GUIDE TO THE CLAIMS AND DISTRIBUTION PROTOCOL

This document is intended as a guide to understanding the Claims and Distribution Protocol. If anything in this summary is inconsistent with any provisions in the Claims and Distribution Protocol, the provisions in the Claims and Distribution Protocol will apply.

Background

Between 2011 and 2012, class actions were commenced against Sino-Forest and certain other defendants, including one of Sino-Forest's auditors, Ernst & Young LLP ("E&Y"). Subsequently, the plaintiffs in the class actions entered into a settlement with E&Y. Pursuant to the settlement agreement, E&Y will pay $117,000,000 into a settlement trust to be distributed (after certain deductions and subject to certain exclusions) to the following persons and entities, referred to as "Securities Claimants":

All persons, wherever they may reside, who acquired any securities of Sino-Forest including securities acquired in the primary, secondary, and over-the-counter markets.

Q: What is the Claims and Distribution Protocol?

On March 20, 2013, the court approved the quantum of the settlement with E&Y. However, the method of distributing and allocating the $117,000,000 was left to be determined at a later date. The court ordered that the lawyers representing the Securities Claimants ("Class Counsel") were to devise a method of distributing those funds to Securities Claimants. The document that sets out the method of distribution is called the "Claims and Distribution Protocol."

Q: How much money will be distributed to Securities Claimants?

The $117,000,000 must be distributed to a variety of entities. Before being distributed to Securities Claimants, certain expenses must be deducted from that amount. Those expenses include lawyer fees, administration fees and payment to a third-party funder.

The amount that remains after the deduction of those expenses is called the "EY Compensation Fund."

Q: How will the money be distributed?

The group of Securities Claimants that held Sino-Forest notes as of January 16, 2013 ("Noteholders") will receive a lump sum payment of $5,000,000 to be distributed amongst themselves. The Noteholders will not be entitled to any further distributions from the EY Compensation Fund.

PLEASE NOTE: Only notes that were held as of January 16, 2013 will be treated in this manner. Claims for notes that were disposed of prior to January 16, 2013 will be treated in accordance with the steps below.

The Claims and Distribution Protocol sets out a process for calculating the amount of money that each Securities Claimant will receive from the EY Compensation Fund (after the distribution to Noteholders). There are a number of steps in this calculation.

Step 1: Calculating a Securities Claimant's loss

The first step is determining the Securities Claimant's loss from the acquisition of Sino-Forest securities.

To do this, the purchase price of the securities must first be determined. This is done by applying "first-in first-out" methodology ("FIFO") to all purchases of each different type of securities held by a Securities Claimant. The different types of securities are set out at paragraph 10(e) of the Claims and Distribution Protocol. The purchase price of each type of security after applying FIFO is called the adjusted cost base ("ACB") for those particular securities.

For each type of securities purchased, the damages for those purchases are calculated as follows:

Time of Sale of Securities	Damages
Sold before June 2, 2011	No damages
Sold from June 3 to August 25, 2011	(#of securities sold) X (ACB - Sale Price)
Sold or held after August 25, 2011
Shares	(#of shares sold or held) X (ACB per share - CAD$1.40)
2013 Notes	(#of notes sold or held) X (ACB per note - USD$283)
2014 Notes	(#of notes sold or held) X (ACB per note - USD$276.20)
2016 Notes	(#of notes sold or held) X (ACB per note - USD$283)
2017 Notes	(#of notes sold or held) X (ACB per note - USD$289.80)

Step 2: Calculating Offset Profits

The next step is calculating the "Offset Profits." If a Securities Claimant sold securities before June 2, 2011 (the date that the Muddy Waters report was released), that person may have inadvertently profited from the alleged misconduct at Sino-Forest. In order to remove the impact of these sales, profits attributable to the artificial inflation will be offset by subtracting them from losses. This will only apply to securities purchased after March 19, 2007.

Step 3: Calculating Compensable Damages

The damages for each type of securities purchased are reduced by subtracting the Securities Claimant's Offset Profits for those purchases to obtain "Compensable Damages".

Step 4: Assigning a Risk Adjustment Factor to Determine Compensable Loss

The next step is assigning a "Risk Adjustment Factor" to the different types of securities. Sino-Forest issued a variety of securities by different methods at different times. For example, a Securities Claimant may have acquired Sino-Forest i) shares via one or more prospectus offering; ii) notes via one or more offering memorandum; or iii) shares or notes on the secondary market (e.g. the Toronto Stock Exchange) or on the Over-the-Counter market in the United States.

In addition, different Securities Claimants acquired and disposed of different securities at different times.

The type of security acquired, the method by which they were acquired, and the timing of the acquisition and disposition of those securities gives rise to different legal issues. Accordingly, the legal claims attaching to one type of security may be stronger or weaker than the claims attached to a different type of security. Class Counsel has assessed the relative strengths and weaknesses of different types of claims, and has assigned a different Risk Adjustment Factor to each of them. Stronger claims are assigned a higher Risk Adjustment Factor than weaker claims.

To determine a claimant's "Compensable Loss", the Compensable Damages for each type of security is multiplied by the Risk Adjustment Factor found in the table at paragraph 10(e) of the Claims and Distribution Protocol. The sum of those items for each claimant is the Securities Claimant's Compensable Loss.

Step 5: Pro Rata Allocation of Funds

After each Securities Claimant's Compensable Loss is determined, the balance of the EY Compensation Fund (after the $5,000,000 payment to Noteholders as described above) will be allocated to eligible claimants other than the Noteholders on a pro rata basis based upon each claimant's Compensable Loss.

Step 6: Claims under $5.00

Securities Claimants who's pro rata allocation described in Step 6 is less than $5.00 will not be paid out. Instead, those amounts will be allocated pro rata to other eligible Securities Claimants.

Step 7: Payments to Securities Claimants

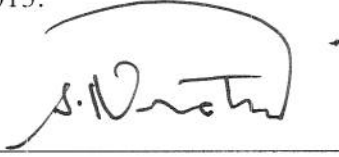

The claims administrator will make payment to Securities Claimants by either bank transfer or cheque.

Step 8: Remaining Amounts

If a Securities Claimant does not cash a cheque within 6 months after the date of the cheque, the Securities Claimant shall forfeit the right to compensation. Any amounts remaining will be held in the settlement trust and paid out for the purposes of future disbursements in the different class actions.

If there are full and final settlements or judgments in the class actions, then payment of any remaining balance from the settlement trust will be determined by the court.

This is Exhibit "B" mentioned and referred to in the Affidavit of Serge Kalloghlian, sworn before me at the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario, this 9th day of December, 2013.

for the following reasons (please attach extra pages if you require more space):

1. We purchased Sino-Forest shares as Canadian residents on the secondary market during the period June 3, 2011 – August 25, 2011.
 2. We did not file a proof of claim in the CCAA proceeding for Sino-Forest. We never received any notification about such a proceeding.

3. We object to providing any allocation of proceeds from the settlement with Ernst & Young to "Noteholders" based on their status as holders on January 16, 2013. The E&Y settlement proceeds properly belong to purchasers of Sino-Forest securities during the period when misrepresentations were being made to us. The allocation of $5 million from the E&Y settlement to Noteholders, who have already received Newco shares in the CCAA reorganization plan, deprives purchaser class members of consideration that is rightfully ours.

4. We object to the preferential treatment (a higher Risk Adjustment of 0.25) proposed to be given to secondary market Canadian share purchasers after June 2, 2011, who filed a proof of claim in the CCAA proceeding, as compared to those who did not (Risk Adjustment of 0.15), like us.

5. It is our position that it is unlawful and improper to apply CCAA procedures to this class action settlement with a non-applicant third party defendant.

6. We never received notice of any alleged requirement to file a proof of claim in the CCAA proceeding with respect to our ability to claim recoveries from non-applicant third party defendants like E&Y.

7. Even if we had received notice, there was no indication in the CCAA Claims Procedure Order that E&Y was a person that could claim contribution or indemnity from Sino-Forest such that our claim would allegedly be barred if we did not file a proof of claim.

I DO NOT intend to appear at the hearing of the motion to approve the Claims and Distribution Protocol and Class Counsel Fee Request, and I understand that my objection will be filed with the court prior to the hearing of the motion at 10:00 a.m. on December 13, 2013, at 330 University Ave., 8th Floor Toronto, Ontario.

Subject: "Sino-Forest Corporation – Ernst & Young Settlement Distribution Protocol and Fee Hearing"

NOTICE OF OBJECTION

I, Enrico Buzzi, am a current noteholder of Sino-Forest Corporation (as of January 16, 2013 and at present).

I acknowledge that pursuant to the order of Mr. Justice Morawetz dated October 23, 2013 (the "Order"), persons wishing to object to the Claims and Distribution Protocol or the Class Counsel Fees request are required to complete and deliver this Notice of Objection to Siskinds LLP by mail, courier or email to be received by no later than 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on November 29, 2013.

I hereby give notice that I object to the Claims and Distribution Protocol for the following reasons:

1. I am a "Noteholder" as defined in the CCAA Plan of Compromise and Reorganization of Sino-Forest.

2. I understand that, under the Distribution Protocol, Noteholders are allocated to receive $5,000,000 from the settlement with Ernst & Young out of a total $117,000,000 settlement consideration.

3. I have read the "Endorsement" issued by Justice Morawetz on March 20, 2013, approving the settlement. Justice Morawetz described the $117,000,000 settlement as a distribution to SFC's creditors in the CCAA proceeding (para. 60); that distribution of the settlement proceeds is an objective of the CCAA reorganization Plan (para. 62); that Ernst & Young's settlement payment of $117,000,000 is a "significant contribution" "to the Plan" (para. 63); that the "shareholders and Noteholders of SFC" as plaintiffs in the class action have asserted claims "against SFC that are being directly satisfied, in part with the payment of $117 million by Ernst & Young" (para. 67); and generally that the Ernst & Young settlement payment is being made as an important part of the CCAA reorganization Plan (paras. 58-80).

4. I have read section 6(8) of the CCAA, which states: "No compromise or arrangement that provides for the payment of an equity claim is to be sanctioned by the court unless it provides that all claims that are not equity claims are to be paid in full before the equity claim is to be paid."

5. It is my understanding that according to Justice Morawetz's Endorsement, the Ernst & Young settlement is a compromise or arrangement under the CCAA. One provision of the Distribution Protocol is an allocation of most of the settlement proceeds to class members who were share purchasers, and whose claims therefore are "equity claims". I and the other Noteholders have not been paid in full on our non-equity claims, and the shortfall is well in excess of the amount of the Ernst & Young settlement amount.

6. Therefore, I object that, based on the Court's reasoning, the Distribution Protocol is in violation of section 6(8) of the CCAA, in that the entire proceeds of the Ernst & Young settlement must be paid to me and the other Noteholders as non-equity claimants.

I DO NOT intend to appear at the hearing of the motion to approve the Claims and Distribution Protocol and Class Counsel Fee Request, and I understand that my objection will be filed with the court prior to the hearing of the motion at 10:00 a.m. on December 13, 2013, at 330 University Ave., 8th Floor, Toronto, Ontario.

RE: SINO-FOREST CORPORATION — ERNST & YOUNG SETTLEMENT DISTRIBUTION PROTOCOL AND FEE HEARING

I, Gordon Liming Jiang__ (please check all boxes that apply):
(insert name)

- am a current shareholder of Sino –Forest Corporation
- am a former shareholder of Sino –Forest Corporation
- am a current noteholder of Sino –Forest Corporation
- am a former noteholder of Sino –Forest Corporation
- other (please explain)

I acknowledge that pursuant to the order of Mr. Justice Morawetz dated October 23, 2013 (the “Order”), persons wishing to object to the Claims and Distribution Protocol or the Class Counsel Fees request are required to complete and deliver this Notice of Objection to Siskinds LLP by mail, courier or email to be received by no later than 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on November 29, 2013. I hereby give notice that I object to the (please check all boxes that apply):

- Claims and Distribution Protocol
- Class Counsel Fee Request

for the following reasons (please attach extra pages if you require more space):

- (1) For current shareholders who bought Sino-Forest securities from June 3 to August 25, 2011 and did not sell the securities, #10 – (c) under “Allocation and Payment of EY Compensation Fund” in above Distribution Protocol calculates damages using

(#of shares sold or held) X (ACB per share - CAD$1.40)

I object to the above calculation. I think it should be:
(#of shares sold or held) X ACB per share.

- (2) #10 – (e) for Risk Adjustment, the above protocol uses 0.15 for current shareholders who bought Sino-Forest securities in secondary market from June 3 to August 25, 2011.

I object to the above calculation. I think it should be 1.0.

Here is my reason for above two objections. From June 3, 2011 to August 25, Sino-Forest denied Muddy Waters' allegations. Allen Chan, the then CEO and president of Sino-Forest, made public speech by video in the company's website to deny the fraudulence and kept cheating investors. Up to and through August 26, 2011, Sino-Forest's audit financial statements were not withdrawn, it did not admit to any fraudulent conduct. In fact, E&Y did not withdraw its audit opinion on the company's financial statements until 2012, long after the stock was cease-traded in TSX by OSC on August 26, 2011. There is no reason to subtract CAD$1.40 for the current shareholders' damage calculation because E&Y misled investors both before and after August 26, 2011. By the time E&Y withdrew its audit opinion, the shareholders had no way to sell the security in the market because the stock had already been delisted in TSX. Thus the subtracting of CAD$1.40 simply does not make any sense.

What is the reason to use Risk Adjustment? Current shareholders are entitled to get full amount they paid for the original purchase of the stock subtracting lawyer fees and administration fees. If the 117 million dollar is not sufficient to recover investors' loss, then more settlement fund should be acquired from E&Y and Sino-Forest. Fraudulence in stock market is not a business issue. It is a crime. Investors are the victims of the crime. They should get full compensation, not 15% of their loss. Criminal charges should be laid on the responsible in E&Y and Sino-Forest Corporation, including Chan, Horsley, Poon, Wang, Martin, Mak, Murray, Hyde, Ardell, Bowland, and West. All money these people made by publicly listing the stock in TSX should be confiscated and used to repay investors. Justice must be done!

Regarding Class Counsel Fee Request, the lawyer fees plus disbursements, taxes, and payment to CFI would take too large portion of the E&Y settlement. I object to the Class Counsel Fee Request.

I DO NOT intend to appear at the hearing of the motion to approve the Claims and Distribution Protocol and Class Counsel Fee Request, and I understand that my objection will be filed with the court prior to the hearing of the motion at 10:00 a.m. on December 13, 2013, at 330 University Ave., 8th Floor Toronto, Ontario.

for the following reasons (please attach extra pages if you require more space):

See attached page.

In 1999 I considered the purchase of a number of stocks and as a long term value investor, undertook a variety of analysis to support my purchase decision including: comparable company trading analysis; reviewing research analysts' estimates etc. Based on my analysis, I ultimately acquired 15,000 shares of Sino-Forest on June 28, 1999 and continue to own the same 15,000 shares today. Subsequent to my purchase, I periodically reviewed financial metrics derived from Sino-Forest's audited financial statements and considered associated valuation ratios and based on this information, continued to hold the shares. It now appears as though the audited financial statements that formed the basis of the analysis inaccurately portrayed the financial position of the Company.

I hereby object to the Proposed Settlement on the basis that I am unable to participate in the class action, as my shares were acquired prior to the March 31, 2006 to August 26, 2011 timeframe. However, like the E&Y Settlement Class, I relied on data based on misrepresentative audited financial statements during the period in question to make on going investment decisions (ie. to hold or sell) which may have otherwise led me to sell the shares, thereby avoiding significant financial losses.

Furthermore, the Proposed Settlement would "settle, extinguish and bar" all further claims against Ernst & Young which would unduly preclude me reaching a settlement agreement with E&Y.

Not properly explained the

Dear Ms. Young,

Please accept the attached document as my response to the mailed documents I received in the mail yesterday. Because of the shortness of timing I have had to send my response by email and because my computer and current computer abilities, I have had to change the document from your current PDF format to a txt format. Therefore; to assist you in any changes to my responses on the document during the emailing process to you, I am confirming that I am a current shareholder of Sino-forest Corporation. I have checked both answers that I object to the Claims and Distribution Protocol and Class Counsel Fee Request. With reasons why! And, I do not intend to appear at the hearing of motion to approve all the claims or fees. Also, please accept this email as my signed response and note that I have used an X at the beginning of the statement(s) requiring a check. If you have any concerns with this email and its attachment, please advise.

Sincerely,

Larry Sagar
