NOTICE OF MOTION
(Motion Returnable November 23, 2020)

WINNERS MERCHANTS INTERNATIONAL L.P., an Ontario limited partnership, by its general partner WM-1 Holding Company, a Nova Scotia Corporation (“Winners”), will make a motion before a Judge of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) on November 23, 2020 at 12:00 p.m., or as soon after that time as the motion can be heard, by judicial teleconference via Zoom at Toronto, Ontario.

PROPOSED METHOD OF HEARING: The motion is to be heard orally.

THE MOTION IS FOR:

1. An Order
 - a) declaring that the Co-Tenancy Stay (as defined below) is no longer of any force or effect in accordance with its terms as against Winners, a co-tenant of the Applicants,

- in relation to its lease with OPB Realty Inc. (the “Landlord”) for a retail store in the commercial shopping centre known as Pen Centre, located at 221 Glendale Ave., St. Catharines, Ontario (the “Affected Location”);
- b) declaring that Winners is entitled to exercise any rights that it may have against the Landlord arising from the failure of any of the Applicants to operate in the Affected Location (the “Co-Tenant Rights”);
 - c) in the alternative, permanently vacating and/or lifting the Co-Tenancy Stay as against Winners in respect of the Affected Location;
 - d) declaring that the Co-Tenancy Stay did not suspend or otherwise delay the running of the waiting period with respect to the exercise of Winners’ Co-Tenant Rights in respect of the Affected Location;
 - e) the costs of this motion, if opposed; and
 - f) such further and other relief as counsel may request and this Honourable Court may deem just.

THE GROUNDS FOR THE MOTION ARE:

2. Winners is not a creditor of the Applicants, and has not filed any claims against the Applicants in this proceeding. However, Winners is impacted by the stay of proceedings provided in paragraph 15 of the Initial Order (the “Co-Tenancy Stay”) of the Honourable Mr. Justice Hainey, dated June 22, 2017, as amended and restated on July 13, 2017 (the “Initial Order”), and as extended by subsequent Orders made in this proceeding, which provides:

15. THIS COURT ORDERS that during the Stay Period, no Person having any agreements or arrangements with the owners, operators, managers or landlords of commercial shopping centres or other commercial properties (including retail, office and industrial (warehouse) properties) in which there is located a store, office or warehouse owned or operated by the Sears Canada Entities shall take any Proceedings or exercise any rights or remedies under such agreements or arrangements that may arise upon and/or as a result of the making of this Order, the insolvency of, or declarations of insolvency by, any or all of the Sears Canada Entities, or as a result of any steps taken by the Sears Canada Entities pursuant to this Order and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no Person shall terminate, accelerate, suspend, modify, determine or cancel any such arrangement or agreement or be entitled to exercise any rights or remedies in connection therewith.

Impact of the Co-Tenancy Stay on Winners

3. In Canada, Winners operates approximately 500 retail locations. Many of its retail stores are located in commercial shopping centres, which usually have one or more “anchor” tenants, such as a large department store or retail chain.

4. The terms of Winners’ leases with its landlords typically grant Winners certain rights (the “Co-Tenant Rights”), including, without limitation, the right to a reduction or the restructuring of rent in the event that specifically-named or unnamed anchor tenants (such as the Applicants) cease to operate within the shopping centre, or if the amount of occupied retail space in the shopping centre falls below a specified percentage of total available space.

5. Typically, in the event such triggering circumstances arise, Winners’ leases allow Winners, as co-tenant, to reduce or withhold certain monthly fees payable to the landlord, or pay a percentage of gross sales for the month in lieu of rent. In most cases, Winners also has the right to terminate the applicable lease without penalty.

6. Some of the Co-Tenant Rights are subject to waiting periods before Winners can exercise its rights (collectively, “Waiting Periods”). There is often a Waiting Period during which the shopping centre is not occupied by an anchor tenant (such as, in this instance, the Applicants) before any adjustment can be made to Winners' rent. Similarly, for leases where Winners' Co-Tenant Rights include the right to terminate the lease, typically a longer Waiting Period applies before Winners is entitled to exercise its right of termination.

7. Winners, as successor in interest to Winners Merchants Inc., entered a Lease Agreement with the Landlord for a retail store in the Affected Location on July 3, 2001, for an original term ending September 30, 2011, and as extended by letter agreements dated March 11, 2011, July 15, 2011, and July 7, 2016 to an ultimate expiration of January 31, 2022 (the "Lease"). The Lease contains the following co-tenancy clause, which includes Winners' Co-Tenant Rights and the applicable Waiting Periods:

4.7 If for any period of more than [redacted] consecutive days either (I) any two (2) or more of the "Inducement Stores" or "Approved Replacement Tenants" (each as defined in Schedule "G") shall not be open for business to retail customers, or (II) [redacted] percent ([redacted] %) or more of the gross leaseable area of the Shopping Centre ... shall not be open for business to retail customers, then (A) during each such period, no minimum rent shall be payable under Section 5.1, no percentage rent shall be payable under Section 7.3, no charges under Section 7 of Schedule B shall be payable, and no real estate taxes or assessments under Article VI shall be payable, and in lieu thereof, Tenant shall pay to Landlord on or before the twentieth (20th) day after the end of each of the calendar month or fraction thereof included in such period, an amount equal to the lesser of either the monthly installment of minimum rent which otherwise would have been payable for said month under Section 5.1 or [redacted] percent ([redacted]%) of Gross Sales (as defined in Section 7.2) for said month, and (B) in addition, Tenant may terminate this lease at anytime during any such period by giving Landlord at least [redacted] days written notice thereof, and the term of this lease shall then terminate on the date therefor set forth in said notice, unless the cessation of business described in Sections (I) or (II) above shall stop (i.e., the applicable stores shall reopen for business as herein required within [redacted] days from the date of Tenant's notice to Landlord.

8. The Applicants ceased to operate in the Affected Location by about January 14, 2018.

9. As a result of the Co-Tenancy Stay, Winners has been unable to fully exercise its Co-Tenant Rights in respect of the Affected Location.

10. To date, the financial impact of the Co-Tenancy Stay on Winners in respect of the Affected Location is approximately CAD $205,145.70, not including the value of any termination rights that may be part of the Co-Tenant Rights.

11. Winners has at all times intended to assert all the Co-Tenant Rights available to it pursuant to the lease for the Affected Location.

The Co-Tenancy Stay is no longer operative in accordance with its terms

12. The terms of the Co-Tenancy Stay preclude co-tenants of the Applicants such as Winners from exercising their rights only if certain conditions exist. In particular, the Co-Tenancy Stay only stays Co-Tenant Rights in a commercial shopping centre or other commercial property “in which there is located a store, office, or warehouse owned or operated by the Sears Canada Entities”.

13. Based on the literal wording of paragraph 15 of the Initial Order, the Co-Tenancy Stay ceased to have any effect on a co-tenant once the Applicants ceased to own or operate a store, office, or warehouse in a given commercial shopping centre or other commercial property.

14. As set out in the Fourteenth Report of the Monitor, dated March 1, 2018, as of the date of that report, all retail store leases had been disclaimed by the Applicants, and the Applicants no longer occupied any such retail store locations. All retail stores operated by the Applicants are now closed, including the retail store in the Affected Location. Accordingly, the Co-Tenancy Stay has ceased to apply as against Winners as a co-tenant of the Applicants in the Affected Location.

15. Further, on its face, the Co-Tenancy Stay did not affect any substantive rights the co-tenants may have pursuant to leases with the landlords affected by the Co-Tenancy Stay. Neither the Initial Order, nor the plain language of the Co-Tenancy Stay makes any reference to the staying or delaying of any applicable Waiting Period.

16. Winners seeks a declaration that the Co-Tenancy Stay did not delay or otherwise affect the running of the applicable Waiting Period.

The Co-Tenancy Stay should be permanently vacated or lifted as against Winners

17. In the alternative, it is appropriate that the Co-Tenancy Stay be permanently vacated and/or lifted as against Winners in respect of the Affected Location.

18. The circumstances, which led to the imposition of the Co-Tenancy Stay at the time the Initial Order was granted, no longer exist. In particular:

- a. The liquidation of assets at the Applicants' retail locations is complete;
- b. All of the Applicants' retail locations are closed;
- c. All leases in respect of the Applicants' retail locations have been disclaimed or surrendered back to the landlord;
- d. Any premises previously owned by the Applicants in locations where Winners is a co-tenant have been sold;
- e. The Co-Tenancy Stay no longer provides any justifiable benefit to any of the stakeholders of the Applicants; and

- f. The continuation of the Co-Tenancy Stay significantly prejudices Winners as a co-tenant because of the continuing postponement of its ability to enforce its contractual rights against the Landlord.

THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE will be used at the hearing of the motion:

- a. The Affidavit of Dean Michaels, sworn September 1, 2020 and the Exhibits attached thereto; and
- b. Such further and other evidence as counsel may advise and this Honourable Court may permit.

AFFIDAVIT OF DEAN MICHAELS

I, DEAN MICHAELS, of the City of Vaughan, in the Province of Ontario, Canada,

MAKE OATH AND SAY:

1. I am the VP Real Estate for Winners Merchants International L.P., an Ontario limited partnership by its general partner WM-1 Holding Company, a Nova Scotia corporation (“Winners”). As such, I have personal knowledge of the matters to which I hereinafter depose, unless stated to be based upon information and belief, in which case I state the source of my information and believe it to be true.
2. This affidavit is in support of a motion by Winners for, among other things, a declaration that the stay of proceedings (the “Co-Tenancy Stay”) established pursuant to paragraph 15 of the Initial Order (as further described herein), pronounced on June 22, 2017, as amended and restated on July 13, 2017, and as extended pursuant to subsequent Orders of this Court, is of no further force or effect as against Winners, a co-tenant of the Applicants, in relation to its lease with OPB

Realty Inc. (the “Landlord”) for a retail store in the commercial shopping centre known as Pen Centre, located at 221 Glendale Ave., St. Catherines, Ontario (the “Affected Location”).

Winners is Affected by the Co-Tenancy Stay

3. Winners is not a creditor of the Applicants. However, Winners has been affected by the Co-Tenancy Stay arising from paragraph 15 of the Initial Order, as amended and restated, which provides:

15. THIS COURT ORDERS that during the Stay Period, no Person having any agreements or arrangements with the owners, operators, managers or landlords of commercial shopping centres or other commercial properties (including retail, office and industrial (warehouse) properties) in which there is located a store, office or warehouse owned or operated by the Sears Canada Entities shall take any Proceedings or exercise any rights or remedies under such agreements or arrangements that may arise upon and/or as a result of the making of this Order, the insolvency of, or declarations of insolvency by, any or all of the Sears Canada Entities, or as a result of any steps taken by the Sears Canada Entities pursuant to this Order and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no Person shall terminate, accelerate, suspend, modify, determine or cancel any such arrangement or agreement or be entitled to exercise any rights or remedies in connection therewith.

4. A copy of the Initial Order, dated June 22, 2017, is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “A”.

5. A copy of the Amended and Restated Initial Order, dated July 13, 2017, is attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “B”.

6. In Canada, Winners operates approximately 500 retail locations. Many of its retail stores are located in commercial shopping centres, which usually have one or more “anchor” tenants, such as a large department store or retail chain.

7. The terms of Winners’ leases with its landlords typically grant Winners certain rights (the “Co-Tenant Rights”), including, without limitation, the right to a reduction or the restructuring of rent in the event that specifically-named or unnamed anchor tenants such as the Applicants cease to operate within the shopping centre, or if the amount of occupied retail space in the shopping centre falls below a specified percentage of total available space.

8. Typically, in the event such circumstances occur, Winners' leases allow Winners, as co-tenant, to reduce or withhold certain monthly fees payable to the landlord or pay a percentage of gross sales for the month in lieu of rent. In most cases, Winners also has the right to terminate the applicable lease without penalty.

9. Some of the Co-Tenant Rights are subject to waiting periods before Winners can exercise its rights (collectively, "Waiting Periods"). There is often a Waiting Period during which the shopping centre is not occupied by an anchor tenant (such as, in this instance, the Applicants) before any adjustment can be made to Winners' rent. Similarly, for leases where Winners' Co-Tenant Rights include the right to terminate the lease, typically a longer Waiting Period applies before Winners is entitled to exercise its right of termination.

10. Co-Tenant Rights are very important to Winners. It is typical for Winners to negotiate to have Co-Tenant Rights in most of its leases. However, the specific nature of the Co-Tenant Rights and the Waiting Periods varies from location to location and lease to lease, and result from extensive negotiations and compromise between Winners and its landlords. The details of such provisions are viewed as commercially sensitive in the leasing industry.

11. Winners entered a Lease Agreement with the Landlord for a retail store in the Affected Location on July 3, 2001, for a term originally ending September 30, 2011. The term was extended by way of letter agreements dated March 11, 2011, July 15, 2011, and July 7, 2016 to ultimately expire on January 31, 2022 (the "Lease"). The Lease contains the following co-tenancy clause, which includes Winners' Co-Tenant Rights and the applicable Waiting Periods:

4.7 If for any period of more than [redacted] consecutive days either (I) any two (2) or more of the “Inducement Stores” or “Approved Replacement Tenants” (each as defined in Schedule “G”) shall not be open for business to retail customers, or (II) [redacted] percent ([redacted] %) or more of the gross leaseable area of the Shopping Centre ... shall not be open for business to retail customers, then (A) during each such period, no minimum rent shall be payable under Section 5.1, no percentage rent shall be payable under Section 7.3, no charges under Section 7 of Schedule B shall be payable, and no real estate taxes or assessments under Article VI shall be payable, and in lieu thereof, Tenant shall pay to Landlord on or before the twentieth (20th) day after the end of each of the calendar month or fraction thereof included in such period, an amount equal to the lesser of either the monthly installment of minimum rent which otherwise would have been payable for said month under Section 5.1 or [redacted] percent ([redacted]%) of Gross Sales (as defined in Section 7.2) for said month, and (B) in addition, Tenant may terminate this lease at anytime during any such period by giving Landlord at least [redacted] days written notice thereof, and the term of this lease shall then terminate on the date therefor set forth in said notice, unless the cessation of business described in Sections (I) or (II) above shall stop (i.e., the applicable stores shall reopen for business as herein required within [redacted] days from the date of Tenant’s notice to Landlord.

12. Attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “C” is a redacted copy of the relevant co-tenancy clause of the Lease, and the Lease extension letters noted above.
13. Pursuant to Schedule “G” of the Lease, the “Inducement Stores” are identified as The Bay, Sears, and Zellers.
14. The Applicants ceased to operate in the Affected Location by about January 14, 2018.
15. Despite repeated requests on behalf of Winners, the Landlord of the Affected Location does not agree to Winners exercising its Co-Tenant Rights triggered by the closure of the Sears retail location in the Affected Location. Accordingly, Winners has been unable to exercise its Co-Tenant Rights in respect of the Affected Location.
16. To date, the financial impact of the Co-Tenancy Stay on Winners in respect of the Affected Location is approximately CAD $205,145.70, not including the value of any termination rights that may be part of the Co-Tenant Rights.

The Co-Tenancy Stay is likely no longer of any force or effect

17. Winners has at all times intended to assert all the Co-Tenant Rights available to it pursuant to the lease for the Affected Location.

18. Paragraph 15 of the Initial Order states that the Co-Tenancy Stay applies to persons having agreements with landlords of, “commercial shopping centres...in which there is located a store, office, or warehouse owned or operated by the Sears Canada Entities.” [emphasis added]

19. As stated in the Twelfth Report of the Monitor, dated February 13, 2018, the liquidation of assets at the Applicants’ retail locations was complete and all of the Applicants’ retail locations were closed by February, 2018. Attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “D” is a copy of the Twelfth Report of the Monitor, dated February 13, 2018, without exhibits.

20. As mentioned in the Fourteenth Report of the Monitor, dated March 1, 2018, as of the date of that report, all retail store leases had been disclaimed by the Applicants, and the Applicants no longer occupied any such retail store locations. Attached hereto and marked as Exhibit “E” is a copy of the Fourteenth Report of the Monitor, dated March 1, 2018, without exhibits.

21. It is Winners’ view that since all the Applicants’ retail leases have been disclaimed and the Applicants have ceased occupying any Sears Canada Inc. retail stores in any shopping centres or other commercial properties, the Co-Tenancy Stay is no longer of any force or effect as against Winners in relation to the Affected Location.

22. Based on the filings posted to the website maintained by the Monitor for the Applicants’ restructuring proceeding, I observe that similar motions have been filed in this proceeding by The Children’s Place (Canada) LP (“The Children’s Place”), GAP (Canada) Inc. (“GAP”), and Old

Navy (Canada) Inc., as well as FGL Sports Ltd., on September 6, 2018, September 7, 2018, and January 21, 2020 respectively.

23. In the Twenty-Sixth Report of the Monitor, dated October 11, 2018, setting out, among other things, the Monitor's comments on the Children's Place and GAP motions, the Monitor stated that it was unaware of any reasons to disagree with the position asserted in the above-noted motions, i.e., that the Co-Tenancy Stay has expired on its terms because the Applicants' retail operations have been permanently closed. Attached hereto and marked as Exhibit "F" is a copy of the Twenty-Sixth Report of the Monitor, dated October 11, 2018 (without exhibits).

The Co-Tenancy Stay should be permanently vacated as against Winners

24. Winners seeks an order permanently vacating and lifting the Co-Tenancy Stay as against Winners in respect of the Affected Location, because the underlying purpose for such a stay no longer exists.

25. From reviewing the material filed by the Applicants in respect of the Initial Order, it appears that the Applicants made submissions to the court arguing that the Co-Tenancy Stay was necessary to ensure the orderly wind-down of the Applicants' operations in Canada, and to postpone the Co-Tenant Rights of the co-tenants for a finite period.

26. The circumstances, which led to the imposition of the Co-Tenancy Stay at the time of the Initial Order no longer exist. The orderly wind-down of the Applicants' business is complete. In fact, no Sears retail store has operated in Canada since on or about January 28, 2018.

27. I do not believe that the Co-Tenancy Stay provides any further benefits to the stakeholders of the Applicants. Should the Co-Tenancy Stay be lifted and Winners be able to exercise its rights against the Landlord, I do not believe that it would have any negative effect on the Applicants'

CCAA proceedings. The Co-Tenancy Stay merely delays the inevitable date on which Winners may exercise its Co-Tenant Rights.

28. Co-Tenant Rights are purely a matter of contract between Winners and its various landlords. In this case, the Landlord agreed to grant the Co-Tenant Rights to Winners as a commercial term of the lease for the Affected Location, and voluntarily assumed the risk that the Applicants might cease operations at some point during the term of the lease. To the extent that the Landlord has suffered any loss as a result of the insolvency of the Applicants, none results from any act or omission of Winners.

29. To the extent that the Co-Tenancy Stay remains operative as against Winners in relation to the Affected Location and the stay is not lifted, Winners will suffer prejudice, as it will be unable to enforce its Co-Tenant Rights, and it will be further delayed in obtaining the benefit of the abatement of rent and other relief it is entitled to pursuant to the lease for the Affected Location.

The Co-Tenancy Stay had no effect on the Waiting Period

30. Winners also seeks a declaration confirming that the applicable Waiting Period ran during the period of the Co-Tenancy Stay, such that Winners is not further delayed in enforcing or seeking relief pursuant to the Co-Tenant Rights it negotiated with the Landlord of the lease for the Affected Location.

31. From reviewing the material filed by the Applicants in respect of the Initial Order, it appears that when the Applicants brought their Application, they did not ask the Court to affect any substantive rights of the Co-Tenants, or to delay the running of any Waiting Period.

32. The Initial Order and Co-Tenancy Stay in particular make no reference to the staying or delaying of any Waiting Period, nor do any subsequent Orders in these proceedings appear to affect Waiting Periods.

33. Winners therefore asks this Court to confirm and declare that the Co-Tenancy Stay did not delay or otherwise affect the running of the applicable Waiting Period, and as a result, that the applicable Waiting Period ran during the period of the Co-Tenancy Stay.

34. I make this affidavit in support of the within motion and for no other or improper purpose.

LEGAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF FEDEX SHIPPING DEFINITIONS. On this Air Waybill, "we", "our", "us", and "FedEx" refer to Federal Express Corporation, its subsidiaries and branches and their respective employees, agents, and independent contractors. The terms "you" and "your" refer to the shipper, its employees, principals and agents. If your shipment originates outside the United States, your contract of carriage is with the FedEx subsidiary, branch or independent contractor who originally accepts the shipment from you. The term "package" means any container or envelope that is accepted by us for delivery, including any such items tendered by you utilizing our automated systems, meters, manifests or waybills. The term "shipment" means all packages which are tendered to and accepted by us on a single Air Waybill. AIR CARRIAGE NOTICE. For any international shipments by air, the Warsaw Convention, as amended, may be applicable. The Warsaw Convention, as amended, will then govern and in most cases limit FedEx's liability for loss, delay of, or damage to your shipment. The Warsaw Convention, as amended, limits FedEx's liability. For example in the U.S. liability is limited to $9.07 per pound (20$ per kilogram), unless a higher value for carriage is declared as described below and you pay any applicable supplementary charges. The interpretation and operation of the Warsaw Convention's liability limits may vary in each country. There are no specific stopping places which are agreed to and FedEx reserves the right to route the shipment in any way FedEx deems appropriate. ROAD TRANSPORT NOTICE. Shipments transported solely by road to or from a country which is a party to the Warsaw Convention or the Contract for the International Carriage of Goods by Road (the "CMR") are subject to the terms and conditions of the CMR, notwithstanding any other provision of this Air Waybill to the contrary. For those shipments transported solely by road, if a conflict arises between the provisions of the CMR and this Air Waybill, the terms of the CMR shall prevail. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. If not governed by the Warsaw Convention, the CMR, or other international treaties, laws, other government regulations, orders, or requirements, FedEx's maximum liability for damage, loss, delay, shortage, mis-delivery, nondelivery, misinformation or failure to provide information in connection with your shipment is limited by this Agreement and as set out in the terms and conditions of the contract of carriage. Please refer to the contract of carriage set forth in the applicable FedEx Service Guide or its equivalent to determine the contractual limitation. FedEx does not provide cargo liability or all-risk insurance, but you may pay an additional charge for each additional U.S. $100 (or equivalent local currency for the country of origin) of declared value for carriage. If a higher value for carriage is declared and the additional charge is paid, FedEx's maximum liability will be the lesser of the declared value for carriage or your actual damages. LIABILITIES NOT ASSUMED. IN ANY EVENT, FEDEX WON'T BE LIABLE FOR ANY DAMAGES WHETHER DIRECT, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL IN EXCESS OF THE DECLARED VALUE FOR CARRIAGE (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO LOSS OF INCOME OR PROFITS) OR THE ACTUAL VALUE OF THE SHIPMENT, IF LOWER, WHETHER OR NOT FEDEX HAD ANY KNOWLEDGE THAT SUCH DAMAGES MIGHT BE INCURRED. FedEx won't be liable for your acts or omissions, including but not limited to incorrect declaration of cargo, improper or insufficient packaging, securing, marking or addressing of the shipment, or for the acts or omissions of the recipient or anyone else with an interest in the shipment or violations by any party of the terms of this agreement. FedEx won't be liable for damage, loss, delay, shortage, mis-delivery, non-delivery, misinformation or failure to provide information in connection with shipments of cash, currency or other prohibited items or in instances beyond our control, such as acts of God, perils of the air, weather conditions, mechanical delays, acts of public enemies, war, strike, civil commotion, or acts or omissions of public authorities (including customs and health officials) with actual or apparent authority. NO WARRANTY. We make no warranties, express or implied. CLAIMS FOR LOSS, DAMAGE OR DELAY. ALL CLAIMS MUST BE MADE IN WRITING AND WITHIN STRICT TIME LIMITS. SEE OUR TARIFF, APPLICABLE FEDEX SERVICE GUIDE, OR STANDARD CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE FOR DETAILS. The Warsaw Convention provides specific written claims procedures for damage, delay or non-delivery of your shipment. Moreover, the interpretation and operation of the Warsaw Convention's claims provisions may vary in each country. Refer to the Convention to determine the claims period for your shipment. The right to damages against us shall be extinguished unless an action is brought within two years, as set forth in the Convention. FedEx is not obligated to act on any claim until all transportation charges have been paid. The claim amount may not be deducted from the transportation charges. If the recipient accepts the shipment without noting any damage on the delivery record, FedEx will assume the shipment was delivered in good condition. In order for us to consider a claim for damage, the contents, original shipping carton and packing must be made available to us for inspection. MANDATORY LAW. Insofar as any provision contained or referred to in this Air Waybill may be contrary to any applicable international treaties, laws, government regulations, orders or requirements such provisions shall remain in effect as a part of our agreement to the extent that it is not overridden. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provisions shall not affect any other part of this Air Waybill.  - (a) the amended and restated Initial Order;
 - (b) an order setting out the terms of the appointment of Ursel Phillips Fellows Hopkinson LLP as representative counsel for the non-unionized active and former employees of the Sears Canada Entities (“Employee Representative Counsel”); and
 - (c) an order setting out the terms of the appointment of Koskie Minsky LLP as representative counsel to the non-unionized retirees and non-unionized active and former employees of the Sears Canada Entities with respect to pension and post-employment benefit matters (“Pension Representative Counsel”).
4. Since the date of the Comeback Motion, the stay period has been extended a number of times, most recently to April 27, 2018.
5. On December 8, 2017, the Court issued: (i) an Order (the “Claims Procedure Order”) approving a claims process (the “Claims Process”) for the identification, determination and adjudication of claims of creditors against the Sears Canada Entities and their current and former officers and directors.
6. The liquidation of assets at Sears Canada’s retail locations is now complete and all of Sears Canada’s retail locations are now closed.

7. In connection with the CCAA Proceedings, the Monitor has provided eleven reports and five supplemental reports (collectively, the “Prior Reports”), and prior to its appointment as Monitor, FTI also provided to this Court a pre-filing report of the proposed Monitor dated June 22, 2017 (the “Pre-Filing Report”). The Pre-Filing Report, the Prior Reports and other Court-filed documents and notices in these CCAA Proceedings are available on the Monitor’s website at cfcanada.fticonsulting.com/searscanada/ (the “Monitor’s Website”).

B. PURPOSE

8. The purpose of this twelfth report of the Monitor (the “Twelfth Report”) is to provide the Court with information regarding a Motion by Pension Representative Counsel for the appointment of the Honourable Frank Newbould, Q.C. as Litigation Trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the Sears Canada Entities (the “Litigation Trustee Motion”) and the Monitor’s comments and recommendations in connection with this motion.

C. TERMS OF REFERENCE

9. In preparing this Twelfth Report, the Monitor has relied upon the Sears Canada Entities’ books and records, certain financial information prepared by the Sears Canada Entities and discussions and correspondence with, among others, the senior management (“Management”) of, and advisors to, the Sears Canada Entities (collectively, the “Information”).
10. Except as otherwise described in this Twelfth Report, the Monitor has not audited, reviewed or otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the Information in a manner that would comply with Generally Accepted Assurance Standards pursuant to the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada Handbook.
11. The Monitor has prepared this Twelfth Report in connection with the Litigation Trustee Motion. The Twelfth Report should not be relied on for any other purpose.
12. Unless otherwise stated, all monetary amounts contained herein are expressed in Canadian Dollars.

13. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the affidavits of Mr. Billy Wong, the Chief Financial Officer of Sears Canada, sworn on June 22, 2017, and William Turner, sworn February 12, 2018, and the Prior Reports of the Monitor in these proceedings.

D. PRELIMINARY DISCUSSIONS REGARDING STAKEHOLDER LITIGATION

14. Certain stakeholder groups in these proceedings have had discussions about possible recovery from various litigation options. The Monitor has attended a number of meetings and conference calls to discuss these matters with Employee Representative Counsel, Counsel to the Superintendent of Financial Institutions (the “Superintendent”), counsel to Morneau Shepell, as administrator of the Sears Canada Pension Plan (the “Plan Administrator”), Pension Representative Counsel and various landlord counsel (collectively, the “Participating Creditors”).
15. The Monitor is also aware that, in addition to the Participating Creditors, the general unsecured creditors of the Sears Canada Entities’ (the “Other Unsecured Creditors”) have an interest in potential litigation. The amount due to these unsecured may exceed $500 million.
16. It is expected that there will be significant overlap between the claims that various creditor groups have commenced, or intend to commence, as well as any claims that may be available to the Sears Canada Entities themselves or to the Monitor. The quantum of these potential claims may be significant.
17. The need to coordinate various streams of potential litigation was initially identified by certain Participating Creditors earlier in these proceedings. There was initial support from Participating Creditors for a ‘litigation inspector’ or a ‘litigation trustee’.
18. The Monitor is supportive of efforts toward efficient coordination of future potential litigation in this case, provided that such coordination is effected in a manner that is acceptable to the Participating Creditors, protects the interests of the Other Unsecured

Creditors and is properly coordinated with both the Claims Process and the Employee and Retiree Claims Process that is currently being developed.

19. A litigation inspector/trustee can perform a constructive role in that coordination process. However, the Monitor believes the effectiveness of a litigation inspector/trustee role is directly related to the level of support the litigation inspector/trustee has from stakeholders. In particular, the Monitor believes it is essential to build consensus among stakeholders who may have material litigation claims regarding: (i) the candidate who is appointed; and (ii) the scope of the litigation inspector/trustee's mandate.
20. At this time, there is no consensus on the selection of a litigation inspector/trustee and that lack of consensus has impeded discussions about the appropriate scope of the mandate and other procedural issues inherent in the appointment of any litigation inspector/trustee.
21. In the period leading up to the Litigation Trustee Motion, the Monitor has repeatedly advised the Participating Creditors that, in the Monitor's view, a consensus as to the person appointed and role of the litigation trustee/inspector is most likely to lead to the efficient management of litigation and has on a number of occasions requested that stakeholders work toward agreement on this matter. Most recently on February 6th, the Monitor suggested that a meeting of Participating Creditors be held on February 8th to try to come to agreement on this matter and avoid a disputed hearing. However, certain key parties refused to attend a meeting and at this time the Monitor understands the Litigation Trustee Motion remains a contested matter.

E. LITIGATION TRUSTEE MOTION

22. The Litigation Trustee Motion seeks to appoint the Honourable Frank Newbould, Q.C. as Litigation Trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the Sears Canada Entities.
23. The proposed Litigation Trustee role would be a court officer role that would involve:

- (a) investigating, considering and reporting to the Court and a committee of creditor representatives (the “Committee”) regarding the rights and claims that the Sears Canada Entities, or the Litigation Trustee acting on behalf of creditors of the Sears Canada Entities, may have (the “Litigation Claims”) as against any parties, including, but not limited to, the current and former directors, officers, shareholders and advisors of any of the Sears Canada Entities (the “Mandate”); and
 - (b) if so authorized by further order of the court, acting on behalf of creditors to prosecute any of the foregoing claims.
- 24. The Litigation Trustee Motion would require the Monitor to provide certain assistance to the Litigation Trustee and disclosure of information from the Monitor’s investigations to the Litigation Trustee and the Committee.
- 25. The primary preliminary work product of the Litigation Trustee under the Mandate would be a report to be provided by the Litigation Trustee to the Court and to the Committee setting out the Litigation Trustee’s recommendations regarding a proposed litigation plan that includes: (i) the rights and claims of the Sears Canada Entities and potentially creditors who may have claims against third parties that should be pursued; (ii) the proposed steps in pursuing those claims, including coordination of the prosecution of such claims and other similar or related claims that may be asserted by different parties, and a proposed governance structure for an instructing committee for the purposes of providing instructions to the Litigation Trustee in any prosecution of those rights and claims; and (iii) options available for funding of those claims.
- 26. The Committee with which the Litigation Trustee is to consult would be appointed by or on behalf of Employee Representative Counsel, Pension Representative Counsel, landlords, class action plaintiffs and such other unsecured creditors as the Sears Canada Entities, the Litigation Trustee and the Committee may agree. The Litigation Trustee Motion proposed that a representative of the Monitor would be on the Committee as well.

27. The Litigation Trustee Motion seeks to exclude the Litigation Claims from the Claims Process.
28. The Litigation Trustee would not have a role in determining, advising on, opposing, supporting or articulating any claim of any creditor or stakeholder filed in the Claims Process or for distribution purposes from the estates of the Sears Canada Entities.
29. The Litigation Trustee's reasonable fees and disbursements, including legal counsel fees, would be paid by the Sears Canada Entities subject to a budget to be approved by the Committee prior to commencement of the Mandate. These fees and disbursements would be secured by the Administration Charge under the Initial Order.

F. MONITOR'S OBSERVATIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS ON THE LITIGATION TRUSTEE MOTION

Identification of Litigation Inspector / Trustee

30. The appointee to the role of litigation inspector/trustee remains the subject of disagreement among stakeholders.
31. The Superintendent and the Plan Administrator have stated they believe that appointing the proposed nominee would create a conflict of interest. In particular, the current nominee is counsel at a law firm that currently represents a potentially significant landlord who is a Participating Creditor. The Superintendent and Plan Administrator note that their interests diverge from those of the landlord group. In these circumstances, the Superintendent and Plan Administrator oppose the appointment of the proposed nominee. Accordingly, the Plan Administrator has suggested a number of alternate nominees for the litigation inspector/trustee role. However, to date no agreement has been reached regarding a candidate.
32. The Monitor has no reason to believe the proposed litigation inspector/trustee would perform the role other than in an impartial manner. The proposed form of order appointing the litigation inspector/trustee does mitigate conflict concerns by ensuring the litigation inspector/trustee's role would not extend to any matters related to any claim of any creditor or stakeholder filed in the Claims Process or any distribution related matters. However, the Monitor does acknowledge that the potential for a perceived conflict in the circumstances remains. The Monitor itself identified this as a potential issue when the nominee for the litigation inspector/trustee role was first raised.

33. In the Monitor's view, the coordinating role of the litigation inspector/trustee will function most efficiently if all parties holding potential claims and the Monitor are in agreement on the candidate put forward to act in that role. Once an agreement on the candidate is achieved, the specific terms of an appointment order can be considered. It is unclear whether the Litigation Trustee Motion seeks to force any and all potential third party litigation claims to proceed through the litigation inspector/trustee review. Stakeholders wishing to assert claims against third parties are far more likely to work constructively within the litigation inspector/trustee process if they are in full agreement with the appointment of the litigation inspector/trustee. The Monitor is concerned about the workability of an arrangement that affects the rights of non-applicant parties to pursue their claims if that process is not voluntary.
34. The Monitor is supportive of continued efforts to arrive at a consensus.

Mandate of the Litigation Inspector/Trustee

35. The proposed draft order appointing the Litigation Trustee describes a coordination, investigation and reporting role that the Monitor believes would be of assistance to the overall litigation process in this case. The Monitor notes that the Mandate includes the possibility that the Litigation Trustee may report on, provide recommendations on, and investigate claims held by creditors (in addition to any claims of the Sears Canada Entities themselves) against third parties and may, following further court order, take steps to prosecute claims.
36. The Litigation Trustee is contemplated to have a very influential role in connection with creditors' claims and the claims of the Sears Canada Entities. In the Monitor's view, the scope of this Mandate further reinforces the need for consensus among stakeholders regarding the terms of appointment of the litigation inspector/trustee.

Any other option would most likely lead to continued disputes regarding the proper scope of the litigation inspector/trustee's Mandate and any steps taken under that Mandate. The Monitor believes it is reasonable for a holder of a potential material claim against a non-Applicant, whose claim may be the subject of the litigation inspector/trustee process, to require that such process be reasonably acceptable to the claim holder.

The Committee

37. The Committee with which the Litigation Trustee is to consult does not include any parties appointed by or on behalf of the Superintendent or the Plan Administrator. As noted above, these parties have asserted that they have material claims against various parties related to the Sears Canada Pension Plan. The Monitor believes that there would be challenges in developing a properly representative consultation Committee that excludes these parties given the nature and quantum of their respective potential claims.
38. The proposed form of Order provides the Committee with certain approval powers and consultation rights, but does not identify the manner in which decisions on approvals would be made by the Committee. Should the Litigation Trustee Motion be granted, the Monitor believes this decision making process should be clarified.
39. The Monitor believes it should have a consultation role in connection with the Committee based upon the Monitor's position in these proceedings and the potentially overlapping litigation claims the Monitor may have. However, the Monitor would propose that it not be a member of the Committee, as the Monitor has no direct interest in the claims that may be asserted by members of the Committee.

Monitor Claims

40. The Monitor notes that the proposed draft order suggests the Litigation Trustee may pursue "Monitor Claims", defined in the Claims Procedure Order as: "a Claim, including a D&O Claim and any claim pursued in accordance with Section 36.1 of the CCAA, that may be asserted by the Monitor."

41. The Monitor does not believe the Monitor Claims should be the subject of a litigation inspector/trustee mandate, other than insofar as it is important that the steps the Monitor may take in connection with any Monitor Claims should be coordinated with the steps that are taken in claims that are covered by the litigation inspector/trustee's mandate.
42. In the event the Monitor determines not to pursue any Monitor Claims that other creditors believe should be pursued, stakeholders wishing to pursue such claims would have rights under Section 38 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) and Section 36.1 of the CCAA.

Information Sharing

43. The Monitor would in all circumstances cooperate with the litigation inspector/trustee in performing his mandate. However, the Monitor cannot consent at this time to an Order, as proposed by Pension Representative Counsel, that would require the Monitor to disclose and deliver to the Litigation Trustee or the Committee all of the results of the Monitor's investigations and research on the 'Transactions of Interest'. These investigations and this research were undertaken by the Monitor for very specific purposes in fulfilling the Monitor's statutory mandate, and information was shared by the Sears Canada Entities and others with the Monitor for those specific purposes and on specific understandings regarding the uses of such information. The Monitor does not believe it is appropriate at this time to require the Monitor to share all such information, much of which may be subject to confidentiality and privilege concerns, with third parties.
44. The Monitor also notes that the proposed Order requires the cooperation of the Sears Canada Entities and "all persons acting on behalf of the Sears Canada Entities", which could include parties that may have reasonable concerns about the extent of such required cooperation to the extent they may be defendants in future litigation pursued by the litigation inspector/trustee.

Monitor's Recommendation

45. The Monitor believes that, prior to advancing the Litigation Trustee Motion, further efforts should be made among stakeholders to arrive at a consensus on the above issues, specifically:
- (a) the selected litigation inspector/trustee;
 - (b) the scope of the Mandate, and in particular the types of claims that will be investigated, reported upon and potentially pursued, including whether this will extend to claims that individual creditors or creditor groups may have and how the litigation inspector/trustee claims interact with the Claims Process and the Employee and Retiree Claims Process. At the initial stage, the Monitor believes consensus could more likely be achieved by establishing a more limited investigation role that could be expanded if appropriate at a later date;
 - (c) the composition of the Committee and the exact process by which the Committee will grant approvals and make recommendations; and
 - (d) appropriate funding mechanisms for the litigation inspector/trustee and its counsel.
46. Once these matters are resolved, the Monitor can then work with the litigation inspector/trustee, the Committee, the Sears Canada Entities and other interested parties to establish a protocol for cooperation and sharing of information regarding litigation matters.
47. The Monitor believes there are benefits to the creation of a structure to coordinate litigation in this case and has no objection to the concept of a litigation inspector/trustee. However, the Monitor does not believe that this is a process that will function optimally if it is forced upon stakeholders without their agreement. The Monitor notes that while the parties who are supportive of the Litigation Trustee Motion are a substantial creditor group, there are other large creditor groups who at this time either appear to be non-supportive of, or not actively involved in, this motion.

- 48. The Monitor understands that discussions on the proposed form of order are ongoing among certain Participating Creditors. The Monitor notes that there are several issues that the parties would need to work through before an agreed form of Order could be presented to the Court for consideration.

The Monitor respectfully submits to the Court this, its Twelfth Report.

Dated this 13th day of February, 2018.

APPLICANTS

FOURTEENTH REPORT TO THE COURT
SUBMITTED BY FTI CONSULTING CANADA INC.,
IN ITS CAPACITY AS MONITOR

A. INTRODUCTION

1. On June 22, 2017, Sears Canada Inc. (“Sears Canada”) and a number of its operating subsidiaries (collectively, with Sears Canada, the “Applicants”) sought and obtained an initial order (as amended and restated on July 13, 2017, the “Initial Order”), under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”). The relief granted pursuant to the Initial Order was also extended to Sears Connect, a partnership forming part of the operations of the Applicants (and together with the Applicants, the “Sears Canada Entities”). The proceedings commenced under the CCAA by the Applicants are referred to herein as the “CCAA Proceedings”.

2. The Initial Order, among other things:
 - (a) appointed FTI Consulting Canada Inc. as monitor of the Sears Canada Entities (the “Monitor”) in the CCAA Proceedings;
 - (b) granted an initial stay of proceedings against the Sears Canada Entities until July 22, 2017; and
 - (c) scheduled a comeback motion for July 13, 2017 (the “Comeback Motion”).
3. Following the Comeback Motion, the Court extended the stay of proceedings to October 4, 2017. In addition, the following orders, among others, were issued:
 - (a) an order setting out the terms of the appointment of Ursel Phillips Fellows Hopkinson LLP as representative counsel for the non-unionized active and former employees of the Sears Canada Entities (“Employee Representative Counsel”);
 - (b) an order setting out the terms of the appointment of Koskie Minsky LLP as representative counsel to the non-unionized retirees and non-unionized active and former employees of the Sears Canada Entities with respect to pension and post-employment benefit matters (“Pension Representative Counsel”); and
 - (c) an order approving a sale and investor solicitation process (the “SISP”) to solicit interest in potential transactions involving the business, property and assets and/or leases of the Applicants.
4. Since the date of the Comeback Motion, the stay period has been extended a number of times, most recently to April 27, 2018.
5. On December 8, 2017, the Court issued an Order (the “Claims Procedure Order”) approving a claims process for the identification, determination and adjudication of claims of creditors against the Sears Canada Entities and their current and former officers and directors. The Claims Procedure Order also directed the Monitor to assess in detail, with reasonably sufficient particulars and analysis, the validity and quantum of all intercompany claims, and to serve on the Service List and file with the Court a report detailing the work performed (the “Intercompany Claims Report”) by the General Creditor Claims Bar Date.

6. On February 22, 2018, the Court issued an Employee and Retiree Claims Procedure Order (the “E&R Claims Procedure Order”) approving a process for the identification, determination and adjudication of claims of employees and retirees of the Sears Canada Entities.
7. The liquidation of assets at Sears Canada’s retail locations is now complete and all of Sears Canada’s retail locations are now closed.
8. In connection with the CCAA Proceedings, the Monitor has provided thirteen reports and five supplemental reports (collectively, the “Prior Reports”), and prior to its appointment as Monitor, FTI also provided to this Court a pre-filing report of the proposed Monitor dated June 22, 2017 (the “Pre-Filing Report”). The Pre-Filing Report, the Prior Reports and other Court-filed documents and notices in these CCAA Proceedings are available on the Monitor’s website at cfcanada.fticonsulting.com/searscanada/ (the “Monitor's Website”).

B. PURPOSE

9. The purpose of this Fourteenth Report is to provide the Court with information and the Monitor’s recommendations on the proposed order to be sought in connection with the Litigation Trustee Motion (as defined below) that was the subject of the Monitor’s Twelfth Report dated February 13, 2018 and on the Monitor’s motion to extend the date for delivery of the Monitor’s Intercompany Claims Report pursuant to the Claims Procedure Order, and to provide an update on other developments in the CCAA Proceedings.

C. LITIGATION TRUSTEE MOTION

10. On February 13, 2018, FTI Consulting Canada Inc., as Court-appointed Monitor, filed its Twelfth Report to the Court in these CCAA Proceedings (the “Twelfth Report”) in connection with a motion by Pension Representative Counsel for the appointment of a Litigation Trustee (the “Litigation Trustee Motion”).

11. Capitalized terms used in this section of the Fourteenth Report and not otherwise defined have the meanings given to them in the Twelfth Report.

Background

12. As described in the Twelfth Report, earlier in these proceedings, various stakeholders began to have discussions about possible recoveries from various potential claims against parties connected with the Applicants. Those stakeholders were: Employee Representative Counsel, counsel to the Superintendent of Financial Institutions (the “Superintendent”), counsel to Morneau Shepell, as administrator of the Sears Canada Pension Plan (the “Plan Administrator”), Pension Representative Counsel, various landlord counsel, and counsel to the Sears Hometown Dealers (collectively, the “Participating Stakeholders”).
13. The need to coordinate various streams of potentially overlapping litigation was initially identified by certain Participating Stakeholders earlier in these proceedings. There was initial support from Participating Stakeholders for a ‘litigation inspector’ or a ‘litigation trustee’.
14. The Litigation Trustee Motion, originally returnable on February 15, 2018, was brought forward by Pension Representative Counsel for the purpose of appointing a Litigation Trustee.
15. As of February 15, 2018, the Participating Stakeholders were not in agreement on the identity of the Litigation Trustee or the proposed mandate of the Litigation Trustee.
16. The Monitor recommended that, prior to advancing the Litigation Trustee Motion, further efforts should be made among stakeholders to arrive at a consensus on:
 - (a) the selected litigation inspector/trustee;

- (b) the scope of the litigation inspector/trustee’s mandate, and in particular the types of claims to be investigated, reported upon and potentially pursued, including the terms of any appointment order;
- (c) the composition of the consultative committee that would work with the litigation inspector/trustee and the exact process by which the committee would grant approvals and make recommendations; and
- (d) appropriate funding mechanisms for the litigation inspector/trustee and its counsel

(the “Preliminary Outstanding Matters”).

17. The Court did not hear the Litigation Trustee Motion and directed the Participating Stakeholders and the Monitor to work toward consensus on the Preliminary Outstanding Matters.

Status Update

18. Following the Court’s direction, the Monitor worked with the Participating Stakeholders to attempt to resolve the Preliminary Outstanding Matters. The Monitor can report that significant progress has been made:
- (a) Parties acceptable to the Participating Stakeholders have been identified to undertake the role of “Litigation Investigator”; and
 - (b) A form of order has been substantially negotiated and agreed among the Participating Stakeholders setting out the scope of the proposed mandate of the Litigation Investigator and other relevant terms including a funding mechanism for the Litigation Investigator.

A copy of the proposed form of order is attached hereto as Appendix “A”.

19. The Material terms of the proposed form of order are as follows:

- (a) Litigation Investigator: Lax O'Sullivan Lissus Gottlieb LLP (represented by Jonathan Lissus and Matthew Gottlieb) are proposed to be appointed to the role of Litigation Investigator.
- (b) Mandate: The Litigation Investigator is proposed to be an officer of the Court appointed for the purpose of investigation, consideration of, and reporting to the Creditors' Committee (defined below), regarding any rights or claims, whether legal, equitable, statutory or otherwise, that the Sears Canada Entities and/or any creditors of any of the Sears Canada Entities may have as against any parties, including but not limited to current and former directors, officers, shareholders and advisors of any of the Sears Canada Entities. The mandate does not include determining, advising on, opposing or articulating any claim filed in the claims process established under the Claims Procedure Order or the E&R Claims Procedure Order. The Litigation Investigator will have no role in the distribution or allocation of estate funds.
- (c) Reporting: The Litigation Investigator will report to the Creditors' Committee. The report will include, among other things, recommendations regarding a proposed litigation plan.
- (d) Creditors' Committee: A committee of creditors will be established to consult with the Litigation Investigator (the "Creditors' Committee"). The Creditors' Committee will be comprised of members appointed by, or on behalf of various creditor groups.
- (e) Monitor Briefing: The Monitor shall provide to the Litigation Investigator (and, upon execution of appropriate confidentiality agreements, the Creditors' Committee) a confidential briefing regarding the "Transactions of Interest" as identified in the Monitor's Eleventh Report to the Court. The Monitor may not be in a position to share all information in its possession regarding the Transactions of Interest due to privilege or confidentiality concerns. The proposed form of order includes a mechanism to deal with any such confidentiality or privilege concerns that may arise. The Monitor notes that the information received by the Monitor and the research and analysis undertaken by the Monitor in connection with the Transactions of Interest were in some cases received and undertaken for very specific purposes in fulfilling the Monitor's statutory mandate, and information was shared by the Sears Canada Entities and others with the Monitor for those specific purposes and on specific understandings regarding the uses of such information.

- (f) Claims Procedure Issues: Rights, claims or causes of action identified by the Litigation Investigator as capable of being advanced and that are advanced with approval of the Court, whether by the Litigation Investigator or otherwise, are removed from the claims process established under the Claims Procedure Order or the E&R Claims Procedure Order and, if so removed, would not be subject to the bar dates and procedures contained therein.
- (g) Costs: The Litigation Investigator shall be paid from the funds of the Applicants its reasonable fees and disbursements, the amount of which is not to exceed a budget approved by the Creditors' Committee in consultation with the Monitor. The Litigation Investigator shall be entitled to the benefit of the Administrative Charge, as defined in the Initial Order for the Litigation Investigator's costs, as security for its professional fees, taxes, and disbursements reasonably incurred.

20. A copy of the proposed form of order was shared with counsel to the Applicants, counsel to the directors, counsel to Sears Holdings Corporation and counsel to Edward Lampert and ESL Investments Inc.

Monitor's Comments and Recommendation

21. The Monitor is pleased to report that consensus has been achieved among the Participating Stakeholders on the Litigation Investigator's appointment and the matters described in the draft form of Order.
22. The Monitor is supportive of the form of order appointing a Litigation Investigator that has been circulated and the Monitor believes this form of order is the product of constructive negotiation and compromise among the Participating Stakeholders as directed by the Court.

23. Certain other parties, including the directors of Sears Canada, ESL Investments Inc. and its affiliates and Sears Holdings Corporation have raised issues regarding the proposed form of Order appointing the Litigation Investigator. These issues include: (i) the Litigation Investigator's role as a 'court officer'; and (ii) the Litigation Investigator's role with respect to claims beyond any claims of the Sears Canada Entities or any claims that are derivative of the estates of the Sears Canada Entities. The Monitor has not had the opportunity to fully discuss these issues with the aforementioned parties, the Applicants, or the Participating Stakeholders, and accordingly takes no position at this time. However, these issues may be the subject of submissions at the March 2nd hearing if they cannot be resolved in advance of that hearing.

D. EXTENSION OF PERIOD TO FILE INTERCOMPANY CLAIMS REPORT

24. The Claims Procedure Order provided that the Monitor would prepare a report to be served on the Service List and filed with the Court for its consideration, that would detail the Monitor's review of all Intercompany Claims (as defined in the Claims Procedure Order) and assess the validity and quantum of such Claims (the "Intercompany Claims Report"), with any Intercompany Claim identified thereby to be deemed to have been properly submitted via a proof of claim.
25. The Claims Procedure Order required that the Intercompany Claims Report be served on or before March 2, 2018, unless otherwise ordered by this Court on application by the Monitor.
26. Although progress has been made by the Monitor with the support of the Applicants towards completion of this task, the Monitor requires additional time to complete its review of all Intercompany Claims, analyze and assess the validity and quantum of all intercompany claims, and document its findings in the Intercompany Claims Report.

27. The Monitor requires a substantial amount of assistance from the Applicants and their employees in order to complete the Intercompany Claims Report. There have been significant demands on the Applicants' limited remaining employees, including in connection with negotiating and preparing for the employee and retiree claims process ordered in the E&R Claims Procedure Order, which the Monitor was also heavily involved in. As a result, additional time is required for completion of the Intercompany Claims Report.
28. The Monitor is proposing to extend the deadline for completion of the Intercompany Claims Report by one month to April 2, 2018 (the "Proposed Intercompany Claims Report Extension"). This date is subsequent to the General Creditor Claims Bar Date of March 2, 2018; however, the Monitor will require time to review and adjudicate proofs of claim received by the General Creditor Claims Bar Date and the Proposed Intercompany Claims Report Extension aligns with this timeline. The claims bar date for other potential unsecured claimants, such as Litigation Claims (as such term is defined in the Endorsement (as defined below)) and certain landlord claims, are also on or subsequent to the Proposed Intercompany Claims Report Extension.
29. In conclusion, the Monitor believes that there is no prejudice to stakeholders should the Court agree to the Proposed Intercompany Claims Report Extension, and grant the Intercompany Claims Report Extension Order.

E. UPDATES ON THE CCAA PROCEEDINGS

Claims Process

30. As of the date of this Report, the Monitor has received proofs of claim in amounts totalling not less than $162 million.
31. The Monitor is continuing to receive proofs of claim at this time. The Claims Procedure Order set a General Creditor Claims Bar Date of March 2, 2018. The Claims Procedure Order establishes later bar dates for certain claims, such as certain claims by landlords. Pursuant to the endorsement (the "Endorsement") of Justice Haaney made on February 22, 2018, the claims bar date for certain Litigation Claims

(as such term is defined in the Endorsement) has been extended to April 2, 2018. A copy of the Endorsement is attached as Appendix “B” to this Fourteenth Report.

32. In accordance with the E&R Claims Procedure Order, the Monitor is currently taking steps required to cause the Notice to Claimants to be published in The Globe and Mail (National Edition) and in the electronic edition of La Presse and to deliver Proof of Claim Packages to Claimants to the extent required by the E&R Claims Procedure Order. The Monitor has also caused the Notice to Claimants and blank copies of the Claims Packages (excluding any blank Termination Claim Statement or Retiree Benefit Claim Statement) to be posted on the Monitor’s website.

Disclaimer of Contracts / Craftsman License

33. The Applicants, with the assistance of the Monitor, continue to review their remaining contractual arrangements to determine if, in the circumstances, disclaimers of such contractual arrangements would be appropriate.
34. As of the date of this Fourteenth Report, all retail store leases have been disclaimed by the Applicants and the Applicants no longer occupy any such retail store locations.
35. In the Eleventh Report, dated January 15, 2018, the Monitor described its review of various Transactions of Interest, including the surrender by Sears Canada of its exclusive right to use the Craftsman trademark in Canada in connection with the sale by Sears Holdings Corporation of the Craftsman business to Stanley Black & Decker Inc. in March 2017.
36. In connection with the surrender of its exclusive license, Sears Canada received a non-exclusive royalty free license to use the Craftsman trademark in Canada (the “Replacement License”).
37. Stanley Black & Decker Inc. has proposed the consensual termination of the Replacement License in view of the termination of Sears Canada’s operations.

38. Sears Canada, in consultation with the Monitor, has determined that it no longer has a need to use the Craftsman trademark and, subject to agreeing upon acceptable terms, neither Sears Canada nor the Monitor have any opposition to the consensual termination of the Replacement License. The Monitor does not believe that termination of the Replacement License would affect any claim that the Monitor may have in connection with the Transactions of Interest and the results of the sale and investment solicitation process indicate that no opportunities to monetize the Replacement License are available. Sears Canada, with the assistance of the Monitor, intends to negotiate the requested consensual termination with Stanley Black & Decker Inc.

Tax Losses

39. The Monitor was recently contacted by a party potentially interested in completing a transaction that would, among other things, utilize some of Sears Canada's remaining tax losses. That transaction, if successfully completed, could potentially result in proceeds in the range of $3 million to $4.5 million.
40. The Applicants, the Monitor, and counsel reviewed the terms of the proposed transaction including:
- (a) the level of risk and uncertainty as to closing involved;
 - (b) the near certainty that such a proposed sale would result in Canada Revenue Agency audits of net operating losses and other tax accounts, and likely result in delays in distributions and completion of the winding-up of the estate; and
 - (c) the time and costs required to implement a transaction of this type.
41. The Applicants, in consultation with the Monitor, determined that they do not support the pursuit of the proposed transaction in the circumstances. The Board of Directors and the Monitor agree with this decision and the Monitor intends to advise the proposed counterparty accordingly.

Second Liquidation Process

42. On October 13, 2017, the Court issued, among other orders, an order approving an agreement and a process (the “Second Liquidation Process”) for the liquidation of inventory and furniture, fixtures and equipment at all remaining Sears Canada locations.
43. The Second Liquidation Process is now complete at all locations.
44. Sears Canada, the Monitor and the agent under the Second Liquidation Process are now undertaking a final reconciliation process to determine any additional amounts payable by or to the agent or Sears Canada under the Second Liquidation Process.
45. The Monitor understands that upon completion of the Second Liquidation Process and the disclaimer of Sears Canada’s remaining retail leases, as described above, certain landlords raised concerns that furniture, fixtures and equipment remained on the leased premises and should have been removed by Sears Canada or the agent in the Second Liquidation Process. Sears Canada’s counsel advised that to the extent any furniture, fixtures and equipment remained on the premises, Sears Canada believed this was done only in circumstances where the applicable lease did not require Sears Canada to remove such furniture, fixtures and equipment.
46. The obligation, if any, of Sears Canada to remove such furniture, fixtures and equipment, or to reimburse landlords for the cost of such removal, pursuant to the applicable leases and the sale guidelines approved by the Court in connection with the Second Liquidation Process remains an unresolved issue. In the Monitor’s view, this matter can be resolved in connection with the Claims Process.

Real Estate Sale Process

47. As part of the SISP, Sears Canada, with the assistance of BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc., as financial advisor, (“BMO”) sought offers for the purchase of Sears Canada’s remaining owned real property.

48. Expressions of interest were received for Sears Canada's owned real property by the August 31st bid deadline under the SISP.
49. Subsequent to the bid deadline, two transactions for real estate owned by Sears Canada were approved by the Court and completed. These transactions were for the sale of the Winnipeg Garden City location and the Upper Canada Home Store location.
50. While expressions of interest were received for certain of Sears Canada's remaining real estate assets, Sears Canada determined, in consultation with BMO and the Monitor, that the best opportunities to monetize the remaining real estate assets would be available only after additional due diligence materials, including environmental studies, were completed and were made available to potential purchasers.
51. Sears Canada continues to own the following real estate assets:
 - (a) Upper Canada Mall full-line store (Newmarket, ON)
 - (b) Distribution center (Belleville, ON)
 - (c) Fleur de Lys full-line store (Quebec City, QC)
 - (d) Windsor full-line store (Windsor, ON)
 - (e) Peterborough full-line store (Peterborough, ON)
 - (f) Barrie full-line store (Barrie, ON)
 - (g) Trois-Rivières full-line store (Trois-Rivières, QC)
 - (h) Place Vertu liquidation store (Montréal, QC)
 - (i) Lévis full-line store (Lévis, QC);
 - (j) Charlottetown store (Charlottetown, PEI)

- (k) Chicoutimi residual land (Chicoutimi, QC); and
- (l) Edmonton residual land (Edmonton, AB)

(collectively, the “Remaining Real Estate Assets”).

52. As of February 7, 2018, the additional required due diligence information had been obtained and Sears Canada, in consultation with BMO and the Monitor, determined that the sale process for the Remaining Real Estate Assets should continue.
53. On February 7, 2018, BMO delivered an updated sale process letter (the “Updated Sale Process Letter”) to those parties who previously expressed an interest in the Remaining Real Estate Assets under the SISP. BMO also delivered the Updated Sale Process Letter to potentially interested parties identified by the real estate advisor to the Superintendent. The Updated Sale Process Letter solicits bids for all of the Remaining Real Estate Assets other than the assets located in Charlottetown, Edmonton and Chicoutimi. The Updated Sale Process Letter provides a bid deadline of March 7, 2018 at 5:00 p.m. (Eastern).
54. A separate sale process has been commenced for the assets located at Charlottetown, Edmonton and Chicoutimi. The assets at these locations will be marketed under an Exclusive Sales Listing Agreement with CBRE Limited pursuant to which CBRE Limited would act as sale advisor. This alternative structure was selected for the Charlottetown, Edmonton and Chicoutimi assets as Sears Canada determined, in consultation with BMO, the Monitor, Pension Representative Counsel, Employee Representative Counsel, the Superintendent and the Plan Administrator, and their respective financial and/or real estate advisors, that these assets could be sold separately and likely in a more expedited manner without affecting bids for the other Remaining Real Estate Assets. CBRE Limited was selected as the appropriate agent following a competitive bid process.
55. As noted above, Employee Representative Counsel, Pension Representative Counsel, the Superintendent, the Plan Administrator and their respective advisors have been consulted extensively in the development of the updated process to market the Remaining Real Estate Assets. These parties were identified as appropriate consultation parties by Sears Canada and the Monitor as they represent a large and coordinated portion of the unsecured creditor class and would not have conflicting interests as they would have no interest in acquiring any of the Remaining Real Estate Assets for their own benefit. All of these consultation parties have entered into non-disclosure agreements with Sears Canada.

Residual Asset Sales

56. The Applicants have now completed sales of a substantial portion of the residual assets located at their premises, including transactions approved pursuant to the Omnibus Approval and Vesting Order granted on December 8, 2017. However, in many cases purchasers must still collect their purchased assets from Sears Canada's locations.

Employee Matters

57. Following the completion of the Second Liquidation Process, the remaining number of employees of Sears Canada was significantly reduced. As of the date of this Fourteenth Report, the Applicants have 82 remaining employees. The Monitor expects that the number of employees will continue to decrease in the near future.
58. Payments have been made under the amended Key Employee Retention Plan ("KERP") approved by the Court on October 18, 2017 to the extent applicable and where performance and other approved thresholds were achieved.
59. In addition to payments under the amended KERP, on or about January 19, 2018, Sears Canada identified five additional employees whose services were necessary for the completion of data retention, archiving, server migration and certain human resources and other aspects of the wind down of the Sears Canada business. Sears Canada offered those employees retention and incentive payments in an aggregate amount of $80,000. The Monitor reviewed the proposed payments and the contributions and circumstances of the proposed recipients of those payments. The Monitor supported the payment of these incentive and retention amounts. The Monitor notes that the Applicants did not seek to include these individuals in the key employee retention program previously approved by the Court and did not seek to have the obligations to these employees secured by the Court-ordered charge established in connection with the KERP.

Pension Wind-Up

60. The Monitor has previously reported that on November 10, 2017, the Superintendent issued a Notice of Intended Decision advising that it intended to make an order for the wind up of the Sears Canada Pension Plan, effective October 1, 2017 unless a request for hearing with the Financial Services Tribunal (the “FST”) was submitted within 30 days of the Notice of Intended Decision.
 61. On December 7, 2017, counsel to 1291079 Ontario Limited (“129”), a creditor of Sears Canada Inc., delivered a letter to the Service List identifying a concern that the proposed wind-up of the Sears Canada Pension Plan may have the effect of altering priorities among creditors. The Monitor understands 129 delivered a Request for Hearing Form to the FST requesting a hearing to challenge the intended decision to wind up the Sears Canada Pension Plan. On or about February 6, 2018, 129 delivered its pre-hearing conference brief in the FST proceeding. A copy of the brief, without attachments, is attached as Appendix “C”.
 62. Both Sears Canada and the Monitor have applied for party status in connection with the proposed hearing on the Notice of Intended Decision.
 63. A pre-hearing conference has been scheduled by the FST for March 21, 2018 in connection with 129’s request for hearing.
- F. RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS FOR THE SIX WEEK PERIOD ENDING FEBRUARY 17, 2018
64. The Sears Canada Group’s actual net cash inflow on a consolidated basis for the six-week period ended February 17, 2018 was approximately $29.1 million, compared to a forecast net cash outflow of $60.3 million resulting in a positive variance of approximately $89.4 million as indicated in the table below:

VARIANCE REPORT	Actual	Forecast	Variance
(CAD in Millions)	For the 6 Week Period Ending February 17, 2018
Receipts	67.7	5.4	62.3
Operating Disbursements
Payroll and Employee Related Costs	(14.5)	(15.9)	1.4
Merchandise Vendors	7.2	-	7.2
Non-Merchandise Vendors	(6.2)	(13.9)	7.7
Rent and Property Taxes	(2.6)	(4.7)	2.1
Sales Taxes	(17.9)	(17.9)	-
IT Costs	(7.5)	(8.1)	0.6
Recovery of Expenses from Agent	9.7	3.8	5.9
Total Operating Disbursements	(31.8)	(56.7)	24.9
Net Operating Cash Inflows / (Outflows)	35.9	(51.3)	87.2

Net Cash Inflows / (Outflows)	29.1	(60.3)	89.4

Beginning Balance	84.2	84.2	-
Net Cash Inflows / (Outflows)	29.1	(60.3)	89.4
Ending Balance	113.3	23.9	89.4

65. Explanations for the key variances are as follows:

- (a) the positive variance of $62.3 million in receipts consists of: (i) a positive timing difference of $45.3 million primarily due to earlier-than-forecast receipt of the undisputed portion of the remaining guaranteed amount from the third-party liquidator agent and certain working capital adjustments relating to asset sales pending final reconciliation; and (ii) a positive permanent difference of $17.0 million primarily due to the final reconciliation of liquidation sales receipts, miscellaneous asset sales, and FF&E sales not contemplated in the forecast;
- (b) the positive variance in Payroll and Employee Related Costs of $1.4 million consists primarily of a timing difference that is expected to reverse in a future period;

- (c) the positive variance in Merchandise Vendor disbursements of $7.2 million consists of a permanent difference due to refunds received from vendor deposits and partial recovery of cash collateral held by the lenders relating to LCs which was not contemplated in the forecast;
 - (d) the positive variance in Non-Merchandise Vendor disbursements of $7.7 million consists of a timing difference of $5.4 million that is expected to reverse in a future period, and a permanent difference of $2.3 million primarily due to lower-than-forecast vendor payments and refunds received from vendor deposits;
 - (e) the positive variance in Rent and Property Taxes of $2.1 million consists of a timing difference of $1.8 million that is expected to reverse in a future period and a permanent difference of $0.3 million due to lower-than-forecast rent and property tax payments;
 - (f) the positive variance in IT Costs of $0.6 million is primarily a timing difference that is expected to reverse in a future period;
 - (g) the positive variance in Recovery of Expenses from Agent of approximately $5.9 million consists of a permanent difference primarily due to higher-than-forecast reimbursements from the Agent after the final reconciliation of expenses in respect of the Second Liquidation Process; and
 - (h) the positive variance in Professional Fees of $2.2 million is primarily a timing variance that is expected to reverse in a future period.
66. The Sears Canada Group's cumulative receipts and disbursements since the commencement of CCAA proceedings until the week ended February 17, 2018 are reflected in the table below:

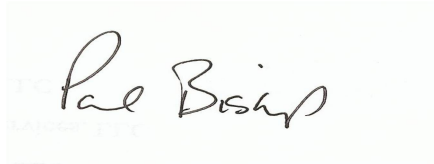

CUMULATIVE RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS
(CAD in Millions)
For the 35 Week Period Ending February 17, 2018

67. The Initial Order allowed the Sears Canada Group to continue to utilize their existing Cash Management System as described in the First Wong Affidavit and the pre-filing report of the Monitor. After the commencement of the CCAA Proceedings, the Sears Canada Group has continued to utilize its Cash Management System in a manner consistent with past practice.

The Monitor respectfully submits to the Court this, its Fourteenth Report.

APPLICANTS

TWENTY-SIXTH REPORT TO THE COURT
SUBMITTED BY FTI CONSULTING CANADA INC.,
IN ITS CAPACITY AS MONITOR

A. INTRODUCTION

1. On June 22, 2017, Sears Canada Inc. (“Sears Canada”) and a number of its operating subsidiaries (collectively, with Sears Canada, the “Applicants”) sought and obtained an initial order (as amended and restated on July 13, 2017, the “Initial Order”), under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”). The relief granted pursuant to the Initial Order was also extended to Sears Connect, a partnership forming part of the operations of the Applicants (and together with the Applicants, the “Sears Canada Entities”). The proceedings commenced under the CCAA by the Applicants are referred to herein as the “CCAA Proceedings”. A copy of the Initial Order is attached as Appendix “A” to this twenty-sixth report of the Monitor (the “Twenty Sixth Report”).

2. The Initial Order, among other things:
 - (a) appointed FTI Consulting Canada Inc. as monitor of the Sears Canada Entities (the “Monitor”) in the CCAA Proceedings;
 - (b) granted an initial stay of proceedings against the Sears Canada Entities until July 22, 2017 (the “Stay Period”), including a stay of the exercise of certain rights by third parties who have agreements with owners, operators, managers or landlords of commercial shopping centres or other commercial properties in which there was located a store, office or warehouse owned or operated by the Applicants; and
 - (c) scheduled a comeback motion for July 13, 2017 (the “Comeback Motion”).
3. The Stay Period has been extended a number of times. Most recently, the Stay Period was extended until December 18, 2018 by an order granted by the Honourable Mr. Justice Hainey on July 24, 2018.
4. Following the Comeback Motion, the Court extended the Stay Period. Among other things, an order approving a sale and investor solicitation process to solicit interest in potential transactions, including investment and liquidation proposals, involving the business, property, assets and/or leases of the Applicants was also issued.
5. On July 13, 2017, the Court appointed Ursel Phillips Fellows Hopkinson LLP, in its capacity as representative counsel (the “Employee Representative Counsel”) to represent the interests of the approximately 22,000 active and former Employees pursuant to an employee representative counsel order (the “Employee Representative Counsel Order”).
6. On July 18, 2017, the Court issued an order approving an agreement and a process for the liquidation of inventory and FF&E at certain initial closing Sears Canada locations, which liquidation process is now complete.

7. On October 13, 2017, the Court issued, among other orders, an order (a) approving an agreement and a process (the “Second Liquidation Process”) for the liquidation of the inventory and FF&E at all remaining Sears Canada retail locations, which liquidation commenced shortly thereafter and is now complete.
8. On December 8, 2017, the Court issued an Order (the “Claims Procedure Order”) approving a claims process for the identification, determination and adjudication of claims of non-employment and pension-related creditors against the Sears Canada Entities and their Officers and Directors.
9. The liquidation of assets at Sears Canada’s retail locations is now complete, all retail locations are closed, and leases in respect of such locations have been disclaimed or surrendered back to the landlord. The major assets of the Sears Canada Entities that remain to be realized upon are the Applicants’ remaining owned real estate assets.
10. In connection with the CCAA Proceedings, the Monitor has provided twenty-five reports and sixteen supplemental reports (collectively, the “Prior Reports”), and prior to its appointment as Monitor, FTI also provided to this Court a pre-filing report of the proposed Monitor dated June 22, 2017 (the “Pre-Filing Report”). The Pre-Filing Report, the Prior Reports and other Court-filed documents and notices in these CCAA Proceedings are available on the Monitor’s website at cfcanada.fticonsulting.com/searscanada/ (the “Monitor's Website”).

B. PURPOSE

11. The purpose of this Twenty-Sixth Report is to provide the Court with information regarding:
 - (a) a motion (the “TCP Lift Stay Motion”) by The Children’s Place (Canada), LP (“TCP”) and a motion (the “GAP Lift Stay Motion” and together with the TCP Lift Stay Motion, the “Co-Tenancy Lift Stay Motions”) by GAP (Canada) Inc. and Old Navy (Canada), Inc. (together, “GAP”) for orders, among other things:

- (i) declaring that the stay of proceedings (the “Co-Tenancy Stay”) provided in paragraph 15 of the Initial Order, and as extended by subsequent orders made in these CCAA Proceedings, is no longer of any force or effect in accordance with its terms as against TCP and GAP respectively, and as a result, TCP and GAP, as co-tenants of the Applicants in a number of commercial shopping centres and commercial properties (the “Co-Tenants”), are entitled to exercise any rights that they may have against their landlords arising from failure of any of the Applicants to operate in such commercial shopping centres or other commercial properties (collectively, the “Co-Tenancy Rights”);
 - (ii) in the alternative to the above, permanently vacating and/or lifting the Co-Tenancy Stay as against the Co-Tenants;
 - (iii) declaring that the Co-Tenancy Stay did not suspend or otherwise delay the running of any waiting period with respect to the exercise of Co-Tenancy Rights; and
 - (iv) the costs of the Co-Tenancy Lift Stay Motions, if opposed;
- (b) further developments in connection with the Moving Landlords’ Motion since the service of the First Supplement to the Twenty-Fifth Report on September 19, 2018 (the “First Supplement”) and the adjournment of that motion on September 20, 2018 to October 16, 2018; and
- (c) an update regarding Employee Representative Counsel’s upcoming motion (the “ERC Receivership Motion”) for the appointment of a receiver over limited property of certain Applicants, in order to allow former employees of those Applicants access to funds available to them pursuant to the Wage Earner Protection Program (the “WEPP”).

C. TERMS OF REFERENCE

12. In preparing this Twenty-Sixth Report, the Monitor has relied upon discussions and correspondence with, among others, the senior management (“Management”) of, and advisors to, the Sears Canada Entities (collectively, the “Information”).
13. The Monitor has prepared this Twenty-Sixth Report in connection with the Co-Tenancy Lift Stay Motions, the Moving Landlords’ Motion and the ERC Receivership Motion. The Twenty-Sixth Report should not be relied on for any other purpose.
14. Unless otherwise stated, all monetary amounts contained herein are expressed in Canadian Dollars.
15. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to them in the Prior Reports filed as part of the CCAA Proceedings, the Claims Procedure Order and the Employee Representative Counsel Order.

D. DISCUSSION REGARDING CO-TENANCY LIFT STAY MOTIONS

16. At the commencement of the CCAA Proceedings, the Applicants operated 148 owned and leased stores, distribution centres and warehouses including leases or similar arrangements with over 130 landlords.
17. Paragraph 15 of the Initial Order reads as follows:

15. THIS COURT ORDERS that during the Stay Period, no Person having any agreements or arrangements with the owners, operators, managers or landlords of commercial shopping centres or other commercial properties (including retail, office and industrial (warehouse) properties) in which there is located a store, office or warehouse owned or operated by the Sears Canada Entities shall take any Proceedings or exercise any rights or remedies under such agreements or arrangements that may arise upon and/or as a result of the making of this Order, the insolvency of, or declarations of insolvency by, any or all of the Sears Canada Entities, or as a result of any steps taken by the Sears Canada Entities pursuant to this Order and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no Person shall terminate, accelerate, suspend, modify, determine or cancel any such arrangement or agreement or be entitled to exercise any rights or remedies in connection therewith.

18. On a plain reading, paragraph 15 of the Initial Order, only stays Co-Tenancy Rights in a commercial shopping centre or other commercial property so long as the Applicants own or operate a store, office or warehouse at the applicable location.
19. All stores or warehouses in any commercial shopping centre or other commercial property owned or operated by the Applicants have been closed permanently. The Applicants no longer have any retail operations.
20. Accordingly, the Monitor is unaware of any reason to disagree with the Co-Tenants' position that the Co-Tenancy Stay has expired on its terms.
21. The Monitor is aware that the Moving Landlords oppose the Co-Tenancy Lift Stay Motions. Included as Appendix "B" hereto is a copy of a letter dated September 27, 2018 from counsel for the Moving Landlords in this regard.
22. In brief, the Moving Landlords assert that they will incur prejudice by damage claims in the event the stay is lifted and that the stay should not be lifted unless and until a Plan of Arrangement is presented to the Court by the Applicants.
23. The Monitor is aware that the Co-Tenants may assert claims against, among others, the Moving Landlords. The Monitor has advised the Moving Landlords of its view that this does not in turn give rise to claims against the Applicants, although the Monitor understands that the Moving Landlords dispute this view. The Monitor has further advised the Moving Landlords that the Monitor has no details as to their putative Co-Tenancy claims against the Applicants so as to consider and evaluate the effect of such claims. The Moving Landlords have advised that such information should be inferred from the Co-Tenancy Lift Stay Motion materials. Copies of the Monitor's correspondence of October 3, 2018, and the Moving Landlord's response on October 4, 2018, are attached as Appendices "C" and "D" hereto. The Monitor notes that even if such Co-Tenancy claims against the Applicants did exist, the continuation or lifting of the stay does not affect the existence of those claims.

24. The Monitor is not aware of any other landlord of a mall where a TCP or GAP store is located who intends to take a position on the motions despite being served with the Co-Tenancy Lift Stay Motion materials.
25. It is the Monitor's view that this motion can be determined on the basis of the wording of the Initial Order, the facts set out above and on the Co-Tenancy Lift Stay Motions.

E. THE MONITOR'S POSITION

26. Given the Monitor's view that the Co-Tenancy Lift Stay Motions do not impact the Applicants, the Monitor does not take a position on the Co-Tenancy Lift Stay Motions beyond the comments made in the preceding section.

F. UPDATE REGARDING THE MOVING LANDLORDS' MOTION

27. As set out in the First Supplement, the Monitor prepared and delivered responses to questions raised on the Twenty-Fifth Report by the Moving Landlords.
28. On September 20, 2018, the Court adjourned the Moving Landlords' Motion at their request. The Moving Landlords' Motion was rescheduled to October 16, 2018.
29. On September 27, 2018, the Moving Landlords delivered questions on the Monitor's prior responses. On October 3, 2018, the Monitor delivered responses to the questions on its prior responses. A copy of the Moving Landlords' email of September 27, 2018 is attached as Appendix "E" hereto. A copy of the Monitor's further responses is attached at Appendix "F" hereto.
30. In their email of September 27, 2018, the Moving Landlords requested the Monitor to accede to their motion to vary the Claims Procedure Order, on the basis that it was now closer in time to the hearing of the deemed trust motion to be heard by the Court on November 1, 2018.
31. The Monitor, in its email of October 3, 2018, attached above at Appendix "C", responded that further delay was not appropriate.

32. The Moving Landlords responded by email on October 4, 2018 reiterating their position. A copy of that email is attached above at Appendix “D”.
33. The view of the Monitor remains as expressed in the Twenty-Fifth Report; it is necessary to address the Moving Landlords claims as one of the largest outstanding issues affecting the estate. The fact that the Moving Landlords’ Motion has now moved closer in time to the hearing of the deemed trust motion does not change that conclusion.

G. UPDATE REGARDING WEPP AND THE ERC RECEIVERSHIP MOTION

34. The Monitor, Employee Representative Counsel and representatives of Sears Canada Inc. have had a number of conversations with representatives of Service Canada and the Department of Employment and Social Development with respect to the Applicants’ former employees’ access to payments available through the WEPP and the proposed amendments (the “Amendments”) to the Wage Earner Protection Program Act, S.C. 2005, c. 47, s. 1 that were announced in the last Federal budget. Those amendments provide for an increase in the maximum amount that an employee can recover pursuant to the WEPP from approximately $3900 to $6400.
35. Further to those discussions, and in light of the November 1, 2018 hearing of the Employee Representative Counsel’s motion to lift the stay of proceedings to pursue an application for a bankruptcy order (the “Bankruptcy Application”) in respect of certain of the Applicants, Employee Representative Counsel has advised the Monitor of their intention to bring a motion to this Court (the “Receivership Motion”), prior to the hearing of the Bankruptcy Application, for the appointment of FTI Consulting Canada Inc. (“FTI”) as receiver for limited purposes pursuant to Section 243(1) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (a “Section 243 Receiver”).
36. The Monitor understands that in order for employees to have access to payments under the WEPP, certain triggering events must have occurred; those events include the appointment of a Section 243 Receiver, or the issuance of a bankruptcy order. Given that the Bankruptcy Application is intertwined with other motions in the CCAA Proceedings that are expected to be contested and potentially appealed, Employee Representative Counsel believes it appropriate to have the option of relying on a Section 243 Receiver in order to give former employees of the Applicants access to the WEPP, either when the Amendments have come into effect, or at such other earlier time as Employee Representative Counsel in consultation with the Monitor may determine having regards to the circumstances of the case and the timing of the Amendments.

37. As such, the Receivership Motion contemplates that the appointment of the Section 243 Receiver would not become effective until service on the Service List of a certificate advising of the date on which the appointment of the Section 243 Receiver will begin.
38. The Section 243 Receiver would be appointed over limited assets of those Applicants who are former employers and its role would consist mostly of facilitating employees' claims against the WEPP.
39. The Monitor understands that Employee Representative Counsel will be serving the Receivership Motion materials before the end of the week ending October 12, 2018.

The Monitor respectfully submits to the Court this, its Twenty-Sixth Report.

Dated this 11th day of October, 2018.

ORDER

THIS MOTION, made by Winners Merchants International L.P. (“Winners”), pursuant to the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”), for a declaration that the stay of proceedings (the “Co-Tenancy Stay”) provided in paragraph 15 of the Initial Order of the Honourable Mr. Justice Hainey dated June 22, 2017, as amended and restated on July 13, 2017 (the “Initial Order”) and as extended by subsequent orders made in this proceeding, ceased to be of any force or effect as against Winners, and other relief, proceeded by way of videoconference via Zoom at Toronto, Ontario, due to the COVID-19 crisis.

ON READING the Notice of Motion of Winners, the Affidavit of Dean Michaels, sworn September 1, 2020 and the exhibits attached thereto, and on hearing submissions for Winners, FTI Consulting Canada Inc., as Court-appointed Monitor, and such other counsel as were present, no one else appearing, although duly served as appears from the Affidavit of Service of Laura Herd sworn November 20, 2020.

1. THIS COURT ORDERS that the time for service of the Notice of Motion and the Motion Record of Winners is hereby abridged and validated so that this Motion is properly returnable today and hereby dispenses with further service thereof.

2. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Co-Tenancy Stay is of no further force or effect as against Winners and Winners is accordingly entitled to exercise forthwith any rights that it may have against the landlord under its lease at Pen Centre, located at 221 Glendale Ave., St. Catherines, Ontario (the “Winners Lease”) arising from the failure of any of the Applicants to operate at Pen Centre (the “Co-Tenancy Rights”).

3. THIS COURT DECLARES, for greater certainty, that the Co-Tenancy Stay did not suspend or delay the running of any time periods that under the Winners Lease give rise to the exercise of Co-Tenancy Rights, and Winners is at liberty to exercise its Co-Tenancy Rights in accordance with the Winners Lease.

4. THIS COURT ORDERS that the provisions of this Order are not intended to grant upon the moving party, Winners, any greater rights than those provided in the Winners Lease.

5. THIS COURT ORDERS that there shall be no costs of this Motion.
