APPLICANT

NOTICE OF MOTION
(AMENDED CCAA TERMINATION ORDER)

FTI Consulting Canada Inc. (“FTI”), in its capacity as court-appointed monitor of the applicant (in such capacity, the “Monitor”), and pursuant to the authorities granted to the Monitor in the Monitor’s Enhanced Powers Order (as defined below), will make a motion before the Honourable Justice Kimmel of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the “Court”) on January 29, 2026 at 11:00 a.m. ET, or as soon after that time as the motion may be heard by judicial videoconference via Zoom at Toronto, Ontario.

PROPOSED METHOD OF HEARING: The motion is to be heard:

- In writing under subrule 37.12.1(1).
- In writing as an opposed motion under subrule 37.12.1(4).
- In person.
- By telephone conference.
- By video conference.

At a Zoom link to be provided by the Court in advance of the motion.

THE MOTION IS FOR:

1. An Order amending the CCAA Termination and Omnibus Relief Order (“CCAA Termination Order”) granted by the Court dated January 29, 2025 to permit these CCAA proceedings (these “CCAA Proceedings”) to be terminated upon the filing of a termination certificate (the “Amended Certificate”) by the Monitor confirming all remaining activities to be attended to in these proceedings have been completed to the satisfaction of the Monitor, without the specific need to bankrupt the Barbadian Entity (as defined below), and such other relief as the Court deems just.

THE GROUNDS FOR THE MOTION ARE:

Background

2. On March 9, 2021, Just Energy Group Inc. (“Just Energy”) and certain of its affiliates obtained protection under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C., 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”) pursuant to an initial order of the Court (the “Initial Order”). Pursuant to the Initial Order, among other things, a stay of proceedings (the “Stay of Proceedings”) was granted, and FTI was appointed as Monitor of Just Energy and its affiliates.

3. The Court granted an Amended and Restated Initial Order on March 19, 2021, and the Second Amended and Restated Initial Order on May 26, 2021 (the “Second ARI”). These CCAA proceedings were subsequently recognized as foreign main proceedings by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas.

4. On November 3, 2022, the Court granted an Order (the “Reverse Vesting Order”) approving a stalking horse transaction that transferred all excluded assets, liabilities, and contracts to two newly formed ResidualCos. The Reverse Vesting Order further released the Acquired Entities from these CCAA Proceedings, established a $1.9 million Administration Reserve for wind-down costs, and granted broad releases, while preserving certain insured claims related to the Omarali Class Action.

5. On November 3, 2022, the Court also granted the Monitor’s Enhanced Powers & Other Relief Order (the “Monitor’s Enhanced Powers Order”) pursuant to which, on the closing of the Transaction, the Monitor was authorized and entitled to, but was not required, among other things:

- (a) cause the ResidualCos to take any and all actions and steps, and execute agreements and documents on behalf of the ResidualCos;
- (b) exercise any power which may be properly exercised by any board of directors of the ResidualCos;
- (c) engage, retain or terminate, either directly or on behalf of the ResidualCos, services of any officer, employee, consultant, agent, or other persons or entities as the Monitor deems necessary;
- (d) exercise any shareholder, partnership, joint venture or other rights of any of the ResidualCos;
- (e) assign any of the ResidualCos into bankruptcy, and the Monitor is entitled (but not obligated) to act as a trustee in such bankruptcies;
- (f) cause the dissolution or wind-down of any of the ResidualCos; and

(g) act as an authorized representative of the ResidualCos in respect of dealings with any taxing authority.

6. On January 29, 2025, the Court granted the CCAA Termination Order, which (a) approved the activities, conduct and fees of the Monitor and its counsel, including in respect of the completion of the remaining activities in these CCAA proceedings; and (b) provided that these CCAA Proceedings will be terminated upon the Monitor filing the termination certificate confirming that all remaining matters in these proceedings have been completed to the satisfaction of the Monitor.

7. At the time the CCAA Termination Order was granted, the Monitor had identified two remaining matters: (a) the resolution of the plaintiffs' application for leave to appeal to the Court of Appeal for Ontario from the Court's September 20, 2024 decision in the Omarali Class Action; and (b) the assignment in bankruptcy of the Just Energy Services Limited (an Excluded Entity domiciled in Barbados, the "Barbadian Entity"), in respect of which a petition had been filed with the Barbadian Court approximately five months prior to the granting of the CCAA Termination Order.

8. On July 21, 2025, the U.S. Court granted an Order closing the Chapter 15 Proceedings, thereby bringing those foreign recognition proceedings to an end.

9. The Stay of Proceedings has been extended from time to time, including most recently to January 31, 2026.

CCAA Termination and Discharge of the Monitor

10. At this time, the abandonment of the Barbadian Entity remains the only material outstanding item in these CCAA proceedings.

11. In its Sixteenth Report dated January 19, 2024, the Monitor identified 15 remaining entities slated for wind-down, dissolution, or bankruptcy, located in Ireland, Barbados, Canada, and the United States. Since then, the Monitor has completed bankruptcy assignments for all but two entities: the Barbadian Entity and the Canadian ResidualCo, the latter being the sole remaining applicant.

12. The Barbadian Entity is insolvent and has no operations or realizable assets. It was established solely to provide management services to affiliated entities located outside of Barbados.

13. In January 2024, the Monitor engaged local Barbadian counsel and a Barbadian trustee in bankruptcy to petition the Barbadian Entity into bankruptcy in Barbados, being the firms of Clarke Gittens Farmer and Ernst & Young (Barbados), respectively.

14. The Supreme Court of Judicature, High Court of Barbados (the “Barbadian Court”) initially set the petition to assign the Barbadian Entity into bankruptcy to be heard on January 16, 2025. The matter was not heard then and was adjourned to February 20, 2025, which was later adjourned without a further hearing date being scheduled. Barbadian counsel continued to seek a hearing date by contacting both the Barbadian Court and the Barbadian Supervisor of Insolvency.

15. Most recently in December 2025, after further attempts to seek a hearing date, Barbadian counsel advised that they were provided with notice of the end of the Barbadian Court term. The Monitor understands from Barbadian counsel that the delay was generally attributable to limited judicial resources available to hear insolvency matters.

16. Barbadian counsel advised the Monitor that the available next steps were to either: (a) withdraw the existing petition and recommence the process by re-filing with the Barbadian Court, which would result in additional delay and costs; or (b) take no further steps, in which case the Barbadian Entity would effectively be abandoned and, in due course, struck from the Barbadian corporate registry and administratively dissolved. Barbadian counsel was unable to provide any definitive timeline in respect of either option.

17. It is neither fair nor reasonable to prolong these proceedings for an indeterminate period, incurring additional costs and utilizing further judicial resources solely for the purpose of re-attempting to assign the Barbadian Entity into bankruptcy. Accordingly, the Monitor no longer considers that approach to be prudent.

18. The Monitor therefore seeks to complete the remaining activities set out in the Nineteenth Report and file the Amended Certificate notwithstanding that the Barbadian Entity has not been assigned into bankruptcy.

Other Grounds

19. In addition to the other grounds discussed in this Notice of Motion, the Monitor relies on:

- (a) the provisions of the CCAA and the inherent and equitable jurisdiction of this Honourable Court;

- (b) Rules 1.04, 1.05, 2.03, 16, 37, and 59.06 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, R.R.O. 1990, Reg. 194, as amended, and section 137 of the Courts of Justice Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. C.43, as amended; and
- (c) such further and other grounds as the lawyers may advise.

THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE will be used at the hearing of the Motion:

- 20. the Nineteenth Report of the Monitor dated January 22, 2026; and
- 21. such further and other evidence as counsel may advise and this Honourable Court may permit.

(“Just Energy”) and certain of its affiliates (collectively, the “Original Applicants”) were granted protection under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C., c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA” and these proceedings, the “CCAA Proceedings”).
2. Pursuant to the Initial Order, among other things: (a) a stay of proceedings (the “Stay of Proceedings”) was granted; (b) the protections of the Initial Order, including the Stay of Proceedings, were extended to certain subsidiaries of Just Energy that are partnerships (collectively with the Original Applicants, the “Just Energy Entities”); (c) FTI Consulting Canada Inc. 3. The Initial Order was amended and restated on March 19, 2021 (the “ARIO”), and May 26, 2021 (the “Second ARIO”).

4. On March 9, 2021, Just Energy, in its capacity as foreign representative (in such capacity, the “Foreign Representative”), commenced proceedings under Chapter 15 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the “Chapter 15 Proceedings”) for each of the Just Energy Entities with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas (the “U.S. Court”). On April 2, 2021, the U.S. Court granted an Order recognizing these CCAA Proceedings as foreign main proceedings.
5. On November 3, 2022, the Court granted an Order (the “Reverse Vesting Order”) that, among other things:

administer the Remaining Entities. Any unused portion of the Administrative Expense Amount shall be returned to Just Energy.

6. On November 3, 2022, the Court granted the Monitor’s Enhanced Powers & Other Relief Order (the “Monitor’s Enhanced Powers Order”) that, among other things, expanded the powers of the Monitor on the closing of the Transaction. Specifically, the Monitor’s Enhanced Powers Order authorized and empowered, but did not require the Monitor to, among other things:

  - (b) exercise any power which may be properly exercised by any board of directors of the ResidualCos;

  - (g) act as an authorized representative of the ResidualCos in respect of dealings with any taxing authority.
7. On December 1, 2022, the U.S. Court granted an Order recognizing and enforcing the Reverse Vesting Order and the Monitor’s Enhanced Powers Order in the United States.
8. The Transaction closed on December 16, 2022 (the “Closing Date”), and the Reverse Vesting Order took effect at such time. As a result, all of the Original Applicants, save and except for the Remaining Entities, have exited these CCAA Proceedings.

9. On June 22, 2023, the U.S. Court entered a final decree to close the Chapter 15 Proceedings for the Just Energy Entities with the exception of the following entities: (a) Just Energy Group Inc.; (b) Fulcrum Retail Energy LLC; (c) Hudson Energy Services LLC; and (d) Just Energy Texas LP (collectively, the “U.S. Remaining Cases”). The U.S. Remaining Cases will remain open until conclusion of all litigation arising from the Texas winter storm that precipitated these CCAA Proceedings, and pending entry of an additional final decree upon the resolution of such litigation.
10. On June 28, 2023, the Court granted an Order extending the Stay of Proceedings to January 31, 2024.
11. On January 25, 2024, the Court granted an Order extending the Stay of Proceedings to September 30, 2024, and amending the title of these CCAA Proceedings to reflect that the Canadian ResidualCo is the sole remaining Applicant.
12. On March 5, 2024 and April 4, 2024, the Court issued Endorsements addressing procedural matters in the Omarali Class Action, including scheduling a full-day hearing for September 9, 2024.
13. On September 10, 2024, the Court granted an Order extending the Stay of Proceedings to January 31, 2025.
14. On September 20, 2024, the Court granted an Order denying the relief sought by the plaintiffs in the Omarali Class Action. The plaintiffs subsequently sought leave to appeal that decision to the Court of Appeal for Ontario.
15. On January 29, 2025, the Court granted an Order (the “CCAA Termination Order”) that, among other things: (a) approved the activities, conduct and fees of the Monitor and its counsel, including in respect of the completion of the remaining activities in these CCAA Proceedings; (b) provided that these CCAA Proceedings would be terminated and the Monitor discharged upon the Monitor filing with the Court the certificate attached as Schedule “A” thereto (the “CCAA Termination Certificate”) confirming that all remaining activities in these CCAA Proceedings have been completed to the satisfaction of the Monitor; and (c) extended the Stay of Proceedings until the earlier of the CCAA Termination Time and January 31, 2026. A copy of the CCAA Termination Order is attached as Appendix “A” hereto.

16. On February 7, 2025, the Court of Appeal for Ontario denied leave to appeal the September 20, 2024 decision of this Court in the Omarali Class Action.
17. On July 21, 2025, the U.S. Court granted an Order closing the Chapter 15 Proceedings, thereby bringing those foreign recognition proceedings to an end.
18. All references to monetary amounts in this Nineteenth Report of the Monitor (the “Nineteenth Report”) are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise noted.
19. Further information regarding these CCAA Proceedings, including all materials publicly filed in connection with these proceedings, is available on the Monitor’s website at <http://cfcana.ca.fticonsulting.com/justenergy> (the “Monitor’s Website”).
20. Further information regarding the Chapter 15 Proceedings is available on the website of Omni Agent Solutions as the U.S. noticing agent of the Just Energy Entities at <https://omniagentsolutions.com/justenergy>.

PURPOSE

21. The purpose of this Nineteenth Report is to: (a) provide the Court with an update regarding the remaining activities in these proceedings, including the Monitor’s diligent but ultimately unsuccessful efforts to-date to obtain an assignment in bankruptcy of the Barbadian Entity (as defined below); and (b) seek the relief sought by the Monitor in its proposed Order amending the CCAA Termination Order (the “Amending Order”), which attaches an amended CCAA Termination Certificate (the “Amended Certificate”) that clarifies these CCAA Proceedings may be terminated without the bankruptcy of the Barbadian Entity.

TERMS OF REFERENCE AND DISCLAIMER

22. In preparing this Nineteenth Report, the Monitor has relied upon discussions and correspondence with, among others, management of and advisors to the Just Energy Entities as well as other stakeholders and their advisors.
23. The Monitor has prepared this Nineteenth Report to provide information to the Court in connection with the stated purpose above. This Nineteenth Report should not be relied on for any other purpose.

MONITOR'S ACTIVITIES SINCE THE EIGHTEENTH REPORT

24. In accordance with its duties as outlined in the Second ARIQ, the Monitor's Enhanced Powers Order and its prescribed rights and obligations under the CCAA, the activities of the Monitor since the Eighteenth Report of the Monitor dated January 23, 2025 (the "Eighteenth Report") have included the following:
  - (a) monitoring cash receipts to, and disbursements from, the Administrative Reserve (as defined below);
  - (b) coordinating the wind-down of the two Remaining Entities that have not yet been wound down or made subject to bankruptcy proceedings, namely the Canadian ResidualCo (the sole remaining Applicant) and Just Energy Services Limited (an Excluded Entity domiciled in Barbados, the "Barbadian Entity"), including working with Barbadian counsel in an effort to facilitate the Barbadian Entity's wind-down and bankruptcy;
  - (c) filing tax and other returns, as necessary;
  - (d) responding to stakeholder inquiries regarding these CCAA Proceedings; and
  - (e) preparing this Nineteenth Report.

THE ADMINISTRATIVE RESERVE

25. Pursuant to the Transaction Agreement approved by the Reverse Vesting Order, $1.9 million of the Transaction proceeds (the "Administrative Expense Amount") was set aside to fund the remaining costs of these CCAA Proceedings, including the costs to wind down, dissolve and/or assign the ResidualCos into bankruptcy and to administer the Excluded Assets, Excluded Liabilities and Remaining Entities. The purpose of such post-closing activities was principally to achieve finality and resolution in these multi-jurisdictional proceedings.

26. The Reverse Vesting Order directed that the Administrative Expense Amount be paid to the Monitor, in trust, for the purpose of paying the reasonable and documented fees and costs of the Monitor and its professional advisors, and the professional advisors of the Just Energy Entities, in respect of services performed both prior to and following the Closing Date, including in connection with the post-closing activities referenced above.
27. The Monitor's Enhanced Powers Order authorized and empowered the Monitor to take any and all steps in connection with the carrying out of such post-closing activities in respect of the ResidualCos, including assigning any of the ResidualCos into bankruptcy.
28. The Monitor has held the Administrative Expense Amount paid to it in a trust account (the "Administrative Reserve"). As of January 19, 2026, the balance remaining in the Administrative Reserve was approximately $490 thousand.
29. The funds in the Administrative Reserve are finite in nature, and were established to fund the activities required to complete the wind-down of the Remaining Entities within a reasonable time period. Pursuant to the Reverse Vesting Order, any unused portion of the Administrative Reserve is required to be returned to Just Energy.

UPDATE ON WIND-DOWN ACTIVITIES

30. On January 25, 2025, the Court granted the CCAA Termination Order, which provides that these CCAA Proceedings will be terminated upon the Monitor filing the CCAA Termination Certificate confirming that all remaining matters in these CCAA Proceedings have been completed to the satisfaction of the Monitor.
31. At the time the CCAA Termination Order was granted, the Monitor identified two key remaining matters: (a) the resolution of the plaintiffs' application for leave to appeal to the Court of Appeal for Ontario from the Court's September 20, 2024 decision in the

Omarali Class Action; and (b) the assignment in bankruptcy of the Barbadian Entity, in respect of which a petition had been filed with the Barbadian Court approximately five months prior to the granting of the CCAA Termination Order

Status of the Omarali Class Action Application for Leave to Appeal

32. As noted above, on February 7, 2025, the Court of Appeal for Ontario denied leave to appeal the Court's September 20, 2024 decision in the Omarali Class Action. Accordingly, this remaining activity has been finally resolved and does not impede the Monitor's filing of the CCAA Termination Certificate.

Status of Efforts to Assign the Barbadian Entity into Bankruptcy

33. The Sixteenth Report of the Monitor dated January 19, 2024 identified 15 Remaining Entities in respect of which the Monitor intended to take steps to wind down, dissolve, or assign into bankruptcy. Those entities spanned Ireland, Barbados, Canada and the United States. The Monitor has since successfully filed assignments in bankruptcy in respect of all but two such entities, being the Barbadian Entity and the Canadian ResidualCo (which is also the sole remaining Applicant). The Monitor intends to assign the Canadian ResidualCo into bankruptcy immediately after the Barbadian Entity (a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Canadian ResidualCo) has been assigned into bankruptcy, and foresees no complications in taking that step.
34. The Barbadian Entity was established solely to provide management services to affiliated entities located outside of Barbados. It has no operations or realizable assets, and is insolvent.
35. In January 2024, the Monitor retained Barbadian counsel and a Barbadian trustee in bankruptcy in connection with assigning the Barbadian Entity into bankruptcy, being the firms of Clarke Gittens Farmer and Ernst & Young (Barbados), respectively. In August 2024, Barbadian counsel filed a petition to assign the Barbadian Entity into bankruptcy with the Supreme Court of Judicature, High Court of Barbados (the "Barbadian Court").

36. The Barbadian Court initially set the petition to be heard on January 16, 2025. The matter was not heard on that date and was adjourned to February 20, 2025. The February 20, 2025, attendance was subsequently adjourned without a further hearing date being scheduled. Barbadian counsel continued to seek a hearing date to be set by contacting both the Barbadian Court and the Barbadian Supervisor of Insolvency. Most recently, in December 2025, after further attempts to set a hearing date, Barbadian counsel advised the Monitor that they were provided with notice of the end of the current Barbadian Court term. The Monitor understands from Barbadian counsel that the delay was generally attributable to limited judicial resources available to hear insolvency matters. Repeated attempts by Barbadian counsel to obtain a new hearing date have been unsuccessful.
37. In the circumstances, Barbadian counsel advised the Monitor that the available next steps were to either: (a) withdraw the existing petition and recommence the process by re-filing with the Barbadian Court, which would result in additional delay and costs; or (b) take no further steps, in which case the Barbadian Entity would effectively be abandoned and, in due course, struck from the Barbadian corporate registry and administratively dissolved. Barbadian counsel was unable to provide any definitive timeline in respect of either option.

TERMINATION OF THESE CCAA PROCEEDINGS

38. The Stay of Proceedings currently expires on January 31, 2026. All matters in these CCAA Proceedings shall have been attended to by such date, save and except for assigning the Barbadian Entity into bankruptcy as had been earlier intended.
39. Since the Initial Order was granted on March 9, 2021, no party has, to the Monitor's knowledge, asserted any interest in the Barbadian Entity. The Barbadian Entity does not have any realizable assets. In the Monitor's view, its abandonment and corporate dissolution are not anticipated to prejudice any party.
40. By contrast, prolonging these CCAA Proceedings in order to re-attempt the petition to assign the Barbadian Entity into bankruptcy would be directly prejudicial to Just Energy, which is entitled to the return of any unused portion of the Administrative Reserve.

41. In the Monitor's view, it is neither fair nor reasonable to prolong these CCAA Proceedings for an indeterminate period, incur additional costs under the Administrative Reserve, and utilize further judicial resources solely for the purpose of re-attempting to assign the Barbadian Entity into bankruptcy.
42. It is neither necessary nor customary for debtors in CCAA proceedings to be assigned into bankruptcy in order for such proceedings to be completed and terminated. Rather, termination orders ordinarily permit (but do not require) bankruptcy proceedings to be initiated from and after the termination of CCAA proceedings.<sup>3</sup> Nothing in these CCAA Proceedings requires the Monitor to assign the Barbadian Entity into bankruptcy. Further, there is no legal, contractual or other impediment to the Monitor electing not to pursue such relief.
43. In its prior reports to the Court and stakeholders, the Monitor advised of its intention to assign the Barbadian Entity into bankruptcy prior to filing the CCAA Termination Certificate. As described above, circumstances surrounding bankruptcy of the Barbadian Entity have changed, and upon further consideration, the Monitor no longer considers that approach to be a prudent use of further time and resources. The Monitor therefore seeks to file the Amended Certificate notwithstanding that the Barbadian Entity has not been assigned into bankruptcy.
44. Just Energy, as the sole interested party, has been advised through its counsel that the Monitor intends to take no further steps with respect to the Barbadian Entity and intends to terminate these CCAA Proceedings by filing the Amended Certificate in due course if the proposed Amending Order is granted. Just Energy has confirmed that it supports the Monitor in doing so and the relief requested.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CCAA TERMINATION ORDER

45. The Amending Order amends two provisions of the CCAA Termination Order. First, it amends paragraph 7 of the Order to clarify that these CCAA Proceedings shall be terminated upon the Monitor filing the Amended Certificate, which removes references to the “Uncontentious Outcome” regarding the Omarali Class Action having occurred, which was confirmed as having been resolved earlier in this Nineteenth Report.
46. Second, it attaches the Amended Certificate which excludes from its recitals references to the Uncontentious Outcome and the Barbadian Entity being bankrupted. The effects of these changes are to simplify and clarify the documentation to reflect the present realities of these CCAA Proceedings, including that the Barbadian Entity shall not petitioned into bankruptcy.

REMAINING ACTIVITIES

47. The Monitor regards the following as the remaining activities required to be completed in these CCAA Proceedings:
  - (a) initiating a bankruptcy proceeding in respect of the Canadian ResidualCo;
  - (b) filing any outstanding tax returns;
  - (c) completing the statutory and administrative steps necessary for the termination of these CCAA Proceedings and the discharge of the Monitor;
  - (d) serving and filing the Amended Certificate confirming all such foregoing steps have been completed; and
  - (e) releasing any unused portion of the Administrative Reserve to Just Energy.

CONCLUSION

48. The Monitor is of the view that the requested relief contained within the Amended Order including the Amended Certificate is reasonable and justified in the circumstances.

Accordingly, the Monitor respectfully requests that the proposed Amending Order be granted so that these CCAA Proceedings can be brought to a close.

The Monitor respectfully submits this Nineteenth Report to the Court dated this 22nd day of January, 2026.
