In such case, the Monitor shall notify the D&O Claimant of the decision to exclude the adjudication of the D&O Claim from the procedures set out in this Order.

Claims Officer

49. ORDERS that the Claims Officer shall determine the status, validity and amount of any disputed Claim or disputed D&O Claim which has been referred to it for determination in accordance with the Claims Procedure. A Claims Officer is hereby authorized to determine all procedural matters which may arise in respect of the determination of these matters, including the manner in which any evidence may be adduced.
50. ORDERS that the Monitor, the applicable CCAA Party or the Creditor whose Claim is subject to the Claims Officer's Determination may, within ten (10) Business Days of notification of the Claims Officer's Determination in respect of a Claim, appeal such determination to the Court by serving on the other parties and filing with the Court a notice of motion, together with supporting material, in accordance with the provisions of the Bloom Lake Initial Order or the Wabush Initial Order as applicable. Such appeal shall be an appeal based on the record before the Claims Officer and not a hearing de novo. If no party appeals the Claims Officer's Determination within such time, the Claims Officer's Determination shall be final and binding upon all Persons and said Creditor's Claim, to the extent recognized under the Claims Officer's Determination, shall be an Allowed Claim. There shall be no further right of appeal, review or recourse to the Court from a Claims Officer's Determination in respect of a Claim.

51. ORDERS that the Monitor, D&O Counsel or the D&O Claimant whose D&O Claim is subject to the Claims Officer's Determination may, within ten (10) Business Days of notification of the Claims Officer's Determination in respect of a D&O Claim, appeal such determination to the Court by serving on the other parties and filing with the Court a notice of motion, together with supporting material, in accordance with the provisions of the Bloom Lake Initial Order or the Wabush Initial Order as applicable. Such appeal shall be an appeal based on the record before the Claims Officer and not a hearing de novo. If no party appeals the Claims Officer's Determination within such time, the Claims Officer's Determination shall be final and binding upon all Persons and said D&O Claimant's D&O Claim, to the extent recognized under the Claims Officer's Determination, shall be an Allowed D&O Claim. There shall be no further right of appeal, review or recourse to the Court from a Claims Officer's Determination in respect of a D&O Claim.

Notice of Transfers

52. ORDERS that, for the purposes of any distribution to be effected in the CCAA Proceedings, whether pursuant to a Plan or otherwise, if a Creditor transfers or assigns the whole of its Claim to another Person, neither the CCAA Parties nor the Monitor shall be obligated to recognize such transferee or assignee of the Claim as the Creditor in respect thereof, unless and until notice of such transfer or assignment by either the transferor, assignor, transferee or assignee, together with evidence of such transfer's or assignment's validity at law, has been received by the Monitor. Such notice of transfer or assignment shall be received in any event at least ten (10) Business Days prior to any distribution. Upon delivery of such notice to the Monitor, the transferor or assignor shall have no further right to enforce or assert the Claim thus transferred or assigned against any of the CCAA Parties.
53. ORDERS that if the holder of a Claim, or any subsequent holder of the whole of a Claim who has been acknowledged by the Monitor as the Creditor in respect of such Claim, transfers or assigns the whole of such Claim to more than one Person, or part of such Claim to one or more Person(s), such transfer(s) or assignment(s) shall not create separate Claim(s), and the Claim as a whole shall continue to constitute and be dealt with as a single Claim notwithstanding such transfer or assignment. In each such case, the Monitor and the CCAA Parties shall not be bound to recognize or acknowledge any such transfer or assignment and shall be entitled to give notices to and otherwise deal with such Claim only as a whole, and only to and with the Person last holding such Claim in whole as the Creditor in respect of such Claim, provided that such Creditor may by notice in writing to the Monitor direct that subsequent dealings in respect of such Claim, but only as a whole, shall be carried out with a specified Person other than itself, and, in such event, such Person last holding the Claim in whole shall be bound by any notices given or steps taken in respect of such Claim with such other Person it designated.

56. ORDERS that each CCAA Party may set off (whether by way of legal, equitable or contractual set-off) against payments or other distributions to be made to any Creditor, any claims of any nature whatsoever that such CCAA Party may have against such Creditor arising after the Determination Date, provided that it satisfies the requirements for legal, equitable or contractual set-off as may be determined by the Court if there is any dispute between the CCAA Parties and the applicable Creditor, however, neither the failure to do so nor the allowance of any Claim hereunder shall constitute a waiver or release by the CCAA Parties of any such claim that the CCAA Parties may have against such Creditor.
57. ORDERS that a transferee or assignee of a Claim is not entitled to set-off, apply, merge, consolidate or combine any such Claim assigned or transferred to it by a Creditor against or on account or in reduction of any amounts owing by such transferee or assignee to any of the CCAA Parties.

What is a Claim (other than a Restructuring Claim)?

Generally, a Claim (other than a Restructuring Claim, which is explained further on in this Instruction Letter) is a claim against the CCAA Parties in connection with any indebtedness, liability or obligation of the CCAA Parties as a result of non-payment for goods or services, or a breach of a contract, lease or other agreement AND which arose or occurred prior to January 27, 2015 in respect of Claims against the Bloom Lake CCAA Parties, or which arose or occurred prior to May 20, 2015 in respect of Claims against the Wabush CCAA Parties. A Proof of Claim is the document in which a Creditor provides the Monitor with information and support for a Claim against the CCAA Parties.
