CCAA Proceedings

On April 17, 2026, the Applicants obtained an order (the “Initial Order”) from the Court of King’s Bench of Alberta (the “Court”) commencing proceedings (the “CCAA Proceedings”) under the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act (the “CCAA”). The Initial Order provides for, among other things: (a) a stay of proceedings in favour of the Applicants until and including April 27, 2026 (the “Stay Period”), which may be extended from time to time; and (b) the appointment of FTI Consulting Canada Inc. as monitor of the Applicants (in such capacity, the “Monitor”).

A hearing to consider certain additional relief in respect of the CCAA Proceedings is scheduled for April 27, 2026 (the “Comeback Motion”). At the Comeback Motion, any interested party who wishes to amend or vary the Initial Order may be entitled to appear or bring a motion before the Court in accordance with the requirements set out in the Initial Order. Court materials and updates as to the time and location of the Comeback Motion will be made available on the Monitor’s website at <https://cfcanada.fticonsulting.com/CanadaBis> (the “Monitor’s Website”).

As detailed in its materials, the Company’s stated objective in commencing the CCAA Proceedings is to provide the stability necessary to preserve liquidity and implement a restructuring while continuing to operate the business.

The Applicants expect to have sufficient funding throughout the CCAA proceedings to enable it to continue operating as the Company considers its various options available.

CCAA Initial Order

Pursuant to paragraph 12(b) of the Initial Order, during the Stay Period, all persons having oral or written agreements or arrangements with the Applicants are hereby restrained until further order of the Court from discontinuing, altering, interfering with, suspending or terminating the supply of such goods or services as may be required by the Applicants or exercising any other remedy provided under such agreements or arrangements. The Applicants shall be entitled to the continued use of its current premises, telephone numbers, facsimile numbers, internet addresses and domain names, provided in each case that the usual prices or charges for all such goods or services received after the date of the Order are paid by the Applicants in accordance with the payment practices of the Applicants, or such other practices as may be agreed upon by the supplier or service provider and each of the Applicants and the Monitor, or as may be ordered by the Court.

No claims process has been approved by the Court and creditors are therefore not required to file a proof of claim at this time. If a claims process is later established and approved by the Court, the necessary documents will be posted on the Monitor's website.

If you would like copies of the materials filed in respect of the CCAA Proceedings or have any questions regarding the foregoing or require further information, please consult the Monitor's Website or contact the Monitor by calling 416-649-8051 or toll free at 833-811-1792, or by emailing CanadaBis@fticonsulting.com
