FIRST REPORT TO THE COURT
SUBMITTED BY FTI CONSULTING CANADA INC., IN ITS CAPACITY AS RECEIVER

1. On January 17, 2012, pursuant to an application (the “CCAA Proceedings”) brought before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the “Court”) by NFC Acquisition GP Inc., NFC Acquisition Corp. and NFC Land Holdings Corp. (collectively, the “Applicants”) and together with NFC Acquisition L.P., and New Food Classics, “NFC”) under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”), the Honourable Mr. Justice Morawetz made an initial order (as extended from time to time, the “Initial Order”) in respect of NFC, which, inter alia, appointed FTI Consulting Canada Inc. as monitor (in that capacity, the “Monitor”).

2. On February 16, 2012, upon motion made by the Applicants, the Court, inter alia, extended the stay of proceedings contained in the Initial Order to March 30, 2012, and granted a charge in favour of Westco Multi Temp Distribution Centres Inc. (“Westco”), NFC’s Saskatoon cold storage provider, as security for pre-filing statutory lien amounts relating to NFC products released by Westco after the making of the Initial Order.

3. For the reasons set out in the Third Report of the Monitor filed in the CCAA Proceedings, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix “A” (the “Monitor’s Third Report”), on February 22, 2012, Bank of Montreal (“BMO”) brought: (i) a motion for leave in the CCAA Proceedings to lift the stay of proceedings contained in the Initial Order to allow BMO to bring an application for the appointment a receiver of the property, assets and undertaking of the NFC entities (the “NFC Assets”); and (ii) an application under section 243(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act and section 101 of the Courts of Justice Act for the appointment of FTI as receiver (in that capacity the “Receiver”) of the NFC Assets. The Court granted the BMO motion and the application, and made the Order in these proceedings dated February 22, 2012 (the “Receivership Order”), a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix “B”.

PURPOSE OF THIS REPORT

4. The purpose of this First Report of the Receiver is to provide the Court with the background information and Receiver’s recommendation relating to the Receiver’s motion for :

- (a) the approval of the Court, pursuant to subparagraph 3(1)(ii) of the Receivership Order, for the Receiver to enter into, and carry out the terms of an agreement with Grand River Foods Ltd. (“Grand River”) to sell certain pieces of equipment owned by NFC (the “Equipment”) currently located in the NFC Saskatchewan facility, to Grand River (the “Transaction”);

- (b) an order vesting the Equipment in Grand River effective upon closing of the Transaction; and
- (c) such other relief as counsel may advise and the Court permit.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

5. In preparing this report, the Receiver has relied upon unaudited financial information of NFC, NFC’s books and records, certain financial information prepared by NFC and discussions with NFC’s management. The Receiver has not audited, reviewed or otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the information. Accordingly, the Receiver expresses no opinion or other form of assurance on the information contained in this report or relied on in its preparation. Future oriented financial information reported or relied on in preparing this report is based on management’s assumptions regarding future events; actual results may vary from forecast and such variations may be material.

6. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings set out in the Monitor’s Third Report and the Receivership Order.

CCAA PROCEEDINGS - TRANSACTION PROCESS

7. Pursuant to paragraph 44 of the Initial Order, NFC and the Monitor were authorized to conduct the Transaction Process outlined in the Prefiling Report of FTI in the CCAA Proceedings. Immediately following the making of Initial Order, the Monitor contacted 11 parties which had been identified by the Applicants as possible qualified purchasers of the Applicants' businesses on a going-concern and that were likely to be acceptable to NFC's major customers. The Monitor also contacted NFC's largest customers to identify additional possible qualified purchasers.

8. On January 20 and 23, 2012, the Monitor published the Sales Ad in the Globe & Mail National edition, which resulted in forty-one prospective purchasers being identified and making contact with the Monitor. Of those forty-one parties, twenty-two parties executed Confidentiality Agreements and received the Confidential Information Memorandum.

9. Additional details regarding the of Expressions of Interest received by the Monitor, the parties participating in Phase 2 of the Transaction Process, and the Monitor's dealings with the Selected Parties that submitted Final Offers, and the events subsequent thereto are set out in the Monitor's Third Report and the Confidential Appendix "A" thereto.

10. As set out in the Monitor's Third Report, BMO delivered a Sales Process Default Notice under the DIP Credit Agreement and ultimately commenced the Receivership Proceedings.

RECEIVER'S RECOMMENDATION

11. Since the commencement of the Receivership Proceedings, the Monitor has been in touch with approximately 11 of the parties that submitted EOIs that reflected a going concern transaction, in order to determine whether any of them had an interest in acquiring the manufacturing assets of NFC in either Saskatoon or St. Catharines as turn-operations, before the Receiver embarked on soliciting liquidation bids and piecemeal offers for NFC's manufacturing assets. Based on the responses to those communication, the Receiver has concluded that there are no commercially reasonable or reasonably foreseeable opportunities to sell the Saskatoon manufacturing assets on a turn-key basis, as the parties contacted either had no interest operating from the Saskatoon facility or would only take over the assets on terms that that were financially or legally untenable such as not becoming a successor employer to the Saskatoon Union.

12. During the course of those communications, Grand River approached the Receiver about the possible acquisition of the Equipment. After completing its discussions with the remaining parties that submitted going concern EOIs for the Saskatoon facility, the Receiver commenced negotiation of the terms of an agreement that ultimately resulted in the Agreement of Purchase and Sale with Grand River for the purchase of the Equipment, a redacted copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix “C”, and a complete copy is filed but not attached as Confidential Appendix “C” (the “Grand River Agreement”).

13. As part of the Transaction Process, BMO commissioned an appraisal of the NFC Assets including the NFC Saskatoon facility equipment from Century Services. A copy of the Century Services Appraisal, together with the Receiver’s analysis of the values of the Equipment contained in the Grand River Agreement is filed but not attached as Confidential Appendix “D”.

14. Based on the Receiver’s analysis contained in Confidential Appendix “D” and the factors, processes and considerations described above and in the Monitor’s Third Report, the Receiver respectfully recommends that the Court approve the Grand River Agreement, authorize the Receiver to carry out the Transaction, and grant the Vesting Order.

All of which is respectfully submitted this 5th day of March, 2012.

NFC ACQUISITION GP INC., NFC ACQUISITION CORP. AND NFC LAND HOLDINGS CORP.

THIRD REPORT TO THE COURT
SUBMITTED BY FTI CONSULTING CANADA INC., IN ITS CAPACITY AS MONITOR

1. On January 17, 2012, pursuant to an application brought before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the “Court”) by NFC Acquisition GP Inc., NFC Acquisition Corp. and NFC Land Holdings Corp. (collectively, the “Applicants” and together with NFC Acquisition L.P., and New Food Classics, “NFC”) under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”), the Honourable Mr. Justice Morawetz made an initial order (the “Initial Order”) in respect of NFC, which, inter alia, appointed FTI Consulting Canada Inc. as monitor (the “Monitor”), with the powers and obligations set out in the Initial Order and as set forth in the CCAA. A copy of the Initial Order is contained in Tab 1 of the NFC Compendium of Orders filed with the Court.

2. On February 16, 2012, upon motion made by the Applicants, the Court, inter alia, extended the stay of proceedings contained in the Initial Order to March 30, 2012, and granted a charge in favour of Westco Multi Temp Distribution Centres Inc. (“Westco”), NFC’s Saskatoon cold storage provider, as security for pre-filing statutory lien amounts relating to NFC products released by Westco after the making of the Initial Order. A copy of the February 16, 2012, Order is contained at Tab 4 of the NFC Compendium of Orders. In connection with the February 16, 2012 motion, the Monitor filed its Second Report dated February 13, 2012 (the “Second Report”) describing the Monitor’s and the Applicants’ actions with respect to the Transaction Process leading up to February 13, 2012, the date by which final binding proposals for the purchase of NFC’s assets were to be received by the Monitor under the Transaction Process described in paragraphs 36 to 37 of the proposed Monitor’s Pre-Filing Report dated January 16, 2012, (the “Pre-Filing Report”) a copy of which can be found at Tab 1 of the NFC Compendium of Monitor’s Reports, and approved in the Initial Order.

PURPOSE OF THIS REPORT

3. The purpose of this Third Report is to inform and update the Court on the following matters:

- (a) Summarizing the Expressions of Interest received by the Monitor as of the January 30, 2012, Transaction Process deadline, as well as the parties (the “Selected Parties”) that were invited to participate in Phase 2 of the Transaction Process;
- (b) The course of dealings of the Monitor and NFC with respect to the Selected Parties (as defined herein) during Phase 2 of the Transaction Process; and
- (c) Summarizing the final proposals submitted as of the close of business on February 13, 2012, the final proposal deadline;

- (d) Summarizing certain material events relating to NFC's products and dealings with certain major NFC customers since February 13, 2012;
- (e) Describing the terms of the DIP Facility approved in the Initial Order, the communications sent by Bank of Montreal ("BMO"), as DIP Lender, to the Applicants on February 20, 2012, and the effect upon the Applicants' ability to carry on business after that date;
- (f) The Monitor's recommendations regarding a realization strategy for the NFC assets.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

4. In preparing this report, the Monitor has relied upon unaudited financial information of NFC, NFC's books and records, certain financial information prepared by NFC and discussions with NFC's management. The Monitor has not audited, reviewed or otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the information. Accordingly, the Monitor expresses no opinion or other form of assurance on the information contained in this report or relied on in its preparation. Future oriented financial information reported or relied on in preparing this report is based on management's assumptions regarding future events; actual results may vary from forecast and such variations may be material.

5. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings set out in the Pre-Filing Report, the first report of the Monitor dated January 20, 2012 (the "First Report") a copy of which is at Tab 2 of the NFC Compendium of Monitor's Reports and the Second Report.

EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST RECEIVED BY THE MONITOR

6. On January 30, 2012, the Transaction Process deadline, eleven parties submitted Expressions of Interest (“EOIs”) to the Monitor. Of the eleven EOIs, four were proposals from liquidators, five were from strategic industry parties, and two were submitted by financial buyers. A list of the parties that submitted EOIs, the Selected Bidders, and the parties that submitted Final Offers is filed, but not attached hereto, as Confidential Appendix “A”.

7. On January 31, 2012, the Monitor, NFC and BMO met to evaluate and determine which parties that submitted EOIs would be invited to continue to Phase 2 of the Transaction Process. All submitted EOIs were evaluated and compared on the basis of factors including inter alia whether the offer would maximize value for NFC assets, the treatment of NFC’s employees and the closing conditions and other risks associated with a closing of the acquisition. Based on the foregoing evaluation criteria, of the eleven parties who submitted Expressions of Interest, seven Selected Parties were invited to proceed to Phase 2 of the Transaction Process.

DEALINGS AMONG THE MONITOR, NFC AND THE SELECTED PARTIES

8. During Phase 2 of the Transaction Process, the Selected Parties were given additional access to confidential information relating to NFC in the Data Room and were invited to schedule site visits and attend management presentations. During Phase 2 of the Transaction Process, the Monitor responded to over fifty phone calls a day from Selected Parties and their Advisors and followed up with various Selected Parties to offer additional management presentations and opportunities for site tours. In response to the Monitor’s offer, three of the seven Selected Parties attended presentations and conducted site visits of the Applicants’ facilities.

9. Because NFC's major customers were not committed to NFC pursuant to binding sales contracts, as part of their due diligence process, Selected Parties sought any and all information and comfort that they could obtain with respect to the intention of NFC's major customers to pursue a business relationship with a purchaser of NFC, and the details thereof including future pricing and sales volumes. Significant amounts of customer information were included in the Data Room on a real time basis and the Monitor held ongoing discussions with NFC's major customers to keep them updated on the Transaction Process. This enabled Selected Customers to seek all necessary information with respect to the level of commitment was available regarding future pricing and sales volumes.

10. In addition to the foregoing, the Monitor, with the assistance of senior management of NFC, responded to various requests for additional information by uploading requested supplementary information about the NFC's operations to the Data Room. Upon receipt of a request for additional information, the Monitor undertook to reorganize and catalogue the Data Room to correspond with the format and itemization of each Selected Parties' request to ensure ease and efficiency in the due diligence process. The reorganization and inclusion of any additional information was made available to all the Selected Parties to ensure fairness of the process.

11. On February 8, 2012, the Monitor received a letter from counsel to Selected Party #6 requesting that the Monitor provide additional information pursuant to an itemized list set forth therein, and demanded that the Phase 2 Due Diligence Review period be extended beyond the February 13, 2012, deadline on the basis that new information was progressively being made available in the Data Room since February 1, 2012.

12. Fasken Martineau, counsel to the Monitor, responded with a letter dated February 9, 2012, explaining that the majority of additional information requested is already contained in the Data Room, to which Selected Party #6 was given access to since February 1, 2012. Fasken Martineau also confirmed that the Monitor has no authority to alter the timelines of the Phase 2 of the Transaction Process.

13. On February 9, 2012, the Monitor received an email from Selected Party #1, stating that they no longer had an interest in proceeding with the bid process and as such would not be submitting a Final Offer.

RECEIPT OF FINAL OFFERS

14. As at 8pm on February 13, 2012, the deadline for submission of final binding offers (“Final Offers”) in the Transaction Process, the Monitor received three Final Offers from the Selected Parties indicated in Confidential Appendix “A”.

15. Following a comparative review of the three Final Offers with the Applicants’ Board of Directors, TD Capital Mezzanine Partners Management Ltd. and BMO, the Monitor worked with NFC management and two of the bidders (one industry party and one financial party) (the “Final Two Bidders”) to refine the terms of their bids in order that they be in a format that is capable of acceptance by NFC and presentation to BMO.

CUSTOMER COMMUNICATIONS

16. As set out in the Applicants’ materials filed in support of the application for the Initial Order, NFC’s financial condition was inter alia attributable to its losses from the refusal of certain of NFC’s major customers to authorize price increases for finished product after the market prices of inputs such as beef and energy rose in 2010 and 2011. Following the making of the Initial Order, and after discussions and negotiations with NFC and the Monitor, one of NFC's major customers (the "Major Customer") agreed to implement a price increase for products commencing February 1, 2012. This revised pricing information was included in the Data Room and available to Selected Parties.

17. In the early evening of February 13, 2012, NFC was contacted by the Major Customer advising that it had received a competitive bid for the manufacture of certain products currently made by NFC and that NFC had one business day to determine if it would agree to match the competitive bid price (or implicitly lose the customer's business). The competitive bid was alleged by the Major Customer to represent a $1.7 million annual saving to it, as compared to the current NFC pricing.

18. The Monitor advised the Final Two Bidders of the information given the materiality thereof. In the days between February 13 and February 20, 2012, numerous discussions took place among the Major Customer, NFC, the Monitor and each of the Final Two Bidders in the hope that a transaction could be structured that would result in a going concern sale of the NFC Saskatoon production facility, or possibly both NFC production facilities.

NFC PRODUCT RECALLS

19. On the afternoon of February 15, 2012, the Monitor learned that a consumer was alleged to have consumed and made ill by E. coli bacteria contained in a frozen hamburger manufactured by NFC's Saskatoon Facility in October of 2011. NFC immediately worked with the Federal health authorities and its insurers to implement a product recall and consumer advisory programme (the "Recall"). NFC was able to determine that the batch of raw material used to produce the allegedly contaminated brand of frozen hamburgers only made up a relatively small (3,800 out of approximately two million cases of frozen hamburger products manufactured by NFC annually) quantity of product, which is readily identifiable by NFC and consumers alike. Though the quantum of possibly contaminated finished goods remaining on hand with NFC was negligible, the Monitor immediately communicated the facts relating to the Recall to the Final Two Buyers forthwith.

20. On February 20, 2012, after further testing, NFC expanded the Recall to include the frozen hamburger products which were manufactured by NFC after the Recalled Products on the same NFC line of equipment (the “Additional Recalled Products”) until that equipment was cleaned and sterilized by NFC’s contractors at the end of the manufacturing shift. The Additional Recalled Products total approximately 767 cases.

TRANSACTION PROCESS

21. Under the Transaction Process, NFC had until the close of business on February 17, 2012, to put forward a form of agreement of purchase and sale to BMO in its capacity as DIP Lender in order for BMO to determine, in its sole discretion, whether it will agree to advance an additional DIP amount of up to $7 million to fund the working capital requirements of NFC leading up to a going concern sale closing in mid to late March, 2012.

22. The Monitor and NFC management continued to work diligently with the Final Two Buyers and other NFC stakeholders, including the landlord of the Saskatchewan Facility and major customers, in order to conclude a form of Asset Purchase Agreement that would result in a going concern sale transaction. Specifically, a going concern sale transaction that would produce a higher level of recovery to NFC’s creditors, including in particular BMO, relative to a non-going concern sale scenario recognizing that a going-concern sale would require BMO to advance up to $7million in additional working capital (the “Additional DIP Advance”) into the NFC business pending the closing of a transaction.

23. On Friday, February 17, 2012, after a further conference call with NFC, the Monitor and the Major Customer, one of the Final Two Bidders formally withdrew from the Transaction Process. A subsequent call was held with the one remaining bidder (the “Final Bidder”) and the Major Customer. Following that discussion the Bidder confirmed that it was willing to proceed with an amended form of going concern asset purchase agreement (the “Amended Offer”), that would require BMO to fund the full Additional DIP Advance.

24. The Monitor has conducted an analysis of the economic terms of the Amended Offer as compared to a liquidation scenario. Based upon the Monitor’s analysis, the Amended Offer would result in recoveries to BMO which are not materially different than the low end of the Monitors projected recoveries in a Liquidation scenario. However, the Amended Offer requires BMO to make the full Additional DIP Advance and thereby risk incurring material additional losses on the Additional DIP Advance if the Amended Offer fails to close. (In fact even if the proposed transaction closed, BMO would suffer losses on the Additional DIP Advance, given the discount being offered by the Final Bidder for NFC inventory and accounts receivable in the Amended Offer).

25. The Monitor reviewed the Amended Offer with the Board of Directors of the Applicants and presented the results of the Monitor’s comparison of the Amended Offer and the liquidation analysis. The NFC Board asked that the Monitor go back to the Final Bidder to ask for a further revision to the Amended Offer, and asked the Monitor to request BMO to allow for certain limited additional funding of NFC's operations for one to two weeks, while a viable going concern transaction could be negotiated with the Final Bidder. The Monitor communicated both requests, and was rejected in both cases.

26. On the afternoon of Monday January 20, 2012, BMO delivered a notice that a "Sales Process Default" under the DIP Credit Agreement had occurred (the "Default Notice"), thereby terminating the Applicants' availability under the DIP Credit Facility.

27. At Meeting of the Board of Directors of NFC held on the evening of February 20, 2012, the Board of Directors of the Applicants resigned en masse, and accepted the resignations of the President and Chief Executive Officer of NFC.

MONITOR'S RECOMMENDATION

28. In light of the delivery of the Default Notice by BMO, the resignation of the NFC Board of Directors and management, the lack of funding for NFC's business and the perishable nature of NFC's inventory, the Monitor is of the view that it is vital to have an immediate and orderly shut-down of the NFC manufacturing operations and a swift transition to a court-appointed receivership of the assets of NFC. The Monitor is hopeful that a buyer for the closed NFC manufacturing facilities can be quickly identified among the parties that participated in the Transaction Process, and that the manufacturing facilities can be sold on a turn-key basis in a short period of time, rather than liquidated.

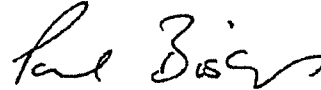

29. The Monitor has prepared a cash flow projection for the conduct of a shut-down receivership of the assets of NFC, which would be funded pursuant to Receiver's Certificates.

- 12 -

BMO has agreed to fund such Receiver Certificate amounts on a basis and priority consistent with the existing DIP Facility and DIP Charge.

30. FTI Consulting Canada Inc. consents to act as receiver of the assets of NFC.

2.8 Breach by Purchaser

If the Purchaser fails to comply with the terms of this Agreement on the Closing Date, the Vendor may by notice to the Purchaser elect to treat this Agreement as having been repudiated by the Purchaser. In that event the Purchased Assets may be resold and/or reassigned by the Vendor. In addition, the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor on demand the deficiency, if any, arising upon such resale and reassignment (after deducting the expenses of resale and reassignment) together with interest and all other damages or charges occasioned by or resulting from the default by the Purchaser.

The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees as follows:

- (a) the Purchased Assets are purchased on an "as is, where is" basis at the Closing Date;
- (b) it has conducted or will conduct its own searches and investigations relating to the Purchased Assets;

The Purchased Assets shall remain at the risk of the Vendor, to the extent of its interest, until Closing. If there occurs any material damage to the Purchased Assets prior to Closing, then the Purchaser may, at its option: (a) complete the Closing without reduction of the Purchase Price, in which event all applicable proceeds of insurance or compensation shall be payable to the Purchaser; or (b) terminate the Agreement, with the result that the Parties shall be released from all obligations and liabilities arising under this Agreement.

4.4 Transfer and Delivery of Purchased Assets

The Purchaser acknowledges that it shall be the Purchaser's sole responsibility to obtain, at its own expense, any consents, approvals or any further documentation or assurances which may be required to carry out the terms of this Agreement, including in respect of any Purchased Assets subject to lease or any Purchased Assets which are not assignable without the consent or other action of a third party or parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Vendor shall execute and deliver to the Purchaser all such bills of sale, assignments, instruments of transfer, deeds, assurances, consents and other documents as shall be reasonably necessary to effectively transfer to the Purchaser, or as the Purchaser may direct, all the Company's and the Vendor's, if any, right, title and interest in, to and under, or in respect of, the Purchased Assets, provided that any such documents shall contain no representations or warranties of the Vendor except for those provided herein; the Vendor shall deliver up or cause to be delivered up to the Purchaser, or as the Purchaser may direct, the Purchased Assets, free and clear of all Encumbrances by way of the Vesting Order and shall execute and deliver such documents to effect registrations, recordings and filings with public authorities as may be reasonably required in connection with the transfer of ownership to the Purchaser of the Purchased Assets.

- (a) all of the representations and warranties of the Vendor made in or pursuant to this Agreement shall be true and correct at the Closing Time and with the same effect as if made at and as of the Closing Time (except as such representations and warranties may be affected by the occurrence of events or transactions expressly contemplated and permitted by this Agreement) and the Purchaser shall have received a certificate from a senior officer of the Vendor confirming to his knowledge, without personal liability, the truth and correctness of such representations and warranties;
- (b) the Vendor shall have performed or complied with, in all material respects, all its obligations, covenants and agreements under this Agreement;

If any of the foregoing conditions in this Section 5.1 has not been fulfilled by the Closing Time, the Purchaser may terminate this Agreement by notice to the Vendor, in which event the Purchaser is released from all obligations under this Agreement, and unless the Purchaser can show that the condition relied upon could reasonably have been performed by the Vendor, the Vendor is also released from all obligations under this Agreement. However, the Purchaser may waive compliance with any condition in whole or in part if it sees fit to do so, without prejudice to its rights of termination in the event of non-fulfilment of any other condition, in whole or in part, or to its rights to recover damages, if any, for the breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or condition contained in this Agreement.

5.2 Conditions Precedent of the Vendor

- (e) all consents, approvals and authorizations of any Person required in connection with the completion of any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, the execution of this Agreement, the Closing or the performance of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, shall have been obtained at or before the Closing Time on terms acceptable to the Vendor, acting reasonably.

If any of the foregoing conditions in this Section 5.2 has not been fulfilled by the Closing Time, the Vendor may terminate this Agreement by notice to the Purchaser, in which event the Vendor is released from all obligations under this Agreement, and unless the Vendor can show that the condition relied upon could reasonably have been performed by the Purchaser, the Purchaser is also released from all obligations under this Agreement. However, the Vendor may waive compliance with any condition in whole or in part if it sees fit to do so, without prejudice to its rights of termination in the event of non-fulfilment of any other condition, in whole or in part, or to its rights to recover damages, if any, for the breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or condition contained in this Agreement.
