Re: CFFI Ventures Inc. (the “CCAA Applicant”)

1. Notice of Commencement of CCAA Proceeding

On March 13, 2026, the Nova Scotia Supreme Court (the “Court”) granted an order (the “Initial Order”) commencing a proceeding under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the “CCAA”) in respect of the CCAA Applicant. The Initial Order provides that, among other things, until and including March 23, 2026, no proceedings or enforcement processes shall be commenced, continued, or enforced against or in respect of (a) the CCAA Applicant; or (b) any Person in which the CCAA Applicant holds a direct or indirect equity interest by reason of, among other things, the insolvency of the CCAA Applicant. The Court may extend the stay of proceedings by further order from time to time. The proceeding commenced under the CCAA is herein referred to as the “CCAA Proceeding”. FTI Consulting Canada Inc. is the Court-appointed monitor (the “Monitor”) of the CCAA Applicant. All capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings given to them in the Initial Order.

A hearing to consider certain additional relief in respect of the CCAA Proceeding is scheduled for March 23, 2026 (the “Comeback Hearing”). At the Comeback Hearing, any interested party who wishes to amend or vary the Initial Order may be entitled to appear or bring a motion before the Court in accordance with the requirements set out in the Initial Order. Court materials and updates as to the time and location of the Comeback Hearing will be made available on the Monitor’s website at <http://cfcanada.fticonsulting.com/CFFI> (the “Monitor’s Website”).

2. CCAA Initial Order

Pursuant to the Initial Order, all Persons having oral or written agreements with the CCAA Applicant, or statutory or regulatory mandates for the supply of goods, intellectual property, and/or services, including, without limitation, all computer software, communication and other data services, centralized banking services, cash management services, payroll services, insurance, transportation services, utility or other services to the Business or the CCAA Applicant, are restrained until further Order of the Court from discontinuing, altering, interfering with or terminating the supply of such goods or services as may be required by the CCAA Applicant, and that the CCAA Applicant is entitled to the continued use of their current premises, telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, internet addresses and domain names, provided in each case that the normal prices or charges for all such goods or services received after the date of the Initial Order are paid by the CCAA Applicant in accordance with normal payment practices of the CCAA Applicant or such other practices as may be agreed upon by the supplier or service provider and each of the CCAA Applicant and the Monitor, or as may be ordered by the Court.

No claims procedure has been approved by the Court and creditors are therefore not required to file a proof of claim at this time. If a claims process is later established and approved by the Court, the necessary documents will be posted on the Monitor’s Website.

If you would like copies of the materials filed in respect of the CCAA Proceeding or have any questions regarding the foregoing or require further information, please consult the Monitor's Website or contact the Monitor by calling (416)-649-8047 or toll free at 1-(833)-586-9340 or by emailing CFFI@fticonsulting.com.

Sincerely,
