The liabilities of the Guarantor under Section 1 and each of clauses (i) and (ii) of this Section 3 are separate and distinct from each other, but the provisions of this Agreement shall apply to each of such liabilities unless the context otherwise requires.

4. Nature of Guarantor's Liability

The liability of the Guarantor under this Guarantee is continuing, absolute and unconditional and will not be affected by any act, omission, event or circumstance that might constitute a legal or equitable defence (any and all such legal and equitable defences are hereby expressly waived by the Guarantor) to or a discharge, limitation or reduction of the liability of the Guarantor hereunder, other than as a result of the indefeasible payment in full of the Obligations, including:

- (a) the unenforceability of any of the Obligations for any reason, including as a result of the act of any governmental authority;

- (b) any irregularity, fraud, illegality, defect or lack of authority or formality in incurring the Obligations, notwithstanding any inquiry that may or may not have been made by the Bank;
- (c) failure of the Bank to comply with or perform any agreements relating to the Obligations;
- (d) any discontinuance, renewal, extension, increase or reduction in the amount, or any other variance of any loans or credits now or hereafter made available to the Customer by the Bank or guaranteed by the Customer to the Bank or any other change to any of the terms or conditions of any of the Obligations (including, without limitation, respecting rates of interest, fees or charges, maturity dates), or any waiver by the Bank respecting any of the Obligations;
- (e) the taking of or the failure by the Bank to take a guarantee from any other person;
- (f) any release, compromise, settlement or any other dealing with any person, including any other Guarantor;
- (g) the reorganization of the Customer or its business (whether by amalgamation, merger, transfer, sale or otherwise); and in the case of an amalgamation or merger, the liability of the Guarantor shall apply to the Obligations of the resulting or continuing entity and the term "Customer" shall include such resulting or continuing entity;
- (h) the current financial condition of the Customer and any change in the Customer's financial condition;
- (i) any change in control or ownership of the Customer, or if the Customer is a general or limited partnership, any change in the membership of that partnership or other entity;
- (j) any change in the name, articles or other constating documents of the Customer, or its objects, business or capital structure;
- (k) the bankruptcy, winding-up, dissolution, liquidation or insolvency of the Customer or any proceedings being taken by or against the Customer with respect thereto, and any stay of or moratorium on proceedings by the Bank against the Customer as a result thereof;
- (l) a breach of any duty of the Bank (whether fiduciary or in negligence or otherwise) and whether owed to the Guarantor, the Customer or any other person;
- (m) any lack or limitation of power, capacity or legal status of the Customer, or, if the Customer is an individual, the death of the Customer;
- (n) the Customer's account being closed or the Bank ceasing to deal with the Customer;
- (o) any taking or failure to take any security by the Bank, any loss of or diminution in value of any security, the invalidity, unenforceability, subordination, postponement, release, discharge or substitution, in whole or in part, of any security, or the failure to perfect or maintain perfection or enforce any security; or
- (p) any failure or delay by the Bank in exercising any right or remedy respecting the Obligations or under any security or guarantee.

5. Continuing Guarantee

The obligations of the Guarantor hereunder will constitute and be continuing obligations and will apply to and secure any ultimate balance due or remaining due to the Bank and will not be considered as wholly or partially satisfied by the payment or liquidation at any time of any sum of money for the time being due or remaining unpaid to the Bank. This Guarantee will continue to be effective even if at any time any payment of any of the Obligations is rendered unenforceable or is rescinded or must otherwise be returned by the Bank as a result of the occurrence of any action or event, including the insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of the Customer or the Guarantor, all as though such payment had not been made.

6. Demand for Payment

The Guarantor shall make payment to the Bank under this Guarantee immediately upon receipt of a written demand for payment from the Bank. If any Obligation is not paid by the Customer when due, the Bank may treat all Obligations as due and payable by the Customer and may demand immediate payment under this Guarantee of all or some of the Obligations whether such other Obligations would otherwise be due and payable by the Customer at such time or whether or not any demands, steps or proceedings have been made or taken by the Bank against the Customer or any other person respecting all or any of the Obligations. If any stay of or moratorium on proceedings by the Bank against the Customer is imposed in respect of any Obligation, the Bank may nevertheless demand immediate payment of such Obligation from the Guarantor as if such Obligation was due and payable by the Customer.

7. Interest

If the Guarantor does not make immediate payment in full of the Obligations when demand for payment has been made by the Bank, the Guarantor shall pay interest on any unpaid amount to the Bank at the highest rate of interest per annum that is charged on any Obligations for which payment has been demanded hereunder and which remain unpaid.

8. State of Account

The records of the Bank in respect of the Obligations will be prima facie evidence of the balance of the amount of the Obligations that are due and payable by the Customer to the Bank.

9. Application of Moneys Received

The Bank may, without notice and demand of any kind and at any time, apply any money received from the Guarantor, the Customer or any other person (including arising from any security that the Bank may from time to time hold) or any balance in any account of the Guarantor held at the Bank or any of the Bank's affiliates, to such part of the Obligations, whether due or to become due, as the Bank in its sole and absolute discretion considers appropriate, or may, in its sole and absolute discretion, refrain from applying any such money. The Bank may also revoke and alter any such application in whole or in part. If any amount that is to be applied is in a currency other than the currency of the Obligation to which such amount is to be applied, then the amount that is applied shall be converted from one currency to another using the rate of exchange for the conversion of such currency as determined by the Bank or its agents and the Bank or its agent may earn revenue on such conversion.

10. No Set-off or Counterclaim

The Guarantor will make all payments required to be made under this Guarantee without claiming or asserting any right of setoff or counterclaim that the Guarantor has or may have against the Customer or the Bank, all of which rights the Guarantor waives.

11. Exhausting Recourse

The Bank is not required to take any proceedings, exhaust its recourse against the Customer or any other Guarantor or person or under any security the Bank may from time to time hold, or take any other action, before being entitled to demand payment from the Guarantor under this Guarantee, and the Guarantor waives all benefits of discussion and division.

12. No Representations

There are no representations, warranties, terms, conditions, undertakings or collateral agreements, express, implied or statutory, between the parties except as expressly set forth herein. The Bank will not be bound by any representations or promises made by Customer to the Guarantor and possession of this Guarantee by the Bank will be conclusive evidence against the Guarantor that this Guarantee was not delivered in escrow or pursuant to any agreement that it should not be effective until any condition precedent or subsequent has been complied with, and this Guarantee will be binding on each Guarantor who has signed this Guarantee notwithstanding the non-execution thereof by any proposed guarantor.

13. Postponement and Assignment

The Guarantor hereby postpones payment of all present and future debts and liabilities of the Customer to the Guarantor, and as security for payment of the Obligations, the Guarantor hereby assigns such debts and liabilities to the Bank and agrees that all moneys received from the Customer by or on behalf of the Guarantor shall be held in trust for the Bank and forthwith upon receipt paid over to the Bank, all without prejudice to and without in any way limiting or lessening the liability of the Guarantor to the Bank under this Guarantee. This assignment and postponement is independent of the guarantee, indemnity and primary obligor obligations contained in this Guarantee and will remain in full force and effect until, in the case of the assignment, the liability of the Guarantor under this Guarantee has been discharged or terminated and, in the case of the postponement, until all Obligations are performed and indefeasibly paid in full.

14. Subrogation

The Guarantor will not be entitled to be subrogated to the rights of the Bank against the Customer, to be indemnified by the Customer or to claim contribution from any other Guarantor until the Guarantor makes indefeasible payment to the Bank of all amounts owing by the Guarantor to the Bank under this Guarantee and the Obligations are indefeasibly paid in full.

15. Bankruptcy of Customer

Upon the bankruptcy or winding up or other distribution of assets of the Customer or of any surety or Guarantor for the Obligations, the Bank's rights shall not be affected by the Bank's failure to prove its claim and the Bank may prove such claim if and in any manner as it deems appropriate in its sole discretion. The Bank may value as it sees fit or refrain from valuing any security held by the Bank without in any way releasing, reducing or otherwise affecting the liability of the Guarantor to the Bank, and until all the Obligations of the Customer to the Bank have been indefeasibly paid in full, the Bank shall have the right to include in its claim the amount of all sums paid by the Guarantor to the Bank under this Guarantee and to prove and rank for and receive dividends in respect of such claim, any and all right to prove and rank for such sums paid by the Guarantor and to receive the full amount of all dividends in respect thereto being hereby assigned and transferred to the Bank.

16. Costs and Expenses

The Guarantor agrees to pay all costs and expenses, including legal fees, of enforcing this Guarantee including the charges and expenses of the Bank's in-house lawyers. The Guarantor will pay all legal fees on a solicitor and own client basis.

17. Other Guarantees and Security

The liability of the Guarantor under any other guarantee or guarantees given to the Bank in connection with the Obligations shall not be affected by this Guarantee, nor shall this Guarantee affect or be affected by the endorsement by the Guarantor of any note or notes of the Customer, the intention being that the liability of the Guarantor under such other guarantee or guarantees and this Guarantee, and under such other note or notes and this Guarantee, shall be cumulative. Nor shall the Bank be required to marshal in favour of the Guarantor other guarantees granted by other persons or any security, money or other property that the Bank may be entitled to receive or may have a claim upon.

18. Amendment and Waivers

No amendment to this Guarantee will be valid or binding unless set forth in writing and duly executed by the Guarantor and the Bank. No waiver by the Bank of any breach of any provision of this Guarantee will be effective or binding unless made in writing and signed by the Bank and, unless otherwise provided in the written waiver, will be limited to the specific breach waived. No delay in the exercise of any right or remedy by the Bank shall operate as a waiver thereof. No failure to exercise a right or remedy or partial exercise of a right or remedy by the Bank shall preclude other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or remedy by the Bank.

19. Discharge

The Guarantor will not be released or discharged from its obligations hereunder except by a written release or discharge signed by the Bank.

20. General

This Guarantee shall be binding on the successors of the Guarantor or, if the Guarantor is an individual, the heirs, executors, administrators and other legal representatives of the Guarantor, and shall enure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the Bank.

If more than one Guarantor has signed this Guarantee, each Guarantor shall be jointly and severally liable under this Guarantee.

To the extent that any limitation period applies to any claim for payment hereunder of the Obligations or remedy for the enforcement of such payment, the Guarantor agrees that any such limitation period is excluded or waived, but if such exclusion and waiver is not permitted by applicable law, then any limitation period is extended to the maximum length permitted by applicable law.

Any notice or demand which the Bank may wish to give under this Guarantee may be personally served on the Guarantor or sent by ordinary mail or electronic mail to the last known address of the Guarantor. Any notice that is sent by ordinary mail shall be conclusively deemed to have been received on the fifth day following the day on which it is mailed. Any notice that is sent by electronic mail shall be conclusively deemed to have been received on the day it is sent.

If any provision of this Guarantee is determined by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity or unenforceability will not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Guarantee.

This Guarantee shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of MANITOBA and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

Any word herein contained importing the singular number shall include the plural and any word importing a person shall include a corporation, partnership, firm and any other entity.

Subject to Section 17, this Guarantee constitutes the entire agreement between the Guarantor and the Bank with respect to the subject matter hereof and cancels and supersedes any prior understandings and agreements between the parties with respect thereto.

Each of the undersigned acknowledges receipt of a copy of this Guarantee.

SUBORDINATION AND PRIORITY AGREEMENT

DON GOLDEN AUTO BODY LTD.
(the "Vendor")

THE TORONTO-DOMINION BANK
(the "Lender")

COLLISION KINGS 3 LTD.

WHEREAS:

- A. The Customer may or has granted or agreed to grant to the Vendor a security interest in all of the Customer's present and after-acquired real and personal property, and/or such other security as the Vendor may from time to time receive from the Customer to secure present and future debts and obligations of the Customer, both direct and indirect, to the Vendor (collectively, the "Vendor Security");
- B. The Customer has granted or agreed to grant to the Lender a security interest in all of the Customer's present and after-acquired real and personal property, and such other security as the Lender may from time to time receive from the Customer to secure present and future debts and obligations of the Customer, both direct and indirect, to the Lender (collectively, the "Lender Security");
- C. The parties hereto have agreed to enter into this agreement in order to set out the respective priorities of the Vendor Security and the Lender Security;

NOW THEREFORE in consideration of the premises and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged by the parties hereto, the parties hereto covenant and agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1 - ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

- 1.01 The Vendor hereby acknowledges its consent to the creation and issue by the Customer to the Lender of the Lender Security and to the incurring by the Customer of the indebtedness evidenced thereby.
- 1.02 The Lender hereby acknowledges its consent to the creation and issue by the Customer to the Vendor of the Vendor Security and to the incurring by the Customer of the indebtedness evidenced thereby.

ARTICLE 2 - INTERPRETATION

2.01 The preamble hereto forms an integral part of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 - PRIORITIES

3.01 The Vendor Security is hereby postponed and subordinated to the security constituted by the Lender Security with respect to all of the Customer's present and after-acquired property, both real and personal, to the extent of the Customer's indebtedness to the Lender from time to time, together with all accrued interest thereon and all costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Lender in connection therewith, including legal fees on a solicitor and his own client basis.

3.02 The subordinations and postponements herein shall apply in all events and circumstances regardless of:

- (a) the date of execution, attachment, registration or perfection of any security interest held by the Vendor or the Lender;
- (b) the date of any advance or advances made to the Customer by the Lender or the Vendor;
- (c) the date of default by the Customer under any of the Vendor Security or the Lender Security or the dates of crystallization of any floating charges held by the Vendor or the Lender;
- (d) the date(s) any demand(s) for payment are made, the date(s) any notice(s) are given and any failure to make or give such demand(s) or notice(s);
- (e) the times of realization upon the property subject to the Lender Security or the Vendor Security, or any part of parts thereof; or
- (f) any priority granted by any principle of law or any statute.

3.03 Any proceeds, including, without limitation, any insurance proceeds received by the Customer, the Vendor or the Lender in respect of the collateral charged by the Vendor Security and/or the Lender Security shall be dealt with according to the preceding provisions hereof as though such proceeds were paid or payable as proceeds of realization of the collateral for which they compensate.

3.04 If any of the Vendor Security or the Lender Security is claimed or found by a trustee in bankruptcy or a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, invalid, unregistered or unperfected, then the foregoing provisions of this Article 3 shall not apply to such security to the extent that such security is so found to be unenforceable, invalid, unregistered or unperfected as against a third party unless the secured party shall be diligently contesting such a claim and has provided the other party with a satisfactory indemnity.

- 3.05 The Customer shall permit the Lender and its employees, agents and contractors, access at all reasonable times to any property and assets of the Customer and shall permit the Lender to remove such property and assets from the premises of the Customer, at all reasonable times without interference, provided that the Lender shall promptly repair any damage caused to the premises by the removal of any such property or assets.
- 3.06 The Vendor hereby acknowledges that all advances by the Lender to the Customer from time to time shall have full priority over any amount owed or owing to the Vendor by the Customer, to the same effect as if the advances made by the Lender were secured and advanced prior to the advance of any monies secured by the Vendor Security and the registration of the Vendor Security.
- 3.07 Each of the Lender and the Vendor shall advise the other in writing of: (a) any occurrence of an event which constitutes or with notice or lapse of time or both would constitute an event of default under any agreement between the Lender and the Customer or the Vendor and the Customer or which otherwise entitles the either of the Lender or the Vendor to enforce the its security (a "Customer Default"); and (b) any waiver by either the Lender or the Vendor of any anticipated Customer Default, within five (5) days of the occurrence of such event or waiver, as the case may be. Further, the Vendor hereby agrees that it may not amend any of the Vendor Security, any agreement evidencing or otherwise relating to the indebtedness owing by the Customer to the Vendor, or any other agreement between the Vendor and the Customer, without Lender's prior written consent.
- 3.08 Each of the parties hereto covenant and agree that the Customer shall not pay or deliver to the Vendor, nor shall the Vendor be entitled to receive, any payment, prepayment, set-off or otherwise, any payment amount (whether on account of principal or interest), credit or reduction of all or any part of the Vendor Security or any security therefor during a Customer Default, and any amounts so received by the Vendor will be held in trust for the Lender and immediately paid over to the Lender.
- 3.09 The Vendor agrees that until repayment and satisfaction of all indebtedness secured by the Lender Security, the Vendor will not take any steps to enforce any of its remedies under or in connection with the Vendor Security, unless the Vendor has provided one hundred twenty (120) days' written notice to the Lender of its intention to take steps to enforce any of its remedies, and has provided the Lender with an opportunity to correct any Customer Default (or otherwise) which gives rise to the proposed enforcement.

ARTICLE 4 - COVENANTS OF THE CUSTOMER

- 4.01 The Customer hereby confirms to and agrees with the Vendor and the Lender that so long as any of the indebtedness of the Customer to the Lender and the Vendor remains outstanding, it shall stand possessed of its assets so charged for the Vendor and the Lender in accordance with their respective interests and priorities as herein set out.

ARTICLE 5 - GENERAL

- 5.01 From time to time upon request therefor the Vendor and the Lender may advise each other of the particulars of the indebtedness and liability of the Customer to each other and all security held by each therefor.
- 5.02 The Vendor and the Lender each agree that it will not transfer or assign any of its security from the Customer without first obtaining from the proposed assignee or transferee an agreement to be bound by the provisions of this Agreement.
- 5.03 Any notice required or permitted to be given pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be addressed and delivered to the parties hereto as follows:
- for the Vendor:

- 5.04 Each of the Customer, the Vendor and the Lender shall do, perform, execute and deliver all acts, deeds and documents as may be necessary from time to time to give full force and effect to the interests of this Agreement; provided however, that no consent of the Customer shall be necessary to any amendment of the terms hereof by the Vendor and the Lender unless the interests of the Customer are directly affected thereby.
- 5.05 This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and such counterparts together shall constitute one and the same instrument and shall be effective as of the formal date hereof.
- 5.06 This Agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.

- (a) the Company will not repay the Creditor Indebtedness;

- (c) the Creditor will not file, or join with any other creditors of the Company in filing, any petition commencing any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement or receivership proceeding or any assignment for the benefit of creditors against or in respect of the Company or any other marshalling of the assets and liabilities of the Company;

(d) the Creditor will not accept any payment, whether principal, interest or otherwise on account of the Creditor Indebtedness and no satisfaction, consideration or security will be given to or accepted by the Creditor for any Creditor Indebtedness; in each case, unless the prior written consent of the Bank has been obtained (which consent may be granted or withheld by the Bank in its sole and absolute discretion) or until such time as the Bank Indebtedness has been indefeasibly paid in full. Any payment on, or other consideration for, the Creditor Indebtedness that is received by the Creditor in violation of this Agreement will be held by the Creditor in trust for the benefit of, and shall forthwith be paid over to, the Bank. Any insurance proceeds received by the Company, the Bank or the Creditor in respect of the assets of the Company charged by the Bank Security or the Creditor Security, shall be dealt with according to the preceding provisions hereof as though such insurance proceeds were paid or payable as proceeds of realization of the collateral for which they compensate, and all insurance proceeds received by the Company shall be held in trust by it for the benefit of the Bank and the Creditor, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions hereof.

4. Assignment. The Creditor hereby assigns and transfers to the Bank by way of security for the Bank Indebtedness all Creditor Indebtedness.

5. Acknowledgement and Agreement of the Company and the Creditor. The Company hereby confirms to and agrees with the Bank and the Creditor that so long as the Company remains indebted to the Bank and the Creditor, it will stand possessed of its assets so charged for the Bank and the Creditor in accordance with their respective interests and priorities as herein set forth. The Creditor and the Company hereby confirm and agree that the terms of this Agreement will prevail over the terms of any other agreement between the Creditor and the Company regarding the Creditor Indebtedness until such time as the Bank Indebtedness has been indefeasibly paid in full.

6. Restriction on Transfer and Amendments. The Creditor will not, without the prior written consent of the Bank, sell, assign or otherwise transfer or dispose of, in whole or in part, voluntarily, involuntarily or by operation of law, all or any part of the Creditor Indebtedness or any interest therein to any other person or create, incur or suffer to exist any security interest, lien, charge or other encumbrance whatsoever upon all or any part of the Creditor Indebtedness in favour of any other person. In addition to the foregoing, the Creditor will not, without the prior written consent of the Bank, amend, modify, extend, accelerate, waive or otherwise change the terms of the Creditor Indebtedness or any part thereof or any Creditor Security held therefor.

7. Acknowledgement of No Set-Off. The Company and the Creditor acknowledge that the Creditor Indebtedness is not the subject of nor will it hereafter without the consent of the Bank be made the subject of any set-off or counter-claim by the Company.

8. Bank Not Bound to Collect Creditor Indebtedness. The Creditor shall duly and promptly take such action as the Bank may reasonably request in its sole discretion to collect amounts in respect of the Creditor Indebtedness and to file appropriate claims, proofs of claim or other instruments of similar character in respect of the Creditor Indebtedness until such time as the Bank Indebtedness has been indefeasibly paid in full. The Bank shall be authorized (in its own name or in the name of the Creditor), but shall have no obligation to, demand payment of the Creditor Indebtedness or any part thereof or take any proceeding to collect any Creditor Indebtedness or to enforce any Creditor Security in respect thereof.

9. Bankruptcy of Company. In the event of the bankruptcy or winding up of the Company or any distribution of the assets or any of the assets of the Company or proceeds thereof among its creditors in any manner whatsoever, the Bank may prove in respect of the Creditor Indebtedness as a debt owing to it by the Company and the Bank shall be entitled to collect and receive any and all payments or distributions payable in respect thereof, such payments or distributions to be applied on such part or parts of the Bank Indebtedness as the Bank shall see fit until the whole of the Bank Indebtedness has been indefeasibly paid in full and thereafter the Creditor shall be entitled to such payments or distributions.

10. Further Assurances. The Company and the Creditor will, from time to time forthwith and at all times after the date of this Agreement, without further consideration, do such further acts and deliver such further instruments and documents, and take such further action, as the Bank may reasonably request for the purpose of obtaining or preserving the benefits of, and the rights and powers granted, or intended to be granted, by, this Agreement.

11. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the respective parties hereto.

BUSINESS LOAN INSURANCE PLAN

The Borrower hereby acknowledges that the Bank has offered it group creditor insurance coverage on the Borrowings under the Business Loan Insurance Plan and the Borrower hereby acknowledges that it is the Borrower's responsibility to apply for any new or increased insurance amount for the Borrowings that may be eligible.

If the Borrower decides to apply for insurance on the Borrowings, the application will be made via the Bank's Business Loan Insurance Plan application (form 3460 ENG or 53460 FRE). If the Borrower has existing uninsured Borrowings and decides not to apply for Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage on any new Borrowings, it hereby acknowledges that the Bank may accept the Borrower's signature below as the Borrower's waiver of the Bank's offer to apply for Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage on all such Borrowings, and that all such Borrowings are not insured under the Policy as at the date of acceptance of this Agreement.

If the Borrower has Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage on previously approved Borrowings, such coverage will be applied automatically to all new Borrowings eligible for Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage that share the same loan account number, up to the approved amount of Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage. This Agreement cannot be used to waive coverage on new Borrowings eligible for Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage if Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage is in effect on the Borrower's existing Borrowings. If the Borrower does not want Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage to apply to any new Borrowings, a different loan account number will need to be set up and all uninsured loans attached to it.

If the Borrower has existing Borrowings to which Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage applies, and any new Borrowings would exceed the approved amount of Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage already in place, the Borrower must apply for additional Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage (if eligible) in order for Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage to apply to any new Borrowings. If the Borrower decides not to apply for additional Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage in respect of any new Borrowings (if eligible), the Borrower hereby acknowledges that the Bank may accept the Borrower's signature below as the Borrower's waiver of the Bank's offer to apply for additional Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage on such new Borrowings and that such new Borrowings are not insured under the Policy as at the date the Borrower executes this Agreement.

If there are any discrepancies between the insurance information in this Agreement and the Business Loan Insurance Plan documents regarding the Borrowings, the Business Loan Insurance Plan documents govern.

Business Loan Insurance Plan premiums (plus applicable taxes), will be taken as a separate payment, directly from the bank account associated with the loan, at the same frequency and schedule as your regular loan payments, where applicable. As premiums are based on the outstanding loan balance and the insured person's age at the time the premiums are due, the cost of Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage may increase during the term of the loan. The premium calculation is set out in the Business Loan Insurance Plan terms and conditions provided to the Borrower at the time the application for Business Loan Insurance Plan coverage was completed. Refer to the terms and conditions (form 3460 ENG or 53460 FRE) for further explanation and disclosure.

The following set of standard terms is deemed to be included in and forms an integral part of the Royal Bank of Canada Loan Agreement which refers to standard terms with this document version date, receipt of which has been duly acknowledged by the Borrower. Terms defined elsewhere in this Agreement and not otherwise defined below have the meaning given to such terms as so defined. The Borrower agrees and if the Borrower is comprised of more than one Person, such Persons jointly and severally agree, or in Quebec solidarily agree, with the Bank as follows:

GENERAL

This Agreement amends and restates, without novation, any existing credit or loan agreement between the Borrower and the Bank and any amendments thereto, (other than existing agreements for Other Facilities). Any credit facility existing under any such credit or loan agreement which is secured by security under section 427 of the Bank Act (Canada) (or any successor to such provision) is deemed to be continued and renewed, without novation, under the Credit Facilities. Any amount owing by the Borrower to the Bank under any such credit or loan agreement is deemed to be a Borrowing under this Agreement. This Agreement is in addition to, and not in replacement of, agreements for Other Facilities. Any and all Security that has been delivered to the Bank and which is included as Security in this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect, is expressly reserved by the Bank and shall apply in respect of all obligations of the Borrower under the Credit Facilities. The Bank expressly reserves all Security granted to the Bank by the Borrower to secure the Borrower's existing debt towards the Bank, should the execution of this Agreement effect a novation of said debt. Unless otherwise provided, all dollar amounts are in Canadian currency.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

In no event will the Credit Facilities or any part thereof be available unless the Bank has received:

- a) a duly executed copy of this Agreement;
- b) the Security provided for herein, in form and substance, and executed and registered to the satisfaction of the Bank;
- c) such financial and other information or documents relating to the Borrower or any Guarantor if applicable as the Bank may reasonably require; and
- d) such other authorizations, approvals, opinions and documentation as the Bank may reasonably require.

AVAILABILITY

Revolving facilities: The Borrower may borrow, convert, repay and reborrow up to the amount of each revolving facility (subject to Margin where applicable) provided each facility is made available at the sole discretion of the Bank and the Bank may cancel or restrict the availability of any unutilized portion at any time and from time to time without notice.

Non-revolving facilities: The Borrower may borrow up to the amount of each non-revolving facility provided these facilities are made available at the sole discretion of the Bank and the Bank may cancel or restrict availability of any unutilized portion of these facilities at any time and from time to time without notice.

LOAN REVOLVEMENT

If the Credit Facilities include a revolving demand facility by way of RBP and/or RBUSBR based loans, the Borrower shall establish a current account in Canadian currency, and, where RBUSBR based loans are made available, in US currency (each a "General Account") for the conduct of the Borrower's day-to-day banking business. The Borrower authorizes the Bank daily or otherwise as and when determined by the Bank to ascertain the balance of any General Account and:

- a) if such position is a debit balance the Bank may, subject to the revolving increment amount and minimum retained balance specified in this Agreement, make available a Borrowing by way of RBP Loans, or RBUSBR Loans as applicable, under this facility;
- b) where the facility is indicated to be Bank revolved, if such position is a credit balance, the Bank may, subject to the revolving increment amount and minimum retained balance specified in this Agreement, apply the amount of such credit balance or any part as a repayment of any Borrowings outstanding by way of RBP Loans, or RBUSBR Loans as applicable, under this facility;
- c) where this facility is indicated to be Borrower revolved, if such position is a credit balance, the Bank will apply repayments on such facility only if so advised and directed by the Borrower;
- d) Overdrafts and Bank revolved facilities by way of RBP Loans, or RBUSBR Loans, are not available on the same General Account.

REPAYMENT

- a) Amounts outstanding under the Credit Facilities, together with interest, shall become due in the manner and at the rates and times specified in or pursuant to this Agreement and shall be paid in the currency of the Borrowing. Amounts due on a day other than a Business Day shall be deemed to be due on the Business Day next following such day.
- b) Unless the Bank otherwise agrees, any payment hereunder must be made in money which is legal tender at the time of payment.
- c) In the case of a demand facility of any kind, the Borrower shall repay all principal sums outstanding under such facility upon demand including, without limitation, an amount equal to the face amount of all LCs and LGs, if applicable, which are unmatured or unexpired, which amount shall be held by the Bank as security for the Borrower's obligations to the Bank in respect of such Borrowings.
- d) Where any Borrowings are repayable by scheduled blended payments of principal and interest, such payments shall be applied, firstly, to interest due, and the balance, if any, shall be applied to principal outstanding with any balance of such Borrowings being due and payable as and when specified in this Agreement. If any such payment is insufficient to pay all interest then due, the unpaid balance of such interest will be added to such Borrowing, will bear interest at the same rate, and will be payable on demand or on the date specified herein, as the case may be.
- e) Borrowings repayable by way of scheduled payments of principal plus interest shall be so repaid with any balance of such Borrowings being due and payable as and when specified in this Agreement.
- f) For any Borrowings that are repayable by scheduled payments, if the scheduled payment date is changed then the maturity date of the applicable Borrowings shall automatically be amended accordingly.
- g) Without limiting the right of the Bank to terminate or demand payment of or to cancel or restrict availability of any unused portion of any revolving demand tender loan facility, Borrowings by way of tender loans shall be repaid (i) if the tender is not accepted, by returning the relevant draft, or certified cheque, if applicable, to the Bank for cancellation or (ii) if the tender is accepted, by returning the relevant draft, or certified cheque, if applicable, once letters of guarantee or performance bonds are arranged. In the event such draft, or certified cheque, if applicable, is presented for payment, the amount of the draft, or certified cheque, if applicable, will be converted to an RBP based loan with an interest rate of RBP plus 5% per annum.
- h) Should the Bank demand immediate repayment in full of any amounts outstanding under any term facility due to an Event of Default, the Borrower shall immediately repay all principal sums outstanding under such facility and all other obligations in connection with any such term facility.
- i) Except for Borrowings secured by a mortgage, any amount that is not paid when due hereunder shall bear interest until paid at the rate of RBP plus 5% per annum or, in the case of an amount in US currency if applicable, RBUSBR plus 5% per annum. Such interest on overdue amounts shall be computed daily, compounded monthly and shall be payable both before and after any or all of default, maturity, demand and judgement. For Borrowings secured by a mortgage, any amount that is not paid when due hereunder shall bear interest until paid at the same rate as the interest rate applicable to the principal amount of the Borrowings as specified in this Agreement.
- j) In the case of any reducing term loan and/or reducing term facility ("Reducing Term Loan/Facility"), provided that nothing contained in this paragraph shall confer any right of renewal or extension upon the Borrower, the Borrower and the Bank agree that, at the Bank's option, the Bank may provide a letter ("Renewal Letter") to the Borrower setting out the terms upon which the Bank is prepared to extend the Reducing Term

Loan/Facility. In the event that the Bank provides a Renewal Letter to the Borrower and the Reducing Term Loan/Facility is not repaid on or before the maturity date of the applicable Reducing Term Loan/Facility, then at the Bank's option the Reducing Term Loan/Facility shall be automatically renewed on the terms set out in the Renewal Letter and the terms of this Agreement shall be amended accordingly.

PREPAYMENT

Where Borrowings under any term facility are by way of RBP and/or RBUSBR based loans, the Borrower may prepay such Borrowings in whole or in part at any time without fee or premium.

Where Borrowings under any term facility are at a fixed interest rate, provided an Event of Default shall not have occurred and be continuing, the Borrower may prepay such Borrowings on a non-cumulative basis up to the percentage indicated in this Agreement of the outstanding principal balance on the day of prepayment, without fee or premium, once per year during the 12 month period from each anniversary date of the Borrowing. Any prepayment of the Borrowing prior to the maturity date, in whole or in part (in excess of any prepayment explicitly permitted in this Agreement), requires an amendment of the terms of this Agreement. An amendment to permit such a prepayment requires the Bank's prior written consent. The Bank may provide its consent to an amendment to permit a prepayment upon satisfaction by the Borrower of any conditions the Bank may reasonably impose, including, without limitation, the Borrower's agreement to pay the Prepayment Fee as defined below.

The Prepayment Fee will be calculated by the Bank as the sum of:

- a) the greater of:
  - (i) the amount equal to three (3) months' interest payable on the amount of the fixed rate term facility Borrowing being prepaid, calculated at the interest rate applicable to the fixed rate term facility Borrowing on the date of prepayment; and
  - (ii) the present value of the cash flow associated with the difference between the Bank's original cost of funds for the fixed rate term facility Borrowing and the current cost of funds for a fixed rate term loan with a term substantially similar to the remaining term and an amortization period substantially similar to the remaining amortization period of the fixed rate term facility Borrowing, each as determined by the Bank on the date of such prepayment;

plus:
- b) Foregone margin over the remainder of the term of the fixed rate term facility Borrowing. Foregone margin is defined as the present value of the difference between the Bank's original cost of funds for the fixed rate term facility Borrowing and the interest that would have been charged to the Borrower over the remaining term of the fixed rate term facility Borrowing;

plus:

- c) a processing fee.

The Prepayment Fee shall also be payable by the Borrower in the event the Bank demands repayment of the outstanding fixed rate term facility Borrowing on the occurrence of an Event of Default. The Borrower's obligation to pay the Prepayment Fee will be in addition to any other amounts then owing by the Borrower to the Bank, will form part of the Borrowings outstanding and will be secured by the Security described herein.

The prepayment of any Borrowings under a term facility will be made in the reverse order of maturity.

EVIDENCE OF INDEBTEDNESS

The Bank shall maintain accounts and records (the "Accounts") evidencing the Borrowings made available to the Borrower by the Bank under this Agreement. The Bank shall record the principal amount of such Borrowings, the payment of principal and interest on account of the Borrowings, and all other amounts becoming due to the Bank under this Agreement. The Accounts constitute, in the absence of manifest error, conclusive evidence of the indebtedness of the Borrower to the Bank pursuant to this Agreement. The Borrower authorizes and directs the Bank to automatically debit, by mechanical, electronic or manual means, any bank account of the Borrower for all amounts payable under this Agreement, including, but not limited to, the repayment of principal and the payment of interest, fees and all charges for the keeping of such bank accounts.

CALCULATION AND PAYMENT OF INTEREST AND FEES

Security. Each party shall at all times have in place appropriate policies and procedures to protect the security and confidentiality of the Service, Electronic Channels and Electronic Communication and to prevent any unauthorized access to and use of the Service and Electronic Channels. The Borrower agrees to comply with any additional procedures, standards or other security requirements that the Bank may require in order to access the Service.

The Borrower will not (i) access or use the Service for an illegal, fraudulent, malicious or defamatory purpose, or (ii) take steps or actions that could or do undermine the security, integrity, effectiveness, goodwill or connectivity of the Service (including illegal, fraudulent, malicious, defamatory or other activities that threaten to harm or cause harm to any other person).

The Borrower agrees not to transmit via the Service any viruses, worms, defects, Trojan horses or any items of a destructive nature. The Borrower shall maintain the security of their computer by using anti-virus scanning, a firewall and installing the latest security patches to provide assurance that no Virus is introduced into the systems or Software while accessing the Service.

5. Unsecure Electronic Channels. The Borrower acknowledges and agrees that if it uses, or if it authorizes and directs the Bank to use, any unencrypted Electronic Channel, including unencrypted e-mail or facsimile, any Electronic Communication sent, received and/or accepted using such Electronic Channel is not secure, reliable, private or confidential. Any such Electronic Communication could be subject to interception, loss or alteration, and may not be received by the intended recipient in a timely manner or at all. The Borrower assumes full responsibility for the risks associated with such Electronic Communication.

6. Notice of Security Breach. The Borrower shall notify the Bank by notifying the RBC Account Manager in writing immediately of any Security Breach including: (i) any application vulnerability or if a Virus is contained in or affects transmission of information to the Service; or (ii) if the Borrower knows or reasonably ought to know that an unauthorized person may have access to the Service, Security Device or Electronic Channel.

If a Security Breach occurs the Borrower shall: (i) assist the Bank in the management of any consequences arising from it; (ii) take any reasonable steps necessary for it to take to mitigate any harm resulting from it; and (iii) take appropriate steps to prevent its recurrence.

7. Binding Effect. Any Electronic Communication that the Bank receives from or in the name of, or purporting to be from or in the name of, the Borrower or any other person on the Borrower's behalf in connection with the Service, will be considered to be duly authorized by, and enforceable against, the Borrower. The Bank will be authorized to rely and act on any such Electronic Communication, even if the Electronic Communication was not actually from the Borrower or such other person or differs in any way from any previous Electronic Communication sent to the Bank. Any Electronically Uploaded Financial Information will be considered to be financial information submitted to the Bank by an individual permitted to act on behalf of and bind the Borrower in all respects, and the Bank will be authorized to rely and act on any such Electronically Uploaded Financial Information accordingly. Any Electronically Submitted Certificates will be considered to be certificates, reports and/or forms completed and submitted to the Bank by an individual permitted to act on behalf of and bind the Borrower in all respects, and the Bank will be authorized to rely and act on any such Electronically Submitted Certificates accordingly.

8. Representations and Warranties. The Borrower represents and warrants to the Bank that each time Electronically Uploaded Financial Information and/or Electronically Submitted Certificates are submitted: (i) all financial statements, certificates, forms, reports and all information contained therein will be accurate and complete in all respects; (ii) all amounts certified as Potential Prior-Ranking Claims will be current amounts owing and not in arrears; (iii) all representations and warranties contained in the Agreement will be true and correct; and (iv) no event will have occurred which constitutes, or which, with notice, lapse of time, or both, would constitute an Event of Default or breach of any covenant or other term or condition of the Agreement. The Borrower will be deemed to repeat these representations and warranties each time Electronically Uploaded Financial Information and/or Electronically Submitted Certificates are submitted.

9. Evidence. Electronic records and other information obtained by the Bank in an Electronic Communication will be admissible in any legal, administrative or other proceedings as conclusive evidence of the contents of those communications in the same manner as an original paper document, and the Borrower waives any right to object to the introduction of any such record or other information into evidence on that basis.

10. Limitation of Liability. The Bank is not responsible or liable for any damages arising from: (i) inaccurate, incomplete, false, misleading, or fraudulent information provided to the Bank; (ii) losses incurred as a result of an actual or potential Security Breach; or (iii) losses incurred as a result of application vulnerability or Virus that is contained in or affects any Software or systems used by or on behalf of the Borrower in connection with the Service.

Although every effort is made to provide secure transmission of information, timely communication and confidentiality cannot be guaranteed. In no event shall the Bank be liable for any loss or harm resulting from the use of the Service, or from a breach of confidentiality in respect of use of the Service.

11. Termination. The ability of the Borrower to fulfill the reporting requirements relating to the submission of financial information set out in the Agreement using RBC Covarity Dashboard shall terminate upon revocation of access to the Service. In addition, the Bank may suspend or terminate access to or discontinue the Service immediately for any reason at any time without prior notice. The Bank will not be responsible for any loss or inconvenience that may result from such suspension or termination. The Borrower, upon giving notice to the Bank by notifying the RBC Account Manager in writing, may terminate use of the Service at any time.

12. Amendment. The Bank may amend these RBC Covarity Dashboard Terms and Conditions upon 30 days notice (which may be given electronically by way of e-mail or in writing) to the Borrower. The Borrower agrees that the continued use of the Service after the effective date of a change will constitute conclusive evidence of consent to all such amendments and the Borrower shall be bound by the amendments.

AND THE UNDERSIGNED AND EACH OF THEM (IF MORE THAN ONE) HEREBY JOINTLY AND SEVERALLY AGREE(S) WITH THE BANK AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) The Bank may grant time, renewals, extensions, indulgences, releases and discharges to, take securities (which word as used herein includes securities taken by the Bank from the Customer and others, monies which the Customer has on deposit with the Bank, other assets of the Customer held by the Bank in safekeeping or otherwise, and other guarantees) from and give the same and any or all existing securities up to, abstain from taking securities from, or perfecting securities of, cease or refrain from giving credit or making loans or advances to, or change any term or condition applicable to the Liabilities, including without limitation, the rate of interest or maturity date, if any, or introduce new terms and conditions with regard to the Liabilities, or accept compositions from and otherwise deal with, the Customer and others and with all securities as the Bank may see fit, and may apply all moneys at any time received from the Customer or others or from securities upon such part of the Liabilities as the Bank deems best and change any such application in whole or in part from time to time as the Bank may see fit, the whole without in any way limiting or lessening the liability of the undersigned under this guarantee, and no loss of or in respect of any securities received by the Bank from the Customer or others, whether occasioned by the fault of the Bank or otherwise, shall in any way limit or lessen the liability of the undersigned under this guarantee.
- (2) This guarantee shall be a continuing guarantee and shall cover all the Liabilities, and it shall apply to and secure any ultimate balance due or remaining unpaid to the Bank.
- (3) The Bank shall not be bound to exhaust its recourse against the Customer or others or any securities it may at any time hold before being entitled to payment from the undersigned of the Liabilities. The undersigned renounce(s) to all benefits of discussion and division.

(4) The undersigned or any of them may, by notice in writing delivered to the Manager of the branch or agency of the Bank receiving this instrument, with effect from and after the date that is 30 days following the date of receipt by the Bank of such notice, determine their or his/her liability under this guarantee in respect of Liabilities thereafter incurred or arising but not in respect of any Liabilities theretofore incurred or arising even though not then matured, provided, however, that notwithstanding receipt of any such notice the Bank may fulfil any requirements of the Customer based on agreements express or implied made prior to the receipt of such notice and any resulting Liabilities shall be covered by this guarantee; and provided further that in the event of the determination of this guarantee as to one or more of the undersigned it shall remain a continuing guarantee as to the other or others of the undersigned.

(5) All indebtedness and liability, present and future, of the customer to the undersigned or any of them are hereby assigned to the Bank and postponed to the Liabilities, and all moneys received by the undersigned or any of them in respect thereof shall be received in trust for the Bank and forthwith upon receipt shall be paid over to the Bank, the whole without in any way limiting or lessening the liability of the undersigned under the foregoing guarantee; and this assignment and postponement is independent of the said guarantee and shall remain in full effect notwithstanding that the liability of the undersigned or any of them under the said guarantee may be extinct. The term "Liabilities", as previously defined, for purposes of the postponement feature provided by this agreement, and this section in particular, includes any funds advanced or held at the disposal of the Customer under any line(s) of credit.

(6) This guarantee and agreement shall not be affected by the death or loss or diminution of capacity of the undersigned or any of them or by any change in the name of the Customer or in the membership of the Customer's firm through the death or retirement of one or more partners or the introduction of one or more other partners or otherwise, or by the acquisition of the Customer's business by a corporation, or by any change whatsoever in the objects, capital structure or constitution of the Customer, or by the Customer's business being amalgamated with a corporation, but shall notwithstanding the happening of any such event continue to apply to all the Liabilities whether theretofore or thereafter incurred or arising and in this instrument the word "Customer" shall include every such firm and corporation.

(7) This guarantee shall not be considered as wholly or partially satisfied by the payment or liquidation at any time or times of any sum or sums of money for the time being due or remaining unpaid to the Bank, and all dividends, compositions, proceeds of security valued and payments received by the Bank from the Customer or from others or from estates shall be regarded for all purposes as payments in gross without any right on the part of the undersigned to claim in reduction of the liability under this guarantee the benefit of any such dividends, compositions, proceeds or payments or any securities held by the Bank or proceeds thereof, and the undersigned shall have no right to be subrogated in any rights of the Bank until the Bank shall have received payment in full of the Liabilities.

(8) All monies, advances, renewals, credits and credit facilities in fact borrowed or obtained from the Bank shall be deemed to form part of the Liabilities, notwithstanding any lack or limitation of status or of power, incapacity or disability of the Customer or of the directors, partners or agents of the Customer, or that the Customer may not be a legal or suable entity, or any irregularity, defect or informality in the borrowing or obtaining of such monies, advances, renewals, credits or credit facilities, or any other reason, similar or not, the whole whether known to the Bank or not. Any sum which may not be recoverable from the undersigned on the footing of a guarantee, whether for the reasons set out in the previous sentence, or for any other reason, similar or not, shall be recoverable from the undersigned and each of them as sole or principal debtor in respect of that sum, and shall be paid to the Bank on demand with interest and accessories.

(9) This guarantee is in addition to and not in substitution for any other guarantee, by whomsoever given, at any time held by the Bank, and any present or future obligation to the Bank incurred or arising otherwise than under a guarantee, of the undersigned or any of them or of any other obligant, whether bound with or apart from the Customer; excepting any guarantee surrendered for cancellation on delivery of this instrument or confirmed in writing by the Bank to be cancelled.

(10) The undersigned and each of them shall be bound by any account settled between the Bank and the Customer, and if no such account has been so settled immediately before demand for payment under this guarantee any account stated by the Bank shall be accepted by the undersigned and each of them as conclusive evidence of the amount which at the date of the account so stated is due by the Customer to the Bank or remains unpaid by the Customer to the Bank.

(11) This guarantee and agreement shall be operative and binding upon every signatory thereof notwithstanding the non-execution thereof by any other proposed signatory or signatories, and possession of this instrument by the Bank shall be conclusive evidence against the undersigned and each of them that this instrument was not delivered in escrow or pursuant to any agreement that it should not be effective until any conditions precedent or subsequent had been complied with, unless at the time of receipt of this instrument by the Bank each signatory thereof obtains from the Manager of the branch or agency of the Bank receiving this instrument a letter setting out the terms and conditions under which this instrument was delivered and the conditions, if any, to be observed before it becomes effective.

(12) No suit based on this guarantee shall be instituted until demand for payment has been made, and demand for payment shall be deemed to have been effectually made upon any guarantor if and when an envelope containing such demand, addressed to such guarantor at the address of such guarantor last known to the Bank, is posted, postage prepaid, in the post office, and in the event of the death of any guarantor demand for payment addressed to any of such guarantor's heirs, executors, administrators or legal representatives at the address of the addressee last known to the Bank and posted as aforesaid shall be deemed to have been effectually made upon all of them. Moreover, when demand for payment has been made, the undersigned shall also be liable to the Bank for all legal costs (on a solicitor and own client basis) incurred by or on behalf of the Bank resulting from any action instituted on the basis of this guarantee. All payments hereunder shall be made to the Bank at a branch or agency of the Bank.

(13) This instrument covers all agreements between the parties hereto relative to this guarantee and assignment and postponement, and none of the parties shall be bound by any representation or promise made by any person relative thereto which is not embodied herein.

(14) This guarantee and agreement shall extend to and enure to the benefit of the Bank and its successors and assigns, an every reference herein to the undersigned or to each of them or to any of them, is a reference to and shall be construed as including the undersigned and the heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns of the undersigned or of each of them or of any of them, as the case may be, to and upon all of whom this guarantee and agreement shall extend and be binding.

(15) Prime Interest Rate is the annual rate of interest announced from time to time by Royal Bank of Canada as a reference rate then in effect for determining interest rates on Canadian dollar commercial loans in Canada.

(16) This Guarantee and Postponement of Claim shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the province of MANITOBA ("Jurisdiction"). The undersigned irrevocably submits to the courts of the Jurisdiction in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Guarantee and Postponement of Claim, and irrevocably agrees that all such actions and proceedings may be heard and determined in such courts, and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent possible, the defense of an inconvenient forum. (4) The undersigned or any of them may, by notice in writing delivered to the Manager of the branch or agency of the Bank receiving this instrument, with effect from and after the date that is 30 days following the date of receipt by the Bank of such notice, determine their or his/her liability under this guarantee in respect of Liabilities thereafter incurred or arising but not in respect of any Liabilities theretofore incurred or arising even though not then matured, provided, however, that notwithstanding receipt of any such notice the Bank may fulfil any requirements of the Customer based on agreements express or implied made prior to the receipt of such notice and any resulting Liabilities shall be covered by this guarantee; and provided further that in the event of the determination of this guarantee as to one or more of the undersigned it shall remain a continuing guarantee as to the other or others of the undersigned.

(5) All indebtedness and liability, present and future, of the customer to the undersigned or any of them are hereby assigned to the Bank and postponed to the Liabilities, and all moneys received by the undersigned or any of them in respect thereof shall be received in trust for the Bank and forthwith upon receipt shall be paid over to the Bank, the whole without in any way limiting or lessening the liability of the undersigned under the foregoing guarantee; and this assignment and postponement is independent of the said guarantee and shall remain in full effect notwithstanding that the liability of the undersigned or any of them under the said guarantee may be extinct. The term "Liabilities", as previously defined, for purposes of the postponement feature provided by this agreement, and this section in particular, includes any funds advanced or held at the disposal of the Customer under any line(s) of credit.

(6) This guarantee and agreement shall not be affected by the death or loss or diminution of capacity of the undersigned or any of them or by any change in the name of the Customer or in the membership of the Customer's firm through the death or retirement of one or more partners or the introduction of one or more other partners or otherwise, or by the acquisition of the Customer's business by a corporation, or by any change whatsoever in the objects, capital structure or constitution of the Customer, or by the Customer's business being amalgamated with a corporation, but shall notwithstanding the happening of any such event continue to apply to all the Liabilities whether theretofore or thereafter incurred or arising and in this instrument the word "Customer" shall include every such firm and corporation.

(7) This guarantee shall not be considered as wholly or partially satisfied by the payment or liquidation at any time or times of any sum or sums of money for the time being due or remaining unpaid to the Bank, and all dividends, compositions, proceeds of security valued and payments received by the Bank from the Customer or from others or from estates shall be regarded for all purposes as payments in gross without any right on the part of the undersigned to claim in reduction of the liability under this guarantee the benefit of any such dividends, compositions, proceeds or payments or any securities held by the Bank or proceeds thereof, and the undersigned shall have no right to be subrogated in any rights of the Bank until the Bank shall have received payment in full of the Liabilities.

(8) All monies, advances, renewals, credits and credit facilities in fact borrowed or obtained from the Bank shall be deemed to form part of the Liabilities, notwithstanding any lack or limitation of status or of power, incapacity or disability of the Customer or of the directors, partners or agents of the Customer, or that the Customer may not be a legal or suable entity, or any irregularity, defect or informality in the borrowing or obtaining of such monies, advances, renewals, credits or credit facilities, or any other reason, similar or not, the whole whether known to the Bank or not. Any sum which may not be recoverable from the undersigned on the footing of a guarantee, whether for the reasons set out in the previous sentence, or for any other reason, similar or not, shall be recoverable from the undersigned and each of them as sole or principal debtor in respect of that sum, and shall be paid to the Bank on demand with interest and accessories.

(9) This guarantee is in addition to and not in substitution for any other guarantee, by whomsoever given, at any time held by the Bank, and any present or future obligation to the Bank incurred or arising otherwise than under a guarantee, of the undersigned or any of them or of any other obligant, whether bound with or apart from the Customer; excepting any guarantee surrendered for cancellation on delivery of this instrument or confirmed in writing by the Bank to be cancelled.

(10) The undersigned and each of them shall be bound by any account settled between the Bank and the Customer, and if no such account has been so settled immediately before demand for payment under this guarantee any account stated by the Bank shall be accepted by the undersigned and each of them as conclusive evidence of the amount which at the date of the account so stated is due by the Customer to the Bank or remains unpaid by the Customer to the Bank.

(11) This guarantee and agreement shall be operative and binding upon every signatory thereof notwithstanding the non-execution thereof by any other proposed signatory or signatories, and possession of this instrument by the Bank shall be conclusive evidence against the undersigned and each of them that this instrument was not delivered in escrow or pursuant to any agreement that it should not be effective until any conditions precedent or subsequent had been complied with, unless at the time of receipt of this instrument by the Bank each signatory thereof obtains from the Manager of the branch or agency of the Bank receiving this instrument a letter setting out the terms and conditions under which this instrument was delivered and the conditions, if any, to be observed before it becomes effective.

(12) No suit based on this guarantee shall be instituted until demand for payment has been made, and demand for payment shall be deemed to have been effectually made upon any guarantor if and when an envelope containing such demand, addressed to such guarantor at the address of such guarantor last known to the Bank, is posted, postage prepaid, in the post office, and in the event of the death of any guarantor demand for payment addressed to any of such guarantor's heirs, executors, administrators or legal representatives at the address of the addressee last known to the Bank and posted as aforesaid shall be deemed to have been effectually made upon all of them. Moreover, when demand for payment has been made, the undersigned shall also be liable to the Bank for all legal costs (on a solicitor and own client basis) incurred by or on behalf of the Bank resulting from any action instituted on the basis of this guarantee. All payments hereunder shall be made to the Bank at a branch or agency of the Bank.

(13) This instrument covers all agreements between the parties hereto relative to this guarantee and assignment and postponement, and none of the parties shall be bound by any representation or promise made by any person relative thereto which is not embodied herein.

(14) This guarantee and agreement shall extend to and enure to the benefit of the Bank and its successors and assigns, an every reference herein to the undersigned or to each of them or to any of them, is a reference to and shall be construed as including the undersigned and the heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns of the undersigned or of each of them or of any of them, as the case may be, to and upon all of whom this guarantee and agreement shall extend and be binding.

(15) Prime Interest Rate is the annual rate of interest announced from time to time by Royal Bank of Canada as a reference rate then in effect for determining interest rates on Canadian dollar commercial loans in Canada.

(16) This Guarantee and Postponement of Claim shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the province of MANITOBA ("Jurisdiction"). The undersigned irrevocably submits to the courts of the Jurisdiction in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Guarantee and Postponement of Claim, and irrevocably agrees that all such actions and proceedings may be heard and determined in such courts, and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent possible, the defense of an inconvenient forum. The undersigned agrees that a judgment or order in any such action or proceeding may be enforced in other jurisdictions in any manner provided by law. Provided, however, that the Bank may serve legal process in any manner permitted by law or may bring an action or proceeding against the undersigned or the property or assets of the undersigned in the courts of any other jurisdiction.

(17) The Undersigned hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of this agreement.

(18) The Undersigned hereby waives Undersigned's right to receive a copy of any Financing Statement or Financing Change Statement registered by the Bank.

(2) This guarantee shall be a continuing guarantee and shall cover all the Liabilities, and it shall apply to and secure any ultimate balance due or remaining unpaid to the Bank.

(4) The undersigned or any of them may, by notice in writing delivered to the Manager of the branch or agency of the Bank receiving this instrument, with effect from and after the date that is 30 days following the date of receipt by the Bank of such notice, determine their or his/her liability under this guarantee in respect of Liabilities thereafter incurred or arising but not in respect of any Liabilities theretofore incurred or arising even though not then matured, provided, however, that notwithstanding receipt of any such notice the Bank may fulfil any requirements of the Customer based on agreements express or implied made prior to the receipt of such notice and any resulting Liabilities shall be covered by this guarantee; and provided further that in the event of the determination of this guarantee as to one or more of the undersigned it shall remain a continuing guarantee as to the other or others of the undersigned.

(5) All indebtedness and liability, present and future, of the customer to the undersigned or any of them are hereby assigned to the Bank and postponed to the Liabilities, and all moneys received by the undersigned or any of them in respect thereof shall be received in trust for the Bank and forthwith upon receipt shall be paid over to the Bank, the whole without in any way limiting or lessening the liability of the undersigned under the foregoing guarantee; and this assignment and postponement is independent of the said guarantee and shall remain in full effect notwithstanding that the liability of the undersigned or any of them under the said guarantee may be extinct. The term "Liabilities", as previously defined, for purposes of the postponement feature provided by this agreement, and this section in particular, includes any funds advanced or held at the disposal of the Customer under any line(s) of credit.

(6) This guarantee and agreement shall not be affected by the death or loss or diminution of capacity of the undersigned or any of them or by any change in the name of the Customer or in the membership of the Customer's firm through the death or retirement of one or more partners or the introduction of one or more other partners or otherwise, or by the acquisition of the Customer's business by a corporation, or by any change whatsoever in the objects, capital structure or constitution of the Customer, or by the Customer's business being amalgamated with a corporation, but shall notwithstanding the happening of any such event continue to apply to all the Liabilities whether theretofore or thereafter incurred or arising and in this instrument the word "Customer" shall include every such firm and corporation.

(7) This guarantee shall not be considered as wholly or partially satisfied by the payment or liquidation at any time or times of any sum or sums of money for the time being due or remaining unpaid to the Bank, and all dividends, compositions, proceeds of security valued and payments received by the Bank from the Customer or from others or from estates shall be regarded for all purposes as payments in gross without any right on the part of the undersigned to claim in reduction of the liability under this guarantee the benefit of any such dividends, compositions, proceeds or payments or any securities held by the Bank or proceeds thereof, and the undersigned shall have no right to be subrogated in any rights of the Bank until the Bank shall have received payment in full of the Liabilities.

(8) All monies, advances, renewals, credits and credit facilities in fact borrowed or obtained from the Bank shall be deemed to form part of the Liabilities, notwithstanding any lack or limitation of status or of power, incapacity or disability of the Customer or of the directors, partners or agents of the Customer, or that the Customer may not be a legal or suable entity, or any irregularity, defect or informality in the borrowing or obtaining of such monies, advances, renewals, credits or credit facilities, or any other reason, similar or not, the whole whether known to the Bank or not. Any sum which may not be recoverable from the undersigned on the footing of a guarantee, whether for the reasons set out in the previous sentence, or for any other reason, similar or not, shall be recoverable from the undersigned and each of them as sole or principal debtor in respect of that sum, and shall be paid to the Bank on demand with interest and accessories.

(9) This guarantee is in addition to and not in substitution for any other guarantee, by whomsoever given, at any time held by the Bank, and any present or future obligation to the Bank incurred or arising otherwise than under a guarantee, of the undersigned or any of them or of any other obligant, whether bound with or apart from the Customer; excepting any guarantee surrendered for cancellation on delivery of this instrument or confirmed in writing by the Bank to be cancelled.

(10) The undersigned and each of them shall be bound by any account settled between the Bank and the Customer, and if no such account has been so settled immediately before demand for payment under this guarantee any account stated by the Bank shall be accepted by the undersigned and each of them as conclusive evidence of the amount which at the date of the account so stated is due by the Customer to the Bank or remains unpaid by the Customer to the Bank.

(11) This guarantee and agreement shall be operative and binding upon every signatory thereof notwithstanding the non-execution thereof by any other proposed signatory or signatories, and possession of this instrument by the Bank shall be conclusive evidence against the undersigned and each of them that this instrument was not delivered in escrow or pursuant to any agreement that it should not be effective until any conditions precedent or subsequent had been complied with, unless at the time of receipt of this instrument by the Bank each signatory thereof obtains from the Manager of the branch or agency of the Bank receiving this instrument a letter setting out the terms and conditions under which this instrument was delivered and the conditions, if any, to be observed before it becomes effective.

(12) No suit based on this guarantee shall be instituted until demand for payment has been made, and demand for payment shall be deemed to have been effectually made upon any guarantor if and when an envelope containing such demand, addressed to such guarantor at the address of such guarantor last known to the Bank, is posted, postage prepaid, in the post office, and in the event of the death of any guarantor demand for payment addressed to any of such guarantor's heirs, executors, administrators or legal representatives at the address of the addressee last known to the Bank and posted as aforesaid shall be deemed to have been effectually made upon all of them. Moreover, when demand for payment has been made, the undersigned shall also be liable to the Bank for all legal costs (on a solicitor and own client basis) incurred by or on behalf of the Bank resulting from any action instituted on the basis of this guarantee. All payments hereunder shall be made to the Bank at a branch or agency of the Bank.

(13) This instrument covers all agreements between the parties hereto relative to this guarantee and assignment and postponement, and none of the parties shall be bound by any representation or promise made by any person relative thereto which is not embodied herein.

(14) This guarantee and agreement shall extend to and enure to the benefit of the Bank and its successors and assigns, an every reference herein to the undersigned or to each of them or to any of them, is a reference to and shall be construed as including the undersigned and the heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns of the undersigned or of each of them or of any of them, as the case may be, to and upon all of whom this guarantee and agreement shall extend and be binding.

(15) Prime Interest Rate is the annual rate of interest announced from time to time by Royal Bank of Canada as a reference rate then in effect for determining interest rates on Canadian dollar commercial loans in Canada.

(16) This Guarantee and Postponement of Claim shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the province of MANITOBA ("Jurisdiction"). The undersigned irrevocably submits to the courts of the Jurisdiction in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Guarantee and Postponement of Claim, and irrevocably agrees that all such actions and proceedings may be heard and determined in such courts, and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent possible, the defense of an inconvenient forum. The undersigned agrees that a judgment or order in any such action or proceeding may be enforced in other jurisdictions in any manner provided by law. Provided, however, that the Bank may serve legal process in any manner permitted by law or may bring an action or proceeding against the undersigned or the property or assets of the undersigned in the courts of any other jurisdiction.

(17) The Undersigned hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of this agreement.

(Applicable in all P.P.S.A. except Ontario.) (18) The Undersigned hereby waives Undersigned's right to receive a copy of any Financing Statement or Financing Change Statement registered by the Bank.

This is to confirm that notwithstanding the terms and conditions of the Postponement, the Borrower may make repayment of Principal to you in respect of the Vendor Takeback loan, provided that;

- a) the Borrower is in compliance with all terms and conditions of the credit agreement between the Borrower and the bank (the "Credit Agreement"), and with all terms and conditions of all security documentation provided to the Bank (as the same may be amended, superseded, restated or replaced from time to time, the "Security Documents"), at the time of any such payment;
- b) the Bank has not cancelled the credit facilities or issued a demand for repayment under the Credit Agreement;
- c) The making of such payment would not cause the Borrower to breach any of the terms or conditions of the Credit Agreement or any of the terms or conditions of and Security Documents; and

The Bank reserves the right to cancel this letter at any time in its sole and absolute discretion.

Except for the amendments to the Postponements described above, the Postponements have not been amended or modified in any respect.

* The Annual Interest Rate is a fixed rate per annum, calculated semi-annually, not in advance. There are no borrowing costs other than interest, therefore the Annual Interest Rate is the Annual Percentage Rate (APR).

** The Equivalent Rate is necessary to calculate how your payments are applied, firstly to interest and secondly to principal. It is lower than the Annual Interest Rate to compensate for the increase in Payment Frequency.

*The Annual Interest Rate is a variable rate per annum, calculated based on Payment Frequency. There are no borrowing costs other than interest, therefore the Annual Interest Rate is the Annual Percentage Rate (APR). It is based on our Prime (hereinafter referred to as the "Prime") plus/minus the increment indicated and it may vary from time to time. Any change in our Prime will result in an immediate adjustment to the Annual Interest Rate on your Loan. As of today, our Prime is 6.95000%.

If the Annual Interest Rate increases beyond the Annual Interest Rate identified below, the Amount of each payment may not be sufficient to cover the interest owing. We may adjust the Amount of each payment to account for changes in our Prime to ensure it covers accrued interest between payments.

FOR VALUE RECEIVED the undersigned Debtor hereby acknowledges itself indebted and unconditionally promises to pay to the solicitors for the Holders in immediately available funds by way of wire transfer, bank draft, solicitors trust cheque or in such payment method as may be otherwise agreed by the parties, the sum of $500,000 (the "Principal Amount") and to pay interest on the unpaid Principal Amount hereof at the rates and on the date specified below (the "VTB Loan"). Repayment and payment shall be made in lawful currency of Canada unless otherwise agreed to in writing by each of the parties.

The Debtor agrees to pay Interest to the Holders on the unpaid Principal Amount at a rate equal 5% per annum (the "Interest") until the full and final repayment of the Principal Amount. Interest shall be calculated annually based on a 365/366 day year and will be payable in arrears and on the date of any prepayment or repayment.

The Principal Amount of this Promissory Note, together with all accrued and unpaid Interest, shall be due and payable over a period of five (5) years as follows:

- i. on each of the first and second anniversary dates of the Closing Date (as defined in the SPA), a payment of accrued interest only; and
- ii. on each of the third, fourth and fifth anniversary dates of the Closing Date (as defined in the SPA), a payment of $166,666.66 plus accrued interest.

The Debtor shall have the right at any time or times to prepay the Principal Amount, together with the accrued Interest thereon, or any portion thereof in advance without notice or bonus or penalty.

The Debtor hereby waives demand and presentment for payment, notice of non-payment, protest and notice of protest of this Promissory Note. No failure on the part of the Holders hereof to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof or a consent thereto; nor shall a single or partial exercise of any such right, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

The books and records of the Holders shall constitute prima facie evidence of the Principal Amount and Interest outstanding under this Promissory Note from time to time.

The payment by the Debtor of the VTB Loan will be secured against all of the Debtor's present and after acquired personal property and the proceeds therefrom and the Debtor will enter into a subordinated general security agreement with the Holders in respect of such security interest in accordance with the provisions of the SPA. It is acknowledged and agreed that the obligations of the Debtor to the Holders and the security contemplated hereunder shall at all times rank behind and be postponed and subordinated in accordance with Section 2.12 of the SPA.

The non-exercise by the Holders of any rights hereunder in any particular instance shall not constitute a waiver thereof in that or any subsequent instance.

Unless made pursuant to the provisions of the SPA, the amounts payable under this Promissory Note shall not be subject to any deduction, withholding, set-off or counterclaim by the Debtor for any reason whatsoever without the prior consent (written or unwritten) of the Holders. All payments received by the Debtor will be applied first to payment of the Interest and then to the Principal Amount.

Neither the Holders nor the Debtor shall assign or transfer any or all of their rights, title, duties or interest in, to and under this Promissory Note to any person, other than an affiliate, subsidiary or amalgamation successor to the Holders or the Debtor, respectively, without the prior consent (written or unwritten) of the other party.

Upon satisfaction of all amounts payable under this Promissory Note, the Holders shall promptly execute and deliver to the Debtor a registrable discharge necessary to remove all registrations in any public office made by the Holders pursuant to this Promissory Note and any related security or otherwise in respect of the VTB Loan evidenced hereby.

This Promissory Note shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta and the laws of Canada applicable therein. This Promissory Note shall be binding upon the Debtor and its permitted successors and assigns, and shall enure to the benefit of the Holders and its permitted successors and assigns.

If any provision of this Promissory Note is determined to be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision or part thereof and the remaining part of such provision and all other provisions hereof shall continue in full force and effect. To the extent permitted by applicable law the Debtor hereby waives any provision of law that renders any provision hereof prohibited or unenforceable in any respect.

2. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

All terms used in this set of SCMT which are defined in The Real Property Act have the same meaning as they do in The Real Property Act unless expressly varied by this document. Not all terms defined and not all provisions contained in this set of SCMT will apply to every mortgage. There are some terms and provisions that will only apply to a Fixed Rate Mortgage, a Variable Rate Mortgage, a Capped Rate Mortgage or a Multi-Purpose Mortgage, as the case may be.

In these SCMT and in every mortgage which includes them:

- (a) ACT means The Real Property Act, C.C.S.M. c. R30, and any amendments to it.
- (b) BALANCE DUE DATE means the date shown in Box 5, if any, on which the outstanding balance of the Loan Amount is due and payable.
- (c) BORROWER, YOU, YOUR means the person or corporation who is, or is entitled to be, the registered owner of the Land, and who is described in Box 1 and has signed on the Signature Page as mortgagor. Borrower includes your Successors and where the context requires, any Covenantor.
- (d) BOX means a box, designated by its number, on the Mortgage Document. Where any information contained in a Box is amended by agreement, a reference in these SCMT to information in a Box will include the information contained in any amending agreement.
- (e) CAPPED RATE means the maximum interest rate that you will be charged under the Mortgage up to and including the Capped Rate Expiry Date. The Capped Rate is as set out in Box 5 – Other Details.
- (f) CAPPED RATE EXPIRY DATE means the date after which the Credit Union's commitment to charge interest at no greater than the Capped Rate shall have no further effect. The Capped Rate Expiry Date is as set out in Box 5 – Other Details.
- (g) CAPPED RATE MORTGAGE means, if Box 5 – Mortgage Description indicates that the mortgage type is "Capped Rate", the mortgage you have given to us under the Act and Regulations to secure payment of the Loan Amount and to secure performance of all of your other obligations under this Mortgage. It includes the Mortgage Document, these SCMT, and any future renewals, amendments, extensions or any replacement or substitutional forms which may be prescribed.
- (h) CMHC means Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation and its successors.
- (i) COVENANTOR means any person who, although not a registered owner of the Land has signed the Mortgage Document.
- (j) CREDIT UNION, WE, OUR, US means the mortgagee set out in the Mortgage Document and includes its Successors.

3.1 Mortgage Of Land

By signing the Mortgage, you agree to mortgage your entire interest in the Land, both present and future, to us as security for repayment of the Loan Amount and performance of other obligations under the Mortgage and the Loan Documents. This mortgaging is to extend to all interests in the Land acquired by any future owner while the Mortgage remains undischarged.

You may remain in possession of the Land as long as you make the payments and fulfill the obligations owed to the Credit Union under the Mortgage or the Loan Documents, as applicable.

3.2 Continuing Security/Readvancement

- (a) FIXED RATE MORTGAGE, VARIABLE RATE MORTGAGE OR CAPPED RATE MORTGAGE If this Mortgage is a Fixed Rate Mortgage, Variable Rate Mortgage or Capped Rate Mortgage, the following terms apply:
- (i) This Mortgage shall operate as a continuing security for payment of all monies actually advanced from time to time by us to you and outstanding from time to time, and for payment of all your indebtedness and liability to us whether presently existing or hereafter incurred, and this Mortgage is intended by you and us to secure us in respect of any one or more loans and it shall operate as security for us notwithstanding that you may from time to time make payments to us and reduce or retire your indebtedness and liability, in whole or in part, on one or more occasions. Notwithstanding any payment on account of any of your indebtedness to us at any time, any further, new or fresh advance or advances will, together with interest and Other Charges be secured by this Mortgage notwithstanding the mortgaging or charging of the Land by any intervening or intermediate mortgage, charge or encumbrance ("intervening interest") and the Mortgage will at all times hold priority over any such intervening interest. This Mortgage shall be and shall remain valid security for any and all subsequent advances or readvances by us.

- (ii) We may, as a condition of readvancement of funds, from time to time, require you to amend the Mortgage (including without limitation, the Interest Rate, the Land mortgaged, the Mortgage Principal Amount and repayment terms) by giving you a notice setting out the amendment. Any such notice may be given in accordance with paragraph 35. We may also require you to sign an amending agreement and if we do, the provisions of paragraph 28 of this document ("RENEWAL, AMENDMENT, EXTENSION") will apply.
- (iii) If a residential Fixed Rate Mortgage is insured by a mortgage default insurer, the following provisions apply to the amount of the indebtedness covered by it and it shall be referred to as the "CMHC Pool Eligible Loan":
  - (I) The Credit Union has the right at any time, both before and after the date of advance of the Loan Amount, without notice to you and without your consent, to sell, assign, syndicate or securitize any loan secured by this Mortgage to any other party or parties (each a "Holder") and in such event, the Holder(s) shall have all of the Credit Union's rights under this Mortgage, including the right to sell or assign the loan in turn, without affecting the Interest Rate or other terms of the loan. The Credit Union may, from time to time, in connection with the sale, assignment, syndication or securitization of a loan, or otherwise, appoint or designate a custodian or agent for a loan, which custodian or agent may be the registered mortgagee. The Borrower and each Covenantor, if any, and any guarantor, if any, acknowledge that such custodian or agent shall have no liability whatsoever to the Borrower or Covenantor, if any, and any guarantor in connection with the loan, being merely custodian or agent for us and/or the Holder.
  - (II) The Credit Union has the unrestricted right from time to time to appoint a third party to service or administer any part of the Loan Amount and to deal with the Borrower and each Covenantor, if any, and any guarantor, if any, in place of the Credit Union, provided that until the Credit Union gives notice of such appointment to you, the Borrower and each Covenantor, if any, and any guarantor, if any, shall continue to deal with the Credit Union in all matters pertaining to the servicing or administration of the Loan.
  - (III) If a CMHC Pool Eligible Loan is sold, assigned, syndicated or securitized, the following provisions shall apply:
    - A. Notwithstanding the readvancement provisions contained herein, there is no right of readvancement of monies repaid on account of the CMHC Pool Eligible Loan and all monies applied in reduction of the Loan Amount thereof shall permanently reduce the balance owing under the CMHC Pool Eligible Loan.
    - B. Notwithstanding the provisions contained herein stating that the mortgage shall secure all amounts owing from time to time by you to us, the only additions to the amount secured under the CMHC Pool Eligible Loan shall be interest accruing but unpaid and any costs incurred by us and that are, under the provisions hereof, The Mortgage Act, The Real Property Act or any other law, ordinance or regulation, allowed to be added to the Loan Amount.
- (b) MULTI-PURPOSE MORTGAGE If this Mortgage is a Multi-Purpose Mortgage, the following terms apply:
  - (i) This Multi-Purpose Mortgage shall operate as a continuing security for payment of all monies actually advanced from time to time by us to you or to any principal debtor where obligations are covered or secured by the Loan Documents and all other obligations from time to time owed by you to us outstanding from time to time under the Loan Documents. It is agreed that this Multi-Purpose Mortgage and the Loan Documents will operate as security notwithstanding that you may from time to time make payments to us and reduce or retire your indebtedness. Notwithstanding that at any time, any person or persons acquire any encumbrance, claim or other interest in or against the Land subsequent to the registration of this Multi-Purpose Mortgage in the land titles office, and any of your obligations have been paid or performed in whole or in part prior to or concurrently with the acquisition of any such other encumbrance, claim or other interest, and thereafter you undertake new or fresh obligations to us which are secured or covered by the Loan Documents and as secured by this Multi-Purpose Mortgage, this Multi-Purpose Mortgage shall, with respect to such new or fresh obligations, hold full priority over any such other encumbrance, claim or other interest to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law.
  - (ii) This Multi-Purpose Mortgage shall not operate as a merger of the Loan Documents hereby secured or affect or prejudice in any way our rights and powers thereunder. If the Loan Documents include a guarantee, the taking of this Multi-Purpose Mortgage shall not operate as a merger of our remedies for payment of the indebtedness of any principal debtor referred to in the Loan Document or of our remedies pursuant to the Loan Document, or pursuant to any other present or future security held by us, and notwithstanding this Multi-Purpose Mortgage and anything herein contained, the said remedies shall remain intact and be capable of enforcement against any principal debtor and you and all other persons liable in respect thereof in the same manner and to the same extent as if this Multi-Purpose Mortgage had not been executed, and this Multi-Purpose Mortgage is and shall be continuing security to us for payment of the amount of the said liability pursuant to the Loan Document and interest thereon.
  - (iii) This Multi-Purpose Mortgage is taken in addition to and not in substitution for any other security now or hereafter taken by us with respect to advances made to you or advances or other value made to any one or more principal debtor and each and every right, remedy and power granted to us hereunder and pursuant to security documents taken by us in respect to the said advances shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to the right or power herein specifically granted or now or hereafter existing in equity or, at law, by virtue of statute or otherwise from time to time concurrently or independently and as often and in such order as we may deem expedient. Any failure or delay on our part in exercising any such right or power or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps taken to enforce the same shall not operate as a waiver thereof or affect our right thereafter to exercise the same, and any single or partial exercise of any such right or power shall not preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power.
  - (iv) Any and all payments made in respect of any indebtedness hereby secured and the monies or other proceeds realized from any securities held therefor (including this Multi-Purpose Mortgage) may be applied and re-applied notwithstanding any previous application on such part or parts of the indebtedness pursuant to the Loan Documents as we may see fit.
  - (v) If the Loan Documents include a guarantee, for the purposes of establishing the priority of the security constituted by this Multi-Purpose Mortgage, value shall be deemed to have been advanced under this Multi-Purpose Mortgage at the respective times when value is advanced to or for the account of the principal debtor whose obligations are secured or covered by the Loan Document, and it is agreed that value will not be deemed to have been advanced only at the time when the principal debtor defaults in the payment or performance of the principal debtor's obligations to us, or at the time when we make demand upon you for satisfaction of the principal debtor's obligations under the Loan Document or otherwise.
  - (vi) If the Loan Document relates to a residential loan that is insured by a mortgage default insurer, the following provisions apply to the amount of the indebtedness covered by that Loan Document and that loan shall be referred to as the "CMHC Pool Eligible Loan":
    - (I) The Credit Union has the right at any time, both before and after the date of advance of the Loan Amount, without notice to you and without your consent, to sell, assign, syndicate or securitize any loan secured by this Mortgage to any other party or parties (each a "Holder") and in such event, the Holder(s) shall have all of the Credit Union's rights under this Mortgage, including the right to sell or assign the loan in turn, without affecting the interest Rate or other terms of the loan. The Credit Union may, from time to time, in connection with the sale, assignment, syndication or securitization of a loan, or otherwise, appoint or designate a custodian or agent for a loan, which custodian or agent may be the registered mortgagee. The Borrower and each Covenantor, if any, and any guarantor, if any, acknowledge that such custodian or agent shall have no liability whatsoever to the Borrower or Covenantor, if any, and any guarantor in connection with the loan, being merely custodian or agent for us and or the Holder.
    - (II) The Credit Union has the unrestricted right from time to time to appoint a third party to service or administer any part of the Loan Amount and to deal with the Borrower and each Covenantor, if any, and any guarantor, if any, in place of the Credit Union, provided that until the Credit Union gives notice of such appointment to you, the Borrower and each Covenantor, if any, and any guarantor, if any, shall continue to deal with the Credit Union in all matters pertaining to the servicing or administration of the Loan.
    - (III) If a CMHC Pool Eligible Loan is sold, assigned, syndicated or securitized, the following provisions shall apply:
      - A. Notwithstanding the readvancement provisions contained herein, there is no right of readvancement of monies repaid on account of the CMHC Pool Eligible Loan and all monies applied in reduction of the Loan Amount thereof shall permanently reduce the balance owing under the CMHC Pool Eligible Loan.

- B. Notwithstanding the provisions contained herein stating that the mortgage shall secure all amounts owing from time to time by you to us, the only additions to the amount secured under the CMHC Pool Eligible Loan shall be interest accruing but unpaid and any costs incurred by us and that are, under the provisions hereof, The Mortgage Act, The Real Property Act or any other law, ordinance or regulation, allowed to be added to the Loan Amount.
- C. The CMHC Pool Eligible Loan shall have priority of payment, collection, enforcement and realization over any other amounts owed by you to us under any other Loan Document.
- D. If a CMHC Pool Eligible Loan is assigned to CMHC as part of a CMHC's NHA MBS Program, no further monies may be advanced by us under any Loan Document so long as the CMHC Pool Eligible Loan is part of the CMHC's NHA MBS Program.
- E. If the total amount of all loans secured under the Mortgage, in the reasonable opinion of the Credit Union, is less than 80% of the value of the Land, then upon default hereunder, the CMHC Pool Eligible Loan will have priority over any other loan also secured under this Mortgage as to payment, collection, enforcement and realization.
- F. If either (a) the Credit Union has included the CMHC Pool Eligible Loan in a pool of mortgages that are securitized under CMHC's NHA MBS Program or (b) in the Credit Union's reasonable opinion the total amount of all loans secured under the Mortgage is equal to or greater than 80% of the value of the Land, then the CMHC Pool Eligible Loan is deemed to be the only loan secured by the Mortgage, with the result that (i) any other existing loans purporting to be secured by this Mortgage are deemed not to be so secured while the CMHC Pool Eligible Loan remains in CMHC's NHA MBS Program or the total amount of all loans secured under the Mortgage is equal to or greater than 80% of the value of the Land, and (ii) the Mortgage is not eligible to stand as security for any future loans so long as the CMHC Pool Eligible Loan remains in CMHC's NHA MBS Program or the total amount of all loans secured under the Mortgage is equal to or greater than 80% of the value of the Land and the Credit Union will not be able to offer any further credit products to you that would be secured by this Mortgage until the CMHC Pool Eligible Loan is no longer in CMHC's NHA MBS Program or the total amount of all loans secured under the Mortgage falls below than 80% of the value of the Land.

3.3 Continuation Of Mortgage

The Mortgage and the security created by it will continue in spite of the repayment and readvancement of funds under the Mortgage from time to time until all monies owing to the Credit Union under this Mortgage and the Loan Documents, as applicable, have been fully paid, all other obligations are performed, and we deliver a discharge of mortgage to you. See paragraph 3.5.

3.4 Assignment

The Mortgage and the debt secured by it may be assigned by us to any party without your consent. Assignment by us does not invalidate the Mortgage or entitle you to a discharge and it does not change the terms of the Mortgage.

You cannot assign your obligations under the Mortgage unless we have agreed to it in writing.

3.5 Discharge/Transfer

Upon full performance of all of your obligations under this Mortgage or the Loan Documents, as applicable, and payment of the Loan Amount, you are entitled to a discharge of the Mortgage or to a transfer of the Mortgage to a third party, if you so wish. You will give us reasonable time in which to prepare and sign the discharge or transfer, as the case may be. You will pay our usual administrative fee for preparing, reviewing or signing the discharge or transfer and all legal and other expenses we incur in so doing. You will be responsible for registering and for the costs of registering the discharge or transfer at the land titles office.

4. INTEREST – FIXED RATE MORTGAGE

If this Mortgage is a Fixed Rate Mortgage, then the provisions of this paragraph 4 apply.

4.1 Fixed Interest Rate

The Interest Rate is a fixed rate per annum as stated in Box 5. The Interest Rate may be amended on the I.A.D. in Box 5 and will remain fixed for the term of the Mortgage until the Mortgage matures or is renewed on the Balance Due Date.

4.2 Equivalent Rate

Since the Calculation Period in Box 5 is semi-annually not in advance and due to our method of application of payments (whether weekly, bi-weekly, semi-monthly, monthly, quarterly or annually) firstly to interest and secondly to principal, the Equivalent Rate is used to calculate the interest. The Equivalent Rate at the time of signing this Mortgage is set out as such in Box 5 – Other Details and is available from the Credit Union during office hours.

5. INTEREST – VARIABLE RATE MORTGAGE OR CAPPED RATE MORTGAGE

If this Mortgage is a Variable Rate Mortgage or a Capped Rate Mortgage, then the provisions of this paragraph 5 apply.

5.1 Variable Interest Rate

The Interest Rate payable by you is a variable rate per annum, based on our Prime Rate as established and announced by us from time to time plus or minus the number of percentage points per annum stated in Box 5. Interest is payable and calculated weekly, bi-weekly, semi-monthly, monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually not in advance, as the case may be, and is payable on the Loan Amount both before and after demand, default and judgment until the Loan Amount has been fully paid. The Interest Rate actually payable by you will vary automatically without notice to you, each time there is a change in the Prime Rate. The Prime Rate and Interest Rate payable on the Loan Amount remain in effect until varied.

The Prime Rate described in Box 5 will be posted at all our branches at all times and the Interest Rate applicable to your Mortgage at any time, including the date when the Prime Rate changed can be ascertained by you by telephoning any of our branches during office hours, but if such rate is not at any time so posted, this will not change your obligation to pay interest at the Interest Rate you have agreed to pay.

Even if there is a contrary provision elsewhere in this Mortgage, if this is a Capped Rate Mortgage, the Capped Rate shall be used to calculate the interest payable by you under the Mortgage at all times (up to and including the Capped Rate Expiry Date) even if changes in the Prime Rate would result in the Interest Rate's exceeding the Capped Rate. Interest shall continue to be calculated at the Capped Rate until the Prime Rate changes so that the Interest Rate is again equal to or less than the Capped Rate. If this happens, interest shall once again be calculated on a variable basis as set out in this paragraph 5.1. From and after the Capped Rate Expiry Date, unless you and the Credit Union have negotiated a new capped rate and a new capped rate expiry date, interest shall be charged on a variable rate basis.

5.2 Convertibility

If you are not in default in making any payment required under the Mortgage or in default of any of your covenants or other obligations under the Mortgage, you may convert the terms of the Mortgage to those of a Fixed Rate Mortgage bearing such interest rate and containing such other terms and provisions as are made available by us to you at the time of conversion. You shall apply to us in order to exercise this right of conversion. You will be able to convert the Mortgage by selecting from the mortgage options that we have available at the time that you apply for conversion and you shall on request sign an amending agreement in a form acceptable to us which will contain all amended terms, covenants (including your obligations under the Mortgage), conditions and provisions of the Mortgage. The interest rate payable by you will be our current interest rate for the mortgage option selected by you, effective as of the date that you sign an amending agreement or other documents on which we agree. You agree to pay us any processing or administration fee in connection with the conversion, together with any accrued interest which may result from a change in the frequency of the regular mortgage payments to be made. You also agree that you will pay all legal fees and disbursements incurred with respect to the conversion documentation and its registration.

Once the Mortgage has been converted, the prepayment privileges of the Mortgage will no longer apply and prepayment privileges, if any, will be contained in the conversion documentation.

5.3 Increases In Prime Rate

If at any time because of increases in the Interest Rate, the regular payment is no longer enough to maintain the agreed amortization period, you may be required to increase the amount of each regular payment under the Mortgage in order to maintain the remaining amortization period of the Mortgage.

If you are unable to do so, then, at our option, the Mortgage will immediately become due and payable.

6. INTEREST – MULTI-PURPOSE MORTGAGE

If this Mortgage is a Multi-Purpose Mortgage, then you will pay interest at the rate or rates as set out in the Loan Documents.

7. PAYMENT PROVISIONS

In the case of a Fixed Rate Mortgage, a Variable Rate Mortgage or a Capped Rate Mortgage, interest is payable from the date of advance of funds, both before and after the Balance Due Date, default and judgment, until the Loan Amount is fully paid. Interest is calculated on the Loan Amount and Other Charges (if any), not in advance, according to the calculation period set out in Box 5, and is paid together with payments on account of the Loan Amount, in installments as set out in Box 5, or as may be otherwise set out in Box 5 – Other Details.

In the case of a Multi-Purpose Mortgage, interest is payable as set out in the Loan Documents.

8. COMPOUND INTEREST

In the case of a Fixed Rate Mortgage, a Variable Rate Mortgage or a Capped Rate Mortgage, if any payment is not made on its due date, we may charge you interest on any overdue portion of the amount owing on the Mortgage (including any overdue interest) until paid. This is called compound interest. Such overdue amounts may be added to the Loan Amount and will bear interest at the Interest Rate, from the date of default until paid, both before and after the Balance Due Date, default and judgment. All such interest and compound interest shall be paid at intervals which are the same as your periodic payment dates set out in the Mortgage or in any agreement between us, and shall form part of the Loan Amount which is secured by the Mortgage.

In the case of a Multi-Purpose Mortgage, compound interest may be payable as set out in the Loan Documents.

9. DEFERRED INTEREST

If any payment made on your Mortgage is insufficient to pay all accrued interest, the unpaid amount of the accrued interest may be added to the Loan Amount and will thereafter be subject to compound interest as explained in paragraph 8. Such deferred interest and compound interest form part of the Loan Amount and are secured by the Mortgage.

10. INTEREST ON OTHER CHARGES

Any Other Charges incurred by us will be added to the Loan Amount and will bear interest at the Interest Rate, from the date on which they are incurred until paid, and will be subject to compound interest as explained in paragraph 8. Such charges, interest and compound interest form part of the Loan Amount and are secured by the Mortgage.

11. CALCULATION OF INTEREST COMPONENT OF PAYMENT

The interest rate payable may be either variable or fixed.

If a debt obligation secured by the Mortgage requires principal and interest payments which are payable in equal periodic installments, the amount of the interest and principal components of each mortgage payment will vary as the principal reduces and where applicable, the Interest Rate changes. The following provides details on how you may calculate the portion of each payment which will be first applied to the payment of interest and/or then in reduction of the principal.

Start with the principal that remained outstanding after your last payment ("Principal").

In the case of a Fixed Rate Mortgage, use the Equivalent Rate in effect during that time ("Rate").

In the case of a Variable Rate Mortgage, Capped Rate Mortgage or Multi-Purpose Mortgage, use the applicable Interest Rate ("Rate").

Determine the number of days in the payment period, including the date of the immediately preceding payment (or, in the case of the first payment, the I.A.D.) and excluding the date on which the next mortgage payment is being paid ("Days").

As the Interest Rate may be subject to fluctuations, determine, for each different Interest Rate chargeable during the payment period, the number of days on which such Interest Rate was chargeable. In order to determine the amount of interest which accrued on the Principal in the payment period for each Interest Rate, the calculation will have to be made for each period based on each applicable Interest Rate. Each of the interest components calculated must be added in order to determine the total amount of interest which accrued on the Principal during the period.

FORMULA

$$\text{Principal} \quad \times \quad \frac{\text{Rate}}{100} \quad \times \quad \frac{\text{Days}}{365^*} \quad = \quad \text{Interest Component of Payment}$$

*In leap years, the denominator used in this formula may be 366. You should contact us in order to verify whether to use 365 or 366.

If the balance outstanding under the Multi-Purpose Mortgage is owed pursuant to more than one Loan Document, you will have to make a separate calculation for each Loan Document.

If the payment exceeds the total amount of interest which accrued on the Principal during the period and there are no Other Charges, the balance of the payment is then applied in reduction of the Principal.

EXAMPLE The following example indicates how these calculations are carried out in practice. In this example, assume the following information:

- the "Principal" owing after the immediately preceding regular mortgage payment - $50,000.00,
- "Rate" during the payment period - 9%,
- the amount of the regular mortgage payment - $413.99,
- number of "Days" in the payment period e.g. January 1 to February 1 is a period of 31 days,
- use the formula set out previously to determine the interest which accrued on the Principal during the period.

$$$50,000 \quad \times \quad \frac{9}{100} \quad \times \quad \frac{31}{365} \quad = \quad $382.19$$

Apply the mortgage payment of $413.99 first to payment of the total amount of interest which accrued on the Principal during the period - $382.19. Subtracting the $382.19 interest component from the $413.99 payment results in a reduction of the Principal by $31.80.

12. TERMS OF PAYMENT – FIXED RATE MORTGAGE, VARIABLE RATE MORTGAGE, CAPPED RATE MORTGAGE

If this Mortgage is a Fixed Rate Mortgage, a Variable Rate Mortgage or a Capped Rate Mortgage, the provisions of this paragraph 12 will apply.

12.1 Payment Of Interest To The Interest Adjustment Date (I.A.D.)

On the I.A.D. you will pay interest at the rate agreed by you on as much of the Mortgage Principal Amount as has been advanced, from the date of such advance to the I.A.D. We may require you to pay such interest in periodic installments beginning with the payment period following the first advance of Mortgage Principal Amount, until the I.A.D. We may also deduct, from any advance of the Mortgage Principal Amount, interest that will be due on the I.A.D.

12.2 Payments After The Interest Adjustment Date (I.A.D.)

If your Mortgage is a Fixed Rate Mortgage, after the I.A.D. you will make mortgage payments of principal and interest in the amounts, beginning on the First Payment Date, and ending on the Last Payment Date, all as set out in Box 5. The balance of the Loan Amount will be paid on the Balance Due Date;

If your Mortgage is a Variable Rate Mortgage or a Capped Rate Mortgage, after the I.A.D., you will make equal combined principal and interest payments, principal plus interest payments or interest only payments depending on the type of payment you choose. Where you have chosen to make equal combined principal and interest payments, the Amount of each payment, the Payment Frequency and the First Payment Date are all as set out in Box 5. Where you have chosen to make principal plus interest payments, the Amount of each payment applicable to principal, the Payment Frequency and the First Payment Date are all set out in Box 5, and for this type of payment, where the Prime Rate fluctuates up or down, and as the principal balance is reduced, the amount of your periodic payments for interest will be adjusted accordingly. If your Mortgage is Payable on Demand, where you have chosen to make interest only payments, the option "INTEREST ONLY PAYMENTS MUST BE MADE" must be chosen in Box 5 and the Payment Frequency and the First Payment Date will all be set out in Box 5 – Additional Provisions – Other and for this type of payment, where the Prime Rate fluctuates up or down, and as the principal balance may be reduced by any payments on account of principal which you choose to make and we accept, the amount of your periodic payment for interest will be adjusted accordingly. Provided that if you and the Credit Union have agreed that the indebtedness secured by this Mortgage is to be payable on an interest only prior to demand basis, but the said option "INTEREST ONLY PAYMENTS MUST BE MADE" was erroneously not chosen in Box 5, then the choice of "INTEREST ONLY PAYMENTS MUST BE MADE" will be deemed to have been made in Box 5.

12.3 Mortgage Payable On Demand

Your Mortgage is payable on demand, if this is indicated in Box 5 or if there is a written agreement between us that states that the Mortgage will be payable on demand. Even if the Mortgage Document sets out payment provisions over time, the Loan Amount is payable when we demand payment in writing. You will make payments as set out in Box 5, or as we may otherwise require, until we demand payment of the Loan Amount. It is entirely in our discretion as to whether we demand payment of the Loan Amount and we may so demand even if none of the events described in paragraph 12.6 has occurred.

12.4 Application Of Payments

All payments received on account of the Mortgage will be applied firstly to accrued interest, and secondly to reduction of the Loan Amount (including any amounts added to the Loan Amount by way of compound interest, Other Charges, or otherwise);

EXCEPT that if you are in default of any payment or obligation, we may apply payments in any manner we choose.

12.5 Payment On Sale Or Transfer

If you sell, convey or transfer your Land or agree to do so, to anyone without obtaining prior written approval from us, the Loan Amount shall, at our option, immediately become payable in full. If we accept payment from any person or persons whom we have not first approved in writing, this shall not mean that we have granted prior written approval nor that we have relinquished our right to require you to pay the Loan Amount in full. For the purposes of this provision, you will be treated as having sold, conveyed or transferred your Land where (i) ownership of your Land changes by operation of law (for example, if you are a natural person, if you die, or if you are a corporation, if your corporate existence ceases or if you amalgamate with one or more other corporations) and (ii) you are a corporation and there is a change in the ownership of your issued shares such that voting control changes hands (voting control meaning the right to exercise more than 50% of all of the voting rights attaching to your issued share capital).

You shall provide us with sufficient written information to enable us to determine whether we should give our written approval and we shall, upon receipt of sufficient information, make our determination in a timely manner. Prior written approval by us shall not be unreasonably withheld.

If we approve of the transfer of your Land to a new owner or owners, one of our requirements for giving our approval may be that the new owner(s) sign an agreement to be bound by the terms of the Mortgage, in a form and content acceptable to us.

If we are entitled to exercise our option to accelerate repayment in full of the Loan Amount, we will not be taken to have done so unless we confirm this to you in writing. If we so exercise that option, we can do so without considering you to be in default and thereby require you (and/or your transferee) to repay the Loan Amount in full together with a prepayment penalty as outlined in paragraph 12.7(c).

12.6 Demand/Acceleration Of Repayment

Notwithstanding the provisions of Box 5, and in addition to our right to demand payment of the Loan Amount, where the words "NOT PAYABLE PRIOR TO DEMAND" do NOT appear in Box 5 – Additional Provisions – Other, at our option (we are not to be taken to have exercised this option unless we confirm same to you in writing), the Loan Amount will become immediately due and payable as if the term of your Mortgage had expired, in any of the following events:

- (a) you default in making any payment or in performing any obligation required by the Mortgage;
- (b) we discover that any statement or promise you made in your loan application or the Mortgage is untrue or inaccurate or cannot be performed; or that you have used mortgage proceeds for a purpose other than is shown on your loan application;
- (c) we have reason to believe that you have abandoned the Land;
- (d) we receive notice of, or there is registered, any assignment for the general benefit of creditors, tax sale proceeding, work order, debt review proceeding or mediation, undefended statement of claim, builder's lien, agreement for sale, notice of security interest, judgment or other lien, proceeding or encumbrance affecting you or the Land which, in our sole opinion, could affect the priority of our Mortgage or your ability to fulfill your obligations under it;
- (e) if at any time, during the course of construction prior to the I.A.D., we are not satisfied with the progress or the quality of construction where our Mortgage is securing progressive advances under a construction project;
- (f) we believe that the security of our position is threatened in any way;
- (g) you die or otherwise cease to exist;
- (h) there occurs any other event or occurrence which is stated or described to be an event or occurrence of default in any existing or future agreement or other writing between us pertaining to any of the indebtedness secured by this Mortgage;
- (i) where you are in default under any other security held by us at any time to secure your obligations secured by this Mortgage, in whole or in part;
- (j) where you are in default of your obligations under any other encumbrance, claim or other interest which charges the Land and which holds priority against the Land ahead of the priority of the security of this Mortgage;
- (k) if we lose the benefit of any other security at any time held by us to secure, in whole or in part, your obligations secured by this Mortgage (except where we release the same by written release or discharge), including the benefit of any guarantee, covenant or indemnity obligation of any person or persons.

12.7 Prepayment Provisions

Your rights, if any, to prepay the balance outstanding under this Mortgage may be set forth in Box 5 - Additional Provisions - Prepayment terms - Details by setting out either a word or words describing the type of prepayment rights as set forth below or by setting out in detail the prepayment rights. These rights may be amended by any future renewals, amendments or extensions to this Mortgage. If no prepayment rights are described or provided for in the Mortgage Document, the Mortgage will be deemed to specify "Closed".

(a) Prepayment Types

The following words describing the types of prepayment rights shall have the following meanings:

- (i) "Open" means that you have the right at any time to prepay the whole or any portion of the balance outstanding under this Mortgage without giving any prior notice of prepayment to the Credit Union and without having to pay to the Credit Union any additional fee or penalty for this right.
- (ii) "Closed" means that you may not make any payments to the Credit Union before the dates that they are due.

(iii) "Closed with Annual Payment" followed by a figure and a percentage sign (%) means that once in each twelve month period starting on the Interest Adjustment Date ("I.A.D.") or the anniversary of that date, you have the right without notice or penalty to prepay an amount not exceeding the specified percentage of the Mortgage Principal Amount.

(b) Limited Prepayment Rights

If your Mortgage is Closed with Annual Payment, you have the right, once in each twelve month period starting on the I.A.D., or the anniversary of that date, to pay an amount up to the percentage of the Mortgage Principal Amount as specified in Box 5 - Additional Provisions - Prepayment terms - Details. If you do not fully exercise this right in any twelve month period, you will not be able to carry this right forward to any future twelve month period. This right is not available at all where you are prepaying more than the percentage of the Mortgage Principal Amount as specified in Box 5 - Additional Provisions - Prepayment terms - Details. In the event that you do make a prepayment, your regular loan payment shall continue to be due and payable in the same amount during the term of the Mortgage until maturity of the Mortgage, until we make demand or until the monies hereby secured have been repaid in full, whichever is the first to occur.

A prepayment penalty, in the amount set out in 12.7(c) is payable on the entire amount paid where you prepay more than the percentage of the Mortgage Principal Amount specified in Box 5.

(c) Prepayment Penalty

At the Credit Union's discretion, the amount to be charged as a prepayment penalty will be the greater of:

- (i) three months' interest at your Interest Rate calculated on the amount prepaid by you if the Land hereby secured is an owner occupied residence, or
- (ii) six months' interest at your Interest Rate calculated on the amount prepaid by you if the Land hereby secured is other than an owner occupied residence, or
- (iii) an interest differential payment. The interest differential payment will be an amount arrived at by calculating interest for the remaining term of the Mortgage on the amount prepaid at a rate equal to the difference between your Interest Rate and the rate charged by the Credit Union as at the date of prepayment for a mortgage similar to yours. A mortgage similar to yours has a term that is closest to the remaining term of your Mortgage.

The prepayment provisions in this paragraph 12.7 are not intended to be exhaustive and different prepayment rights may be set forth in the Mortgage or an amending agreement. In any event, if your Mortgage has a term of more than five years and you are not a corporation, you may prepay the outstanding balance of principal and interest at any time after the fifth anniversary of the I.A.D. In this case, you will be charged a prepayment penalty as set out in paragraph 12.7 (c) (i).

12.8 Loan Repayable On Different Terms

If a loan secured by this Mortgage is repayable other than over time by way of equal payments made at equal intervals, where the payments are allocated first to accrued interest and then to the balance of the loan then outstanding, then:

- (a) the payment and repayment terms for such loan (the "Actual Loan Payment Terms") shall be set forth in Box 5; and
- (b) those definitions and terms of payment and repayment contained in paragraphs 2 to 13, both inclusive, of these SCMT which are inconsistent with or which conflict with the Actual Loan Payment Terms shall be inapplicable and shall be and be deemed to be deleted from these SCMT.

13. TERMS OF PAYMENT – MULTI-PURPOSE MORTGAGE

If this Mortgage is a Multi-Purpose Mortgage, the provisions of this paragraph 13 will apply.

13.1 Terms Of Repayment

The Loan Documents will contain particulars of the interest rate or rates applicable and the terms and conditions of payment of principal and interest. Notwithstanding the terms of payment set out in the Loan Documents, at our option, the Loan Amount will become immediately due and payable, as if your Multi-Purpose Mortgage had expired, in any of the following events:

- (a) you default in making any payment or in performing any obligation required by any of the Loan Documents or by the Multi-Purpose Mortgage;
- (b) we discover that any statement or promise you made in your loan application or the Multi-Purpose Mortgage is untrue or inaccurate or cannot be performed; or that you have used proceeds for a purpose other than is shown on your loan application;
- (c) we have reason to believe that you have abandoned the Land;
- (d) we receive notice of, or there is registered, any assignment for the general benefit of creditors, tax sale proceeding, work order, debt review proceeding or mediation, undefended statement of claim, builder's lien, agreement for sale, notice of security interest, judgment or other lien, proceeding or encumbrance affecting you or the Land which, in our sole opinion, could affect the priority of our Multi-Purpose Mortgage or your ability to fulfill your obligations under it;
- (e) if at any time, during the course of construction, we are not satisfied with the progress or the quality of construction where our Mortgage is securing progressive advances under a construction project;
- (f) we believe that the security of our position is threatened in any way;
- (g) you die or otherwise cease to exist;
- (h) there occurs any other event or occurrence which is stated or described to be an event or occurrence of default in any existing or future agreement or other writing between us pertaining to any of the indebtedness secured by this Multi-Purpose Mortgage;
- (i) where you are in default under any other security held by us at any time to secure your obligations secured by this Multi-Purpose Mortgage, in whole or in part;
- (j) where you are in default of your obligations under any other encumbrance, claim or other interest which charges the Land and which holds priority against the Land ahead of the priority of the security of this Multi-Purpose Mortgage;
- (k) if we lose the benefit of any other security at any time held by us to secure, in whole or in part, your obligations secured by this Multi-Purpose Mortgage (except where we release the same by written release or discharge), including the benefit of any guarantee, covenant or indemnity obligation of any person or persons.

13.2 Payment On Sale Or Transfer

If you sell, convey or transfer your Land or agree to do so to anyone without obtaining prior written approval from us, the Loan Amount shall, at our option, immediately become payable in full. If we accept payment from any person or persons whom we have not first approved in writing, this shall not mean that we have granted prior written approval nor that we have relinquished our right to require you to pay the Loan Amount in full. For the purposes of this provision, you will be treated as having sold, conveyed or transferred your Land where (i) ownership of your Land changes by operation of law (for example, if you are a natural person, if you die, or if you are a corporation, if your corporate existence ceases or if you amalgamate with one or more other corporations) and (ii) you are a corporation and there is a change in the ownership of your issued shares such that voting control changes hands (voting control meaning the right to exercise more than 50% of all of the voting rights attaching to your issued share capital).

You shall provide us with sufficient written information to enable us to determine whether we should give our written approval and we shall, upon receipt of sufficient information, make our determination in a timely manner. Prior written approval by us shall not be unreasonably withheld.

If we approve of the transfer of your Land to a new owner or owners, one of our requirements for giving our approval may be that the new owner(s) sign such agreements confirming indebtedness to us, in a form and content acceptable to us.

If we are entitled to exercise our option to accelerate repayment in full of the Loan Amount, we will not be taken to have done so unless we confirm this to you in writing. If we so exercise that option, we can do so without considering you to be in default and thereby require you (and/or your transferee) to repay the Loan Amount in full together with a prepayment penalty as outlined in paragraph 13.3.

13.3 Prepayment Provisions

Your rights, if any, to prepay the balance outstanding on any of your obligations secured by this Multi-Purpose Mortgage may be contained in one or more of the Loan Documents. If any part of the Loan Amount is advanced pursuant to a line of credit agreement, you may pay all or any part of that portion of the Loan Amount at any time, without notice, or penalty.

13.4 Loan Amount Exceeding Mortgage Principal Amount

If the Loan Amount should at any time or from time to time be greater than the Mortgage Principal Amount set out in Box 5 of the Mortgage Document, and because of an applicable law, part of the Loan Amount is not secured by this Mortgage, or is partially secured, we may, at any time and from time to time, decide what portion of the Loan Amount shall be so secured by the Mortgage, and which portion shall not be secured. Nothing in the Mortgage shall prejudice or otherwise affect in any way any right we may have, independent of the Mortgage, to enforce payment of any amount now or later owing to us (whether under the Loan Documents or otherwise) by you or any other person. Any payment made by you to us (whether under the Mortgage or the Loan Documents or otherwise and whether before or after demand, default or judgment) and any amount realized by us from any security (including the Mortgage) may be applied to such part or parts of the Loan Amount or to any other amount payable under the Mortgage as we in our sole discretion, may determine, whether or not you request a different application.

14. YOUR COVENANTS AND PROMISES TO US

You specifically covenant, promise and agree with us that:

14.1 Application

Every statement made by you to us, including statements made in your loan application, if any, is true, correct and accurate and you will perform all of your obligations in any loan application signed by you. The terms of your loan application, if any, are incorporated into the Mortgage, but where there is a conflict between the terms of the commitment letter, if any, and the Mortgage, the terms of the Mortgage shall prevail.

14.2 Title

(a) Freehold Title

If you are or are entitled to be an owner in fee simple of or with an absolute title to the Land, you certify, covenant and agree with us that:

- (i) you will pay the Loan Amount as required by the Mortgage or any Loan Documents, will pay Taxes assessed against the Land and will comply with all other obligations of the Mortgage or any Loan Documents;
- (ii) you are or are entitled to be the lawful owner of the Land;
- (iii) you have the right to give us the Mortgage;
- (iv) there are no encumbrances or other claims or interests affecting title to the Land, except those to which we have given our prior written consent;
- (v) there are no limitations affecting title to the Land except for any restrictions registered in the land titles office and except for building and zoning by-laws, all of which we have approved of in writing, with all of which you and the Land have complied;
- (vi) you will insure the buildings on the Land as required by paragraph 14.7;
- (vii) you will, at your expense, sign any other document or take any further action as we may in our sole opinion think necessary to ensure that all your interest in the Land has been fully charged to us, and that the Loan Amount is, in our sole opinion, adequately secured;
- (viii) if you default in any of your obligations under the Mortgage or any Loan Documents, we shall have quiet possession of the Land, free from all encumbrances;
- (ix) you will defend your title to the Land and will not in any way interfere with our interest in the Land.

(b) Leasehold Title

If you are or are entitled to be a tenant or lessee, under a lease, of the Land, in addition to any other provisions contained in this Mortgage, you certify, covenant and agree with us that:

- (i) you will pay the Loan Amount as required by the Mortgage or any Loan Documents, will pay Taxes assessed against your interest in the Land (and will cause your lessor to pay Taxes assessed against the lessor's interest in the Land), and will comply with all other obligations of the Mortgage or any Loan Documents;
- (ii) the Land is leased to you (or you are entitled to have the Land leased to you) under a valid lease, a true copy of which you have given us and that you have (or you are entitled to have) good leasehold title to the Land;
- (iii) all rents and other monies payable under the lease have been paid and there are no unremedied defaults (no matter when or by whom committed) outstanding under the lease, in both cases up to the date you sign the Mortgage Document;
- (iv) you have the consent of your landlord or lessor, or you have the right without your landlord or lessor's consent, to charge your interest in the lease to us in either case, either without conditions or requirements of your landlord or lessor, or, upon conditions and requirements which we have approved of in writing;
- (v) there are no limitations on your interest in the lease except for any set out in the lease, except for restrictions registered in the land titles office and except for building and zoning by-laws, with all of which you and your landlord have complied. There are no encumbrances or other claims or interests affecting title to your interest in the Land, except those to which we have given our prior written consent;
- (vi) you will pay rents and other payments required by the lease as they fall due;
- (vii) you will comply with all your other obligations set out in the lease;
- (viii) you will not surrender the lease or cause it to be terminated;
- (ix) you will not make any change in the lease without first obtaining our written consent;
- (x) you will promptly give us a true copy of any notice, demand or request which you may receive relating to the lease;
- (xi) you will, at your expense, sign any other document or take any further action as we may think necessary in our sole opinion to ensure that all your interest in the Land and in the lease has been fully charged to us, and that the Loan Amount is, in our sole opinion, adequately secured;
- (xii) if you default in any of your obligations under the Mortgage or any Loan Documents, we shall have quiet possession of the Land, free from all encumbrances;
- (xiii) you will defend your title to the Land, will not in any way interfere with our interest in the Land and will indemnify us against all actions, claims, costs and demands should you default under your lease and all amounts you may owe us at any time by virtue of your indemnification will be added to the Loan Amount and will be secured by the security of this Mortgage, and, this indemnity will survive any discharge of the Mortgage;
- (xiv) notwithstanding anything contained in or implied from any terms in the Mortgage, it is understood and agreed that the mortgage charge created by this Mortgage will not apply to the last day of the term of your lease, or to the last day of any renewal or extension term thereof, and you will hold the Land for the last day of the term of your lease or of any renewal term in trust for us and will only deal with it in such manner as we shall require. You will have the same rights arising from this paragraph as you already enjoy under other provisions of the Mortgage and at law. You will, when requested by us, obtain written assurances and undertakings from your lessor and all persons holding mortgages or other encumbrances, claims or interests in your lessor's interest in the Land which will protect us against any exercise of any of the rights, claims or interests of such other persons, the same to be at your cost and to be upon such terms as we deem necessary, acting reasonably;

- (xv) at our request, but at your expense, you will transfer to us the last day of the term of the lease or of any renewal. If we enforce our rights under the Mortgage, then you will hold the last day of the term of the lease and of any renewal in trust for any person to whom we sell your interest in the Land and for that person's Successors;
- (xvi) you appoint us as your attorney so that we, on your behalf and in your name, may assign the lease and the last day of the term and of any renewal and convey your interest in the Land as we may require to perfect any sale we may make;
- (xvii) if you acquire the freehold estate or interest in the Land prior to the discharge of the Mortgage, you will, on our request and at your cost and expense, provide us with a mortgage of such estate or interest, on terms substantially the same as those contained in the Mortgage;
- (xviii) you will from time to time, when we ask you to do this, provide to us at your cost, written statements from your lessor advising as to the status of the lease.

14.3 Further Encumbrances

You will not without our prior written consent create or allow to be created any other mortgage, charge, lien, claim, interest or encumbrance over the Land. This prohibition applies to any mortgage, charge, lien, claim, interest or encumbrance which is or may be registered against the title to the Land or which is valid without being registered against such title, and it applies to those which you may create by intentional act and those which arise by operation of law or under statute.

14.4 Use Of Loan

The loan proceeds will be used only for the purposes stated in the loan application and approved by us.

14.5 Covenant To Pay

You promise to pay the Loan Amount secured by and payable under the Mortgage or Loan Documents, as and when required by the Mortgage or Loan Documents, without any deduction or set-off.

14.6 Taxes, Etc.

You will promptly pay all Taxes, liens, charges, encumbrances and other claims which may have or may acquire a priority over the Mortgage, and provide us with evidence of payment on request.

- (a) In addition to any other rights we may have, we may deduct from any advance of the Mortgage Principal Amount an amount sufficient to pay such Taxes or charges, and pay them directly, or we may pay them and add them to the Loan Amount.
- (b) We may at any time require you to pay, either with your payments set out in Box 5 or at any other times we determine, such additional amounts as we think necessary to provide a fund sufficient to pay Taxes as they fall due (the "tax fund"). Such additional amounts will be determined by our estimate of the amount of Taxes and the number of payments to be made before Taxes are due.
- (c) If we require such a tax fund:
  - (i) we do not have to hold it in trust, or pay interest on it, or apply it to Taxes more than once a year;
  - (ii) we can apply it to remedy any default, or to any part of the Loan Amount if you are in default of any obligation;
  - (iii) if the Taxes charged in any year exceed the tax fund, you will immediately pay us the shortfall. If you do not, we may leave that portion of Taxes unpaid, or we may pay it directly and add it to the Loan Amount;
  - (iv) you will send us all tax bills or other notices relating to Taxes as soon as you receive them;
  - (v) if you wish to obtain any discount for early payment of Taxes, or to avoid any penalties, you will pay us any additional amounts necessary to do so.

14.7 Insurance

You will immediately insure and keep insured all buildings, structures, fixtures and improvements on the Land for not less than their full insurable replacement value until the Mortgage is discharged. You must insure against loss or damage by fire, with standard extended perils coverage, and such additional perils, risks or events as we may require at any time.

If our loan approval so requires, you must also place and maintain crop or hail insurance, or both, in any or all crops grown on the Land, for their full insurable value or to the extent required by us. If our loan approval so requires, you must also place and maintain such other kinds of insurance as may be specified in the approval.

If a steam boiler, pressure vessel, oil or gas burner, stoker, sprinkler system or other comparable apparatus is operated on the Land, you must so insure against loss or damage caused by such device.

All insurance policies must be carried with an insurer or insurers acceptable to us. They must contain standard mortgage clauses approved by the Insurance Bureau of Canada or by us, under which loss proceeds are payable first to us, or as our interest may appear, and we shall have the right to receive and to have a lien on such loss proceeds. If we become the owner of the Land by virtue of the Mortgage, then notwithstanding that all indebtedness secured by the Mortgage will or may have been extinguished, all your right and interest in all insurance applicable to the Land then in effect will pass to us and become our property.

All such policies shall contain an undertaking by the insurers to notify us in writing not less than fifteen (15) days prior to any material change, cancellation, failure to renew, or termination of the policy. If you do not take out or you fail to keep in force any such insurance, or if any such insurance is not approved by us, and if you do not rectify the situation within ten (10) days after written notice from us to you, we have the right, without assuming any obligation in connection to do so, to arrange for insurance at your sole cost and expense. If we are obligated to pay any premiums or sums of money for insurance for the Land or any part thereof the amount of such payment shall be added to the debt secured by the Mortgage and shall bear interest at the same rate applicable to principal as set out in the Mortgage from the time of such payments and shall be payable at the time appointed for the next ensuing paying of interest on the said debt.

You must, on our request, provide us with a certified copy of each such policy, and with evidence of its renewal before its expiry date. We may, but are not obliged to, place and pay for any insurance policy which we think necessary to protect our interest. The cost we incur in doing so will form part of Other Charges.

If loss or damage occurs, you will immediately and at your expense, furnish all necessary proofs and do everything necessary to enable us to obtain the insurance proceeds. You hereby authorize us to act in your place (which we are not obliged to do) and to take all such steps in order to cause the insurance proceeds to be payable to us.

Insurance proceeds received by us may at our sole option and in our sole discretion be:

- (a) applied to repair or rebuild your property; or
- (b) applied to reduce any part of the Loan Amount as we determine in our sole discretion, whether due or not, and if we choose to apply insurance loss proceeds to repay the full balance of any loan secured by this Mortgage, we shall also be entitled to collect from you (and to pay ourselves out of such loss proceeds) a prepayment penalty referred to in paragraph 12.7 or paragraph 13.3;
- (c) paid to you; or
- (d) paid on account of any other mortgage, charge, encumbrance, lien, claim or other interest applicable to the Land; or
- (e) applied partly in two or more of the foregoing ways.

14.8 Vacancy, Waste

You will not allow the Land to become or remain vacant or abandoned, and you will not commit or allow any act of waste or any other act or thing which in our opinion could decrease the value of the Land. You will also comply with all municipal, provincial and federal laws, rules, regulations and requirements applicable to the Land or any portion or portions thereof, including, without limitation, those dealing with environmental protection, zoning, health, fire prevention, and, building, electrical and plumbing codes. You agree to indemnify us against all liability, loss, cost and expense incurred by us as a result of your failing to comply with this paragraph. All amounts which you may owe us at any time by virtue of your indemnification will be added to the Loan Amount and will be secured by the security of this Mortgage. Your indemnification will survive any discharge of this Mortgage.

14.9 Hazardous Substances*(a) Definition

Reference herein to "Hazardous Substances" means any substance which is hazardous to persons or property and includes, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

- (i) radioactive materials;
- (ii) explosives;

- (iv) any solid, liquid, gas or odour or combination of any of them that, if emitted by air, would create or contribute to the creation of a condition of air that:

  - (II) causes interference with normal enjoyment of life or property; or
  - (III) causes damage to plant life or to property;
- (v) the substances including, without restriction, urea formaldehyde foam insulation, asbestos and poly-chlorinated byphenyls;
- (vi) substances declared to be hazardous or toxic under any law or regulation now or hereafter enacted or put into force by any governmental authority having jurisdiction over you, the Credit Union or the Land; and
- (vii) substances which we, acting reasonably, determine to be hazardous or toxic.

(b) Representation

Neither you, nor, to your best knowledge, any other person has ever caused or permitted any Hazardous Substance to be placed, held, located or disposed of on, under or at the Land, save and except as disclosed to us in writing.

(c) Covenants

You hereby covenant and agree with us as follows:

- (i) you shall not allow any Hazardous Substance to be placed, held, located or disposed of on, under or at the Land without prior written consent;
- (ii) you shall not allow the Land to be used in any manner in contravention of any applicable laws intended to protect the environment, including without limitation, laws respecting the disposal and emission of Hazardous Substances;
- (iii) to the extent that Hazardous Substances are, with our consent, placed, held, located or disposed of on, under or at the Land in accordance with the terms hereof, you shall:

  - (I) cause the storage tanks to be maintained and repaired in a manner satisfactory to us, and if you decide to remove any such tanks, or government authorities with jurisdiction require you to remove them, you will remove them in accordance with the requirements of applicable law and provide us with evidence of such compliance by you; and
  - (II) at our request, obtain assignments of any warranties or guarantees received from the manufacturer or installer of such storage tanks in our favour as additional security.

(d) Indemnity

You hereby indemnify and save us and our Successors harmless from and against any and all losses, liabilities, damages, costs and expenses of any kind whatsoever including, without limitation:

- (i) the costs of defending, counter-claiming or claiming over against third parties in respect of any action or matter including legal fees, costs and disbursements on a solicitor and client basis and at all court levels;

- (iii) the costs of repairs, clean-up or restoration paid by us and any fines levied against us; which at any time or from time to time may be paid, incurred or asserted against us, as a direct or indirect result of the presence on or under, or the escape, seepage, leakage, spillage, discharge, emission or release, of Hazardous Substances from the Land either into the atmosphere or into any water or onto any lands (including the Land). This indemnification shall survive the satisfaction, release or enforcement of this Mortgage or security collateral hereto and the full repayment of the Loan Amount thereon at the Interest Rate, together with all other monies secured by this Mortgage, including without restriction, any Other Charges made or incurred by us hereunder.

14.10 Repair

You will maintain the Land at all times and keep it in good condition and repair. If you do not, we can perform any maintenance, repairs or improvements we think necessary, and add the costs to the Loan Amount. Any repairs or improvements form part of our security. Before commencing any repairs or improvements, or before making any additions, you will first obtain our written consent therefor, and you agree that prior to our giving such consent, we may require that you engage or promise to engage competent architects, engineers, designers, contractors and tradespersons.

14.11 Quiet Possession On Default

If you default in any of your obligations under the Mortgage or any Loan Documents, we will have quiet possession of the Land free from all encumbrances, claims or other interests, excepting only for those to which we have agreed in writing to subordinate our Mortgage. We may, by notice to you, require you to vacate the Land and remove all of your belongings from it.

14.12 Other Obligations And Agreements

You will comply with every other covenant, promise and agreement you have made to us, or which you may hereafter make to us, as if every one were set out as a specific covenant in this paragraph 14.

14.13 Further Assurances

You will at your expense give further security, sign any other document, and do anything further which we think necessary to ensure that your interest in the Land is fully mortgaged to us, and that the Loan Amount is adequately secured.

14.14 Default

You acknowledge the terms and conditions of any commitment letter (and any amendments thereto, any reference to the "commitment letter" in the Mortgage to mean the commitment letter as originally signed and all amendments which may be made from time to time) relating to this Mortgage and that such terms and conditions are included in and incorporated by reference in the terms hereof and shall not merge in this Mortgage and that default hereunder or under the commitment letter will constitute default herein and vice versa; provided that in the event of any conflict between the provisions of any commitment letter and this Mortgage, the terms of this Mortgage shall govern. If you default on the terms of any prior encumbrance or any other loan or mortgage with us, we may consider you in default under this Mortgage. If you default under this Mortgage, we may consider you in default of any other loan or mortgage with us.

14.15 No Change In Use

As long as the Mortgage remains undischarged, you will not change or permit any change in the use of the Land (even if the same is permitted by applicable law) from the use which has been approved of by us, and you will not request or support any rezoning or other change regarding usage of the Land without obtaining our prior written consent.

14.16 Inspections

We or an agent appointed by us, may, at any time, before and after default, and for any purpose deemed necessary by us, enter upon the Land to inspect the Land and all buildings thereon. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, we (or our agents) may enter upon the Land to conduct any environmental testing, site assessment, investigation or study deemed necessary by us and the reasonable cost of such testing, assessment, investigation or study, as the case may be, with interest at the Interest Rate, shall be payable by you forthwith and shall be a mortgage upon the Land. The exercise of any of the powers enumerated in this clause shall not deem the Credit Union, CMHC, or other mortgage default insurer or their respective agents to be in possession, management or control of the Land.

14.17 Other Claims or Liens

You will not allow any builders' lien to remain undischarged on the title to the Land for more than 30 days unless:

- (a) you diligently dispute the validity of the lien by taking all necessary steps to do so;
- (b) you provide us satisfactory security to pay the lien and all legal costs in full on a full indemnification basis;
- (c) you authorize us to use such security to pay out and discharge the lien and all legal costs incurred by us and by a valid lien claimant.

If any lien, security interest or other charge affects the Land and we deem it necessary to protect out interests under this Mortgage, we may pay the amounts of such lien, security interest or charge and all amounts so paid shall be added to the Loan Amount and shall be payable by you.

14.18 Construction and Construction Advances

If funds are advanced to you for the purpose of paying for any construction, renovation or addition to any buildings on the Land, the following provisions apply:

- (a) we may make advances, in our discretion, based on the progress of construction. We will decide when and how much money to advance, taking into account the state of completion of the construction, renovation or addition and the cost of completion;
- (b) we may withhold funds from any advance to ensure compliance with The Builders' Liens Act;
- (c) If this is a construction mortgage, we may require that accrued interest on progress advances from the date of those advances be paid periodically. We may deduct accrued interest from the principal amount of any advance. If the Mortgage Principal Amount is not fully advanced by the I.A.D., the I.A.D. will be changed to be the date of the final advance. The Last Payment Date and Balance Due Date shall also be changed. If the Loan Documents do not set out an I.A.D., the I.A.D. shall be deemed to be the date of the final advance.

14.19 Foreign Resident

If you are a resident for tax purposes of a country other than Canada and your country of residence charges a withholding tax on the interest portion of your payment to us, you will pay the amount withheld to us in order that we may receive the full amount of your interest payment free of such withholding tax. You are solely responsible for paying any and all withholding taxes and will provide proof of payment to us upon request. Any withholding tax deducted from payments owing to us, that we are required to pay or that we choose to pay on your behalf shall be added to the Loan Amount.

14.20 Renting the Land (Mortgages of Single Family Residences only)

Unless you advised us that the Land was not going to be occupied by you as your home and that you intended to rent it to a tenant, you will at all times during the Term occupy the Land as your home. You may only rent the Land with our consent, which may, at our option, be withheld. Any and all costs incurred by us, including the cost of dealing with a tenant to obtain vacant possession of the Land in the event of a sale of the Land as a result of your default under this Mortgage, shall be added to the Loan Amount.

14.21 New Home Warranty

If a warranty under The New Home Warranty Act applies to a building on the Land, you will comply with all requirements to maintain the validity of such warranty. Any costs paid by us to comply with or enforce your rights under the warranty will be added to the Loan Amount.

14.22 Deposit Account for Payments

You will keep and maintain a deposit account at a Canadian financial institution and you will authorize us to withdraw from that account automatically for each payment when it is due. You will keep enough money in the account to ensure that each payment can be made when due. You will not cancel the authorization to make automatic withdrawals or close the account without our consent. If your financial institution, for any reason such as insufficient funds or the closure of the account, refuses the pre-authorized withdrawal, you will be charged by us for any fee charged by your financial institution.

15. PROTECTING OUR INTERESTS

We have the right to do anything which we feel necessary to protect our interests in the Land and to secure payment of the Loan Amount. This may include, but not be restricted to, such things as:

- (a) paying Taxes, liens or encumbrances;
- (b) entering, inspecting, surveying or appraising the Land. Entry by us shall not make us a mortgagee in possession or responsible for the obligations of a mortgagee in possession and we may do any of these things both before and after any default by you under this Mortgage;
- (c) managing, caretaking, or leasing the Land and collecting the rents and profits;
- (d) insuring the Land or crops;
- (e) repairing, maintaining or improving the Land, or finishing any uncompleted structure;
- (f) working, breaking, summer fallowing, controlling weeds, harvesting or otherwise farming the Land;
- (g) fulfilling any of your obligations or agreements expressed or implied in the Mortgage, which you have failed to fulfill;
- (h) doing any other thing which in our sole opinion is necessary to preserve the value of the Land, perfect the Mortgage or collect the Loan Amount.

These things may be done without notice or your consent, and at your expense. For these purposes, we and our agents may enter on the Land at all reasonable times without interference from you. While you agree that we have the rights described in this paragraph 15, you also agree that we are under no obligation to exercise any of those rights, and that if we do exercise them, you will have no claim against us by reason of anything which we did (or omitted to do) in exercising any of such rights.

16. OTHER CHARGES

All costs which we customarily charge, or may pay or be liable to pay will be deemed to be Other Charges and shall be paid by you as such. They may include, but are not restricted to:

- (a) costs incurred in placing or perfecting the Mortgage security, including survey and legal costs;
- (b) our service charges and processing fees payable on application, appraisal, renewal, extension, amendment, transfer, discharge, prepayment, preparation of assumption statements, life or disability insurance premiums, or any other service charge announced by us at any time;
- (c) all costs of doing anything we are entitled to do under the Mortgage, including those things listed in the previous paragraph 15;
- (d) all costs of enforcing our rights and remedies under the Mortgage, and of any proceedings to take possession of, lease, manage or foreclose the Land, appoint a receiver or do anything else we are entitled to do;
- (e) all costs incurred by us as a secured creditor under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada); particularly, those costs imposed upon us due to proposals and the stay provisions of that act.

In all cases, such costs include our legal fees on a lawyer-client basis, and a reasonable allowance for the time and service of our employees and all the expenses of professionals and consultants incurred by us under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada).

These Other Charges are added to the Loan Amount and bear interest from the date they are paid by us. They are part of the Loan Amount, secured by the Mortgage and are a charge upon the Land. They are payable immediately upon being paid by us. When we pay any such charge, we stand in the legal position of the creditor so paid.

17. OUR REMEDIES ON DEFAULT

If you default in any payment or other obligation under this Mortgage or the Loan Documents, we may take any one or more of the following remedies as permitted by law:

17.1 Sue

We may demand payment of the Loan Amount and sue you for it.

17.2 Take Possession And Lease

If you default in making any payment of the Loan Amount for one month, we can take possession of the Land and lease it on such terms and for whatever period we may decide upon to any maximum period allowed by law. We may also lease the Land or any portion or portions thereof without taking possession thereof.

17.3 Collect Rents And Profits

We may collect the rents and profits from the Land, and if they are not sufficient to pay the Loan Amount, you will owe us the deficiency.

17.4 Distrain

Except where the Land is residential premises, we may enter and seize goods on your Land, and sell them to recover the unpaid balance of the Loan Amount. You expressly waive any defect or irregularity with respect to such seizure.

17.5 Sell

If your default continues for thirty days, we may on notice to you as required by the Act or a court, sell all or any part or any parts of the Land. Any sale can be for cash, credit, or part cash and part credit, by public auction or private contract, and for such price as we can obtain. We are not accountable for sale proceeds until we actually receive them. If net sale proceeds are not sufficient to pay the Loan Amount, you will owe us the deficiency. No lack of notice or irregularity invalidates the sale, and if you or anyone claiming under or through you has any claim arising by virtue of the sale, that claim will be asserted against us alone, and in any event will not be asserted against the Land or anyone who purchases the Land (or any portion or portions thereof) from us, and those claiming under and through any such purchaser.

17.6 Foreclosure

If the Land is not sold after we obtain an order for sale, we can foreclose. If we obtain a final order of foreclosure, the Land belongs to us.

17.7 Appoint Receiver

If you are in default in the observance or performance of any of the terms, conditions, covenants or payments described herein or in any additional security given by you to us then we can, in writing, appoint any person or persons whether our officer or officers or employee or employees, or not, to be a receiver or receivers of the Land and assets which are charged in our favour and the rents and the profits derived therefrom, and can remove any receiver or receivers so appointed and appoint another or others in place of such receiver or receivers. The term "receiver" as used in this Mortgage shall include a receiver, a manager or a receiver and manager. The following provisions shall apply to this paragraph:

- (a) A receiver or receivers so appointed are conclusively your agent or agents and you shall be solely responsible for the acts or defaults and for the remuneration and expenses of the receiver or receivers. We shall not be in any way responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any receiver or receivers and may, from time to time, fix the remuneration of every receiver or receivers and be at liberty to direct the repayment thereof from the proceeds collected.
- (b) Nothing contained herein and nothing done by us or by a receiver or receivers shall render us a mortgagee in possession or responsible as such.
- (c) All monies received by the receiver or receivers after providing for payment and charges ranking prior to this Mortgage and for all costs, charges and expenses of or incidental to the exercise of any of the powers of the receiver or receivers can be applied in or towards satisfaction of the monies owing pursuant to this Mortgage.
- (d) The receiver or receivers so appointed shall have power to:
  - (i) take possession of, collect and get in the Land or any part thereof, rents and profits thereof, and the subject matters of any additional security granted by you to us and for that purpose to take any proceedings, be they legal or otherwise, in your name or otherwise;
  - (ii) carry on or concur in carrying on the business which you are conducting on and from the Land;
  - (iii) lease or re-lease all or any portion of the Land and for this purpose to execute contracts in your name, which contracts shall be binding upon you; and
  - (iv) take such other action as may be authorized or directed by us in writing to the receiver or which may be granted to the receiver by a court.

The rights and powers conferred by this paragraph are supplemental to and not in substitution for any other rights which we may have from time to time.

17.8 Other Remedies

We may pursue any other remedy which is permitted by law. If, in enforcing any of our remedies, we enter into possession of the Land, you will not interfere with our possession or with the possession of any receiver or any person to whom the Land is leased or sold. You will make no claim against any person to whom the Land is leased or sold. If you have any claim concerning the Land, it is only against us and only for money damages. All costs we incur in enforcing any of these remedies are payable by you as explained in paragraph 16.

17.9 Additional Security

If you have given us a security interest in any other property to secure the Loan Amount, we may take steps to enforce such security interest either before or after or at the same time as enforcing this Mortgage. Any money recoverable in connection with the other property will be applied against the Loan Amount without affecting our rights of enforcement under this Mortgage.

17.10 Our Obligation To Make Further Advances Ends

We shall have no further obligation to advance any monies or other value secured or intended to be secured by this Mortgage.

17.11 You Are Not Relieved Where We Remedy Your Default

If we take action to remedy any failure by you to perform any of your obligations (as referred to in paragraph 15 of this document), and notwithstanding that we exercise our consequent right to add the costs thereby incurred by us to the Loan Amount, such remedying by us will not relieve you from the other consequences of default hereunder and our remedying of your default will not be considered to be a remedying of same by you.

18. RIGHTS CUMULATIVE

The rights and remedies we have under the Mortgage are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any rights, remedies or powers which we may now or in future have under any law or statute or otherwise, including by way of agreement with you or with those claiming under or through you who have the right and power to grant us rights and remedies. Where we exercise any right or remedy on any one occasion, this will not be taken by you or anyone claiming under or through you that we have exhausted our entitlement to exercise such right or remedy, and we shall be entitled to exercise such rights or remedies on any number of subsequent occasions as we deem appropriate.

19. NON-MERGER

If we obtain any court judgment against you in any action to enforce our rights and remedies, such judgment does not prevent us from pursuing our other remedies or our rights to enforce your other obligations, including our right to receive interest as required by the Mortgage.

20. DELAY IN ENFORCEMENT

No delay in enforcing any of our rights under the Mortgage affects the validity of those rights, or our ability to enforce them at any time. If we do not immediately enforce any obligation you have failed to perform, our delay does not waive or cure any existing default, and does not justify your default or delay on any other occasion. No default is waived or cured except by our written agreement. Just because we waive or forgive payment or performance of any of your obligations under this Mortgage on any particular occasion, this is not to be taken by you (or anyone else claiming under or through you) that we will waive or forgive performance of any of your other obligations on any subsequent occasion.

21. ADVANCES OF THE MORTGAGE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT

21.1 Advances After Signing

If any part of the Mortgage Principal Amount is not advanced at the date you sign the Mortgage, we may advance it in one or more advances at any future time, and such future advances are secured by the Mortgage and repayable with interest as explained in the Mortgage or any Loan Documents.

21.2 Credit Union Not Bound To Advance

If for any reason we do not wish to advance all or part of the unadvanced Mortgage Principal Amount, we are not bound to do so. This applies even if the Mortgage has been signed and registered, and whether or not any part of the Mortgage Principal Amount has already been advanced. Even if we do not advance all or part of the Mortgage Principal Amount, you have mortgaged all of your interest in the Land to us, and you are required to pay us all our costs and expenses (including legal fees on a lawyer-client basis) for investigating your loan application and title, and preparing and registering the Mortgage. Such costs and expenses are secured by the Mortgage, are a charge on the Land, and are payable immediately, with interest at the Interest Rate.

Without limiting our discretion to refuse any advance of the Mortgage Principal Amount for any reason, we may so refuse if:

- (a) the facts have changed materially from those shown on the loan application;
- (b) there has been any misrepresentation;
- (c) any lawyer's report on investigation of your title or as to the status of this Mortgage or any other security is unsatisfactory to us, or suggests that we will not receive a valid, enforceable Mortgage; or
- (d) funds have not been advanced on or before any commitment date we may have indicated in your loan approval (or other date which we have specified as a deadline for advancement of some or all of the funds to be secured by this Mortgage).

22. PARTIAL RELEASE AND POSTPONEMENT

At our discretion, we may at any time release our interest in all or part of the Land, whether or not we receive payment for doing so, and be accountable to you only for money we actually receive. If we release our interest in part of the Land only, the remainder will continue to secure the Loan Amount, and the obligations of you and any Covenantor continue unchanged.

We may also release any Covenantor or other Borrower from any or all obligations under the Mortgage, whether or not we receive payment for doing so, and be accountable to you only for money we actually receive. Such a release does not affect the obligations of any remaining Covenantor or Borrower. We may also postpone this Mortgage, in whole or in part, and on such terms as we deem appropriate, in favour of any other encumbrance, claim or other interest now or hereafter existing, and if we do the foregoing or any of the foregoing, this shall not in any way and to any degree whatsoever release or discharge you, or any other person who is, in whole or in part, responsible for payment of the obligations secured by this Mortgage, nor will the same release or entitle you to a release of any security held by us, including the security constituted by this Mortgage.

23. ATTORNMENT

To better secure the punctual payment of the Loan Amount, you attorn tenant to us, at a periodic rent equal to the periodic payments due under the Mortgage. The legal relationship of landlord and tenant is created, but we can at any time after a default under the Mortgage, terminate the tenancy without giving notice. Provided, however, and it is hereby agreed that neither this clause nor anything done by virtue thereof shall render the Credit Union a mortgagee in possession or accountable for any monies except those actually received.

This paragraph does not apply to a "rental unit" comprising all or any part of the Land, as that term is defined in The Residential Tenancies Act (Manitoba) and amendments thereto.

24. EXPROPRIATION

If all of the Land is expropriated, the Loan Amount will become immediately due and payable. If part of the Land is expropriated, all amounts you are paid for any expropriation, whether a complete or partial expropriation, will be paid to us and applied to the Loan Amount. If in our opinion the balance of the Land does not adequately secure the Loan Amount, then the Loan Amount or so much of it as we determine, will immediately become due and payable together with prepayment penalty, if any. You will direct the expropriating authorities to send all expropriation proceeds to us, but if you at any time come into control or possession of same, you will hold same in trust for us.

25. SUBDIVISION

If you subdivide the Land, the Mortgage will continue to apply to each subdivided parcel, and each parcel will be subject to the Loan Amount owing. We may release one or more parcels without affecting your obligations under the Mortgage. Nothing in this paragraph 25 shall be taken by you (or anyone claiming under or through you) that we have given or may hereafter give our permission to subdivide the Land.

26. CONDOMINIUM

If the Land is a condominium unit registered under The Condominium Act, you agree to the promises set out in this paragraph 26.

26.1 Compliance With The Condominium Act And Declaration

You will comply with The Condominium Act and the declaration, by-laws, and rules of the condominium corporation (the "Corporation") of which you are a member.

26.2 Common Expenses

You will pay when due your share of the common expenses of the Corporation and all other levies made by the Corporation against the unit. If you do not, we can pay that amount for you and add it to the Loan Amount so that it will bear interest at the Interest Rate, be secured by the Mortgage and form a charge on the Land. We can also deduct any such expenses or levies from any advance which we may make which is to be secured under this Mortgage.

26.3 Authorization To Vote

You authorize us both before and after default to exercise any rights you have as owner to vote for, act on or consent to any matter relating to the condominium property or to the affairs of the Corporation. Provided that we will have no responsibility to you regarding our exercise (or non-exercise) of the rights granted to us in this paragraph, and if and when we do exercise such rights, we shall have no responsibility to do so in a manner for your benefit or which protects your interests.

26.4 Insurance

Unless the unit is a bare land Condominium Unit where the Corporation has no obligation to insure the units, in which case the insurance provisions set out in paragraph 14.7 shall apply, you or the Corporation of which you are a member by virtue of your title to the unit, or both of you, will at all times insure the unit and keep it insured with insurance in an amount of not less than one hundred percent (100%) of the full replacement cost of, with coverage against (at least) the perils of fire and standard extended coverage on, each and every building on the Land and which may hereafter be erected thereon, both during erection and thereafter. Each policy of insurance arranged by you shall provide that loss, if any, shall be payable to the Credit Union as its interest may appear and shall contain the standard mortgage clause approved by the Credit Union. You and the Corporation will deliver to the Credit Union, certificates of insurance or, if required by the Credit Union, certified copies of each such insurance policy, as soon as practicable after the placing of the required insurance. All such policies arranged by you shall contain an undertaking by the insurers to notify the Credit Union in writing not less than fifteen (15) days prior to any material change, cancellation, failure to renew, or termination thereof. If you fail to take out or to keep in force any such insurance, or should any such insurance not be approved by the Credit Union, and should you not rectify the situation within ten (10) days after written notice by the Credit Union to you, the Credit Union has the right, without assuming any obligation in connection therewith, to effect such insurance at your sole cost and expense. If the Credit Union is obligated to pay any premiums or sums of money for insurance for the premises or any part thereof the amount of such payment shall be added to the debt secured by the Mortgage and shall bear interest at the same rate applicable to principal as set out in the Mortgage from the time of such payments and shall be payable at the time appointed for the next ensuing paying of interest on the said debt. On the happening of any loss or damage, you or the Corporation or both shall comply fully with the terms of the policy, or policies, of insurance and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, your obligation to observe and perform all the duties and obligations imposed on you by The Condominium Act and the Declaration and By-Laws of the Corporation as hereinafter provided. You shall comply with the insurance provisions of the Declaration; and you, as a member of the Corporation, shall seek the full compliance by the Corporation of the aforementioned covenants.

To the extent that you have assigned your voting rights in connection with any matter relating to (i) insurance, (ii) repair after damage or (iii) withdrawal from The Condominium Act, to us, such assignment shall take the place of any requirement that loss payable under the policy of insurance covering the units and the common elements be payable to us.

If a sprinkler system or a steam boiler or any other thing or apparatus generating steam or operated by steam shall be installed or operated on the land or in any building in which the whole or any part of the unit is situate, you or the Corporation or both of you shall insure and during the continuance of this Mortgage keep insured the buildings on the said land or any buildings in which the whole or any part of the unit is situate against loss or damage caused by such sprinkler system or by such boiler or other thing or apparatus or bursting or explosion thereof or defect therein to the full replacement value of such buildings.

26.5 More Than One Condominium Unit

If the Land comprises two or more condominium units registered under The Condominium Act, then you agree:

- (a) that the foregoing provisions of this paragraph 26 will apply to such units;
- (b) that your right to receive from us a statement of the debts secured by this security once every twelve months, or as needed for pay off or sale (pursuant to the provisions of The Mortgage Act) shall be deemed not to apply separately to each condominium unit;
- (c) that no sale of individual units will be permitted without our prior written consent;
- (d) that you will not invoke any provision now or in the future existing under The Condominium Act as from time to time amended, replaced or supplemented or under any other statute or law respecting pre-payment in whole or in part of the obligations secured by this security, the intent hereof being that this security shall continue to mortgage and charge each of the condominium units comprising the Land and that each of such units shall be subject to the payment, fulfillment and performance of all of the obligations hereby secured. If you or any other person or persons invokes any such provisions or any similar rights which has the effect of defeating or nullifying the purpose or intention of this provision, then, at our option, this shall constitute default under this security.

26.6 Acknowledgment Of Mortgage

You will cause each of the Corporation and the insurance trustee (if any) to acknowledge to us in writing, the existence of this Mortgage and our address for the provision of notices to us.

26.7 Termination Of Condominium Status

If a Notice of Withdrawal in respect of the condominium property is registered under The Condominium Act then such occurrence will be and be deemed to be an event or occurrence of default under this Mortgage.

27. IMPROVEMENT TO LAND

If you make any improvement to the Land (including any new construction, or any alteration, repair, addition, or demolition) we require you to submit any contracts, plans and specifications to us for approval before the work begins. You will not proceed with the work without our consent. You will complete the work as quickly as possible, in accordance with all government requirements and building standards, at your expense, and provide us with proof of payment and proof of compliance with such government requirements on request. You must withhold all required builder's lien holdbacks and you must also comply with all of your other obligations under The Builders' Liens Act. We may withhold any advances until we are satisfied that you have complied with your obligations to pay the cost of improvement and we may also withhold from any advance all such other amounts as we are entitled to withhold pursuant to any other agreement between us. We may obtain a court order removing any construction lien, and if necessary provide financial guarantees or other security to enable us to obtain such an order. All our costs of doing so will form part of Other Charges.

28. RENEWAL, AMENDMENT, EXTENSION

- (a) We may at any time agree with you in writing to renew the term of the Mortgage, to amend its terms, or to extend the time for payment. No such agreement will adversely affect the validity of the Mortgage or your liability under it, and any such agreement is binding even if it is not registered at the land titles office. However, we may require that any amendment be registered at the land titles office, and in that case, you will ensure that all consents or postponements required, in order to enable the amendment to be so registered, are properly given and obtained at your sole cost;
- (b) If we agree to renew the term of the Mortgage and send you a mortgage renewal agreement and you do not sign and return it to us by the date required, the Mortgage will, at our option, be renewed on the terms set out in the mortgage renewal agreement;
- (c) if we do not agree to renew the Mortgage or extend the time for payment or we have sent you a mortgage renewal agreement but you do not sign and return it to us by the date required and we have decided not to renew the term of the Mortgage you will be required to pay the Loan Amount on the date of maturity of the Mortgage, failing which we may, at our option, charge you interest at the prevailing rates at that time. If we accept any payments after maturity of this Mortgage, this will not, in the absence of an agreement to renew or otherwise amend this Mortgage, be treated by you or anyone else as meaning that we have agreed to extend the time for payment.

29. COVENANTOR

Each Covenantor promises and agrees as principal debtor to pay the Loan Amount secured by and payable under the Mortgage, as and when required by the Mortgage, and to fulfill all of the other obligations of the mortgagor under the Mortgage. This promise is a condition of the loan. No partial release of our security, and no agreement to renew, amend or extend the Mortgage and no other act or omission by us which, in the absence of this provision, would release any Covenantor in whole or in part, will reduce the liability of the Covenantor under the Mortgage. We may require payment from the Covenantor before having attempted to obtain payment from the Borrower. The obligations of the Covenantor are binding on the Covenantor's Successors, and are not altered by the bankruptcy or insolvency of the Borrower. Until all of the Borrower's obligations under this Mortgage have been paid and fulfilled, each Covenantor postpones and shall postpone all claims which each may have against the Borrower, and each Covenantor hereby assigns all of such claims, present and future, to the Credit Union. Without limiting the aforementioned obligations of each Covenantor, each Covenantor also agrees to indemnify the Credit Union with respect to any and all losses sustained by the Credit Union, which occur as a result of any default under this Mortgage.

Each Covenantor agrees that the Covenantor's obligations under it will continue and will not be affected in any way by any one or more of the following actions or events:

- (a) the closing of your account with the Credit Union;
- (b) the receipt of payments on account of your debts to the Credit Union;
- (c) the release of any security for the Covenantor's or your obligations;
- (d) the release of any other Covenantor;
- (e) the death or loss of capacity of you or the Covenantor;
- (f) the change of your name, or if you are a partnership, society or corporation, any change in your membership, ownership, internal structure or organization;
- (g) the bankruptcy of you or any other Covenantor;
- (h) our failure to take any steps to collect from you, to realize on any securities provided by you or to pursue collection from any trustee in bankruptcy of yours;
- (i) our failure, on a sale of any collateral pledged as security for your obligations, to realize enough proceeds to pay your obligations to us in full;
- (j) our failure to give notice to the Covenantor of any dealing between us and you or any dealing with any collateral pledged as security for the Covenantor's or your obligations;
- (k) any agreement between us and you to change or extend the terms of repayment of your debt to us or to add to, change or modify any collateral pledged as security for your debt;
- (l) any agreement or decision by us not to take steps to collect the monies owing from you or to take no action on any collateral pledged as security to us; or
- (m) a finding by a court that we may not be able to enforce payment of interest by you.

30. CORPORATE BORROWER

If you are a corporation, you agree that:

- (a) we may consider any change in the voting control of the corporation, without our prior written consent, to be a default; and
- (b) at our option, you will, annually within 90 days of the end of your fiscal year, provide us with audited financial statements of income and expenditures with supporting schedules, covering your operations for the previous fiscal year, or such other financial information or statements at such time or within such periods as we may in our discretion require.

31. ASSIGNMENT OF LEASES

If you have leased, or in future do lease any part of the Land, then you will, if you have not already done so, at our request assign to us each lease and/or the right to receive all money payable under it. You also agree to give us security on chattels, fixtures and equipment and pay our entire costs relating to such security as Other Charges. You agree to obtain our prior written consent for any future lease of part of the Land. Any leasing by you will be made in accordance with the requirements of applicable law, including, where applicable, The Residential Tenancies Act (Manitoba), and you will, at our request and at your expense, from time to time provide us with evidence of such compliance. You will ensure that any lease for a part of the Land is subordinate to our security, and if requested by us, you will, at your cost, ensure that each tenant undertakes to attorn tenant to us if and when we require this to be done. You will not further mortgage or assign any of the leases to any other person or persons. You will from time to time advise us as to the status of each lease and you will not amend the terms of any lease unless we consent to this in writing. You will not accept any prepayment of rent under any lease without our written consent. You will indemnify us against all claims which may be made against us by virtue of any breach by you of any of your obligations as landlord under any lease, and your obligations under this indemnification shall be secured by this Mortgage and this indemnification shall survive the discharge of this Mortgage.

32. RELEASE OF INFORMATION

You authorize us to release information about you or the Mortgage to any person claiming a builder's lien on the Land, a credit bureau, another credit grantor, or any other person as permitted or required by law. This authorization shall extend to all enquiries about you made at any time by a credit bureau or other lender, whether proposed or actual. The Credit Union may share information about you and this Mortgage to the extent required or desirable to induce other financial institutions to acquire an interest in this Mortgage, by way of purchase, syndication or otherwise, except in this event the Credit Union shall ensure that such other financial institution shall undertake to protect your private and confidential information.

33. EFFECT ON OTHER OBLIGATIONS AND SECURITY

This Mortgage is in addition to and not in substitution for any other security at any time held by us for all or any part of the Loan Amount secured by the Mortgage and it is agreed that we may pursue our remedies thereunder or under the Mortgage concurrently or successively at our option. Any judgment or recovery under the Mortgage or under any other security held by us for the Loan Amount secured by the Mortgage shall not affect our right to realize upon the Mortgage or any other security.

34. WHO IS BOUND

The Mortgage binds each Borrower and Covenantor and their respective Successors. It binds and benefits us and our Successors.

If more than one person has signed as Borrower or Covenantor, each person is jointly and severally liable to fulfill all of the obligations under the Mortgage.

35. NOTICE

You agree that we may provide notices to or communicate with you in writing, by mail or by personal delivery to you or by such other means as we may both agree. If you have provided to us an e-mail address or fax number, you agree that, to the extent allowed by law, we may use e-mail or facsimile transmission, as the case may be, as a means of communicating with you. We may use the latest postal, street or e-mail address or fax number that you have provided to us. You may change the postal, street or e-mail address or fax number at which you wish to receive communications from us by any written means, but until you have actually communicated such change to us by post, personal delivery, facsimile transmission or e-mail, we may continue to use the most recent postal, street or e-mail address or fax number that you have provided to us.

You may give notice to us by personal delivery to the manager of the branch office with which you deal, by prepaid ordinary or registered mail addressed to us at our address shown in the Mortgage Document, by e-mail or facsimile transmission.

Notice is deemed given on the date of personal delivery, e-mail or facsimile transmission, or on the fifth day after mailing. If there is a disruption in the mails, or a disruption occurs within five days after mailing, then no notice will be given by mail, and if one has already been given, it will be given again other than by way of mailing.

37. HEADINGS

Headings are for convenience of reference only. They are not a part of the body of the Mortgage, and they do not affect the interpretation of the Mortgage.

38. PARTIAL INVALIDITY

If any term of the Mortgage should be found by a court to be invalid or illegal or unenforceable, that term does not apply but the rest of the Mortgage remains in full force and effect.

40. CURRENCY AND PLACE

All payments made under the Mortgage shall be made in Canadian dollars at the branch of the Credit Union at which you regularly deal, unless you are otherwise instructed in writing.

42. NO RELEASE BY VIRTUE OF DEALINGS WITH SUCCESSORS

To the extent not prohibited by applicable law, any dealing by us with your permitted Successors, including without limitation, any arrangement for amending any of the terms of this Mortgage or any Loan Documents (including, without limitation, any amendment increasing the interest rate), will not release you from your obligation to be responsible for payment and performance of the obligations of the Borrower as so amended under this Mortgage or any Loan Documents.

43. CHANGE IN FAMILY STATUS

You will advise us of any change in your family status, including marriage, divorce, the registration of a common-law relationship, the registration of a dissolution of a common-law relationship, the establishment by co-habitation of a common-law relationship and ceasing to cohabit with a common-law partner and if any such change occurs, we are entitled to require you and such other person or persons as we deem necessary to confirm or reconfirm in writing responsibility for payment and performance of the obligations of the Borrower under this Mortgage and any Loan Documents. If an order regarding a right of occupancy is made under The Family Maintenance Act, you will promptly advise us.

44. CANADA MORTGAGE AND HOUSING CORPORATION (CMHC)

If CMHC is the mortgage default insurer of the Mortgage, this Mortgage is made under the National Housing Act.

THE MORTGAGE ACT PROVIDES THAT YOU CAN OBTAIN FROM US, FREE OF CHARGE, A STATEMENT OF THE AMOUNTS SECURED BY THE MORTGAGE ONCE EVERY TWELVE MONTHS, OR AS NEEDED FOR SALE OR DISCHARGE.

From time to time throughout the Term, no later than ninety (90) days prior to the next fiscal period, the Landlord shall give notice to the Tenant of the Landlord's estimate of such Additional Rent to be paid by the Tenant during the next ensuing fiscal period. - (b) rent shall immediately become due and be paid up to the time of such re-entry or termination together with the reasonable expenses of the Landlord as hereinafter defined; and
- (c) the Landlord may re-let the demised premises or any part thereof either in the name of the Landlord or otherwise, as agent of the Tenant and the Tenant does hereby expressly constitute and appoint the Landlord as its agent for such purpose, for a term or terms which may, if the Landlord chooses, be less or greater than the balance of the term of this Lease and the Landlord may grant all reasonable concessions in connection therewith; and
- (d) the Landlord may, at its option and in addition to any other remedy (save and except as set forth in sub-paragraph (g) below) it may have, require that the Tenant pay to the Landlord as liquidated damages for the failure of the Tenant to observe and perform the covenants of this Lease, monthly on the first day of each month following such re-entry or termination and until the expiration of the period that would otherwise have constituted the balance of the term of this Lease, any deficiency between:
  - (i) the sum of the monthly rent payable hereunder; and
  - (ii) the net amount of any rents collected on account of the Lease of the demised premises for each month of the period which would otherwise have constituted the balance of the term; and
- (e) the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord on demand such reasonable expenses as the Landlord may incur in re-letting the demised premises, including legal costs, solicitors' fees (on a solicitor and his own client basis) and brokerage, alterations and decoration and the expense of keeping the demised premises for re-letting; and

- (f) the making of any alterations or decoration in the demised premises which the Landlord considers advisable and necessary for the purpose of re-letting them, shall not operate or be construed to release the Tenant from liability hereunder; and
- (g) the Landlord may, at its option and in addition to any other remedy (save and except as set forth in sub-paragraph (d) above) it may have, require that the Tenant pay forthwith to the Landlord as liquidated damages for the default of the Tenant in the observance and performance of the covenants under this Lease, all rent (including without limitation all base minimum yearly rentals and all additional payments, as such rent payments are solely and exclusively estimated by the Landlord) reserved to be paid and remaining unpaid by the Tenant under this Lease from the date of default by the Tenant to and including the expiration of the term of this Lease and in addition, without limitation, the Landlord may distrain for all such accelerated rent. The total sum of all monies payable by the Tenant pursuant to the provisions of sub-paragraph (g) of this Clause shall be divided by the number of months remaining in the unexpired portion of the term of this Lease immediately prior to the date of such default by the Tenant, and to the extent any monthly income actually received by the Landlord with respect to any re-rental of the demised premises exceeds the quotient as obtained, such excess shall be the sole property of the Landlord as liquidated damages for such default by the Tenant.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, acceptance of the surrender of this Lease shall not be effective unless made in writing and signed by the Landlord. No act of the Landlord shall operate as an acceptance of surrender or shall operate as an extinguishment of the remedies of the Landlord as herein provided or otherwise, by operation of the law or otherwise.

46. ALTERATIONS BY THE LANDLORD

The Landlord shall be at liberty at any time during the term hereby granted to make such changes, alterations, additions or improvements in or to the building and the fixtures and equipment thereof, as well as in or to the street entrances, halls, passages and stairways thereof as may be necessary or desirable, provided however that there will be no unreasonable obstruction of the right of access to the demised premises or unreasonable interference with the use of the demised premises.

47. TENANT'S FIXTURES

All fixtures, improvements and appurtenances attached to or built into the demised premises at the commencement or during the term, whether by the Landlord at its own expense or at the expense of the Tenant or by the Tenant, (the "Fixtures") shall be and remain part of the demised premises and shall not be removed by the Tenant at the end of the term unless otherwise expressly provided in this Lease. The Tenant may install its usual business and trade fixtures in the usual manner in the demised premises, provided such installation does not damage the demised premises or the building, are identified as such by the Tenant prior to such installation and that the Tenant shall have submitted to the Landlord plans and specifications for such business and trade fixtures and obtained the prior written consent of the Landlord thereto, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. All such prior identified business and trade fixtures owned or installed by the Tenant in or on the demised premises shall remain the property of the Tenant and shall be removed by the Tenant at the expiration of the term or any renewal thereof or at the sooner termination thereof, provided that the Tenant at its expense shall repair any damage to the demised premises, the building and the lands caused by such removal. Such removal by the Tenant of its business and trade fixtures as aforesaid shall only be permitted provided that the Tenant is not in default under any covenant or agreement contained herein at the time of such removal, and if in default, the Landlord shall have a lien on the Tenant's business and trade fixtures as security against loss or damage resulting from any such default by the Tenant and the Tenant's business and trade fixtures shall not be removed by the Tenant until such default is cured, unless otherwise directed by the Landlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Landlord may elect to require the Tenant to remove all or any part of any Fixtures and the business and trade fixtures owned or installed by or on behalf of the Tenant at the expiration or termination of the term or any renewal thereof, in which event such removal shall be done at the Tenant's expense and the Tenant shall, at its expense, repair any damage to the demised premises, the building and the lands caused by such removal. If the Tenant does not remove the Fixtures and/or its business and trade fixtures forthwith after written demand by the Landlord, such property shall, if the Landlord elects, be deemed to become (as to part or the whole thereof) the Landlord's property or the Landlord may remove the same (as to part or the whole thereof) at the expense of the Tenant and the cost of such removal shall be paid by the Tenant forthwith to the Landlord on written demand, and the Landlord shall not be responsible for any loss or damage to such property as a result of such removal.

48. LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY OF LANDLORD

- (a) Neither the Landlord nor its agents shall be liable for any loss, injury or damage caused to vehicles or their contents, or for the loss of any property by theft or otherwise, and all property kept or stored in the demised premises, the building, the lands and the common areas or any part or parts thereof, shall be at all times at the risk of the Tenant and not the Landlord.
- (b) The Landlord and its agents shall not be liable for any loss, injury or damage to persons or property resulting from falling plaster, steam, electricity, water, rain, snow or dampness, or from any other cause whatsoever. The Landlord and its agents shall not be liable for any loss or damage caused by acts or omissions of other tenants or occupants, their employees or agents, or of any persons not the employees or agents of the Landlord, or for damage caused by the construction of any public or quasi-public works, and in no event shall the Landlord be liable for any consequential or indirect damages suffered by the Tenant or any other person.
- (c) The Tenant hereby protects, indemnifies and covenants to save the Landlord absolutely harmless from and against all liability, claims, damages or expenses due to or arising out of any act or neglect by the Tenant or its servants, employees, agents, customers, invitees or licensees on and about the demised premises, the building, the lands and the common areas or due to or arising out of any breach by the Tenant of any provision of this Lease, including liability for injury or damages to the persons or property of the Tenant's servants, employees, agents, customers, invitees or licensees.

If during the term hereby demised or any renewal thereof the demised premises or the building or any part or parts thereof shall be damaged by fire, steam, explosion, lightning, tempest, or acts of God or the Queen's enemies or other such casualty, then the following provisions shall have effect:

- (a) In the event that the building shall be so badly injured as to be unfit for occupancy and be incapable of being repaired with reasonable diligence within two hundred seventy (270) days of the happening of such injury, then the term hereby granted shall cease and be at an end for all intent and purposes from the date of such damage or destruction and the Tenant shall immediately surrender the same and yield up possession of the demised premises to the Landlord, and no rent shall be payable from the time of such surrender;
- (b) In the event that the demised premises shall be capable, with reasonable diligence, of being repaired and rendered fit for occupancy within two hundred seventy (270) days from the happening of such injury as aforesaid and should the damage be such as to render the demised premises wholly unfit for occupancy during the process of such repairs, then the rent hereby reserved shall not run or accrue after such injury, or while such repairs are in progress and the Landlord shall repair the same with all reasonable diligence and the rental shall re-commence immediately after such repairs shall be completed;
- (c) In the event that the demised premises can be repaired within two hundred seventy (270) days as aforesaid, and if the damage is such that the demised premises are capable of being partially used, then until such damage shall have been repaired the rent shall abate in the proportion that the part of the demised premises rendered unfit for occupancy bears to the whole of the demised premises, and the amount of the abatement shall, in the event the Landlord and the Tenant are unable to agree upon the same, be determined by arbitration in accordance with the said Arbitration Act;
- (d) If the building shall, in the sole and exclusive opinion of the Landlord, be damaged to the extent that greater than Fifty (50%) per cent of the building requires repair or reconstruction (and whether or not there shall be any damage to the demised premises) then, at the Landlord's option exercisable upon written notice to the Tenant, the said term hereby granted shall cease and be at an end for all intents and purposes from the date of such damage or destruction, and the Tenant shall surrender and yield up possession of the demised premises to the Landlord in accordance with the said notice and the rent shall be adjusted to the time of such surrender;

- (e) If during the said term the building or the demised premises are destroyed or damaged by fire, steam, explosion, lightning, tempest, or acts of God or the Queen's enemies, or other such casualty so as to render the same wholly unfit for occupancy and this Lease shall be determined in accordance with the preceding paragraphs, the Tenant shall, at the option of the Landlord exercisable upon written notice to the Tenant, forthwith remove from the demised premises all goods, merchandise, fixtures, machinery, fittings and other chattels or the ruins or remains thereof, or any part or parts thereof, or pay the Landlord the cost of such removal; and in the event of the demised premises being only partially damaged or destroyed and it being possible to repair the same within the period aforesaid, the Tenant shall remove its goods, merchandise, fixtures, machinery, fittings and other chattels or the ruins or remains thereof, or any part or parts thereof, as far as is necessary to enable the Landlord to proceed expeditiously with the carrying out of the repairs.

Provided however, if any such damage is due to the negligence or overt acts of the Tenant or its agents or servants then notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained the cost to repair such damage, whether such damage is repaired or not, shall be paid by the Tenant and there shall be no abatement of rent.

50. LANDLORD'S RIGHT TO PAY TENANT'S OBLIGATIONS

If the Tenant fails to pay any charges which it has herein covenanted to pay, the Landlord may pay them and charge the sums paid, together with an administration fee of twenty-five (25%) per cent thereof, to the Tenant who shall pay them forthwith on demand; and the Landlord, in addition to any other rights shall have the same remedies and may take the same steps for the recovery of all such sums as if they were rent in arrears. All arrears of rent, sums paid or expenses incurred by the Landlord, which ought to have been paid or incurred by the Tenant or for which the Landlord is entitled hereunder to reimbursement from the Tenant, together with a fee of twenty-five (25%) per cent thereof, shall all bear interest monthly at the rate of twenty-four (24%) percent per annum from the date the same became due or was spent or incurred, as the case may be, until the date of payment or repayment.

51. PROFESSIONAL FEES

If the Landlord at any time is compelled or elects to incur any expense whatsoever, including any professional fees of any nature whatsoever related to any matter or thing whatsoever respecting this Lease or any renewals hereof, including without limitation, in obtaining the approval of the Landlord's architects or engineers respecting improvements or alterations to the demised premises by the Tenant, in appealing any tax assessment levied by municipalities or other governmental bodies, or in instituting, prosecuting or defending any action or proceeding based upon any default of the Tenant under this Lease (including any action or proceedings against the Tenant), including without limitation, any legal fees on a solicitor and his own client basis paid, or payable, by the Landlord, then such expenses together with all interest and damages shall be payable by the Tenant on demand as additional rent.

52. OVERHOLDING TENANT

In the event of the Tenant holding over beyond the term hereby granted, with or without the consent of the Landlord and without any further written agreement, the tenancy resulting shall be a monthly tenancy only at a monthly rental calculated at one and one half (1 & 1/2) times the greatest base minimum yearly rental payable by the Tenant during the currency of this Lease, including any renewals hereof; and the Tenant shall pay all additional rental payable hereunder on a monthly basis as estimated by the Landlord, including without limitation, the Tenant's proportionate share of all other sums which by the terms hereof are deemed to be rent or arise to be payable by the Tenant, and subject to termination at the election of the Landlord or the Tenant upon one (1) month's notice in writing, and subject also to the terms, conditions and covenants herein set out so far as the same are applicable to a tenancy from month to month, it being understood that the acceptance of rent or any implied condition in no way renews this Lease as a yearly tenancy.

53. IMPOSSIBILITY OF PERFORMANCE

Whenever and to the extent that the Landlord shall be unable to fulfil any obligation hereunder for the supply or provision of any service or utility or the doing of any work or the making of any repairs because it is unable to obtain the material, goods, equipment, service, utility or labour required to enable it to fulfil such obligation or by reason of any statute, law or order-in-council or any regulation or order passed or made pursuant thereto or by reason of the order or direction of any administrator, controller or board, or any government department or officer or other authority, or by reason of not being able to obtain any permission or authority required thereby, or by reason of any other cause beyond its control, whereby of the foregoing character or not, the Landlord shall be relieved from the fulfillment of such obligation, or alternatively to exclusively extend any time periods for the fulfillment of such obligation, and the Tenant shall not be entitled to compensation for any inconvenience, nuisance or discomfort thereby caused.

54. LANDLORD

The term "Landlord" as used herein shall be deemed to mean only the owner for the time being of the lands and building so that in the event of any sale or sales, the Landlord shall be and is hereby relieved of all covenants and obligations of the Landlord hereunder and it shall be deemed and construed without further agreement between the parties, or their successors in interest, or between the parties and the purchaser at any such sale, that the purchaser has assumed and agreed to carry out any and all of the covenants and obligations of the Landlord hereunder to the Landlord's exoneration.

55. NOTICES

Any notice, statement or request herein requested or permitted to be given by either party to the other shall be in writing, and shall be deemed to have been sufficiently and effectually given if signed by or on behalf of the party giving the notice and may be mailed by registered prepaid post, or delivered, in the case of the Landlord to it or its agent at the address at which rental payments due hereunder are then being made, and in the case of the Tenant, to it addressed to the demised premises with a copy to or as either party in writing may direct. Any such notice given as aforesaid shall be conclusively deemed to have been given and received, if delivered, on the date of such delivery, or if mailed, forty-eight (48) hours after such mailing. In the event of existing or impending postal interruption affecting either of the parties hereto, any such notice, statement or request shall be delivered to the addresses as hereinbefore set forth rather than mailed as aforesaid.

56. NO REGISTRATION

The Tenant shall have the right only to file a Notice of this Lease or Caveat respecting this Lease in the appropriate Land Titles Office in which the lands are situate and under no circumstances whatsoever shall file or register this Lease at the said Land Titles Office or elsewhere, this Lease being a confidential document between the Landlord and the Tenant. Accordingly, the Tenant shall make no use whatsoever of this Lease or any provision hereof or information delivered to the Tenant, save and except only in connection with the tenancy created hereunder.

57. TIME OF ESSENCE

Time shall be of the essence of this Lease save as herein otherwise expressly specified.

58. CAPTIONS

The captions appearing in this Lease have been inserted as a matter of convenience and for reference only, and in no way define, limit or enlarge the scope or meaning of this Lease, nor of any provision hereof.

59. TERMS, COVENANTS AND CONDITIONS INVALID

If any term, covenant or condition of this Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease or application of such term, covenant or condition to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby, and each term, covenant or condition of this Lease not invalid or unenforceable shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

60. GOVERNMENTAL REGULATIONS

The Tenant shall abide by all laws, by-laws, legislative and regulatory requirements of any governmental or other competent authority relating to the business conducted on the demised premises and shall indemnify, protect and save the Landlord harmless from all costs or charges incidental thereto, or damages or penalties by reason of breach thereof.

61. FIRE REGULATIONS

The Tenant shall not store or bring on the demised premises any articles of an inflammable, combustible or dangerous nature and shall at all times keep the demised premises in such condition as to comply with the regulations and requirements of any appropriate fire underwriter's association and of the fire department of local and competent jurisdiction. The Tenant shall keep and maintain on the demised premises all safety applications required by any authority for the use of the demised premises. The Tenant shall not do or permit to be done or omit or permit to be omitted upon the demised premises anything which shall cause any insurance policy insuring the lands or any part thereof or the Landlord or the Tenants of the lands to be cancelled or effected in any manner whatsoever.

62. CUMULATIVE REMEDIES

All rights and remedies of the Landlord enumerated in this Lease are cumulative and, save and except as expressly set forth herein, none will exclude any other right or remedy allowed by law.

63. FORBEARANCE

No condonation or waiver by the Landlord of any non-observance or non-performance by the Tenant of any of the provisions hereunder will operate as a waiver or estoppel by or against the Landlord in respect of any subsequent non-observance or non-performance by the Tenant of the same or any other provision hereunder.

64. ACCORD AND SATISFACTION

No payment by the Tenant or receipt by the Landlord of a lesser amount than the payment of Base Minimum Yearly Rent pursuant to Clause 3A or Additional Rent pursuant to Clause 3B or other payments herein stipulated shall be deemed to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated sum due, unless the Landlord elects in its sole and absolute discretion to acknowledge in writing that any cheque or payment be deemed on accord and satisfaction, provided further that the Landlord may accept any such cheque or payment without prejudice to the Landlord's right to recover the balance due or pursue any other remedy in this Lease.

65. OPTION TO RENEW

In the event that the Tenant pays, observes and performs, at all times during the currency of this Lease, all, each and every one of the terms, conditions and provisos of this Lease which are the responsibility of the Tenant, then the Landlord shall grant to the Tenant a renewal of this Lease of the demised premises for a further term of Five (5) years (the "Renewal Term") upon receipt of the Tenant's written request therefore (to be received by the Landlord no later than One Hundred Eighty (180) days prior to the expiration date of the term of this Lease, failing which the Tenant shall have no right whatsoever to renew this Lease) at a Base Minimum yearly rental for the demised premises being the greater of fair market rental value (as improved) and that greatest Base minimum yearly rental payable by the Tenant during the said initial term. Such renewal of this Lease shall be upon all the same terms, conditions and provisos of this Lease, save and except this clause shall be deleted in its entirety and the Base minimum yearly rental and security deposits under the renewed Lease shall be amended in accordance with the amended rental for the demised premises. The determination of fair market rental value of the demised premises shall be made as of the 1st day of June, 2026 and shall be based on the assumption that the demised premises may be used:

- (a) for the purposes for which they are being used; or
- (b) for the purposes for which they are required to be used pursuant to the terms of this Lease, or
- (c) for the purposes for which they may on the said date be lawfully used;

whichever purpose shall be the greatest, highest and most valuable purpose then available and without regard to the existence of the Lease.

In the event that the Landlord and the Tenant are unable to agree as to the aforesaid fair market rental value, then the determination of same shall be referred to a Board of three (3) arbitrators, each of whom shall be an expert in the field of real estate leasing in the City of Calgary, in the Province of Alberta. The Landlord and the Tenant shall each appoint within seven (7) days of the date that the Landlord and the Tenant are unable to agree upon the fair market rental value of the demised premises, a person who is an expert as aforesaid, who shall together appoint a third arbitrator in writing. If either of the Landlord or the Tenant shall refuse or neglect to appoint such a person and such party so refusing or neglecting to appoint an arbitrator shall have been served a written notice requiring the making of such an appointment, then at the expiration of seven (7) days following the date of service of such notice, the person appointed by the other shall, at the request of the party appointing him, proceed to hear and determine the matters in difference or in dispute, as if he were a single arbitrator appointed by both the Landlord and the Tenant duly authorized for the purpose. If both the Landlord and the Tenant appoint their respective arbitrators in the time prescribed and they do not agree within a period of five (5) days upon the appointment of the third arbitrator, then upon the application to the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta by either the Landlord or the Tenant pursuant to the Arbitration Act, Chapter A-43 of the RSA, 2000, as amended, the time for service thereof being hereby abridged to three (3) clear days, the third arbitrator shall be appointed by a Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta. The award or determination made by the said arbitrators or the majority of them, or by the single arbitrator, as the case may be, shall be final and binding upon the Landlord and Tenant, their successors and assigns. The provisions of this paragraph shall be deemed to be a submission to arbitration within the provisions of the said Arbitration Act, and any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof; provided that any limitation on the remuneration of arbitrators imposed by such legislation shall not be applicable.

Notwithstanding the foregoing determination, in no event shall the fair market rent for the demised premises for the Renewal Term be less than the Base minimum yearly amount of Fifty one thousand two hundred DOLLARS ($51,200.00) which shall be received by the Landlord (in accordance with Clause 5 of this Lease) absolutely “net ” of all expenses, costs, payments, charges and outgoings respecting the demised premises, the improvements and the operating of the lands and the building of which the demised premises form a part, including without limitation those costs and charges set forth in Clause 22 hereof.

This Lease contains the entire agreement between the Landlord and the Tenant and it is admitted so that they shall forever be estopped from asserting that there is any condition precedent or warranty of any nature whatsoever or collateral warranty or covenant whatsoever to the within Lease.

The Tenant hereby grants to the Landlord a security interest (the “Security Interest”) in all inventory, fixtures, equipment, furniture and chattels of the Tenant situate on or about the demised premises from time to time (the “Collateral”) to secure the payment of all rent payable pursuant to this Lease and the fulfillment of the other obligations of the Tenant under this Lease. The Tenant confirms and agrees that the Security Interest is complete and valid without the necessity of any other or further documentation in respect thereof and is intended to constitute a security agreement as defined in the Personal Property Security Act (Alberta)(the “Act”). This security agreement is separate from and shall survive the termination, expiry, repudiation, disaffirmance or disclaimer of this Lease. Upon default by the Tenant of its obligations pursuant to this Lease, the Landlord shall be entitled at its sole option (and without any obligation so to do), to exercise any remedies available to it as a secured party under the Act in respect of the Collateral. The Security Interest is given in addition to, and not as an alternative to, and the rights and remedies afforded to the Landlord thereunder may be exercised by the Landlord without prejudice to any of the Landlord's other rights and remedies under this Lease and at law including, without limitation, the Landlord's right of distress. The Tenant covenants and agrees that all Collateral located on the demised premises from time to time shall be owned by the Tenant and except in the ordinary course of the Tenant's business, the Tenant shall not at any time without the prior written consent of the Landlord, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, dispose of all or any part of the Collateral. A security interest may only be registered if the Tenant is in default.

Wherever the singular and gender neuter is used throughout this Lease, the same shall be construed as meaning the plural or masculine or feminine or a body corporate where the context or the parties hereto so require, and where there are two (2) or more parties forming the Tenant the covenants by the Tenant herein contained shall be at all times joint and several covenants of the parties forming the Tenant.

This Lease shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Landlord, its heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, and upon the Tenant, its heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns.

67. ACCEPTANCE

The Tenant hereby accepts this Lease of the demised premises to be held by it as the Tenant, and subject to the conditions, restrictions and covenants above set forth.

Whether or not the Tenant fails to repair, maintain, heat, air-condition, keep or clean the Premises in accordance with the provisions hereof, the Landlord or any person authorized by the Landlord shall have the right to install, maintain and/or repair pipes, wires, ducts or other installations in, under or through the Premises for, or in connection with the supply of any service to the Premises or the Building or any part thereof. Such service shall include (without limiting the generality of the foregoing) gas, electricity, water, sanitation, heat, ventilation and air conditioning. PROVIDED, however, that where there has been no failure by the Tenant to repair, maintain, heat, air-condition, keep or clean the Premises in accordance with the provisions hereof, and insofar as it shall be reasonable so to do, such work shall be carried on at such times and in such manner so as not to unreasonably interfere with the conduct of the Tenant's business on the Premises.

Nothing in this Clause shall be construed as to require the Landlord to do any act which by this Lease the Landlord is not required to do.

9.03 Rent or Sale Notice

The Landlord shall be entitled to enter and place in the Premises at any time during the term hereof notices that the premises or any part thereof, or of any building of which the Premises form a part, are for sale, and during the last three (3) months of the term hereof notices that the Premises or any part thereof are for rent and the Tenant agrees not to remove any such notices or permit the same to be removed, and the Tenant will at reasonable hours and from time to time permit the Landlord to exhibit the Premises to any prospective purchaser or tenant.

Section 10

10.01 Assignment and Subletting

The Tenant agrees that it will not assign, sublet, part with or share possession of or occupation of the Premises or any part thereof without the prior written consent of the Landlord, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and provided that neither an assignment of the Lease nor the Landlord's consent thereto will relieve the Tenant from the covenants and agreements in this Lease, and further provided that the Tenant will:

- (a) obtain the covenant of any assignees or sublessors to assume and perform all of the Tenant's covenants and obligations under this Lease;
- (b) pay to the Landlord any reasonable fees incurred by it, together with any solicitors' fees charged to the Landlord for such assignment or subletting;
- (c) remain fully liable for the performance of all covenants hereunder including, but not limited to, the payment of rent; and
- (d) for the purpose of this Section, a transfer of a majority of the stock of the Tenant or a transfer, issuance or dividing of stock of the Tenant sufficient to transfer control of the Tenant to persons or entities other than the present shareholders shall be deemed to be an assignment or subletting within the meaning of this Section and subject to the provisions, terms and conditions set forth herein; and notwithstanding the foregoing, any request for the Landlord's consent to an assignment or subletting will be accompanied by such information as to the proposed assignee or sublessor and their business and financial responsibility, as the Landlord may reasonably require, together with the terms and conditions of the proposed assignment or subletting. The Landlord will have thirty (30) days following receipt of the Tenant's notice of intent to assign or sublet in which to consent to such assignment or subletting, and the Tenant will have thirty (30) days after receipt of the Landlord's consent in which to finalize in writing the assignment or subletting in accordance with the Landlord's written conditions of assignment or subletting. In the event that the Tenant does not finalize in writing the assignment or subletting within such 30 day period, the Landlord's consent to such assignment or subletting will be null and void.

Section 11 Landlord's Covenants

11.01 Quiet Enjoyment

Provided the Tenant pays all Rent reserved under this Lease and performs all the covenants, the Tenant will have quiet enjoyment of the Premises.

11.02 Maintenance

Subject to Section 5 and Section 6, the Landlord will:

- (a) keep the exterior of the Premises and the Building in good order and condition;
- (b) repair when necessary (in the opinion of the Landlord's contractors) the following items:
  - (i) roof

and the costs of such maintenance, and repair may be amortized pursuant to section 5 unless such maintenance, repair or replacement are necessitated by the act or omissions of the Tenant, its agents, employees, invitees or licensees, in which case the costs will be borne solely by the Tenant.

11.03 Parking

The Landlord will permit the Tenant, its employees, customers and invitees to use parking areas, sidewalks, driveways and landscaped areas.

11.04 Insurance

The Landlord will purchase and maintain:

- (a) insurance against fire and other risks as are included in a standard fire and extended coverage insurance contract and insurance for such other perils as the Landlord, as a prudent owner, deems necessary;
- (b) as an endorsement to the policy of insurance referred to in Section 11.04(a), insurance against loss of rents in an amount equivalent to the Rent and Operating Costs payable under this Lease and other leases to tenants in the Building for the period of 120 days, or such longer period as the Landlord may prudently require from time to time.

Notwithstanding the Landlord's covenant in this section and notwithstanding any contribution by the Tenant to the cost of insurance premiums, the Tenant agrees that it is not relieved of any liability arising from or contributed to by its acts, fault, negligence or omissions, and no insurable interest is conferred on the Tenant under any policies of insurance carried by the Landlord and the Tenant has no right to receive any proceeds of any such insurance policies carried by the Landlord.

Section 12 Provisos

12.01 Total Destruction of Premises

LANDLORD	TENANT

In the event of the total destruction caused by fire, the elements or other cause or casualty as shown by a Certificate of the Landlord's Architect or Engineer, which Certificate will be binding and conclusive upon the Landlord and the Tenant and which Certificate states that the Premises cannot reasonably be repaired within one hundred and twenty (120) days from the date of destruction to a state where the Tenant could use substantially all of the Premises and thereby renders the Premises unfit for use by the Tenant for the Tenant's business ("Total Destruction"), then this Lease will terminate effective the date of Total Destruction and the Tenant will immediately surrender the Premises and all its interest therein to the Landlord, and the Tenant will pay Rent and be liable for such sums accrued to the date of Total Destruction, whereupon the Landlord may re-enter and repossess the Premises discharged of this Lease.

12.02 Partial Destruction of Premises

In the event of partial destruction of the Premises by fire, the elements or other cause or casualty, the Certificate of the Landlord's Architect or Engineer as to whether the whole or a part of the Premises is rendered unusable and the area or extent rendered usable will be binding and conclusive upon the Landlord and Tenant ("Partial Destruction"). If, in the opinion of the Landlord's Architect or Engineer, the Partial Destruction is such that:

- (a) the Premises cannot be used for the Tenant's business until repaired, then Rent will abate from the date of such Partial Destruction until the repairs have been effected;
- (b) the Premises may be partially used for the Tenant's business concurrent to repairs being made, then the Rent will abate in the proportion that the unusable area of the Premises bears to the total area of the Premises;
- (c) the part rendered unusable exceeds one-half (1/2) of the total area of the Premises, then there will be a total abatement of Rent until the repairs have been made; and
- (d) with the Landlord's permission, the Tenant uses the undamaged part, then the Tenant will pay Rent in the proportion that the usable area of the Premises bears to the total area of the Premises.

Notwithstanding the above, if the Partial Destruction is repaired within fourteen (14) days of the date of destruction, there will be no abatement of Rent.

12.03 Covenant to Repair Partially Destroyed Premises

In the event of Partial Destruction, the Landlord will repair and restore the Premises to substantially the same condition as the Premises were in immediately before the Partial Destruction occurred, save as to normal wear and tear, and the Landlord will pay for the cost of such repair and restoration, subject to Section 12.05

12.04 Landlord Indemnified for Destruction

If Total Destruction or Partial Destruction of the Premises or the Building occurs, the Tenant will not have any claim upon the Landlord for any damages sustained by it, except if the Total or Partial Destruction is caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of the Landlord.

12.05 Destroyed Premises Not Insured

The Landlord will not have any obligation to repair Total or Partial Destruction in any of the above cases which are not covered by standard fire and extended perils insurance and, in each such case, this Lease may, at the option of the Landlord be terminated upon the Landlord giving thirty (30) days notice to the Tenant not later than sixty (60) days from the date of any such destruction.

12.06 Liability for Damage to Persons or Property

Except where death, injury, loss or damage results from the negligence or willful misconduct of the Landlord, its agents, servants or employees, the Landlord will not be responsible in any way for any injury to any person or for any loss or damage to any property belonging to the Tenant or its employees, invitees or licensees while such person or property is in or about the Premises, the Building or any driveways, parking areas, platforms, corridors or common areas including, but not limited to, any loss or damage to any property caused by theft or breakage, electric or other wiring or by steam, water, rain or snow which may leak into, issue or flow from any part of the Building or any adjacent or neighboring lands or from any other place or quarter or for any other loss or damage caused by or attributable to the condition or arrangement, or for any other loss whatsoever of the Tenant with respect to the Premises and the business of the Tenant carried on, and the Tenant will indemnify the Landlord against all loss, costs, claims or demands in respect of any injuries, loss or damage referred to in this Section.

12.07 Fixtures

All alterations, decorations, additions and improvements made by the Tenant or made by the Landlord on the Tenant's behalf (other than the Tenant's trade fixtures) will immediately become the property of the Landlord, without compensation to the Tenant, and the Landlord is under no obligation to repair, maintain or insure such alterations, decorations, additions or improvements. Such alterations, decorations, additions or improvements will not be removed from the Premises either during or at the expiration or termination of the Term, except that:

INITIAL

(a) the Tenant may, during the usual or normal course of its business and with the prior written consent of the Landlord, (not to be unreasonably withheld) remove its trade fixtures, provided such trade fixtures have become excessive for the Tenant's purpose or the Tenant is substituting new and similar trade fixtures, and provided that in each case the Tenant is not in default under this Lease and further provided that such removal is at the Tenant's sole cost and expense, notwithstanding that the Tenant will, at the expiration of the Term and at its own cost, remove all its trade fixtures and its leasehold improvements and fixtures installed in the Premises if the Landlord requires the Tenant's trade fixtures and the Tenant's improvements to be removed;

(b) the Tenant will, in the case of every such installation or removal either during or upon expiration of the Term, effect such installation or removal at such time or times designated by the Landlord and the Tenant will promptly make good any damage caused to the Premises or the Building by the installation or removal of any such trade fixtures, and if the Tenant does not remove its trade fixtures at the expiration or termination of the Term, the trade fixtures will, at the option of the Landlord, become the sole property of the Landlord to be disposed in any manner it deems appropriate, and any costs incurred in such disposal will be recoverable from the Tenant as Additional Charges; and

(c) at the sole option of the Landlord, the Landlord may permit the Tenant to remove some alterations, decorations, additions or improvements at the end of the Term.

All electrical wiring, disconnect switches, breaker panels, fuses and other electrical equipment, lighting fixtures, all wiring for Tenant's equipment and machinery, installed by the Tenant shall remain part of the premises and shall not be removed without the Landlord's express permission.

If the whole or any part of the Premises or the Building shall be taken by any public authority under the power of eminent domain or expropriation, the term hereby granted shall cease from the day possession shall be taken for such public purposes, insofar as the premises so taken, comprises part of the Premises and the Tenant shall be liable only for Rent in respect of the Premises or part thereof so taken up to the day of the taking, and if less than the whole be so taken, the Landlord may of its option cancel and terminate this Lease with respect to the remainder of the Premises, but notice of such cancellation must be given to the Tenant within thirty (30) days after notice of such taking has been received by the Landlord, but if the Landlord shall not elect to cancel this Lease, the Tenant shall remain in possession of the remainder of the Premises and the rent thereof shall be reduced in proportion that the ground floor area of the space taken in the Premises bears to the whole rentable space of the Premises. All compensation or damages awarded in respect of such taking of the Premises and any diminution in value of the remainder thereof shall be the property of the Landlord, but the Tenant shall be entitled to receive such compensation or damages as it may be able to establish against such public authority in respect of loss of its business, depreciation of and cost of removal of stock and fixtures.

Section 13
Default and Termination

13.01 Default

The tenancy granted by this Lease is expressly subject to the condition that if:

(a) the Tenant fails to pay any monthly installment of Rent or Operating Costs or other sums due on the day or dates appointed for payment; or

(b) the Tenant fails to observe or perform any other of the terms, covenants or conditions of this Lease to be observed or performed by the Tenant provided the Landlord first gives the Tenant five (5) days (or such shorter period of time as is otherwise provided) written notice of any such failure to perform and the Tenant, within a period of five (5) days thereafter fails to remedy any such failure to perform or commence diligently and thereafter to proceed diligently to remedy any such failure to perform; or

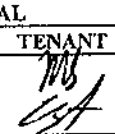

(c) the Tenant becomes bankrupt or insolvent or takes the benefit of any Act now or hereafter in force for bankrupt or insolvent debtors or files any proposal or makes any assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or

(d) a receiver or a receiver and manager is appointed for all or a portion of the Tenant's property; or

(e) any steps, action or proceedings are instituted by the Tenant or by any other party including, but not limited to, any court or body of government of competent jurisdiction for the dissolution, winding-up or liquidation of the Tenant or its assets, voluntary or otherwise; or

(f) the Tenant makes a sale in bulk of its goods (other than a bulk sale made to any assignee or sublessee pursuant to a permitted assignment hereunder; or

(g) the Tenant abandons or attempts to abandon the Premises or sells or disposes of the trade fixtures, goods or chattels of the Tenant or removes them or attempts to remove them from the Premises without the consent in writing of the

LANDLORD	TENANT

Landlord, save and except in the ordinary course of the Tenant's business or in the course of replacement or renovations; or

(h) the Premises become and remain vacant for a period of five (5) consecutive days or are used by any persons other than such as are entitled to use them; or

(i) the Tenant assigns, transfers, encumbers, sublets or permits the occupation or use, or the parting with or sharing possession of, all or any part of the Premises by anyone except in a manner permitted by this Lease; or

(j) any substantial portion of the goods or chattels on the Premises are at any time repossessed, seized, or taken in execution or attachment by any creditor(s) of the Tenant, whether under bill of sale, chattel mortgage, debenture, conditional sales contract, court order, lien note, lease of personal property, or consignment contract; or

(k) a Writ of Execution or Replevin Order is issued against the goods or chattels of the Tenant; or

(l) any insurance policy insuring the Building or the Landlord or tenants of the Building is canceled or is refused to be renewed by reason of the use and occupation of the Premises or any part thereof;

then the Term granted may, at the Landlord's option, become forfeit and void and the Landlord may, in addition to any other rights or remedies it has pursuant to this Lease or by law, without notice or any form of legal process whatsoever, forthwith re-enter the Premises or any part thereof in the name of the whole and repossess and enjoy the same as of its former estate, notwithstanding anything contained in any statute or law to the contrary, and such forfeiture shall be wholly without prejudice to the right of the Landlord to recover arrears of Rent or damages for any antecedent breach of its covenants, obligations or agreements under this Lease. Notwithstanding any such forfeiture the Landlord may subsequently recover from the Tenant compensation and/or damages for loss of Rent and Operating Costs suffered by reason of this Lease having been rendered forfeit and void as aforesaid, together with all legal costs and legal fees charged by the Landlord's solicitor on a solicitor/client basis and provided that no such re-entry or taking possession of the Premises by the Landlord shall be construed as an election on the part of the Landlord to terminate this Lease, unless at the time of or subsequent to such re-entry or taking of possession, written notice of such intention has been given to the Tenant or such termination is decreed by a Court of competent jurisdiction.

13.02 Landlord's Rights Upon Re-Entry

The Tenant agrees that in the event the Landlord is entitled to re-enter and re-take possession of the Premises, it may use such force as it may deem necessary for that purpose without being liable in respect of any loss or damage and the Tenant releases the Landlord from all actions, proceedings, claims and demands whatsoever for or in respect of any such forcible entry, or any loss or damage that may be sustained by the Tenant.

13.03 Re-Entry And Damages

If and whenever the Landlord is entitled to re-enter the Premises or does re-enter the Premises, the Landlord may either terminate this Lease by giving written notice of termination to the Tenant or by posting notice of termination in the Premises, and in such event the Tenant will immediately vacate and surrender the Premises or alternatively, the Landlord may from time to time without terminating the Tenant's obligations under this Lease, make alterations and repairs considered by the Landlord necessary to facilitate a sub-letting and sub-let the Premises or any part thereof as agent of the Tenant, for such term(s) and at such rental(s) and upon such other terms and conditions as the Landlord in its reasonable discretion considers advisable. Upon each sub-letting all rent and other monies received by the Landlord from the sub-letting will be applied first to the payment of indebtedness other than Rent due hereunder from the Tenant to the Landlord, second to the payment of costs and expenses of the sub-letting including brokerage fees and solicitors' fees and costs of the alterations and repairs, and third to the payment of Rent due and unpaid hereunder. The residue, if any, will be held by the Landlord and applied in payment of future Rent as it becomes due and payable. If the Rent received from the sub-letting during a month is less than the Rent to be paid during the month by the Tenant, the Tenant will pay the deficiency to the Landlord. The deficiency will be calculated and paid monthly. No re-entry by the Landlord will be construed as an election on its part to terminate this Lease unless a written notice of that intention is given to the Tenant. Despite a sub-letting without termination, the Landlord may elect at any time to terminate this Lease for a previous breach. If the Landlord terminates this Lease for any breach, the Tenant will pay to the Landlord on demand:

(a) Minimum Monthly Rent up to the time of re-entry or termination, whichever is later;

(b) all Additional Expenses and Operating Costs payable by the Tenant pursuant to the provisions hereof up until the date of re-entry or termination, whichever is later;

(c) such expenses as the Landlord may incur or have incurred in connection with re-entering or terminating and re-letting, or collecting sums due or payable by the Tenant, or realizing upon assets seized including brokerage expenses, legal fees and disbursements determined on a solicitor-client basis, and the expense of keeping the Premises in good order and repairing or maintaining the same or preparing the Premises for re-letting; and

(d) as liquidated damages for the loss of Rent and other income of the Landlord expected to be derived from this Lease during the period which would have constituted the unexpired portion of the term had it not been terminated, the amount, if any, by which the rental value of the Premises for such period established by reference to the terms and provisions of the Lease, exceeds the rental value of the Premises for such period established by reference to the terms and provisions upon which the Landlord re-lets them, if such re-letting is accomplished within a reasonable time after termination of this Lease, and otherwise with reference to all market and other relevant circumstances. Rental value is to be computed in each case by reducing to present worth at an assumed interest rate of 10% per annum all Rent and other amounts to become payable for such period and where the ascertainment of amounts to become payable requires it, the Landlord may make estimates and assumptions of fact which will govern unless shown to be unreasonable or erroneous.

13.04 Application of Monies on Default

Upon the occurrence of any default referred to in Section 13.01, the full amount of the current month's Rent installment together with the next three (3) months' installments of Rent and such aggregate payments for the next three (3) months will immediately become due and payable as accelerated rent, and the Landlord may immediately distrain for the same, together with any arrears then unpaid.

13.05 Interest

The Tenant will pay the Landlord interest at the rate of twelve (12%) percent per annum on all overdue payments required to be made by the Tenant to the Landlord under any one or more of the provisions of this Lease, including all expenses incurred by the Landlord resulting from the default of the Tenant as provided in this Section.

13.06 Landlord May Pay Taxes or Charges on Default

If the Tenant fails to pay when due any taxes, rates, insurance premiums or charges which it has covenanted to pay, the Landlord may pay any such taxes, premiums, rates and charges and charge the sums so paid to the Tenant, who will pay them immediately on demand and the Landlord, in addition to all other rights, shall have the same remedies and may take the same steps for the recovery of all such sums as it might have taken for arrears of Rent or Operating Costs, and any monies paid by the Landlord will bear interest as provided in Section 13.05 from the time such arrears become due until paid to the Landlord.

13.07 Landlord's Performance on Tenant's Behalf

Subject to Section 9.02, if the Tenant fails to perform any of its covenants or obligations under or in respect of this Lease the Landlord may, from time to time in its discretion, perform or cause to be performed any of such covenants or obligations or any part thereof, and for such purpose may do such things as may be required including, but not limited to, entering the Premises to do such things upon or in respect of the Premises or any part thereof and all expenses incurred, and any expenditures made by or on behalf of the Tenant under this Section will be immediately paid by the Tenant to the Landlord, and if not paid will bear interest as provided in Section 13.05 from the date the same were incurred or made, and such expenses will be recoverable by the Landlord in the same manner as rent in arrears.

13.08 Distress

In the event that the Tenant has failed to pay any monthly installment for Rent or Operating Costs or other sums due under this Lease on the day or dates appointed for payment, and the Landlord is entitled to distrain against the goods of the Tenant, the Tenant agrees that the Landlord will be entitled to distrain for Rent and other charges owing, together with rent otherwise payable over the next three month period and such collective amount shall be treated as amounts due and owing under this Lease as Rent as at the date the Landlord first became entitled to distrain against the goods of the Tenant.

13.09 Distress of Goods Off Premises

The Tenant further agrees that the Landlord, in addition to any remedy otherwise provided by law, may seize and sell the goods and chattels of the Tenant for payment of Rent, at any time and at any place to which the Tenant or any other person may have removed such goods and chattels, in the same manner as if such goods and chattels had remained and been distrained upon the Premises.

13.10 Forbearance

No condonation, forgiveness or waiver of forbearance by the Landlord of any non-observance or non-performance by the Tenant of any of the provisions hereunder will operate as a waiver or estoppel by or against the Landlord in respect of any provision or any subsequent non-observance or non-performance by the Tenant of any of the provisions hereunder.

13.11 Application of Monies

The Tenant agrees that all Rent received by the Landlord may be applied by the Landlord towards payment of such sums constituting Rent at the date of such payment, irrespective of the purpose for which such Rent was tendered.

13.12 Legal Fees and Disbursements

INITIAL
LANDLORD	TENANT

If the Landlord at any time incurs legal fees and costs in obtaining legal advice or instituting or prosecuting any action or proceedings based upon any default of the Tenant under this Lease, all fees and costs (on a solicitor/client basis) will be payable by the Tenant to the Landlord and all such fees and costs will be payable by the Tenant to the Landlord upon demand for payment being made, and be recoverable by the Landlord as Additional Rent.

Section 14 Liens and Security Interest

14.01 Liens or Charges Against the Premises

The Tenant will not permit any construction, mechanics or similar lien to stand against the Premises for any labour or material furnished to or with the consent of the Tenant, its agents or contractors. Notwithstanding the aforementioned, the Tenant will have the right to contest the validity of or the amount claimed under or in respect of any such lien if such contest involves no forfeiture, foreclosure or sale of the Premises or any part thereof, and upon the final determination of such contest, the Tenant will immediately pay and satisfy any judgment or decree rendered against it, together with all due costs and charges and cause such lien to be discharged and released without cost or expense to the Landlord. In the event that such lien is not removed from title to the Lands within two (2) days of the Tenant receiving notice from the Landlord to have it removed, the Landlord, at its sole option, shall be entitled to exercise any or all of its remedies under this Lease, including its rights of re-entry and termination. The Landlord may, at its sole option, initiate and prosecute any action against a third party, either on its own behalf or on behalf of the Tenant and all at the expense of the Tenant, for removal of the security notice after the expiry of the two (2) day notice period for the Tenant to remove such lien.

14.02 No Chattel Security Interests

The Tenant will not grant a security interest in any goods that have become affixed to the Lease to the Premises, other than trade fixtures and the Tenant will not affix to the Lease to the Premises any goods that are subject to a security interest.

14.03 No Security Interest Notices

The Tenant will not permit any notice claiming a security interest in any fixture other than trade fixtures to be registered against the title to the Lands and will, immediately upon demand of the Landlord, remove or cause to be removed any such notice and institute and prosecute proceedings pertinent thereto. In the event that such security interest notice is not removed from title to the Lands within two (2) days of the Tenant receiving notice from the Landlord to have it removed, the Landlord, at its sole option, will be entitled to exercise any or all of its remedies under this Lease, including its rights of re-entry and termination. The Landlord may, at its sole option, initiate and prosecute any action against a third party, either on its own behalf or on behalf of the Tenant and all at the expense of the Tenant, for removal of the security notice after the expiry of the two (2) day notice period for the Tenant to remove the security notice.

Section 15 Miscellaneous

15.01 Surrender

The Tenant shall, subject to any provisions of Section 12.07 or this Section 15.01 to the contrary, at the expiration or sooner termination peacefully surrender and yield up to the Landlord all and every part of the Premises together with all buildings, structures and fixtures (excepting trade fixtures) including all appurtenances, alterations, repairs, additions and replacements thereto all in good order, condition and repair, the exceptions to the Tenant's repair obligations only excepted. Provided always, that the Tenant shall, on the expiration or sooner termination of this Lease, sever and remove any and all fixtures which are not or have not become the property of the Landlord and the Tenant shall forthwith restore and repair the Premises and any damage caused as a result of such severance or removal. If the Tenant does not so sever and remove in the time hereinbefore limited, the Landlord, at its option, may do so at the expense of the Tenant and the Tenant will have no interest whatsoever therein. Provided always, that no such fixtures and no goods or chattels of any kind will, except in the ordinary course of business, be removed from the Premises during the first term or at any time thereafter without the written consent of the Landlord first had and obtained, until all rent in arrears has been fully paid.

15.02 Overholding

If the Tenant continues to occupy the Premises after the expiration of the Term of this Lease with the consent of the Landlord, and without any further written agreement, the Tenant will become a monthly tenant at a monthly rental equal to the Rent and Operating Costs payable during the Term granted, such rental to be payable in advance on the first day of each and every month and such monthly tenancy to be on the terms and conditions and subject to all other tenancy charges and amounts payable except as to the length of tenancy and that both the Landlord and the Tenant will have the right to terminate such overholding on one month's written notice to the other. Notice shall be given on or before the last day of the month immediately prior to the next ensuing month in which the termination is to take effect.

15.03 Force Majeure

In the event that either party hereto is delayed, hindered or prevented from the performance of any act by reason of strikes, lockouts, labour troubles, inability to procure materials, failure of power, restrictive government laws or regulations, riots, insurrection, war or other reason of a like nature not the fault of the party delayed in performing work or doing acts required under the terms of this Lease, then performance of such act will be excused for the period of delay, and the period for the performance of any such act will be extended for a period equivalent to the period of such delay. The provisions of this paragraph will not operate to excuse the Tenant from the prompt payment of Rent nor entitle the Tenant to compensation for any inconvenience, nuisance or discomfort.

15.04 Right of First Refusal

a) In consideration of the sum of one dollar and other good and valuable consideration paid by the Tenant to the Landlord, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Landlord hereby grants to the Tenant during its tenancy a right of first refusal to acquire the Property, or any portion thereof, or interest therein, on the terms and conditions set out in this agreement.

b) For the purposes of this clause:

(a) "First Refusal Offer" means any offer to purchase whereby the Landlord disposes of or conveys or agrees to dispose of or convey, either directly or indirectly, all or any portion of the Lands or all or any portion of its interest therein;

(b) "Disposition" means the conveyance, sale, transfer, assignment or any other disposition whatsoever, either directly or indirectly, of all or any portion of the Landlord's interest in the Lands, whether its legal or beneficial interest or both.

c) The Landlord shall not permit a Disposition of the Lands to occur until it has first offered the Tenant the right to acquire the interest in the Lands contained in the First Refusal Offer on the identical terms and conditions set out therein. Upon receipt of any First Refusal Offer the Landlord shall immediately deliver to the Tenant at its address set out in this lease a complete and true originally executed copy thereof.

d) Upon receipt of the First Refusal Offer, the Tenant shall have thirty (30) days to advise the Landlord in writing whether it elects to acquire the interest in the Property contained in the First Refusal Offer on the same terms and conditions set out therein. If the Tenant does not advise the Landlord in writing within the required time that it elects to acquire the interest in the Lands contained in the First Refusal Offer on the terms and conditions set out therein, the Tenant shall be deemed to have rejected such offer.

e) If the Tenant notifies the Landlord that it does not elect to acquire the interest in the Lands contained in the First Refusal Offer or is deemed to have rejected such offer, the Landlord may then proceed with the Disposition of the interest in the Lands as contained in the First Refusal Offer, but only upon and subject to the terms and conditions contained therein and not otherwise. For greater certainty the parties acknowledge and agree that if the terms and conditions of the First Refusal Offer are at any time changed, altered or amended in any substantive way following the Tenant's rejection or deemed rejection of the First Refusal Offer, the Landlord shall not permit a Disposition of the Lands to occur unless it has first complied on all such occasions with the requirements of this agreement.

f) If the Tenant does not elect to acquire the interest in the Lands contained in the First Refusal Offer or is deemed to have rejected such offer, the Tenant's right of first refusal shall terminate regardless whether that transaction closes or not.

h) If the Tenant advises the Landlord that it elects to acquire the interest in the Lands contained in the First Refusal Offer then the transaction contemplated therein shall close and be completed subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the First Refusal Offer.

i) Any notice, correspondence or communication (collectively called a "Notice") required to be given shall be sufficiently given if delivered in person addressed to the parties as set out herein.

k) Time shall be and remain of the essence of this agreement.

l) If any term, covenant or condition of this agreement or the application thereof to any party or circumstance shall to any extent be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this agreement or application of its terms, covenants or conditions to a party or circumstance other than those to which it is held invalid or unenforceable shall not be affected thereby and every term, covenant or condition of this agreement shall be valid and shall be enforceable to the full extent permitted by law.

m) This agreement shall ensure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns and the successors in title from time to time to the Lands, it being the intention of the parties that the covenants contained herein are agreed to and shall be deemed to be covenants running with the Lands.

For certainty, any decisions regarding the extent to which the Premises has become unfit for use shall be made by a third party architect or professional engineer appointed by the Landlord, whose decision shall be final and binding on the parties hereto.

9.7 Tenant Terminates

If Tenant exercises its right to terminate this Lease under this Clause, Tenant shall make available (or pay over) to Landlord the proceeds of insurance carried by Tenant pursuant to Section 10.2 with respect to such fire or other casualty (excluding any insurance proceeds received by Tenant for any of Tenant's personal Premises) and property.

  - (iv) otherwise Rent shall be apportioned to the date of surrender.
- (b) If and whenever the Premises is destroyed or damaged by reason of any cause and this Lease shall not have been terminated, the Landlord shall, with all reasonable diligence, make the repairs specified in Section 9.1 and the Tenant shall, with all reasonable diligence and in compliance with Section 8.1, make all repairs to the Premises specified in Section 9.2 and complete the Premises for occupancy for the purpose described in Section 7.1 and in compliance with Subsection 7.6(b). If as a result of any destruction or damage to the Premises which the Landlord is obligated to repair pursuant to Section 9.1, and which is not the fault of the Tenant or those for whom it is at law responsible, and which does not consist of merely a temporary interruption of or interference with any utility, service or access, the Premises is rendered in whole or in part unfit for occupancy by the Tenant, then during the period commencing on the occurrence of such destruction or damage and ending upon the date when the repairs to the Premises have been completed, Rent hereby reserved shall be abated entirely from the date of damage until the Premises has been repaired or restored.

  - (iv) Miscellaneous Perils Insurance: Insurance against such other perils and in such amounts as the Landlord or any mortgagee may from time to time reasonably require upon not less than sixty (60) days' notice, such requirement to be made on the basis that the required insurance is customary at the time in the same city or area for buildings similar to the Building.

- (b) The Tenant shall furnish to the Landlord, if reasonably requested by the Landlord, certificates as to the insurance from time to time effected by the Tenant and its renewal or continuation in force in form acceptable to the Tenant's insurers evidencing that the required insurance is in force, together with evidence as to the method of determination of full replacement cost of the Tenant's Leasehold Improvements and the Tenant's Trade Fixtures, furniture and equipment. If, during the Term, the Landlord reasonably concludes that the full replacement cost has escalated for whatever reason, the Landlord may revise the coverage amount required by the Tenant. ### ARTICLE 11 -ASSIGNMENTS AND SUBLEASES BY TENANT AND TRANSFERS BY LANDLORD

11.1 Assignments, Subleases, Transfers

- (a) In this Lease, "Transfer" means:
  - (i) an assignment, sale, termination, conveyance, sublease, or other disposition of this Lease or the Premises, or any part of them or any interest in this Lease (whether by operation of law or otherwise), or in a partnership that is a Tenant under this Lease;
  - (ii) a mortgage, charge or debenture (floating or otherwise) or other encumbrance of this Lease or the Premises or any part of them, or of any interest in this Lease or of a partnership, or partnership interest, where the partnership is a Tenant under this Lease;
  - (iii) a sharing of possession of all or part of the Premises;
  - (iv) a Transfer or issue by sale, assignment, bequest, inheritance, operation of law or other disposition, or by subscription of all or part of the corporate shares of the Tenant or an "affiliate" (which for the purposes of this Article 11 means "affiliate" as that term is defined on the date of this Lease under the Canada Business Corporations Act) of the Tenant which results in a change in the effective voting control of the Tenant; or
  - (v) a merger, amalgamation or other corporate reorganization of the Tenant. "Transferor" and "Transferee" have meanings corresponding to the definition of "Transfer" set out above, (it being understood that for a Transfer described in this subsection, the Transferor is the person that has effective voting control before the Transfer and the Transferee is the person that has effective voting control after the Transfer).
- (b) The Tenant shall not assign, sublet or otherwise Transfer this Lease, either directly or indirectly, without the express written consent of the Landlord which consent may not be unreasonably withheld. In the event the Landlord gives its consent to an assignment or sub-tenancy, the Tenant shall, notwithstanding the Landlord's consent, remain liable to the Landlord for all of the Tenant's covenants and obligations contained in this Lease. It is further understood and agreed that in the event the Landlord consents to an assignment or sub-tenancy, the Landlord may, in its sole and absolute discretion, refuse to consent to any further assignment or sub-letting of the Premises during the Term or any extended Term of the Lease.

- (c) Without limitation, it shall constitute reasonable grounds for any withholding of consent by the Landlord that, in the Landlord's reasonable judgment:
  - (i) the proposed Transferee does not have a satisfactory financial condition having regard to the obligations which it will assume as Transferee;
  - (ii) it is intended or likely that it will use any part of the Premises for any purpose which is not permitted by this Lease or which is not acceptable to the Landlord, acting reasonably;
  - (iii) where the return to the Tenant on any proposed Transfer is greater than the amounts payable by the Tenant hereunder and the Tenant has not agreed to pay an amount equal to fifty (50%) percent of such excess to the Landlord; or
  - (iv) if, at the time of requesting a Transfer, the Tenant is in Default hereunder.
- (d) Without limitation, the Tenant shall for the purposes of this Lease be considered to have effected or permitted a Transfer in any case where it permits the Premises or any portion thereof to be occupied by a person or persons other than the Tenant, its employees and others engaged in carrying on the business of the Tenant, whether pursuant to assignment, subletting, license or other right, and shall also include any case where any of the foregoing occurs by operation of law.
- (e) The Landlord shall have the right of approval, acting reasonably, of any marketing of space by the Tenant.
- (f) If the Landlord's consent is given, the Tenant shall complete the Transfer, but only upon the terms set out in the offer submitted to the Landlord pursuant to Section 11.2 and not otherwise. Such Transfer shall occur within one hundred and twenty (120) days after the Tenant's request for consent and only upon any Transferee entering into an agreement directly with the Landlord, and in a form satisfactory to the Landlord, acting reasonably, to perform, observe and keep each and every covenant proviso, condition and agreement in this Lease on the part of the Tenant to be performed, observed and kept, including payment of Rent.
- (g) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Tenant shall have the right to assign or sublet to a corporation affiliated (as that term is defined in the Business Corporations Act (Alberta)) with the Tenant without the consent of the Landlord, provided that the Tenant has first given notice to the Landlord and further provided that the Tenant and its affiliate have first entered into an agreement directly with the Landlord, in a form satisfactory to the Landlord, acting reasonably, whereby the affiliate agrees to perform, observe and keep each and every covenant, proviso, condition and agreement in this Lease on the part of the Tenant to be performed, observed and kept, including payment of Rent and whereby the Tenant and the affiliate agree to remain affiliated to one another, a breach of which agreement would constitute a breach of this Lease.

- (h) All reasonable legal fees of the Landlord incurred with the preparation of the documentation by the Landlord in respect to any Transfer (as defined in Subsection 11.1 (a) herein) by the Tenant shall be paid by the Tenant forthwith upon demand, prior to the Landlord initiating any requested Transfer process, up to a maximum amount of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars plus G.S.T.

11.2 Landlord's Consent

- (a) The Tenant shall not effect or permit a Transfer unless:
  - (i) it shall have received or procured a bona fide written offer therefor to take a Transfer which is not inconsistent with, and the acceptance of which would not breach, any provisions of this Lease if this Article is complied with and which the Tenant has determined to accept subject to this Article being complied with; and
  - (ii) it shall have requested and obtained the consent in writing of the Landlord thereto.
- (b) Any request for such consent shall be in writing and accompanied by a true copy of such offer, and the Tenant shall furnish to the Landlord information reasonably requested by the Landlord, as to the responsibility, reputation, financial standing and business of the proposed Transferee. Within ten (10) days after the receipt by the Landlord of such request for consent and of all information which the Landlord shall have requested hereunder (and if no such information has been requested, within ten (10) days after receipt of such request for consent), the Landlord shall provide, decline to provide or otherwise withhold its consent. In the event that the Landlord declines to provide its consent, subject to (c) below the Landlord shall have the right upon notice to the Tenant, if the proposed Transfer affects the whole of the Premises, to terminate this Lease or, if the proposed Transfer affects a part of the Premises only, to delete from the Lease such part of the Premises as is affected by the proposed Transfer, in each case as of the date of the proposed Transfer. In such event, the Tenant shall surrender the whole or part, as the case may be, of the Premises in accordance with such notice and Rent shall be apportioned and paid to the date of surrender and, if a part only of the Premises is surrendered, Rent shall thereafter abate proportionately. If the Landlord shall not exercise the foregoing right, then the provisions of Section 11.1 shall apply.
- (c) If the Landlord elects to terminate or delete in accordance with (b) above, as the case may be, the Tenant may withdraw its request for consent by notice to the Landlord within ten (10) days after the Landlord's notice of such election, in which event the Landlord's notice of election shall be null and void and the Tenant shall not proceed with the Transfer for which such consent was requested.

11.3 No Advertising of the Premises

The Tenant shall not print, publish, post, mail, display, broadcast or otherwise advertise or offer the whole or any part of the Premises for the purposes of a Transfer, and shall not permit any broker or other party to do any of the foregoing, unless the complete text and format of any such notice, advertisement or offer shall first have received the Landlord's written consent, which may be unreasonably withheld. In any event such notices or advertisement shall not be located in or on the Building, shall not be on a sign larger than four (4) feet square in size and shall not contain any reference to the Rent payable in respect of the Premises. Such notices or advertisement shall be situated at a location and in a form pre-approved by the Landlord, in its sole discretion.

11.4 Dealings by Landlord

Subject to the Tenant's Right of First Refusal pursuant to Section 17.19 hereof, the Landlord may sell, transfer, charge, encumber or otherwise deal with the Premises or any portion thereof or any interest of the Landlord therein, in every case without the consent of the Tenant and without restriction. To the extent that any purchaser or transferee from the Landlord has become bound by the covenants and obligations of the Landlord under this Lease, the Landlord shall, without further written agreement, be freed and relieved of liability with respect to such covenant and obligations.

ARTICLE 12 – ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATES, CAVEATS, ENCUMBRANCES, LIENS & INTERESTS REGISTERED ON TITLE

12.1 Estoppel Certificates

Each of the Landlord and the Tenant agrees that it will, at any time and from time to time, upon the reasonable request of the Landlord or the Tenant, as applicable, and upon not less than twenty (20) days' notice, execute and deliver to the other (and, if required, to any prospective purchaser or mortgagee or encumbrancer of the Premises) a certificate in writing as to the status at that time of this Lease, including as to whether this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or, if modified, stating the modification and that the same is in full force and effect as modified), the amount of the Rent then being paid hereunder, the date on which the same, by installments or otherwise, and other charges hereunder, have been paid, whether or not there is any existing Default on the part of the other of which it has notice, and any other matters pertaining to this Lease as to which the other shall reasonably request a statement.

- (b) The Tenant agrees that it will, at its sole expense, commence to discharge and withdraw from title any such registration within thirty (30) days following the expiration or sooner termination of the Lease. If such registration is not discharged and withdrawn during the aforesaid time, the Landlord shall have the right and is hereby appointed by the Tenant as its Agent and attorney to prepare, execute and register on behalf of the Tenant such documentation as is required to discharge and withdraw any such registration, and all costs shall be borne solely by the Tenant. The Landlord, at its sole discretion, may seek reimbursement directly from the Tenant.

12.3 Subordination and Attornment

Unless otherwise agreed by the Landlord, this Lease and all of the rights of the Tenant hereunder shall be subordinate to any encumbrances and any and all mortgages by the Landlord's mortgagees from time to time registered against the title to the Premises. Upon the reasonable request being made by the Landlord, the Tenant shall postpone its rights under the Lease to any and all such mortgages or encumbrances and shall do so in such form or forms as the Landlord may require. The Tenant acknowledges and agrees that it will take no steps to obstruct the Landlord's rights under this clause and also acknowledges and agrees that its refusal to execute such a postponement when requested to do so could cause the Landlord substantial financial damages which the Landlord shall be entitled to claim back against the Tenant for its refusal to comply with the provisions of this section of the Lease.

3.03 In the event the herein Lease is renewed or extended in accordance with Section 2.03 of the Lease, the annual rent payable by the Tenant to the Landlord shall be established by the Manager, Land, Corporate Properties & Buildings for the Landlord having regard to the then current market conditions for similar premises (the "Renewal Rate"), and in no event shall the Renewal Rate be less than the Rent payable in the immediately preceding year. The Landlord agrees that the Tenant shall be given a minimum of NINETY (90) DAYS notice in writing prior to the expiry of the Term of the Renewal Rate payable during such renewal or extension and the Tenant shall have a period of FIFTEEN (15) DAYS following receipt of such notice to accept or reject the Landlord's establishment of the Renewal Rate payable failing which the Tenant shall be deemed to have accepted the Landlord's establishment of such Renewal Rate. If the parties cannot agree on the appointment of an arbitrator, either party may apply to the Court in accordance with the provision of the Arbitration Act (Alberta). Provided further that notwithstanding anything contained herein, the Renewal Rate payable pursuant to the Lease whether established by the Landlord or by arbitration, as the case may be, shall in no event be less than the Rent payable in the immediately preceding year. The Tenant and the Landlord agree that they shall each respectively be responsible for and shall pay for one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of the actual cost and expenses incurred with respect to the arbitration, or any manner of dispute resolution which has been mutually agreed upon by the parties, in writing; and
- (b) if the Renewal Rate has not been determined prior to the start of the Renewal Term then from and after the first day of the Renewal Term the Tenant shall pay the Rent which the Landlord sets forth as reflecting the Renewal Rate and, upon such determination, the parties shall make any necessary adjustments including any overpayments from the date paid or any underpayments from the date such would have been payable had the Renewal Rate been determined prior to the start of the Renewal Term.

3.06 It is the intention of the Lease that the Rent herein reserved to the Landlord shall be completely net to the Landlord and all expenses, costs, payments, and outgoings incurred in respect of the Leased Premises shall, unless expressly stipulated herein to the contrary, be borne by the Tenant so that the Rent herein reserved shall be absolutely net to the Landlord free of all abatement, set-off or deduction for realty taxes, charges, rates, assessments, expenses, costs, payments, utility costs or outgoings of every nature whatsoever arising from or relating to the Leased Premises and their use by the Tenant, and the Tenant shall pay all such taxes, charges, rates, assessments, expenses, costs, payments, utility costs and outgoings.

4.03 The Tenant shall not commit, permit or allow any waste or injury to the Leased Premises or any part thereof and shall not use or occupy or permit to be used or occupied the Leased Premises or any part thereof for any illegal or unlawful purpose or in any manner which would result in the cancellation of any insurance or in the refusal of any insurer to issue any insurance as requested.

5. INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

5.01 The Tenant shall at its sole cost and expense, throughout the continuance of the Lease, maintain or have maintained with an insurance company satisfactory to

5.03 The insurance policies mentioned in Section 5.01 shall include provision for the Landlord to be given THIRTY (30) DAYS written notice prior to cancellation or material change that may limit the coverage of the policies of insurance and the Landlord is to be notified immediately should the policies of insurance lapse or otherwise be discontinued.

5.04 The Tenant shall provide certificates of insurance for the insurance policies mentioned in Section 5.01 to the Landlord on or before the commencement date of the Lease and shall furnish documentary evidence satisfactory to the Landlord of the renewal or continuance of such insurance policy at or before the expiry date or dates thereof.

5.05 In the event that the Tenant fails to provide to the Landlord any of the documents mentioned in Section 5.01 or otherwise fails to provide to the Landlord any evidence of the existence of any required insurance or to maintain any such insurance, the Landlord shall have the right to place, at its sole discretion and at the sole cost and expense of the Tenant, any required insurance coverage or to pay any arrears of premiums and any expense incurred by the Landlord in this regard shall be reimbursed to it by the Tenant.

- (a) to repair or rebuild the property insured; or
- (b) for such purposes as the Tenant and the Landlord mutually agree.

5.10 The Tenant, recognizing that the type, form and amount of insurance provided for herein is based upon the intention of insuring the Leased Premises and any buildings or structures erected thereupon at all times during the continuance of the Lease to an extent which prudent businessmen acting reasonably in the circumstances would consider appropriate having regard to cost and availability, agrees that the Landlord may at least every year during the continuance of the Lease stipulate for a new type, form and/or amount of insurance.

The Landlord shall prepare and register such postponement at its sole cost and expense.

6.04 In the event the rights granted pursuant to the caveat, easement or instrument in Section 6.02 negatively impairs the Tenant's operations on the Leased Premises or rights under the Lease, the Tenant and Landlord agree to adjust the Rent based on the impact, if any, of the caveat, easement or instrument on the fair market value of the Leased Premises. If the parties are unable to agree to an adjusted Rent, the Rent shall be established pursuant to the same arbitration procedures outlined Section 3.05.

8.05 The Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that the Allowable Substances currently being used by the Tenant in the Leased Premises are contained in Schedule "A" attached hereto.

9.06 All amounts payable pursuant to the Lease shall be deemed to be Rent and shall be collectible in the same manner as Rent in arrears. Any Rent or amounts deemed to be rent pursuant to the Lease shall be deemed to accrue from month to month and shall be added to each ensuing month's Rent until paid.

9.07 In every case where the Tenant shall fail to pay the Rent or any other amount required to be paid by the Tenant to the Landlord pursuant to the terms of the Lease when due, the Tenant shall pay interest on any unpaid Rent, amount or deficiency at the prime rate of interest charged by The Royal Bank of Canada, on the date of default plus THREE (3%) PERCENT per annum on the unpaid Rent,, amount or deficiency from the date it was properly due until paid. Within a reasonable amount of time following execution of the Lease, the Landlord shall repair the roof to a commercially reasonable standard for a building of like age and design of the Building having regards the permitted use of the Leased Premises contained in Section 4.01 herein.

10.07 Other than as expressly provided for herein the Landlord shall not be required to maintain, repair, rebuild or make alterations, replacements or renewals of any nature to the Leased Premises in the case of damage thereto or destruction thereof or otherwise. The Tenant expressly waives any right to maintain, repair and rebuild the Leased Premises at the expense of the Landlord which may be provided for by law or otherwise.

10.08 The Landlord hereby represents and warrants that it is the registered owner of the Lands as of the demise herein subject only to the reservations and exceptions contained in and endorsed upon the existing Certificate of Title and any reservations or exceptions contained in the original grant thereof from the Crown.

11. GENERAL PROVISIONS

11.01 The Tenant shall not transfer, assign or sublet the Lease in whole or in part without the consent in writing of the Landlord which consent may be arbitrarily withheld. Except with the express consent of the Landlord, no permitted transfer, assignment or subletting by the Tenant shall relieve the Tenant of any of its obligations to the Landlord under the Lease.

11.02 Notwithstanding Section 11.01, and provided the Tenant is not in default, the Tenant shall have the right, on giving TWENTY (20) Business Days written notice to the Landlord, but without being required to obtain the Landlord's consent, to effect a transfer or assignment to an entity which is an affiliate (as that term is defined as of the date of the Lease in the Business Corporations Act (Alberta) of the original named Tenant, and only for so long as it remains an affiliate of such original named Tenant.

11.03 No assignment of the Lease shall be valid unless the assignee shall expressly covenant and agree with the Landlord to perform and observe all of the Tenant's covenants under the Lease and unless the assignment is for the Tenant's entire estate, right, title and interest in the Lease. Except with the express consent of the Landlord, no permitted assignment by the Tenant shall relieve the Tenant of any of its obligations to the Landlord under the Lease.

11.04 Neither the Tenant nor anyone on the Tenant's behalf or claiming under the Tenant shall register the Lease against the Lands. The Tenant may prepare and register on title to the Lands a caveat protecting the Tenant's rights and interests in respect of the Lease, provided that:

- (a) a copy of the Lease is not attached;
- (b) such caveat shall describe only the parties, the Leased Premises, the Term and any renewals and nothing else whatsoever; and

- (c) the Landlord gives its prior written approval to the caveat.

Upon expiry or termination of the Lease, the Tenant shall immediately, at its sole cost and expense, remove or discharge any such caveat. If any part of the Lands are made subject to any easement, right-of-way or similar right, the Tenant shall immediately at the request of the Landlord postpone its registered interest to such easement, right-of-way or similar right.

11.05 Notwithstanding anything herein contained:

- (a) neither party shall be in default with respect to the performance of any of the terms of the Lease if any non-performance is due to any strike, lock-out, labour dispute, civil commotion, acts of terrorism, riots, war or similar event, invasion, the exercise of military power, act of God, government regulations or controls, inability to obtain any material or service, failure by the Landlord to complete the Building, or any cause beyond the control of the party relying on this section (other than lack of or inability to obtain financial resources by such party) (the "Force Majeure Event"); and
- (b) if either party hereto is delayed or hindered in or prevented from the performance of an act or compliance with a covenant required hereunder by reason of a Force Majeure Event, the performance of the act will be excused for the period of the delay and the period for the performance of an act will be extended for a period equivalent to the period of the delay. The provisions of this Section 11.04 do not cancel, or postpone or delay the due date of a payment to be made by the Tenant hereunder or operate to excuse the Tenant from prompt payment of the Rent or any other fees required by the terms of the Lease.

11.06 Any notice or communication to be given or made to either party shall be in writing and may be sufficiently given if couriered or faxed to such party at the following addresses:

Either party may change its address by notice given to the other in accordance with this section, in which event this section shall be deemed to have been amended accordingly. Any notice or communication given in the foregoing manner shall be deemed to have been given and received on the date of courier or fax.

11.07 Each term, covenant and condition contained in the Lease shall for all purposes be construed to be a separate and independent covenant and agreement, and the breach of any such term, covenant or condition by the Landlord shall not discharge or relieve the Tenant from its obligations under the Lease. If any term or condition of the Lease or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall, to any extent, be invalid and unenforceable, the remainder of the Lease or the application of such term, covenant or condition to any person or circumstance, other than those with respect to which it is invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby and each term and condition of the Lease shall be valid and shall be enforced to the full extent permitted by law.

11.08 All terms, covenants and conditions contained in the Lease shall be binding upon and enure to the benefit of the respective heirs, successors and permitted assigns of the Landlord and the Tenant including any person taking or receiving in any manner the benefit hereof absolutely to the same extent as if each such heir, successor and permitted assign and any such person were named as a party to the Lease.

11.09 The failure by the Landlord to enforce any term or covenant or obligation of the Tenant contained herein shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such term, covenant or obligation, or permission for any subsequent breach of the same, and the Landlord may at any time enforce such term, covenant or obligation. The waiver by the Landlord of any breach of any term, covenant or obligation hereof shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such term, covenant or obligation with respect to any subsequent breach. No term, covenant or obligation of the Tenant contained in the Lease may be waived by the Landlord, unless such waiver be in writing executed by the Landlord. The acceptance of Rent by the Landlord subsequent to any such breach shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such breach, whether or not the Landlord had knowledge of the breach at the time of acceptance of the Rent. No payment by the Tenant or receipt by the Landlord whether it be of a lesser amount than the Rent herein stipulated or the full amount or a greater amount thereof, shall be deemed, unless otherwise determined by the Landlord in its sole and uncontrolled discretion, to be other than on account of the earliest stipulated rent, and no endorsement or statement on any cheque or any letter accompanying any cheque or payment as rent shall constitute an effective direction from the Tenant as to the appropriation of such cheque or payment nor shall any such endorsement or statement or any such letter be deemed an acknowledgement of full payment or an accord and satisfaction and the Landlord may accept such cheque or payment without prejudice to the Landlord's right to recover the balance of such rent or any other amount owing by the Tenant or pursue any other remedy provided for in the Lease.

11.10 The Lease shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta.

11.11 The Lease contains the entire terms thereof and the Landlord and Tenant agree that there are no representations, collateral agreements or conditions except as expressed herein. All previous verbal or written agreements, if any, are hereby cancelled and rendered null and void.

11.12 Time shall be of the essence of the Lease in every respect hereof.

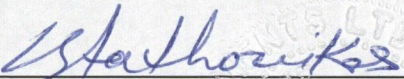

11.13 Each of the parties hereto covenants and agrees from time to time and at all times hereafter to do and perform such acts and things and to execute all such deeds, documents and writings and give all such further assurances as shall be reasonably required as herein contemplated.

11.14 The parties hereto agree that the headings herein form no part of the Lease and have been inserted for convenience of reference only.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties hereto have duly executed the Lease.

Notices mailed as aforesaid shall be conclusively deemed to have been received on the fifth business day following the day on which such notice is mailed. Either party may, at any time, give notice in writing in the manner hereinbefore provided to the other of any change of address of the party giving such notice, and from and after the giving of such notice, the address therein specified shall be deemed to be the address of such party for the giving of notice hereunder. Additionally, the Parties hereto may give notice to each other by fax at the fax number set out in Schedule "A" (and such fax number may be changed by written notice as set out herein), and by email at the email address set out in Schedule "A" (and such email address may be changed by written notice as set out herein). #### 4.11 LANDLORD NOT TO UNREASONABLY INTERFERE

Except as expressly provided otherwise in this Lease, there shall be no allowance to the Tenant by way of diminution of Rent or otherwise and no liability on the part of the Landlord by reason of inconvenience, annoyance or injury to business arising from the happening of the event which gives rise to the need for any repairs, alterations, additions or improvements or the making of any repairs, alterations, additions or improvement in or to any portion of the Demised Premises or in and to the fixtures, appurtenances, and equipment thereof. The Landlord agrees to use its best efforts to do any work done by it expeditiously and in such a manner as not to unreasonably interfere with or impair the Tenant's use of the Demised Premises.

4.12 SUBORDINATION, NON-DISTURBANCE, ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE

This Lease and the Tenant's rights hereunder shall automatically be subordinate to any mortgage or mortgages, or encumbrance resulting from any other method of financing or refinancing, now or hereafter in force against the Demised Premises and to all advances made upon the security hereof. On the request of the Landlord, the Tenant shall execute such documentation as may be required to confirm and evidence such subordination. No subordination shall have the effect of disturbing the Tenant's occupation and possession of the Demised Premises. Subject to the foregoing, whenever requested by the Landlord, mortgagee or encumbrance holder or other third party having an interest in the Demised Premises, the Tenant shall within fifteen (15) days of the request execute and deliver an estoppel certificate or other form of certified acknowledgement as to the Commencement Date, the status and the validity of this Lease, the state of the rental account hereunder, any current defaults on the part of the Landlord alleged by the Tenant, and such other information as may reasonably be required in form and substance satisfactory to the Tenant, acting reasonably. Subject to the foregoing, the Tenant's failure to deliver such certificate or acknowledgment within the time provided shall be conclusive against the Tenant that the information set out in the certificate or acknowledgment which the Tenant was requested to execute is as set out in such certificate or acknowledgment.

4.13 HEADINGS

The parties hereto agree that the headings herein form no part of this Lease and shall be deemed to have been inserted for convenience of reference only.

4.14 INTERPRETATION

The terms "Landlord" and "Tenant" and the pronouns relating thereto, where used herein shall, where the context makes it appropriate, include the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the parties hereto, and shall include the masculine, feminine and plural where the context or the party or parties hereto so require and, where there is more than one Tenant, all covenants shall be deemed joint and several.

4.15 GOVERNING LAW

This Lease and the use and occupation of the Demised Premises by the Tenant under this Lease shall all be governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta. Should any provision of this Lease and/or of its conditions be illegal or not enforceable under the laws of the Province of Alberta, it or they shall be severable and this Lease and its conditions shall remain in full force and be binding upon the parties as though such unenforceable provision or provisions had never been included.

4.16 OVERHOLDING

Upon the expiration or other termination of the Term, the Tenant shall quit and surrender the Demised Premises in good order and condition, ordinary wear and tear and damage by casualty excepted, and shall remove all its property therefrom, except as otherwise provided in this Lease. Unless otherwise agreed between the Landlord and the Tenant, if the Tenant shall continue to occupy the Demised Premises after the expiration of the Term, including for the purposes of the Tenant's compliance with its obligations under Schedule "B" of this lease the Tenant hereby agrees that the Basic Rent payable for each month or partial month that such overholding occurs shall be 125% of the prorated amount of Basic Rent that is payable for the last month of the Term.

- (a) This option must be exercised by notice in writing to the Landlord by the date that is one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the last day of the Term.
- (b) The rental rate for the renewal term shall be: (i) based on fair market rental value rates for premises of similar character and in geographical proximity to the Demised Premises, and (ii) be the fair market value for the lease of the Demised Premises prior to the commencement of such renewal period. For certainty, there shall be no free rent period during the renewal term.
- (c) In the event that the Tenant has exercised its option to renew and the rental rate of the Demised Premises has not been determined by the date upon which the new term commences, pending such determination the Tenant shall pay the Basic Rent paid by the Tenant to the Landlord during the Lease year preceding the commencement of the renewal term, and the parties shall re-adjust as of the date of the commencement of the new term promptly upon such determination being made.
- (d) As soon after the exercise of such option to renew as the rental rate of the Demised Premises has been determined, the Landlord and the Tenant shall enter into a Supplementary Lease modifying this Lease and renewing the Term, all as above provided, excepting that the Tenant shall not be entitled to a further renewal of this Lease except as set out in Schedule "A".

If an agreement on the identity of such a person has not been reached within such three (3) business day period, then the appointment shall be determined by a Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench of Alberta;

- (c) the arbitrator shall have the power to obtain the assistance, advice or opinion of any expert as the arbitrator may think fit and shall have the discretion to act upon the assistance, advice or opinion so obtained;
- (d) the arbitration shall take place in Grande Prairie, Alberta and be conducted in the English language;
- (e) the determination of the arbitrator regarding the dispute shall be given in writing and shall deal with questions of costs of the arbitration and all matters related thereto, as applicable. The arbitrator may award costs to any party and in the absence of any such award of costs, each party shall bear its own costs of the arbitration, provided that, in the event of a dispute with respect to the rental rate for a renewal term under Section 4.19(b), the Landlord and the Tenant agree to share equally the cost of the arbitrator;
- (f) in making its determination regarding costs, the arbitrator shall give consideration to the bona fide nature of the final offers made by the parties; and

  - (i) relating to pollution or the protection of human health or the environment (including workplace health and safety);
  - (ii) dealing with filings, registrations, emissions, discharges, spills, releases or threatened releases of Hazardous Substances or materials containing Hazardous Substances; and/or
  - (iii) regulating the import, storage, distribution, labeling, sale, use, handling, transport or disposal of a Hazardous Substance; and

- (b) "Hazardous Substance" means any substance capable of posing a risk or damage to health, safety, property or the environment including, without limitation, any contaminant, pollutant, dangerous or potentially dangerous substance, noxious substance, toxic substance, hazardous waste, flammable or explosive material, radioactive material, urea formaldehyde foam insulation, asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, polychlorinated biphenyl waste, polychlorinated biphenyl related waste, and any other substance or material now or hereafter declared, defined or deemed to be regulated or controlled under any Environmental Law.

2. Compliance with Environmental Laws

Without limiting any other obligation of the Tenant in this Lease, the Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall, at its sole cost and expense, observe and otherwise comply with, and require those for whom it is responsible at law to observe and comply with, all Environmental Laws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Tenant covenants and agrees that:

- (a) it shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Substance to be brought into, stored, kept or used in or about the Demised Premises or any part thereof, other than any Hazardous Substance that is used in the ordinary course of the permitted use being carried on at the Demised Premises and which is stored, kept and used in strict compliance with all Environmental Laws pertaining thereto;

- (b) it shall not permit any emissions, discharges or releases of Hazardous Substances or materials containing Hazardous Substance from the Demised Premises, other than where such occurs in the ordinary course of the permitted use being carried on at the Demised Premises in strict compliance with all Environmental Laws pertaining thereto;

- (c) it shall not construct or install any underground storage tank in the Demised Premises; and

- (d) on the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, it shall cause each and every Hazardous Substance which was brought into, stored, kept or used in or about the Demised Premises by the Tenant or any party for whom it is responsible at law and then located on the Demised Premises, to be removed from the Demised Premises in compliance with all Environmental Laws pertaining thereto.

3. Notice of Orders

The Tenant shall promptly provide the Landlord with written notice of any order, direction, notice of default or notice of legal action received by the Tenant pursuant to any Environmental Laws and relating to the Demised Premises, the use and occupation of the Demised Premises or the business carried on at the Demised Premises.

4. Right of Inspection

The Landlord and its mortgagees and their agents, servants, employees and representative shall have the right (but not the obligation), from time to time and upon reasonable request and written notice provided to the Tenant not less than 48 hours in advance of the intended inspection, to inspect (including the right to conduct an environmental audit or assessment at its sole cost and expense) the Demised Premises for the purpose of determining whether the Tenant is in compliance with its obligations in this Schedule "B". Where the inspection is conducted in response to the Landlord's reasonable suspicion based on information and evidence, that the Tenant has caused or is causing environmental harm to the Demised Premises that will require immediate remediation, the Tenant shall pay, as Additional Rent, any reasonable costs incurred by the Landlord in making such inspections of the Demised Premises if, by virtue of such inspection, the Tenant is determined to be in default under this Lease. Such costs shall be paid forthwith on demand. The Tenant authorizes the Landlord to make inquiries from time to time with any governmental authority having jurisdiction in respect of matters relating to the Tenant's compliance with Environmental Laws at the Demised Premises, and the Tenant agrees to provide any further authorization as may be required to facilitate the obtaining of such information.

5. Rectification of Breach

In the event that it is determined by applicable regulator or governmental authority that the Tenant is in breach of its obligations in this Schedule, the Landlord may, without limiting any other rights or remedies, provide the Tenant with notice in writing of the breach, and the Tenant shall commence to rectify such breach at the Tenant's sole cost and expense, and shall complete such rectification as soon as reasonably possible. In the event that the Tenant does not commence to rectify such breach, the Landlord may, at its option and in its sole discretion, terminate this Lease without any further notice, or may rectify such breach at the cost of the Tenant, and the Tenant shall forthwith, on demand, reimburse the Landlord for the reasonable cost of such rectification. Such amount shall be payable and collectible as Additional Rent.

If any governmental authority shall require the clean-up of any Hazardous Substance held, released, spilled, abandoned or placed on the Demised Premises or released in to the environment by the Tenant or any party for whom the Tenant is responsible at law, or as a result of the use or occupancy of the Demised Premises by the Tenant or any party for whom the Tenant is responsible at law, the Tenant shall, and subject to Section 9, at its own expense: (a) prepare or requisition all necessary studies, plans and proposals required as a result thereof; (b) obtain all necessary approvals of such authorities required to complete the remediation required pursuant to such studies or reports to the standards required by all Environmental Laws; (c) provide all bonds and other security required by such authorities in connection with the foregoing; and (d) carry out and complete the remediation to the standards required by all

Environmental Laws. The Tenant shall also provide the Landlord with copies of the plans and reports and keep the Landlord advised from time to time as to the status of its remediation and other work.

7. Hazardous Substances Remain Property of Tenant

If the Tenant or any party for whom the Tenant is responsible at law creates or brings to the Demised Premises any Hazardous Substance, or if the conduct of business by the Tenant during the Term at the Demised Premises shall cause there to be any Hazardous Substance at the Demised Premises, then, notwithstanding any provision in this Lease or rule of law to the contrary, such Hazardous Substance shall be and remain the sole and exclusive property of the Tenant, and shall not become the property of the Landlord notwithstanding the degree of affixation to the Demised Premises of the Hazardous Substance or the goods containing the Hazardous Substance, and notwithstanding the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

8. Landlord's Indemnity

The Landlord agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Tenant, its shareholders, directors, officers, agents, servants, employees and others for whom the Tenant is in law responsible, against any and all liabilities, claims, damages, interest, penalties, fines, monetary sanctions, losses, costs and expenses whatsoever (including, without limitation, reasonable costs of professional advisors, consultants and experts in respect of any investigation, and all remediation and other clean-up costs and expenses) arising in any manner whatsoever out of any breach by the Landlord of any provisions of this Lease, or any non-compliance by the Landlord or any party for whom it is responsible at law, with any Environmental Law including, without limitation, any non-compliance by the Landlord with any Environmental Law and any contamination of the Demised Premises preceding the commencement of this Lease. This indemnity shall survive the termination or expiry of this Lease.

9. Tenant Indemnity

The Tenant agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Landlord, its shareholders, directors, officers, mortgagees, and their agents, servants, employees and others for whom the Landlord is in law responsible, against any and all liabilities, claims, damages, interest, penalties, fines, monetary sanctions, losses, costs and expenses whatsoever (including, without limitation, reasonable costs of professional advisors, consultants and experts in respect of any investigation, and all remediation and other clean-up costs and expenses) arising in any manner whatsoever out of any breach by the Tenant of any provisions of this Schedule, or any non-compliance by the Tenant or any party for whom the Tenant is responsible at law, with any Environmental Law, except to the extent that such things are insured against (or should have been insured against under the terms of this Lease) by the Landlord. For further clarity, in such events the Tenant shall be responsible for the deductible. This indemnity shall survive the termination or expiry of this Lease.

10. Survival of Obligations

The covenants and agreements of, and indemnification by, the Tenants contained in this Schedule shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary.

SCHEDULE "C"

RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made this 1st day of August, 2019.

DDG HOLDINGS LTD.
(the "Grantor")

- and -

AMALCO ALBERTA LTD.

RECITALS:

- A. The Grantor is the registered owner of an estate in fee simple of those certain lands situate in the Grande Prairie, in the Province of Alberta legally described as follows:
- PLAN 2524KS
BLOCK1
LOTS 31-35 INCLUSIVE
(the "Lands")
- B. There is currently situated on the Lands, a building owned by the Landlord (the "Building");
- C. The Grantor has agreed to grant to the Grantee a right of first refusal with respect to Lands and the Building (collectively called the "Property") on the terms and conditions set out in this agreement.

THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSES:

1. In consideration of the entering into the lease dated August 1, 2019 (the "Lease") between the Grantor and the Grantee and the sum of one dollar ($1.00) and other good and valuable consideration paid by the Grantee to the Grantor, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Grantor hereby grants to the Grantee an irrevocable right of first refusal to acquire the Property, or any portion thereof, or interest therein, on the terms and conditions set out in this agreement.

2. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Grantor's obligations and the Grantee's rights under this agreement shall only be effective if the Grantee is not in material default under the Lease at the time of a First Refusal Offer as defined herein below is made. The rights under this agreement shall terminate upon the expiration of the lease or the termination of the lease arising from the Grantee's default under the lease, whichever shall occur.
3. For the purpose of this agreement:
  - (a) "First Refusal Offer" means any bona fide third party offer to sell, purchase or lease, agreement to lease, offer to purchase, or any other agreement of whatsoever kind of nature whereby the Grantor disposes of or conveys or agrees to dispose of or convey, either directly or indirectly, all or any portion of the Property or all or any portion of its interest therein;
  - (b) "Disposition" means the conveyance, sale, transfer, assignment, lease, or any other disposition whatsoever, either directly or indirectly, of all or any portion of the Grantor's interest in the Property, of its legal or beneficial interest or both.
4. The Grantor shall not permit a Disposition of the Property to occur until it has first offered the Grantee the right to acquire the interest in the Property contained in the First Refusal Offer on the identical terms and conditions set out therein. Upon receipt of any First Refusal Offer the Grantor shall immediately deliver to the Grantee by both mail and e-mail to the addresses set out in this agreement complete and true copies thereof. In the event that a First Refusal Offer pertains to a group of properties or assets which include any interest in all or any portion of the Property, the Grantee shall have the right to acquire the subject interest in the Property on only those terms and conditions that directly pertain to the Property at the price allocated to the Property in the First Refusal Offer
5. Upon receipt of the First Refusal Offer, the Grantee shall have ten (10) days to advise the Grantor in writing whether it elects to acquire the interest in the Property contained in the First Refusal Offer on the same terms and conditions set out therein. If the Grantee does not advise the Grantor in writing within the required time that it elects to acquire the interest in the Property contained in the First Refusal Offer on the terms and conditions set out therein, the Grantee shall be deemed to have rejected such an offer.
6. If the Grantee notifies the Grantor that it does not elect to acquire the interest in the Property contained in the First Refusal Offer or is deemed to have rejected such offer, the Grantor may then proceed with the Disposition of the interest in the Property as contained in the First Refusal Offer, but only upon and subject to the terms and conditions contained therein and not otherwise. For greater certainty the parties acknowledge and agree that if the terms and conditions for the First Refusal Offer are at any time changed, altered, or amended in any way whatsoever following the Grantees rejection or deemed rejection of the First Refusal Offer, the Grantor shall not permit a Disposition of the Property to occur unless it has first complied on all such occasions with the requirements of this agreement.

7. If the Grantee does not elect to acquire the interest in the Property contained in the First Refusal Offer or is deemed to have rejected such offer in accordance with the terms of Section 6 hereof and the transaction contemplated by the First Refusal Offer does not close in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof, the Grantee's right of first refusal with respect to the Property shall survive. For greater certainty and without limiting any provisions relating to the Grantee's right of first refusal, it is acknowledged that if the First Refusal Offer is only with respect to a portion of the Property or the Grantee's interest therein, the right of first refusal granted pursuant to this agreement shall apply with respect to the remainder of the Property and the Grantor' interest therein.
8. If the Grantee does not elect to acquire the interest in the Property contained in the First Refusal Offer or is deemed to have rejected such offer in accordance with the terms of Section 6 hereof and the transaction contemplated by the First Refusal Offer closes in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof, the Grantee's right of first refusal shall not survive or remain in effect against the Grantor' successors in title to the Property and the Grantee shall discharge any registrations against the Lands in respect of the rights contained in this agreement.
9. If the Grantee advises the Grantor that it elects to acquire the interest in the Property contained in the First Refusal Offer then the transaction contemplated therein shall close and be completed subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the First Refusal Offer.
10. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary expressed or implied in Sections 3 or 4 or elsewhere in this agreement, the Grantor agrees that if the First Refusal Offer contains any conditions which are required to be met or satisfied by or on behalf or in favour of the party acquiring the interest in the Property pursuant to the First Refusal Offer other than the compliance with the terms of this agreement (collectively called the "Buyers Condition"), the Grantor shall also provide the Grantee at the time of delivery of the First Refusal Offer to it, evidence that the Buyers Conditions have been met and satisfied. The Grantor agrees that the Grantee shall not be required to make its election to acquire the interest in the Property contained in the First Refusal Offer to it on the terms and conditions set out therein and the provisions of Section 4 of this agreement, including any deemed rejection of the First Refusal Offer, shall not apply until the Buyer's Conditions have been met and evidence thereof provided to the Grantee at the time and in the manner required pursuant to this Section 10.
11. Any notice, correspondence or communication (collectively called a "Notice") required to be given shall be sufficiently given if delivered in person addressed to the parties as follows:

13. This agreement shall enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the Landlord hereto and its successors and assigns and the successors in title from time to time to the Lands, it being the intention of the parties that the covenants contained herein are agreed to and shall be deemed to be covenants running with the Lands. ## Article 2 — Demise and Term

2.1 Demise

In consideration of the rents, covenants and agreements hereinafter reserved and contained on the part of the Tenant to be paid, observed and performed, the Landlord demises and leases to the Tenant and the Tenant rents from the Landlord the Premises. Subject to Schedule "C", the Tenant accepts the Premises "as is, where is" in their state and condition existing at the Commencement Date.

2.2 Term

Subject to section 2.3, the Term shall commence on the Commencement Date, run for the period set out in Section 1.1(e), and end on the date set out in Section 1.1(e), unless terminated earlier pursuant to the provisions of this Lease.

2.3 Delay in Possession

Should the Tenant be delayed by any fault of the Landlord or any other reason (other than the fault of the Tenant) in taking possession of the Premises at the start of the Commencement Date, then and only then shall the start of the Commencement Date and the Term be postponed for the same number of days that the Tenant is delayed in taking possession.

2.4 Overholding

This Lease shall automatically terminate on the last day of the Term or any extension thereof and any occupancy of the Premises by the Tenant after that date shall not have the effect of extending or renewing the Lease for any period of time, whether by way of tacit renewal at law or otherwise. The Tenant shall in such case be deemed to be occupying the Leased Premises against the will of the Landlord, who shall have the right to avail itself of any and all recourse provided by law to evict the Tenant and claim for damages. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Tenant does in fact remain in possession of the Leased Premises after the Term prior to eviction by the Landlord as aforesaid, the Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Leased Premises as a month to month tenant. The monthly Rent, payable in advance on the first day of each month, will be equal to the total of: (a) one hundred and fifty percent (150%) of the Base Rent payable for the last month of the Term, and (b) an amount equal to the Additional Rent payable for the last month of the Term. All of the other provisions of this Lease will apply as far as practicable, to a month to month tenancy. This Section 2.4 shall survive the expiry or termination of this Lease. Nothing in this Section 2.4 shall be interpreted or deemed as permitting the Tenant to overhold the Premises.

Article 3 — Rent

3.1 Covenant to Pay, Net Lease

The Tenant covenants to pay Rent as provided in this Lease. It is the intention of the parties that the Rent provided to be paid shall be net to the Landlord and clear of all taxes, costs and charges arising from or relating to the Premises, and that the Tenant shall pay, as Additional Rent, all charges, impositions and expenses of every nature and kind relating to the Premises (except the Landlord's income taxes, and except as otherwise specifically provided) in the manner hereinafter provided, and the Tenant covenants with the Landlord accordingly. For certainty, the Tenant will pay GST on Rent and any other GST imposed by the applicable legislation on the Tenant in respect of this Lease, in the manner and at such times directed by the applicable legislation. The Landlord will have all of the same remedies and rights of recovery from the Tenant in respect thereof as it has in respect of non-payment of Rent hereunder.

3.2 Rental Taxes

The Tenant will pay to the Landlord the Rental Taxes assessed upon: (a) the Rent; (b) the Landlord; and/or (c) the Tenant pursuant to the laws, rules and regulations governing the administration of the Rental Taxes by the authority having jurisdiction, and as such may be amended from time to time during the Term of this Lease or any extension thereof. The Rental Taxes shall not be deemed to be Additional Rent under this Lease but may be recovered by the Landlord as though they were Additional Rent.

3.3 Payment Method

The Landlord may at any time, and from time to time, require the Tenant to provide to the Landlord either: (a) a series of monthly postdated cheques, each cheque in the amount of the monthly instalment of Rent; or (b) authorization and documentation required to automatically debit the Tenant's bank account for such amounts. In the event of any change in the estimates of Additional Rent, the Landlord may require a new series of monthly postdated cheques or new documentation (as applicable).

3.4 Deposit

Simultaneously with the Tenant's execution of this Lease, the Tenant shall deposit with the Landlord the Deposit as security for the performance by the Tenant of all of the Tenant's obligations, covenants, conditions, and agreements under this Lease. The Landlord shall not be required to maintain the Deposit in a separate account. If an Event of Default occurs under this Lease by the Tenant, Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, to use, apply, or retain all or any portion of the Deposit for the payment of: (i) Rent, Additional Rent or any other sum as to which the Tenant is in default; or (ii) the amount the Landlord spends or may become obligated to spend, or to compensate the Landlord for any losses incurred by reason of the Tenant's default. If any portion of the Deposit is so used or applied, then within fifteen (15) after the Landlord gives the Tenant written notice, the Tenant shall deposit with the Landlord cash in an amount sufficient to restore the Deposit to the original amount. The Tenant's failure to do so shall constitute an Event of Default under this Lease. The Deposit is non-refundable and shall be applied against any unpaid Rent. In the event that the Deposit has not been used or applied on account of other indebtedness, as herein provided, the Deposit shall be applied against the last two months' Rent, without prejudice to the Landlord's right to demand restoration of the Deposit as herein provided.

3.5 Rent Past Due

If the Tenant fails to pay any Rent when the same is due and payable, such unpaid amount shall bear interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum (calculated monthly at the rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%)), such interest to be calculated from the time such Rent becomes due until paid by the Tenant.

3.6 Partial Periods

If the Term commences on any day other than the first day of the month, or ends on any day other than the last day of the month, Rent for the fractions of a month at the commencement and at the end of the Term shall be calculated on a pro rata basis and shall be payable on the first day of the partial month.

Article 4 — Basic Rent

4.1 Basic Rent

The Tenant covenants and agrees to pay, from and after the Commencement Date, to the Landlord at the office of the Landlord, or to such other person or at such other location as the Landlord shall direct by notice in writing, in lawful money of Canada, without any prior demand therefor and without any deduction, abatement or set-off whatsoever, as annual Basic Rent, the sum(s) set out in Section 1.1(f) of this Lease in equal monthly instalments in advance in the amount(s) set out in Section 1.1(f), on the first day of each and every month during the Term.

4.2 Calculation of Fair Market Rent

For the purposes of determining Fair Market Rent the Landlord and the Tenant shall, in the first instance, use reasonable efforts to reach a mutual agreement as to the amount of Fair Market Rent. If the Landlord and the Tenant cannot agree in writing to the Fair Market Rent for the Premises three (3) months prior to commencement of the second five (5) years of the Term, Fair Market Rent shall be determined as follows:

- (a) The Landlord shall within fifteen (15) days deliver a notice (the “Appraisal Notice”) to the Tenant naming three (3) qualified arms’ length third party appraisers whom the Landlord proposes to determine the Fair Market Rent for the Premises (the “Determination”);
- (b) the Tenant shall, within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Appraisal Notice, deliver a notice to the Landlord wherein the Tenant shall accept the appointment of one of the three (3) appraisers named in the Appraisal Notice (the “Chosen Nominee”), in which case the Chosen Nominee so designated shall forthwith conduct the Determination. If, however, within the said fifteen (15) day period referred to above the Tenant shall fail to accept the appointment of one of the three (3) named appraisers, then the Landlord shall be entitled, within seven (7) days of the expiration of such fifteen (15) day period, to designate one (1) of the appraisers as the Chosen Nominee, and the Chosen Nominee so designated by the Landlord shall forthwith conduct the Determination;
- (c) as soon as the Chosen Nominee has been selected in accordance with the foregoing provisions the Determination shall be conducted in accordance with the terms hereof and a written report (the “Report”) shall be delivered by the

Chosen Nominee to each of the Tenant and the Landlord within thirty (30) days of the date of the selection of the Chosen Nominee;

- (d) the Chosen Nominee shall report to the Landlord and the Tenant, setting forth its opinion of the Fair Market Rent for the Premises as of the date of such Report. The Fair Market Rent for the Premises determined by the Chosen Nominee shall be final and binding on the Landlord and the Tenant; provided that if the Fair Market Rent determination by the Chosen Nominee is less than the Basic Rent during the first five (5) years of the Term, Fair Market Rent shall be deemed to be the Basic Rent during the first five (5) years of the Term; and
- (e) If Fair Market Rent has not been determined prior to commencement of the second five (5) years of the Term, the Tenant shall pay Basic Rent at an amount equal to the Basic Rent payable during the last year of the first five (5) years of the Term, and the parties shall readjust promptly upon such determination having been made with interest payable on the unpaid balance or deficiency paid by the Tenant as finally determined at the rate of five (5%) per annum.

5.1 Additional Rent

(1) In addition to the Basic Rent reserved in favour of the Landlord, the Tenant shall, throughout the Term, pay to the Landlord or as otherwise provided in this Lease, in lawful money of Canada, without any deduction, abatement or set-off whatsoever (except as provided for in Section 12.1 of this Lease) all costs, expenses, fees, rentals, disbursements and outlays (in this definition collectively as “costs”) of every kind, whether direct or indirect, paid, payable or incurred by or on behalf of the Landlord on an accrual basis (or on a cash basis to the extent that the Landlord determines) in the ownership, maintenance, repair, replacement, operation, administration, supervision and management of the Premises and access (“Additional Rent”), including, without limitation:

- (h) costs recovered by the Landlord under a warranty;

- (l) costs in relation to the water well referred to in Schedule "B" including but not limited to all costs in relation to inspecting and making repairs, alterations or improvements to the said water well.

(2) All of the payments set out in this Lease (other than Rental Taxes) shall constitute Basic Rent or Additional Rent, and shall be deemed to be and shall be paid as rent, whether or not any payment is payable to the Landlord or otherwise, and whether or not paid as compensation to the Landlord for expenses to which it has been put. The Landlord has all the rights against the Tenant for default in payment of Additional Rent that it has against the Tenant for default in payment of Basic Rent.

(3) Additional Rent shall be payable in advance on the Commencement Date and thereafter in monthly instalments on the first day of every month during the Term, based on the Landlord's estimates but subject to adjustment when the actual amounts are determined pursuant to Section 5.6 of this Lease. Additional Rent in the first year of the Lease is estimated to be $23,539.90 in the aggregate (comprised of $18,564.80 of applicable taxes and $4,975 for the Landlord's insurance), and $1,961.65 per month.

5.2 Realty Taxes

The Tenant shall pay to the Landlord, as Additional Rent, all Realty Taxes levied, rated, charged or assessed throughout the Term, on or in relation to the Premises, or any part thereof, in accordance with the following:

- (a) payment shall be due in equal monthly instalments over each calendar year or such shorter period as required such that the Landlord will have in its hands an amount sufficient to pay each instalment of Realty Taxes when due to the taxing authorities. Prior to the commencement of each year, the Landlord shall estimate the amount of such equal monthly instalments and notify the Tenant in writing of such estimate. From time to time during the year, the Landlord may re-estimate the amounts payable for such year, in which event the Landlord shall notify the Tenant in writing of such re-estimate and fix monthly instalments for the remaining balance of such year; and
- (b) if the Landlord so directs, the Tenant shall pay Realty Taxes directly to the taxing authorities. In that event, the Tenant shall make payment, on or before the due date, of each instalment and shall provide to the Landlord, on demand, evidence of payment in the form of receipted bills.

5.3 Business and Other Taxes

In each and every year during the Term, the Tenant shall pay as Additional Rent, discharge within fifteen (15) days after they become due, and indemnify the Landlord from and against payment of, and any interest or penalty in respect of, the following:

- (a) every tax, licence fee, rate, duty and assessment of every kind with respect to any business carried on by the Tenant in the Premises or by any subtenant, licensee, concessionaire or franchisee or anyone else, or in respect of the use or occupancy of the Premises by the Tenant, its subtenants, licensees, concessionaires or franchisees, or anyone else (other than such taxes as income, profits or similar taxes assessed upon the income of the Landlord); and

The Tenant shall pay to the Landlord, as Additional Rent, all costs of the Landlord in maintaining its insurance as contemplated herein in accordance with the following:

- (a) payment shall be due in equal monthly instalments over each calendar year or such shorter period as required, such that the Landlord will have in its hands an amount sufficient to pay its insurance invoices. Prior to the commencement of each year, the Landlord shall estimate the amount of such equal monthly instalments and notify the Tenant in writing of such estimate. From time to time during the year, the Landlord may re-estimate the amounts payable for such year, in which event the Landlord shall notify the Tenant in writing of such re-estimate and fix monthly instalments for the remaining balance of such year; and
- (b) if the Landlord so directs, the Tenant shall reimburse it for the cost of insurance upon demand.

5.6 Annual Readjustment of Additional Rent

As soon as practicable after the expiration of each year, the Landlord shall make a final determination of Realty Taxes, and other Additional Rent, based on the actual costs incurred therefor by the Landlord, and shall notify the Tenant of such determination, providing reasonable details as to the breakdown and calculation thereof and, upon reasonable request, documentation in support of such costs. If there has been a shortfall in the amounts payable by the Tenant for such period, the Tenant shall pay such shortfall within thirty (30) days after delivery of the Landlord's notice. Any overpayment may be paid by the Landlord to the Tenant without interest, or credited to the Tenant's account and held by the Landlord without interest, to be applied to payments falling due under this Lease. In the event of any dispute, the report of the Landlord's auditor or accountant as to the Additional Rent shall be conclusive as to the amount thereof for any period to which such report relates. ### 6.2 No Overloading

The Tenant will not install any equipment which would exceed or overload the capacity of the utility facilities in the Premises or the electrical wiring and service in the Premises, and agrees that if any equipment installed by the Tenant shall require additional utility facilities, such facilities shall be installed, if available, and subject to the Landlord's prior written approval thereof (which approval may not be unreasonably withheld), at the Tenant's sole cost and expense in accordance with plans and specifications to be approved in advance by the Landlord, in writing.

Article 8 — Maintenance, Repairs and Alterations of Premises

8.1 Tenant's Obligations

- (a) The Tenant covenants to keep, throughout the Term, the Premises in a good and reasonable state of repair and cleanliness consistent with the general standards applicable to buildings of a similar nature in the vicinity of the Premises and having regard to the permitted use of the Premises and the condition of the Premises as at the Commencement Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Tenant shall not be responsible for any items that are within the Landlord's Obligations pursuant to Section 8.2 of this Lease;
- (b) The obligations of the Tenant shall include, without limitation, snow removal and pest control for the Premises, routine maintenance, repair and replacement (if necessary) to the Premises including both the interior and exterior portions (for certainty, including the parking lot and yard area, overhead doors and exterior and interior doors and windows) thereof, gardening of the Premises and painting and decorating of the Premises;

- (5) any damage or loss to the Premises and/or the Tenant occasioned by the negligence or willful act of the Landlord or any party for whom the Landlord is at law responsible or a breach by the Landlord of any term, covenant or obligation under this Lease; provided, however, if the Landlord is required to repair or replace structural portions or any portion of the Premises by reason of the negligent acts or omissions of the Tenant or any party for whom the Tenant is responsible at law, the expense of the necessary repairs shall be borne by the Tenant and paid on demand as Additional Rent, except to the extent such repair costs are insured against by the Landlord but only to the extent of insurance proceeds received by the Landlord. For further clarity, in such events the Tenant shall be responsible for the deductible.

8.3 Inspection and Repair on Notice

The Landlord, its servants, agents and contractors shall be entitled to enter upon the Premises at any time, without notice, for the purpose of making emergency repairs, and during normal business hours on no less than twenty-four (24) hours prior written notice to the Tenant, for the purpose of inspecting and making repairs, alterations or improvements to the Premises including repairs to the water well referred to in Schedule "B", or for the purpose of having access to the under-floor ducts, or to the access panels to mechanical shafts (which the Tenant agrees not to obstruct). The Landlord, its servants, agents and contractors may, at any time, and from time to time, on reasonable prior written notice, enter upon the Premises to remove any article or remedy any condition which, in the reasonable opinion of the Landlord, would likely lead to the cancellation of any policy of insurance. The Landlord will take reasonable precautions and attempt to schedule such work so as not to unreasonably interfere with the operation of the Tenant's business and to minimize interference with the Tenant's use and enjoyment of the Premises.

The Tenant shall promptly effect all repairs necessitated by the Tenant's negligence or wilful misconduct or the negligence or wilful misconduct of the Tenant's agents, servants, contractors, invitees, employees or others for whom the Tenant is in law responsible.

The Landlord and the Tenant shall comply with all provisions of applicable law related to the making of any repairs, replacements, alterations, changes, substitutions, improvements of or to the Premises.

8.4 Alterations

The Tenant will not make or erect in or to the Premises any installations, alterations, additions or partitions without first submitting drawings and specifications to the Landlord and obtaining the Landlord's prior written consent, which the Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold. The

Tenant must further obtain the Landlord's prior written consent to any change or changes in such drawings and specifications. The Tenant will pay to the Landlord the Landlord's reasonable out-of-pocket costs of having its architects approve such drawings and specifications and any changes. Such work shall be performed by qualified contractors engaged by the Tenant (and approved by the Landlord), but in each case only under a written contract approved in writing by the Landlord and subject to all reasonable conditions which the Landlord may impose, provided nevertheless that the Landlord may, at its option, require that the Landlord's contractors be engaged for any structural, mechanical or electrical work. The Tenant shall defend all suits to enforce such liens or orders against the Tenant at the Tenant's sole expense. The Tenant indemnifies the Landlord against any expense or damage incurred as a result of such liens or orders. In the event the Tenant does not cause the discharge of any liens or order for payment within the twenty-one (21) day period noted above, the Landlord may, in its sole discretion, elect to make such payment or take such action as may be necessary or expedient to discharge the lien, whether or not the validity of such lien is admitted or denied by the Tenant and whether or not the lien is valid, including but not limited to making direct payment to the lien claimant, and the Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all the Landlord's reasonable expenses incurred in so doing (including the amount of the lien) plus an administrative fee of 15%. - (b) the Tenant shall, at its sole cost, remove such of the Leasehold Improvements as the

Landlord shall require to be removed, such removal to be completed on or before the end of the Term.

(2) The Tenant shall, at its own expense, repair any damage caused to the Premises by the Leasehold Improvements or trade fixtures or the removal thereof. In the event that the Tenant fails to remove its trade fixtures prior to the expiry or earlier termination of the Term, such trade fixtures shall, at the option of the Landlord, become the property of the Landlord and may be removed from the Premises and sold or disposed of by the Landlord in such manner as it deems advisable. For greater certainty, the Tenant's trade fixtures shall not include any Building Systems or light fixtures. The Landlord shall be under no obligation to repair or maintain the Leasehold Improvements, the Tenant's trade fixtures or any other items installed by the Tenant except, for certainty, solely to the extent the damage is caused by the negligence or willful act of the Landlord or those for whom it is at law responsible.

8.8 Surrender of Premises

At the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, the Tenant shall peaceably surrender and give up unto the Landlord vacant possession of the Premises in the same condition and state of repair as the Tenant is required to maintain the Premises throughout the Term and in accordance with its obligations in Section 8.7, subject to normal wear and tear and with regard to the age and condition of such facilities as at the Commencement Date.

Article 9 — Insurance and Indemnity

9.1 Tenant's Insurance

(1) The Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, take out and maintain in full force and effect, at all times throughout the Term, the following insurance:

- (a) "All Risks" insurance on property of every description and kind owned by the Tenant, or for which the Tenant is legally liable, or which is installed by or on behalf of the Tenant, within the Premises including, without limitation, stock-in-trade, furniture, equipment, partitions, trade fixtures and Leasehold Improvements, in an amount not less than the full replacement cost thereof from time to time;
- (b) general liability and property damage insurance, including personal liability, contractual liability, tenants' legal liability, non-owned automobile liability, and owners' and contractors' protective insurance coverage with respect to the Premises, which coverage shall include the business operations conducted by the Tenant and any other person on the Premises. Such policies shall be written on a comprehensive basis with coverage for any one occurrence or claim of not less than five million dollars ($5,000,000) or such higher limits as the Landlord may reasonably require from time to time;
- (c) when applicable, broad form comprehensive boiler and machinery insurance on a blanket repair and replacement basis, with limits for each accident in an amount not less than the full replacement costs of the property, with respect to all boilers and machinery owned or operated by the Tenant or by others (other than the Landlord) on behalf of the Tenant in the Premises or relating to or serving the Premises;

- (d) business interruption insurance in an amount sufficient to cover the Tenant's Rent for a period of not less than twelve (12) months;
- (e) plate glass insurance with respect to all glass windows and glass doors in or on the Premises for the full replacement value thereof; and
- (f) such other forms of insurance as may be reasonably required by the Landlord and any Mortgagee from time to time.

(2) All such insurance shall be with insurers and shall be upon such terms and conditions as the Landlord reasonably approves. The insurance described in Sections 9.1(a) and 9.1(c) shall name as loss payee the Landlord and anyone else with an interest in the Premises from time to time designated in writing by the Landlord, and shall provide that any proceeds recoverable in the event of damage to Leasehold Improvements shall be payable to the Landlord. The insurance described in Sections 9.1(b) and 9.1(d) shall name as an additional insured the Landlord and anyone else with an interest in the Premises from time to time designated in writing by the Landlord. The Landlord agrees to make available such proceeds toward repair or replacement of the insured property if this Lease is not terminated pursuant to the terms of this Lease. All public liability insurance shall contain a provision for cross-liability or severability of interest as between the Landlord and the Tenant.

(3) All of the foregoing property policies shall contain a waiver of any right of subrogation or recourse by the Tenant's insurers against the Landlord or the Landlord's mortgagees, their contractors, agents and employees, whether or not any loss is caused by the act, omission or negligence of the Landlord, its mortgagees, their contractors, agents or employees. The Tenant shall obtain from the insurers under such policies undertakings to notify the Landlord in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to any cancellation thereof. The Tenant shall furnish to the Landlord, on written request, certificates of all such policies. The Tenant agrees that if it fails to take out or to keep in force such insurance or if it fails to provide a certificate of every policy and evidence of continuation of coverage as herein provided, the Landlord shall have the right to take out such insurance and pay the premium therefor and, in such event, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord the amount paid as premium plus fifteen percent (15%), which payment shall be deemed to be Additional Rent payable on the first day of the next month following payment by the Landlord.

9.2 Landlord's Insurance

The Landlord shall maintain insurance on the Premises against loss, damage or destruction caused by fire and extended perils under a standard extended form of fire insurance policy in such amounts and on such terms and conditions as would be carried by a prudent owner of a similar building, having regard to the size, age and location of the Premises. The amount of insurance to be obtained shall be determined at the sole discretion of the Landlord. The Landlord may maintain such other insurance in respect of the Premises and its operation and management as the Landlord determines, acting reasonably. The Tenant shall not be an insured under the policies with respect to the Landlord's insurance, nor shall it be deemed to have any insurable interest in the property covered by such policies, or any other right or interest in such policies or their proceeds.

9.3 Increase of Landlord Premiums

If the occupancy of the Premises, the conduct of business in the Premises, or any acts or omissions of the Tenant in the Premises or any part thereof, causes or results in any increase in premiums for the insurance carried from time to time by the Landlord with respect to the Premises, the Tenant shall pay any such increase in premiums as Additional Rent forthwith after invoices for such additional premiums are rendered by the Landlord. In determining whether increased premiums are caused by or result from the use and occupancy of the Premises, a schedule issued by the organization computing the insurance rate on the Premises showing the various components of such rate shall be conclusive evidence of the several items and charges which make up such rate. The Tenant shall comply promptly with all requirements and recommendations of the Insurer's Advisory Organization of Canada (or any successor thereof), or of any insurer now or hereafter in effect, pertaining to or affecting the Premises.

9.4 Tenant Indemnity

Subject to Section 9.6 hereof, the Tenant will indemnify the Landlord and save it harmless from and against any and all losses or claims, actions, demands, liabilities and expenses (including, without limitation, those in connection with bodily injury (including death), personal injury, illness or discomfort or damage to property and legal fees on a solicitor-client basis, suffered by or imposed upon the Landlord or its property, either directly or indirectly, in respect of any matter or thing: (a) arising out of any occurrence in or about the Premises; (b) occasioned or caused wholly or in part by any act or omission of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, contractors, invitees, licensees or by or anyone for whom it is in law responsible; or (c) arising from any breach by the Tenant of any provisions of this Lease, except to the extent that any such liabilities, claims or expenses are caused by, arise by reason of or in connection with the negligence or intentional act of the Landlord or those for whom the Landlord is in law responsible. This indemnity shall survive the termination or expiry of this Lease.

9.5 Landlord Indemnity

Subject to Sections 9.6 and 9.7 hereof, the Landlord will indemnify the Tenant and save it harmless from and against any and all losses or claims, actions, demands, liabilities and expenses, including reasonable legal fees on a solicitor-client basis, suffered by or imposed upon the Tenant or its property, either directly or indirectly, in respect of any matter or thing, to the extent that they are sustained, paid or incurred by reason of or otherwise attributable to: (a) the negligence or willful acts or omissions of the Landlord or anyone for whom it is in law responsible, or (b) arising from the breach by the Landlord of any provisions of this Lease. This indemnity shall survive the termination or expiry of this Lease.

9.6 Mutual Release

Each of the Landlord and the Tenant releases the other and waives all claims against the other and those for whom the other is in law responsible with respect to occurrences insured against or required to be insured against by the releasing party under this Lease, subject to the following:

- (a) such release and waiver shall be effective only to the extent of proceeds of insurance received by the releasing party; and
- (b) to the extent that both parties have insurance or are required to have insurance for any occurrence, the Tenant's insurance shall be primary.

9.7 Release of Landlord

Except for claims, actions, causes of action, damages, demands for damages and other liabilities resulting from: (i) the negligence or willful acts or omissions of the Landlord or anyone for whom it is in law responsible, or (ii) arising from the breach by the Landlord of any provisions of this Lease (all of the foregoing referred to herein as the “Tenant Exceptions”), the Tenant hereby releases the Landlord from any and all claims, actions, causes of action, damages, demands for damages and other liabilities, that may be made by the Tenant against the Landlord under the provisions of this Lease. The Tenant agrees that the Landlord, except to the extent arising from the Tenant Exceptions, shall not be liable for and hereby releases the Landlord from:

- (a) any and all claims, actions, causes of action, damages, demands for damages and other liabilities:
  - (i) for or related to any bodily injury, personal injury, illness or discomfort to or death of the Tenant or any of its agents, officers, contractors, employees, invitees, licensees and any other Person for whom the Tenant is legally responsible in or about the Premises; and
  - (ii) for or related to any loss or damage to property owned by the Tenant or by others and for which property the Tenant is responsible in or about the Premises, and, without limiting the foregoing, the Landlord shall not be liable for any damage caused by steam, water, rain or snow which may leak into, issue or flow from part of the the Premises, or from the pipes or plumbing works thereof, or from any other place or for any damage caused by or attributable to the condition or arrangement of any electric or other wiring;
- (b) any loss or damage caused as a result of any damage, destruction, construction, alternation, expansion, expropriation, reduction, repair or reconstruction from time to time of the Premises, any parts or components of the Premises or of improvements on adjoining properties;
- (c) any act or omission (including theft, malfeasance or negligence) on the part of any agent, contractor or person from time to time employed by Landlord to perform work in or about the Premises;
- (d) any loss or damage, however caused, to books of account, records, files, money, securities, negotiable instruments, papers, computer disks, tapes, software, data and other electronic files and their storage media of any kind or to other valuables of the Tenant including art, artworks, statuary, antiques, gems and precious metals of the Tenant and of others; and
- (e) any loss or damage arising from obstruction of deliveries to or from the Premises or interruption, cessation, faulty operation, breakdown or failure of any building systems, including but limited to, the supply of any utilities, telecommunication services (whether controlled or owned by the Landlord or not) or other services in, to or serving the Premises, whether they are supplied by the Landlord or by others.

Article 10 — Assignment and Subletting

10.1 Assignment, Subletting

The Tenant shall not effect any Transfer without the prior written consent of the Landlord. No consent to any Transfer shall of itself relieve the Tenant from its obligation to pay Rent and to perform all of the covenants, terms and conditions herein contained. In the event of a Transfer, the Landlord may collect Rent or sums on account of Rent from the Transferee and apply the net amount collected to the Rent payable hereunder, but no such Transfer or collection, or acceptance of the Transferee as tenant, shall be deemed to be a waiver of this covenant.

10.2 Landlord's Consent

If the Tenant desires to effect a Transfer, then and so often as such event shall occur, the Tenant shall make its request to the Landlord in writing. The Tenant's request shall contain the information required by Section 10.3 of this Lease. The Landlord shall, within fourteen (14) days after receipt of such request, notify the Tenant in writing either that: (a) the Landlord consents or does not consent, as the case may be; or (b) the Landlord elects to cancel and terminate this Lease if the request is to assign the Lease or to sublet or otherwise transfer all of the Premises or, if the request is to sublet or otherwise transfer a portion of the Premises only, to cancel and terminate this Lease with respect to such portion. If the Landlord elects to cancel this Lease as aforesaid and so advises the Tenant in writing, the Tenant shall then notify the Landlord in writing within fifteen (15) days thereafter of the Tenant's intention either to refrain from such Transfer or to accept the cancellation of the Lease (in whole or in part, as the case may be). Failure of the Tenant to deliver notice to the Landlord within such fifteen (15) day period advising of the Tenant's desire to refrain from such Transfer shall be deemed to be an acceptance by the Tenant of the Landlord's cancellation of this Lease (in whole or in part, as the case may be). Any cancellation of this Lease pursuant to this Section 10.2 shall be effective on the later of the date originally proposed by the Tenant as being the effective date of the Transfer and the last day of the month sixty (60) days following the date of the Landlord's notice to cancel this Lease.

10.3 Requests for Consent

Requests by the Tenant for the Landlord's consent to a Transfer shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by the name, address, telephone numbers, business experience, credit and financial information and banking references of the Transferee, and shall include a true copy of the document evidencing the proposed Transfer, and any agreement relating thereto. The Tenant shall also provide such additional information pertaining to the Transferee as the Landlord may reasonably require. The Landlord's consent shall be conditional on the following:

- (a) the Tenant remaining fully liable to pay Rent and to perform all of the covenants, terms and conditions herein contained;
- (b) the Landlord being satisfied, acting reasonably, with the financial ability and good credit rating and standing of the Transferee and the ability of the Transferee to carry on the permitted use;
- (c) the Tenant having regularly and duly paid Rent and performed all the covenants contained in this Lease;

- (d) the Transferee having entered into an agreement with the Landlord agreeing to be bound by all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease;
- (e) the Tenant paying to the Landlord, prior to receiving such consent, and all reasonable legal fees and disbursements incurred by the Landlord in connection with the Transfer; and
- (f) the Tenant paying to the Landlord, as Additional Rent, fifty percent (50%) all excess rent earned by the Tenant in respect of the Transfer.

10.4 Change of Control

Any transfer or issue by sale, assignment, bequest, inheritance, operation of law, or other disposition, or by subscription, of any part or all of the corporate shares of the Tenant or any other corporation, which would result in any change in the effective direct or indirect control of the Tenant, shall be deemed to be a Transfer, and the provisions of this Article 10 shall apply mutatis mutandis. If the Landlord has a reasonable suspicion, based on information and evidence, that a change in control has occurred, the Tenant shall, upon request, provide to the Landlord such records of the Tenant as are reasonably necessary to determine if a change in control has occurred.

10.5 No Advertising

The Tenant shall not advertise that the whole or any part of the Premises is available for assignment or sublease, and shall not permit any broker or other person to do so unless the text and format of such advertisement is approved in writing by the Landlord. No such advertisement shall contain any reference to the rental rate of the Premises.

10.6 Assignment by Landlord

In the event of the sale or lease by the Landlord of its interest in the Premises or any part or parts thereof, and in conjunction therewith the assignment by the Landlord of this Lease or any interest of the Landlord herein, the Landlord shall be relieved of any liability under this Lease in respect of matters arising from and after such assignment provided the assignee agrees in writing with the Tenant to assume all responsibilities and obligations of the Landlord hereunder.

10.7 Status Certificate

The Tenant shall, within fifteen (15) days' notice from the Landlord, execute and deliver to the Landlord and/or as the Landlord may direct a statement as prepared by the Landlord in writing certifying the following: (a) that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, or, if modified, stating the modifications and that the same is in full force and effect as modified; (b) the amount of the Basic Rent then being paid; (c) the dates to which Basic Rent, by instalments or otherwise, and Additional Rent and other charges hereunder have been paid; (d) whether or not there is any existing default on the part of the Landlord of which the Tenant has notice; and (e) any other information and particulars as the Landlord may reasonably request, in form and substance satisfactory to the Tenant, acting reasonably.

10.8 Subordination and Non-Disturbance

This Lease and all of the rights of the Tenant hereunder are, and shall at all times, be subject and subordinate to any and all Mortgages and any renewals or extensions thereof now or hereinafter in force against the Premises. On the request of the Landlord, the Tenant shall promptly subordinate this Lease and all its rights hereunder in such form or forms as the Landlord may require to any such Mortgage or Mortgages, and to all advances made or hereinafter to be made on the security thereof and will, if required, attorn to the holder thereof. No subordination by the Tenant shall have the effect of permitting a Mortgagee to disturb the occupation and possession by the Tenant of the Premises or of affecting the rights of the Tenant pursuant to the terms of this Lease, provided that the Tenant performs all of its covenants, agreements and conditions contained in this Lease and contemporaneously executes a document of attornment as required by the Mortgagee.

Article 11 — Quiet Enjoyment

11.1 Quiet Enjoyment

The Tenant, on paying the Rent hereby reserved, and performing and observing the covenants and provisions herein required to be performed and observed on its part, shall peaceably enjoy the Premises for the Term.

Article 12 — Damage and Destruction

12.1 Damage or Destruction to Premises

If the Premises or any portion thereof are damaged or destroyed by fire or by other casualty, Rent shall abate in proportion to the area of that portion of the Premises which, in the opinion of the Landlord's architect or professional engineer, is thereby rendered unfit for the purposes of the Tenant until the Premises are repaired and rebuilt, and the Landlord shall repair and rebuild the Premises. The Landlord's obligation to repair and rebuild shall not include the obligation to repair and rebuild any chattel, fixture, leasehold improvement, installation, addition or partition in respect of which the Tenant is required to maintain insurance hereunder, or any other property of the Tenant. Rent shall recommence to be payable ten (10) days after the Landlord notifies the Tenant that the Tenant may reoccupy the Premises for the purpose of undertaking its work.

12.2 Rights to Termination

Notwithstanding Section 12.1:

- (a) if the Premises or any portion thereof are damaged or destroyed by any cause whatsoever and cannot, in the reasonable opinion of the Landlord, be rebuilt within one hundred and twenty (120) days of the damage or destruction, the Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving to the Tenant, within thirty (30) days after such damage or destruction, notice of termination, and thereupon Rent and other payments hereunder shall be apportioned and paid to the date of such damage or destruction, and the Tenant shall immediately deliver up vacant possession of the Premises to the Landlord; and
- (b) in the event of damage or destruction occurring by reason of any cause in respect of which proceeds of insurance are substantially insufficient to pay for the costs of rebuilding the Premises or are not payable to or received by the Landlord, or in the event that any Mortgagee or other person entitled thereto shall not consent to the payment to the Landlord of the proceeds of any insurance policy for such purpose or, in the event that the Landlord is not able to obtain all necessary governmental approvals and permits to rebuild the Premises, the Landlord may elect, within thirty (30) days of such damage or destruction, on written notice to the Tenant, to terminate this Lease, and the Tenant shall immediately deliver up vacant possession of the Premises to the Landlord.

12.3 Certificate Conclusive

Any decisions regarding the extent to which the Premises has become unfit for use shall be made by an architect or professional engineer appointed by the Landlord, whose decision shall be final and binding on the parties.

12.4 Landlord's Work

- (a) The Landlord shall comply with all provisions of applicable law related to the making of any repairs, replacements, alterations, additions, changes, substitutions or improvements of or to the Premises.
- (b) It is acknowledged by the Tenant that in performing any reconstruction or repair, the Landlord may effect changes to the Premises and its equipment and systems.
- (c) The Landlord shall have no obligation to repair any damage to Leasehold Improvements or the Tenant's fixtures, except, for certainty, solely to the extent that such damage is sustained or incurred by reason of or otherwise attributable to: (i) the negligence or willful acts or omissions of the Landlord or anyone for whom it is responsible at law, or (ii) arising from the breach by the Landlord of the terms of this Lease.

12.5 Expropriation

(1) If at any time during the Term any public body or paramount authority shall take or expropriate the whole or a portion of the Premises, then the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) if such expropriation or compulsory taking does not materially affect the Tenant's use or enjoyment of the Premises, then the whole of the compensation awarded or settled, whether fixed by agreement or otherwise, shall be paid or received by the Landlord, and the Tenant assigns, transfers and sets over unto the Landlord all of the right, title and interest of the Tenant therein and thereto, and this Lease shall thereafter continue in effect with respect to the remainder of the Premises, without abatement or adjustment of Rent; and
- (b) if such expropriation or compulsory taking does materially affect the Tenant's use or enjoyment of the Premises, then, at the Landlord's option: (i) this Lease shall be deemed to terminate and the Term shall terminate on the date upon which the expropriating or taking authority requires possession of the lands so expropriated or taken; or (ii) the Premises shall be adjusted to exclude the area so taken, the Landlord shall complete any work required to the Premises as a result of such taking (excluding any work relating to any chattel, fixture, leasehold improvement, installation, addition or partition in respect of which the Tenant is required to maintain insurance hereunder, or any other property of the Tenant). In either event the Landlord shall be entitled to receive the entire compensation awarded or settlement, whether fixed by agreement or otherwise, save and except for that portion thereof as is specifically awarded or allocated in respect of the leasehold improvements or other interests of the Tenant.

(2) The Landlord and the Tenant will cooperate with each other regarding any expropriation of the Premises or any part thereof so that each receives the maximum award to which it is entitled at law.

Article 13 — Default

13.1 Default and Right to Re-enter

Any of the following constitutes an Event of Default under this Lease:

- (a) any Rent due is not paid within five (5) days after notice in writing from the Landlord to the Tenant;
- (b) the Tenant has breached any of its obligations in this Lease and, if such breach is capable of being remedied and is not otherwise listed in this Section 13.1, after notice in writing from the Landlord to the Tenant:
  - (i) the Tenant fails to remedy such breach within fifteen (15) days (or such shorter period as may be provided in this Lease); or
  - (ii) if such breach cannot reasonably be remedied within fifteen (15) days (or such shorter period), the Tenant fails to commence to remedy such breach within ten (10) days of such breach, or thereafter fails to proceed diligently to remedy such breach;
- (c) the Tenant becomes bankrupt or insolvent or takes the benefit of any statute for bankrupt or insolvent debtors or makes any proposal, an assignment or arrangement with its creditors, or any steps are taken or proceedings commenced by any person for the dissolution, winding-up or other termination of the Tenant's existence or the liquidation of its assets;
- (d) a trustee, receiver, receiver/manager or a person acting in a similar capacity is appointed with respect to the business or assets of the Tenant;
- (e) the Tenant makes a sale in bulk of all or a substantial portion of its assets, other than in conjunction with an assignment or sublease approved by the Landlord;
- (f) this Lease or any of the Tenant's assets are taken under a writ of execution and such writ is not stayed or vacated within fifteen (15) days after the date of such taking;
- (g) the Tenant makes an assignment or sublease, other than in compliance with the provisions of this Lease;
- (h) the Tenant abandons or attempts to abandon the Premises, or the Premises become vacant or substantially unoccupied for a period of ten (10) consecutive days or more without the consent of the Landlord;

- (i) the Tenant moves or commences, attempts or threatens to move its trade fixtures, chattels and equipment out of the Premises, other than in the ordinary course of its business;
- (j) any insurance policy covering any part of the Premises is, or is threatened to be, cancelled or adversely changed (including a substantial premium increase) as a result of any action or omission by the Tenant or any person for whom it is legally responsible; or
- (k) the Tenant has breached any of its obligations pursuant to the Lease Agreement between the Tenant and the Landlord dated even date herewith, with respect to the land and premises located at 4407 – 52nd Street, Lloydminster, Saskatchewan, and if such breach is not remedied within the applicable time period, if any, outlined in the said Lease Agreement.

13.2 Default and Remedies

If and whenever an Event of Default occurs, then, without prejudice to any other rights which it has pursuant to this Lease or at law, the Landlord shall have the following rights and remedies, which are cumulative and not alternative:

- (a) to terminate this Lease by notice to the Tenant or to re-enter the Premises and repossess them and, in either case, enjoy them as of its former estate, and to remove all persons and property from the Premises and store such property at the expense and risk of the Tenant or sell or dispose of such property in such manner as the Landlord sees fit without notice to the Tenant. If the Landlord enters the Premises without notice to the Tenant as to whether it is terminating this Lease under this Section 13.2(a) or proceeding under Section 13.2(b) or any other provision of this Lease, the Landlord shall be deemed to be proceeding under Section 13.2(b), and the Lease shall not be terminated, nor shall there be any surrender by operation of law, but the Lease shall remain in full force and effect until the Landlord notifies the Tenant that it has elected to terminate this Lease. No entry by the Landlord during the Term shall have the effect of terminating this Lease without notice to that effect to the Tenant;
- (b) to enter the Premises as agent of the Tenant to do any or all of the following: (i) re-let the Premises for whatever length and on such terms as the Landlord, in its discretion, may determine, and to receive the rent therefor; (ii) take possession of any property of the Tenant on the Premises, store such property at the expense and risk of the Tenant, and sell or otherwise dispose of such property in such manner as the Landlord sees fit without notice to the Tenant; (iii) make alterations to the Premises to facilitate their reletting; and (iv) apply the proceeds of any such sale or reletting first, to the payment of any expenses incurred by the Landlord with respect to any such reletting or sale, second, to the payment of any indebtedness of the Tenant to the Landlord other than Rent, and third, to the payment of Rent in arrears, with the residue to be held by the Landlord and applied to payment of future Rent as it becomes due and payable, provided that the Tenant shall remain liable for any deficiency to the Landlord;

- (c) to remedy or attempt to remedy any default of the Tenant under this Lease for the account of the Tenant and to enter upon the Premises for such purposes. No notice of the Landlord's intention to remedy or attempt to remedy such default need be given to the Tenant unless expressly required by this Lease, and the Landlord shall not be liable to the Tenant for any loss, injury or damages caused by acts of the Landlord in remedying or attempting to remedy such default. The Tenant shall pay to the Landlord all expenses reasonably incurred by the Landlord in connection therewith;
- (d) to recover from the Tenant all damages, costs and expenses incurred by the Landlord as a result of any default by the Tenant; and
- (e) to recover from the Tenant the full amount of the current month's Rent together with the next three (3) months' instalments of Rent, all of which shall immediately become due and payable as accelerated Rent.

13.3 Distress

Notwithstanding any provision of this Lease or any provision of any applicable legislation, none of the goods and chattels of the Tenant on the Premises at any time during the Term shall be exempt from levy by distress for Rent in arrears, and the Tenant waives any such exemption. If the Landlord makes any claim against the goods and chattels of the Tenant by way of distress, this provision may be pleaded as an estoppel against the Tenant in any action brought to test the right of the Landlord to levy such distress.

13.4 Costs

The Tenant shall pay to the Landlord all damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, all reasonable legal fees on a solicitor-and-client basis) incurred by the Landlord in enforcing the terms of this Lease, or with respect to any matter or thing which is the obligation of the Tenant under this Lease, or in respect of which the Tenant has agreed to insure or to indemnify the Landlord.

13.5 Remedies Cumulative

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease, the Landlord may from time to time resort to any or all of the rights and remedies available to it in the event of any default hereunder by the Tenant, either by any provision of this Lease, by statute, or common law, all of which rights and remedies are intended to be cumulative and not alternative. The express provisions contained in this Lease as to certain rights and remedies are not to be interpreted as excluding any other or additional rights and remedies available to the Landlord by statute or common law.

Article 14 — General

14.1 Entry

(1) Provided that the Tenant has not exercised any option to extend this Lease as provided herein, the Landlord shall be entitled at any time during the last six (6) months of the Term:

- (a) without notice to or consent by the Tenant to place on the exterior of the Premises the Landlord's usual notice(s) that the Premises are for rent; and

- (b) on no less than twenty-four (24) hours prior notice to the Tenant, to enter upon the Premises during normal business hours for the purpose of exhibiting same to prospective tenants.

(2) The Landlord may enter the Premises at any time during the Term, on no less than twenty-four (24) hours prior notice to the Tenant, for the purpose of exhibiting the Premises to prospective Mortgagees and/or purchasers, or for the purpose of inspecting the Premises. The Landlord shall have the right to place on the Premises a "for sale" sign of reasonable dimensions.

14.2 Force Majeure

Notwithstanding any other provision contained herein, in the event that either the Landlord or the Tenant should be delayed, hindered or prevented from the performance of any act required hereunder by reason of any unavoidable delay, including strikes, lockouts, unavailability of materials, inclement weather, acts of God or any other cause beyond its reasonable care and control, but not including insolvency or lack of funds, then performance of such act shall be postponed for a period of time equivalent to the time lost by reason of such delays. The provisions of this Section 14.2 shall not under any circumstances operate to excuse the Tenant from prompt payment of Rent and/or any other charges payable under this Lease.

14.3 Effect of Waiver or Forbearance

No waiver by any party of any breach by any other party of any of its covenants, agreements or obligations contained in this Lease shall be or be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach thereof or the breach of any other covenants, agreements or obligations, nor shall any forbearance by any party to seek a remedy for any breach by any other party be a waiver by the party so forbearing of its rights and remedies with respect to such breach or any subsequent breach. The subsequent acceptance of Rent by the Landlord shall not be deemed a waiver of any preceding breach by the Tenant of any term, covenant or condition regardless of the Landlord's knowledge of such preceding breach at the time of the acceptance of such Rent. All Rent and other charges payable by the Tenant to the Landlord hereunder shall be paid without any deduction, set-off or abatement whatsoever, and the Tenant waives the benefit of any statutory or other right in respect of abatement or set-off in its favour at the time hereof or at any future time.

14.4 Notices

(1) Any notice, delivery, payment or tender of money or document(s) to the parties hereunder may be delivered personally or sent by prepaid registered or certified mail or prepaid courier to the address for such party as set out in Section 1.1(a) or (b), as applicable, and any such notice, delivery or payment so delivered or sent shall be deemed to have been given or made and received upon delivery of same or on the third business day following the mailing of same, as the case may be. Each party may, by notice in writing to the others from time to time, designate an alternative address in Canada to which notices given more than ten (10) days thereafter shall be addressed.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, any notice, delivery, payment or tender of money or document(s) to be given or made to any party hereunder during any disruption in the service of the Canada Post Office shall be deemed to have been received only if delivered personally or sent by prepaid courier.

14.5 Registration

Neither the Tenant nor anyone on the Tenant's behalf or claiming under the Tenant (including any Transferee) shall register this Lease or any Transfer against the Premises. The Tenant may register a notice or caveat based on this Lease provided that: (a) a copy of the Lease is not attached; (b) no financial terms are disclosed; (c) the Landlord gives its prior written approval to the notice or caveat based on this Lease; and (d) the Tenant pays the Landlord's reasonable costs on account of the matter. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Term, the Tenant shall immediately discharge or otherwise vacate any such registered notice or caveat.

14.6 Number, Gender, Effect of Headings

Words importing the singular number only shall include the plural and vice versa, words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine and neuter genders, and words importing persons shall include firms and corporations and vice versa. The division of this Lease into Articles and Sections and the insertion of headings are for convenience of reference only, and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of this Lease.

14.7 Severability, Subdivision Control

If any Article or Section or part or parts of an Article or Section in this Lease is or is held to be illegal or unenforceable, it or they shall be considered separate and severable from the Lease and the remaining provisions of this Lease shall remain in full force and effect and shall be binding on the Landlord and the Tenant as though such Article or Section or part or parts thereof had never been included in this Lease. It is an express condition of this Lease that the subdivision control provisions of the applicable provincial legislation be complied with, if necessary. If such compliance is necessary, the Tenant covenants and agrees to diligently proceed, at its own expense, to obtain the required consent, and the Landlord agrees to cooperate with the Tenant in bringing such application.

14.8 Entire Agreement

(2) Extension

1st Extension Option

Provided the Tenant (a) is in occupation of the whole of the Leased Premises and (b) is not then in material default under this Lease, the Tenant shall have option exercisable on no less than 6 months and no more than 12 months written notice to the Landlord prior to the expiry of Term to extend the Lease with respect to the Leased Premises for one (1) additional term of five (5) years on the same terms and conditions outlined in this Lease save and except that:

- (i) this 1st Extension Option clause shall not be included;
- (ii) there shall be no clause providing for "tenant inducements" (whether for cash allowances, Landlord construction or fixturing, rent free periods or otherwise);
- (iii) the Basic Rent for the extended term shall be agreed to between the parties. If the parties are unable to agree on the Basic Rent for the extended term on or before the date that is sixty (60) days prior to the commencement of the extended term, then such Basic Rent shall be determined by arbitration before a sole arbitrator in accordance with the applicable legislation in force in the Province of Alberta; and
- (iv) in no event shall the Basic Rent as determined by agreement or arbitration be less than that reserved under the Lease for the last year of the previous term.

2nd Extension Option

Provided the Tenant: (a) properly exercised the 1st Extension Option; (b) is in occupation of the whole of the Leased Premises; and (c) is not then in material default under this Lease, the Tenant shall have option exercisable on no less than 6 months and no more than 12 months written notice to the Landlord prior to the expiry of the last renewed term to extend the Lease with respect to the Leased Premises for one (1) additional term of five years on the same terms and conditions outlined in this Lease save and except that:

- (i) the 1st Extension Option clause and the 2nd Extension Option clause shall not be included;

If the parties are unable to agree on the Basic Rent for the extended term on or before the date that is sixty (60) days prior to the commencement of the extended term, then such Basic Rent shall be determined by arbitration before a sole arbitrator in accordance with the applicable legislation in force in the Province of Alberta; and
- (iv) in no event shall the Basic Rent as determined by agreement or arbitration be less than that reserved under the Lease for the last year of the previous term.

(3) Right of First Refusal (“ROF”)– Sale of Premises

If at any time during the Term of this Lease, the Landlord wishes to sell the Premises or receives an offer to purchase (the “Purchase Offer”) which it is prepared to accept, the following conditions shall apply:

- (a) The Landlord shall deliver a written offer to sell the Premises to the Tenant (the “Offer to Sell”). The Offer to Sell shall set forth the purchase price and all other terms and conditions (including closing arrangements) upon which the Landlord is prepared to sell the Premises. The Offer to Sell shall provide for a closing date of not sooner than thirty (30) days from the date of delivery of the Offer to Sell. In the event the Landlord has received a Purchase Offer, the terms and conditions of sale (including the price) set out in the Offer to Sell shall be the terms and conditions contained in such Purchase Offer;
- (b) The Tenant shall have the right to purchase the Premises in accordance with the price and terms and conditions in the Offer to Sell, by delivery to the Landlord of a written acceptance of the Offer to Sell within thirty (30) days following receipt by the Tenant of the Offer to Sell;
- (c) In the event that the Tenant elects to purchase the Premises by providing the acceptance within the prescribed time, the purchase and sale shall be completed and closed in accordance with the terms and conditions in the Offer to Sell;
- (d) In the event that the Tenant does not elect to purchase the Premises offered for sale to them in the Offer to Sell (by rejecting the Offer to Sell or failing to provide the acceptance within the prescribed time), the Landlord shall be free to sell the Premises to a third party at a price not less than the price set forth in the Offer to Sell and on terms and conditions not more favourable to the third party than the terms and conditions of the Offer to Sell. If the Landlord is unable to sell the Premises to a third party on the terms and conditions (including price) set forth in the Offer to Sell within one hundred twenty (120) days of the date of the Offer to Sell, or wishes to sell the Premises for a lower price or on terms and conditions more favourable to the third party purchaser than the terms and conditions of the Offer to Sell, the Landlord shall be required, before effecting such a sale, to again first offer to sell the Premises to Tenant in the manner provided herein.

1.2 Conditions and Exceptions. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary:

- (a) the Tenant shall not be entitled to accept an Offer to Sell if it is in default of the terms and conditions of this Lease; and
- (b) a sale, transfer or assignment by the Landlord to Gerald Gagnon, a child or spouse of Gerald Gagnon or any entity controlled by any of them, shall not trigger the terms of this ROF provided that such non-arm's length person or entity agrees to be bound by the terms of this Lease (including, without limitation, the ROF).

For certainty, the ROF shall not apply to any lands owned by the Landlord except for the Premises, notwithstanding their inclusion in a larger sale of other lands owned by the Landlord comprising a Purchase Offer or Offer to Sell.

(4) Water Well

There is a private water well on the lands comprising the Premises (the "Excluded Property"). The Excluded Property is not hereby leased to the Tenant and the Tenant shall not be responsible for or otherwise grant any covenant in respect of the Excluded Property. The Landlord shall retain all right to the private well and retain the ability to access the Excluded Property during the Term. The Tenant shall provide access to the Landlord and its agents to the Premises for the purpose of accessing and utilizing the Excluded Property (including, without limitation, to use same to supply water to an adjacent property) provided that: (1) the Tenant shall not have any responsibility or liability whatsoever to the Landlord or any party whatsoever in respect of or arising out of the Excluded Property, and (2) the Landlord shall release, indemnify and hold harmless the Tenant in respect of any loss or damage occasioned by the Landlord or its agents exercising this right of access and use to the Excluded Property during the term of this Lease.

  - (ii) dealing with filings, registrations, emissions, discharges, spills, releases or threatened releases of Hazardous Substances or materials containing Hazardous Substances; and/or
  - (iii) regulating the import, storage, distribution, labelling, sale, use, handling, transport or disposal of a Hazardous Substance; and

- (b) "Hazardous Substance" means any substance capable of posing a risk or damage to health, safety, property or the environment including, without limitation, any contaminant, pollutant, dangerous or potentially dangerous substance, noxious substance, toxic substance, hazardous waste, flammable or explosive material, radioactive material, urea formaldehyde foam insulation, asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls, polychlorinated biphenyl waste, polychlorinated biphenyl related waste, and any other substance or material now or hereafter declared, defined or deemed to be regulated or controlled under any Environmental Law.

2. Compliance with Environmental Laws

Without limiting any other obligation of the Tenant in this Lease, the Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall, at its sole cost and expense, observe and otherwise comply with, and require those for whom it is responsible at law to observe and comply with all Environmental Laws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Tenant covenants and agrees that:

- (a) it shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Substance to be brought into, stored, kept or used in or about the Premises or any part thereof, other than any Hazardous Substance that is used in the ordinary course of the permitted use being carried on at the Premises and which is stored, kept and used in strict compliance with all Environmental Laws pertaining thereto;

3. Notice of Orders

The Tenant shall promptly (and in any event not later than five (5) business days) provide the Landlord with written notice of any order, direction, notice of default or notice of legal action received by the Tenant pursuant to any Environmental Laws and relating to the Premises, the use and occupation of the Premises or the business carried on at the Premises.

4. Right of Inspection

The Landlord and its mortgagees and their agents, servants, employees and representatives shall have the right (but not the obligation), from time to time, to inspect (including the right to conduct an environmental audit or assessment at its sole cost and expense) the Premises for the purpose of determining whether the Tenant is in compliance with its obligations in this Article. Where the inspection is conducted in response to the Landlord's reasonable suspicion, based on information and evidence, that the Tenant has caused or is causing environmental harm to the Premises in contravention of Environmental Law or that will require immediate remediation, the Tenant shall pay, as Additional Rent, any reasonable costs incurred by the Landlord in making such inspections (including the costs of the initial environmental audit or assessment) of the Premises if, by virtue of said inspection, the Tenant is determined to be in default under this Lease. Such costs shall be paid forthwith on demand. The Tenant authorizes the Landlord to make inquiries from time to time with any governmental authority having jurisdiction in respect of matters relating to the Tenant's compliance with Environmental Laws at the Premises, and the Tenant agrees to provide any further authorizations as may be required to facilitate the obtaining of such information.

5. Rectification of Breach

In the event that it is determined by the Landlord pursuant to the process set forth in Section 4 hereof and acting in a commercially reasonable manner that the Tenant is in breach of its obligations in this Article, the Landlord may, without limiting any other rights or remedies, provide the Tenant with notice in writing of the breach, and the Tenant shall commence to rectify such breach at the Tenant's sole cost and expense, and shall complete such rectification as soon as reasonably possible. In the event that the Tenant does not commence to rectify such breach, the Landlord may, at its option and in its sole discretion, terminate this Lease without any further notice, or may rectify such breach at the cost of the Tenant, and the Tenant shall forthwith, on demand, reimburse the Landlord for the cost of rectification. Such amount shall be payable and collectible as Additional Rent.

6. Remediation

If any governmental authority shall require the clean-up of any Hazardous Substance held, released, spilled, abandoned or placed on the Premises or released into the environment by the

Tenant or any party for whom the Tenant is responsible at law, the Tenant shall, at its own expense: (a) prepare or requisition all necessary studies, plans and proposals required as a result thereof; (b) obtain all necessary approvals of such authorities required to complete the remediation to the standards required by all Environmental Laws; (c) provide all bonds and other security required by such authorities in connection with the foregoing; and (d) carry out and complete the remediation to the standards required by all Environmental Laws. The Tenant shall also provide the Landlord with copies of the plans and proposals and keep the Landlord advised from time to time as to the status of its remediation and other work.

7. Hazardous Substances Remain Property of Tenant

If the Tenant or any party for whom the Tenant is responsible at law creates or brings to the Premises any Hazardous Substance, or if the conduct of business at the Premises shall cause there to be any Hazardous Substance at the Premises, then, notwithstanding any provision in this Lease or rule of law to the contrary, such Hazardous Substance shall be and remain the sole and exclusive property of the Tenant, and shall not become the property of the Landlord notwithstanding the degree of affixation to the Premises of the Hazardous Substance or the goods containing the Hazardous Substance, and notwithstanding the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

8. Tenant Indemnity

The Tenant agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Landlord, its mortgagees, and their agents, servants, employees and others for whom Landlord is in law responsible, against any and all liabilities, claims, damages, interest, penalties, fines, monetary sanctions, losses, costs and expenses whatsoever (including, without limitation, reasonable costs of professional advisors, consultants and experts in respect of any investigation, and all costs all remediation and other clean-up costs and expenses) arising in any manner whatsoever out of any breach by the Tenant or any party for whom the Tenant is responsible at law of any provisions of this Schedule, or any non-compliance by the Tenant or any party for whom the Tenant is responsible at law, with any Environmental Law, except to the extent that such things are insured against by the Landlord but only to the extent of insurance proceeds received by the Landlord. For further clarity, in such events the Tenant shall be responsible for the deductible.

9. Limitation of Tenant Liability

Notwithstanding anything in this schedule to the contrary, the Tenant shall have no obligations with respect to Hazardous Substances located on, in, above or under the Premises prior to the Commencement Date of this Lease, and the Landlord agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Tenant from and against claims under any Environmental Laws, or third party claims, with respect to said pre-existing Hazardous Substances.

10. Survival of Obligations

The covenants and agreements of, and indemnification by, the Tenant and the Landlord contained in this Schedule "C" shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary.

Subject to Schedule "C", the Tenant accepts the Premises "as is, where is" in their state and condition existing at the Commencement Date.

2.3 Delay in Possession

Should the Tenant be delayed by any fault of the Landlord or any other reason (other than the fault of the Tenant) in taking possession of the Premises at the start of the Commencement Date, then and only then shall the start of the Commencement Date and the Term be postponed for the same number of days that the Tenant is delayed in taking possession.

2.4 Overholding

This Lease shall automatically terminate on the last day of the Term or any extension thereof and any occupancy of the Premises by the Tenant after that date shall not have the effect of extending or renewing the Lease for any period of time, whether by way of tacit renewal at law or otherwise. The Tenant shall in such case be deemed to be occupying the Leased Premises against the will of the Landlord, who shall have the right to avail itself of any and all recourse provided by law to evict the Tenant and claim for damages. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Tenant does in fact remain in possession of the Leased Premises after the Term prior to eviction by the Landlord as aforesaid, the Tenant will be deemed to be occupying the Leased Premises as a month to month tenant. The monthly Rent, payable in advance on the first day of each month, will be equal to the total of: (a) one hundred and fifty percent (150%) of the Base Rent payable for the last month of the Term, and (b) an amount equal to the Additional Rent payable for the last month of the Term. All of the other provisions of this Lease will apply as far as practicable, to a month to month tenancy. This Section 2.4 shall survive the expiry or termination of this Lease. Nothing in this Section 2.4 shall be interpreted or deemed as permitting the Tenant to overhold the Premises.

3.1 Covenant to Pay, Net Lease

The Tenant covenants to pay Rent as provided in this Lease. It is the intention of the parties that the Rent provided to be paid shall be net to the Landlord and clear of all taxes, costs and charges arising from or relating to the Premises, and that the Tenant shall pay, as Additional Rent, all charges, impositions and expenses of every nature and kind relating to the Premises (except the Landlord's income taxes, and except as otherwise specifically provided) in the manner hereinafter provided, and the Tenant covenants with the Landlord accordingly. For certainty, the Tenant will pay GST on Rent and any other GST imposed by the applicable legislation on the Tenant in respect of this Lease, in the manner and at such times directed by the applicable legislation. The Landlord will have all of the same remedies and rights of recovery from the Tenant in respect thereof as it has in respect of non-payment of Rent hereunder.

3.2 Rental Taxes

The Tenant will pay to the Landlord the Rental Taxes assessed upon: (a) the Rent; (b) the Landlord; and/or (c) the Tenant pursuant to the laws, rules and regulations governing the administration of the Rental Taxes by the authority having jurisdiction, and as such may be amended from time to time during the Term of this Lease or any extension thereof. The Rental Taxes shall not be deemed to be Additional Rent under this Lease but may be recovered by the Landlord as though they were Additional Rent.

3.3 Payment Method

The Landlord may at any time, and from time to time, require the Tenant to provide to the Landlord either: (a) a series of monthly postdated cheques, each cheque in the amount of the monthly instalment of Rent; or (b) authorization and documentation required to automatically debit the Tenant's bank account for such amounts. In the event of any change in the estimates of Additional Rent, the Landlord may require a new series of monthly postdated cheques or new documentation (as applicable).

3.4 Deposit

Simultaneously with the Tenant's execution of this Lease, the Tenant shall deposit with the Landlord the Deposit as security for the performance by the Tenant of all of the Tenant's obligations, covenants, conditions, and agreements under this Lease. The Landlord shall not be required to maintain the Deposit in a separate account. If an Event of Default occurs under this Lease by the Tenant, Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, to use, apply, or retain all or any portion of the Deposit for the payment of: (i) Rent, Additional Rent or any other sum as to which the Tenant is in default; or (ii) the amount the Landlord spends or may become obligated to spend, or to compensate the Landlord for any losses incurred by reason of the Tenant's default. If any portion of the Deposit is so used or applied, then within fifteen (15) after the Landlord gives the Tenant written notice, the Tenant shall deposit with the Landlord cash in an amount sufficient to restore the Deposit to the original amount. The Tenant's failure to do so shall constitute an Event of Default under this Lease. The Deposit is non-refundable and shall be applied against any unpaid Rent. In the event that the Deposit has not been used or applied on account of other indebtedness, as herein provided, the Deposit shall be applied against the last two months' Rent, without prejudice to the Landlord's right to demand restoration of the Deposit as herein provided.

3.5 Rent Past Due

If the Tenant fails to pay any Rent when the same is due and payable, such unpaid amount shall bear interest at the rate of eighteen percent (18%) per annum (calculated monthly at the rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%)), such interest to be calculated from the time such Rent becomes due until paid by the Tenant.

3.6 Partial Periods

If the Term commences on any day other than the first day of the month, or ends on any day other than the last day of the month, Rent for the fractions of a month at the commencement and at the end of the Term shall be calculated on a pro rata basis and shall be payable on the first day of the partial month.

4.1 Basic Rent

The Tenant covenants and agrees to pay, from and after the Commencement Date, to the Landlord at the office of the Landlord, or to such other person or at such other location as the Landlord shall direct by notice in writing, in lawful money of Canada, without any prior demand therefor and without any deduction, abatement or set-off whatsoever, as annual Basic Rent, the sum(s) set out in Section 1.1(f) of this Lease in equal monthly instalments in advance in the amount(s) set out in Section 1.1(f), on the first day of each and every month during the Term.

4.2 Calculation of Fair Market Rent

For the purposes of determining Fair Market Rent the Landlord and the Tenant shall, in the first instance, use reasonable efforts to reach a mutual agreement as to the amount of Fair Market Rent. If the Landlord and the Tenant cannot agree in writing to the Fair Market Rent for the Premises three (3) months prior to commencement of the second five (5) years of the Term, Fair Market Rent shall be determined as follows:

- (a) The Landlord shall within fifteen (15) days deliver a notice (the “Appraisal Notice”) to the Tenant naming three (3) qualified arms’ length third party appraisers whom the Landlord proposes to determine the Fair Market Rent for the Premises (the “Determination”);
- (b) the Tenant shall, within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Appraisal Notice, deliver a notice to the Landlord wherein the Tenant shall accept the appointment of one of the three (3) appraisers named in the Appraisal Notice (the “Chosen Nominee”), in which case the Chosen Nominee so designated shall forthwith conduct the Determination. If, however, within the said fifteen (15) day period referred to above the Tenant shall fail to accept the appointment of one of the three (3) named appraisers, then the Landlord shall be entitled, within seven (7) days of the expiration of such fifteen (15) day period, to designate one (1) of the appraisers as the Chosen Nominee, and the Chosen Nominee so designated by the Landlord shall forthwith conduct the Determination;

- (c) as soon as the Chosen Nominee has been selected in accordance with the foregoing provisions the Determination shall be conducted in accordance with the terms hereof and a written report (the "Report") shall be delivered by the Chosen Nominee to each of the Tenant and the Landlord within thirty (30) days of the date of the selection of the Chosen Nominee;
- (d) the Chosen Nominee shall report to the Landlord and the Tenant, setting forth its opinion of the Fair Market Rent for the Premises as of the date of such Report. The Fair Market Rent for the Premises determined by the Chosen Nominee shall be final and binding on the Landlord and the Tenant; provided that if the Fair Market Rent determination by the Chosen Nominee is less than the Basic Rent during the first five (5) years of the Term, Fair Market Rent shall be deemed to be the Basic Rent during the first five (5) years of the Term; and
- (e) If Fair Market Rent has not been determined prior to commencement of the second five (5) years of the Term, the Tenant shall pay Basic Rent at an amount equal to the Basic Rent payable during the last year of the first five (5) years of the Term, and the parties shall readjust promptly upon such determination having been made with interest payable on the unpaid balance or deficiency paid by the Tenant as finally determined at the rate of five (5%) per annum.

The Landlord has all the rights against the Tenant for default in payment of Additional Rent that it has against the Tenant for default in payment of Basic Rent.

(3) Additional Rent shall be payable in advance on the Commencement Date and thereafter in monthly instalments on the first day of every month during the Term, based on the Landlord's estimates but subject to adjustment when the actual amounts are determined pursuant to Section 5.6 of this Lease. Additional Rent in the first year of the Lease is estimated to be $17,288.59 in the aggregate (comprised of $12,313.59 of applicable taxes and $4,975 for the Landlord's insurance), and $1,440.72 per month.

Prior to the commencement of each year, the Landlord shall estimate the amount of such equal monthly instalments and notify the Tenant in writing of such estimate. From time to time during the year, the Landlord may re-estimate the amounts payable for such year, in which event the Landlord shall notify the Tenant in writing of such re-estimate and fix monthly instalments for the remaining balance of such year; and
- (b) if the Landlord so directs, the Tenant shall pay Realty Taxes directly to the taxing

- (b) if the Landlord so directs, the Tenant shall reimburse it for the cost of insurance upon demand.

5.6 Annual Readjustment of Additional Rent

As soon as practicable after the expiration of each year, the Landlord shall make a final determination of Realty Taxes, and other Additional Rent, based on the actual costs incurred therefor by the Landlord, and shall notify the Tenant of such determination, providing reasonable details as to the breakdown and calculation thereof and, upon reasonable request, documentation in support of such costs. If there has been a shortfall in the amounts payable by the Tenant for such period, the Tenant shall pay such shortfall within thirty (30) days after delivery of the Landlord's notice. Any overpayment may be paid by the Landlord to the Tenant without interest, or credited to the Tenant's account and held by the Landlord without interest, to be applied to payments falling due under this Lease. In the event of any dispute, the report of the Landlord's auditor or accountant as to the Additional Rent shall be conclusive as to the amount thereof for any period to which such report relates. Neither the Landlord nor the Tenant may claim any adjustment on account of Additional Rent for any fiscal period more than two (2) years after the date of delivery of the statement for such period.

The Tenant shall contract with and pay the supplier directly. ### 6.2 No Overloading

The Tenant will not install any equipment which would exceed or overload the capacity of the utility facilities in the Premises or the electrical wiring and service in the Premises, and agrees that if any equipment installed by the Tenant shall require additional utility facilities, such facilities shall be installed, if available, and subject to the Landlord's prior written approval thereof (which approval may not be unreasonably withheld), at the Tenant's sole cost and expense in accordance with plans and specifications to be approved in advance by the Landlord, in writing.

6.3 Limit on Liability

Neither the Landlord nor the Tenant shall be liable for any loss of profits or business interruption, indirect or consequential damages in connection with this Lease.

6.4 Building Systems

Subject to Section 8.2 below, the Tenant shall, throughout the Term, operate, maintain, repair regulate and replace, if required, the Building Systems in a commercially reasonable manner as to maintain reasonable conditions of temperature and humidity within the Premises and so as to maintain the Building Systems in a good and working order, all consistent with the past practices of the Landlord. The Landlord and the Tenant shall, within sixty (60) days of the Commencement Date determine and agree on the applicable maintenance schedule and standards for such maintenance and repair obligations set forth in this Section 6.4, each acting reasonably and having regard for the practice of the Landlord and including, without limitation, the condition as at the Commencement Date of the applicable portions of the Building Systems comprising the Premises.

Article 7 — Use of Premises

7.2 Observance of Law

The Tenant shall, at its own expense, comply with all laws, by-laws, ordinances, regulations and directives of public authority having jurisdiction affecting the Premises or the use or occupation thereof including, without limitation, police, fire and health regulations and requirements of the fire insurance underwriters.

7.3 Waste, Nuisance, Overloading

The Tenant shall not do or suffer any waste or damage, disfiguration or injury to the Premises, nor permit or suffer any overloading of the floors, roof deck, walls or any other part of the Premises, and shall not use or permit to be used any part of the Premises for any illegal or unlawful purpose or any dangerous, noxious or offensive trade or business, and shall not cause or permit any nuisance in, at or on the Premises.

Article 8 — Maintenance, Repairs and Alterations of Premises

8.1 Tenant's Obligations

- (a) The Tenant covenants to keep, throughout the Term, the Premises in a good and reasonable state of repair and cleanliness consistent with the general standards applicable to buildings of a similar nature in the vicinity of the Premises and having regard to the permitted use of the Premises and the condition of the Premises as at the Commencement Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Tenant shall not be responsible for any items that are within the Landlord's Obligations pursuant to Section 8.2 of this Lease;
- (b) The obligations of the Tenant shall include, without limitation, snow removal and pest control for the Premises, routine maintenance, repair and replacement (if necessary) to the Premises including both the interior and exterior portions (for certainty, including the parking lot and yard area, overhead doors and exterior and interior doors and windows) thereof, gardening of the Premises and painting and decorating of the Premises;
- (c) The Tenant shall enter into an arrangement with a local certified and reputable contractor determined and agreed upon by the Landlord pursuant to Section 6.4 to provide maintenance of the HVAC Equipment. The Tenant shall promptly provide the Landlord with evidence of the completion of the aforementioned maintenance upon the written request of the Landlord; and
- (d) The Tenant shall arrange to have the wash bay pits vacuumed out by a reputable vac truck company and the waste therein properly disposed of as required.

8.2 Landlord's Obligations

The Landlord shall be responsible for the following without the ability to seek reimbursement from the Tenant arising from:

- (1) repairs of a capital nature;
- (2) repairs and replacements to the building forming part of the Premises arising from structural defects or weakness;

- (3) repairs to the structural portions of the roof system of the building forming part of the Premises (but excluding non-structural maintenance and repair of the roof and/or roof membrane which shall be included in Additional Rent);
- (4) repairs to the foundation, interior or exterior bearing walls supporting beams and columns to building forming part of the Premises;
- (5) any damage or loss to the Premises and/or the Tenant occasioned by the negligence or willful act of the Landlord or any party for whom the Landlord is at law responsible or a breach by the Landlord of any term, covenant or obligation under this Lease;

provided, however, if the Landlord is required to repair or replace structural portions or any portion of the Premises by reason of the negligent acts or omissions of the Tenant or any party for whom the Tenant is responsible at law, the expense of the necessary repairs shall be borne by the Tenant and paid on demand as Additional Rent, except to the extent such repair costs are insured against by the Landlord but only to the extent of insurance proceeds received by the Landlord. For further clarity, in such events the Tenant shall be responsible for the deductible.

8.3 Inspection and Repair on Notice

The Landlord, its servants, agents and contractors shall be entitled to enter upon the Premises at any time, without notice, for the purpose of making emergency repairs, and during normal business hours on no less than twenty-four (24) hours prior written notice to the Tenant, for the purpose of inspecting and making repairs, alterations or improvements to the Premises including repairs to the water well referred to in Schedule "B", or for the purpose of having access to the under-floor ducts, or to the access panels to mechanical shafts (which the Tenant agrees not to obstruct). The Tenant shall not be entitled to compensation for any inconvenience, nuisance or discomfort occasioned thereby.

The Landlord, its servants, agents and contractors may, at any time, and from time to time, on reasonable prior written notice, enter upon the Premises to remove any article or remedy any condition which, in the reasonable opinion of the Landlord, would likely lead to the cancellation of any policy of insurance. The Landlord will take reasonable precautions and attempt to schedule such work so as not to unreasonably interfere with the operation of the Tenant's business and to minimize interference with the Tenant's use and enjoyment of the Premises.

The Tenant shall promptly effect all repairs necessitated by the Tenant's negligence or wilful misconduct or the negligence or wilful misconduct of the Tenant's agents, servants, contractors, invitees, employees or others for whom the Tenant is in law responsible.

The Landlord and the Tenant shall comply with all provisions of applicable law related to the making of any repairs, replacements, alterations, changes, substitutions, improvements of or to the Premises.

8.4 Alterations

The Tenant will not make or erect in or to the Premises any installations, alterations, additions or partitions without first submitting drawings and specifications to the Landlord and obtaining the Landlord's prior written consent, which the Landlord shall not unreasonably withhold. The Tenant must further obtain the Landlord's prior written consent to any change or changes in such drawings and specifications. The Tenant will pay to the Landlord the Landlord's reasonable out-of-pocket costs of having its architects approve such drawings and specifications and any changes. Such work shall be performed by qualified contractors engaged by the Tenant (and approved by the Landlord), but in each case only under a written contract approved in writing by the Landlord and subject to all reasonable conditions which the Landlord may impose, provided nevertheless that the Landlord may, at its option, require that the Landlord's contractors be engaged for any structural, mechanical or electrical work. The Tenant shall submit to the Landlord's reasonable supervision over construction and promptly pay to the Landlord's or the Tenant's contractors, as the case may be, when due, the cost of all such work and of all materials, labour and services involved therein and of all decoration and all changes to the Premises, its equipment or services necessitated thereby.

8.5 Signs

The Tenant shall not paint, display, inscribe, place or affix any sign, picture, advertisement, notice, lettering or direction on any part of the outside of the Premises or that is visible from the outside of the Premises without the prior consent of the Landlord, not to be unreasonably withheld.

8.6 Construction Liens

If any construction or other liens or order for the payment of money shall be filed against the Premises by reason of or arising out of any labour or material furnished to the Tenant or to anyone claiming through the Tenant, the Tenant, within twenty-one (21) days after receipt of notice of the filing thereof, shall cause the same to be discharged by bonding, deposit, payment, court order or otherwise. The Tenant shall defend all suits to enforce such liens or orders against the Tenant at the Tenant's sole expense. The Tenant indemnifies the Landlord against any expense or damage incurred as a result of such liens or orders. In the event the Tenant does not cause the discharge of any liens or order for payment within the twenty-one (21) day period noted above, the Landlord may, in its sole discretion, elect to make such payment or take such action as may be necessary or expedient to discharge the lien, whether or not the validity of such lien is admitted or denied by the Tenant and whether or not the lien is valid, including but not limited to making direct payment to the lien claimant, and the Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all the Landlord's reasonable expenses incurred in so doing (including the amount of the lien) plus an administrative fee of 15%. The Tenant shall also pay interest on sums outstanding calculated at the rate of 18% per annum.

8.7 Removal of Improvements and Fixtures

(1) All Leasehold Improvements shall immediately upon their placement become the Landlord's property, without compensation to the Tenant. Except as otherwise agreed by the Landlord in writing, no Leasehold Improvements or trade fixtures shall be removed from the Premises by the Tenant, either during or upon the expiry or earlier termination of the Term, except that:

- (a) the Tenant may, during the Term, in the usual course of its business, remove its trade fixtures, provided that the Tenant is not in default under this Lease and, at the end of the Term, the Tenant shall remove its trade fixtures; and
- (b) the Tenant shall, at its sole cost, remove such of the Leasehold Improvements as the

Landlord shall require to be removed, such removal to be completed on or before the end of the Term.

(2) The Tenant shall, at its own expense, repair any damage caused to the Premises by the Leasehold Improvements or trade fixtures or the removal thereof. In the event that the Tenant fails to remove its trade fixtures prior to the expiry or earlier termination of the Term, such trade fixtures shall, at the option of the Landlord, become the property of the Landlord and may be removed from the Premises and sold or disposed of by the Landlord in such manner as it deems advisable. For greater certainty, the Tenant's trade fixtures shall not include any Building Systems or light fixtures. The Landlord shall be under no obligation to repair or maintain the Leasehold Improvements, the Tenant's trade fixtures or any other items installed by the Tenant except, for certainty, solely to the extent the damage is caused by the negligence or willful act of the Landlord or those for whom it is at law responsible.

8.8 Surrender of Premises

At the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, the Tenant shall peaceably surrender and give up unto the Landlord vacant possession of the Premises in the same condition and state of repair as the Tenant is required to maintain the Premises throughout the Term and in accordance with its obligations in Section 8.7, subject to normal wear and tear and with regard to the age and condition of such facilities as at the Commencement Date.

Article 9 — Insurance and Indemnity

9.1 Tenant's Insurance

(1) The Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, take out and maintain in full force and effect, at all times throughout the Term, the following insurance:

- (a) "All Risks" insurance on property of every description and kind owned by the Tenant, or for which the Tenant is legally liable, or which is installed by or on behalf of the Tenant, within the Premises including, without limitation, stock-in-trade, furniture, equipment, partitions, trade fixtures and Leasehold Improvements, in an amount not less than the full replacement cost thereof from time to time;
- (b) general liability and property damage insurance, including personal liability, contractual liability, tenants' legal liability, non-owned automobile liability, and owners' and contractors' protective insurance coverage with respect to the Premises, which coverage shall include the business operations conducted by the Tenant and any other person on the Premises. Such policies shall be written on a comprehensive basis with coverage for any one occurrence or claim of not less than five million dollars ($5,000,000) or such higher limits as the Landlord may reasonably require from time to time;
- (c) when applicable, broad form comprehensive boiler and machinery insurance on a blanket repair and replacement basis, with limits for each accident in an amount not less than the full replacement costs of the property, with respect to all boilers and machinery owned or operated by the Tenant or by others (other than the Landlord) on behalf of the Tenant in the Premises or relating to or serving the Premises;

- (d) business interruption insurance in an amount sufficient to cover the Tenant's Rent for a period of not less than twelve (12) months;
- (e) plate glass insurance with respect to all glass windows and glass doors in or on the Premises for the full replacement value thereof; and
- (f) such other forms of insurance as may be reasonably required by the Landlord and any Mortgagee from time to time.

(2) All such insurance shall be with insurers and shall be upon such terms and conditions as the Landlord reasonably approves. The insurance described in Sections 9.1(a) and 9.1(c) shall name as loss payee the Landlord and anyone else with an interest in the Premises from time to time designated in writing by the Landlord, and shall provide that any proceeds recoverable in the event of damage to Leasehold Improvements shall be payable to the Landlord. The insurance described in Sections 9.1(b) and 9.1(d) shall name as an additional insured the Landlord and anyone else with an interest in the Premises from time to time designated in writing by the Landlord. The Landlord agrees to make available such proceeds toward repair or replacement of the insured property if this Lease is not terminated pursuant to the terms of this Lease. All public liability insurance shall contain a provision for cross-liability or severability of interest as between the Landlord and the Tenant.

(3) All of the foregoing property policies shall contain a waiver of any right of subrogation or recourse by the Tenant's insurers against the Landlord or the Landlord's mortgagees, their contractors, agents and employees, whether or not any loss is caused by the act, omission or negligence of the Landlord, its mortgagees, their contractors, agents or employees. The Tenant shall obtain from the insurers under such policies undertakings to notify the Landlord in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to any cancellation thereof. The Tenant shall furnish to the Landlord, on written request, certificates of all such policies. The Tenant agrees that if it fails to take out or to keep in force such insurance or if it fails to provide a certificate of every policy and evidence of continuation of coverage as herein provided, the Landlord shall have the right to take out such insurance and pay the premium therefor and, in such event, the Tenant shall pay to the Landlord the amount paid as premium plus fifteen percent (15%), which payment shall be deemed to be Additional Rent payable on the first day of the next month following payment by the Landlord.

9.2 Landlord's Insurance

The Landlord shall maintain insurance on the Premises against loss, damage or destruction caused by fire and extended perils under a standard extended form of fire insurance policy in such amounts and on such terms and conditions as would be carried by a prudent owner of a similar building, having regard to the size, age and location of the Premises. The amount of insurance to be obtained shall be determined at the sole discretion of the Landlord. The Landlord may maintain such other insurance in respect of the Premises and its operation and management as the Landlord determines, acting reasonably. The Tenant shall not be an insured under the policies with respect to the Landlord's insurance, nor shall it be deemed to have any insurable interest in the property covered by such policies, or any other right or interest in such policies or their proceeds.

9.3 Increase of Landlord Premiums

If the occupancy of the Premises, the conduct of business in the Premises, or any acts or omissions of the Tenant in the Premises or any part thereof, causes or results in any increase in premiums for the insurance carried from time to time by the Landlord with respect to the Premises, the Tenant shall pay any such increase in premiums as Additional Rent forthwith after invoices for such additional premiums are rendered by the Landlord. In determining whether increased premiums are caused by or result from the use and occupancy of the Premises, a schedule issued by the organization computing the insurance rate on the Premises showing the various components of such rate shall be conclusive evidence of the several items and charges which make up such rate. The Tenant shall comply promptly with all requirements and recommendations of the Insurer's Advisory Organization of Canada (or any successor thereof), or of any insurer now or hereafter in effect, pertaining to or affecting the Premises.

9.4 Tenant Indemnity

Subject to Section 9.6 hereof, the Tenant will indemnify the Landlord and save it harmless from and against any and all losses or claims, actions, demands, liabilities and expenses (including, without limitation, those in connection with bodily injury (including death), personal injury, illness or discomfort or damage to property and legal fees on a solicitor-client basis, suffered by or imposed upon the Landlord or its property, either directly or indirectly, in respect of any matter or thing: (a) arising out of any occurrence in or about the Premises; (b) occasioned or caused wholly or in part by any act or omission of the Tenant, its officers, employees, agents, contractors, invitees, licensees or by or anyone for whom it is in law responsible; or (c) arising from any breach by the Tenant of any provisions of this Lease, except to the extent that any such liabilities, claims or expenses are caused by, arise by reason of or in connection with the negligence or intentional act of the Landlord or those for whom the Landlord is in law responsible. This indemnity shall survive the termination or expiry of this Lease.

9.5 Landlord Indemnity

Subject to Sections 9.6 and 9.7 hereof, the Landlord will indemnify the Tenant and save it harmless from and against any and all losses or claims, actions, demands, liabilities and expenses, including reasonable legal fees on a solicitor-client basis, suffered by or imposed upon the Tenant or its property, either directly or indirectly, in respect of any matter or thing, to the extent that they are sustained, paid or incurred by reason of or otherwise attributable to: (a) the negligence or willful acts or omissions of the Landlord or anyone for whom it is in law responsible, or (b) arising from the breach by the Landlord of any provisions of this Lease. This indemnity shall survive the termination or expiry of this Lease.

9.6 Mutual Release

Each of the Landlord and the Tenant releases the other and waives all claims against the other and those for whom the other is in law responsible with respect to occurrences insured against or required to be insured against by the releasing party under this Lease, subject to the following:

- (a) such release and waiver shall be effective only to the extent of proceeds of insurance received by the releasing party; and
- (b) to the extent that both parties have insurance or are required to have insurance for any occurrence, the Tenant's insurance shall be primary.

9.7 Release of Landlord

Except for claims, actions, causes of action, damages, demands for damages and other liabilities resulting from: (i) the negligence or willful acts or omissions of the Landlord or anyone for whom it is in law responsible, or (ii) arising from the breach by the Landlord of any provisions of this Lease (all of the foregoing referred to herein as the “Tenant Exceptions”), the Tenant hereby releases the Landlord from any and all claims, actions, causes of action, damages, demands for damages and other liabilities, that may be made by the Tenant against the Landlord under the provisions of this Lease. The Tenant agrees that the Landlord, except to the extent arising from the Tenant Exceptions, shall not be liable for and hereby releases the Landlord from:

- (a) any and all claims, actions, causes of action, damages, demands for damages and other liabilities:
  - (i) for or related to any bodily injury, personal injury, illness or discomfort to or death of the Tenant or any of its agents, officers, contractors, employees, invitees, licensees and any other Person for whom the Tenant is legally responsible in or about the Premises; and
  - (ii) for or related to any loss or damage to property owned by the Tenant or by others and for which property the Tenant is responsible in or about the Premises, and, without limiting the foregoing, the Landlord shall not be liable for any damage caused by steam, water, rain or snow which may leak into, issue or flow from part of the the Premises, or from the pipes or plumbing works thereof, or from any other place or for any damage caused by or attributable to the condition or arrangement of any electric or other wiring;
- (b) any loss or damage caused as a result of any damage, destruction, construction, alternation, expansion, expropriation, reduction, repair or reconstruction from time to time of the Premises, any parts or components of the Premises or of improvements on adjoining properties;
- (c) any act or omission (including theft, malfeasance or negligence) on the part of any agent, contractor or person from time to time employed by Landlord to perform work in or about the Premises;
- (d) any loss or damage, however caused, to books of account, records, files, money, securities, negotiable instruments, papers, computer disks, tapes, software, data and other electronic files and their storage media of any kind or to other valuables of the Tenant including art, artworks, statuary, antiques, gems and precious metals of the Tenant and of others; and
- (e) any loss or damage arising from obstruction of deliveries to or from the Premises or interruption, cessation, faulty operation, breakdown or failure of any building systems, including but limited to, the supply of any utilities, telecommunication services (whether controlled or owned by the Landlord or not) or other services in, to or serving the Premises, whether they are supplied by the Landlord or by others.

Article 10 — Assignment and Subletting

10.1 Assignment, Subletting

The Tenant shall not effect any Transfer without the prior written consent of the Landlord. No consent to any Transfer shall of itself relieve the Tenant from its obligation to pay Rent and to perform all of the covenants, terms and conditions herein contained. In the event of a Transfer, the Landlord may collect Rent or sums on account of Rent from the Transferee and apply the net amount collected to the Rent payable hereunder, but no such Transfer or collection, or acceptance of the Transferee as tenant, shall be deemed to be a waiver of this covenant.

10.2 Landlord's Consent

If the Tenant desires to effect a Transfer, then and so often as such event shall occur, the Tenant shall make its request to the Landlord in writing. The Tenant's request shall contain the information required by Section 10.3 of this Lease. The Landlord shall, within fourteen (14) days after receipt of such request, notify the Tenant in writing either that: (a) the Landlord consents or does not consent, as the case may be; or (b) the Landlord elects to cancel and terminate this Lease if the request is to assign the Lease or to sublet or otherwise transfer all of the Premises or, if the request is to sublet or otherwise transfer a portion of the Premises only, to cancel and terminate this Lease with respect to such portion. If the Landlord elects to cancel this Lease as aforesaid and so advises the Tenant in writing, the Tenant shall then notify the Landlord in writing within fifteen (15) days thereafter of the Tenant's intention either to refrain from such Transfer or to accept the cancellation of the Lease (in whole or in part, as the case may be). Failure of the Tenant to deliver notice to the Landlord within such fifteen (15) day period advising of the Tenant's desire to refrain from such Transfer shall be deemed to be an acceptance by the Tenant of the Landlord's cancellation of this Lease (in whole or in part, as the case may be). Any cancellation of this Lease pursuant to this Section 10.2 shall be effective on the later of the date originally proposed by the Tenant as being the effective date of the Transfer and the last day of the month sixty (60) days following the date of the Landlord's notice to cancel this Lease.

10.3 Requests for Consent

Requests by the Tenant for the Landlord's consent to a Transfer shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by the name, address, telephone numbers, business experience, credit and financial information and banking references of the Transferee, and shall include a true copy of the document evidencing the proposed Transfer, and any agreement relating thereto. The Tenant shall also provide such additional information pertaining to the Transferee as the Landlord may reasonably require. The Landlord's consent shall be conditional on the following:

- (a) the Tenant remaining fully liable to pay Rent and to perform all of the covenants, terms and conditions herein contained;
- (b) the Landlord being satisfied, acting reasonably, with the financial ability and good credit rating and standing of the Transferee and the ability of the Transferee to carry on the permitted use;
- (c) the Tenant having regularly and duly paid Rent and performed all the covenants contained in this Lease;

- (d) the Transferee having entered into an agreement with the Landlord agreeing to be bound by all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease;
- (e) the Tenant paying to the Landlord, prior to receiving such consent, and all reasonable legal fees and disbursements incurred by the Landlord in connection with the Transfer; and
- (f) the Tenant paying to the Landlord, as Additional Rent, fifty percent (50%) all excess rent earned by the Tenant in respect of the Transfer.

10.4 Change of Control

Any transfer or issue by sale, assignment, bequest, inheritance, operation of law, or other disposition, or by subscription, of any part or all of the corporate shares of the Tenant or any other corporation, which would result in any change in the effective direct or indirect control of the Tenant, shall be deemed to be a Transfer, and the provisions of this Article 10 shall apply mutatis mutandis. If the Landlord has a reasonable suspicion, based on information and evidence, that a change in control has occurred, the Tenant shall, upon request, provide to the Landlord such records of the Tenant as are reasonably necessary to determine if a change in control has occurred.

10.5 No Advertising

The Tenant shall not advertise that the whole or any part of the Premises is available for assignment or sublease, and shall not permit any broker or other person to do so unless the text and format of such advertisement is approved in writing by the Landlord. No such advertisement shall contain any reference to the rental rate of the Premises.

10.6 Assignment by Landlord

In the event of the sale or lease by the Landlord of its interest in the Premises or any part or parts thereof, and in conjunction therewith the assignment by the Landlord of this Lease or any interest of the Landlord herein, the Landlord shall be relieved of any liability under this Lease in respect of matters arising from and after such assignment provided the assignee agrees in writing with the Tenant to assume all responsibilities and obligations of the Landlord hereunder.

10.7 Status Certificate

The Tenant shall, within fifteen (15) days' notice from the Landlord, execute and deliver to the Landlord and/or as the Landlord may direct a statement as prepared by the Landlord in writing certifying the following: (a) that this Lease is unmodified and in full force and effect, or, if modified, stating the modifications and that the same is in full force and effect as modified; (b) the amount of the Basic Rent then being paid; (c) the dates to which Basic Rent, by instalments or otherwise, and Additional Rent and other charges hereunder have been paid; (d) whether or not there is any existing default on the part of the Landlord of which the Tenant has notice; and (e) any other information and particulars as the Landlord may reasonably request, in form and substance satisfactory to the Tenant, acting reasonably.

10.8 Subordination and Non-Disturbance

This Lease and all of the rights of the Tenant hereunder are, and shall at all times, be subject and subordinate to any and all Mortgages and any renewals or extensions thereof now or hereinafter in force against the Premises. On the request of the Landlord, the Tenant shall promptly subordinate this Lease and all its rights hereunder in such form or forms as the Landlord may require to any such Mortgage or Mortgages, and to all advances made or hereinafter to be made on the security thereof and will, if required, attorn to the holder thereof. No subordination by the Tenant shall have the effect of permitting a Mortgagee to disturb the occupation and possession by the Tenant of the Premises or of affecting the rights of the Tenant pursuant to the terms of this Lease, provided that the Tenant performs all of its covenants, agreements and conditions contained in this Lease and contemporaneously executes a document of attornment as required by the Mortgagee.

11.1 Quiet Enjoyment

The Tenant, on paying the Rent hereby reserved, and performing and observing the covenants and provisions herein required to be performed and observed on its part, shall peaceably enjoy the Premises for the Term.

Article 12 — Damage and Destruction

12.1 Damage or Destruction to Premises

If the Premises or any portion thereof are damaged or destroyed by fire or by other casualty, Rent shall abate in proportion to the area of that portion of the Premises which, in the opinion of the Landlord's architect or professional engineer, is thereby rendered unfit for the purposes of the Tenant until the Premises are repaired and rebuilt, and the Landlord shall repair and rebuild the Premises. The Landlord's obligation to repair and rebuild shall not include the obligation to repair and rebuild any chattel, fixture, leasehold improvement, installation, addition or partition in respect of which the Tenant is required to maintain insurance hereunder, or any other property of the Tenant. Rent shall recommence to be payable ten (10) days after the Landlord notifies the Tenant that the Tenant may reoccupy the Premises for the purpose of undertaking its work.

12.2 Rights to Termination

Notwithstanding Section 12.1:

- (a) if the Premises or any portion thereof are damaged or destroyed by any cause whatsoever and cannot, in the reasonable opinion of the Landlord, be rebuilt within one hundred and twenty (120) days of the damage or destruction, the Landlord may terminate this Lease by giving to the Tenant, within thirty (30) days after such damage or destruction, notice of termination, and thereupon Rent and other payments hereunder shall be apportioned and paid to the date of such damage or destruction, and the Tenant shall immediately deliver up vacant possession of the Premises to the Landlord; and
- (b) in the event of damage or destruction occurring by reason of any cause in respect of which proceeds of insurance are substantially insufficient to pay for the costs of rebuilding the Premises or are not payable to or received by the Landlord, or in the event that any Mortgagee or other person entitled thereto shall not consent to the payment to the Landlord of the proceeds of any insurance policy for such purpose or, in the event that the Landlord is not able to obtain all necessary governmental approvals and permits to rebuild the Premises, the Landlord may elect, within thirty (30) days of such damage or destruction, on written notice to the Tenant, to terminate this Lease, and the Tenant shall immediately deliver up vacant possession of the Premises to the Landlord.

12.3 Certificate Conclusive

Any decisions regarding the extent to which the Premises has become unfit for use shall be made by an architect or professional engineer appointed by the Landlord, whose decision shall be final and binding on the parties.

12.4 Landlord's Work

- (a) The Landlord shall comply with all provisions of applicable law related to the making of any repairs, replacements, alterations, additions, changes, substitutions or improvements of or to the Premises.
- (b) It is acknowledged by the Tenant that in performing any reconstruction or repair, the Landlord may effect changes to the Premises and its equipment and systems.
- (c) The Landlord shall have no obligation to repair any damage to Leasehold Improvements or the Tenant's fixtures, except, for certainty, solely to the extent that such damage is sustained or incurred by reason of or otherwise attributable to: (i) the negligence or willful acts or omissions of the Landlord or anyone for whom it is responsible at law, or (ii) arising from the breach by the Landlord of the terms of this Lease.

12.5 Expropriation

(1) If at any time during the Term any public body or paramount authority shall take or expropriate the whole or a portion of the Premises, then the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) if such expropriation or compulsory taking does not materially affect the Tenant's use or enjoyment of the Premises, then the whole of the compensation awarded or settled, whether fixed by agreement or otherwise, shall be paid or received by the Landlord, and the Tenant assigns, transfers and sets over unto the Landlord all of the right, title and interest of the Tenant therein and thereto, and this Lease shall thereafter continue in effect with respect to the remainder of the Premises, without abatement or adjustment of Rent; and
- (b) if such expropriation or compulsory taking does materially affect the Tenant's use or enjoyment of the Premises, then, at the Landlord's option: (i) this Lease shall be deemed to terminate and the Term shall terminate on the date upon which the expropriating or taking authority requires possession of the lands so expropriated or taken; or (ii) the Premises shall be adjusted to exclude the area so taken, the Landlord shall complete any work required to the Premises as a result of such taking (excluding any work relating to any chattel, fixture, leasehold improvement, installation, addition or partition in respect of which the Tenant is required to maintain insurance hereunder, or any other property of the Tenant). In either event the Landlord shall be entitled to receive the entire compensation awarded or settlement, whether fixed by agreement or otherwise, save and except for that portion thereof as is specifically awarded or allocated in respect of the leasehold improvements or other interests of the Tenant.

(2) The Landlord and the Tenant will cooperate with each other regarding any expropriation of the Premises or any part thereof so that each receives the maximum award to which it is entitled at law.

Article 13 — Default

13.1 Default and Right to Re-enter

Any of the following constitutes an Event of Default under this Lease:

- (a) any Rent due is not paid within five (5) days after notice in writing from the Landlord to the Tenant;
- (b) the Tenant has breached any of its obligations in this Lease and, if such breach is capable of being remedied and is not otherwise listed in this Section 13.1, after notice in writing from the Landlord to the Tenant:
  - (i) the Tenant fails to remedy such breach within fifteen (15) days (or such shorter period as may be provided in this Lease); or
  - (ii) if such breach cannot reasonably be remedied within fifteen (15) days (or such shorter period), the Tenant fails to commence to remedy such breach within ten (10) days of such breach, or thereafter fails to proceed diligently to remedy such breach;
- (c) the Tenant becomes bankrupt or insolvent or takes the benefit of any statute for bankrupt or insolvent debtors or makes any proposal, an assignment or arrangement with its creditors, or any steps are taken or proceedings commenced by any person for the dissolution, winding-up or other termination of the Tenant's existence or the liquidation of its assets;
- (d) a trustee, receiver, receiver/manager or a person acting in a similar capacity is appointed with respect to the business or assets of the Tenant;
- (e) the Tenant makes a sale in bulk of all or a substantial portion of its assets, other than in conjunction with an assignment or sublease approved by the Landlord;
- (f) this Lease or any of the Tenant's assets are taken under a writ of execution and such writ is not stayed or vacated within fifteen (15) days after the date of such taking;
- (g) the Tenant makes an assignment or sublease, other than in compliance with the provisions of this Lease;
- (h) the Tenant abandons or attempts to abandon the Premises, or the Premises become vacant or substantially unoccupied for a period of ten (10) consecutive days or more without the consent of the Landlord;

- (i) the Tenant moves or commences, attempts or threatens to move its trade fixtures, chattels and equipment out of the Premises, other than in the ordinary course of its business;
- (j) any insurance policy covering any part of the Premises is, or is threatened to be, cancelled or adversely changed (including a substantial premium increase) as a result of any action or omission by the Tenant or any person for whom it is legally responsible; or
- (k) the Tenant has breached any of its obligations pursuant to the Lease Agreement between the Tenant and the Landlord dated even date herewith, with respect to the land and premises located at 5706 – 44th Street, Lloydminster, Alberta, and if such breach is not remedied within the applicable time period, if any, outlined in the said Lease Agreement.

13.2 Default and Remedies

If and whenever an Event of Default occurs, then, without prejudice to any other rights which it has pursuant to this Lease or at law, the Landlord shall have the following rights and remedies, which are cumulative and not alternative:

- (a) to terminate this Lease by notice to the Tenant or to re-enter the Premises and repossess them and, in either case, enjoy them as of its former estate, and to remove all persons and property from the Premises and store such property at the expense and risk of the Tenant or sell or dispose of such property in such manner as the Landlord sees fit without notice to the Tenant. If the Landlord enters the Premises without notice to the Tenant as to whether it is terminating this Lease under this Section 13.2(a) or proceeding under Section 13.2(b) or any other provision of this Lease, the Landlord shall be deemed to be proceeding under Section 13.2(b), and the Lease shall not be terminated, nor shall there be any surrender by operation of law, but the Lease shall remain in full force and effect until the Landlord notifies the Tenant that it has elected to terminate this Lease. No entry by the Landlord during the Term shall have the effect of terminating this Lease without notice to that effect to the Tenant;
- (b) to enter the Premises as agent of the Tenant to do any or all of the following: (i) re-let the Premises for whatever length and on such terms as the Landlord, in its discretion, may determine, and to receive the rent therefor; (ii) take possession of any property of the Tenant on the Premises, store such property at the expense and risk of the Tenant, and sell or otherwise dispose of such property in such manner as the Landlord sees fit without notice to the Tenant; (iii) make alterations to the Premises to facilitate their reletting; and (iv) apply the proceeds of any such sale or reletting first, to the payment of any expenses incurred by the Landlord with respect to any such reletting or sale, second, to the payment of any indebtedness of the Tenant to the Landlord other than Rent, and third, to the payment of Rent in arrears, with the residue to be held by the Landlord and applied to payment of future Rent as it becomes due and payable, provided that the Tenant shall remain liable for any deficiency to the Landlord;

- (c) to remedy or attempt to remedy any default of the Tenant under this Lease for the account of the Tenant and to enter upon the Premises for such purposes. No notice of the Landlord's intention to remedy or attempt to remedy such default need be given to the Tenant unless expressly required by this Lease, and the Landlord shall not be liable to the Tenant for any loss, injury or damages caused by acts of the Landlord in remedying or attempting to remedy such default. The Tenant shall pay to the Landlord all expenses reasonably incurred by the Landlord in connection therewith;
- (d) to recover from the Tenant all damages, costs and expenses incurred by the Landlord as a result of any default by the Tenant; and
- (e) to recover from the Tenant the full amount of the current month's Rent together with the next three (3) months' instalments of Rent, all of which shall immediately become due and payable as accelerated Rent.

13.3 Distress

Notwithstanding any provision of this Lease or any provision of any applicable legislation, none of the goods and chattels of the Tenant on the Premises at any time during the Term shall be exempt from levy by distress for Rent in arrears, and the Tenant waives any such exemption. If the Landlord makes any claim against the goods and chattels of the Tenant by way of distress, this provision may be pleaded as an estoppel against the Tenant in any action brought to test the right of the Landlord to levy such distress.

13.4 Costs

The Tenant shall pay to the Landlord all damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, all reasonable legal fees on a solicitor-and-client basis) incurred by the Landlord in enforcing the terms of this Lease, or with respect to any matter or thing which is the obligation of the Tenant under this Lease, or in respect of which the Tenant has agreed to insure or to indemnify the Landlord.

13.5 Remedies Cumulative

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Lease, the Landlord may from time to time resort to any or all of the rights and remedies available to it in the event of any default hereunder by the Tenant, either by any provision of this Lease, by statute, or common law, all of which rights and remedies are intended to be cumulative and not alternative. The express provisions contained in this Lease as to certain rights and remedies are not to be interpreted as excluding any other or additional rights and remedies available to the Landlord by statute or common law.

Article 14 — General

14.1 Entry

(1) Provided that the Tenant has not exercised any option to extend this Lease as provided herein, the Landlord shall be entitled at any time during the last six (6) months of the Term:

- (a) without notice to or consent by the Tenant to place on the exterior of the Premises the Landlord's usual notice(s) that the Premises are for rent; and

- (b) on no less than twenty-four (24) hours prior notice to the Tenant, to enter upon the Premises during normal business hours for the purpose of exhibiting same to prospective tenants.

(2) The Landlord may enter the Premises at any time during the Term, on no less than twenty-four (24) hours prior notice to the Tenant, for the purpose of exhibiting the Premises to prospective Mortgagees and/or purchasers, or for the purpose of inspecting the Premises. The Landlord shall have the right to place on the Premises a "for sale" sign of reasonable dimensions.

14.2 Force Majeure

Notwithstanding any other provision contained herein, in the event that either the Landlord or the Tenant should be delayed, hindered or prevented from the performance of any act required hereunder by reason of any unavoidable delay, including strikes, lockouts, unavailability of materials, inclement weather, acts of God or any other cause beyond its reasonable care and control, but not including insolvency or lack of funds, then performance of such act shall be postponed for a period of time equivalent to the time lost by reason of such delays. The provisions of this Section 14.2 shall not under any circumstances operate to excuse the Tenant from prompt payment of Rent and/or any other charges payable under this Lease.

14.3 Effect of Waiver or Forbearance

No waiver by any party of any breach by any other party of any of its covenants, agreements or obligations contained in this Lease shall be or be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach thereof or the breach of any other covenants, agreements or obligations, nor shall any forbearance by any party to seek a remedy for any breach by any other party be a waiver by the party so forbearing of its rights and remedies with respect to such breach or any subsequent breach. The subsequent acceptance of Rent by the Landlord shall not be deemed a waiver of any preceding breach by the Tenant of any term, covenant or condition regardless of the Landlord's knowledge of such preceding breach at the time of the acceptance of such Rent. All Rent and other charges payable by the Tenant to the Landlord hereunder shall be paid without any deduction, set-off or abatement whatsoever, and the Tenant waives the benefit of any statutory or other right in respect of abatement or set-off in its favour at the time hereof or at any future time.

14.4 Notices

(1) Any notice, delivery, payment or tender of money or document(s) to the parties hereunder may be delivered personally or sent by prepaid registered or certified mail or prepaid courier to the address for such party as set out in Section 1.1(a) or (b), as applicable, and any such notice, delivery or payment so delivered or sent shall be deemed to have been given or made and received upon delivery of same or on the third business day following the mailing of same, as the case may be. Each party may, by notice in writing to the others from time to time, designate an alternative address in Canada to which notices given more than ten (10) days thereafter shall be addressed.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, any notice, delivery, payment or tender of money or document(s) to be given or made to any party hereunder during any disruption in the service of the Canada Post Office shall be deemed to have been received only if delivered personally or sent by prepaid courier.

14.5 Registration

Neither the Tenant nor anyone on the Tenant's behalf or claiming under the Tenant (including any Transferee) shall register this Lease or any Transfer against the Premises. The Tenant may register a notice or caveat based on this Lease provided that: (a) a copy of the Lease is not attached; (b) no financial terms are disclosed; (c) the Landlord gives its prior written approval to the notice or caveat based on this Lease; and (d) the Tenant pays the Landlord's reasonable costs on account of the matter. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Term, the Tenant shall immediately discharge or otherwise vacate any such registered notice or caveat.

14.6 Number, Gender, Effect of Headings

Words importing the singular number only shall include the plural and vice versa, words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine and neuter genders, and words importing persons shall include firms and corporations and vice versa. The division of this Lease into Articles and Sections and the insertion of headings are for convenience of reference only, and shall not affect the construction or interpretation of this Lease.

14.7 Severability, Subdivision Control

If any Article or Section or part or parts of an Article or Section in this Lease is or is held to be illegal or unenforceable, it or they shall be considered separate and severable from the Lease and the remaining provisions of this Lease shall remain in full force and effect and shall be binding on the Landlord and the Tenant as though such Article or Section or part or parts thereof had never been included in this Lease. It is an express condition of this Lease that the subdivision control provisions of the applicable provincial legislation be complied with, if necessary. If such compliance is necessary, the Tenant covenants and agrees to diligently proceed, at its own expense, to obtain the required consent, and the Landlord agrees to cooperate with the Tenant in bringing such application.

14.8 Entire Agreement

There are no covenants, representations, warranties, agreements or other conditions expressed or implied, collateral or otherwise, forming part of or in any way affecting or relating to this Lease, save as expressly set out or incorporated by reference herein, and this Lease constitutes the entire agreement duly executed by the parties, and no amendment, variation or change to this Lease shall be binding unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the parties.

14.9 Successors and Assigns

The rights and liabilities of the parties shall enure to the benefit of their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, subject to any requirement for consent by the Landlord hereunder.

14.10 Governing Law

This Lease shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Saskatchewan and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

14.11 Confidentiality and Personal Information

(1) The contents, terms and conditions of this Lease shall be kept strictly confidential by the Tenant. The Tenant shall not, under any circumstances, discuss or reveal the details of this Lease with any arm's-length parties including, but not limited to, any prospective tenants, real estate agents or others, except the Tenant's legal and financial advisors, any bona fide transferee, and except as may be required by law.

(2) The Tenant consents to the collection and use of their personal information, as provided directly or collected from third parties, for the purposes of the Landlord considering the Tenant's offer in respect of this Lease and determining the suitability of the Tenant (both initially and on an on-going basis), including the disclosure of such information to existing and potential lenders, investors and purchasers.

In the event that this Lease is disclaimed pursuant to the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. #### (2) Extension

1st Extension Option

Provided the Tenant (a) is in occupation of the whole of the Leased Premises and (b) is not then in material default under this Lease, the Tenant shall have option exercisable on no less than 6 months and no more than 12 months written notice to the Landlord prior to the expiry of Term to extend the Lease with respect to the Leased Premises for one (1) additional term of five (5) years on the same terms and conditions outlined in this Lease save and except that:

- (i) this 1st Extension Option clause shall not be included;
- (ii) there shall be no clause providing for "tenant inducements" (whether for cash allowances, Landlord construction or fixturing, rent free periods or otherwise);
- (iii) the Basic Rent for the extended term shall be agreed to between the parties. If the parties are unable to agree on the Basic Rent for the extended term on or before the date that is sixty (60) days prior to the commencement of the extended term, then such Basic Rent shall be determined by arbitration before a sole arbitrator in accordance with the applicable legislation in force in the Province of Saskatchewan; and,
- (iv) in no event shall the Basic Rent as determined by agreement or arbitration be less than that reserved under the Lease for the last year of the previous term.

2nd Extension Option

Provided the Tenant: (a) properly exercised the 1st Extension Option; (b) is in occupation of the whole of the Leased Premises; and (c) is not then in material default under this Lease, the Tenant shall have option exercisable on no less than 6 months and no more than 12 months written notice to the Landlord prior to the expiry of the last renewed term

to extend the Lease with respect to the Leased Premises for one (1) additional term of five years on the same terms and conditions outlined in this Lease save and except that:

- (i) the 1st Extension Option clause and the 2nd Extension Option clause shall not be included;
- (ii) there shall be no clause providing for “tenant inducements” (whether for cash allowances, Landlord construction or fixturing, rent free periods or otherwise);
- (iii) the Basic Rent for the extended term shall be agreed to between the parties. If the parties are unable to agree on the Basic Rent for the extended term on or before the date that is sixty (60) days prior to the commencement of the extended term, then such Basic Rent shall be determined by arbitration before a sole arbitrator in accordance with the applicable legislation in force in the Province of Saskatchewan; and
- (iv) in no event shall the Basic Rent as determined by agreement or arbitration be less than that reserved under the Lease for the last year of the previous term.

(3) Right of First Refusal (“ROF”)– Sale of Premises

If at any time during the Term of this Lease, the Landlord wishes to sell the Premises or receives an offer to purchase (the “Purchase Offer”) which it is prepared to accept, the following conditions shall apply:

- (a) The Landlord shall deliver a written offer to sell the Premises to the Tenant (the “Offer to Sell”). The Offer to Sell shall set forth the purchase price and all other terms and conditions (including closing arrangements) upon which the Landlord is prepared to sell the Premises. The Offer to Sell shall provide for a closing date of not sooner than thirty (30) days from the date of delivery of the Offer to Sell. In the event the Landlord has received a Purchase Offer, the terms and conditions of sale (including the price) set out in the Offer to Sell shall be the terms and conditions contained in such Purchase Offer;
- (b) The Tenant shall have the right to purchase the Premises in accordance with the price and terms and conditions in the Offer to Sell, by delivery to the Landlord of a written acceptance of the Offer to Sell within thirty (30) days following receipt by the Tenant of the Offer to Sell;
- (c) In the event that the Tenant elects to purchase the Premises by providing the acceptance within the prescribed time, the purchase and sale shall be completed and closed in accordance with the terms and conditions in the Offer to Sell;
- (d) In the event that the Tenant does not elect to purchase the Premises offered for sale to them in the Offer to Sell (by rejecting the Offer to Sell or failing to provide the acceptance within the prescribed time), the Landlord shall be free to sell the Premises to a third party at a price not less than the price set forth in the Offer to Sell and on terms and conditions not more favourable to the third party than the terms and conditions of the Offer to Sell. If the Landlord is unable to sell the Premises to a third party on the terms and conditions (including price) set forth in the Offer to Sell within one hundred twenty (120) days of the date of the Offer to Sell, or wishes to sell the Premises for a lower price or on terms and conditions more favourable to the third party purchaser than the terms and conditions of the Offer to Sell, the Landlord shall be required, before effecting such a sale, to again first offer to sell the Premises to Tenant in the manner provided herein.

1.2 Conditions and Exceptions. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary:

- (a) the Tenant shall not be entitled to accept an Offer to Sell if it is in default of the terms and conditions of this Lease; and
- (b) a sale, transfer or assignment by the Landlord to Gerald Gagnon, a child or spouse of Gerald Gagnon or any entity controlled by any of them, shall not trigger the terms of this ROF provided that such non-arm's length person or entity agrees to be bound by the terms of this Lease (including, without limitation, the ROF).

For certainty, the ROF shall not apply to any lands owned by the Landlord except for the Premises, notwithstanding their inclusion in a larger sale of other lands owned by the Landlord comprising a Purchase Offer or Offer to Sell.

(4) Access Rights

- (a) The Landlord, its agents, contractors, invitees, and licensees shall, during normal business hours, have access over across and through all those portions of the Premises (including access through the gate) reasonably necessary for the Landlord, its agents, contractors, invitees, and licensees to gain access to and from the separate fenced compound located at the southern end of the Lands;
- (b) The Landlord, its agents, contractors, invitees, licensees shall, at any time, have access over across and through all those portions of the Premises reasonably necessary for the Landlord, its agents, contractors, invitees, and licensees to gain access to and from the vehicle storage shed located on the Lands located near the south west corner of the Premises, as identified on Schedule "D" attached hereto as "Gerald's Car Storage" (the property described at (4)(a) and (b), collectively, the "Excluded Property");
- (c) The Landlord shall indemnify and hold harmless the Tenant in respect of any loss or damage suffered or incurred by the Tenant occasioned by the Landlord, its agents, contractors, invitees, and licensees exercising this right of access; and
- (d) Except for claims, actions, causes of action, damages, demands for damages and other liabilities resulting from the negligence or willful acts or omissions of the Tenant or anyone for whom it is in law responsible, the Landlord hereby releases the Tenant from any and all loss or damage to the Excluded Property, or the contents thereof.

(5) Planning Approval

It shall be a condition of any extension of this Lease that the provisions of The Planning and Development Act, 2007 shall have been complied with. The Tenant covenants to use its best efforts to obtain all necessary approvals required under such Act to validate any extensions of the Lease (the Landlord reserves the right to also seek such approvals). The Tenant shall be responsible for all costs, expenses, taxes and levies imposed, charged or levied as a result of such application and in order to obtain such approval. The Tenant shall at all times keep the Landlord informed of its progress in obtaining such approval and the Landlord shall co-operate with the Tenant in regard to such application.

  - (ii) dealing with filings, registrations, emissions, discharges, spills, releases or threatened releases of Hazardous Substances or materials containing Hazardous Substances; and/or

2. Compliance with Environmental Laws

Without limiting any other obligation of the Tenant in this Lease, the Tenant covenants and agrees that it shall, at its sole cost and expense, observe and otherwise comply with, and require those for whom it is responsible at law to observe and comply with all Environmental Laws. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Tenant covenants and agrees that:

- (a) it shall not cause or permit any Hazardous Substance to be brought into, stored, kept or used in or about the Premises or any part thereof, other than any Hazardous Substance that is used in the ordinary course of the permitted use being carried on at the Premises and which is stored, kept and used in strict compliance with all Environmental Laws pertaining thereto;
- (b) it shall not permit any emissions, discharges or releases of Hazardous Substances or materials containing Hazardous Substances from the Premises, other than where such occurs in the ordinary course of the permitted use being carried on at the Premises in compliance with all Environmental Laws pertaining thereto;

(c) it shall not construct or install any underground storage tank in or on the Premises; and

(d) on the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, it shall cause each and every Hazardous Substance which was brought into, stored, kept or used in or about the Premises by the Tenant or any party for whom it is responsible at law and then located on the Premises, to be removed from the Premises in compliance with all Environmental Laws pertaining thereto.

3. Notice of Orders

The Tenant shall promptly (and in any event not later than five (5) business days) provide the Landlord with written notice of any order, direction, notice of default or notice of legal action received by the Tenant pursuant to any Environmental Laws and relating to the Premises, the use and occupation of the Premises or the business carried on at the Premises.

4. Right of Inspection

The Landlord and its mortgagees and their agents, servants, employees and representatives shall have the right (but not the obligation), from time to time, to inspect (including the right to conduct an environmental audit or assessment at its sole cost and expense) the Premises for the purpose of determining whether the Tenant is in compliance with its obligations in this Article. Where the inspection is conducted in response to the Landlord's reasonable suspicion, based on information and evidence, that the Tenant has caused or is causing environmental harm to the Premises in contravention of Environmental Law or that will require immediate remediation, the Tenant shall pay, as Additional Rent, any reasonable costs incurred by the Landlord in making such inspections (including the costs of the initial environmental audit or assessment) of the Premises if, by virtue of said inspection, the Tenant is determined to be in default under this Lease. Such costs shall be paid forthwith on demand. The Tenant authorizes the Landlord to make inquiries from time to time with any governmental authority having jurisdiction in respect of matters relating to the Tenant's compliance with Environmental Laws at the Premises, and the Tenant agrees to provide any further authorizations as may be required to facilitate the obtaining of such information.

5. Rectification of Breach

In the event that it is determined by the Landlord pursuant to the process set forth in Section 4 hereof and acting in a commercially reasonable manner that the Tenant is in breach of its obligations in this Article, the Landlord may, without limiting any other rights or remedies, provide the Tenant with notice in writing of the breach, and the Tenant shall commence to rectify such breach at the Tenant's sole cost and expense, and shall complete such rectification as soon as reasonably possible. In the event that the Tenant does not commence to rectify such breach, the Landlord may, at its option and in its sole discretion, terminate this Lease without any further notice, or may rectify such breach at the cost of the Tenant, and the Tenant shall forthwith, on demand, reimburse the Landlord for the cost of rectification. Such amount shall be payable and collectible as Additional Rent.

6. Remediation

If any governmental authority shall require the clean-up of any Hazardous Substance held, released, spilled, abandoned or placed on the Premises or released into the environment by the

Tenant or any party for whom the Tenant is responsible at law, the Tenant shall, at its own expense: (a) prepare or requisition all necessary studies, plans and proposals required as a result thereof; (b) obtain all necessary approvals of such authorities required to complete the remediation to the standards required by all Environmental Laws; (c) provide all bonds and other security required by such authorities in connection with the foregoing; and (d) carry out and complete the remediation to the standards required by all Environmental Laws. The Tenant shall also provide the Landlord with copies of the plans and proposals and keep the Landlord advised from time to time as to the status of its remediation and other work.

7. Hazardous Substances Remain Property of Tenant

If the Tenant or any party for whom the Tenant is responsible at law creates or brings to the Premises any Hazardous Substance, or if the conduct of business at the Premises shall cause there to be any Hazardous Substance at the Premises, then, notwithstanding any provision in this Lease or rule of law to the contrary, such Hazardous Substance shall be and remain the sole and exclusive property of the Tenant, and shall not become the property of the Landlord notwithstanding the degree of affixation to the Premises of the Hazardous Substance or the goods containing the Hazardous Substance, and notwithstanding the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease.

8. Tenant Indemnity

The Tenant agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Landlord, its mortgagees, and their agents, servants, employees and others for whom Landlord is in law responsible, against any and all liabilities, claims, damages, interest, penalties, fines, monetary sanctions, losses, costs and expenses whatsoever (including, without limitation, reasonable costs of professional advisors, consultants and experts in respect of any investigation, and all costs all remediation and other clean-up costs and expenses) arising in any manner whatsoever out of any breach by the Tenant or any party for whom the Tenant is responsible at law of any provisions of this Schedule, or any non-compliance by the Tenant or any party for whom the Tenant is responsible at law, with any Environmental Law, except to the extent that such things are insured against by the Landlord but only to the extent of insurance proceeds received by the Landlord. For further clarity, in such events the Tenant shall be responsible for the deductible.

9. Limitation of Tenant Liability

Notwithstanding anything in this schedule to the contrary, the Tenant shall have no obligations with respect to Hazardous Substances located on, in, above or under the Premises prior to the Commencement Date of this Lease, and the Landlord agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Tenant from and against claims under any Environmental Laws, or third party claims, with respect to said pre-existing Hazardous Substances.

10. Survival of Obligations

The covenants and agreements of, and indemnification by, the Tenant and the Landlord contained in this Schedule "C" shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary.

General Security Agreements dated September 25, 2020 between the Vendors and the Guarantors (the "Guarantors' GSAs")

Concurrently with this letter, you will have received notices of default regarding, among other things, the SPA, Promissory Note, GSA, Guarantees and the Guarantors' GSAs.

The Vendors were required to proceed with the default notices to preserve their rights and remedies, particularly given the need for 120 days notice under the Subordination Agreement.

We have been advised that Shane Daerden has previously proposed the prospect of the Purchaser paying interest only towards the Promissory Note while the Purchaser attempts to make arrangements to issue full payments (the "Interest Payments Proposal").

The Vendors are interested in discussing the Interest Payments Proposal further in good faith.

However, the Vendors have not received any particulars as to: a) the proposed payment plan, including the amounts to be paid, the duration of the payments, and how this is proposed to be impacting the initial proposed payment plan with the Vendors; b) the basis of the need for delaying the original payment schedule, including the financial circumstances of the Purchaser that precipitated the default.

To facilitate discussions regarding the Interest Payments Proposal, the Vendors will require at a minimum:

1. Confirmation in writing of the proposed amounts, timing and duration of the proposed interest payments;
2. Confirmation of the efforts being undertaken to facilitate curing the default of the Purchaser. This will include current and ongoing production of financial materials showing the issues preventing payment and so as to confirm the viability of addressing the CK Parties' default;
3. Upon confirmation of points 1 and 2 above, if the proposal is satisfactory to the Vendors, to proceed with the Interest Payments Proposal the Vendors would require:
  - (a) A final written forbearance agreement executed by the CK Parties setting out the proposed terms of the Interest Payments Proposal in a form satisfactory to the Vendors and their legal counsel in their sole discretion;
  - (b) The forbearance agreement will include all standard terms and conditions appropriate for a transaction of this nature. But, the forbearance agreement must require, among other things:
    - (i) An affirmation of the default by the CK Parties and of the indebtedness owing by the CK Parties to the Vendors;
    - (ii) Setting out the deadlines for payment of the interest payments together with the resumption of fulsome payments (the "Default Curing Period");
    - (iii) Requiring a consent judgment to be executed in favour of the Vendors against the CK Parties regarding the indebtedness, plus costs and interest, to be held in trust pending full payment of the indebtedness. Said consent judgment would be registerable upon the event of a default under the written forbearance agreement;

- (iv) Providing that the 120 notice period for default under the Subordination Agreement will continue to run for the duration of the Default Curing Period. That is, the 120 day notice period under Section 3.07 of the Subordination Agreement shall continue to run as of the date of the notice issued concurrently with this letter and, once expired, will not need to be issued again to restart the period. For greater clarity, no further defaults or delay in enforcement will be permitted. The Vendors are not going to be required to restart the 120 day notice of default under Section 3.07.

Please advise as to your position regarding the above proposal by no later than 12:00 p.m. MST on November 3, 2023. We are open to a meeting or phone conference to discuss the terms of this matter with your legal counsel at the earliest opportunity.

We are also open to allowing you to share the proposal herein with the Toronto-Dominion Bank to make appropriate arrangements, provided you advise our office in writing of such steps and that the Toronto-Dominion Bank confirms in advance in writing that such sharing of this proposal is not a waiver of any underlying settlement privilege.

The Vendors expressly reserves any rights and remedies it may have at law to proceed with the enforcement of its rights and remedies under the above noted agreements at any time, without further notice to CK Parties, if the Vendors become aware of any circumstances that might prejudice their position.

Yours very truly,

Re: Guarantee of the Obligations of CMD Holdings Inc., Sunridge Collision Ltd., Mayland Heights Collision Ltd. and East Lake Collision Ltd. (collectively, the "Borrower") to The Toronto-Dominion Bank (the "Bank") provided by CMD Glass Ltd. (the "Guarantor")

We are counsel to the Bank in connection with the credit facilities outstanding between the Bank and the Borrower.

Advances have been made by the Bank to, inter alia, the Borrower under the Facility Documents. The Borrower is indebted to the Bank, as of October 31, 2023, in the amount $11,885,926.47 plus interest, plus all fees and costs, including all legal costs incurred by the Bank on a solicitor and its own client basis (the "Borrower Indebtedness").

Demand has been made by the Bank upon the Borrower for repayment of the Borrower Indebtedness. A copy of the demand is enclosed.

Reference is made to the following guarantees granted by the Guarantor in support of the obligations of each of the Borrower(s) owing to the Bank:

1. unlimited guarantee in support of all obligations of CMD Holdings Inc. owing to the Bank, dated September 25, 2020, including all principal, interest, costs and expenses (including all legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis);
2. a limited guarantee in support of all obligations of Sunridge Collision Ltd. owing to the Bank, dated March 10, 2022, including all principal, interest, costs and expenses (including all legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis);
3. a limited guarantee in support of all obligations of Mayland Heights Collision Ltd. owing to the Bank, dated March 10, 2022, including all principal, interest, costs and expenses (including all legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis); and

4. a limited guarantee in support of all obligations of East Lake Collision Ltd. owing to the Bank, dated March 10, 2022, including all principal, interest, costs and expenses (including all legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis);

(collectively, the “Guarantees”).

As security for the Guarantees the Guarantor granted a General Security Agreement dated September 25, 2020, (the “Security”).

The Guarantees are payable upon demand. Demand is hereby made upon you for payment of the Borrower Indebtedness, plus all further accrued and accruing interest, plus all costs associated with the collection of the foregoing amounts, including legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis (the “Indebtedness”).

Please note that the Indebtedness will continue to accrue interest at the rates agreed to, and costs and expenses will continue to be incurred by the Bank for which the Guarantor will be responsible, until payment of all amounts owing is received by either certified cheque or bank draft at the following address:

Re: Guarantee of the Obligations of CMD Holdings Inc., Sunridge Collision Ltd., Mayland Heights Collision Ltd. and East Lake Collision Ltd. (collectively, the "Borrower") to The Toronto-Dominion Bank (the "Bank") provided by Royal Vista Collision Ltd. (the "Guarantor")

We are counsel to the Bank in connection with the credit facilities outstanding between the Bank and the Borrower.

Advances have been made by the Bank to, inter alia, the Borrower under the Facility Documents. The Borrower is indebted to the Bank, as of October 31, 2023, in the amount $11,885,926.47 plus interest, plus all fees and costs, including all legal costs incurred by the Bank on a solicitor and its own client basis (the "Borrower Indebtedness").

Demand has been made by the Bank upon the Borrower for repayment of the Borrower Indebtedness. A copy of the demand is enclosed.

Reference is made to the following guarantees granted by the Guarantor in support of the obligations of each of the Borrower(s) owing to the Bank:

1. unlimited guarantee in support of all obligations of CMD Holdings Inc. owing to the Bank, dated September 25, 2020, including all principal, interest, costs and expenses (including all legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis);
2. a limited guarantee in support of all obligations of Sunridge Collision Ltd. owing to the Bank, dated March 10, 2022, including all principal, interest, costs and expenses (including all legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis);
3. a limited guarantee in support of all obligations of Mayland Heights Collision Ltd. owing to the Bank, dated March 10, 2022, including all principal, interest, costs and expenses (including all legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis); and

4. a limited guarantee in support of all obligations of East Lake Collision Ltd. owing to the Bank, dated March 10, 2022, including all principal, interest, costs and expenses (including all legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis);

(collectively, the “Guarantees”).

As security for the Guarantees the Guarantor granted a General Security Agreement dated September 25, 2020, (the “Security”).

The Guarantees are payable upon demand. Demand is hereby made upon you for payment of the Borrower Indebtedness, plus all further accrued and accruing interest, plus all costs associated with the collection of the foregoing amounts, including legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis (the “Indebtedness”).

Please note that the Indebtedness will continue to accrue interest at the rates agreed to, and costs and expenses will continue to be incurred by the Bank for which the Guarantor will be responsible, until payment of all amounts owing is received by either certified cheque or bank draft at the following address:

Attention: Ms. Afshan Naveed

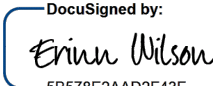

If full payment as set forth above is not received by close of business on November 20, 2023, the Bank will take whatever steps it deems appropriate to seek repayment of the said amount. To this end, we enclose for service upon the Guarantor a Notice of Intention to Enforce Security in accordance with section 244 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) (the “NOI”). If you are prepared to waive the ten day notice period, please provide your consent to early enforcement of the Bank’s security by executing the consent and waiver attached to the NOI.

Re: Guarantee of the Obligations of CMD Holdings Inc., Sunridge Collision Ltd., Mayland Heights Collision Ltd. and East Lake Collision Ltd. (collectively, the "Borrower") to The Toronto-Dominion Bank (the "Bank") provided by Stathko Investments Ltd. (the "Guarantor")

We are counsel to the Bank in connection with the credit facilities outstanding between the Bank and the Borrower.

Advances have been made by the Bank to, inter alia, the Borrower under the Facility Documents. The Borrower is indebted to the Bank, as of October 31, 2023, in the amount $11,885,926.47 plus interest, plus all fees and costs, including all legal costs incurred by the Bank on a solicitor and its own client basis (the "Borrower Indebtedness").

Demand has been made by the Bank upon the Borrower for repayment of the Borrower Indebtedness. A copy of the demand is enclosed.

Reference is made to the following guarantees granted by the Guarantor in support of the obligations of each of the Borrower(s) owing to the Bank:

1. unlimited guarantee in support of all obligations of CMD Holdings Inc. owing to the Bank, dated September 25, 2020, including all principal, interest, costs and expenses (including all legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis);
2. a limited guarantee in support of all obligations of Sunridge Collision Ltd. owing to the Bank, dated March 10, 2022, including all principal, interest, costs and expenses (including all legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis);
3. a limited guarantee in support of all obligations of Mayland Heights Collision Ltd. owing to the Bank, dated March 10, 2022, including all principal, interest, costs and expenses (including all legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis); and

4. a limited guarantee in support of all obligations of East Lake Collision Ltd. owing to the Bank, dated March 10, 2022, including all principal, interest, costs and expenses (including all legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis);

(collectively, the “Guarantees”).

As security for the Guarantees the Guarantor granted a General Security Agreement dated September 25, 2020, (the “Security”).

The Guarantees are payable upon demand. Demand is hereby made upon you for payment of the Borrower Indebtedness, plus all further accrued and accruing interest, plus all costs associated with the collection of the foregoing amounts, including legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis (the “Indebtedness”).

Please note that the Indebtedness will continue to accrue interest at the rates agreed to, and costs and expenses will continue to be incurred by the Bank for which the Guarantor will be responsible, until payment of all amounts owing is received by either certified cheque or bank draft at the following address:

Attention: Ms. Afshan Naveed

If full payment as set forth above is not received by close of business on November 20, 2023, the Bank will take whatever steps it deems appropriate to seek repayment of the said amount. To this end, we enclose for service upon the Guarantor a Notice of Intention to Enforce Security in accordance with section 244 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) (the “NOI”). If you are prepared to waive the ten day notice period, please provide your consent to early enforcement of the Bank’s security by executing the consent and waiver attached to the NOI.

The Bank reserves its rights to proceed against the Guarantor: (a) prior to the time stipulated above in the event that it determines that its position is further jeopardized; and (b) any time, or from time to time, after any dates stipulated above have passed, and in any case without the necessity of serving a new demand for payment.

We are counsel to the Bank in connection with the credit facilities outstanding between the Bank and the Borrower.

Advances have been made by the Bank to, inter alia, the Borrower under the Facility Documents. The Borrower is indebted to the Bank, as of October 31, 2023, in the amount $11,885,926.47 plus interest, plus all fees and costs, including all legal costs incurred by the Bank on a solicitor and its own client basis (the "Borrower Indebtedness").

Demand has been made by the Bank upon the Borrower for repayment of the Borrower Indebtedness. A copy of the demand is enclosed.

Reference is made to the following guarantees granted by the Guarantor in support of the obligations of each of the Borrower(s) owing to the Bank:

1. a limited guarantee in support of all obligations of 2199931 Alberta Ltd. owing to the Bank, dated November 15, 2019, including all principal, interest, costs and expenses (including all legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis);

The Guarantees are payable upon demand. Demand is hereby made upon you for payment of the Borrower Indebtedness, plus all further accrued and accruing interest, plus all costs associated with the collection of the foregoing amounts, including legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis (the "Indebtedness").

Please note that the Indebtedness will continue to accrue interest at the rates agreed to, and costs and expenses will continue to be incurred by the Bank for which the Guarantor will be responsible, until payment of all amounts owing is received by either certified cheque or bank draft at the following address:

10. Nothing in this Order shall prevent any party from taking an action against TD where such an action must be taken in order to comply with statutory time limitations in order to preserve their rights at law, provided that no further steps shall be taken by such party except in accordance with the other provisions of this Order, and notice in writing of such action be given to the Receiver at the first available opportunity.

Each prospective purchaser or bidder to whom such personal information is disclosed shall maintain and protect the privacy of such information and limit the use of such information to its evaluation of the Sale, and if it does not complete a Sale, shall return all such information to the Receiver, or in the alternative destroy all such information. The purchaser of any Property shall be entitled to continue to use the personal information provided to it, and related to the Property purchased, in a manner which is in all material respects identical to the prior use of such information by the Debtor, and shall return all other personal information to the Receiver, or ensure that all other personal information is destroyed.

FUNDING OF THE RECEIVERSHIP

- 21. The Receiver is at liberty and it is hereby empowered to borrow by way of a revolving credit or otherwise, such monies from time to time as it may consider necessary or desirable, provided that the outstanding principal amount does not exceed $_____ (or such greater amount as this Court may by further order authorize) at any time, at such rate or rates of interest as it deems advisable for such period or periods of time as it may arrange, for the purpose

Re: CMD Holdings Inc., East Lake Collision Ltd., Mayland Heights Collision Ltd., Sunridge Collision Ltd., 2199931 Alberta Ltd., Collision Kings 3 Ltd. (collectively, the “Company”)

Dear Sirs /Mesdames:

1. Introduction

This letter confirms that we, FTI Consulting Canada Inc. (“FTI”), have been retained by you. The Toronto-Dominion Bank in your capacity as lender (the “Lender”) under certain agreements with the Company (such agreements, as amended and in effect from time to time, together with related agreements and instruments, the “Credit Agreements”) to provide certain financial advisory and consulting services (the “Services”). The Services will be provided solely for you and not for the Company, any of its principals or any holder of other debt or equity of the Company or any other party. This letter of engagement and the attached Standard Terms and Conditions constitute the engagement contract (the “Engagement Contract”) pursuant to which the Services will be provided.

2. Scope of Our Services

The Services, to be performed at your direction, may include the following:

Phase 1: draft a report on:

- the Company’s near term liquidity needs;
- the Company’s current finances and operations;
- valuation of the Companies;
- observations with respect to each of the Company’s physical operating locations (other than the Winnipeg locations);
- providing strategic, financial and restructuring analysis and advice in respect of the Company.

Phase 2:

- Services at your discretions and may include:
  - monitoring the Company and its financial/operational affairs;
  - assisting in implementation of restructuring options
  - assisting in the preparation of documents and analysis relating to the potential restructuring of the Company; and
  - such other services as we may mutually agree.

The Services may be performed by FTI or by any affiliate of FTI, as FTI shall determine. References herein to FTI or its employees shall be deemed to apply also, unless the context shall otherwise indicate, to FTI's affiliates and their employees.

The Services, as outlined above, are subject to change as mutually agreed between us.

In order for us to provide the Services, it will be necessary for our personnel to have access to certain books, records and reports of the Company and to have discussions with its personnel. We understand that you will undertake to provide the necessary access to the Company's management and other personnel and to its books, records, reports and other information and that the Company has agreed to cooperate with us and to make available its personnel and such books, records, reports and other information.

We will perform the Services in a manner which we believe will permit the business operations of the Company to continue in an orderly manner, subject to the requirements of the Engagement. However, our personnel will likely need to be on site to review data located at the offices of the Company and to discuss matters with its personnel.

You hereby acknowledge that in the event that FTI is appointed in relation to the Company as an officer of the Court pursuant to any insolvency, restructuring or similar statute, our primary responsibility will be to the Court and we will have duties to all stakeholders.

3. Fees

Subject to any unforeseeable or uncontrollable delays in the review, the fees for the Phase 1 of the Engagement will be capped at $110,000 plus direct out of pocket expenses.

Fees in connection to any additional scope after Phase 1 will be based upon the time incurred providing the Services, multiplied by our standard hourly rates applicable in Canada, summarized as follows:

	Per Hour CAD$
Senior Managing Directors	850 – 945
Directors / Managing Directors	550 – 750
Consultants/Senior Consultants	330 – 540
Administrative / Paraprofessionals	115 – 120

Hourly rates are generally revised annually. To the extent this engagement requires services of our international divisions or personnel, the time will be multiplied by their standard hourly rates applicable on international engagements. We do not provide any assurance regarding the outcome of our work and our fees will not be contingent on the results of such work. Our fees will be for the account of the Company, guaranteed by the Agent, and are payable on presentation of invoice.

In addition to the fees outlined above, FTI will bill for reasonable allocated and direct expenses which are likely to be incurred on your behalf during this Engagement. Allocated expenses include the cost of items which are not billed directly to the engagement, including administrative support and other overhead expenses that are not billed through as direct reimbursable expenses, and are calculated at 3% of FTI's standard professional rates. Direct expenses include reasonable and customary out-of-pocket expenses which are billed directly to the engagement such as certain telephone, overnight mail, messenger, travel, meals, accommodations and other expenses specifically related to this engagement. Invoices will also include all applicable taxes.

Unless directed by you to the contrary, we will submit to the Company, on a monthly basis (or at such other frequency as we may determine as appropriate in our sole discretion), invoices payable upon receipt, for our fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Engagement, with copies provided to you. It is our understanding that all invoices will be paid by the Company. However, you agree that the payment of our invoices will ultimately be your responsibility in the event that the Company fails or refuses to pay such invoices (or if any payments are made but are subsequently avoided or disgorged). We agree to repay you to the extent the Company subsequently remits payments to us.

FTI reserves the right to immediately stop work should you fail to pay our outstanding fees and expenses within a reasonable period of time of being notified of the Company's failure to pay.

In addition, if FTI and/or any of its employees are required to testify or provide evidence at or in connection with any judicial or administrative proceeding relating to this matter, FTI will be compensated by you at its regular hourly rates and reimbursed for reasonable allocated and direct expenses (including counsel fees) with respect thereto.

4. Terms and Conditions

The attached terms and conditions set forth the duties of each party with respect to the Services. Further, this letter and the Standard Terms and Conditions attached comprise the entire Engagement Contract for the provision of the Services to the exclusion of any other express or implied terms, whether expressed orally or in writing, including any conditions, warranties and representations, and supersede all previous proposals, letters of engagement, undertakings, agreements, understandings, correspondence and other communications, whether oral or written, regarding the Services.

5. Conflicts of Interest

Based on the list of interested parties (the "Potentially Interested Parties") provided by you, we have undertaken a limited review of our records to determine FTI's professional relationships with the Company and the Potentially Interested Parties. From the results of such review, we were not made aware of any conflicts of interest or relationships that we believe would preclude us from performing the Services.

As you know, however, FTI and its affiliates constitute a large consulting firm with numerous offices throughout the world and are regularly engaged by new clients, which may include one or more of the Potentially Interested Parties.

6. Acknowledgement and Acceptance

Please acknowledge your acceptance of the terms of the Engagement Contract by signing both the confirmation below and the attached Standard Terms and Conditions and returning a copy of each to us at the above address.

If you have any questions regarding this letter or the attached Standard Terms and Conditions, please do not hesitate to contact Dustin Olver at 403-519-3485.

Yours faithfully,

FTI CONSULTING CANADA INC
STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The following are the Standard Terms and Conditions on which we will provide the Services to you set forth within the attached letter of Engagement. The Engagement letter and the Standard Terms and Conditions (collectively the "Engagement Contract") form the entire agreement between us relating to the Services and replace and supersede any previous proposals, letters of engagement, undertakings, agreements, understandings, correspondence and other communications, whether written or oral, regarding the Services. The headings and titles in the Engagement Contract are included to make it easier to read but do not form part of the Engagement Contract.

1. Reports and Advice

- 1.1 Use and purpose of advice and reports – Any advice given or report issued by us is provided solely for the use and benefit of you and only in connection with the purpose in respect of which the Services are provided. Unless required by law, or as otherwise provided in Clause 4.3 of the Standard Terms and Conditions, you shall provide any advice given or report issued by us to any third party or refer to us or the Services without our prior written consent. In no event, regardless of whether consent has been provided, shall we assume any responsibility to any third party to which any advice or report is disclosed or otherwise made available.

2. Information and Assistance

- 2.1 No assurance on financial data – While our work may include an analysis of financial and accounting data, the Services will not include an audit, compilation or review of any kind of any financial statements or components thereof. Company management will be responsible for any and all financial information they provide us during the course of the Engagement, and we will not examine or compile or verify any such financial information. Moreover, the circumstances of the Engagement may cause our advice to be limited in certain respects based upon, among other matters, the extent of sufficient and available data and the opportunity for supporting investigations in the time period. Accordingly, as part of the Engagement, we will not express any opinion or other form of assurance on financial statements of the Company.
- 2.2 Prospective financial information – In the event the Services involve prospective financial information, our work will not constitute an examination or compilation, or apply agreed-upon procedures, in accordance with standards established by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, or otherwise, and we will express no assurance of any kind on such information. There will usually be differences between estimated and actual results, because events and circumstances frequently do not occur as expected, and those differences may be material. We will take no responsibility for the achievability of results or events projected or anticipated by the management of the Company.

3. Additional Services

- 3.1 Responsibility for other parties – We shall have no responsibility for the work and fees of any other party engaged by you to provide services in connection with the Engagement regardless of whether such party was introduced to you by us. Except as provided in this Engagement Contract, we shall not be responsible for providing or reviewing the advice or services of any such third party, including advice as to legal, regulatory, accounting or taxation matters.

4. Confidentiality

- 4.1 Restrictions on confidential information – Both parties (you on the one hand and FTI on the other hand) agree that any confidential information received from the other party shall only be used for the purposes of providing or receiving Services under this or any other contract between us. Except as provided below, neither party to this Engagement Contract will disclose the other party's confidential information to any third party without the other party's consent. Confidential information shall not include information that:
- 4.1.1 is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a breach of an obligation under this Clause 4.1;
  - 4.1.2 is acquired from a third party who, to the recipient party's knowledge, owes no obligation of confidence in respect of the information; or
  - 4.1.3 is or has been independently developed by the recipient.

For greater certainty, nothing in this section 4.1 is intended to nor shall it create rights in favour of the company or any other party regarding any confidential information of the company or otherwise against you, FTI or any other party.

- 4.2 Disclosing confidential information – Notwithstanding Clause 4.1 above, either party to this Engagement Contract will be entitled to disclose confidential information of the other to a third party to the extent that this is required by valid legal process, provided that (and without breaching any legal or regulatory requirement) where reasonably practicable not less than 2 business days' notice in writing is first given to the other party.
- 4.3 Disclosing confidential information to legal advisors – Notwithstanding Clause 1.1 or 4.1 above, any party to this Engagement Contract will be entitled to disclose FTI's advice and written reports to its respective legal advisors, so long as such persons are restricted from further distributing such information without the prior written consent of the parties to this Engagement Contract. Further, upon execution of a non-reliance agreement satisfactory to FTI, prospective assignees may be provided written reports produced by FTI under this Engagement Contract.
- 4.4 Internal quality reviews – Notwithstanding the above, we may disclose any information referred to in this Clause 4 to any other FTI entity or use it for internal quality reviews.
- 4.5 Citation of engagement – Without prejudice to Clause 4.1 and Clause 4.2 above, to the extent our engagement is or becomes known to the public, we may cite the performance of the Services to our clients and prospective clients as an indication of our experience, unless we and you specifically agree otherwise in writing.
- 4.6 Maintenance of workpapers – Notwithstanding the above, we may keep one archival set of our working papers from the Engagement, including working papers containing or reflecting confidential information, in accordance with our professional standards and internal policies.

5. Termination

- 5.1 Termination of Engagement with notice – Either party to this Engagement Contract may terminate the Engagement Contract for whatever reason upon written notice to the other party. Upon receipt of such notice, we will stop all work immediately. Regardless of the terminating party, all fees and expenses incurred by us through the date the termination notice is received will continue to be payable as provided in Clause 4 of the Engagement letter.

5.2 Continuation of terms – The terms of the Engagement that by their context are intended to be performed after termination or expiration of this Engagement Contract, including but not limited to, Clauses 3 and 4 of the Engagement letter, and Clauses 1.1, 4, 6 and 7 of the Standard Term and Conditions, are intended to survive such termination or expiration and shall continue to bind all parties.

6. Liability Limitation and Waiver of Jury Trial

6.1 Limitation of liability – Except to the extent finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from its own willful misconduct, gross negligence or fraudulent behavior, neither FTI, nor any of its subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, principals, shareholders, agents, independent contractors or employees, shall be liable to you or any other party as a result of your retention of FTI, the execution and delivery of this Engagement Contract, the provision of Services or other matters relating to or arising from this Engagement Contract, whether a claim be in tort, contract or otherwise:

- 6.1.1 For any amount in excess of the total professional fees paid to FTI by the Company and/or the Lender under the Engagement Contract; or
- 6.1.2 For any consequential, indirect, lost profit or similar damages relating to FTI's Services provided under this Engagement.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, FTI will be deemed an agent of the Lender for the Services performed by FTI under this Engagement Contract, and will be entitled to the benefits of any and all liability limiting provisions of the Credit Agreements.

6.2 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL – TO FACILITATE JUDICIAL RESOLUTION AND SAVE TIME AND EXPENSE, YOU AND FTI IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY AGREE NOT TO DEMAND A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THE SERVICES OR ANY SUCH OTHER MATTER.

7. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

The Engagement Contract shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Canada and the Province of Alberta, without giving effect to the choice of law provisions thereof. The Courts of Alberta sitting in Calgary shall have exclusive jurisdiction in relation to any claim, dispute or difference concerning the Engagement Contract and any matter arising from it. The parties submit to the jurisdiction of such Courts and irrevocably waive any right they may have to object to any action being brought in these Courts, to claim that the action has been brought in an inconvenient forum or to claim that those Courts do not have jurisdiction.

Code of Consumer Rights and Responsibilities

Insurers (including Lloyd's Underwriters), along with the brokers and agents who sell home, auto and business insurance are committed to safeguarding your rights both when you shop for insurance and when you submit a claim following a loss. Your rights include the right to be informed fully, to be treated fairly, to timely complaint resolution, and to privacy. These rights are grounded in the contract between you and your insurer and the insurance laws of your province. With rights, however, come responsibilities including, for example, the expectation that you will provide complete and accurate information to your insurer. Your policy outlines other important responsibilities. Insurers and their distribution networks, and governments also have important roles to play in ensuring that your rights are protected.

Right to Be Informed

You can expect to access clear information about your policy, your coverage, and the claims settlement process. You have the right to an easy-to-understand explanation of how insurance works and how it will meet your needs. You also have a right to know how insurers calculate price based on relevant facts. Under normal circumstances, insurers will advise an insurance customer or the customer's intermediary of changes to, or the cancellation of a policy within a reasonable prescribed period prior to the expiration of the policy, if the customer provides information required for determining renewal terms of the policy within the time prescribed, which could vary by province, but is usually 45 days prior to expiry of the policy.

You have the right to ask who is providing compensation to your broker or agent for the sale of your insurance. Your broker or agent will provide information detailing for you how he or she is paid, by whom, and in what ways.

You have a right to be told about insurers' compensation arrangements with their distribution networks. You have a right to ask the broker or agent with whom you deal for details of how and by whom it is being paid. Brokers and agents are committed to providing information relating to ownership, financing, and other relevant facts.

Responsibility to Ask Questions and Share Information

To safeguard your right to purchase appropriate coverage at a competitive price, you should ask questions about your policy so that you understand what it covers and what your obligations are under it. You can access information through one-on-one meetings with your broker or agent. You have the option to shop the marketplace for the combination of coverages and service levels that best suits your insurance needs. To maintain your protection against loss, you must promptly inform your broker or agent of any change in your circumstances.

Right to Complaint Resolution

Insurers, their brokers and agents are committed to high standards of customer service. If you have a complaint about the service you have received, you have a right to access Lloyd's Underwriters' complaint resolution process for Canada. Your agent or broker can provide you with information about how you can ensure that your complaint is heard and promptly handled. Consumers may also contact their respective provincial insurance regulator for information. Lloyd's is a member of an independent complaint resolution office, the General Insurance Ombudservice (GIO).

Responsibility to Resolve Disputes

You should always enter into the dispute resolution process in good faith, provide required information in a timely manner, and remain open to recommendations made by independent observers as part of that process.

Right to Professional Service

You have the right to deal with insurance professionals who exhibit a high ethical standard, which includes acting with honesty, integrity, fairness and skill. Brokers and agents must exhibit extensive knowledge of the product, its coverages and its limitations in order to best serve you.

Right to Privacy

Because it is important for you to disclose any and all information required by an insurer to provide the insurance coverage that best suits you, you have the right to know that your information will be used for the purpose set out in the privacy statement made available to you by your broker, agent or insurance representative. This information will not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted by law. You should know that Lloyd's Underwriters are subject to Canada's privacy laws - with respect to their business in Canada.

Complaints Resolution Process

Your satisfaction is important to us.

If you are unhappy with a product or the level of service you have received from TruStar, our ombudsperson will try to resolve the situation by acting as a liaison between you and the business unit where the complaint originated.

To ensure that your escalation is handled as efficiently and as fairly as possible, please follow these steps:

1. Involve your broker. They can act on your behalf as an intermediary between the company and yourself. Or, you can always involve the supervisor of the representative you are dealing with.
2. Should your escalation not be handled to your satisfaction, you can call TruStar's Ombudsman, who will try to resolve the situation by acting as a liaison between you and the business unit where the escalation originated.
3. Should your concerns not be addressed as you see fit, you can consult with your province's government complaint office. At this point, you will have received a Final Position Letter from TruStar that includes the pertinent information to do so.

Several Liability Notice

The subscribing Insurers' obligations under contracts of insurance to which they subscribe are several and not joint and are limited solely to the extent to their individual subscriptions. The subscribing Insurers are not responsible for the subscription of any co-subscribing Insurer who for any reason does not satisfy all or part of its obligations.

Statutory and General Conditions

The following Statutory and General Conditions, as modified or supplemented by the attached forms or endorsements, apply to all perils insured by this Policy for the provinces indicated, as they may apply.

APPLICABLE TO ALL PROVINCES (EXCEPT FOR ALBERTA, BRITISH COLUMBIA AND QUEBEC)

1. Misrepresentation

If a person applying for insurance falsely describes the property to the prejudice of the Insurer; or misrepresents or fraudulently omits to communicate any circumstance that is material to be made known to the Insurer in order to enable it to judge the risk to be undertaken, the contract is void as to any property in relation to which the misrepresentation or omission is material.

2. Property of Others

Unless otherwise specifically stated in the contract, the Insurer is not liable for loss or damage to property owned by any person other than the Insured, unless the interest of the Insured in such property is stated in the contract.

3. Change of Interest

The Insurer is liable for loss or damage occurring after an authorized assignment under the Bankruptcy Act (Canada) or change of title by succession, by operation of law, or by death.

4. Material Change

Any change material to the risk and within the control and knowledge of the Insured avoids the contract as to the part affected by the change, unless the change is promptly notified in writing to the Insurer or its local agent. The Insurer, when so notified, may return the unearned portion, if any, of the premium paid and cancel the contract. Alternatively, the Insurer may notify the Insured in writing that, if the Insured desires the contract to continue in force, the Insured must, within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice, pay to the Insurer an additional premium. In default of such payment the contract is no longer in force and the Insurer shall return the unearned portion, if any, of the premium paid.

5. Termination

- 1) This contract may be terminated:
  - a) by the Insurer giving to the Insured fifteen days' notice of termination by registered mail or five days written notice of termination personally delivered;
  - b) by the Insured at any time on request.
- 2) When this contract is terminated by the Insurer;
  - a) the Insurer shall refund the excess of premium actually paid by the Insured over the proportionate premium for the expired time, subject to any minimum retained premium specified; and
  - b) the refund shall accompany the notice, unless the premium is subject to adjustment or determination as to amount, in which case the refund shall be made as soon as practicable.
- 3) When this contract is terminated by the Insured, the Insurer shall refund as soon as practicable the excess of premium actually paid by the Insured over the short rate premium for the expired time, but in no event shall the short rate premium for the expired time be deemed to be less than any minimum retained premium specified.
- 4) The refund may be made by money, postal or express company money order or cheque payable at par.
- 5) The fifteen days mentioned in Clause a) of Section 1) of this Statutory Condition commences to run on the day following the receipt of the registered letter at the post office to which it is addressed.

6. Requirements After Loss

- 1) Upon the occurrence of any loss of or damage to the insured property, the Insured shall, if the loss or damage is covered by the contract, in addition to observing the requirements of Statutory Conditions 9, 10 and 11.
  - a) forthwith give notice thereof in writing to the Insurer;
  - b) deliver as soon as practicable to the Insurer a proof of loss verified by a statutory declaration,
    - i. giving a complete inventory of the lost or damaged property and showing in detail quantities, costs, actual cash value and particulars of amount of loss claimed;
    - ii. stating when and how the loss occurred, and if caused by fire or explosion due to ignition, how the fire or explosion originated, so far as the Insured knows or believes;
    - iii. stating that the loss did not occur through any willful act or neglect or the procurement, means or connivance of the Insured;
    - iv. showing the amount of other insurances and the names of other Insurers;

- v. showing the interest of the Insured and of all others in the property with particulars of all mortgages, liens, encumbrances and other charges upon the property;
  - vi. showing any changes in title, use, occupation, location, possession or exposures of the property since the issue of the contract;
  - vii. showing the place where the insured property was located at the time of loss or damage;
  - c) if required, give a complete inventory of undamaged property, showing in detail quantities, cost, actual cash value;
  - d) if required and if practicable, produce accounts, warehouse receipts, stock lists, invoices and other pertinent records, verified by statutory declaration, as well as any relevant contracts or agreements with others.
- 2) The evidence furnished under Clauses b), c) and d) of Section 1) this Statutory Condition shall not be considered proofs of loss within the meaning of Statutory Conditions 12 and 13.

7. Fraud

Any fraud or willfully false statement in a statutory declaration in relation to any of the above particulars, vitiates the claim of the person making the declaration.

8. Who May Give Notice and Proof

In case of absence or inability of the Insured to give notice of loss or make proof of loss, notice of loss may be given and proof of loss may be made by the agent of the Insured. If the Insured fails to give notice immediately, the notice of loss may be given and the proof of loss may be made by a person to whom any part of the insurance money is payable.

9. Salvage

- 1) The Insured, in the event of any loss or damage to any insured property, shall take all reasonable steps to prevent further damage to such property and to prevent damage to other insured property, including, if necessary, removal to a secure location.
- 2) The Insurer shall contribute proportionately, according to the respective interests of the parties, towards any reasonable and proper expenses in connection with steps taken by the Insured and required under Section (1) of this Statutory Condition.

10. Entry, Control, Abandonment

After loss or damage to insured property, the Insurer has an immediate right of access and entry by accredited agents sufficient to enable them to survey and examine the property, and to make an estimate of the loss or damage. After the Insured has secured the property, the Insurer has a further right of access and entry sufficient to enable its agents to make appraisal or particular estimate of the loss or damage. The Insurer is not entitled to the control or possession of the insured property. There can be no abandonment of insured property to the Insurer without the Insurer's consent.

11. Appraisal

In the event of disagreement as to the value of the insured property or the value of the property saved or the amount of the loss, those questions shall be determined by appraisal as provided under the Insurance Act before there can be any recovery under this contract, whether the right to recover on the contract is disputed or not, and independently of all other questions. There shall be no right to an appraisal until a specific demand for one is made in writing and until proof of loss has been delivered.

12. When Loss Payable

13. Replacement

- 1) The Insurer, instead of making payment, may repair, rebuild, or replace the property lost or damaged, giving written notice of its intention to do so within thirty days after receipt of the proof of loss.
- 2) In that event, the Insurer shall commence to repair, rebuild, or replace the property within forty-five days after receipt of the proof of loss, and shall proceed with all due diligence to completion of the work.

14. Action

Every action or proceeding against the Insurer for the recovery of any claim shall be absolutely barred unless commenced within one year after the loss or damage occurs, unless legislation provides otherwise.

15. Notice

Any written notice to the Insurer may be sent by registered mail or delivered to the chief agency or any office of the Insurer in Canada. Written notice may be given to the Insured by letter personally delivered to the Insured or by registered mail addressed to the Insured at the Insured's latest post office address as notified to the Insurer. In this Statutory Condition, the expression "registered" means registered in or outside Canada.

Each Shared Limit of Liability shall be part of, and not in addition to, the Policy Aggregate Limit under this Policy and shall in no way serve to increase the Policy Aggregate Limit. Once a Shared Limit of Liability is fully exhausted, the Insurer shall have no obligation to pay any further Loss under the Coverage Sections which are subject to such Shared Limit of Liability.
- 4.3 If Separate Limits of Liability are stated in the Declarations for any Coverage Section, then each such Separate Limit of Liability shall be the maximum aggregate limit of the Insurer's liability for all Loss under such Coverage Section, regardless of the number of Claims, Investigations, Derivative Demands or Inquiries. Each Separate Limit of Liability shall be part of, and not in addition to, the Policy Aggregate Limit under this Policy and shall in no way serve to increase the Policy Aggregate Limit. - 4.4 The Policy Aggregate Limit, and all Shared Limits of Liability or Separate Limits of Liability applicable to any Extended Reporting Period, if purchased, shall be part of, and not in addition to, such limits of liability for the Policy Period.

The Insurer agrees in the case of (b) or (c) above to reimburse all reasonably incurred Defence Costs paid by an Insured subject to the applicable Policy Aggregate Limit and any applicable Shared Limit of Liability or Separate Limit of Liability. In the event of such determination or dismissal, reimbursement shall occur within sixty (60) days thereafter.

- 6.3 If, for any reason, an Insured Organization fails or refuses to advance, pay or indemnify covered Loss of an Insured Person within the applicable Retention, if any, then the Insurer shall advance such amounts within 60 days after sufficiently detailed invoices for those fees, costs, expenses and other related charges are received by the Insurer. In such case the Insurer shall continue to advance such amounts on behalf of the Insured Person until either (i) the Retention has been satisfied; or (ii) the Insured Organization has agreed to make such payments. Such advancement by the Insurer shall in no way relieve any Insured Organization of any duty it may have to provide advancement, payment or indemnification to any Insured Person.
- 6.4 All Claims or Investigations against the Insured that arise out of or are attributable to the same Wrongful Acts, Employment Practices Wrongful Acts, Third Party Wrongful Acts, Fiduciary Wrongful Acts, or Interrelated Wrongful Acts, shall constitute, respectively, a single Claim or Investigation, for the purposes of this Policy.

6.5 Where a Claim is covered under two or more Coverage Sections of this Policy, the Retention shall apply as follows:

- (a) If two or more Coverage Sections applicable to the Claim share a Shared Limit of Liability, only one Retention amount shall apply in respect of the Coverage Sections which are subject to the Shared Limit of Liability, and such amount shall be the greater of the Retentions applicable under such applicable Coverage Sections; and
- (b) A separate Retention shall apply for each applicable Coverage Section that has a Separate Limit of Liability.

6. REPORTING – CONDITION PRECEDENT

6.1 The Insureds shall, as a condition precedent to the Insurer’s liability under this Policy, provide written notification of any Claim, Inquiry or Investigation first made against any Insured during the Policy Period as soon as reasonably practicable after the Named Organization’s General Counsel or Chief Financial Officer first becomes aware of such Claim, Inquiry or Investigation.

However,

- (a) if this Policy expires and a replacement Policy has been issued by the Insurer, written notice may be given within one-hundred eighty (180) days of this Policy expiration provided the Insured satisfies the Insurer that sooner notice was not reasonably possible;
- (b) if this Policy expires (or is otherwise terminated) and a replacement Policy is not issued by the Insurer and the Extended Reporting Period has not been exercised, notice may be given within ninety (90) days after the Policy expiration date;
- (c) if the Extended Reporting Period has been exercised, written notice must be given before the expiration date of the Extended Reporting Period;
- (d) if this Policy has been cancelled for non-payment of premium, notice must be given prior to the effective date of this Policy termination; and
- (e) in the event of an Early Settlement Opportunity, notice of a Claim must comply with Section 2.8 (a).

6.2 The Insureds may also provide notice in writing to the Insurer during the Policy Period, or during the Extended Reporting Period if applicable, of any fact or circumstance which could reasonably be expected to give rise to a Claim or Investigation, including a request to toll, waive or extend a limitation period, being made against an Insured for a Wrongful Act, Employment Practices Wrongful Act, Third Party Wrongful Act, or Fiduciary Wrongful Act.

6.3 Notification in accordance with Section 6.1 and notice in writing in accordance with Section 6.2 shall be forwarded to the Insurer at the address, or facsimile or electronic mail contact details, stated in the Notification advisory page which attaches to, and forms part of, this Policy. Notice must include full particulars as to dates, events, persons and entities involved and the manner in which the Insureds became aware of the Claim, Inquiry, Investigation, fact or circumstance. Any Claim or Investigation subsequently made and arising out of a fact or circumstance reported pursuant to Section 6.2 of the General Terms and Conditions shall be deemed to have been first made at the time such notice in writing was provided to the Insurer.

6.4 Failure to give any notice required or permitted to be given by this Policy within the prescribed time shall not invalidate any Claim, Investigation or Inquiry under this Policy:

- (a) if the Insured, acting reasonably, considers that it is unable to notify a Claim, Investigation or Inquiry in order to comply with the requirements of an Official Body, or pursuant to any statute or other legal obligation; or
- (b) in the event of a situation not within subparagraph (a) above, unless the Insurer can demonstrate its interests have been materially prejudiced by reason of such late notice.

7. DEFENCE, INVESTIGATION AND SETTLEMENT

- 7.1 It shall be the duty of the Insured to defend Claims, Inquiries, Investigations, and Derivative Demands covered under this Policy.
- 7.2 In respect of any Claim, Investigation, Inquiry or Derivative Demand covered under this Policy the Insurer will pay, respectively, Defence Costs, Investigative Costs or Inquiry Defence Costs on behalf of the Insured on an as incurred basis, but no later than sixty (60) days after receipt of the invoice, subject to reasonableness. If at any time a Claim, Investigation, Inquiry or Derivative Demand is determined not to be covered under this Policy, then all such Defence Costs, Investigative Costs, and Inquiry Defence Costs must be repaid to the Insurer on demand, by the Insureds, severally and according to their respective interests.
- 7.3 However, the Insured shall have the right to tender the defence of a Claim, Investigation, Inquiry or Derivative Demand to the Insurer, which right shall be exercised in writing by the Named Organization on behalf of all Insured(s) to the Insurer in accordance with SECTION 6. REPORTING – CONDITION PRECEDENT of the General Terms and Conditions and within thirty (30) days of the date the Claim, Investigation, Inquiry or Derivative Demand is first made against an Insured.

Provided that the Insured has complied with SECTION 6. REPORTING – CONDITION PRECEDENT and provided that the Insured shall have taken no action whatsoever in the Administration or defence of the Claim, Investigation, Inquiry or Derivative Demand that prejudices the right of the Insured or the Insurer with respect to such Claim, Investigation, Inquiry or Derivative Demand the Insurer shall be obligated to assume the defence of the Claim, Investigation, Inquiry or Derivative Demand even if such Claim, Investigation, Inquiry or Derivative Demand is groundless, false or without merit. The assumption of the defence of the Claim, Investigation, Inquiry or Derivative Demand shall be effective upon written confirmation sent thereof by the Insurer to the Named Organization.

The right to tender shall terminate within thirty (30) days of the date the Claim, Investigation, Inquiry or Derivative Demand was first made against an Insured, however, the Insurer may at its sole discretion elect to assume the defence of the Claim, Investigation, Inquiry or Derivative Demand should the Insured seek to tender the defence more than thirty (30) days after the date the Claim, Investigation, Inquiry or Derivative Demand was first made against an Insured.

- 7.4 The Insured shall obtain the Insurer's written consent to retain any lawyers or other advisors from whom advice in respect of the defence of the Claim, Investigation, Inquiry or Derivative Demand is being sought, prior to their appointment. Such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The Insurer shall accept as reasonable and necessary the Retention of separate legal representation to the extent required by any actual or potential conflict of interest between any Insureds.
- 7.5 The Insured shall not admit liability for, plead guilty to, or settle, any Claim, Investigation, Derivative Demand or Inquiry without the written consent of the Insurer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. Furthermore, the Insurer shall not settle or compromise any Claim, Investigation, Derivative Demand or Inquiry without the written consent of the Insured.
- 7.6 The Insured shall assert all appropriate defences and cross Claims for contribution, indemnity or damages and shall co-operate fully with the Insurer and/or its legal representative in the conduct of the defence.
- 7.7 The Insured shall at its own cost and in a timely fashion provide all information and assistance reasonably required to allow any Claim, Investigation, Inquiry or Derivative Demand to be effectively investigated, defended and/or resolved, and to allow the Insurer to investigate and determine coverage under the Policy.

7.8 The failure of any Insured Person to give the Insurer cooperation and information as required by Sections 7.6 and 7.7 of this Coverage Section shall not impair the rights of any other Insured Person under this Policy.

7.9 If the Insurer recommends an Early Settlement Opportunity to the Insureds, and:

- (a) the Insureds consent to such Early Settlement Opportunity within thirty (30) days of the Insurer's recommendation thereof; and
- (b) the Claim settles as a result of such Early Settlement Opportunity;

8.1 Subsidiary Creation and Cessation

In the event the Insured Organization creates or acquires a Subsidiary, coverage under this Policy shall extend to such Subsidiary and its Insured Persons, but only with respect to Wrongful Acts, Employment Practices Wrongful Acts, Third Party Wrongful Acts and Fiduciary Wrongful Acts committed or alleged to have been committed, or to Inquiries commenced, after the said date of acquisition or creation.

If any entity ceases to be a Subsidiary after the inception date of the Policy or any Policy of which the Policy is a renewal or replacement, the Policy shall continue to apply to any of the Insured Persons and Subsidiaries who were covered under the Policy because of their service with such Subsidiary, but only with respect to any Wrongful Acts, Employment Practices Wrongful Acts, Third Party Wrongful Acts and Fiduciary Wrongful Acts committed, or to Inquiries commenced, prior to the time such entity ceased to be a Subsidiary.

8.2 Allocation

In the event that a Claim involves both Loss that is partly covered by this Policy and Loss that is not covered, either because a Claim against an Insured includes both covered and uncovered matters or because a Claim is made against covered and uncovered parties, the Insurer and the Insured shall use their best efforts to determine a fair and proper allocation of covered Loss and uncovered Loss, taking into account the relative legal exposures of the covered and uncovered matters and parties under this Policy.

If the amount of covered Loss cannot be agreed, the Insurer shall pay that portion of Loss (pursuant to this Subsection) which the Insured and the Insurer agree is not in dispute until a final amount is agreed upon or determined pursuant to Section 8.16 of the General Terms and Conditions.

8.3 Material Changes in Conditions (Change in Control)

In the event of a Change in Control, this Policy shall only apply to Wrongful Acts, Employment Practices Wrongful Acts, Third Party Wrongful Acts and Fiduciary Wrongful Acts committed, or Inquiries commenced, prior to the effective date of such Change in Control. The full annual premium for the Policy Period shall be deemed fully earned immediately upon the occurrence of such Change in Control and this Policy may not be cancelled thereafter but shall continue until the expiration date shown under Policy Period of the Declarations.

In the event of a Change in Control, the Named Organization will have the option to purchase an Extended Reporting Period as set out in Section 3. of the General Terms and Conditions.

8.4 Cancellation/Termination

- (a) The Named Organization may cancel this Policy by giving notice in writing to the Insurer at any time.
- (b) The Insurer may cancel this Policy by giving thirty (30) days written notice to the Named Organization due to non-payment of premium.
- (c) This Policy may be cancelled in writing by mutual agreement of the Named Organization and the Insurer.
- (d) This Policy shall terminate at the expiration of the Policy Period as stated in the Declarations.
- (e) The Insurer shall give written notice to the Named Organization ninety (90) days in advance of the Policy Period expiry date, in the event the Insurer intends to non-renew this Policy.

If the Named Organization cancels this Policy, the Insurer shall retain the proportion of the premium calculated on a pro-rata basis as at the date of cancellation.

8.5 Other Insurance

This Policy shall apply only in excess of any other valid and collectible insurance, other than insurance written as specific excess insurance over the Policy Aggregate Limit, or over the Shared Limit of Liability or Separate Limit of Liability applicable to any Coverage Section of this Policy.

8.6 Priority of Payments

The Insurer shall pay Loss in the order in which Loss is presented to the Insurer for payment. If Loss, which in the aggregate exceeds the applicable available or remaining available Separate Limit of Liability or applicable Shared Limits of Liability, is payable concurrently under Insuring Agreement A in the Directors' and Officers' Liability Coverage Section and other Insuring Agreements in other Coverage Sections of this Policy, the Insurer will first pay Loss payable under Insuring Agreement A in the Directors' and Officers' Liability Coverage Section. Notwithstanding the above, the Insurer shall upon written request by the Chief Executive Officer or equivalent position of the Named Organization withhold any payment which would otherwise be made under any Insuring Agreements other than Insuring Agreement A in the Directors' and Officers' Liability Coverage Section. Any such withheld payment shall, upon further written request to the Insurer by the Chief Executive Officer or equivalent position of the Named Organization, be paid by the Insurer to either:

- (a) the Insured Organization, if the written request for payment is made within one (1) year of the date of final judgment or resolution of the Claim, Investigation, or Inquiry for which coverage is provided under any Insuring Agreements other than Insuring Agreement A in the Directors' and Officers' Liability Coverage Section; or
- (b) to, or for the benefit of an Insured Person, if such Insured Person has incurred Loss for which coverage is provided under Insuring Agreement A in the Directors' and Officers' Liability Coverage Section.

The order of payment provided for herein shall apply irrespective of the Financial Insolvency of any Insured Organization, provided however that no payment will be compelled without compliance with all necessary judicial authorization, orders and laws.

8.7 Action Against the Insurer

Except as provided in Section 8.16 – ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION, no action shall be taken against the Insurer unless, as a condition precedent thereto, there shall have been full compliance with all the terms and conditions of this Policy.

No suit or action by the Insured, or by any other person or entity claiming through the Insured, or on its behalf, shall lie against the Insurer unless such suit or action is brought in a Court of competent jurisdiction within Canada.

No person or entity shall have the right under this Policy to join the Insurer as a party to any action against the Insured to determine liability of the Insured, nor shall the Insureds or their legal representative implead the Insurer. Financial Insolvency of any Insured, or their estates, shall not relieve the Insurer of any of its obligations hereunder.

8.8 Assignment of Policy

This Policy and any rights hereunder cannot be assigned without the written consent of the Insurer.

8.9 Acceptance and Severability of Application

(a) The Application for this Policy shall be construed as a separate Application by each Insured Person. With respect to the Declarations and statements contained in the Application, no statement in the Application or knowledge possessed by any Insured Person shall be imputed to any other Insured Person. Only the knowledge of any past, present or future chief executive officer or chief financial officer of the Insured Organization shall be imputed to such Insured Organization for the purposes of determining the validity of this Policy as to the coverage provided to such Insured Organization. To each Insureds' best respective knowledge, the particulars and statements contained in the Application are true in all material respects and this Policy is issued in reliance upon the truth of such representations.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Policy and all Coverage Sections hereunder shall be non-rescindable by the Insurer.

8.10 Subrogation and Assignment of Rights

In the event of payment under this Policy, the Insurer shall be subrogated to all of the Insured's rights of recovery in respect of such payment. In addition, the Insured shall execute all documentation that may be necessary to enable the Insurer to bring an action or suit in the name of the Insured. Any recovery received shall first be applied against any payment made by the Insurer, with any balance remaining thereafter being remitted to the Insured.

It is agreed that the Insurer may subrogate against the Insured only in the event of a deliberate criminal or deliberately fraudulent act by the Insured if established by a final, non-appealable adjudication in an underlying action adverse to the Insured.

In the event the Insurer recovers amounts it paid under this Policy or any Coverage Section, whether from the Insured Organization, underlying Insurer or any Third Party, the Insurer will reinstate the Policy Aggregate Limit and any applicable Shared Limit of Liability or Separate Limit of Liability under this Policy to the extent of such recovery.

By paying Loss under this Policy, the Insurer does not waive, compromise or release its right to recover such Loss from the issuers of any other insurance under which coverage may be owed, or from the Insured Organization, or any other party from which the Insured Person is entitled to indemnification.

8.11 Authorization of the Named Insured

The Named Organization shall act as agent on behalf of the Insured in respect of all matters of any nature relating to or affecting this Policy. The Insurer shall be entitled to treat the Named Organization as having such authority for all purposes connected with this Policy. However, if a Claim is made against an Insured Person by the Insured Organization, the Insurer shall have no duty or obligation to communicate with any other Insured Person or the Insured Organization in relation to that Claim.

8.12 Singular and Plural/Masculine and Feminine

Any reference to the singular shall include the plural and vice versa. Any reference to the masculine shall include the feminine and vice versa.

8.13 Territory and Valuation

Coverage under this Policy shall extend anywhere in the world, unless specified otherwise.

All premiums, limits, Retentions, Loss and other amounts under this Policy are expressed and payable in the currency of Canada, unless specified otherwise. If judgment is rendered, settlement is denominated or another element of Loss under this Policy is stated in a currency other than Canadian, payment under this Policy shall be made in Canadian dollars at the rate of exchange published by the Bank of Canada on the date the final judgment is reached, or the amount of the settlement is agreed upon respectively.

8.14 Governing Law

- (a) This Policy shall be governed by the laws of, and, other than as set out in Section 8.16 of the General Terms and Conditions, subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the province or territory where the Named Organization has its principal address, as noted in the Declarations.
- (b) In the event that there is an inconsistency between any applicable provincial or territorial legislation regarding insurance and any term or condition of this Policy, then it is understood and agreed that, where permitted by law, the Insurer shall apply those terms and conditions of either the provincial or territorial insurance legislation or the Policy which are more favorable to the Insured.
- (a) Where this Policy is legally required to be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Quebec:
  - i. Les parties ont expressément convenu que cette convention ainsi que tous documents y afférents soient rédigés en langue anglaise seulement. The parties have expressly agreed that this Policy and all related documents be drafted in the English language only; and
  - ii. The Policy provisions shall be deemed to be amended to comply with the applicable mandatory provisions of the Quebec Civil Code, but only to the extent necessary to comply with such mandatory provisions of the Quebec Civil Code and only to the extent that such mandatory provisions are contrary to the existing terms of this Policy.

8.15 Waiver in Stay in Bankruptcy

It is understood and agreed that the coverage provided under the Policy is intended to protect and benefit the Insured Persons. In the event of Financial Insolvency of the Insured Organization, then, in regard to a covered Claim, Investigation, or Inquiry under the Policy, the Insureds hereby agree not to oppose or object to any efforts by the Insurer or any Insured to obtain relief from any stay or injunction applicable to the proceeds of the Policy as a result of the Financial Insolvency.

8.16 Alternative Dispute Resolution

- (a) All disputes or differences which may arise under or in connection with this Policy, whether arising before or after termination of this Policy, including any determination of the amount of Loss, shall be submitted to an alternative dispute resolution (ADR) process as provided in this clause.
- (b) Mediation

If any dispute arises between any Insured and the Insurer involving this Policy and/or a Claim, Investigation, Derivative Demand or Inquiry hereunder, it is hereby mutually agreed by the Insured and the Insurer that such dispute shall be referred to a qualified mediator in a good faith effort to negotiate a resolution of the dispute, prior to the initiation of any arbitration or other proceedings. The party electing to mediate shall provide written notice to the other party setting forth its request to mediate and a brief statement regarding the issue to be mediated. Notice of Mediation to the Insurer shall be forwarded to the address stated under Notice of the Declarations. The Named Organization is authorized and directed to accept the Notice of Mediation on behalf of any Insured.

(c) Arbitration

As a condition precedent to any right of action hereunder, in the event that a good faith effort to mediate pursuant to Section 8.16 (b) above cannot resolve a dispute between any Insured and the Insurer involving this Policy or a Claim, Investigation, Derivative Demand or Inquiry hereunder, it is hereby mutually agreed that such dispute shall be determined by final and binding arbitration before a single arbitrator under the provisions of the provincial Arbitration Act currently in force in the jurisdiction of the Named Organization's principal address indicated in the Declarations. If the parties cannot mutually select the arbitrator, the parties will refer the selection of the arbitrator to the chapter of the ADR Institute of Canada Inc. operating in the jurisdiction of the applicable Arbitration Act.

(d) ADR Rules

In considering the construction or interpretation of the provisions of this Policy, the mediator or arbitrator(s) must give due consideration of the general principles of the law of the jurisdiction of the Named Organization's principal address. Each party shall share equally the expenses of the ADR. At the election of the Named Organization, the ADR process shall be commenced in Toronto, Ontario, or in the province or territory reflected in the address of the Named Organization, or in accordance with the applicable Arbitration Act. In all other respects, the Insurer and the Named Organization shall mutually agree to the procedural rules for the mediation or arbitration. In the absence of such an agreement, after reasonable diligence, the arbitrator(s) or mediator shall specify commercially reasonable rules.

Directors' and Officers' Liability Coverage Section

This is a Claims Made Coverage Section. In consideration of the payment of premium, and in reliance upon the Application, and subject to the Declarations and the terms and conditions and limitations of this Policy, the Insured and the Insurer agree as follows:

C. Insured Organization Liability Coverage

If no Employment Practices Liability Coverage Section has been purchased with this Policy, as shown in the Declarations, the Insurer shall pay on behalf of the Insured Persons all Loss which the Insured Persons become legally obligated to pay on account of any Claim first made against the Insured Persons during the Policy Period or, if applicable, during the Extended Reporting Period, for an Employment Practices Wrongful Act.

E. Outside Directorship Liability Coverage

The Insurer shall pay on behalf of the Outside Entity Insured Persons all Loss which the Outside Entity Insured Persons become legally obligated to pay on account of any Claim first made against any Outside Entity Insured Persons during the Policy Period or, if applicable, during the Extended Reporting Period, for a Wrongful Act. ### D. Retired/Removed Executive Automatic Extended Reporting Period

If this Policy is: (i) terminated; (ii) not renewed for any reason other than for non-payment of premium; or (iii) not replaced with a directors' & officers' liability Policy on terms substantially the same as this Policy, then solely with respect to any Director and Officer of the Insured Organization who has ceased to act in his capacity as a Director and Officer, other than where directly related to a Change in Control prior to the effective date of such termination, non-renewal, or non-replacement, there shall be an automatic extension of coverage granted by this Policy for a period of twelve (12) months immediately following the effective date of such termination, non-renewal, or non-replacement that allows the Director and Officer to provide notice, but only in respect of Claims for Wrongful Acts first committed, Derivative Demands first made, or an Inquiry first commenced, prior to the effective date of such termination, non-renewal or non-replacement.

The Lender hereby commits to provide the Credit Facility to the Borrowers upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this binding term sheet (this "Term Sheet"). Capitalized terms used herein without express definition will have the same meanings as are assigned to them in Schedule A. Any word defined in or importing the singular number has the same meaning when used in the plural number, and vice versa.

- 1. Lender(s) The Toronto-Dominion Bank ("TD") or its affiliates and/or other lenders to be designated from time to time by TD without the prior written consent of the Borrowers (each a "Lender").
- 2. Borrower(s) CMD Holdings Inc., East Lake Collision Ltd., Mayland Heights Collision Ltd., Sunridge Collision Ltd. 2199931 Alberta Ltd., Collision Kings 3 Ltd. Arrow Auto Body Ltd., CMD Glass Ltd., Royal Vista Collision Ltd., and Stathko Investments Ltd (collectively, the "Borrowers" and each a "Borrower").

- 5. Credit Facility A super-priority, debtor in possession, non-revolving interim-financing facility (the "Credit Facility" or the "Facility") in the maximum amount of $1,125,000 (the "Maximum Amount"). For greater certainty, any interest, expenses or fees that are capitalized and added to the principal amount owing hereunder as contemplated by the terms hereof shall not constitute part of the Maximum Amount, and the Borrowers are and shall be permitted to borrow up to the Maximum Amount without taking into account any such capitalized amounts, subject to the terms and conditions hereof.
- 6. Use of Proceeds Funds advanced under the Credit Facility shall be used to fund the Borrower's working capital needs during the CCAA Proceedings.
- 7. Advances: Advances under the Credit Facility ("Advances") shall be made pursuant to the Cash Flow Forecast and, as applicable, subject to satisfaction of the covenants set out herein. Advances for payables not set out on the Cash Flow Forecast may be made at the sole discretion of the Lender.

Advances shall be disbursed by the Lender to the Borrowers on a weekly basis or as deemed necessary in the sole discretion of the Lender. The Lender shall have the right to cease making or withhold Advances if any of the milestone dates in set forth in Schedule “B” are not met or otherwise complied with.

8. Interest Rate

Amounts drawn and outstanding under the Credit Facility will bear interest at TD's Prime Rate + 4.8% per annum.

Interest on the principal amount outstanding under the Credit Facility shall be capitalized monthly in arrears and payable on the Termination Date (defined below).

Unless otherwise provided for herein, interest on any amount due hereunder shall be calculated daily and not in advance on the basis of a 365-day year. For the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada) in the case of a leap year, the annual interest rate corresponding to the interest calculated on the basis of a 365-day year is equal to the interest rate thus calculated multiplied by 366 and divided by 365. Any amount of principal, interest commission, discount, or any other nature remaining unpaid at maturity, shall bear interest at the rate provided for herein, being understood that the said interest rate on arrears shall not exceed the maximum rate provided by law. Interest on arrears shall be compounded monthly and payable on demand.

9. Fees

Commitment Fee

A fee of $25,000 which shall be deemed fully earned upon issuance of the Initial Order and paid on the Termination Date.

10. Out-of-Pocket Expenses

The Borrower shall be responsible for all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by the Lender, including, without limitation, legal fees (on a solicitor and own client, full indemnity basis) and disbursements, audit, monitoring and valuation fees, travel and advisor fees incurred in connection with the Credit Facility, this Term Sheet, the CCAA Proceedings and/or the enforcement of the Lender's rights under the Term Sheet, the Initial Order, the A&R Initial Order, and the Interim Lender's Charge (collectively, the “Recoverable Expenses”). The Recoverable Expenses shall be secured by the Interim Lender's Charge and paid by the Borrower on demand and/or from the proceeds of each Advance.

11. Term of Credit Facility; Maturity Date

The term of the Credit Facility will be the earlier of (a) four (4) months from the date of the initial Advance under the Credit Facility (the “Maturity Date”), and (b) any other Termination Date.

The Lender shall have the right to terminate the Credit Facility upon the occurrence of an Event of Default in accordance with the terms of this Term Sheet and any applicable orders of the Court.

The Credit Facility may be terminated with the consent of both the Lender and the Borrowers, at which time, all accrued interest, principal, fees and Recoverable Expenses owing shall be paid in cash to the Lender on such Termination Date.

The Lender shall have the right to cease making or withhold Advances if any of the milestone dates in set forth in Schedule “B” are not met or otherwise complied with.

The date on which all outstanding principal and interest under the Credit Facility shall become due and payable will be termed the “Termination Date” and will be the date which is the earliest to occur of the following:

- (a) Maturity Date;
- (b) The date on which any Event of Default occurs or is discovered to have occurred in the past and the Lender has terminated the Credit Facility by notice to the Borrowers (as provided herein);

12. Interim Lender’s Charge and Security:

The Credit Facility shall be secured by a first ranking super-priority security interest in, and during the pendency of the CCAA Proceedings, a first-ranking super-priority interim lender’s charge (the “Interim Lender’s Charge”) on:

- (a) all present and after acquired property of the Borrowers; and
- (b) all present and after acquired property of the Guarantors;

(collectively, the “Collateral”).

As security for the indebtedness and obligations of the Borrowers to the Lender, each Borrower and each Guarantor shall each execute and deliver to the Lender, upon request, any mortgages, charges, security agreements and other documentation as may be required by the Lender to secure, perfect and maintain the Lender's first priority interest over the Collateral (collectively, the "Security"), all which shall be in form and content acceptable to the Lender.

The security interest in the Collateral shall only be subordinate to the Administration Charge (as defined in the Initial Order and the A&R Initial Order) and only up to the amounts set out in the Initial Order and the A&R Initial Order.

13. Mandatory Repayment

Subject to the priority of the Administration Charge, if any Borrower or Guarantor (with the prior written consent of the Lender) disposes, transfers or sells any Collateral outside the ordinary course of business, the proceeds of such sale (net only of usual closing adjustments), up to the total amount of the Borrowers' indebtedness to the Lender under the Credit Facility, shall be paid to the Lender promptly following closing and applied against the indebtedness owing to the Lender under the Credit Facility. Any such repayment by a Borrower shall constitute a permanent reduction of the availability and commitment under the Credit Facility.

14. Conditions Precedent to First Advance

The obligation of the Lender to make the Credit Facility available to any of the Borrowers and to fund an initial Advance under the Credit Facility are subject to and conditional upon satisfaction (or waiver by the Lender) of the following conditions precedent:

- (b) Obtaining the A&R Initial Order;
- (c) the Court shall have on or before February 7, 2024 made the following orders, in form satisfactory to the Lender, and these orders shall not have been stayed, vacated or otherwise caused to be ineffective or amended, restated or modified with out the consent of the Lender;
  - (i) an order approving the Credit Facility and this Term Sheet and granting the Interim Lender's Charge over the Collateral securing all obligations under this Term Sheet; and
  - (ii) an order approving the Stalking Horse APA and SISP;
- (d) completion of all due diligence (including financial, legal and insurance) by the Lender with a satisfactory result;

- (e) each of the representations and warranties made by each of the Borrowers and each Guarantor to the Lender shall be true and correct in all material respects;
- (f) no Material Adverse Change since the granting of the Initial Order, other than any Material Adverse Change previously disclosed in writing to the Lender;
- (g) receipt of, and approval by the Lender, of the Cash Flow Forecast; and
- (h) no Event of Default shall have occurred.

15. Conditions Precedent to each Subsequent Advance under the Credit Facility

The following conditions precedent shall be satisfied, or waived by the Lender, prior to each subsequent advance under the Credit Facility:

- (a) the issuance of the A&R Initial Order;
- (b) delivery to the Lender of a drawdown request by a Borrower;
- (c) the Initial Order or the A&R Initial Order must not be vacated, stayed, amended (without the Lender's consent), appealed or otherwise caused to become ineffective;
- (d) each of the representations and warranties made by the Borrower in this Term Sheet shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date made or deemed made (other than to the extent any representation and warranty relate specifically to an earlier date);
- (e) receipt by the Lender of satisfactory evidence that the Borrowers, on a consolidated basis, have met the Target Revenue Test;
- (f) receipt by the Lender of satisfactory confirmation that:
  - (i) disbursements for non-inventory operating expenses do not deviate greater than 10% (on an aggregate basis over the SISP) from the forecasted values per the Cash Flow Forecast. For clarity, inventory items include parts, paint and other inputs required to complete repairs to vehicles for the purpose of generating revenue; and

5.2 "As is, Where is"

- (a) Except as contemplated in Article 4, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that it is purchasing the Purchased Assets and assuming the Assumed Liabilities on an "as is, where is" basis and on the basis that the Purchaser has conducted to its satisfaction an independent inspection, investigation and verification of the Purchased Assets, Assumed Liabilities and all other relevant matters and has determined to proceed with the transaction contemplated herein and will accept the same at Closing in their then current state, condition, location, and amounts, subject to all Permitted Encumbrances.
- (b) Except as otherwise expressly provided in Article 4, no representation, warranty or condition, whether based in statute, common law or equity, which may be applicable to the subject matter pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, including but not limited to the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods), or express or implied, oral or written, legal, equitable, conventional, collateral, arising by custom or usage of trade, or otherwise is or will be given by the Vendors or the Monitor including as to title, outstanding liens or encumbrances, description, fitness for purpose, merchantability, merchantable quality, quantity, condition (including physical and environmental condition), suitability, durability, assignability, or marketability thereof or any other matter or thing whatsoever, and all of the same are expressly excluded and disclaimed and any rights pursuant to such statutes have been waived by the Purchaser. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that it has relied entirely and solely on its own investigations as to the matters set out above and in determining to purchase the Purchased Assets and assume the Assumed Liabilities pursuant to this Agreement.
- (c) The description of the Purchased Assets and Assumed Liabilities contained herein is for the purpose of identification only and the inclusion of any item in such description does not confirm the existence of any such items or that any such item is owned by the Vendors. Except as otherwise explicitly set forth in Article 4, no representation, warranty or condition has been given by the Vendor or the Monitor concerning the completeness or accuracy of such descriptions and the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that any other representation, warranty, statements of any kind or nature, express or implied, (including any relating to the future or historical financial condition, results of operations, prospects, assets or liabilities of the Vendors or the quality, quantity or condition of the Purchased Assets) are specifically disclaimed by the Vendors.

- (d) Any documents, materials and information provided by the Vendors or Monitor to the Purchaser with respect to the Purchased Assets or Assumed Liabilities (including any confidential information memorandums, management presentations, or material made available in the electronic data room) have been provided to the Purchaser solely to assist the Purchaser in undertaking its own due diligence, and the Vendors and/or Monitor have not made and are not making any representations or warranties, implied or otherwise, to or for the benefit of the Purchaser as to the accuracy and completeness of any such documents, materials or information or the achievability of any valuations, estimates or projections. The Purchaser acknowledges that it has not and will not rely upon any such documents, materials or information in any manner, whether as a substitute for or supplementary to its own due diligence, searches, inspections and evaluations. The Vendors and/or Monitor and their respective Affiliates, directors, officers, employees, agents and advisors shall not be liable for any inaccuracy, incompleteness or subsequent changes to any such documents, materials or information. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the use of the documents may not be possible without the Purchaser obtaining reliance or other assurances from the author of such documents directly and further that the documents may be subject to copyright or other property rights which may preclude their use by the Purchaser in whole or in part.

6. PRE-CLOSING MATTERS

6.3 Operations until Closing

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement or unless otherwise agreed or consented to in writing by the Purchaser, the Vendors shall from the date of this Agreement up to the Closing or selection of another bid for the Purchased Assets as a Successful Bid:

- (a) Conduct of Business: Use commercially reasonable efforts to carry on and conduct the Business (other than in respect of Nick's Repair, Bunzy and 10026923 which may be wound down) and shall maintain the Books and Records in the ordinary course consistent with past practice, and in particular to:

  - (i) the Vendors shall notify the Purchaser promptly in writing of such fact, and if such acts or events constitute a Material Loss, then the Purchaser may, at its option terminate this Agreement and the Deposit will be released to the Purchaser;
  - (ii) if such loss, damage or destruction have not been completely replaced, repaired or otherwise rectified by the Closing, and if the Closing takes place, the Purchase Price will be reduced by an amount equal to the aggregate of:

- (A) the insurance proceeds paid on or before the Closing to the Vendors in respect of such loss, damage or destruction; and

7. CONDITIONS OF CLOSING

7.1 Mutual Conditions

The obligation of the Vendors to complete the transaction contemplated by this Agreement is subject to the fulfilment of each of the following conditions:

- (a) Initial Order. The Court shall have pronounced the Initial Order, which Initial Order shall not have been stayed, set aside, or vacated and no application, motion or other proceeding shall have been commenced by a party with standing to appeal same which has not been fully dismissed, withdrawn or otherwise resolved in a manner satisfactory to the Parties, each acting reasonably.
- (b) Vesting Order. The Court shall have pronounced the Vesting Order, which Vesting Order shall not have been stayed, set aside, or vacated and no application, motion or other proceeding shall have been commenced by a party with standing to appeal same which has not been fully dismissed, withdrawn or otherwise resolved in a manner satisfactory to the Parties, each acting reasonably.
- (c) No Order. No Applicable Law and no judgment, injunction, order or decree shall have been issued by a Governmental Authority (other than the Court or other court with standing) or otherwise in effect that restrains or prohibits the completion of the transaction.

In the event that any of the foregoing conditions are not performed or fulfilled at or before the Outside Date, either Party may terminate this Agreement, in which event, subject to Section 9.2, the Parties will be released from all obligations under this Agreement unless otherwise stated. The foregoing conditions are for the benefit of each Party and either Party will be entitled to waive compliance with any such conditions if it sees fit to do so.

7.2 Conditions of the Purchaser

The obligation of the Purchaser to complete the purchase of the transaction contemplated by this Agreement is subject to the fulfilment of the following conditions:

- (a) Representations and Warranties: The representations and warranties of the Vendors contained in this Agreement being true and correct in all material respects on and as of the Closing with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made as of the Closing (unless otherwise agreed or consented to in writing by the Purchaser);

- (d) Employees: Not more than the greater of: (i) ten percent (10%) or (ii) twelve (12), full time Employees (not including any detailers employed by any of the Vendors or Excluded Employees) of those employees listed in Schedule 7.2(d) (to be calculated net of any replacements that have substantially the same skill set as the Employee they are replacing, as determined by the Purchaser, acting reasonably) being unable or unwilling to accept employment with the Purchaser or any Affiliate as set out in Subsection 6.2(b); and
- (e) Going Concern. The actual cumulative revenue of the Vendors as it relates to the Purchased Assets being at least $1,500,000 for the four (4) week period ending on March 8, 2024, or such other date as determined by the Monitor and the Purchaser, both acting reasonably. For the purposes of this Agreement, “revenue” shall mean the revenue generated by files ‘completed and closed’ during such (4) week period and files ‘completed but not closed’ during such (4) week period. For greater clarity “completed but not closed files” requires that a customer’s vehicle has been returned to them upon completion of repairs.

In the event that any of the foregoing conditions are not performed or fulfilled at or before the Outside Date, the Purchaser may terminate this Agreement, in which event, subject to Section 9.2, the Purchaser will be released from all obligations under this Agreement, and the Vendors will also be so released in each case unless otherwise stated. The foregoing conditions are for the benefit of the Purchaser only and accordingly the Purchaser will be entitled to waive compliance with any such conditions if it sees fit to do so.

Closing with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made as of the Closing;

In the event that any of the foregoing conditions are not performed or fulfilled at or before the Outside Date, the Vendors may terminate this Agreement, in which event, subject to Section 9.2, the Vendors will be released from all obligations under this Agreement unless otherwise stated, and the Purchaser will forfeit its Deposit. The foregoing conditions are for the benefit of the Vendors only and accordingly the Vendors will be entitled to waive compliance with any such conditions if they see fit to do so.

9.1 Grounds for Termination

This Agreement may be terminated prior to Closing:

- (a) by the Vendors upon written notice to the Purchaser if:
  - (i) the Initial Order has not been obtained by February 14, 2024;

9.3 Break Fee

If this transaction is not selected as a Successful Bid for all or substantially all of the Purchased Assets, and such Successful Bid closes, the Purchaser shall be entitled to a break-fee of $150,000 (the “Break Fee”) which shall become payable by the Vendors immediately upon the closing of the transaction by the other Successful Bidder. The Vendors agree to seek from the Court, as part of the order approving the bid of a Successful Bidder for the Purchased Assets, a provision providing for the distribution of the Break Fee to the Purchaser from the purchase price paid by such Successful Bidder. The Vendors agree that upon such completion, the Deposit shall also be refunded to the Purchaser.

9.4 Return of Information

If the transaction contemplated pursuant to this Agreement is not completed, the Purchaser shall return to the Vendors all materials, documentation, data, records, drawings, and other papers and copies thereof (whether on paper or in electronic, magnetic, photographic, mechanical, or optical storage) relating to the Purchased Assets or the Business which is in the possession of the Purchaser and maintain the confidentiality of all information or knowledge obtained from the Vendors, and not use any such information or knowledge for any purpose whatsoever.

If any of the Vendors receive any amount in respect of either: (a) Accounts Receivable forming part of the Purchased Assets; or (b) related to the performance of an Assigned Contract during the period following Closing, the Vendors shall pay over to the Purchaser all monies collected by or paid to the Vendors properly on account of the Purchaser within 30 days of the Vendors receipt thereof. After Closing and for the pendency of the CCAA Proceeding, the Vendors will provide the Purchaser with weekly bank reports and copies of all bank deposit slips, cheque remittances and EFT remittances upon request.

10.3 Change and Use of Name

Following Closing, the Vendors agree that they will use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly change each name of the Vendors so that they do not include any or all of the words “Collision Kings”, “Arrow Auto Body”, “Sunridge Collision”, “East Lake Collision”, “Stathko Investments”, “Nick’s Repair Service”, or “Bunzy’s Auto Body” or any part thereof or any similar words; provided that nothing herein will restrict the Vendors ability to use such names in and for the purpose of the CCAA Proceeding.

10.4 Access to Books and Records

For a period of two (2) years from the Closing Date or for such longer period as may be reasonably required for the Vendors, the Monitor (or any trustee in bankruptcy of the estate of the Vendors) to comply with Applicable Law, the Purchaser will retain all original Books and Records that are transferred to the Purchaser under this Agreement, but the Purchaser is not responsible or liable for any accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, any such Books and Records. So long as any such Books and Records are retained by the Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement, the Vendors (and any representative, agent, former director or officer or trustee in bankruptcy of the estate of the Vendors, including the Monitor) has the right to inspect and to make copies (at its own expense) of them at any time upon reasonable request during normal business hours and upon reasonable notice for any proper purpose and without undue interference to the business operations of the Purchaser.

11. INDEMNITIES

11.1 Purchaser's Limitation

The Vendors will be entitled to make a claim against the Purchaser in respect of the breach of any warranty, representation, covenant or obligation of the Purchaser in or under this Agreement or in or under any document, instrument or agreement delivered pursuant to this Agreement only if written notice of any such claim is given by or on behalf of the Vendors to the Purchaser within two (2) years from the Closing Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, there shall be no obligation on the part of the Purchaser to indemnify the Vendors until the aggregate amount of the loss in respect of which a claim for indemnity has been made by the Purchaser exceeds $5,000.00, whereupon, the full amount of the loss shall become due and payable, provided that and in any event the maximum amount in respect of which the Purchaser shall be liable shall not exceed the amount of the Purchase Price.

- (e) any claim, suit, demand, action, or proceeding made or brought against the Purchaser at any time by any person or Governmental Authority which in any way relates to any act,

Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Vendors, no such assignment will relieve the Purchaser of its obligations and liabilities under this Agreement. In the event of an assignment contemplated above, any reference in this Agreement to "Purchaser" will be deemed to include the aforesaid assignee.

SALE AND INVESTMENT SOLICITATION PROCESS

COLLISION KINGS GROUP INC. ET AL

INTRODUCTION

1. On February 7, 2024, the Honourable Justice Neilson in Alberta Court of King's Bench (the "Court") Action No. _____ (the "CCAA Proceedings") granted an order (the "Initial Order"), among other things:
  - (a) appointing FTI Consulting Canada Inc. ("FTI") as monitor (the "Monitor") of Collision Kings Group Inc., CMD Holdings Inc., East Lake Collision Ltd., Mayland Heights Collision Ltd., Sunridge Collision Ltd., 2199931 Alberta Ltd., Collision Kings 3 Ltd., Arrow Auto Body Ltd., CMD Glass Ltd., Royal Vista Collision Ltd., Stathko Investments Ltd., Nick's Repair Service Ltd., 10026923 Manitoba Ltd. and Bunzy's Auto Body Ltd. (the "CKG Group" or the "Debtors");
  - (b) approving an interim financing agreement with the Toronto-Dominion Bank (the "Interim Lender") providing for financing to the Debtors up to a maximum principal amount of $1,1,25,000, as well as granting a charge over all of the Debtors' present and future assets, property and undertakings of every nature and kind whatsoever, and wherever situate including all proceeds thereof;
  - (c) approving the transaction contemplated in the stalking horse asset purchase agreement (the "Stalking Horse Bid") between certain of the Debtors and the Lift Auto Group Operating Corporation (the "Stalking Horse Bidder"); and
  - (d) authorizing the Monitor, with the assistance of the Debtors, to conduct a sale and investment solicitation process (the "SISP") as further described herein to allow the Debtors to pursue all avenues of sale of their assets or investment in their business, in whole or in part, subject to prior approval of the Court before any material sale or investment.
2. The Debtors intend to provide all qualified interested parties with an opportunity to participate in the SISP.
3. This document (the "SISP Procedure") outlines the SISP, which is comprised of one phase and, if required, an auction.
4. All dollar amounts expressed herein, unless otherwise noted, are in Canadian currency. Unless otherwise indicated herein, any event that occurs on a day that is not a business day in the Province of Alberta (each, a "Business Day") shall be deemed to occur on the next Business Day. All references to time shall be to the current time in Calgary, Alberta. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this SISP Procedure shall have the meanings set forth in the materials filed by the Debtors in support of the SISP Procedure or the reports of the Monitor.

OPPORTUNITY

5. The SISP is intended to solicit interest in, and opportunities for, a sale of, or investment in, all or part of the Debtors' assets and business operations (the "Opportunity"). The Opportunity may include one or more of a restructuring, recapitalization or other form or reorganization of the business and affairs of the Debtors as a going concern, or a sale of all, substantially all, or one or more components of the Debtors' assets (the "Property") and business operations (the "Business") as a going concern or otherwise.

6. Any sale of the Property or investment in the Business will be on an "as is, where is" basis and without surviving representations or warranties of any kind, nature, or description by the Monitor, the Debtors, or any of their respective agents, advisors or estates, and, in the event of a sale, all of the right, title and interest of the Debtors in and to the Property to be acquired will be sold free and clear of all pledges, liens, security interests, encumbrances, claims, charges, options, and interests therein and thereon pursuant to Court orders, to the extent that the Court deems it appropriate to grant such relief and except as otherwise provided in the definitive agreement and such Court orders.

TIMELINE

7. The following table sets out the key milestones under the SISP:

Milestone	Deadline

The dates set out in the SISP may be extended by the Monitor with the consent and approval of the Debtors.

SOLICITATION OF INTEREST: NOTICE OF THE SISP

8. As soon as reasonably practicable, but in any event by no later than February 7, 2024:
- (a) the Debtors, in consultation with the Monitor, will prepare a list of Potential Bidders (as defined herein), including:
    - (i) parties that have approached the Debtors or the Monitor indicating an interest in the Opportunity; and
    - (ii) local and international strategic and financial parties who the Debtors, in consultation with the Monitor, believe may be interested in purchasing all or part of the Business and Property or investing in the Debtors pursuant to the SISP, (collectively, "Known Potential Bidders");
  - (b) the Monitor will arrange for a notice of the SISP (and such other relevant information which the Monitor, in consultation with the Debtors, considers appropriate) (the "Notice") to be published in the National Post, Insolvency Insider and any other industry publication, website, newspaper or journal as the Debtors, in consultation with the Monitor, consider appropriate, if any;

- (c) the Debtors will issue a press release with Canada Newswire setting out the information contained in the Notice and such other relevant information which the Debtors, in consultation with the Monitor, consider appropriate designating dissemination in Canada; and
  - (d) the Debtors, in consultation with the Monitor, will prepare:
    - (i) a process summary (the "Teaser Letter") describing the Opportunity, outlining the process under the SISP and inviting recipients of the Teaser Letter to express their interest pursuant to the SISP; and
    - (ii) a non-disclosure agreement in form and substance satisfactory to the Debtors and the Monitor, and their respective counsel (an "NDA").
9. The Monitor shall send the Teaser Letter and NDA to each Known Potential Bidder by no later than February 10, 2024 and to any other party who requests a copy of the Teaser Letter and NDA or who is identified to the Debtors or the Monitor as a potential bidder as soon as reasonably practicable after such request or identification, as applicable.

Qualified Bidders

10. Any party who wishes to participate in the SISP (each, a "Potential Bidder") other than the Stalking Horse Bidder, must deliver to the Monitor:
- (a) an executed NDA which shall inure to the benefit of any purchaser of the Business or Property, or any portion thereof;
  - (b) a letter setting forth the Potential Bidder's (i) identity, (ii) contact information and (iii) full disclosure of its direct and indirect principals; and
  - (c) a form of financial disclosure and credit quality support or enhancement that allows the Debtors and the Monitor to make a reasonable determination as to the Potential Bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate: (i) the acquisition of all, substantially all or a portion of the Property (each, a "Sale Proposal") or (ii) an investment in, restructuring, reorganization or refinancing of the Business or the Debtors (each, an "Investment Proposal"), as applicable.
11. If the Debtors and the Monitor, determine that a Potential Bidder has:
- (a) delivered the documents contemplated in paragraph 10 above; and
  - (b) the financial capability based on the availability of financing, experience and other considerations, to be able to consummate a sale or investment pursuant to the SISP, then such Potential Bidder will be deemed to be a "Qualified Bidder". For greater certainty, (i) provided the Stalking Horse Bid is approved by the Court, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be deemed to be a Qualified Bidder; and (ii) no Potential Bidder (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) shall be deemed to be a Qualified Bidder without the approval of the Monitor.

12. At any time during the SISP, the Monitor may, in its reasonable business judgment and after consultation with the Debtors, eliminate a Qualified Bidder (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) from the SISP, in which case such bidder will be eliminated from the SISP, will no longer be a Qualified Bidder for the purposes of this SISP, and shall have no further recourse as against the Debtors or the Monitor.

Due Diligence

13. The Monitor, with the assistance of the Debtors, shall prepare a data room with additional information considered relevant to the Opportunity, including (a) a form of purchase agreement; and (b) an estimate of the total Purchase Price set out in the Stalking Horse Bid. The Debtors, the Monitor and their respective advisors make no representation or warranty whatsoever as to the information (including as to the accuracy or completeness of such information) made available pursuant to the SISP, including in the data room, except to the extent expressly contemplated in any definitive sale or investment agreement with a successful bidder ultimately executed and delivered by the Debtors.
14. Potential Bidders must rely solely on their own independent review, investigation and/or inspection of all information and of the Property and Business in connection with their participation in the SISP and any transaction they enter into with the Debtors.
15. The Monitor, in consultation with the Debtors, shall, in its reasonable business judgment and subject to competitive and other business considerations, afford each Qualified Bidder such access to due diligence material and information relating to the Property and Business as they or the Monitor deem appropriate. Due diligence access may include management presentations, access to electronic data rooms, on-site inspections, and other matters which a Qualified Bidder may reasonably request and as to which the Debtors, in their reasonable business judgment and after consulting with the Monitor, may agree.
16. The Monitor shall designate a representative to coordinate all reasonable requests for additional information and due diligence access from Qualified Bidders and the manner in which such requests must be communicated. Neither the Debtors nor the Monitor shall be obligated to furnish any information relating to the Property or Business to any person other than to Qualified Bidders. Furthermore, and for the avoidance of doubt, selected due diligence materials may be withheld from certain Qualified Bidders if the Debtors, in consultation with and with the approval of the Monitor, determine such information to represent proprietary or sensitive competitive information.

PHASE 1: BINDING BIDS

Formal Binding Bids

17. Qualified Bidders that wish to make a formal offer to purchase or make an investment in the Debtors or their Property or Business shall submit a binding offer (a "Binding Bid") that complies with all of the following requirements to the Monitor at the address specified in Schedule "1" hereto (including by e-mail), so as to be received by them not later than 5:00 pm on March 8, 2024 or on such date and time as may be modified by the Monitor (the "Bid Deadline"):

- (a) the bid (either individually or in combination with other bids that make up one bid) is an offer to purchase or make an investment in some or all of the Debtors or their Property or Business and is consistent with any necessary terms and conditions established by the Debtors and the Monitor and communicated to Qualified Bidders;
- (b) the bid includes a letter stating that the Qualified Bidder's offer is irrevocable until the selection of the Successful Bidder (as defined herein), provided that if such Qualified Bidder is selected as the Successful Bidder, its offer shall remain irrevocable until the closing of the transaction with the Successful Bidder;
- (c) the bid includes duly authorized and executed transaction agreements, substantially in the form provided in the data room, including the purchase price, investment amount and any other key economic terms expressed in Canadian dollars (the "Purchase Price"), together with all exhibits and schedules thereto;
- (d) the bid includes written evidence of a firm, irrevocable commitment for financing or other evidence of ability to consummate the proposed transaction, that will allow the Debtors and the Monitor to make a determination as to the Qualified Bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the proposed transaction;
- (e) the bid is not conditioned on (i) the outcome of unperformed due diligence by the Qualified Bidder, apart from, to the extent applicable, the disclosure of due diligence materials that represent proprietary or sensitive competitive information which was withheld from the Qualified Bidder, or (ii) obtaining financing, but may be conditioned upon the Debtors receiving the required approvals or amendments relating to the licences required to operate the Business, if necessary;
- (f) the bid (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) does not include a request for or entitlement to any break fee, expense reimbursement or other similar type payment if the bid is not selected as the Successful Bid (as defined herein);
- (g) the bid fully discloses the identity of each entity that will be entering into the transaction or the financing, or that is participating or benefiting from such bid;
- (h) for a Sale Proposal, the bid includes payment of a non-refundable deposit in the form of a wire transfer to a trust account specified by the Monitor (a "Deposit") in an amount not less than 20% of the Purchase Price by the Bid Deadline;
- (i) for an Investment Proposal, the bid includes payment of a Deposit in the amount of not less than 20% of the total new investment contemplated in the bid by the Bid Deadline;
- (j) the bid includes acknowledgements and representations of the Qualified Bidder that the Qualified Bidder:
  - (i) has had an opportunity to conduct any and all due diligence regarding the Property, the Business and the Debtors prior to making its offer (apart from, to the extent applicable, the disclosure of due diligence materials that represent proprietary or sensitive competitive information which were withheld from the Qualified Bidder);

- (ii) it has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation and/or inspection of any documents and/or the Property in making its bid; and
- (iii) it did not rely upon any written or oral statements, representations, warranties, or guarantees whatsoever, whether express, implied, statutory or otherwise, regarding the Business, the Property, or the Debtors or the completeness of any information provided in connection therewith, except as expressly stated in the definitive transaction agreement(s) signed by the Debtors;
- (k) the bid and Deposit are received by the Bid Deadline;
- (l) the bid contemplates closing the transaction set out therein no later than March 29, 2024.

Assessment of Binding Bids

18. Following the Bid Deadline, the Monitor, together with the Debtors and Interim Lender, will assess the Binding Bids received, following which they will designate the most competitive bids that comply with the foregoing requirements to be "Qualified Bids". No Binding Bids received (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) shall be deemed to be Qualified Bids without the approval of the Monitor. Only Qualified Bidders whose bids have been designated as Qualified Bids are eligible to become the Successful Bidder(s). For certainty, provided the Stalking Horse Bid is approved by the Court, the Stalking Horse Bid is deemed to be a Qualified Bid.
19. If at the Bid Deadline, at least one Qualified Bid other than the Stalking Horse Bid has been received, the Monitor, in consultation with the Debtors and Interim Lender, will evaluate Qualified Bids based upon several factors including, without limitation:
  - (a) the Purchase Price and the net value provided by such bid;
  - (b) the identity, circumstances and ability of the Qualified Bidder to successfully complete such transactions;
  - (c) the proposed transaction documents;
  - (d) factors affecting the speed, certainty and value of the transaction;
  - (e) the assets included or excluded from the bid;
  - (f) any related restructuring costs; and
  - (g) the likelihood and timing of consummating such transaction.

The Debtors may, with the approval of the Monitor and Interim Lender, choose to aggregate separate Binding Bids from unaffiliated Qualified Bidders to create one Qualified Bid if such aggregated Qualified Bid would constitute a superior offer.

Selection of Successful Bid

20. For certainty, if at the Bid Deadline, no Qualified Bids have been received that improve upon the terms and conditions of the Stalking Horse Bid, as determined by the Monitor in consultation with the Debtors and Interim Lender, the Stalking Horse Bid will be declared the highest or otherwise best bid (the "Successful Bid", and, as applicable, the Qualified Bidder making such Successful Bid, the "Successful Bidder") and will close in accordance with the terms of the Successful Bid and any applicable Court orders.

21. If the Monitor, in consultation with the Debtors and Interim Lender, determines, in its reasonable discretion, that:
- (a) one or more Qualified Bids have been received for Property not contemplated in the Stalking Horse Bid, the Monitor may designate the applicable Qualified Bids as the respective Successful Bids for the applicable Property (as well as any applicable Back-up Bids).
  - (b) one or more Qualified Bids have been received for some or all of the Property contemplated in the Stalking Horse Bid, the Monitor may either:
    - (i) designate one or more Qualified Bids as Successful Bids and one or more of the other Qualified Bids as Back-up Bids; or
    - (ii) provide all parties that have made Qualified Bids, including the Stalking Horse Bidder, the opportunity to make further bids through the auction process set out below (the "Auction").

AUCTION

Auction Process

22. In the event of an Auction, the Monitor shall conduct the Auction commencing at 10:00 a.m. on March 13, 2024 at the offices of the Monitor's legal counsel, Cassels, Brock & Blackwell LLP, Suite 3810, Bankers Hall West, 888 3 St SW, Calgary, AB T2P 5C5, or such other location as shall be timely communicated to all entities entitled to attend at the Auction, which Auction may be adjourned by the Monitor.
23. The Auction shall run in accordance with the following procedures, which shall be adjusted accordingly in the event of any adjournment of the Auction by the Monitor:
- (a) prior to 5:00 p.m. on March 11, 2024, the Monitor will provide unredacted copies of the Qualified Bid(s) which the Monitor believes is/are (individually or in the aggregate) the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid(s) (the "Starting Bid") to all Qualified Bidders that have made a Qualified Bid;
  - (b) prior to 5:00 p.m. on March 12, 2024, each Qualified Bidder that has made a Qualified Bid must inform the Monitor by email whether it intends to participate in the Auction (the parties who so inform the Monitor that they intend to participate are hereinafter referred to as the "Auction Bidders");
  - (c) prior to the Auction, the Monitor shall develop a financial comparison model (the "Comparison Model") which will be used to compare the Starting Bid and all Subsequent Bids (as defined below) submitted during the Auction, if applicable;
  - (d) during the morning of March 13, 2024, the Monitor shall make itself available to meet with each of the Auction Bidders to review the procedures for the Auction, the mechanics of the Comparison Model, and the manner by which Subsequent Bids will be evaluated

during the Auction, and the Auction shall be held immediately thereafter;

- (e) only representatives of the Auction Bidders, the Monitor, and such other persons as permitted by the Monitor (and the advisors to each of the foregoing entities) are entitled to attend the Auction in person (and the Monitor shall have the discretion to allow such persons to attend by teleconference);
- (f) the Monitor shall arrange to have a court reporter attend the Auction;
- (g) at the commencement of the Auction, each Auction Bidder shall be required to confirm that it has not engaged in any collusion with any other Auction Bidder with respect to the bidding or any sale;
- (h) only the Auction Bidders will be entitled to make a Subsequent Bid (as defined below) at the Auction; provided, however, that in the event that any Qualified Bidder elects not to attend and/or participate in the Auction, such Qualified Bidder's Qualified Bid, shall nevertheless remain fully enforceable against such Qualified Bidder if it is selected as the Winning Bid (as defined below) or Back-up Bid;
- (i) all Subsequent Bids presented during the Auction shall be made and received in one room and on an open basis. All Auction Bidders will be entitled to be present for all Subsequent Bids at the Auction with the understanding that the true identity of each Auction Bidder at the Auction will be fully disclosed to all other Auction Bidders and that all material terms of each Subsequent Bid will be fully disclosed to all other Auction Bidders throughout the entire Auction;
- (j) all Auction Bidders must have at least one individual present at the Auction with authority to bind such Auction Bidder;
- (k) the Monitor may employ and announce at the Auction such additional procedural rules that are reasonable under the circumstances (including but not limited to, the amount of time allotted to make a Subsequent Bid, requirements to bid in each round, and the ability of multiple Auction Bidders to combine to present a single bid) for conducting the Auction, provided that such rules are (i) not inconsistent with these SISP Procedures, general practice in insolvency proceedings, or the Initial Order and (ii) disclosed to each Auction Bidder at the Auction;
- (l) bidding at the Auction will begin with the Starting Bid and continue, in one or more rounds of bidding, so long as during each round at least one subsequent bid is submitted by an Auction Bidder (each, a "Subsequent Bid") that the Monitor, utilizing the Comparison Model, determines is:
  - (i) for the first round, a higher or otherwise better offer than the Starting Bid;
  - (ii) for subsequent rounds, a higher or otherwise better offer than the Leading Bid (as defined below), in each case by at least the minimum incremental overbid of at least $200,000. After the first round of bidding and between each subsequent round of bidding, the Monitor shall announce the bid (including the value and material terms thereof) that it believes to be the highest or otherwise best offer (in each round, the "Leading Bid"). A round of bidding will conclude after each Auction Bidder has had the opportunity to submit a Subsequent Bid with full knowledge of the Leading Bid;

- (m) to the extent not previously provided (which shall be determined by the Monitor), an Auction Bidder submitting a Subsequent Bid must submit, at the Monitor's discretion, as part of its Subsequent Bid, written evidence (in the form of financial disclosure or credit-quality support information or enhancement reasonably acceptable to the Monitor), demonstrating such Auction Bidder's ability to close the transaction proposed by the Subsequent Bid;
  - (n) the Monitor reserves the right, in its reasonable business judgment, to make one or more adjournments in the Auction of not more than 24 hours each, to among other things (i) facilitate discussions between the Monitor and the Auction Bidders; (ii) allow the individual Auction Bidders to consider how they wish to proceed; (iii) consider and determine the current highest and best offer at any given time in the Auction; and (iv) give Auction Bidders the opportunity to provide the Monitor with such additional evidence as the Monitor, in its reasonable business judgment, may require that that Auction Bidder has sufficient internal resources, or has received sufficient non-contingent debt and/or equity funding commitments, to consummate the proposed transaction at the prevailing overbid amount;
  - (o) if, in any round of bidding, no new Subsequent Bid is made, the Auction shall be closed;
  - (p) the Auction shall be closed within 2 Business Days of the start of the Auction unless otherwise extended by the Monitor; and
  - (q) no bids (from Qualified Bidders or otherwise) shall be considered after the conclusion of the Auction.
24. At the end of the Auction, the Monitor shall select the winning bid (the "Winning Bid"). Once a definitive agreement has been negotiated and settled in respect of the Winning Bid as selected by the Monitor (the "Selected Superior Offer") in accordance with the provisions hereof, the Selected Superior Offer shall be the "Successful Bid" hereunder and the person(s) who made the Selected Superior Offer shall be the "Successful Bidder" hereunder.
25. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Monitor may designate one or more Qualified Bids (whether made in the Auction or not) as a "Back-up Bid" and the person(s) who made the Back-up Bid shall be a "Back-up Bidder" hereunder. A Back-up Bid shall remain enforceable against the Back-up Bidder until either the transaction contemplated by the initial applicable Successful Bid closes (in which case the Back-up Bid shall be deemed to terminate and the Back-up Bidder shall receive its Deposit back) or the transaction contemplated by the initial Successful Bid does not close, in which case the Monitor may deem the best Back-up Bid to be the Successful Bid for the purposes of the SISP Procedures.

Transaction Approval Application Hearing

26. If the Successful Bid is the Stalking Horse Bid, the Stalking Horse Bidder and Debtors will use best efforts to close the transaction by no later than March 15, 2024.

27. If the Stalking Horse Bid is not the Successful Bid, or if the Stalking Horse Bid is a Successful Bid and there is another Successful Bid for separate Property, the Debtors will bring an application to approve the transaction with the other Successful Bidder (the "Transaction Approval Application") as soon as reasonably practicable after finalization of the transaction agreement(s).
28. All the Qualified Bids other than the Successful Bid and Back-up Bids, if any, shall be deemed to be rejected on and as of the date of the closing of the transaction contemplated by the Successful Bid if the Stalking Horse Bid or Court approval of the Successful Bid is not the Stalking Horse Bid.

Confidentiality and Access to Information

29. All discussions regarding a Sale Proposal, Investment Proposal, Binding Bid or Qualified Bid shall be directed through the Monitor. Under no circumstances should the management or employees of the Debtors be contacted directly without the prior consent of the Monitor. Any such unauthorized contact or communication may result in exclusion of the interested party from the SISP Procedures.
30. Participants and prospective participants in the SISP shall not be permitted to receive any information that is not made generally available to all current participants relating to the number or identity of Potential Bidders, Qualified Bidders, Qualified Bids, the details of any bids submitted or the details of any confidential discussions or correspondence between the Debtors, the Monitor and such other bidders or Potential Bidders in connection with the SISP, except to the extent the Debtors, with the approval of the Monitor and Interim Lender and consent of the applicable participants, are seeking to combine separate bids from Qualified Bidders, in which case they shall use reasonable efforts to protect the confidentiality of such party's confidential information.
31. The Monitor may consult with any other parties with a material interest in the CCAA Proceedings (including the Interim Lender) regarding the status of and material information and developments relating to the SISP to the extent considered appropriate by the Monitor (taking into account, among other things, whether any particular party is a Potential Bidder, Qualified Bidder or other participant or prospective participant in the SISP or involved in a bid), provided that such parties shall have entered into confidentiality arrangements satisfactory to the Debtors and the Monitor.

Deposits

32. All Deposits shall be retained by the Monitor in a non-interest-bearing trust account located at a financial institution in Canada selected by the Monitor. The Monitor may waive the requirement of a Deposit if it believes sufficient security or certainty has been provided by a Qualified Bidder, including by way of a credit bid.
33. If there is a Qualified Bid that constitutes a Successful Bid, the Deposit paid by the Successful Bidder shall be applied to the consideration to be paid upon closing of the transaction constituting the Successful Bid.
34. The Deposit(s) from all Qualified Bidders submitting Qualified Bids that do not constitute a Successful Bid or a Back-up Bid shall be returned to such Qualified Bidder within five (5) Business Days of the date that the Debtors select a Successful Bid and Back-up Bid, if applicable.
35. If the Qualified Bidder making a Qualified Bid is selected as the Successful Bid and breaches or defaults on its obligation to close the transaction in respect of its Successful Bid, it shall forfeit its Deposit to the Monitor for and on behalf of the Debtors; provided however that the forfeit of such Deposit shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other rights in law or equity that the Debtors have in respect of such breach or default.

36. If the Debtors are unable to complete the Successful Bid as a result of their own actions and not as a result of steps or conditions contained in the Successful Bid (or the actions of the Successful Bidder) then the Deposit shall be returned to the Successful Bidder.

Supervision of the SISP

37. The Monitor shall oversee the conduct of the SISP in all respects. Without limitation to that supervisory role, the Monitor shall participate in the SISP in the manner set out in this SISP Procedure, the Initial Order, and any other order of the Court, and is entitled to receive all information in relation to the SISP. For the avoidance of doubt, the completion of any Sale Proposal or Investment Proposal shall be subject to the approval of the Court and the requirement of approval of the Court may not be waived.
38. The Monitor, in consultation with the Debtors and Interim Lender, may waive compliance with any one or more of the requirements of this SISP, including, for greater certainty, waiving strict compliance with any one or more of the requirements specified above and deem a non-compliant bid to be a Qualified Bid.
39. This SISP does not, and shall not be interpreted to, create any contractual or other legal relationship between the Debtors or the Monitor and any Potential Bidder, any Qualified Bidder or any other party, other than as specifically set forth in a definitive agreement that may be entered into with the Debtors.
40. Without limiting the preceding paragraph, the Monitor shall not have any liability whatsoever to any person or party, including without limitation any Potential Bidder, Qualified Bidder, the Successful Bidder, any Back-up Bidder, the Debtors, or any other creditor or other stakeholder of the Debtors, for any act or omission related to the process contemplated by this SISP Procedure, except to the extent such act or omission is the result from gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Monitor. By submitting a bid, each Potential Bidder, Qualified Bidder, Successful Bidder and Back-up Bidder shall be deemed to have agreed that it has no claim against the Monitor for any reason whatsoever, except to the extent that such claim is the result of gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Monitor.
41. Participants in the SISP are responsible for all costs, expenses and liabilities incurred by them in connection with the submission of any Binding Bid, due diligence activities, and any further negotiations or other actions whether or not they lead to the consummation of a transaction.
42. Subject to the terms of the Initial Order, the Monitor, in consultation with the Debtors and Interim Lender, shall have the right to modify the SISP if, in its reasonable business judgment, such modification will enhance the process or better achieve the objectives of the SISP; provided that the service list in the CCAA Proceedings shall be advised of any substantive modification to the procedures set forth herein.
43. In order to discharge its duties in connection with the SISP the Monitor may engage professional or business advisors or agents as the Monitor deems fit in its sole discretion.

Further Orders

44. At any time during the SISP, the Monitor or the Debtors may apply to the Court for advice and directions with respect to the discharge of their powers and duties hereunder, if any.

The Vendors and the Monitor are hereby authorized and directed to take such additional steps and execute such additional documents as may be necessary or desirable for completion of the Transaction and conveyance of the Purchased Assets and the assignment of the Assigned Contracts (as defined in the APA) to the Purchaser (the “Assigned Contracts”).

VESTING OF PROPERTY

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Order: (i) this Order shall only be effective and come into force upon the filing of a certificate by the Monitor (the “Monitor’s Bid Selection Certificate”) substantially in the form attached as Schedule “A”; and (ii) this Order may be set aside by this Honourable Court on further application by the Applicants if the Sale Process Certificate is not filed as a result of the APA being the Successful Bid (as defined in the Sales and Investment Solicitation Process attached as Schedule “A” to the Initial Order (the “SISP”) being received within the SISP.
4. Upon delivery of a Monitor’s certificate to the Purchaser substantially in the form set out in Schedule “B” hereto (the “Monitor’s Closing Certificate”) all of the Vendors’ right, title and interest in and to the Purchased Assets shall vest absolutely in the name of the Purchaser, and all of the rights and obligations of the Vendors under and to the Assigned Contracts, listed on Schedule “B”, shall be assigned, conveyed and transferred to, and assumed by, the Purchaser pursuant to section 11.3 of the CCAA free and clear of and from any and all caveats, security interests, hypothecs, pledges, mortgages, liens, trusts or deemed trusts, reservations of ownership, royalties, options, rights of pre-emption, privileges, interests, assignments, actions, judgments, executions, levies, taxes, writs of enforcement, charges, or other claims, whether contractual, statutory, financial, monetary or otherwise, whether or not they have attached or been perfected, registered or filed and whether secured, unsecured or otherwise (collectively, “Claims”) including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing:
  - (a) any encumbrances or charges created by the ARIO;

- (c) any liens or claims of lien under The Builders' Lien Act (Manitoba); and
- (d) those Claims listed in Schedule "E" hereto (all of which are collectively referred to as the "Encumbrances", which term shall not include the permitted encumbrances, caveats, interests, easements, and restrictive covenants listed in Schedule "F" (collectively, "Permitted Encumbrances")) and for greater certainty, this Court orders that all Claims including Encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances, affecting or relating to the Purchased Assets are hereby expunged, discharged and terminated as against the Purchased Assets.

5. Upon delivery of the Monitor's Closing Certificate and the registration in the Winnipeg Land Titles Office ("WLTO") of a Transmission in the form prescribed by The Real Property Act (Manitoba) (the "RPA") duly executed by the Purchaser, and accompanied by a certified true copy of this Order, title to the real property identified in Schedule "C" hereto (the "Bunzy's Real Property") shall vest in the Purchaser subject to all instruments registered on title at that time, other than those described in Schedule "D", and the District Registrar of Manitoba is hereby directed to issue title accordingly.

7. Upon delivery of the Monitor's Closing Certificate, and upon filing of a certified copy of this Order, together with any applicable registration fees, all governmental authorities including those referred to below in this paragraph, but subject to paragraphs 4 and 5 above (collectively, "Governmental Authorities") are hereby authorized, requested and

8. In order to effect the transfers and discharges described above, this Court directs each of the Governmental Authorities to take such steps as are necessary to give effect to the terms of this Order and the APA. Presentment of this Order and the Monitor's Closing Certificate shall be the sole and sufficient authority for the Governmental Authorities to make and register transfers of title or interest and cancel and discharge registrations against any of the Purchased Assets of any Claims including Encumbrances but excluding Permitted Encumbrances.

10. This Order shall be accepted by the District Registrar of Manitoba notwithstanding that the appeal period in respect of this Order has not elapsed, which appeal period is expressly waived.
11. against the net proceeds from sale of the Purchased Assets with the same priority as they had with respect to the Purchased Assets immediately prior to the sale, as if the Purchased Assets had not been sold and remained in the possession or control of the person having that possession or control immediately prior to the sale. Unless otherwise ordered (whether before or after the date of this Order), the Monitor shall not make any distributions to creditors of net proceeds from sale of the Purchased Assets without further order of this Court, provided however the Monitor may apply any part of such net proceeds to repay any amounts the Monitor has borrowed for which it has issued a Monitor's Certificate pursuant to the ARIO.

12. Except as expressly provided for in the APA or by sections 5 of the Alberta Employment Standards Code and The Employment Standards Code (Manitoba) and section 2-10 of The Saskatchewan Employment Act the Purchaser shall not, by completion of the Transaction, have liability of any kind whatsoever in respect of any Claims against the Vendors.
13. Upon completion of the Transaction, the Vendors and all persons who claim by, through or under the Vendors in respect of the Purchased Assets, and all persons or entities having any Claims of any kind whatsoever in respect of the Purchased Assets, save and except for persons entitled to the benefit of the Permitted Encumbrances, shall stand absolutely and forever barred, estopped and foreclosed from and permanently enjoined from pursuing, asserting or claiming any and all right, title, estate, interest, royalty, rental, equity of redemption or other Claim whatsoever in respect of or to the Purchased Assets, and to the extent that any such persons or entities remain in the possession or control of any of the Purchased Assets, or any artifacts, certificates, instruments or other indicia of title representing or evidencing any right, title, estate, or interest in and to the Purchased Assets, they shall forthwith deliver possession thereof to the Purchaser.
14. The Purchaser shall be entitled to enter into and upon, hold and enjoy the Purchased Assets for its own use and benefit without any interference of or by the Vendors, or any person claiming by, through or against the Vendors.
15. Immediately upon closing of the Transaction, holders of Permitted Encumbrances shall have no claim whatsoever against the Vendors.

16. The Monitor is directed to file with the Court a copy of the Monitor's Closing Certificate forthwith after delivery thereof to the Purchaser.
17. Pursuant to clause 7(3)(c) of the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (Canada) and section 20(e) of the Alberta Personal Information Protection Act, the Vendors are authorized and permitted to disclose and transfer to the Purchaser all human resources and payroll information in the Vendors' records pertaining to the Vendors' past and current employees. The Purchaser shall maintain and protect the privacy of such information and shall be entitled to use the personal information provided to it in a manner which is in all material respects identical to the prior use (of such information) to which the Vendors was entitled.

ASSIGNMENT OF ASSIGNED CONTRACTS

18. The assignment of the Assigned Contracts is declared valid and binding upon all of the counterparties to the Assigned Contracts notwithstanding any restriction, condition or prohibition contained in any such Assigned Contract relating to the assignment thereof, including any provision requiring the consent of any party to the assignment.
19. No counterparty under any Assigned Contract, nor any other person, upon the assignment and transfer to, and assumption by, the Purchaser of the Assigned Contracts hereunder shall make or pursue any demand, claim, action or suit or exercise any right or remedy under any Assigned Contract against the Purchaser relating to:
  - (a) the Applicants having sought or obtained relief under the CCAA;
  - (b) the insolvency of the Applicants; or
  - (c) any failure by the Applicants to perform a non-monetary obligation under any Assigned Contract, and all such counterparties and persons shall be forever barred and estopped from taking such action. For greater certainty, nothing herein shall limit or exempt the Purchaser in respect of obligations accruing, arising or continuing after the Closing Date (as defined in the APA) under the Assigned Contracts other than in respect of items (a) – (b) above.

CURE COSTS

20. All monetary defaults in relation to the Assigned Contracts existing prior to the Closing Date, if any, other than those arising by reason only of the insolvency of the Applicants, the commencement of these CCAA proceedings or the failure to perform a non-monetary obligation under any Assigned Contract, shall be paid by the responsible party to the applicable counterparty on the Closing Date (or to the Monitor in trust on Closing for distribution to the applicable counterparty as soon as practicable thereafter) in accordance with the terms of the APA.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS

21. Notwithstanding:
- (a) the pendency of these proceedings and any declaration of insolvency made herein;
  - (b) the pendency of any applications for a bankruptcy order now or hereafter issued pursuant to the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, R.S.C. 1985, c.B-3, as amended (the “BIA”), in respect of the Vendors, and any bankruptcy order issued pursuant to any such applications;
  - (c) any assignment in bankruptcy made in respect of the Vendors; and
  - (d) the provisions of any federal or provincial statute:

the vesting of the Purchased Assets and the Assigned Contracts in the Purchaser pursuant to this Order shall be binding on any trustee in bankruptcy that may be appointed in respect of the Applicants and shall not be void or voidable by creditors of the Applicants, nor shall it constitute nor be deemed to be a transfer at undervalue, settlement, fraudulent preference, assignment, fraudulent conveyance, or other reviewable transaction under the BIA or any other applicable federal or provincial legislation, nor shall it constitute oppressive or unfairly prejudicial conduct pursuant to any applicable federal or provincial legislation.

22. The Monitor, the Applicants, the Purchaser and any other interested party, shall be at liberty to apply for further advice, assistance and direction as may be necessary in order to give full force and effect to the terms of this Order and to assist and aid the parties in closing the Transaction.
23. This Honourable Court hereby requests the aid and recognition of any court, tribunal, regulatory or administrative body having jurisdiction in Canada or in any of its provinces or territories or in any foreign jurisdiction, to act in aid of and to be complimentary to this Court in carrying out the terms of this Order, to give effect to this Order and to assist the Applicants and the Monitor and its agents in carrying out the terms of this Order. All courts, tribunals, regulatory and administrative bodies are hereby respectfully requested to make such order and to provide such assistance to the Monitor, as an officer of the Court, as may be necessary or desirable to give effect to this Order or to assist the Applicants and the Monitor and its agents in carrying out the terms of this Order.
