.2 million and a favourable variance of approximately $1.6 million in other amounts, the majority of which is believed to be a permanent variance;
- (d) The favourable variance of approximately $1.5 million in aggregate professional fees is a timing variance that is expected to reverse in future periods; and
- (e) The favourable variance of approximately $0.5 million in beginning cash balance arises from the reversal of payments stopped as a result of the commencement of the CCAA Proceedings which had been assumed to have cleared when the February 4 Forecast was prepared.

REQUEST FOR THE CHROMITE APPROVAL AND VESTING ORDER

25. Capitalized terms used in this section of this Report not otherwise defined are as defined in the Chromite SPA.

THE CHROMITE MARKETING PROCESS

26. Details of the process undertaken for the solicitation of offers for the assets proposed to be sold pursuant to the Chromite SPA (the “Chromite Marketing Process”) are set out in the CCAA Parties’ Motion For The Issuance Of An Approval and Vesting Order With Respect To The Sale Of The Chromite Shares dated April 2, 2015 (the “Chromite Motion”).
27. The Monitor discussed the Chromite Marketing Process with the CCAA Parties and Moelis and was given the opportunity to provide input on the conduct of the Marketing Process.
28. Paragraph 82 of the Chromite Motion states:
- “82. Given the marketing effort to date, limited number of participants in the chromite market, the uniqueness of the assets, the challenges described above in respect of the Ring of Fire and the fact that CNR's intentions to sell its investment in the Ring of Fire projects have been publicly known to the market since the fall of 2014 at the latest, the CCAA Parties are of the view that further canvassing of the market is not necessary.”
29. Moelis has also informed the Monitor that it is of the view that further canvassing of the market is not necessary.

THE CHROMITE SPA

30. A redacted copy of the Chromite SPA is attached to the Chromite Motion as Exhibit R-9. The only redactions are to maintain as confidential the allocation of the portion of the Purchase Price between those Sellers that are not CCAA Parties.
31. The key provisions of the Chromite SPA are as follows:

- 11 -

- (a) The Purchaser shall purchase the Purchased Shares for an aggregate purchase price of US$20 million payable in cash, of which a deposit of US$200,000 has been paid and is being held by the Monitor;
- (b) The Purchase Price is allocated amongst the Sellers such that CQIM will receive US$14,298,806.10 or 71.49% of the Purchase Price, subject to a potential small adjustment prior to closing;
- (c) Closing shall take place one business day after the satisfaction of the conditions precedent to Closing and shall be deemed to occur when the Monitor's Certificate, which shall also be filed with the Court, is delivered to the Purchaser and the Sellers;
- (d) The Sellers shall not encourage, solicit, initiate discussions with or engage in negotiations with any person with respect to an Acquisition Proposal and shall terminate any such efforts;
- (e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a written Acquisition Proposal is received and the Sellers determine, after consultation with the Monitor, that such proposal is, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, a Superior Proposal, the Sellers shall be entitled to pursue such Superior Proposal and, if the Sellers determine that the completion of the resultant Alternative Proposal is reasonably likely, terminate the Chromite SPA and pay the Expense Reimbursement; and
- (f) The Expense Reimbursement provides for the reimbursement to the Purchaser of reasonable documented out-of-pocket fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Chromite SPA to a maximum of CAD$250,000 if the Chromite SPA is terminated as described in (e) above.

- 12 -

32. The Chromite SPA is subject to a number of conditions. The obligation of the Chromite Purchaser and the Sellers to complete the Transaction is subject to the following conditions being satisfied or waived by all parties:
- (a) All Required Consents shall have been obtained in form and on terms satisfactory to Purchaser, Parent and the Sellers, each acting reasonably;
 - (b) The Chromite Approval and Vesting Order shall have been issued and entered in substantially the form of Exhibit G to the Chromite SPA (with such amendments as agreed to by the Purchaser, the Parent and the Sellers, in each case acting reasonably) and the Chromite Approval and Vesting Order shall not have been amended or modified in a manner prejudicial to any of the Parties or set aside, vacated or stayed;
 - (c) There shall be in effect no Law, or any order, injunction, decree or judgment of any court or other Government Entity making it illegal or directly or indirectly prohibiting, restraining, enjoining or preventing the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by the Chromite SPA.
33. The obligation of the Sellers to complete the Transaction is subject to the following conditions being fulfilled or waived by the Sellers:
- (a) Each of the representations and warranties contained in Article III, in each case disregarding all materiality and Material Adverse Effect qualifications contained therein, shall be true and correct (i) as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of such date or (ii) if made as of a date specified therein, as of such date, except, in each case, for any failure to be true and correct that, individually and together with other such failures, has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;

- 13 -

- (b) The Purchaser and Parent shall each have performed in all material respects all material covenants, obligations and agreements contained in the Chromite SPA required to be performed by the Purchaser and Parent on or before the Closing;
- (c) The Sellers shall have been furnished with a certificate signed by a senior officer of each of the Purchaser and Parent certifying that the conditions set forth in Section 9.2(a) and Section 9.2(b) of the Chromite SPA have been satisfied;
- (d) The Sellers shall have been furnished with a certificate signed by a senior officer of each of the Purchaser and Parent certifying: (i) the constating documents and By-Laws of Purchaser and Parent; (ii) directors' resolutions of each of Purchaser and Parent authorizing the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Transaction Documents and the performance of each such entity's obligations under this Agreement and the Transaction Documents; and (iii) certificates of incumbency of Purchaser and Parent;
- (e) The Purchaser and the Parent shall have certified in writing to the Sellers on the Closing Date that there have been no amendments to the Loan Documentation since such Loan Documentation was provided to the Purchaser and the Parent in accordance with Section 6.13 (other than any such amendments which have been consented to in writing by the Sellers in accordance with Section 6.13); and
- (f) The Purchaser and the Parent shall have performed and complied with all of the terms and conditions in the Chromite SPA on its part to be performed or complied with at or before the Closing and shall have executed and delivered or caused to have been executed or delivered to the Sellers at the Closing all the documents contemplated by the Chromite SPA to be executed by them.

- 14 -

34. The obligation of the Purchaser and the Parent to complete the Transaction is subject to the following conditions being fulfilled or waived by the Purchaser:
- (a) Each of the representations and warranties set forth in Article IV and Article V, in each case disregarding all materiality and Material Adverse Effect qualifications contained therein, shall be true and correct (i) as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of such date or (ii) if made as of a date specified therein, as of such date, except, in each case, for any failure to be true and correct that, individually and together with other such failures, has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect;
 - (b) The Sellers shall have complied in all material respects with all material covenants, obligations and agreements contained in this Agreement required to be performed by the Sellers on or before the Closing;
 - (c) Between the date of the Chromite SPA and the Closing Date, there shall have been no Material Adverse Effect in respect of the Targets;
 - (d) Upon completion of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the Purchaser shall own 100% of the Purchased Shares free and clear of all Liens (other than Permitted Encumbrances);
 - (e) The Parent and Purchaser shall have entered into the Loan Documentation and shall have received funds thereunder in an amount not less than the Purchase Price;
 - (f) The Pre-Acquisition Reorganization shall have been effected in the manner described in Exhibit H;
 - (g) The Sellers shall have settled all Related-Party Debt in accordance with Exhibit H and in accordance with Section 6.5;

- 15 -

- (h) The Purchaser and Parent shall have received the written resignation of all the officers and directors of Amalco and RoadCo, together with a release and discharge in the form of Exhibit F;
- (i) The Purchaser and Parent shall have been furnished with a certificate signed by a senior officer of each of the Sellers that the conditions set forth in Section 9.3(a) and Section 9.3(b) have been satisfied;
- (j) The Purchaser and Parent shall have been furnished with a certificate signed by a senior officer or managing director, as the case may be, of each of the Sellers certifying: (i) the constating documents and By-Laws of Amalco, CQIM, Cliffs Greene and Cliffs Netherlands and the Additional Sellers; (ii) directors' resolutions of each of the Sellers authorizing the execution and delivery of the Chromite SPA and the Transaction Documents and the performance of each such entity's obligations under the Chromite SPA and the Transaction Documents; (iii) directors' or shareholders' resolutions, as required, of the Sellers, Cliffs Far North, Cliffs Ontario and Amalco authorizing the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Pre-Acquisition Reorganization and the transfer of the Purchased Shares; and (iv) certificates of incumbency of the Sellers;
- (k) The Purchaser and Parent will have received all minute books and share ledgers of Cliffs Ontario, Cliffs Far North, Amalco and RoadCo; and
- (l) Each Seller shall have performed and complied, in all material respects, with all of the terms and conditions in the Chromite SPA on its part to be performed or complied with at or before the Closing and shall have executed and delivered or caused to have been executed or delivered to the Purchaser at the Closing all the documents contemplated by this Agreement to be executed by them.

THE MONITOR'S COMMENTS AND RECOMMENDATION

35. While the inclusion of an expense reimbursement in a CCAA sale agreement is, in the Monitor's view, unusual except where such an agreement is being positioned as a "stalking horse agreement", in this case the Sellers have negotiated the ability to terminate the Chromite SPA in order to proceed with an Alternative Proposal if such a course of action would be beneficial to stakeholders in return for payment of the Expense Reimbursement.
36. The Monitor notes that the Expense Reimbursement is only payable in the event that the Sellers terminate the Chromite SPA to proceed with an Alternative Proposal and the maximum Expense Reimbursement of CAD$250,000 represents only approximately 1% of the Purchase Price at current CAD$/US$ exchange rates. Accordingly, the Monitor believes that the Expense Reimbursement is reasonable in the circumstances of the transaction.
37. The inclusion of a financing condition in favour of the Purchaser and Parent that must only be satisfied by the Closing Date provides some risk that Closing may not occur notwithstanding the granting of the Chromite Approval and Vesting Order. In accordance with section 6.13 of the Chromite SPA, the Sellers have been provided with a copy of the Loan Documentation pursuant to which the Purchaser and the Parent are to be provided with the necessary financing to satisfy the Purchase Price. While the Loan Documentation is itself subject to a number of conditions to closing, CQIM has informed the Monitor that it has reviewed the Loan Documentation and has a reasonable degree of confidence that the financing condition will be satisfied such that Closing can occur.
38. The proposed form of the Chromite Approval and Vesting Order provides for approval of the Chromite Transaction. The Monitor notes that the Chromite Transaction involves transactions by Sellers that are not CCAA Parties but that the Purchaser wishes to purchase all of the Purchased Shares and is requesting that the Chromite Approval and Vesting Order be sought in the form proposed.

39. Section 36(1) of the CCAA states:

“36(1) Restriction on disposition of business assets - A debtor company in respect of which an order has been made under this Act may not sell or otherwise dispose of assets outside the ordinary course of business unless authorized to do so by a court. Despite any requirement for shareholder approval, including one under federal or provincial law, the court may authorize the sale or disposition even if shareholder approval was not obtained.”

40. Section 36(3) of the CCAA states:

“(3) Factors to be considered - In deciding whether to grant the authorization, the court is to consider, among other things,

(a) whether the process leading to the proposed sale or disposition was reasonable in the circumstances;

(b) whether the monitor approved the process leading to the proposed sale or disposition;

(c) whether the monitor filed with the court a Report stating that in their opinion the sale or disposition would be more beneficial to the creditors than a sale or disposition under a bankruptcy;

(d) the extent to which the creditors were consulted;

(e) the effects of the proposed sale or disposition on the creditors and other interested parties; and

- 18 -

(f) whether the consideration to be received for the assets is reasonable and fair, taking into account their market value.”

41. The Monitor has considered the conduct of the Chromite Marketing Process in light of the principles of leading decisions regarding Court-approved sales of assets¹ and is satisfied that the marketing process was fair, transparent and reasonable in the circumstances. Furthermore, the Monitor concurs with the views of the CCAA Parties and Moelis that further canvassing of the market is not necessary in the circumstances.
42. Paragraphs 70 to 72 of the Chromite Motion describe the circumstances with respect to the Additional LOI, as defined in the Chromite Motion and the determination that it was in the best interests of CQIM and the other Sellers to proceed to finalize and execute the proposed Transaction with the Purchaser, rather than terminate those negotiations and pursue a transaction based on the Additional LOI. The Monitor was consulted on that determination and is of the view that, given the conditionality of the Additional LOI, the downside risk of terminating negotiations with the Purchaser when the execution of the Chromite SPA appeared imminent outweighed the benefit of a potentially higher purchase price if the conditions of the Additional LOI could be satisfied and a definitive agreement negotiated at that price. Accordingly, the Monitor concurs with CQIM's assessment.

- 19 -

43. The Chromite Marketing Process started long before the commencement of the CCAA Proceedings. However, since its appointment, the Monitor has been provided with all the information it has requested in respect of the Chromite Marketing Process, including the expressions of interest and letters of intent obtained. The CCAA Parties have provided their full cooperation and have consulted with the Monitor in respect of all material decisions with respect to the Chromite Marketing Process since the commencement of the CCAA Proceedings.
44. There are no creditors of the estate that hold security over the Purchased Shares. Accordingly, it was not considered necessary or appropriate to consult with creditors. However, the Monitor notes that Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. and its subsidiaries are likely, in the aggregate, the largest creditors in the estate and that a number of those entities are parties to the Chromite SPA so were directly involved in its negotiation.
45. The Monitor is of the view that results of the Chromite Marketing Process indicate that the Purchase Price is fair and reasonable in the circumstances. The allocation of the Purchase Price amongst the Sellers has been made based on the relative amounts of Related-Party Debt. The Monitor has discussed the Purchase Price allocation methodology with the Sellers and their advisors and is satisfied that the methodology is fair and reasonable in the circumstances.
46. Based on the foregoing, the Monitor supports the Chromite Motion and respectfully recommends that the Chromite Approval and Vesting Order be granted by the Court.

REQUEST FOR APPROVAL OF THE CAMP LEASE

47. Capitalized terms used in this section of this Report not otherwise defined are as defined in the Camp Lease.

THE CAMP LEASE

48. A description of the Mont-Wright Camp and the previous occupation and service arrangements is set out in the CCAA Parties' Motion For Approval Of The Lease Of Certain Property By The Petitioner 8568391 Canada Inc. dated April 1, 2015 (the "Camp Lease Motion").
49. The key terms of the Camp Lease are summarized as follows:
- (a) The term of the Camp Lease is twenty-four months commencing on February 1, 2015, unless sooner terminated or extended under the provisions of the Camp Lease;
 - (b) Provided that the Tenant is not in default of its obligations under the Camp Lease beyond any applicable cure period, the Tenant will have three options to renew the Camp Lease with respect to all or any portion of the Leased Premises then subject to the Camp Lease, each for a period of twelve months;
 - (c) The net rent payable for the Term of the Camp Lease and any renewals is $100,000 per month and, in addition to the net rent, the Tenant shall pay as additional rental to the Landlord equal to one hundred percent of all taxes and operating expenses of the Leased Premises plus all applicable taxes;
 - (d) The Tenant undertakes to provide cafeteria services to approximately fifty-five of the employees and other invitees of the Landlord, its affiliates or related entities for the months of March and April 2015 and to approximately thirty-five of the employees and other invitees of the Landlord, its affiliates or related entities for the remainder of the Term of the Camp Lease starting May 1, 2015 at the Fermont mining camp owned by the Tenant and situated in Fermont, Quebec;

- 21 -

- (e) The Landlord shall have the right at its sole discretion to assign its rights and obligations under the Camp Lease or otherwise transfer the Leased Premises and the Building to a third party without obtaining the consent of the Tenant;
- (f) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Camp Lease, the Landlord or the Tenant shall have the right to terminate the Camp Lease at any time during the Term or Renewal Option provided it notifies the other party with a prior ninety days written notice; and
- (g) The Camp Lease is conditional on Court approval in accordance with paragraph 33(c) of the Amended Initial Order.

THE MONITOR'S COMMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

50. The CCAA Parties state in paragraphs 21 to 25 of the Camp Lease Motion that:

“21. The rent payments and the terms of the Lease were negotiated at arm's length.

22. Given the location of the Leased Premises, no persons other than the CCAA Parties (including a future owner or operator of the Bloom Lake Mine) and the Tenant would have any use for the Leased Premises.

23. If the Landlord were not to lease the Leased Premises to the Tenant pursuant to the Lease, the Leased Premises would remain empty and CQIM would have to continue to bear the costs of maintaining them.

24. The CCAA Parties believe that entering into the Lease constitutes the most effective way of realizing cashflow from the Leased Premises, for the ultimate benefit of the CCAA Parties' creditors and other stakeholders.

- 22 -

25. The terms of the Lease, including the termination rights, were negotiated such that the Lease would not be prejudicial to the sale process to be formally entered into shortly by the CCAA Parties.”

51. The Monitor was consulted throughout the process of negotiating the Camp Lease and concurs with the above statements.
52. The Monitor is of the view that:
- (a) The terms of the Camp Lease are reasonable in the circumstances;
 - (b) Approval of the Camp Lease will not adversely affect the SISF; and
 - (c) Approval of the Camp Lease will be beneficial to the CCAA Parties' stakeholders.
53. Accordingly, the Monitor supports the Camp Lease Motion and respectfully recommends that an Order approving the Camp Lease be granted by the Court.

REQUEST FOR APPROVAL OF THE MOELIS ENGAGEMENT LETTER AND THE CREATION OF THE SALE ADVISOR CHARGE

54. Capitalized terms used in this section of this Report not otherwise defined are as defined in the Moelis Engagement Letter.

THE MOELIS ENGAGEMENT LETTER

55. As described in the CCAA Parties' Motion For Authorization Of The Engagement Of A Sale Advisor And Amending The Initial Order dated April 2, 2015 (the “Moelis Motion”), Moelis has been assisting with efforts to sell the businesses and assets of the CCAA Parties and their Canadian affiliates for some time, both before and after the commencement of the CCAA Proceedings.

- 23 -

56. The Moelis Engagement Letter is dated March 23, 2015 and contains the following key terms:
- (a) The parties to the Moelis Engagement Letter include CQIM, Bloom Lake GP and certain of their affiliates that are not Petitioners or Mises-en-cause in the CCAA Proceedings (the “Non-CCAA SISP Parties”), which is consistent with the inclusion of business and assets of the Non-CCAA SISP Parties in the proposed SISP;
 - (b) The amounts payable under the Moelis Engagement Letter are as follows:
 - (i) The Monthly Retainer Fee payable on the first day of each month during the period commencing on the Effective Date and ending on the earlier of (x) the six month anniversary of the Moelis Engagement Letter, (y) closing of a Transaction relating to such Business, and (z) termination of the Moelis Engagement Letter. The last three Monthly Retainer Fees shall be offset, to the extent paid, against the Transaction Fee;
 - (ii) The Transaction Fee, calculated separately with respect to each Transaction and payable promptly at the closing of a Transaction;
 - (iii) The Termination Fee, calculated as a percentage of any Termination Amount received as a result of a Transaction failing to close;
 - (iv) Out-of-pocket and documented reasonable expenses as they are incurred, subject to monthly and aggregate maximums;

- 24 -

- (c) The CCAA Parties are not responsible for the payment of Monthly Retainer Fees, Transaction Fees or Termination Fees relating to Non-CCAA SISP Parties;
 - (d) A Tail Period of twelve months in respect of Transaction Fees and Termination Fees;
 - (e) CQIM and Bloom Lake GP will use their reasonable best efforts to seek the Moelis Approval Order in a form acceptable to Moelis, acting reasonably;
 - (f) The CCAA Parties are required to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain a charge over the property of each CCAA Party securing the Monthly Retainer Fee, Transaction Fees and expenses reimbursable pursuant to the Moelis Engagement Letter payable by each CCAA Party, on a several basis, with such charge having priority over all claims of unsecured creditors of such CCAA Parties, but to be subordinated to the Administration Charge and Directors' Charge and all secured claims;
 - (g) A broad indemnity in favour of Moelis and its affiliates and any of their respective current or former directors, officers, partners, managers, agents, representatives or employees, including any person controlling Moelis or any of its affiliates.
57. The payment of the Transaction Fees payable under the Moelis Engagement Letter has been guaranteed by Cliffs Natural Resources Inc. (“CNR”) the ultimate parent of the CCAA Parties pursuant to a confidential letter agreement between Moelis and CNR dated March 23, 2015 (the “Moelis/CNR Letter”).

58. In addition, the Moelis/CNR Letter provides for payment of the Transaction Fee in respect of certain amounts for which the Transaction Fee would not be payable under the terms of the Moelis Engagement Letter and without duplication to any amount already included in the Transaction Fee payable (or paid) under the Moelis Engagement Letter.

THE SALE ADVISOR CHARGE

59. As noted above, pursuant to the Moelis Engagement Letter, the CCAA Parties are required to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain a charge over the property of each CCAA Party securing the Monthly Retainer Fee, Transaction Fees (as such terms are defined in the Moelis Engagement Letter) and expenses reimbursable pursuant to the Moelis Engagement Letter payable by each CCAA Party, on a several basis, with such charge having priority over all claims of unsecured creditors of such CCAA Parties, but to be subordinated to the Administration Charge and Directors' Charge and all secured claims.
60. The Sale Advisor Charge, if granted, would be limited to a maximum of US$8 million, being the maximum amount of the Transaction Fees that could become payable by the CCAA Parties under the Moelis Engagement Letter.

THE MONITOR'S COMMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

61. Moelis is a well-known financial advisor and investment banker and has significant experience in providing such services in the context of court supervised restructuring proceedings. The engagement with the CCAA Parties is under the supervision of Mr. Mark Henkels, Managing Director, and Mr. Carlo De Girolamo, Senior Vice President.

- 26 -

62. The Monitor is of the view that the engagement of an investment banker to assist the CCAA Parties in the implementation of the SISP is, in the circumstances of these CCAA Proceedings, beneficial to the estate and its stakeholders generally and to the efficient completion of the CCAA Proceedings. Furthermore, Moelis has already been providing assistance and advice to the CCAA Parties for some time and is familiar with the businesses and assets. Accordingly, the Monitor is of the view that Moelis is a logical and appropriate choice in the circumstances.
63. While the appointment of an investment banker is not uncommon in CCAA cases, the details of compensation arrangements are often kept confidential. Accordingly, exhaustive research on compensation arrangements approved in CCAA cases is difficult, if not impossible.
64. The Monitor and its counsel have reviewed publicly available information in respect of CCAA filings and have identified a number of recent CCAA cases in which an investment banker has been appointed. Publicly available information with respect to the terms of the engagements in those cases is summarized in Appendix B hereto. Based on this information, together with non-public engagement terms from other proceedings of which the Monitor or its counsel has knowledge, the Monitor is of the view that the amounts payable under the Moelis Engagement Letter are within market parameters.
65. While the Transaction Fees are payable on closing of Transactions, Transaction Value includes assumed liabilities and it is possible that, in certain circumstances, the Transaction Fee could exceed the amount of cash purchase price in a Transaction. Accordingly, Moelis has requested that the CCAA Parties seek the creation of the Sale Advisor Charge to secure payment of the Transaction Fees payable by the CCAA Parties. The Monitor is of the view that although the risk of a claim under the Sale Advisor Charge is remote, the creation of the Sale Advisor Charge is nonetheless appropriate and not unduly prejudicial to the creditors of the CCAA Parties in the circumstances.

66. The Monitor has reviewed the CNR/Moelis Letter and is satisfied that any amounts payable thereunder are not in duplication of amounts payable under the Moelis Engagement Letter. Indeed, while it is not possible for the Monitor to identify and consider all possible transaction scenarios, the Monitor has not been able to construct any likely scenario where additional amounts would be payable under the CNR/Moelis Letter. Furthermore, the Monitor does not view the CNR/Moelis Letter as creating any conflict of interest for Moelis.
67. Accordingly, the Monitor supports the Moelis Motion and respectfully recommends that the CCAA Parties' request for the approval of the engagement of Moelis pursuant to the terms of the Moelis Engagement Letter and the creation the Sale Advisor Charge.

REQUEST FOR APPROVAL OF THE SISP

68. Capitalized terms used in this section of this Report not otherwise defined are as defined in the SISP, which is attached as Exhibit R-3 to the CCAA Parties' Motion For An Order Approving A Sale And Investor Solicitation Process dated April 2, 2015 (the "SISP Motion").

THE SISP

69. The key aspects of the SISP are summarized as follows:
- (a) The property that is available for sale pursuant to the SISP is comprised of all property, assets and undertaking (other the Chromite Shares) of the CCAA Parties and Wabush Iron Co. Limited, Wabush Resources Inc., Arnaud Railway Company and Wabush Lake Railway Company, Limited (the "Non-CCAA Parties") and together with the CCAA Parties, collectively, the "Companies"; the businesses in which an investment may be made pursuant to the SISP are the Bloom Lake Business, the Wabush Mine Business and the Port Business;

- 28 -

- (b) Qualified Phase I Bidders will have the opportunity to submit a Sale Proposal or a Plan Sponsorship Proposal. Sale Proposals and Plan Sponsorship Proposals may be in respect of only a part or parts of the Property or Businesses, and any such proposal will not be precluded from consideration as an acceptable LOI, Qualified Bid or Successful Bid;
- (c) A list of Prospective Bidders will be prepared and appropriate advertising will be determined, which may include newspaper, trade publication, internet or other advertising directed at Prospective Bidders;
- (d) Prospective Bidders will be required to sign a Confidentiality Agreement in order to gain access to the Summary of Businesses, the Data Room and other confidential information;
- (e) Unless otherwise provided for herein, ordered by the Court or agreed to by the Monitor, in order to participate in the SISP and be considered for qualification as a Qualified Phase I Bidder, a Prospective Bidder must deliver by the LOI Deadline, being 5:00 p.m. (Montréal time) on May 19, 2015 or such later date and/or time as the applicable Companies in respect of one or more Businesses may, in consultation with the Monitor, determine appropriate or as the Court may order;
- (f) The Companies, in consultation with Moelis and the Monitor, shall consider each LOI and the other materials submitted by a Prospective Bidder whether or not the Prospective Bidder constitutes a Qualified Phase I Bidder;

- 29 -

- (g) Notwithstanding the process and deadlines with respect to LOIs, the Companies, in consultation with Moelis and the Monitor, may at any time prior to the applicable Bid Deadline bring a motion to seek approval of a stalking horse purchase agreement in respect of some or all of the Property and related amendments to the SISP, including with respect to an extension to the applicable Bid Deadline;
- (h) Binding offers for a Sale Proposal or Plan Sponsorship Proposal must be submitted in writing by the Bid Deadline, which will be determined by the applicable Companies, in consultation with Moelis and the Monitor, or as may be fixed by the Court;
- (i) If, after consultation with Moelis and Monitor, the applicable Companies determine that only one Qualified Bid, which may include a combination of non-overlapping Qualified Portion Bids, was received, the applicable Companies may choose to accept such Qualified Bid and take such steps as are necessary to finalize and complete an agreement for the Successful Bid with the Successful Bidder;
- (j) If, after consultation with Moelis and Monitor, the applicable Companies determine that more than one Qualified Bid was received with respect to one or more Businesses or a part thereof, then the applicable Companies shall conduct one or more Auctions to determine the highest and/or best Sale Proposal or Plan Sponsorship Proposal or Aggregated Bid for one or more of the Businesses or any part thereof; and
- (k) All Successful Bids involving the CCAA Parties' Business or Property shall be subject to approval of the Court.

70. The SISP includes requirements for the Companies to consult with the Monitor throughout the process. Non-material amendments may be made to the SISP as agreed to by the Companies and the Monitor. No material amendment to the SISP can be made without the approval of the Court on notice to the Service List.

THE MONITOR'S COMMENTS AND RECOMMENDATION

71. As noted above, the SISP includes the Businesses and assets of the Non-CCAA Parties. Given the nature and locations of the assets and Businesses and the degree of reliance between certain of them, the Monitor is of the view that the inclusion of the Non-CCAA Parties is beneficial as it is possible that interested parties may wish to acquire combinations of businesses or assets of both the CCAA Parties and Non-CCAA Parties.
72. The Monitor has considered the SISP in light of the principles of section 36 of the CCAA and leading decisions dealing with the sale of assets in court-supervised proceedings and is of the view that the SISP is consistent with those principles and provides for a broad, open, fair and transparent process with an appropriate level of independent oversight, that should encourage and facilitate bidding by interested parties and is reasonable in the circumstances. Furthermore, the Monitor does not believe that any aspect of the SISP should discourage parties from submitting offers.
73. Accordingly, the Monitor respectfully recommends that the CCAA Parties' request for approval of the SISP be granted.

REQUEST FOR AN EXTENSION OF THE STAY PERIOD

74. The Stay Period currently expires on April 30, 2015. Additional time is required for the CCAA Parties to implement the SISP, if the SISP is approved by the Court, and complete any transactions arising therefrom, to develop and seek approval of a procedure for the submission, evaluation and adjudication of claims against the CCAA Parties and to undertake the other activities necessary to complete the CCAA Proceedings. The continuation of the stay of proceedings is necessary to provide the stability needed during that time. Accordingly, the CCAA Parties now seek an extension of the Stay Period to July 31, 2015.
75. The April 2 Forecast demonstrates that, subject to the underlying assumptions thereof, the CCAA Parties have sufficient liquidity to fund the CCAA Proceedings to July 31 2015. Consistent with the February 4 Forecast and as disclosed to the Court, the April 2 Forecast does not include payment of equipment financing and leases or Take or Pay Amounts.
76. Based on the information currently available, the Monitor believes that creditors would not be materially prejudiced by an extension of the Stay Period to July 31, 2015.
77. The Monitor also believes that the CCAA Parties have acted, and are acting, in good faith and with due diligence and that circumstances exist that make an extension of the Stay Period appropriate.
78. The Monitor therefore respectfully recommends that this Honourable Court grant the CCAA Parties' request for an extension of the Stay period to July 31, 2015.

The Companies reserve the right, in their reasonable business judgment, and after consultation with the Sale Advisor and Monitor, to make one or more adjournments in an Auction to, among other things: (i) facilitate discussions between the applicable Companies and individual Auction Bidders; (ii) allow individual Auction Bidders to consider how they wish to proceed;

- 29 -

(iii) consider and determine the current highest and/or best Overbid at any given time during the Auction; and (iv) give Auction Bidders the opportunity to provide the applicable Companies with such additional evidence as they may require, in their reasonable business judgment and in consultation with the Sale Advisor and Monitor, to show that the Auction Bidder's bid complies with the requirements of an Overbid (including in respect of the required internal corporate or credit committee approvals and evidence of sufficient funding commitments or other financial capability to consummate the proposed transaction).

- (j) Closing the Auction. If, in any round of bidding, no new Overbid is made, such Auction shall be closed and the applicable Companies shall, in consultation with the Sale Advisor and Monitor, declare the last Opening Bid as a "Successful Bid" and the Auction Bidder submitting such Successful Bid a "Successful Bidder" and advise such Successful Bidder of such determination and all other applicable Auction Bidders that they are not a Successful Bidder. For greater certainty, the selection of a Successful Bid and a Successful Bidder shall not be deemed a rejection of any other Overbid or Qualified Bid and each Overbid and Qualified Bid shall remain binding, irrevocable and open for acceptance until at least 11:59 p.m. Montréal Time on the Business Day after the closing of a Successful Bid relating to the same Property and/or Businesses.
- (k) Successful Bidder's Deposit. - (l) Portion Bids. Each Qualified Portion Bidder that is an Auction Bidder shall be entitled to submit Overbids at the applicable Auction (in a minimum increment to be determined by the Companies) with respect to the portion of the Property or Businesses it is bidding on, and is not individually subject to the full Minimum Overbid Increment; provided that one or more Qualified Portion

- 30 -

Bids forming an Aggregated Bid in any round of the Auction shall collectively be subject to the full Minimum Overbid Increment. For greater certainty, the Companies may accept an Aggregated Bid as a "Successful Bid" and in such case, the applicable Auction Bidders will become "Successful Bidders".

- (m) Clarifications of Overbids and Waivers. For greater certainty, the Companies shall be entitled during an Auction, to discuss and clarify the terms of all Overbids and accept a revised, clarified Overbid, provided it is submitted before the end of the applicable round of bidding. The Companies, in consultation with the Sale Advisor and Monitor, may waive compliance with any one or more of the requirements specified in paragraph 35(g), and deem any non-compliant Overbid to be a qualifying Overbid.
- (n) Additional Procedures. The Companies may, with the assistance of their advisors (including the Sale Advisor) and in consultation with the Monitor, adopt rules for the Auction at or prior to the Auction that will better promote the goals of the Auction and that are not inconsistent with any of the provisions of the SISP or the SISP Approval Order; provided that no such rules may change the requirement that all Overbids shall be made and received on an open, non-confidential basis, and all Auction Bidders entitled to participate in a further round of bidding shall be entitled to be present for all such bidding.

- 31 -

37. Scheduling of Approval Motion. An Approval Motion will be held on a date to be scheduled by the Court and to be heard as soon as possible. An Approval Motion may be adjourned or rescheduled by the ~~CCAA-Parties~~Companies by an announcement of the adjourned date at an Approval Motion or by notice to the Service List and no further notice shall be required.

If (i) a Successful Bidder breaches any of its obligations under the terms of the SISP or any definitive transaction documentation, or (ii) a Qualified Phase I Bidder fails to complete the transaction contemplated by its Qualified Bid or Overbid if required by any of the Companies to complete such transaction, then, in each case, such bidder's Deposit will be forfeited to the applicable Companies as liquidated damages and not as a penalty. The ~~CCAA Parties~~Companies shall apply and use their share of any forfeited Deposit in a manner agreed upon by the ~~CCAA Parties~~Companies and the Monitor.

Reservation of Rights and Conduct of the SISP

44. No Binding Agreement. The SISP does not, and will not be interpreted to, create any contractual or other legal relationship between any of the Companies and any bidder, other than as specifically set forth in a definitive agreement that any such bidder may enter into with the applicable Companies.
45. Extension of Time Limits. The Companies may from time to time extend any of the time limits set out in the SISP, as the Companies determine appropriate, after consultation with the Monitor.

No Amendment
